Die op-en-af van 2020

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - 2020 was 'n jaar soos geen ander vantevore.

Niemand op aarde het al ooit 'n wêreldwye pandemie beleef wat lewens regoor die aardbol tot stilstand gedwing het nie. Ten spyte van inperking, het die nuus tog steeds gebeur. Mense het tragedies beleef, maar ook oor uitdagings getriomfeer en persoonlike sukses behaal. Die Noordwes Koerantgroep, waarvan Rustenburg Herald deel is, publiseer in Desember 'n baie spesiale digitale uitgawe waar ons terugkyk na 2020, die leed en teleurstelling, maar ook na die sege en sukses wat die jaar ingehou het.

Eskom clamps down on illegal connections

RUSTENBURG HERALD - MODDERSPRUIT, BAPONG - With the electricity demand escalating because of the fast approaching festive season, Eskom's North West Operating Unit intensified its campaign to curb illegal connections at Modderspruit, Bapong, by removing illegal connections within the area.

According to a statement by the Eskom Media Desk, five transformers were identified with a huge number of illegal connections and technicians then disconnected all those that were connected illegally.

"Due to the high number of illegal connections, there are increasing risks associated with repeated equipment failure and network overloading, which causes transformer and mini substation explosions. Illegal connections also put the lives of community members in danger of being electrocuted due to the live wires and lines," Eskom said.

The campaign took place on Thursday (3 December).

Rustenburg 'shutdown' concerns

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Rustenburg Local Municipality has expressed their dismay regarding messages doing the rounds on various social media platforms, calling for the 'shutdown' of Rustenburg.

"What is more concerning, is that these calls for chaos in the city are led by officials in the office of the MEC for Arts, Culture, Sports and Recreation in the North West-Hon. Tihapi Galebekwe. Further to that, we note that the MEC has been tagged in various social media posts calling for the city's 'shutdown'," spokesperson for the municipality, David Magae said.

"The calls for chaos follows hot on the heels of an ongoing disinformation campaign led by Lesiba Moraka, who is employed in the office of the MEC and Thabang Ngwenya. They falsely claim that the Executive Mayor- Cllr Mpho Khunou has knowledge and is responsible for the disappearance of a municipal owned BMW X5, which was never delivered," said Mr Magae added.

He said that the municipality will take action to defend all the municipal assets, including pursuing various legal avenues available against any individual(s), who is intend to cause disruptions in the city, while residents will become inconvenienced as a result of interruptions in service delivery.

Wat drink jy daar? - AfriForum maak Noordwes se blou-en-groendruppeluitslae bekend

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - AfriForum het van Augustus tot Oktober vanjaar verskeie dorpe in Noordwes se water getoets om die gehalte van dié dorpe se drink- (bloudruppelstatus) en rioolwater (groendruppelstatus) te bepaal.

Dié projek was vanjaar belangriker as ooit weens die COVID-19-pandemie en navorsing wat toon dat dié virus in rioolstelsels opgespoor kan word, wat beteken dat 'n mens brandpunte kan identifiseer.

Bloudruppeluitslae

"Ons kon vasstel dat die volgende dorpe se drinkwater aan die minimum standaard voldoen en geen skadelike bakterieë bevat nie: Klerksdorp, Potchefstroom, Stilfontein, Ventersdorp en Wolmaransstad. AfriForum sal die watergehalte deurlopend toets, want inwoners het 'n grondwetlike reg tot skoon drinkwater," sê Alta Pretorius, AfriForum se distrikskoördineerder vir die Mooirivier.

"In die Marico-distrik het ons bepaal dat die volgende dorpe se drinkwater aan die minimum standaard voldoen: Coligny, Groot-Marico, Hartbeespoort, Koster, Lichtenburg, Mooinooi, Rustenburg, Swartruggens, Zeerust en Buffelspoort.

"Die toetse wat in die Stellaland-distrik uitgevoer is, toon dat die volgende dorpe aan die minimum standaard voldoen: Biesiesvlei, Bloemhof, Makwassie, Schweizer-Reneke en Vryburg.

Dié uitslae dui daarop dat die volgende dorpe in die provinsie se drinkwater nie skoon is nie: Brits, Delareyville, Sannieshof en Stella. AfriForum is besig met stappe om druk op munisipaliteite toe te pas om sodoende beter watergehalte te verseker.

Leaked matric exam papers to be rewritten

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - As if this year hasn't been tough enough for matriculants, for the first time in the country's history, matriculants will be sitting in for a national rewrite of the two exam papers, which were reportedly leaked.

This was recently announced by the Basic Education Minister Angie Motshekga. "Having considered all of these factors, the Council of Education Ministers (CEM) decided that a national rewrite of both Mathematics Paper 2 and Physical Science Paper 2 is necessary. It was not an easy decision to take, but one which is necessary under the circumstances. We need to work hard to deal with the human factor in the examinations system. It is clear that the people responsible for leaking the question papers are adults," said the Minister. Meanwhile teacher union Sadtu has vowed to challenge the decision by the department. The union is set to file an urgent court application to interdict the department's decision stating that the decision was unfair and premature as investigations into the leaked question papers had not been concluded.

NEVER pay to get a job!

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Rustenburg Local Municipality has issued a warning regarding a new job scam in which its name is being used to con jobseekers.

According to RLM spokesperson, David Maggae, an individual, using the following contact numbers 076 790 9997/014 547 0601, is posing as a recruiter on behalf of the municipality. The following "vacancies" are being advertised: General Workers; Assistant Manager; Call Centre; Agents; Pay Roll Administrators; Cleaners; Drivers with Code 10 & 14 with PrDP; Security Guards; Administration staff. "These job vacancies have not been advertised by RLM and therefore these vacancies are not available," Mr Maggae said. He added that it has also emerged that the name of the Rustenburg Rapid Transport is being used to lure unsuspecting members of the public.

"Apparently the common ask for the documents of job seekers, and request a R5000 payment from the candidates to 'confirm' their place in the shortlist," Maggae said. He added that the RRT is not yet at a phase of recruiting personnel and once the employment opportunities become available, the public will be notified accordingly by way of placing advertisements in national and local newspapers, the municipal website and all its social media platforms. "This remains the RLM's standard of personnel recruitment, which has not changed. The municipality does not make use of any employment agencies and/or Human Resources agents for purposes of recruitment," he assured. To verify the authenticity of any invitation to interview for a position, call the RLM Human Resources department on 014 590 3989, or visit them on the fifth floor at Missionary Mpheni House.

SARS warns about scam

RUSTENBURG HERALD – RUSTENBURG - The South African Revenue Service (SARS) issued a warning to taxpayers to be wary of persons posing as tax practitioners or tax experts who promise them that they could secure a refund from SARS.

Businesses and other organisations must also beware of third parties such as unknown payroll companies who offer to assist them with their PAYE submissions.

“SARS is being inundated with desperate calls from honest taxpayers who fall victim to these criminals and scammers who pocket the refunds for themselves and their accomplices as they often operate as syndicates,” a statement from SARS said.

In some cases, these fraudulent submissions are the cause of delays that are experienced by law-abiding taxpayers when SARS has no other option but to verify the information that was submitted by scammers to SARS.

SARS warned that taxpayers who willing participate in such fraudulent activity in expectation of an illegal refund will be prosecuted along with the scammers.

SARS urges citizens who suspect such criminal activity to provide information to SARS. They can contact SARS anonymously using the number 0800 00 2870 or by anonymously completing an online form available on the SARS website www.sars.gov.za

For more information, please contact SARSMedia@sars.gov.za

Motorists urged to obey road rules

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Minister of Transport, Fikile Mbalula, has encouraged all road users to behave responsibly on the road and be mindful of the rights of others as traffic volumes are expected to increase during the festive season.

According to research conducted by the South African Medical Research Council and the University of South Africa (UNISA), 27% of fatal road crashes in the country are attributed to driver alcohol intoxication and this costs the economy billions of Rands. He encouraged motorists to travel during the day as statistical analysis shows that 50% of road deaths occur after dark. Last year, 24% of people who died in road crashes were drivers and 36% were passengers.

Beware of ‘helpful’ strangers!

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Police have issued a warning to people buying building material, specially from shops in the central business district.

It seems that people are getting robbed by ‘helpful’ strangers who offer to transport the building material they have just bought.

According to Capt Elsabé Augoustides, Rustenburg SAPS spokesperson, they have received complaints from people who bought building material, accepted an offer of help from a stranger, and then were overpowered, robbed and left stranded. “Do not accept any offer of transport if you do not know the person,” is her advice.

Cut-off date for rejected R350 claims announced

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Those recipients who have applied for the Covid-19 Social Relief of Distress R350 grant and have been rejected, and would like to launch an appeal have until the end of February 2021 to do so.

This was according to a statement recently released from the South African Social Security Agency (SASSA).

SASSA has also revealed that these applications are the ones that were made during the extension period, between November 2020 and January 2021. Meanwhile, the agency has reminded citizens that the R350 grants will only be paid until the end of January 2021. “SASSA has determined a cut-off date for lodging appeals in respect of declined COVID-19 Social Relief Distress Grants. The purpose is to strengthen administrative controls in the management of this grant and to give effect to a conducive environment for accounting,” the agency explained. The recipients can send their grievances through <https://srd.sassa.gov.za> or by sending an email to the covid19appeals@sassa.gov.za on or before 28 February 2021.

Driving licenses grace period extended

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Some good news to South African Motorists, all learner’s licences, driving licence cards, temporary driving licences and professional driving permits, which expired from the start of the lockdown, have been granted a further grace period until next year.

“All learner’s licence cards, temporary driving licences and professional driving permits, which expired during the period that commenced from 26 March 2020 up to and including 31 December 2020, are deemed to be valid, and their validity periods are extended for a further grace period ending on 31 August 2021,” the Minister of Transport, Fikile Mbalula, said on Thursday (3 December), in the Government Gazette. The Directions are on measures aimed at addressing, preventing and combatting the spread of COVID-19.

Aardbewing gee baie die ritteltits

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die rammeling in die buik van die aarde vroeg Sondagoggend het mense in ‘n radius van byna 200km wakker geskok en hul herinner dat die wêreld, soos Koos Doep gesing het, maar oral halfpad hol is.

Die 4.8 aardbewing wat net na 03:00 Sondagoggend (6 Desember) plaasgevind en is wyd gevoel - van Klerksdorp, Bothaville, Parys en Johannesburg tot buite Rustenburg. Volgens die Amerikaanse Geologiese waarnemingsdiens het die aardbewing baie vlak - net sowat 10km onder die oppervlak - gebeur. Behalwe dat beddens geskud het, voorwerpe op rakke gerammel en geratel het en mense gevolglik die skrik op die lyf gejaag is, het die aardbewing nie enige noemenswaardige skade aangerig nie.

Huldeblyk: Thys Henzen

Die Rustenburg-gemeenskap het ‘n rapsie meer as ‘n maand gelede met skok en verbasing van die bekende Rustenburger Thys Henzen se ontydige afsterwe verneem. Die Henzen-familie het vandeeweek meegaande kort huldeblyk aan hul geliefde eggenoot, pa en oupa opgedra:

Matthys Daniël Henzen is gebore op 23 Augustus 1940 en is op 28 Oktober vanjaar oorlede. “Dit is nou ‘n bietjie meer as ‘n maand gelede en dit is steeds met groot hartseer en die besef van ‘n gevoelige verlies dat ons aan hom dink - dit was alles so vinnig en onverwags.

Thys was ‘n dinamiese sakeman wat baie diep spore in die sakewêreld, mynwese en boerderysektor getrap het. Sy ambisie en geesdrif was ‘n treffende eienskap. Thys is as ‘n uiters regverdige mens beskryf - hy het almal altyd vertrou! In sy fleur was hy ‘n uitnemende sportman wat in rugby en krieket vir provinsiale spanne uitgedraf het. Hy was as ‘n baie jong man reeds mynkaptein op Western Deep Levels en is op slegs 28-jarige ouderdom ‘n pos as inspekteur in die mynwese aangebied wat hy egter van die hand gewys het. Thys wou altyd sy eie besigheid bedryf en was ook baie suksesvol in die daaropvolgende jare. Hy het verskeie stuks myntoerusting vervaardig en het ook toekennings ontvang vir sekere geregistreerde patente en entrepreneurskap. Hy het studeer as mynbestuurder en begin sy eie silicamyn wat later deur Xstrata gekoop is.

Thys was ‘n voorslag-beesboer en was die eerste stigterslid van die Brahman Genootskap in Rustenburg. Hy het vir etlike jare die pos as voorsitter van die genootskap beklee. Hy het onuitwisbare spore in die Brahmanbedryf getrap en is herhaaldelik met toekennings vir sy topgehalte stoetbulle vereer. Die Henzen-stoet het deur die jare tientalle kampioene opgelewer.

Thys was ‘n uiters nederige en gelowige man en sal altyd só deur sy familie en vriende onthou word. Thys word oorleef deur sy eggenote Franci, twee dogters, Janette en Franci en hul eggenote - Albert du Toit en Barend van Heerden asook drie kleinkinders. “Ons gaan Thys geweldig baie mis en hy sal vir altyd in ons harte voortleef”, het die familie afgesluit. Die Rustenburg-gemeenskap groet Thys Henzen en wens sy familie en alle naasbestaandes baie sterkte toe!

Wyle Thys Henzen

Mitsos Grill celebrates 1st anniversary - the Greek way

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Great food will never go out of fashion and in Rustenburg all culinary roads led to Mitsos Grill Mediterranean restaurant at Rustenburg's Platinum Square on Friday 4 December.

The occasion to celebrate in typical Greek style was the 1st anniversary of Mitsos Grill and patrons flocked from all over for the privilege to be among the guests at yet another unforgettable feast in Mitsos' relevant short history. "Great food" is probably an understatement for what went down at Mitsos on Friday with a full house culinary treat with all the most popular Greek favourites on the menu. On the occasion Mitsos exceeded its reputation with a first class evening stacked with the best Greek cuisine you could imagine. Topping the menu for meat lovers was traditional Greek souvla - cuts of pork, lamb or chicken meat cooked on a long skewer over a charcoal barbecue. It differs from the popular Greek dish souvlaki, in that meat cuts are much larger and slow cooked for a much longer period

Only a part of the feast prepared for a festive occasion at Mitsos Grill on Friday.

For these guests the evening also served as a year-end function and the company was well-represented.

at a greater distance from the hot charcoal. Complimenting these were traditional stifado - kudu stew in a rich, aromatic sauce with a host of salads, vegetables and ever popular Greek desserts such as the unforgettable homemade baklava, cheesecake, peppermint crisp and many other varieties. At its first year anniversary, Mitsos Grill was full house with pre-booked guests and a limited number of walk-in customers who simply could not be turned away. Probably best remembered for a typical Greek party like no other on local soil, the fun continued until beyond all reasonable hours with an "itinerary" that included popular Greek bouzouki music, belly dancers, flame dancing and the traditional breaking of plates ceremony which was joined by an enthusiastic crowd. "We have always strived to offer our friends and loyal customers an unequalled culinary experience in a highly-spirited atmosphere to compliment the rapidly approaching festive season and Friday evening's celebration came dangerously close to almost "overcooking" it a bit if you will pardon the expression", said well-known hosts - Demetri and Fitos Demetriou. Of course, there is no such thing as excellent cuisine and dining without a range of quality wines to prepare the palate for yet another treat on the menu. Top quality wines such as Kanonkop, Allesverloren and Alto Rouge were on top of the wine list and the evening's "formalities" were concluded with the customary zeibekiko - dancing over the shattered remains of dozens of broken plates and finally, the burning of a highly spirited Whisky for which only the best (Johnny Walker Blue Label) was good enough. We at Mitsos Grill are indebted to our many Rustenburg patrons who have supported us well during this extremely challenging year and we are grateful that this great restaurant and its entire team came out on tops. We hope that we are heading for a much better new year and that soon we will all gather around the tables once more to celebrate yet another important milestone", says Demetri. "We are currently planning a number of similarly festive events for the forthcoming holiday season and our patrons are well-advised to keep the eyes peeled and the ears open for any announcement within the next week or two. "Remember that all culinary roads lead to Mitsos during this festive period and do join us for the best this city has to offer. May we wish all of Rustenburg a merry Christmas and a happy New Year which is barely a fortnight away. Remember, we do cater for year-end functions and any event that calls for a celebration. Contact Mitsos Grill today on 072 6333 808 or (014) 537 2390 for an unforgettable experience.

Cheers to a happy moment and even better new year.

Nicole and Alexie Hasel, Thalia Avvakoumides, Zee Brown, Katie Demetriou and Ipe Mashifane.

And yes - also something for the eye - Dean Crystal and Dimitry Koriokos with beauties Nicole Hassel, Alexie Hassel, Thalia Avvakoumides, Zee Brown, Sophy Demetriou and Katie Demetriou.

Regular guests at Mitsos Grill - Lumka and Vusumuzi Makhoba - "we wouldn't miss this one for the world!"

Father and son - Demetri and Fitos Demetriou of Mitsos Grill say thank you Rustenburg for celebrating our first anniversary with us!

JUST BECAUSE YOU ARE ON HOLIDAY
DOESN'T MEAN THAT COVID-19 IS

COVID-19 is far from over.
There is still no cure or vaccine.

During the holiday season, you might be thinking about how to celebrate and keep yourself and your loved ones safe from the spread of COVID-19.

Celebrate, but keep it small - especially if family and friends include individuals in higher-risk categories, such as older adults and people with underlying conditions.

Check what are the current levels of COVID-19 are in the area that you are visiting. The greater the numbers and rates, the greater the risk of infection and spread among holiday makers.

Spend more time outdoors and in well-ventilated areas.

The best way to protect ourselves and those around us is to not get it and not to spread it.

YOU CAN PROTECT YOURSELF AND OTHERS FROM COVID-19 BY:

Washing your hands with soap and water frequently

Avoiding touching your face

Avoiding large groups of people

Coughing and sneezing into your sleeve or tissue

Maintaining a social distance in crowded places

Wearing a mask in public or when using work transport

Places to visit in the“platinum province”

The Pilanesberg (formerly Pilandsberg) is a mountain in the North West Province, South Africa. The mountain is an ancient volcanic structure, circular in shape, that rises from flat surrounding plains. It is formed by three concentric ridges or rings of hills, of which the outermost has a diameter of about 24 km. The Pilanesberg is located 100 km to the North-West of Pretoria and is for the greater part enclosed in a protected area known as Pilanesberg Game Reserve. The Elands River flows South of the Pilanesberg in an Easterly direction. There are a number of platinum mines right at the perimeter of the crater formation. The name “Pilanes” comes from a historic Tswana chief named Pilane. Although geographically located within the Witwatersrand range, the mountain is geologically part of a feature known as the Pilanesberg Alkaline Ring Complex. It is a vast ring dike of a very ancient extinct volcano that last erupted some 1,200 million years ago. The Pilanesberg is one of the largest volcanic complexes of its type, there are few similar alkaline volcanic structures in the world. Different types of syenites, including a number of rare minerals, occur in the crater area. The formation of the Pilanesberg occurred 2 billion years ago. As its zenith, the volcano towered to 7,000 metres in height. Over the time, a series of volcanic eruptions occurred. There were further outpourings of lava, craters collapsed, ring fracturing took place around the volcano and magma was squeezed into these fractures. The end result is several “onion rings” of rocks of different ages. Erosion over many millions of years has stripped away the mountain and the highest peak. What we see today is not so much a volcanic crater, but a cross section through the magma pipes that were located at great depth below the mountain’s summit.

A few others worth a mention

- Taung Heritage Site.
- Royal Bafokeng Stadium.
- Barberspan Bird Sanctuary.
- Madikwe Game Reserve.
- De Wildt Cheetah & Wildlife Trust.
- Lesedi Cultural Village.

Picture:www

Barberspan is the largest of a series of pans that lie in the fossil bed of the Harts River. The pan, which measures roughly 600 metres wide and 1 550 metres in length lies within the Barberspan Bird Sanctuary. More than 12 000 birds and over 365 bird species have been recorded here - the sheer numbers and diversity mean that the sanctuary is extremely popular with birders.

Madikwe Game Reserve is a conservation area in South Africa’s North West Province, bordering Botswana. The reserve’s grassland, forest and rocky Tshwene Tshwene hills are home to a variety of wildlife such as elephants, lions, leopards and rhinos, plus endangered wild dogs. Hundreds of bird species include ostrich, vultures and the large kori bustard. Animals often gather at the Madikwe Dam to drink at sunset

A future for oral history?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Digital Age has drastically changed how oral histories are assessed, recorded and received.

With the worldwide pandemic the focus has shifted to technology, using laptops and the Internet, and face-to-face interviews are now done by remote. These points were raised by Dr Tshepo Mosweu, of the University of Botswana, who was speaking at the virtual National Oral History Colloquium held here on 18,19 November. Dr Mosweu was talking on the subject of international and regional experiences on the future of oral traditions/histories in times of Technical Revolution and Pandemics in Society. She quoted from Jan Vansisa, regarded as the father of oral traditions/history, who stated that in the past the written word gained prominence over the spoken word among the educated.

and academic groups undertaking the collection of oral history, though in some countries, like Botswana and Zimbabwe, they are not collecting oral history at present and projects are on hold. Challenges being faced at present, she said, were a state of dwindling funding, technology capabilities and legal issues on data and software use, all of which would have to be addressed. Dr Mosweu formed part of a number of distinguished guest speakers at the Colloquium, including Prof Sekibakiba Legoati, of the University of the Witwatersrand, speaking on decolonising the South African School Curriculum: the role of oral history. Prof NP Saurombe and Dr Il Shellneck-Kelly of UNISA spoke on surveying History as a compulsory component of South Africa's Basic Education programme. Dr Kogie Archary of MANCOSA and Regent Business School gave their perspective and insights. In his talk, Prof. Sekibakiba Legoati outlined the duties of the Ministerial Task Team (MTT) on decolonising the South African School Curriculum. In 2015 MTT was launched, he explained, as it was felt there was a lack of social and historical consciousness, especially amongst the youth. It had to advise the Minister of Basic Education on the possibility of offering History as a compulsory subject in Further Education and Training, as well as to strengthen curriculum content from Grades 4-9. The team conducted a basic international comparative study to inform their work on South Africa and find out what role history played in countries like Russia, Brazil, Uganda, China and India and what its value was. Views and feedback were also obtained from public presentations in nine provinces to inform the drafting of the report which was then submitted in May 2018. Phase Two involves developing a new History curriculum, having public input and comments on the proposed new curriculum, screening new textbooks and History teacher development. The Minister has not yet made a pronouncement on whether History will be made compulsory. The President of the Oral History Association of South Africa (OHASA), Prof Makgoatsana, outlined the impressive work undertaken by OHASA and their task was to "protect the narratives of our people and promote them because South Africa is one nation but it's incomplete because it tells a separate story. The majority of the South African population is silently represented in the archives and museums. "We have to make sure these stories are told and reclaimed and restored for the South African population. The Oral History Association of South Africa will become a platform to tell stories of the majority of the South African population which have never been told before. Our duty is that we need to embrace technology even in the face of this pandemic." Nocawe Mafu, Deputy Minister of Sport, Arts and Culture, addressing the colloquium virtually, said that today marks a very historic moment as it's the first Colloquium in our history that people are attending virtually. "The pandemic allowed us new ways of doing things," she stated, "changing the face of work and celebrating the new normal. There is a way of framing this new experience and oral historians have more work than ever to capture the narratives and transform culture, heritage and society for ever.

Adelpha-tak sluit vreemde 2020 op genotvolle wyse af

Die reëlingskomitee: Hermine Loots, Lily Oelofse en Hester Bezuidenhout.

Agter: Susan van Heerden, Missie Jacobs, Rita Joubert, Sophie Luyt, Hester Bezuidenhout, Hermine Loots, Lily Oelofse, middel: Juanita Probart, Annette Ipland-Erasmus, Paulien Derks, Marietjie Richter, Linda Fick en voor Corlia Vosloo.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die afsluitingsfunksie van Adelpha-tak was voorwaar die hoogtepunt in hierdie isolasie-jaar.

Byna geen maandvergaderings kon plaasvind nie en die dames was uitgehonger vir 'n behoorlike kuier.

Die funksie, in die vorm van 'n Gatsby-aand, het plaasgevind op Woensdagaand, 11 November 2020 om 19:00 by Hunter's Rest. Die dames is met 'n verwelkomingsdrankie ontvang. John Robbertse het die DK-lied op treffende wyse gesing, wat mooi aangesluit het by Juanita Probart se openingsboodskap oor verandering en vernuwing - kenmerkend van Joe Gatsby se lewe en ook die jaar 2020.

Die voorsitter, Hermine Loots, het die jaarverslag aan die dames voorgehou en daarna is heerlijk gekuier en geëet. 'n Groot dankie aan die reëlingskomitee, Hester Bezuidenhout, Lily Oelofse en Hermine Loots vir 'n onvergeetlike aand.

UNDERGROUND, AND MOVING UP.
IT'S A GLENCCORE STORY.

Alice Magano, having grown up in Carletonville, received her underground training at Western Mine Training Centre in 2011, and soon became a pump attendant at Kroondal Mine. Later, as a belt attendant, she continued to work mostly underground, something she still does at the age of fifty-five. As a woman, she feels supported by her colleagues and supervisors, and is currently on her mine's Women in Mining Committee, having previously also worked both as an underground safety and union representative. Now, with Glencore paying for the course, she is studying fitting, with the aim of becoming a foreman. Alice's story is all part of what we mean at Glencore by progress, together.

Why is the mushroom always invited to parties? Because he is such a fun guy! But, lame jokes apart, in the right hands, mushrooms is so much more than a mere ingredient; it can absolutely be the star of the show.

This week Antoinette Bayliss, Elize Vermeulen and Johann Ludick will demonstrate how this naturally fat -and cholesterol free, low carb food can be absolutely fabulous.

Antoinette, from New Earth Mushrooms, and Elize from Meulen Mushrooms started their oyster mushroom farming journey together.

“These mushrooms are high in protein, rich in vitamin B6 and vitamin D and are also a great source of antioxidants and fiber,” explains Antoinette. Antoinette and Elize are joining forces with Johann, who is the chef of Under the Cherry Tree, to create an oyster mushroom feast.

On the menu this week are finger licking good fried oyster mushrooms, delectable oyster mushroom lasagna and dainty oyster mushroom meringue filled with homemade mint ricotta – in short, simply sensational.

DA rejects Bojanala District Municipality's illegal extension of leave

By Martin Coetzee - DA Councillor: Bojanala Platinum District Municipality
RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Democratic Alliance (DA) in the Bojanala Platinum District Municipality rejects with contempt the Council's adoption of a resolution to extend an ex-gratia leave period to municipal employees from 11 December 2020 until 11 January 2021. It is completely unjustifiable to extend additional leave with full pay to municipal employees on top of the legislated and regulated annual leave they are entitled to. Council is not empowered under the Constitution, the Municipal Systems Act or the Municipal Finance Management Act to take such a decision, says Martin Coetzee, DA Councillor in Rustenburg. The decision is therefore illegal and the DA's objection to the motion was duly noted. Council's decision basically means that double leave pay will be facilitated for double the duration of non-existent performance and non-existent service delivery.

In fact, municipal officials and employees would actually enjoy three extended leave periods on full pay this year should we consider the ridiculous level 5 lockdown period earlier this year. Last year the municipality could not pay salaries for several months and borrowed R50 million purely for this purpose. The municipality also, through what appears to be some sort of collusion with the North West Department of Cooperative Governance, Human Settlements and Traditional Affairs (COGHSTA), received R134 million intended for Rustenburg Local Municipality, but promptly spent it on things like travel, catering and maintenance which, incidentally, nobody can confirm ever took place. The DA lodged a case with the Hawks and it is under investigation. According to Coetzee "the Bojanala Platinum District Municipality is bankrupt and under Section 139 administration. We will request the DA's provincial spokesperson, Freddy Sonakile MPL, to escalate this matter to Premier Job Mokgoro and the MEC for COGHSTA, Mmoloki Cwaile, to intervene and reverse the illegal decision taken by Council", Coetzee concluded.

Presies hoe lank nog?

Die arme, arme advokaat Busiswe Mkwebane, 'n hoogs-gekwalfiseerde regsgeleerde wat die afgelope nagenoeg drie, vier jaar in die stoel van die openbare beskermers sit en vir wie die woord "omstrede" 'n buitengewone pluimpie behoort te wees. Vir loshande die grootste gedeelte van Mkwebane se verblyf in die warm stoel as Openbare Beskermers is haar termyn gekenmerk deur die een vernederende flater na die ander en moes sy bonstaan om te keer vir haar "wickets" elke keer wanneer dit blyk dat nog 'n verslag van haar in die soeklig gekom het.

Baie mense sou nou na die verwerping van nog 'n verslag van haar oor die sogenaamde geheime eenheid in die SA-inkomstediens en in besonder die Minister van Openbare Ondernemings, Pravin Gordhan, moet toegee dat om omstrede te wees waarskynlik die grootste prestasie is wat sy nog in haar ampstermyn in die kantoor van die Openbare Beskermers beleef het. Hierbenewens was haar loopbaan gekortwiek (werklik?) deur die een terugslag na die ander en indien daar nou nog mense is wat glo in haar vermoë om die land en sy mense as Openbare Beskermers op eervolle wyse te dien, sal niks waarskynlik tot hulle kan deurdring nie. Vir die soveelste keer het advokaat Mkwebane bloedneus gekry - hierdie keer in die Pretoriase Hooggeregshof - nadat haar verslag oor die geheime eenheid in die inkomstediens tersyde gestel is. Vir die mense wat die telkaarte vir en teen haar dopgehou het, teen hierdie tyd moet dit seker minstens ses stroop wees indien 'n fatale uitklophou nie 'n beter beskrywing is nie. Daar is die dalk minder bekende spreekwoord wat lui: "jy hoef nie die see leeg te drink om jou te oortuig dat hy sout is nie". Nouja, genoeg gesê. Die vraag is nou hoe lank die Suid-Afrikaanse regering en die regerende party kan volhou met 'n iemand in die tuig wat gewis nie haar uitspankans verdien nie, omdat, wel, omdat die wa nog lank nie deur die drif is nie, maar trouens, verstregel daarin voortploeter. Het iemand buiten Mkwebane dan nou werklik gedink dat dit so eenvoudig sou wees om iemand soos Gordhan uit te vang, vas te vat en stil te maak? Plaas sy tog maar gevra het...

How long will it last?

The poor, poor Advocate Busisiwe Mkwebane, a highly educated juror officiating in the office of the Public Protector for the past three to four years - someone who by now should be quite used to the term "controversial" and who would without a doubt regard the description as a compliment. It is no news that Mkwebane's term in office was marred by the one pitiful defeat after another and yet another opportunity to clear her name and to set the record straight was lost when the Pretoria High Court rejected her notorious report on the so-called rogue unit in SA Revenue Services - allegedly led by the Minister of Public Enterprises - Pravin Gordhan himself. Mkwebane had to cover for her wickets time after time during the course of the past four years in which she was dealt one blow after another and rarely ever was a Mkwebane report found to be satisfactory. The truth is that quality of Mkwebane's reports were not only repeatedly rejected, but labeled laughable with serious obvious shortcomings and lack of any credibility.

To those who have remained steadfastly by her side, one needs to ask. Just how many humiliating defeats must the office of the Public Protector still suffer before someone (if she won't) would decide to call it a day? Have anyone ever calculated how much time and money (and expenses in fruitless salaries) the country has lost during the past few years, not to even mention the embarrassment of paying someone exorbitantly to basically fail at her work for quite some time now. Surely it couldn't be that there could be another purpose for losing game, set and match time after time. Did the Public Protector really think that it would be that easy to point out serious wrongdoings if not transgressions by someone as Pravin Gordhan? Perhaps this latest defeat would convince Mkwebane to rather fool about in the pool of much smaller fish than to go for someone of the caliber of Pravin Gordhan. She is clearly not in the same league - not to mention that she has rarely succeeded in filling the boots of her predecessor.

Rustenburg has a great 'Samaritan'

There has been no electricity for over one week in Kerk Street in the CBD. The overhead electrical cable was broken off. After numerous complaints to Rustenburg Local Municipality and trying many heads of electrical department, it became a no win situation. There was just no help from the municipality and various shops and residents had great losses of meat, foodstuff etc. A man by the name of Gift took a day off from work, approached me to say that a cherry picker is needed to get the job done as the municipality's one is broken. He took his own initiative to collect donations from other residents as well as himself to get a cherry picker. A few good people dug deep into their pockets and the cherry picker was arranged.

The team from the municipality waited for the cherry picker and then the job got done after one week. The point is that Rustenburg Local Municipality has a fleet of new implements/vehicles but could not sort out the lights issue if Gift never made an effort from his side.

A big thank you to Jack, Gift and all those involved in bringing the lights back. There are good hearted people out there in this world that can make a difference - like Gift. We salute you!

Dankie vir puik publikasies!

Laat my eerstens toe om u geluk te wens met u uitstekende AgriPulse-landboupublikasie. Ons onderneming het onlangs begin om ons uiters gespesialiseerde dienste in die AgriPulse te adverteer omdat ons verneem het dat dié publikasie regdeur die Noordwes-provinsie en groot dele van die Noord-Kaap versprei word. Ons was aanvanklik half skepties, maar het vanweë ons gespesialiseerde diens in hierdie buitengewone sektor in Noordwes en die Noord-Kaap, besluit om voort te gaan. Ons was nie teleurgesteld nie - ons het van meet af baie navrae ontvang - wat ons opnuut laat besef het dat daar inderdaad 'n groot aanvraag vir diensverskaffers in die rehabilitasiesektor bestaan. Na aanleiding van die talle navrae wat ons ontvang het, het ons intussen verskeie individue gehelp om verlos te word van die verslawing van gewoontevormende middels en natuurlik alkohol. Ons het sedertdien ook groot sukses gehad met reklame in die Rustenburg Herald wat ook verbasend goed ontvang is. Ons hier by Hope Hill Rehabilitasiesentrum sal nie maklik weer 'n ander reklameforum as die publikasies in die Noordwes-koerantgroep oorweeg nie. Baie dankie vir puik publikasies in die uitgewerswese, asook u personeel se voortreflike diens - ons wens u sterkte toe!
