Groot opwinding by die Melkstal

“By Melkstal heers daar groot opwinding om ons kliënte bekend te stel aan ons nuutste innoverende uitbreiding. Ons het ‘n behoefte onder die plaaslike gemeenskap identifiseer met betrekking tot die beskikbaarheid van kuns en ander oulike nuwighede waarvoor ons gemeenskap tans noodgedwonge na die groot stede moet optrek. Hoekom? het ons gewonder - as ons eie gemeenskap die interessante produkte hier op ons eie drumpel vervaardig? Die Melkstal se voortuin word letterlik in ‘n absolute oase omskep deur koeltebome wat ‘n gewone tuin in die ideale kunstenaars-omgewing verander waar skeppingstalend vloei en kunstenaars met oorgawe geïnspireer word tot groter hoogtes. Ons gaan hierdie ideale area omskep in die Melkstal se eie Familiemark waar die gemeenskap hulle produkte kan kom uitstal en direk aan die publiek te koop aanbied. Selfs die jonger generasie kuier te lekker saam en hier sal elke laaste Saterdag van die maand beslis iets wees wat almal se belangstelling sal prikkel”. (218852) (Foto: Cecile Volschenk)

Griet vier 100ste verjaardag

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Griet Naudé het op Sondag 23 Augustus 2020 haar 100ste verjaardag tydens 'n heerlike geselligheid saam met familie gevier.

Griet is in 1920 in die Rustenburg-omgewing gebore en het die grootste deel van haar lewe op Paardekraal gewoon. Sy woon tans by haar enigste oorlewende dogter, Annetjie Niehaus op Zuurplaat. Griet het drie kinders, een seun Hendrik (Spyker - reeds oorlede) en twee dogters (Susan van Niekerk - reeds oorlede) en Annetjie gehad. Haar aangetroude kinders is vir haar soos haar eie, Ansie Naudé, Dirk van Niekerk en Fanie Niehaus. Sy het 12 van haar eie kleinkinders en 8 aangetroud, 30 agterkleinkinders en 2 agter-agterkleinkinders. Sy sê nou nog haar "standerd 2"-gedig, "Dirkie Uys" vlot uit haar kop op en so ook vele ander gedigte wat sy geleer het. Haar geheue is nog uitstekend en sy vergeet min dinge.

"Sy is 'n ongelooflike vrou vir wie ons almal baie lief is. Haar kleinkinders het van die Kaap af gekom om hierdie besondere gebeurtenis te vier." As dit nie vir Covid-19 was nie, was haar kleinkind, Alta Labuschagne van Australië ook hier. Griet is Marnus Labuschagne (Australiese-krieketspeler) se oumagrootjie. Baie geluk met hierdie wonderlike mylpaal!

Lebohang's road to living her dream on the frontline

RUSTENBURG HERALD - THABAZIMBI - For thousands of South African health workers, the Covid-19 pandemic has been the most stressful and testing time of their careers – and many of them are women.

But Lebohang Rasepae, an auxiliary nurse at Amandelbult Hospital in Thabazimbi, Limpopo, wouldn't have it any other way. From a young age, she knew she wanted to be a nurse, so she's living her dream. Lebohang has been working at the hospital, which services the community around Anglo American's Tumela Mine, since 2006. In this time, she's worked across a range of disciplines, including the medical, surgical and TB wards. She's currently in the emergency ward, which is literally on the frontline of the fight against the pandemic. "It is challenging. Our workload has increased, and it's tough when our colleagues get ill, and seeing the death toll. Social distancing is just not possible in bedside nursing. But this pandemic has taught me that life is short, and we all need to live our lives to the fullest," says Lebohang. For Lebohang, surviving this moment in history starts by sticking to the basics: wearing masks and personal protective equipment (PPE), washing her hands, sanitising and practising social distancing. And while she hasn't had much time to think about Women's Month this year, she's clear that the country needs to do a hard reset on its attitudes to women as part of our response to the pandemic. Her advice for the next generation of women is simple: "I encourage all young women to educationally empower themselves. That is the only way to secure your future, and carve a niche for yourself as an ambitious woman in this world."

Lebohang Rasepae.

Loop lig vir dié “speurder”

RUSTENBURG HERALD – RUSTENBURG – Indien jou voertuig onlangs gesteel is, wees maar agterdogtig indien jy 'n oproep van die "ondersoekbeampte" ontvang.

Volgens plaaslike polisiewoordvoerder, kapt Elsabé Augoustides, is Rustenburg Polisie bewus van voorvalle waar 'n persoon wat homself as 'n voertuigdiefstalspeurder voordoen, motordiefstalslagoffers kontak en hulle uit geld uit probeer bekonkel. "Die persoon skakel slagoffers en vertel hulle hy het hul gesteelde voertuig opgespoor. Hy voer dan aan dat hy die voertuig kan gaan haal, maar dat hulle vir hom 'n bedrag moet e-wallet," vertel Rustenburg Polisiewoordvoerder, kapt Elsabé Augoustides. Nodeloos om te sê, die slagoffer is dan, behalwe sy motor, boonop geld ook kwyt. Kapt Augoustides gee die versekering dat 'n polisiebeampte nooit ooit geld durf vra om 'n saak af te handel nie. "Indien jou pad met dié skurmunkel s'n kruis, kontak asseblief onmiddellik jou naaste polisie-stasie of die régte ondersoekbeampte wat jou saak ondersoek," vra kapt Augoustides.

Little girl dies in Helen Joseph accident

RUSTENBURG HERALD – RUSTENBURG – Police here are investigating a case of culpable homicide after an eight-year-old girl died in a car crash on Wednesday evening (19 Augustus).

The accident happened just after 18:00 in Helen Joseph Drive, just after the Arend Drive turn-off. According to the police, the 29-year-old driver of the white Toyota bakkie, Kenneth Shonogwane, claims that he felt the vehicle shudder just as he was crossing the bridge. He says after the shudder, he lost control of the vehicle. The bakkie rolled, slinging his 39-year-old sister-in-law and her two children – eight –and three-years-old respectively – from the vehicle. Shonogwane's sister-in-law and three-year-old little boy sustained serious injuries, while the eight-year-old girl succumbed to her injuries. According to eyewitness reports on social media, the bakkie travelled at high speed when the accident happened, allegedly ignoring the red traffic light at the crossing of Helen Joseph Drive and Arend Road. The drivers of other vehicles said they had to swerve desperately to avoid being hit by the bakkie before it rolled.

DA persistence results in the installation of 3-million litre water reservoir

DA Councillor Martin Coetzee - Councillor of Ward 17 Rustenburg with the new 3 mega litre Tierkloof reservoir in the background.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Following pressure from the Democratic Alliance (DA) and community members, Rustenburg Local Municipality and National Department of Water have developed a new reservoir to supply water to parts of Cashan, the so-called "River area" and Safari Gardens extensions areas.

For years these areas have been plagued by water interruptions, the areas were serviced by a 240-kilolitres steel tank. Due to the increase in the demand for water, water interruptions become a problem which bothered residents for quite some time. At times the situation was so bad that residents in the area were often stranded without water for extended periods of time. DA councillors and residents raised the issue with the municipality as far back as 2005, and in 2008 the item was added to the agenda for a new water reservoir to be approved by Council. Unfortunately, there was no further action taken, the DA followed up and continued to put pressure on each administration to address this. In 2017, the issue was raised in council and Rustenburg Local Municipality Mayor Mpho Khunou undertook to make a provision for the reservoir in the 2019/2020 budget. However, due to a downturn in the economy, this could not be fulfilled. The issue was then raised with the National Department of Water which intervened, the work was commissioned in June 2020 and completed on 31 July 2020. The new reservoir has a 3-million litre water capacity and will be able to service the area for many years to come. It is unfortunate that residents had to wait so long to have access to a dependable water supply. The municipality needs to act with urgency when addressing service delivery concerns, instead of waiting for residents to escalate matters or protest, Mr Martin Coetzee, DA Councillor of Ward 17 said. This supply of water will ensure that the community no longer suffers from extended water interruptions. The DA will continue to work hard to ensure that residents receive quality services, Coetzee concluded.

Relief for community with food donation

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG -Engen has partnered with the Gift of the Givers to provide food relief and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) to the community neighbouring the Engen Depot in Rustenburg.

Stepping in to help, Engen and Gift of the Givers distributed 250 pre-packed food hampers and 250 PPE masks to the community who said that whilst the national Lockdown was flattening the curve, hunger was currently their greatest concern.

Engen's Managing Director and CEO, Yusa' Hassan says Engen's caring spirit drives it to step up and take proactive steps to assist vulnerable community members in these challenging times.

"We truly care for those impacted by the pandemic and we hope to bring some relief to our depot neighbours in need during the national lockdown, which has had a severe impact on many vulnerable households in the Rustenberg area," says Hassan.

Ever mindful of its role as an agent of positive change, Engen continues to focus on supporting organisations like the Gift of the Givers and FoodForward SA in assisting vulnerable communities. As such, Engen's contribution to the fight against COVID-19 and the impact of the national lockdown has included a number of targeted investments. Fuel to the value of R1 million was given to FoodForward SA to power their food aid delivery vehicles in their quest to expand their distribution of nutritious food to our country's most vulnerable people.

"While we know it will take much more to alleviate the stress that many of our neighbours are facing, we hope our contribution will make a small difference to each person who receives the comfort of a helping hand as a result of our efforts," adds Hassan.

Soveelste ongeluk by Olifantsnek eis VLU-bestuurslid

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - In Vrouelandbou-uniekringe (VLU) is daar skok en verbystering na die skokdood van 'n VLU-bestuurslid Sondagoggend omstreeks 11:00.

Die bekende VLU-persoonlikheid, ma en eggenote, Annemarie van Niekerk (53) van Derby is op slag gedood toe die voertuig waarin sy 'n passasier was, in 'n kop-aan-kop-botsing met 'n swaarvragmotor betrokke was. Mev Van Niekerk se eggenoot (Koos 55) is in 'n ernstige toestand in 'n Rustenburgse hospitaal opgeneem.

Annemarie was voorsitter van die Derby-VLU en vise-voorsitter van die Platinastreek.

Volgens die woordvoerder van die polisie in Rustenburg, kaptein Elsabé Augoustides, was die Van Niekerk-egpaar in hul ligte Nissan 200-bakkie onderweg vermoedelik op pad terug na Derby, toe hulle in die botsing betrokke was. Die vragmotor was van Johannesburg na Rustenburg onderweg, het kapt Augoustides gesê. Die bestuurder van die vragmotor, Samuel Mocheche, sou allerlei besittings van Zimbabwiese-burgers wat graag na hul land wou terugkeer, hier kom oplaai. Die presiese oorsaak van die ongeluk is nie bekend nie. Die vragmotor was na bewering egter enkele oomblikke voor die noodlottige ongeluk, ook betrokke in 'n ligte botsing met 'n Volkswagen Tiguan wat in dieselfde rigting as die vragmotor gereis het. Die bestuurder van die Tiguan, Solomon Moseamedi, is nie beseer nie.

Wyle Annemarie van Niekerk.

Cataracts and Arthritis are the same thing

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - “.... the doctor was literally bragging about my husband to his nurse today saying “this guy was amazing last week ... he was such a trooper with the amount of laser he let me do on his eye.

I’ve never had anyone endure so much laser for so long.”

Due to him tolerating it that well, the doctor was hopefully able to repair the massive tear in his retinal wall without doing real surgery.

Thank you for getting him sorted out and drinking his CalMag-C just at the right time!” - Donna B, Tennessee.

The reason the MelloMagC helped his procedure is that calcium gluconate is the best painkiller available. Calcium plays so many roles in our bodies.

Did you know that cataracts and arthritis are the same thing? They are both depository diseases.

The only difference is where they appear. In your eyes, it’s called cataracts. In your joints it’s called arthritis. A lack of calcium allows cataracts to form!

In the same way that those suffering heartburn or reflux take antacids to resolve the problem when the problem is actually that they have a deficiency of acid, so people don’t take calcium when they have arthritic problems, believing it to be the problem. It is the problem - but it’s a deficiency problem.

Calcium also needs magnesium to work properly and these two minerals must be correctly balanced. In order for your body to use calcium efficiently, it needs to be in a 2:1 ratio with magnesium and another vitally important factor is the pH.

Calcium and magnesium are two of the most basic nutrients a person needs and a keystone for a good health program. Don’t leave your calcium and magnesium supplement to chance.

Get the correct data and you may unexpectedly resolve health issues you wouldn’t have related to the deficiency of calcium and magnesium.

“This is why we made Instant MelloMagC the way we did. It is a 2:1 calcium gluconate and magnesium carbonate combination with vitamin C to adjust the pH so your body can absorb and use it”. - LV Nutritional Products - (011) 452-8892/3.

SASSA
SOUTH AFRICAN SOCIAL SECURITY AGENCY

SASSA OPENS THE SYSTEM TO ALLOW SPECIAL COVID19 GRANT (R350) TO CHANGE METHOD OF PAYMENT – 31 AUGUST to 06 SEPTEMBER 2020

SASSA will once again open its system for approved applicants to change their preferred method of payment. Approved beneficiaries of the grant can change their payment method by visiting <https://srd.sassa.gov.za>, Monday 31 August to Sunday 06 September 2020, 24 hours a day.

Beneficiaries can change from receiving their grants at the post office through their personal bank accounts or from one bank to the other or cash transfer to their cellphones.

When choosing a bank account, ensure that the account is in your name (SASSA cannot pay money for one person into the account held by another) and it’s active. Applicants without bank accounts are encouraged to open a bank account. Payment of the COVID-19 grant is quicker if paid into a bank account.

Clients who have just been approved for the relief grant and have received an SMS to upload and verify their bank details, can do so at any time and need not wait for the window period. The sooner the details are uploaded, the quicker the payments can be made.

If you choose cash transfer, you must ensure that the cellphone numbers you provided to SASSA are registered in your own names and should have gone through the RICA process.

Any citizen who does not update their information between 31 August and 06 September 2020, or who provides incorrect banking details will receive payment for the remaining months through Post Office.

Clients who update their details are advised to ensure that their information is captured correctly to avoid any further delays.

Responses to frequently asked questions about this relief grant can be found on the whatsapp platform on 082 046 8553.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Sun City, the biggest single tourism industry employer in the North West province, will officially reopen for business NEXT Wednesday.

This comes after South Africa relaxed Covid-19 restrictions to allow for inter-provincial leisure travel under alert Level 2. Sun International confirmed that the resort, which employs around 3300 people, will be opening its doors again on 2 September.

Sun International group COO for hospitality Graham Wood welcomed the move to Level 2, which was announced by President Cyril Ramaphosa on Saturday. Considering that “the large majority of Sun City’s visitors are from outside North West” province, Wood is especially pleased that inter-provincial travel is now allowed. “To say we are delighted by this news would be an understatement. With inter-provincial travel restrictions lifted our tourist hotels and resorts such as Sun City Resort will finally be able to reopen.” It is unfortunate that the curfew could not be further relaxed, but we are grateful and relieved that our restaurants can again serve alcohol,” he added.

Sun City was the only casino resort within Sun International’s 12 gaming properties in South Africa that has not been trading since casinos were permitted to operate under Level 3 from July. Sun International is also yet to reopen its standalone hotel properties, which include the landmark Table Bay Hotel at Cape Town’s V&A Waterfront and the Maslow Hotel in Sandton.

More reopenings on the cards

The group decided not to reopen these hotels or the expansive Sun City resort as it “did not making financial sense” due to the ban on inter-provincial and international travel under Level 3. With the former now allowed, the group is considering reopening these hotels as well, even though international tourism is still banned. “Most of our casinos have been operating since 1 July and customers have been very supportive, but the curfew has hurt our business by reducing operating hours at a time when numbers on the floor already had to be limited, so we are hopeful that this can be relaxed or lifted soon,” Wood said. “Our current health and safety protocols will remain in place, and all Sun International properties now bear the World Travel and Tourism Council’s safe stamp of approval, verifying that the Covid-19 health and safety protocols we have in place meet international benchmarks,” he concluded.

Has your bank data been stolen?

RUSTENBURG HERALD – RUSTENBURG - South Africa’s major banking groups have responded to the major data breach at credit bureau Experian, where the personal details of as many as 24 million South Africans were exposed to a third party.

Experian, a consumer credit reporting company, said on Wednesday (19 August) that it experienced a breach of data which has exposed some personal information of as many as 24 million South Africans, and 793,749 business entities, to a suspected fraudster.

The breach has been reported to authorities, and South African banks have been working with Experian and South African Banking Risk Centre (Sabric) to identify which of their customers may have been exposed to the breach and to protect their personal information, even as the investigation unfolds.

“Our investigations indicate that an individual in South Africa, purporting to represent a legitimate client, fraudulently requested services from Experian,” the company said in a statement.

“The services involved the release of information which is provided in the ordinary course of business or which is publicly available.”

“We can confirm that no consumer credit or consumer financial information was obtained. Our investigations do not indicate that any misappropriated data has been used for fraudulent purposes.”

Experian added that its investigations show that the suspect had intended to use the data to create marketing leads to offer insurance and credit-related services

Customers are urged to remain vigilant against possible fraud and to:

- Never disclose usernames, passwords, PINs or One Time Pins (OTPs) when asked to do so by anyone via telephone, fax, text messages or even email, no matter how believable they are. African Bank will NEVER ask this information of you
- Change your passwords regularly and never share them with anyone.
- It is vitally important that you never give your Online Banking username and/or password to anyone.
- Never give your One Time PIN (OTP) to anyone.
- Never click on links in emails claiming to be from your bank (they will never send links in their correspondence).
- Be cautious of company names with web-based email addresses, e.g., junkmail@yahoo.com, @hotmail.com, @gmail.com, @ymail.com.
- Review your transactions regularly.
- Don’t expect to be selected as a winner if you haven’t participated in the lottery or other competitions.
- Never save your passwords to your browsers
- Change banking passwords on our digital banking platforms and social media passwords
- Contact the bank immediately if you suspect your bank account(s) or card(s) have been compromised
- Register with SAFPS for protective registration – if anyone tries to apply for banking products with your ID, it will be declined or referred for further review.

RUSTENBURG HERALD – RUSTENBURG - Hearing loss and deafness are either hereditary or commonly caused by congenital disease, traumatic head injury, certain medication, exposure to excessive loud noise or old age.

Permanent hearing loss (not deafness) is untreatable but can be managed by use of hearing aids, which can be obtained from the Audiology Department at Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital. “The Audiology Department intends to specifically target stigmas and myths surrounding people who are hard of hearing or deaf. People who are hard of hearing often choose not to wear their hearing aids in public because, unlike spectacles, it is considered unattractive and community members tease them. We would like to advise the community that loss of hearing comes as natural as loss of sight, there is absolutely no shame in wearing hearing aids”, said Audiologist, Didintle Mmokwa.

Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital, Audiology Department frequently receives complaints of disobedient children that ‘refuse’ to listen or follow instructions. At times that might be the reason, but often it may be due to an undiagnosed hearing loss. Parents in this situation are encouraged to arrange for their child’s hearing to be assessed at our department in order to determine whether their behavior is associated with a hearing loss.

The community is urged to be sensitive towards people with loss of hearing and deafness as well as actively play a role in learning simple sign language and communication strategies. Contact the Audiology Department on 014 590 5181 for more information.

What is Intimate Partner Violence?

In Light of Covid-19, gender based violence and intimate partner violence has climbed dramatically. Intimate partner violence is domestic violence by a current or former spouse or partner in an intimate relationship against the other spouse or partner.

IPV can take a number of forms, including physical, verbal, emotional, economic and sexual abuse.

The different types of violence that form part of Intimate Partner Violence: Physical violence is when a person hurts or tries to hurt a partner by hitting, kicking, or using another type of physical force. Sexual violence is forcing or attempting to force a partner to take part in a sex act, sexual touching, or a non-physical sexual event (eg sexting) when the partner does not or cannot consent. Stalking is a pattern of repeated, unwanted attention and contact by a partner that causes fear or concern for one's own safety or the safety of someone close to the victim. Psychological aggression is the use of verbal and non-verbal communication with the intent to harm another person mentally or emotionally and/or to exert control over another person.

How can we prevent Intimate Partner

Violence: Teach safe and healthy relationship skills, engage influential adults and peers, disrupt the developmental pathways toward partner violence, create protective environments, strengthen economic supports for families, support survivors to increase safety and lessen harms. If you feel you are a victim or require help contact Grace Help Centre - Crisis Line 072 348 6526.

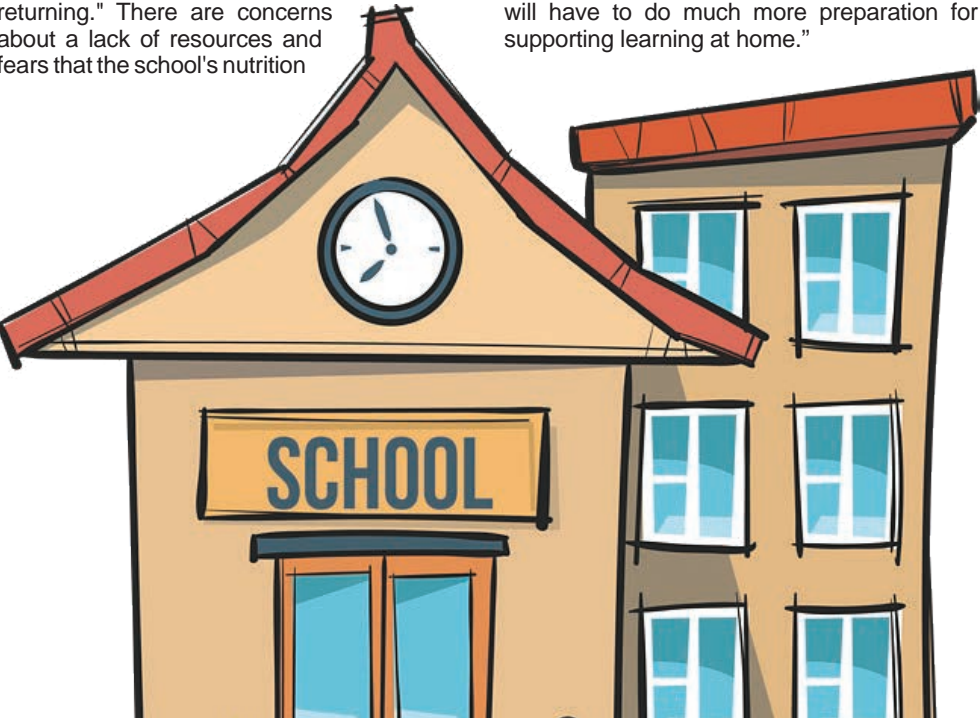

Tiresome holidays are over

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - On Monday of this week it was back to school for most learners in the country.

Some of the grades haven't been in class since the end of March this year. According to the new regulations, those in grades R, 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 9, 10 and 11 will return as will pupils attending Schools of Skill in years 1, 2 and 3.

"The department is ready," said Basic Education Department spokesperson Elijah Mhlanga. "You will remember that schools have been running from 3 August with Grade 12s, the Grade 7s the following week and non-teaching staff returned on the 17th. "That means that the system has already been warm and people were already in offices to prepare for the number of grades that are returning." There are concerns about a lack of resources and fears that the school's nutrition programme won't be ready to be rolled out. "With pupils returning now, it should be easier to handle the programme because the programme is a school-based programme," Mhlanga said. "With learners coming back, we should be able to feed all learners that benefit the programme." Education expert Professor Mary Metcalfe said what's important now is supporting all those involved in the education system. "Teachers have got an enormous amount of work to do in planning their teaching," she said. "What they teach as school can be reinforced by what children will practice at home. Which means teachers will have to do much more preparation for supporting learning at home."

VLU-Rustenburgtakdames reik uit

Die dames van die Vrouelandbou-unie Rustenburgtak het as deel van hulle 2020-gemeenskapsprojek troeteldierjassies en -kombersies gebrei en kos is ook ingesamel wat aan die Rustenburgse Dierebeskermingsvereniging (DBV) oorhandig is. Dankie aan Lynette Venter en die dames vir die harde werk.

Vroue Landbou-unie verwelkom Fase 2!

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Daar is glad nie stilgesit gedurende die grendeltyd nie, die VLU-dames het steeds gewoeker, hulle talente in hoogste rat geplaas en kan spog met "geen niksdoen"-tye se produkte.

Die feit dat daar tot 50 persone kan bymekaarkom, het nou die deure wyd oopgemaak vir VLU-byeenkomste om weer plaas te vind. Takvergaderings is normaalweg nie meer as 30 persone nie, en almal is behoorlik uitgehonger om hulle VLU-passie weer te laat inskop!

"Ons is almal verstandig en gaan geen kanse waag nie. Dit bly steeds elke lid se besluit om 'n vergadering by te woon. Daar moet sanitasie wees, daar moet maskers deurentyd gedra word en daar moet afstand gehou word! Kom dames, ons krui uit die winterslaap en durf die laaste deel van hierdie jaar aan met nuwe ywer! Baie dankie vir diegene wat steeds besig gebly het met VLU-sake en die wiel steeds laat rol het, al was dit effens stadiger". Wil jy ook aansluit? Skakel Pam by 082 452 2133.

Nah then, have a dollop of pudding, duckie

When you ask a famous chef like Gordon Ramsey what some of his favourite childhood food memories are, he is quick to answer that it must be his mom's shepherd's pie, roast potatoes and Yorkshire pudding. This week Zandra Emmanuel of Safari Gardens, Rustenburg will share her authentic recipe for this English staple. Zandra first travelled the world as an air hostess, before working for Sol Kerzner in the 1970's at the dawning of Sun International. She later worked very closely with Nelson Mandela as a public Relations professional and counts Madiba as one of her mentors. Born a Miss Coetzee, Zandra married an Englishman and moved to Yorkshire where her mother-in-law made sure the new addition to the family was instructed in the ways of this very traditional dish. The English mostly enjoys this dish as a savoury part, filled with gravy, of their main course of roast beef, but its versatility also lends it very well to be a sweet treat for after the meal. So, it's up to you what you do with this little fluffy gem – have it with gravy or soup, or fill it with custard (like we did!), fruit, cream or ice cream. The recipe could not be any simpler; you will need:

Click here on the new interactive Rustenburg Herald newspaper to see a video of this week's recipe <http://bit.ly/dollopofpudding>

Yorkshire pudding

Ingredients:

200g All Purpose Flour
220ml Milk
4 Eggs
Pinch of Salt and Pepper
Oil for baking

Method:

Pre-heat oven to 220°. Beat the eggs thoroughly until foamy. Add milk and mix again. Add flour, salt and pepper. Mix until the mixture resembles a thin pancake mixture. In a muffin pan, put a teaspoon of oil in each pocket. Put the muffin pan in the pre-heated oven in order for the oil to get boiling hot. Remove from the oven and half fill muffin tin pockets with mixture. Return the muffin tin to the oven and bake for 20 minutes.

Zandra Emmanuel is teaching us this week how to make versatile, and very delicious, Yorkshire pudding.

You can have Yorkshire pudding the traditional way – filled with meaty gravy – or you can have it with a sweet filling. We filled Zandra's with a thick homemade custard and was blown away with the similarity to an éclair.

Fokus nodig vir regte prioriteite

Die Rustenburgse Munisipaliteit sal goed doen om vir waarskynlik die eerste keer in 'n lang tyd 'n behoorlike opname te doen van gebrekkige en gebreekte infrastruktuur in en om ons “mooi” dorpie... Daar word elke jaar sonder uitsondering voorsiening gemaak vir 'n behoorlike begroting wat onder meer salarisverhogings vir raadslede insluit maar waarin ongetwyfeld meer verdienstelike sake soos instandhouding en opgradering van belangrike infrastruktuur agterweë gelaat word. Rustenburgse motoriste sal loshande in die meeste gevalle nie huiwer om saam te stem dat veral ons padverkeerstoestande en 'n oënskynlike tekort/gebrek aan doodeenvoudige verkeersinspekteurs en patrolling oor die afgelope vyf ses jaar veel te wense oorlaat. As ons mense rondom ons kyk, kan ons talle voorbeelde van tekortkoming in infrastruktuur en instandhouding identifiseer. Ons kan almal baat by 'n Rustenburgse Verkeersafdeling wat sy gemeenskap tot eer strek en 'n belangrike bydrae lewer om ten minste darem 'n betekenisvolle bydrae te lewer om Rustenburgse belastingbetalers 'n beter ondervinding op ons paaie en algemene verkeers- en veiligheidstoestande te bied.

As ons trouens, die afgelope paar jaar reeds om ons kyk, is dit moeilik om te sien hoekom nog 'n reeks salarisverhogings vir raadslede 'n oorweging, wat nog te sê van 'n prioriteit, is. Daar is geen manier waarop daar aangevoer kan word dat raadslede noodwendig in hierdie uitdagende tye 'n “redelike” salarisverhoging verdien terwyl ons infrastruktuur rondom ons meestal buite werking is of totaal en al ontbreek nie. Enigiemand sal jou kan vertel dat die oorgrote meerderheid van Rustenburg se gemeenskap in elk geval die afgelope seker vyf jaar al 'n uiters “konserwatiewe begroting” handhaaf en dat enige onkoste tot op die been gesny word. Mense, is dit dan nie letterlik 'n geval van lewe en dood nie?

Hoe kan ons in hierdie tye salarisverhoging vir raadslede oorweeg terwyl daar verkeersligte is wat nou al maande nie werk nie, half omgerig is, slaggate ons paaie gevaarlik maak, padverkeersmerke ontbreek terwyl straatligte nou al vir seker tien jaar dag in, dag uit onnodig brand? Die vraag mag naïef klink, maar het die munisipaliteit al ooit 'n opname gemaak van die hoeveelheid krag en geld wat sodoende en op ander maniere vermors word? Kon daar nie maar eers 'n besparing bewerkstellig word voordat nog 'n rits salarisverhogings goedgekeur word nie? Hoe lank kerm die Rustenburgse publiek al oor die onnodige vermorsing van krag en kosbare geld en kan daar juis in die lig van die voorgaande gereken word dat Rustenburgse raadslede inderdaad 'n verhoging verdien terwyl hulle as't ware vir jare al die klagtes en bekommernisse van die Rustenburgse Gemeenskap ignoreer?

Komaan man, niemand het nog ooit die twak van 'n wêreldklas-stad geglo nie, hoekom probeer ons nie liever 'n aanvaarbare een bou nie?

Focus needed for real priorities

The Rustenburg Municipality will do well to, probably for the first time in quite a long time, attempt a proper calculation of broken or lacking infrastructure in and around our little town. We couldn't help to notice, but every year more or less in April, provision is made in every year's municipal budget for an increase in the salaries of Councillors. This happens almost invariably, while it is evident that as a municipality, we have quite a few issues that need to be addressed which is not necessarily going to cost an arm and a leg.

Just for once however, a selfless gesture by Councillors to let the opportunity pass without increases (as our very own President has demonstrated more than once) would be prove a worthwhile investment.

Going without salary increases every now and then to allow for attention to minor eyesores in and around town (if Rustenburg's municipal budget is in that much restraint?) wouldn't be a bad idea.

It is not pleasing to see broken or lacking road traffic infrastructure and road markings when we take to the roads every morning. There are so many traffic lights that are not in working condition, so many road traffic signs in a bad state of disrepair while numerous potholes are a real threat to road safety.

Major pipe burst in Tlhabane

The editor
On Monday evening (24 August) a major pipe occurred in Tlhabane at the corner of Mokgethi and Mokale Street. The pipe is the main pipe from the Reservoir and you can imagine how strong the pressure is.

The incident was reported to the Rustenburg Local Municipality when it occurred on Monday night at 21:00, now it is Tuesday afternoon and the incident hasn't been resolved.

Millions and millions of litres of fresh water are being wasted and the sad part is that most of the houses are under water, which poses a risk because they can collapse.

We hope someone from the Municipality will see this letter and do something about this.

Concerned Tlhabane resident

Precious water wasted in Zinniaville

Clean drinkable water going to waste in Zinniaville.

The editor
I am writing this letter as the last resort because we have engaged the Rustenburg Local Municipality team on this matter with no success.

About month ago we reported a water leak in Zinniaville in Mangaan Street.

Currently we are still sitting with the problem and it has gotten even worse.

We followed the proper channels in reporting this and we were given a reference number of 90200.

To this day when we call the municipality to do a follow up we are unable to get help. In the meantime clean drinkable water is being wasted, this despite warnings from the municipality to use water sparingly.

Hope this problem will be resolved.

vir hulp na groot skok

Die redakteur,
Ek wil asseblief aan die manspersoon wie se naam ek ongelukkig nie kan onthou nie, net baie dankie sê dat jy daar was om my te help.

Op 15 Augustus 2020 het ek geld getrek by Sasol Garage (hoek van Boven- en Pres Mbeki) toe 'n man van agter ag knoppies druk en my kaart so steel.

Ek was in so groot skok en is jou ewig dankbaar dat jy my dadelik gehelp het om my kaart te stop en kalm gemaak het.

Waardeer jou baie, Maranda Esterhuizen.

Skole trap fiets vir hul personeel

Hoofde van buurskole tydens die beplanningsvergadering: Henk Pieterse (Laerskool Proteapark), Craig Olivier (Laerskool David Brink), Bernhard Roodt (Laerskool Vastrap) en Koos J van Vuuren (Laerskool Rustenburg).

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Leerders, oud-leerders en toekomstige leerders, asook vriende en familie word uitgenooi om hierdie projek te ondersteun. Laerskole Rustenburg, Vastrap, Proteapark en David Brink se onderwysers ondersteun Solidariteit se #TrapSaam-inisiatief en gaan fietstrap van Rustenburg tot in Port Elizabeth op 12 September by Just Gym Planet Fitness Life Style Centre.

“Ons gaan saam staan (eerder saam fietsry) om geld in te samel vir onderwysers wat deur die skole se beheerliggame betaal word. In hierdie tye het skole nie meer die voldoende fondse om hierdie beheerliggaamposte se salarisse onbepaald te onderhou terwyl ouers uitdagings ervaar om hul skoolfondsverpligtinge na te kom nie. Hierdie poste is noodsaaklik om ons klasgroepe minder as 35 leerders te hou,” het die hoofde van die skole aangedui.

Die skole se onderwysers gaan saam 'n virtuele fietsrymarathon aflê. Deelnemers begin die lang trap om 09:00 en beoog om teen 16:00 hul “bestemming” te bereik. Belangstellendes wat 'n donasie wil maak kan die skole help deur per kilometer te borg. Besoek die #TrapSaam Facebook blad van Solidariteit om 'n donasie aan die skool van u keuse te maak. Die marathon sal regstreeks vanaf Planet Fitness uitgesaai word op die sosiale media platforms van die onderskeie skole. Vir meer inligting kontak René Schoombee by tel 082 940 9957.

Vandag is Amoré du Plessis op die nippertjie van haar sang-droom bewaarheid. Dié graad 11-leerder van die Hoërskool Rustenburg is tans deel van die "Sing Aanlyn"- kompetisie en word deur 'n deurwinterde kunstenaar gementor om die beste van haar sangtalent te maak. Indien jy verlede jaar die video gesien het van die koor van die Hoërskool Rustenburg met hul byna ongelooflike weergawe van die rockgroep Queen se Bohemian Rhapsody, sou jy Amoré daar gesien het. Sy was ook een van die solo-sterre tydens die skool se vorige revue. "Ek hou van 'n wye verskeidenheid musiek. Eintlik is dit eenvoudig: ek hou van enige musiek wat emosie by my ontlok."

Amoré het ook al 'n hele paar van haar eie musiekvideo's op Youtube. Die kunstigheid en kwaliteit van dié produksies is treffend. "Jy sal my nie glo nie, maar meeste van die tyd is dit net ek en my ma wat dit skiet. En dan 'toor'n baie goeie vriend, SD Jacobs so bietjie vir die eindproduk," lag Amoré. Die verwerking van die musiek is weer 'n ander vriend, Hano van der Walt se handewerk. Hano is ook Amoré se duet sangmaat. Tot nou toe het Amoré meestal 'covers'van bekende liedjies gedoen, maar sy het nou begin om self lirieke te pen. Hano help met die toonset van dié lirieke en die twee hoop om eersdaags met hierdie oorspronklike liedjies te kan spog. Ja, Covid-19 het ook maar baie met haar jaar gemors, maar Amoré het aan haar drome en ideale vasgehou en deur die grendelstaat haar fokus op haar doelwit gehou. "Musiek is al wat ek met my lewe wil doen. Natuurlik is my eerste, tweede en derde keuse om te kan werk as kunstenaar, maar as daar iets onoorbrugbaars gebeur, sal ek graag as musiekterapeut wil werk," vertel Amoré. Maar dit sal 'n onreg wees as die wêreld nie die voorreg kry om dié Rustenburgse meisiekind se stem te kan geniet nie. Volg dié skakel <http://bit.ly/imaginejohnlennoninquarantine> / <http://bit.ly/staybyrihanna> om na van Amoré se musiekvideo's te kyk.

Matriekafskeidfoto's welkom

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "Soos ons almal weet het die Covid-19-pandemie die afgelope jaar en selfs langer se beplanning rondom Matriekafskeid 2020 skipbreuk laat ly.

Rustenburg Herald het die afgelope paar jaar reeds elke jaar 'n Matriekafskeid-fotokompetisie met aansienlike prysgeld aangebied. Ons besef uitersaad dat die kompetisie nie vanjaar soos in die verlede kan voortgaan nie. Ons wil nogtans aan matriekleeders en hul metgeselle/ouers wat hard gewerk het en baie beplanning rondom hulle voorgenome matriekafskeid gedoen het, die geleentheid gee om effens vir die teleurstelling te vergoed deur 'n fotogalery op ons webtuiste te skep waarop leeders/ metgeselle foto's van hulself en hul uitrustings en so meer waarvan baie waarskynlik lankal reeds voltooi was, in te skryf en te vertoon.

Omdat daar vanjaar nie 'n kompetisie met geen prysgeld op die spel is nie, kan foto's heeltemal gratis op ons webwerf ingeskryf word. Tree somer vandag nog met ons webwerf-administrateur, Zandré Strauss by (014) 592 8329 in verbinding of besoek ons webwerf by www.rustenburgherald.co.za vir meer besonderhede".
