Bojanala 'stole' millions from RLM

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - It apparently took just one day for a cash-strapped and struggling district municipality to disburse money to catering and dumping site companies.

The trail of how R134 million "erroneously" transferred into the Bojanala District Municipality's bank account disappeared on the same day and was used to pay off service providers could be contained in the municipal's ledger account.

A national Sunday newspaper reports that the municipality's ledger shows how millions were used to pay for catering and the clearing of illegal dumping sites when the municipality was too broke to even pay its workers. Despite being broke, the municipality appears to have spared no expense – paying millions of rands on what was recorded in its ledger as bills for catering for events as well as for the clearing of illegal dumping sites. Payments for these services, which raised eyebrows because of the challenges the municipality was facing at the time, with some areas in the area experiencing acute water shortage – went on until May last year, according to ledger entries. All this happened a month before news broke that the municipality's finances were in shambles and it was struggling to even pay salaries in July last year. The municipality later admitted that it had used some of the R134 million deposited by error into its coffers on March 4 2019.

The money was meant for the Rustenburg Local Municipality. The municipal ledger purportedly shows that one company received two payments totaling R5.5 million on 22 March 2019 for desludging septic tanks and R5.8 million for clearing illegal dumping sites. A catering and events management company was paid R6 million in 13 payments, all in May last year, for catering, decor and transport. The municipal ledger reflecting all these dodgy payments has now landed in the hands of the standing committee on public accounts (Scopa) in the North West legislature which has since shared the information with the Hawks. Bojanala municipality spokesperson, Archie Babeile, was questioned on why the payments were made to the two specific companies. He did not contest the authenticity of the ledger or the information contained in it when asked about the "erroneous" R134 million payment and how some of it was spent.

Babeile told the Sunday newspaper that the municipality was "in no position to respond directly to this question, pending the outcomes of the investigations". Babeile was referring to a forensic investigation by the provincial Treasury which is probing the "erroneous" transfer of the R134 million, which was meant for the construction of low-cost houses in Rustenburg, into the Bojanala municipality coffers. It was, however, not clear if the payments made to the service providers followed the "erroneous" transfer. Scopa was briefed by the Hawks last week on its investigation into the R134 million and the elite police unit informed the committee that there was going to be no further investigation as the Bojanala municipality had already repaid the full amount. The money was returned in three instalments – R50 million paid on July 25; R25 million on August 2 and R59 million on August 23 last year. Scopa said that although the money had been returned, they were eager to know what exactly had happened. Sources within the municipality and the provincial legislature said they were suspicious that large amounts of money were paid to service providers for services not done or on inflated invoices. A Scopa member said the ledger was a good starting point for the Hawks to "connect the dots and help the public understand how the municipality could have ended up broke even after it received R134 million".

Woman raped, boyfriend assaulted in Photsaneng

RUSTENBURG HERALD - PHOTSONENG - On Saturday night (8 February) a couple that met at a well known tavern in the Rustenburg CBD decided to go home together after partying.

They then got into a taxi from the Rustenburg Taxi Rank to Photsaneng where the man resides. According to information received when they got to Photsaneng, they were the only two that were still in the taxi and as they got off they walked a small distance when they came across a man who seemed to be walking to the opposite direction.

The suspect, according to Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson in the Rustenburg Cluster, then hit the man on his head from behind with a stone. A fight ensued and the woman ran away but she did not know where she was going while the man who accompanied her was suspected to have been unconscious.

While the woman was running, she noticed that the suspect was behind her, he grabbed her from behind, threatened her with a firearm and took her to a nearby bush and proceeded to rape her. The suspect is still at large and according to information he was wearing a yellow top and grey tracksuit and he was armed with a firearm and a knife.

"We appeal to anyone who might have witnessed this incident or the man who was accompanying the woman to come forward with information," said Mokgadi.

Anyone who has information can contact the Investigating Officer, Warrant Officer Lebogang Mabala on 082 492 3764.

Sexual assault suspect sentenced

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Bafokeng Regional Court sentenced 32-year-old Motepe Oupa Freddy to an effective three-year imprisonment for sexual assault.

According to Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson in Rustenburg it is alleged that in November 2018 the victim and Motepe were in the company of friends at a local tavern in Tsitsing Village just outside of Rustenburg.

It is alleged that thereafter they went to a friend's house to sleep. When the victim woke up she realised that she was undressed by the suspect who was busy fondling her. She screamed for help and thereafter went to the police to report the incident. The case was then given to Sergeant Phenyo Monchusi who then worked tirelessly to ensure that Motepe was sentenced.

Couple's shack torched while inside sleeping

RUSTENBURG HERALD - IKEMELENG - The police were called to a local hospital after a couple was admitted with 55% burn wounds at Ikemeleng Township, in Kroondal on Friday (7 February).

investigating. The suspect, was arrested and was expected to appear at the Rustenburg Magistrates court on Wednesday (12 January) on a charge of attempted murder. Keep an eye on the Rustenburg Herald and Bonus for more information on this story.

Gewelddadige inbraake het inwoners bang

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "Ek slaap nie. Die geringste geluid is nou vir my agterdogtig - en vreesaanjaend."

Só skryf Lita Vermeulen van Safarituiine op Facebook. Haar kommentaar kom nadat 'n tweede persoon die afgelope naweek tydens 'n inbraak geskiet is. Albei die inbraake het tussen 02:00 en 03:30 soggens plaasgevind.

"Hierdie inbrekers ken hul storie. Dis wetenskaplik bewys dat die omtrek mens op sy diepste tussen 02:00-04:00 slaap - en dit wil voorkom asof hierdie inbreker/s bewus is hiervan en dit in hul guns uitbuit," vertel oud-kaptein Charlize van der Linden, 'n voormalige polisie-offisier en forensiese deskundige. In die jongste voorval is 'n 42-jarige rekenmeester van die stad ernstig gewond toe hy 'n gewapende man in sy sitkamer van sy huis in die Albatros residensiële kompleks in Safarituiine betrappet. Volgens plaaslike polisiewoordvoerder, kapt Elsabé Augoustides het Abel Pienaar Saterdagoggend omstreeks 02:30 ontdek dat die gesin se budjie nog buite is. Hy is buitentoe om die hokkie te gaan haal. Toe hy in die sitkamer terug kom, het hy 'n vreemde man in die vertrek aangetref. Sonder 'n woord het die persoon 'n wapen uitgeruk en 'n skoot op Pienaar gevuur. Dit was mis en die indringer het op die vlug geslaan. Pienaar wou seker maak dat die man die perseel verlaat en het hom na buite gevolg. Die inbreker het omgeswai en 'n tweede skoot afgevuur. Die Pienaar in die maag getref. Hy is deur sy vrou na 'n hospitaal geneem waar hy 'n operasie moes ondergaan om skade aan sy dunderm en pelvis te herstel. Hy sou vroeër dié week weer teater toe moes gaan vir 'n opvolg-operasie. Volgens kapt Augoustides was die inbreker waarskynlik deel van 'n groep wat by die Pienaaars se bure ingebreek het. Daar het 'n seun wakker geword en die inbrekers het gevlug. "Ons reken die man wat mnr

Die venster waardeur die gewapende inbreker toegang tot die woning in Wilgerivierlaan, Cashan verkry het. (Foto: Verskaf)

Pienaar geskiet het, was by die inbraak by die bure betrokke en het toe oor die muur gespring. Hy moes gesien het die Pienaaars se skuifdeur staan oop en het miskien gedink daar skuil," het kapt Augoustides gesê. 'n Vroeëre voorval het Donderdagoggend (6 Februarie) omstreeks 03:00 plaasgevind toe Gerhard Spalding (54) 'n inbreker in sy woning in Wilgerivierlaan, Cashan betrappet. Spalding het wakker geword en bewus geraak van verdagte geluide. Hy het opgestaan om onbordersoek in te stel en het hom toe trompop teen die inbreker vasgehou. Dié het verskeie skote op Spalding gevuur. Spalding is in die bors en maag getref. Die inbreker het daarna op die vlug geslaan. Spalding het dit reggekry om tot by sy Land Cruiser te kom. Hy het uit sy erf gekry terwyl hy die voertuig se toeter gedruk het in 'n poging om mense se aandag te trek vir hulp. Toe niemand buitentoe kom nie, het hy na die huis van die mense by wie hy sy woning huur gery. Hulle het sy voertuig herken en hom te hulp gesnel.

Klagte van huisbraak, diefstal sowel as twee van poging tot moord word nou deur die polisie ondersoek. Kapt Augoustides het by navraag gesê die polisie sluit nie die moontlikheid uit dat die gewapende man by beide voorvalle betrokke mag wees nie. In Januarie was daar ook 'n incident toe inbrekers op 'n woning in Safarituiine toegeslaan het en die gesin se hand op hul afgestorm het. Een van die inbrekers het op die hand gevuur en hom in die bors gewond. Daar is bespiegelinge dat die man ook by dié voorval betrokke kon wees.

Die polisie doen 'n beroep op die publiek om S/AO Jannie van der Walt vandie Rustenburg Speurkantoor op 082 772 9226 met enige inligting oor die voorvalle te kontak.

Donderdagoggend (6 Februarie) het die stil, boomryke Wilgerivierlaan in Cashan van polisievoertuie gewemel nadat 'n man hier deur 'n inbreker ernstig gewond is. (Foto: Christelle van Rooyen-Wessels)

AfriForum is uiterdankbaar vir die ondersteuning wat uit die plaaslike sakesektor ontvang word. Soos reeds vermeld is die hoofdoel van die projek om dit vir Rustenburgers weer moontlik en gemaklik te maak om die begraafplaas te besoek. Tans versuim die Rustenburg Municipaliteit om die begraafplaas skoon te maak en die gras te snij en die terrein is vir baie mense onveilig, onnet en onbegaanbaar.

Wigwam jou eerste keuse vir stylvolle aftrede

RUSTENBURG HERALD - Op 1 Mei 2017 het Wigwam die hotelbaadjie finaal afgesek en as 'n aftree-oord geopen. Wigwam se bestuur is uiters dankbaar om te kan terugkyk op drie jaar se talle hoogtepunte.

Sedert die opening het Wigwam verskeie suksesse beleef. Eerste inwoners het nou al aangegroei tot meer as 115. Die vol sorgenoheid is reeds as Dementiaspesialis in die mark gevestig. Fase twee van ons luukse selfsorgenoheid is bykans uitverkoop en bouwerk aan die infrastruktuur vir die derde fase is fluks aan die vorder.

Die bestuur is veral trots op die suksesse van die sorgenoheid. Danksy ons besondere versorgingspan se holistiese benadering tot versorging en deernisvolle persoongerigtheid is Fase 1 van die sorgenoheid reeds ten volle beset. Die tweede fase se bouwerk gaan binnekort begin. Alzheimer/Dementia-klinieke waartydens geriatryske spesialiste spesifieke dementia-diagnosis maak en behandeling voorskryf, word gereeld aangebied. Buitens hierdie gereelde Alzheimer/Dementia-klinieke en weeklikse ondersteuningsgroepe vir families wat met hierdie siekte saamleef, was daar ook 'n Alzheimer-seminaar, wondsgeseminaar en word daar nog seminare in die vooruitsig gestel.

Al hierdie aksies en bedrywigheid sou nie moontlik gewees het sonder Wigwam se venootskappe met 'n multidissiplinêre mediese span nie. Buitens die twee dokters en apteker wat hier by Wigwam konsulter is daar ook 'n arbeidsterapeut, fisio-terapeut en maatskaplike werker wat ondersteuning bied. Boonop het Wigwam 'n eie leefstylkonsulent en biokenetici wat weekliks diens doen.

Die hele ontwerp van Wigwam as afree-oord het gefokus op die moderne konsepte soos in Europa, Amerika en ander plekke gevind word. Familie en gesonde familielande kom hier na vore. Wigwam se fasilitete is uiters geskik vir elke inwoner om familie en vriende te ontvang, hetby by die swembaddens of by 'n verskeidenheid braaiareas.

Die bestuur is ook dankbaar vir 'n aktiewe groep inwoners. Die Sport en Sosiale Klub is lekker aktief en talle aktiwiteite word weekliks aangebied. By Wigwam is daar muural, tennis, jukskei, potspiel, stap, uitstappies, handwerk en naaldwerk wat ons inwoners besig hou. Kunsklasse, Bybelstudie, biblioteek, 'n kweekhuis, wedvlugduiwe en Wigwam se natuurskoon is 'n paradys vir die voëlkrykers. Eredienste word elke Sondag om 10:00 deur Tuine-gemeente in ons pragtige kerkie aangebied.

Acne skin - teenagers & adults

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Acne skin - teenagers and adults: Get a good skin cream, you might say. Well, maybe – and maybe not!

Here's the most common cause of dry skin as given by Adelle Davis in her book Let's eat right to keep fit, and some other possible and even probable situations when chronic skin problems exist. Success stories: "Ever since I came to see Anya, she did a full body scan which handled the exact cause of my problematic skin. She sorted out my diet and also gave me an Acne formula. Within a month my skin started to clear up. The marks on my skin also disappeared. I could concentrate much more at school. My self confidence came back and I felt more myself, not depressed anymore. Thanks Anya – I feel alive again" AC Edenvale;

"My skin was always flaky and dry – after I started on Sunshine Vitamin products – the redness of my skin disappeared and my skin is no longer flaky and dry – I can show my face in public now" SC – Brakpan;

Vitamin A vs Blocked Pores: Most immediately, it is a deficiency of vitamin A. Where this occurs, eventually many cells in the lower layers of skin will die and become detached from the surrounding tissue. Sooner or later they clog up the oil sacs and pores which prevents oils from reaching the surface. The result – dry and rough skin, often starting out looking like goose pimples that usually appear first on the elbows, knees, buttocks and behind the upper arms.

Vitamin A vs Oil Utilization: All this might seem a bit of a puzzle at first as vitamin A is so well stored in the body. Broadly speaking, the underlying cause is poor oil utilization; and popular winter diets tend to make one susceptible to this. Vitamin A deficiency symptoms: sinus trouble, kidney trouble through blockages of its fine tubes, lung infections, other respiratory infections, night blindness or eyes sensitive to light.

Vitamin D deficiencies: some likely symptoms are poor calcium absorption leading to dental and bone formation problems (longer term); insomnia, mood instability (short term). Vitamin E (enables efficient use of available oxygen and protects oils in the body from oxidisation – oxidation makes oils rancid and thus toxic).

Sugar and starch excess vs Oil utilization and stress: When too much sugar and carbs are consumed, they get converted into fats which do not easily combine with other fats (which is needed if the body is to use them) and so the body is prevented from producing certain essential fatty acids needed for health. Oils are frequently neglected. They provide good energy that does not cause the blood sugar spikes and the "vicious circle" mentioned. Properly balanced oils can also combine with each other so the body can use them and so properly transport the Oil-soluble vitamins; so oils properly used are very useful winter foods.

Flax seed oil is high in omega 3, 6 and 9. There are also combination oils available that will provide a good balance.

Beta Carotene – start immediately to get usable vitamin A up, up, up to unblock the pores. Get enough protein (the best ploy for handling hunger cycles and handling stress). Optimise oil utilization by getting the correct oils, lecithin and enough vitamin E. Get a balanced calcium and magnesium intake. Get a good balanced multi-vitamin with balanced B vitamins having base levels of at least 25mg. Use the anti-stress vitamins with each meal if the "vicious circle" is marked.

Contact Anya or Lorraine on (011) 452-8892/3/5 and book a full body scan today.

Girls refrain from walking home alone!

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The police in Rustenburg would like to issue a warning to girls and women who go to taverns or parties at night to refrain from walking home alone at night.

This warning according to Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson in Rustenburg comes after the police have been experiencing high numbers of rape cases in and around Rustenburg where the victims were attempting to walk home alone from partying. "We would like to urge the ladies in and around Rustenburg to rather walk in groups and most importantly they must always walk with people that they trust when going to and from the taverns and parties that they attend at night," Mokgadi said.

Yet another robbery at Exact store

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - On Saturday (8 February) yet another robbery took place at Exact Store in the Rustenburg CBD in Fatima Bhayat.

This follows another robbery that took place at the Exact store at the Midtown Mall which took place on Wednesday (5 February). According to information received from Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson in the Rustenburg Cluster, approximately nine men stormed into the Exact Store at Fatima Bhayat a few minutes after the store was opened. The suspects took cellphones to an estimated value of R300 000 and an undisclosed amount of cash then fled the scene. The police through investigations managed to recover the cellphones abandoned in Johannesburg. No arrests have been made so far and the police are investigating a case of business robbery. "The police have noted with concern the increase of robberies in the Rustenburg CBD and have intensified their visibility and patrols. We urge business owners to take the necessary precautions when opening and closing their stores," Mokgadi said.

NW Housing Corporation gets properties

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The North West Housing Corporation has embarked on a journey of collaboration with various municipalities across the province to transfer all properties that are registered in the names of these municipalities back to the NWHC.

The NWHC and the municipalities have signed Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) in terms of which the affected municipalities undertake to transfer the properties back to the NWHC. A significant number of the NWHC properties owned by the NWHC are still registered in the name of the municipalities, and in some instances, the North West Provincial Government. As a background, upon the introduction of the democratic government in 1994, properties that belonged to the NWHC were temporarily transferred to various municipalities for the purpose of registering new townships after the creation of new provinces. It has always been expected that the municipalities would transfer these properties back to the NWHC once the townships were opened and registered. The NWHC is delighted to announce that the following municipalities have now signed MOAs with the Entity - Moses Kotane, Greater Taung, Mahikeng, Tswaing and recently Mangaung Metro. These properties will soon be registered in the name of NWHC. The process to conclude the MOA is still on going with Ramotshere Molioa, Rustenburg, Ditsobotla, Madibeng, and cross-border municipalities (Ga-Segonyana and Phokwane) to sign the MOA.

The NWHC remains fully committed to the promotion of home ownership and continues to do everything possible to facilitate the transfer of ownership to beneficiaries.

{StandpuntViewpoint}* Ons galbekers loop oor

Met die aanvang van die tweede maand wil dit voorkom asof baie van ons in die grootste gedeeltes van ons land, veral ons hier in Noordwes, Gauteng, KwaZulu-Natal en die Vrystaat, se bekers gevaaalik naby aan't oorloop is. Dit is nou wat ons jaarlike reënval betref nê? Terselfdertyd moet ons noem dat daar in baie bekers dalk meer as Eugene Marais se druppel gal is ter gedagtenis aan die versengende droogte in die Oos- en die Noord-Kaap en natuurlik die Karoo en groot gedeeltes van die Namakwaland. Ons wil die hoop uitspreek dat die reën intussen begin val het of baie binnekort gaan begin en dat hierdie boere wat die afgelope vier jaar mens en dier sien vergaan het, se vreugdevure binnekort vir etlike weke lank baie hoog gaan brand. Daar waar die situasie nog hopeloos benard is en waar Moeder Natuur hardnekkig is om uitkoms te bring, wil ons hoop dat ons eie omgewing se Samaritane in die vorm van Boere Droogtehulp SA NPC inderdaad die addresse aangeteken het en dat ons mense nog lank in staat sal wees om inderdaad die SA regering se werk vir hom te doen, aangesien dit teen hierdie tyd lankal 'n voldonge feit is dat ons regering droogtegeteisterde SA-boere vir die wolle gegooi het in ruil vir die vet wat teen hul wange afdrup... Maar boontjie kry sy loontjie en die wiel van geregtigheid draai. Die SA-regering is pas weer vuur en vlam en vas van plan om met sy Grondonteiningsplan voort te gaan en te dagdroom dat daar na dese steeds volhoubare voedselproduksie is Suid-Afrika gaan wees. En wanneer die droogte oor 'n paar jaar weer toeslaan, gaan die regering dan weer broodnodige droogtehulp vir homself opeis of bekonkel en dan hoop dat privaatorganisasies soos Boere Droogtehulp en sy filiale tot die hulp van opkomende boere gaan kom? Die afleidings is maklik om te maak en dit is ewe maklik om te voorspel dat hier 'n ramp aan die kom is soos voorheen nog nie gesien is nie. Met die winter wat so stadig maar seker aan die kom is, kan ons intussen maar weet, daar is 'n beproewe winter op pad en sommer só in die middel van somer het ons al meer as genoeg aanduidings gehad dat Eskom beslis nie hierdie winter die mas gaan opkom nie, so, kom ons wees gewaarsku en word nie soos die SA-regering met ons broeke op ons knieë gevang nie. Met nog 'n verhoging in kragtariewe op hande terwyl ons semi-staatsinstellings al dieper die moeras insink, kan ons nie sien hoe Eskom (soos ons hom ken) in terme van huishoudelike kragvoorsiening hoegenaamd 'n toekoms het nie.

Our bitter cups of gall are overflowing

At the onset of the second month and with great showers in most areas of the country, most notably here in North West, Gauteng, KwaZulu-Natal and the Free State, our cups are on the brink of overflowing. Sadly, in many those cups, there is very likely to be a bitter taste due to the devastating drought of the past four years which has seen countless of farms collapsing and the death of cattle and livestock, reaching pandemic proportions. The drought in the Eastern Cape, Northern Cape, the Karoo and Namaqualand, since late 2015, will not be forgotten very easily. One can only hope that the rains have started to fall and that it will bring much-awaited relief to numerous drought-stricken farms. On the other hand, on those farms where the drought has been persisting stubbornly, we hope that our local Samaritans such as "Boere Droogtehulp SA NPC" indeed has those addresses noted down and that private organisations will be able to continue drought relief programmes on behalf of the SA Government, whose aid and contribution was far too little, far too late...But, though the wheels of justice are turning very slowly, we know that they are turning mercilessly... However, at the same time we have once again seen that the SA Government is quite persistent with its land expropriation programmes and is still dreaming that upcoming farmers will be able to live up to the challenges of sustainable food production in future. We sincerely hope, that these new farmers will be able to do just that during times of devastating droughts and that when (not if) this happens, the SA Government will not be tempted to look at private organisations such as Boere Droogtehulp to rush to the rescue of thousands of farmers and their families. It's old hat that SA farmers were thrown to the wolves in return for the fat dripping from the beards of those who should have been their saviours. Something tells us there is a disaster looming on the horizon.

Speaking of the second month, with the winter of 2020 approaching swiftly, South African should know that this is going to be a bad winter. We have seen far too many unwelcome indications, even in mid-summer, that this winter, Eskom is highly unlikely to live up to the demand for electricity and that we, unlike to SA Government, won't get caught with our pants down. The fact simply remains, with another tariff hike looking while parastatals are sinking deeper into the muddy swamps every day, Eskom as we knew it, no longer has a future in this country.

Ramaphosa will have work cut out for him

RUSTENBURG HERALD - CAPE TOWN - Thursday, 13th February is just a tiny little better than Friday, 13th of February, don't you agree?

Well, it sure looks that it's time for the high jump for President Cyril Ramaphosa and members of the National Assembly as Ramaphosa is expected to deliver his State of the Nation Address in Parliament. Sparks are expected to fly as Julius Malema of the EFF has made little secret of his intentions to once again disrupt proceedings in protest of the presence of the Minister of State-owned Enterprises - Pravin Gordhan. Be sure not to miss the SONA address by Cyril Ramaphosa on Thursday. The proceedings will be broadcast by SABC 2/3 at 18:00 though this has not been finalised at the time of our going to print on Tuesday.

Moedertaalmaand 2020 - Kom ons maak 'n bohaai!

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Waarom weer 'n bohaai oor moedertaalonderrig?

"Dit is Moedertaalmaand en op 21 Februarie vier ons Internasionale Moedertaaldag wat deur Unesco (die Verenigde Nasies se Opvoedkundige, Wetenskaplike en Kulturele Organisasie) ingestel is om te fokus op die belangrikheid van moedertale regoor die wêreld. Hulle moedig mense aan en lig mense in oor die belangrikheid van moedertaalonderrig en lê klem op die bewaring van kultuur en erfenis". "Ons wêreld staan op sy kop.

Die gaping tussen die rykes en armes word al groter. Ons staar die gevolge van aardverwarming in die gesig, politici faal ons en die tegnologie tot ons beskikking word in baie gevalle ons grootste vyand. Ons almal probeer net kop bo water hou. Waarom nog team en kerm oor moedertale en veral moedertaalonderrig? Teen dié tyd is ons almal deeglik bewus van die oorweldigende resultate van navorsing wat moedertale aandui as die sleutel tot leersukses, maar ons staar ons blind teen die praktiese uitdagings. Dit is moeilik om toegang te kry tot gehalte moedertaalonderrig. Die wêreld funksioneer hoofsaaklik in Engels. Tertiêre instellings het boedel oorgegee ... Dit is mos die realiteit ... Basta met die navorsing wat aantoon dat jou fondasie in jou moedertaal jou ware potensiaal ontsluit. Basta met die feit dat dit 'n mensereg is om in jou moedertaal te leer. Basta met die feit dat jy Engels en ander tale beter aanleer as jy eers leer lees en skryf in jou moedertaal. Basta met die feit dat ingewikkelde koncepte makliker posvat wanneer jy eers die begrippe in jou moedertaal onder die knie kry. Basta met die feit dat van die suksesvolste, welvarendste en beste lande in die wêreld hul reg op moedertaalonderrig opeis. In lande soos Nederland, Duitsland, Japan en Amerika, wat op die gebied van innovasie, tegnologie en ekonomiese vooruitgang die toon aangee, is moedertaalonderrig nie eers 'n debat nie! Maar in Suid-Afrika, waar die geleterdheidsvlak daal, waar die standaarde jaarliks verswak en waar die sosio-ekonomiese uitdagings daagliks escaleer, besef ouers steeds nie dat die pendulum slegs kan swaai wanneer ons ons kinders bemagtig sodat hulle die uitdagings van vandag met innovasie en kreatiwiteit kan aanpak ... jongmense wat uitnemendheid na die tafel bring". Afrikaans.com – Leerhulp: "Hou gedurende Februarie ons Leer- en onderrighulplaaie dop vir praktiese hulp in 'n meer tale klaskamer (die konsep van transtaling). Ons is voortdurend besig om ons inligting by te werk en jou ingelig te hou oor die nuutste verwikkelinge en gebeure op die moedertaalonderrigfront. Ons hou jou ook ingelig oor die werksaamhede van organisasies wat hard werk om moedertaalonderrig behoue te laat bly".

Impala Rugby big wigs to meet at AGM

RUSTENBURG HERALD-RUSTENBURG - Rugby enthusiasts will be pleased to hear that Rustenburg Impala Rugby Club is on the move again and currently ruffling its feathers for the 2020 rugby season.

Rustenburg Impala invites all members to the club's Annual General Meeting which will be held at Impala Rugby Club at 18:00 on Tuesday, 18 February. If rugby is your game and you're serious about the sport, this is the one you shouldn't miss.

James (32) started oval track racing at the age of 12 and has been racing with his wife now for the past five years. Shané (27) also got bitten with the racing bug at the age of 12, but she started off on two wheels, racing motorcycles.

The couple both now drive Datsuns: James a Datsun GX with a 4age motor and Shané a Datsun GX with a B6 motor. James' best time at Midway Racing was 7.3 seconds and Shané is hot on his heels with a best time of 7.8 seconds. Both hope to be improving their times in 2020.

When not behind the wheel, the adrenaline junkie Shané loves Scuba diving, other water sports and reading. James is also rather fond of exploring underwater, but he also loves fishing and a bit of mountain biking. Don Garlits, aka 'Big Daddy', is one of Shané's favourite drivers. "However, my husband will win every popularity contest with me hands down, every time," she says. For him it is Big Chief from the Street Outlaws that inspires him.

SA Superspanne lyk goed - vir nou

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die Jaguares en die Crusaders se nederlae die afgelope naweek is 'n lig in die tonnel vir Suid-Afrikaanse spanne in die Vodacom Super Rugby-reeks.

Verlede jaar het die Suid-Afrikaners, wat saam met die Suid-Afrikaanse spanne in dieselfde groep speel, die septer in die groep geswaai. Op dié stadium lyk dit egter asof die Stormers en die Haaie vanjaar lus is om hul te onttron.

Die Jaguares is die naweek op hul tuisveld in Buenos Aires deur die Hurricanes geklop; dieselfde gronde waar die manne van die Pampas verlede week die Leeus se tjank afgetrap het. Die Haaie was indrukwekkend in hul wedstryd teen die Crusaders in Dunedin - en mens kry hoop dat dié Kiwis dalk nie so onstuitbaar is soos wat mens altyd verwag nie. Dit lyk asof die boys van 'Durbs se nuwe afrigter, Sean Everitt die regte idee het - om sy manne die afbreekpunte te laat aanval, en om hul teenstanders se foute in hul guns uit te buit. Hulle was ook uitstekend om verdediging in aanval om te sit. Die Stormers lyk asof die wilde windie wat die afgelope ruk daar deur die Kaap trek al hul spinnerakke en muisnestie so effens weggewaai het. Die span van die Snoekstad speel vanjaar asof hul geen teëstand gaan duld nie - en die stomme Bulle moes die afgelope naweek gevolglik baie ver reis net om absolut geen punte te verdien nie.

Dit bring ons by die Leeus. Ja, hulle het die Reds gewen. Maar, selfs vir heelwat vurige Lion-ondersteuners, was die wedstryd maar redelik "meh". Die skrums was skokkend - Jannie du Plessis is reeds 'n paar jaar verby sy best-by-date en sonder Malcolm Marx is die pak futloos. Die swaeltjie vir die Lions, op dié stadium, is ongetwyfeld Tyrone Green. Indien die Lions mooi na die blondekop kyk, kan hy 'n waardevolle wapen word. Die komende naweek speel die span gasheer vir die Stormers - en, as die Stormers nie deur hul trippie Johannesburg toe ontwrig word nie, gaan die Lions hul werk uitgeknip hê. Gelukkig is Ross Cronje terug as skrumskakel vir dié wedstryd. Vleuel Jamba Ulengo is ook dié naweek weer terug in die span. Die wedstryd begin Saterdag (15 Februarie) om 15:05.

Uitslae:

- Highlanders 20 - Cell C Sharks 42
- Brumbies 39 Rebels - 26
- Emirates Lions 27 - Reds 20
- DHL Stormers 3 - Vodacom Bulls 0
- Jaguares 23 - Hurricanes 26

Jannie van der Westhuizen en Kobus Kruger se eerste bergfietswedren vir die jaar was die USN by Muldersdrift Avianto. Die wedren moes ongelukkig van 'n 50km na 'n 21km verkort word weens omstandighede (baie reën en modder).
