Memorable moments

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - On Friday 14 February Andrè and Cillest Pieters had a golf date in the afternoon. On the spur of the moment on Friday morning she decide to surprise him.

She made her way to the Rustenburg Golf Club, geared with balloons and hearts. She decorated the golf cart in a real Valentine's fashionable way. The cart was hidden. Unaware, Andrè reported, geared up and ready for golf.

And then Cillest drove up, blasting him away with the song that they opened the dance floor with on their wedding day almost 18 years ago. He stood surprised and speechless as she gave him a big red heart -shaped helium balloon. A huge smile appeared and a kiss sealed the deal.

As he thought this is it…. Shadrack, staff member at the golf club who formed part of the plan, came driving around the corner with the decorated golf cart. The look on Andrè s face was priceless.

Staff members at the golf club also enjoyed the moment. Enjoying the spoiling and the attention, André said that his wife is always full of surprises. "Thank you darling, this is really special". Memorable moments like this….never to be forgotten.

Altyd vriendelik en verdraagsaam - JP en Alta; Wat sy is, is genade. Wat sy het, is geleen. Haar voorbeeld sal my altyd bybly - Thinus; Sy dra haar ouderdom met waardigheid, het altyd tyd vir n geselsie, lieflike persoonlikheid - Hans en Helene; Ouma Corrie is vir ons almal 'n voorbeeld en inspirasie, want ondanks haar hoë ouderdom, is haar plekkie in die kerk nooit leeg nie - Nic en Rika; Haar voorbeeld word waardeer en al gaan dit deesdae bietjie moeiliker, het sy altyd 'n glimlag - Neels en Helien; Sy het altyd tyd vir 'n geselsie of n grappie, voorbeeld vir jonk en oud wat 'n voorreg om haar te kan ken - Renier en Amanda; Net soos wat sy vir ons 'n goeie voorbeeld is, so is ds Dirk Wijnbeek, Nelriet en Dirk jr, ook vir ons almal 'n voorbeeld, dankie dat julle so mooi vir ouma oppas en versorg; 'n Ma wat die bindweefsel van die geskiedenis is en kennis van wat was en hoe om dinge te doen, oor te dra aan ons, anders sal alles verlore gaan as sy dit nie aan ons skenk nie - JP en Alta".

Biological father rapes daughter, gets life sentence

RUSTENBURG HERALD- RUSTENBURG- A life sentence was secured on 27 January 2020 in the Mogwase Regional Court after the shocking rape of a minor by her biological father.

The child's mother passed away when she was still very young. According to CAptain Elsabé Augoustides, spokesperson for the police in Rustenburg, the child was left in the care of her grandparents in a village near Mogwase. Since April 2011 to September 2013, the father came visiting the child and demanded to take her to his shanty. There she was raped repeatedly and eventually, as she could not bear the thought of being sexually abused any further, and out of sheer desperation, she wrote a letter to her principal, indicating that the lady was her "last hope" of ever escaping her dire circumstances.

The principal immediately reported the matter to the SAPS on 17 December 2013 and he was arrested within days. The victim never reported the incidents of rape to her grandparents, as she believed that they would not take her seriously.

The accused was never released on bail and remanded in custody until he was sentenced. In handing down the sentence, the Magistrate mentioned that children are taught that their parents, especially their fathers, protect the family. He is the one who assist the child when he or she is hurt. "This sentence must serve as a warning to all other fathers to protect and not hurt their children.

Two investigating officers who persevered under difficult circumstances, W/off Ephraim Raditlhalo and Sergeant Sophie Phutiyagae from Mogwase Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences are congratulated on a job well done. Major General Adams expressed his dismay at the sheer thought of the trauma that the victim went through.

Amplats CEO Chris Griffith to step down

News - financialRUSTENBURG HERALD - After more than seven years at the helm, Anglo American Platinum's CEO Chris Griffith is stepping down.

In a notice to shareholders on Monday (18 February), the mining company said Griffith, who has spent 30 years at the company, will step down on April 16 to pursue "other career opportunities".

His successor is expected to be an internal candidate from within the Anglo American Group. Commenting on Griffith's departure, the chairperson of Amplats, Norman Mbazima, said he made an exceptional contribution to improving safety and aiding the operational and financial turnaround of the business. "The focus on innovation and developing diverse markets for our range of metals, see Anglo American Platinum well positioned to continue growing from its current position of strength," Mbazima said. Griffith said that the time had come for the "next generation of leadership" to take the business forward. The platinum mining company on Monday also released its annual results for the 2019 financial year. The group's EBITA - or earnings before interest, taxes, and amortization - doubled to R30bn. During the period platinum group metals production increased by 1%, driven by record production at its Mogalakwena and Unki mines. Headline earnings per share more than doubled from R28.93 reported in 2018 to R70.87. The group's net cash position is at R17.3bn, up from R14.4bn reported in 2018.

Pretrit eindig in tragedie

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - 'n Aand-uitstappie om Valentynsdag te vier het 'n hartseer einde vir 'n jong egpaar gehad.

Op Vrydagaand (14 Februarie) het Pieter (26) en Yvonne (24) Nortje hul onderskeie motorfietse geneem en op die N4 in die rigting van Pretoria gery. Op daardie stadium was 'n 38-jarige werknemer van 'n myn in die teenoorgestelde rigting op pad. Volgens plaaslike polisiewoordvoerder, kapt Elsabé Augoustides, het die motorfiets van Pieter Nortje net na 22:00 met die Toyota Yaris van die 38-jarige man gebots. Beide bestuurders het beheer verloor en die Yaris het gerol. Yvonne se motorfiets het dié van haar man getref. Toe nooddienste op die toneel aankom, het Pieter reeds as gevolg van sy beserings omgekom. Yvonne en die bestuurder van die Yaris is na hospitale afgevoer. Volgens kapt Augoustides het Yvonne kritieke beserings opgedoen. Die polisie ondersoek 'n klag van strafbare manslag.

Rustenburg high-strung on fibre

Contracting companies are accused of applying old-school technology such as six meter wooden/tar poles to support a first-world fibre communication network in Rustenburg. A petition to oppose this, is being run on social media.

Waldie Volschenk

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A storm is brewing in Rustenburg with regard to the "installation" of a fibre "cabling" network throughout several Rustenburg extensions for the past few weeks already.

After a promising start to the roll-out of the fibre age in Rustenburg, the process to upgrade Rustenburg to first-world communications technology is hampered by what seems to be communities who are increasingly agitated about the fact that procedures are apparently not followed in terms of the technical side of things as well as increasing complaints that some of the contracting companies involved has not been entirely transparent in terms of its procedural public participation programmes. What was expected to be an exciting and long-awaited development in Rustenburg, turned out to be a disappointment after it came to light that contracting companies were intend on employing an "above-ground" installation method by means of six meter tall wooden/tar poles put up at intervals of roughly 30 to 50 metres as support for the fibre cabling network in several Rustenburg extensions. Residents fear that the project could eventually turn out to be exceedingly unsightly with old-world technology to support world-class communications technology - literally in stark contrast to modern times. Several residents have complained that not only are the installations displeasing, but specifically that contractors have pledged themselves to underground cabling processes as per its Publication Participating Programmes and that per sé, that public participation processes have been flawed.

In addition Rustenburg Herald has been told that surprisingly, "none of the contracting companies has been awarded an official contract to date" which means that everything that has been achieved to date, is nothing short than illegal". A ward councillor told Waldie Volschenk that the Rustenburg Municipality's Directorate Infrastructure was approached by contracting companies and that nothing more than wayleave applications/prescriptions were issued. The understanding is that this was erroneously interpreted as a "go ahead" to continue with the project. "It must be clear that to date, nothing is official, hence several attempts by the Rustenburg Municipality and specifically Ward Councillors to have the entire project halted until all issues have been clarified. It must also be noted that that though probably all Ward Councillors are in favour of fibre technology, we are not that desperate that we would approve of something which is not up to standard", Rustenburg Herald was told. From what could be established at the time of Rustenburg Herald going to print, delegations of all relevant parties were committed to meetings with fellow role players to have the issue resolved within following weeks.

Important meeting on threat of uncontrolled fires

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - According to 2019 fire reports, approximately 24000 ha of grazing, orchards, fields, natural bush and trees were damaged by wildfires in the Rustenburg Municipal Area, causing loss of assets to landowners, farmers, home owners and to the environment. During September of 2019, several home owners experienced the devastating trauma of losing their homes to wildfires. In one such runaway fire, fanned by high winds, nine homes were destroyed in a matter of minutes.

The Greater Rustenburg Fire Protection Association (GRFPA) is a voluntary association that seeks to unite rural landowners for the purpose of preventing wildfires. The association was registered in 2005 under the Department of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries and now falls under the Department of Environmental Affairs. The GRFPA will be holding its Annual General Meeting on 22 February at 10:00 at the Brauhaus on the R24. All persons who rent or own a property, small holding or farm within the Rustenburg Local municipality are urged to attend. Based on years of gathering statistics, the risk of wildfire (unplanned fire in grass, veld and bush) within our municipality has been classified as “Extreme”. The GRFPA provides a platform for concerned people to share ideas on fire prevention, protection and preparedness, and to be informed of the laws with bind all landowners as set out in the National Veld Fire and Forest Act (NVFFA). Further information can be found on the website https://www.grfpa.org/ or email grfpa.fire@gmail.com

Love is in the air at Sun City Resort

By Jabulani Senyatso

Pictured here are some of the staff members of Sun City Resort who went out of their way to ensure that the guests had a good time at the romantic picnic.

RUSTENBURG HERALD- SUN CITY- According to a study conducted recently, Sun City Resort is one of the most romantic destinations in the North West Province and South Africa as a whole.

This was evident when couples from in and around Rustenburg as well as the entire country descended in their numbers to celebrate the month of love in style at the Resort. With many activities to choose from, Sun City Resort hosted a Valentines weekend from 14 February to 16 February.

On Friday evening, guests had an opportunity to attend a live performance show, where Loyiso Bala performed to the guests at the Sun Arena. But that is not all, on Saturday afternoon a picnic was held at the Baobab outlook, at the Palace where more live performances were conducted, with the likes of artists, Loyiso Bala, Lloyd Cele and Danny K. The romantic weekend concluded with a special dinner at Letsatsing Boma on Saturday evening (15 February). For those of you who are anxious to see what really happened at Sun City, please follow this link to see videos and photos of the Romantic Valentines weekend: http://bit.ly/valentinescity.

Loyiso Bala stole the hearts of those in attendance of the Loyiso Concert held at the Sun Arena on Friday evening (14 February) with his performance of love songs.

Dié kaart is jou sleutel

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Rustenburg is omring deur mooi plekke en daar is heelwat uitspanopsies.

Boonop is die stad ook gereeld gasheer vir groot skolesportbyeenkomste. Die kanse is dus goed dat jy jou een of ander tyd in die stad gaan bevind - en jy moet 'n heenkome vir 'n dag of wat vind. Moenie met jou hande in die hare sit nie! Gebruik die akkommodasiekaart in die middel van dié koerant om 'n gastehuis vir jou verblyf te vind. Ons wys jou waar dit geleë is sodat jy presies kan sien of dit in die omgewing is waar jy wil vertoef. Gastehuise se kontakbesonderhede word ook op die kaart verskaf.

Ou enjins het nog baie skop

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Rustenburg se klub/groep vir regte, egte outydse statiese enjins - die tipe wat in Suid-Afrika se pioniersdae in die 30's en daarna op plase en klein dorpies gebruik is om elektrisiteit op te wek en water te pomp, het die afgelope naweek vir die klub se jaarlikse enjin-opedag en skou na die bekende Paul Kruger Gasteplaas net buite Rustenburg opgeruk.

'n Mens slaan die hande saam om te sien hoeveel bekendes daar in Rustenburg is wat 'n sagte plekkie vir die nostalgie van die ou enjins het. Families pak piekniekmandjies, bring sitplek en songoed en die vrouens maak kringetjie en kuier in die skaduwee terwyl die mans met die ystergoed swoeg en spog, want mooi bly darem maar mooi, of hulle nou een silinder of sommer 'n paar het... Rustenburg Herald se fotograwe was ook onder die gaste en het 'n klompie "kiekies" geneem...

Human Jordaan - sekerlik een van die grootste statiese enjin-geesdriftiges in die hele land wat met 'n magdom van die enjins en werktuie in sy agterplaas spog. Die enjinmanne se jaarlikse skou word reeds die afgelope vier jaar by oom Human se Paul Kruger gastehuis gehou. Oom Human staan hier by 'n 1937 Ruston & Hornsby 28 hp Class HR6 wat in perfek lopende toestand is.

'n Paar van die bekendes onder Rustenburg se enjinmanne en 'n gereelde besoeker van Pretoria wat baie tyd en geld bestee om die stokperdjie lewendig te hou. Van links is Human Jordaan, Peter Pontsteen van Pretoria, Philip Mostert en Mike Loots. As jy op die plaas dalk 'n ou enjin het wat 'n bietjie liefde en aandag benodig of dalk self met die stokperdjie wil begin, moet jy met een van hierdie manne gesels.

Nee, dit is nie net oumense wat in die ou enjins belangstel nie - Duan Schoombee van Bergsig Akademie het ook 'n lewendige belangstelling in die goed wat sommer so "vanself" loop.Hierdie "Lister" is seker een van die bekendste modelle wat ooit gebruik is.

Service - What service?

By Jabulani Senyatso

RUSTENBURG HERALD- RUSTENBURG- The Rustenburg Herald, having being inundated with phone calls from residents about the bad service that they experience with the Rustenburg Local Municipality's Service delivery numbers decided to do a bit of digging.

After receiving a phone call from residents at Beneden Street in Rustenburg East about a pipe leak which had been reported over two weeks, we phoned the Service delivery number, having reference number in hand.

The phone rings and rings. Someone finally answers. In the background there is laughter. We asked if the person can assist to follow up about a pipe leak in Beneden Street.

The person responds by saying no. " It's the wrong department." The journalist then asked for the number of the relevant department, and the RLM staff member gives a number. But the number given is that of a building material shop. According to the complainant at Beneden Street, this has been their experience the past three weeks as well. After the first call, our journalist called again, but this time he mentions that he is a journalist from the Rustenburg Herald. And he gets the best service anyone can ever ask for. After an interview with the complainant, and having done a video on social media, the workers of the Rustenburg Local Municipality prioritised the problem and on Friday (14 February) the pipe was fixed.

All is not well at Robega Village

RUSTENBURG HERALD - ROBEGA - Robega Village, is a village a few kilometres from Sun City and is well known for the crime rate that has plagued the community due to the high rate of unemployment, especially amongst the youth.

All is not well at this village according to the Robega Community Crisis Action Committee who recently visited the Rustenburg Herald Offices to talk about issues that they face on a day-to-day basis. The Robega Community Crisis Action was registered on 21 February 2005 with the purpose of assisting the community to go forward and overcome its challenges. The above mentioned organisation will be representing Robega community at the North West High Court on 13 March 2020 for administration case no 28/2017 against R.B.A.

The community, being one of the poorest in the North West Province has a fear that they will not be able represent their community well because of lack of funds, which is why they are reaching out to anyone who can assist them. "Robega is a state where we elect a council every five years, we kindly appeal / request for donations from Robega community, Rustenburg business community or anyone who might be interested to assist". For more information on how you can assist and further details on the court case please contact Mr Daniel Mabyaia on 073 6964 669 or email robegacrisiscommittee@gmail.com.

Bogus 'colleges' closed

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A clamp down continues on illegal colleges in the city.

During last week the Rustenburg Local Municipality's Directorate for Public Safety led an operation on bogus colleges around the central business district. This was a follow-up on two operations that had already been conducted last year. The operation was in conjunction with officials from the Department of Higher Education and Training. The main objective was to shut down colleges which have not been legally registered to operated including institutions which offer courses for which accreditation has not been issued. A college situated at 15 Oliver Tambo Drive was found to be offering non-accredited courses in Traffic Policing, as well as N1 to N3 courses. Additionally, the building was not equipped with serviced fire fighting equipment. Following the inspection at the college, a fine of R 5000 was issued for non-compliance with fire safety by-laws and the college was closed and will only re-open when full registration of offered courses has been done with the relevant department. Another college located at the corner of Pretorius and Boom Streets was found not to be legally permitted in Rustenburg. The college, however, is registered to operate in Brits, where it has complied with the requirements. Non-accredited Engineering Courses (N1 to N3) and Business Studies(N4 to N6) are being offered at this college. The college was shut down and will only operate after all proper registration with the Department of Higher Education & Training has been completed. A computer academy, Karabo Computer Academy, which was inspected during last year's operation in Rustenburg and who was closed down, was found to have, illegally, re-opened again. The college was found operating without proper campus registration, as well as offering non-accredited courses. Karabo Computer Academy is not registered with the Department of Education.

A fine of R 2500.00 was also issued for failing to equip the premises with a fire extinguisher in accordance with municipal fire-safety by-laws. "The college was closed down again and will be monitored to prevent re-opening until all specified registrations with the relevant department are complete," spokesperson for the Rustenburg Local Municipality, David Magae said.

Back to basics - a nutritional overview for the man in the street

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Bodies and nutrition are complex subjects, but there are certain basics that apply to everyone.

Trying to debug or adjust nutrition without these things being in place is difficult – if not a waste of time – like trying to tune a car when it is only firing on two cylinders.

LV Nutritional Products Pty Ltd 6 steps to good health: Protein (get enough), Vitamins and Minerals (get a full, basic complement), Key Minerals (even after the basic complement as in point 2 is seen to) – vital for smooth muscle function.

These are in two sets of two, in each set one works for muscle contraction and one for muscle relaxation. Most muscle dysfunction can be traced back to deficiencies of these (tremors, cramps, jerky bowels, restless legs, etc): Calcium and Magnesium – probably deficient in a large majority of people, Potassium and Sodium (sodium is usually oversupplied and potassium usually deficient), Fat/Oil Utilisation (seeing that it is correct), Carbohydrates (most people over-do them. Drop refined ones, see that you get vegetables), Stress - understand and handle as defined nutritionally.

Protein - why and how?

Why? Almost all you see looking at your body is protein. Your digestive enzymes, hormones and immune system are protein. Without enough you cannot digest your food properly, then your body can't build, repair or protect itself, hormones don't function as they should

How? Get at least the equivalent of 6 (and up to 12) eggs daily from the usual sources: meat, fish, eggs, milk, yoghurt, cheese, beans. If you have been lacking or ill, use a supplement like whey protein which digests easily. Rule: quantity first, then adjust quality. If possible: start the day with protein;take your protein in up to 6 small meals daily.

Vitamins and minerals - why and how?

Why? Over several decades, scientists have isolated the nutrients vital to life – mainly vitamins and minerals. Skip any one of them for long enough and it will affect you adversely. For some nutrients, marked, prolonged shortages can cause death. Some deficiencies cause problems rapidly and others more slowly. In supplements, balance is the key.

How?

The difficult way: Eat only preservative-free, fertilizer free food from the very best soils that is "yesterday-fresh" (Do this if you can). A practical way: try to get the freshest, best quality foods within your time and budget. Take a well-balanced multi-vitamin/mineral supplement with adequate dosages. Most commercial supplements are too low to be of practical use. Keep vitamin C very high. 1000 mg daily is rock-bottom for today's toxic city life. Linus Pauling, Double Nobel prize-winner, recommended and took ten times that. We live in a toxic society and Vitamin C is the most important "de-toxer".

Take a natural source of B vitamins. The "B"s are difficult to balance no matter how good a supplement seems. A natural source lessens the chances of artificial shortages caused by imbalances. The two readily available sources are liver and brewer's yeast. The easiest to work with is brewers' yeast. A heaped tablespoon 3 or 4 times a week will get you going in the right direction, but take a calcium/magnesium supplement too, to balance the high phosphorus.

Calcium, Magnesium and Potassium - why and how?

Why? About a third of the body protein, by weight, is connective tissue and its main constituent is collagen, a jelly-like substance that holds the cells together. Calcium is needed for this jelly to set and vitamin C is probably the most important factor in its formation. Both are necessary to firm, disease-resistant tissues.

How? Calcium/magnesium: the only sure way we know of currently, in the modern life-style is by taking a properly formulated, easily absorbable calcium and magnesium supplement. Only a few of the commercial formulas fit this standard. Take potassium after each meal that has added salt (500 – 1000mg would be typical) and take vegetables.

Fats/Oils - why and how?

Why? Oil soluble vitamins (A, D, E and K) are nullified by poor oil utilisation. Vitamin E enables efficient use of available oxygen and protects oils in the body from oxidisation (oxidisation makes oils rancid and thus toxic). Vitamin E Deficiencies will often be seen as shortness of breath. Without quantity and quality of oils Vit E doesn't work well so deficiencies of the other oil-soluble vitamins are very likely. A low/no fat diet can block the oil soluble vitamins as surely as bad oils; and, of course, the essential fatty acids will be missing to that degree.

How? Take the right oils: Cold-pressed vegetable oils including all the essential fatty acids need to be taken. They have different types of molecules which need to work together – several different oils are needed to provide these.

See our consultants on the easiest way to achieve these points (011) 452-8892/3/5.

Pessimisme in ons dorp gedy

En daar is ons nou by SONA 2020, by die voormalige staatspresident en Nobelpryswenner FW de Klerk, wat van nuuts af as 'n moordenaar uitgeskel word, deur Julius Malema en die EFF wat president Cyril Ramaphosa se staatsrede vir die soveelste keer vertraag en onderbreek het en die nuutste onthullings oor Eskom, die NG Kerk wat homself alweer in troebel waters bevind en nuwe getuienis voor die Zondo Kommissie dat die voormalige voorsitter van die SAL Dudu Myeni, miljoene rande in die vorm van staatskontrakte na die Zuma-stigting gekanaliseer het. Ons is woedend vir mekaar, dienslewering is op 'n laagtepunt en haai ja, lankal vergete is die kruin van die golf wat ons so al te lekker na die Wêreldbeker-rugbytoernooi van slegs 'n paar maande gelede gery het en waarvan ons gehoop het die euforie nooit gaan ophou nie. 'n Mens moet darem seker maar regtig 'n optimis wees om te reken dat ons land en sy mense deur 'n tydperk van geboortepyne/groeipyne gaan en dat die stormwaters sommer binnekort of een van die dae niks meer as 'n kalmerende rivierstroompie gaan wees nie. By die jongste braaivleisvuur hoor ek 'n man die prentjie soos volg opsom: Suid-Afrika is 'n ware Piesangrepubliek, tipies aan Afrika met bitter min positiewe vooruitsigte op politieke of ekonomiese front. Waarmee daar wel in hierdie land rekening gehou kan word is die rugby: Dit is nou al amper 'n gegewe dat Suid-Afrika se rugby so elke vyf jaar daarin slaag om met 'n span en afrigter vorendag kom wat heel moontlik tot 'n wêreldbekeroorwinning in staat kan wees. En dan wat die krieket betref: Dit is nou al 'n gegewe dat Suid-Afrika so elke vyf jaar met 'n span en afrigter vorendag kan kom wat 'n bietjie minder van 'n verleentheid is as gewoonlik, - die afgelope vyf jaar het dit egter nog nie gebeur nie... En dan 'n bietjie nader aan die huis, die Rustenburgse verkeersituasie omdat dit blyk dat ons munisipaliteit net eenvoudig nie in staat is om die verkeersligte op die R24 na die Waterfall Mall, veral in kwaai spitsverkeer, aan die gang kan hou nie, en dat die munisipaliteit skynbaar besluit het daar is nie geld nie, daar is nie tyd nie en daar is nie mense om die talle slaggate in ons paaie te herstel nie. Daar is gerugte dat die slim mense by die munisipaliteit besig is om 'n nonsens-ding soos 'n spoedhobbel te ontwerp wat motoriste kan verhoed om rooi verkeersligte te ignoreer... O, so dit is waarmee hulle die afgelope tyd so besig is...?

Pessimism in our ranks rife

And here we are not even at the end of the second month and yet, the problems most ordinary people are facing on a daily basis, seem to be mounting. Not so long ago - in fact, just after South Africa's victory of the 2019 World Cup Rugby Tournament, it was proclaimed that the success of our campaign in this all important challenge was going to last forever and there was no doubt that "today - our country has been united by sports! What a wonderful achievement!" Alas, hardly the end of the second month and we are back to square one. All forgotton! For instance: SONA 2019 has been the circus it usually is. Can you imagine - a first world country with politicans fighting and arguing like little children ... Former President FW de Klerk was yet again labelled a murderer and politicians insisted that he not be invited to SONA or Parliament again. One wonders, could it really be that there is no "protocol" or ethic code for Members of Parliament and that those people who are misbehaving or playing for political points be removed immediately, like in the days when Zuma was the President? Why not anymore? Then at the same time, the largest religious group in South Africa once again on the brink of collapsing, the latest sad news on Eskom, the threat to pension schemes, the latest findings at the Zondo Commission and evidence that the former Chairperson of the SAA has ordered millions in government contracts to be channeled to the Zuma foundation. When will it ever end? No surprise then that we've heard the following around a recent braai fire: South Africa, yes, a real Banana Republic with very little political or economical prospects. What concerns the rugby: It could be a given by now that every five years or so, the country produces a Springbok team and coach who could come dangerously close to winning a World Cup tournament. It has done so three times. Then our cricket: By now it could be a given that every five years or so, the country produces a Protea cricket side who is slightly less of an embarrassment than usual. This hasn't happened during the course of the last five years however... Laughing aside, one wonders where such pessimism comes from? And then a little closer to home. Why is it that the Rustenburg Municipality just couldn't get around to fixing the traffic lights on the R24 towards the Waterfall Mall - especially at peak times? This is really a nightmare. We so wish the municipality could be just as efficient in fixing potholes and traffic lights as they are in putting up speed bumps... One wonders how long it is going to take to think of a nuisance such as a speed bump that could prevent motorists from ignoring red lights? O, so that's what they've been up to all this time?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die afgelope naweek is 'n baie suksesvolle fondsinsamelingsprojek vir Jaco Fourie gehou.

Just another pothole

The Editor

Today, after weeks of frustration I have to ask: Why does it always take the Rustenburg Municipality (or the management of the Waterfall Mall?) so very long to fix a pothole along the access roads around the Waterfall Mall?

We have been complaining over potholes and unsightly scenes in the area for ages while apparently it only takes a few complaints from motorists/residents in the area before yet another speed hump is being put up? I'm referring to the pothole growing in size virtually by the day right opposite House and Home accross the new Mitsos restaurant towards the western exit from the Platinum Square.

In addition to the spot being on a bend, it is quite congested during peak hours and one really has to be careful not to end up with at least two wheels in the pothole, which could turn it to be a costly exercise. Is there someone who would be able to help us - or should we go to alternative shopping areas?

AfriForum se Rustenburgtak maak ou begraafplaas skoon

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - AfriForum se Rustenburgtak het op 15 Februarie in samewerking met Crazy Skip en Rustenburg Therm Guard 'n skoonmaakaksie by die ou begraafplaas in Nelson Mandelastraat van stapel gestuur.

Die plaaslike munisipaliteit verwaarloos al vir jare dié geskiedkundige begraafplaas en daarom het AfriForum besluit om hierdie kulturele landmerk in Rustenburg van ondergang te red.

Die gras in die begraafplaas was meer as 'n meter lank, wat die perseel byna ontoeganklik gemaak het. Slegs die bopunte van die grafstene het uitgesteek, terwyl sekere grafstene totaal onder die lang gras bedek was. Hawelose mense maak ook vuur en slaap in die begraafplaas, wat hewige besoedelingsprobleme tot gevolg het. "Dit is hartseer dat die munisipaliteit nie waarde heg aan geskiedkundige gebiede in ons dorp nie.

Daarom sal AfriForum altyd toetree om hierdie gebiede en landmerke te beskerm om sodoende ons erfenis te bewaar," sê Petrus Coetzee, AfriForum se distrikskoördineerder vir Marico.

"Die doel van die projek is om ons kultuur te beskerm, asook om dit vir die publiek moontlik te maak om die begraafplaas te besoek.

Larries gesels met Carina Diedericks-Hugo

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "Vir my is dit van die uiterste belang dat skrywers moet wéét wie hulle lesers is. En belangriker: die lesers respekteer."

Dit is die woorde van Carina Diedericks-Hugo en illustreer waarom sy so gewild is onder ons jong lesers. Carina skryf jeugboeke en is veral bekend vir die "Thomas@"-reeks. Thomas Steyn is saam met sy vriende Hannes en Thabo en vriendin Alex betrokke in avonture wat in die hedendaagse wêreld van Internet-kafees, rekenaarspeletjies en multikulturele woonbuurte afspeel. Die reeks spreek nie sosiale probleme nie en is eerder daarop gemik om goeie gehalte leesplesier te verskaf. Hierdie boeke is uniek in sy aanwending van elektroniese platforms wat die skrywer gebruik om die storie te help vertel. Carina toer tans na skole in Gauteng en Noordwes saam met Lapa Uitgewers en Rustenburg Herald het ingeloer by Laerskool Rustenburg waar Carina 'n gas was van René Schoombee, die skool se bibliotekaris. Carina het ook die senior leerders van Larries toegespreek oor die belangrikheid van lees en haar boeke aan die leerders bekend gestel.

Su-Rita Pieterse van Laerskool Rustenburg het 'n kort onderhoud met Carina gevoer. Volg die skakel om na die onderhoud met Carina te kyk - http://bit.ly/carinadiederickshugo

Grenville High School

Grenville High School won the Spirit Cup and also came third overall at the Inter High Athletics meeting on Thursday 13 February 2020 at the Royal Bafokeng Sports Stadium.

Wees bogemiddeld!

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Dis 'n feit: Moedertaal is jou sleutel tot uitnemendheid en om onderrig te ontvang in jou moedertaal laat jou uitstyg bo die gemiddelde en gee jou die vermoë om saam te praat met die bestes in die wêreld.

Trouens, jou moedertaal verbind jou aan jou kultuur en menswees. Dit maak jou wie jy is – dis jou identiteit – sodat jy die wêreld met selfvertroue in die oë kan kyk. Nog belangriker: In ons samelewing, is dit deesdae 'n gegewe dat kinders Engels sal aanleer, kom wat wil, maar ... dis net 'n ouer (en grootouers) wat vir 'n kind sy moedertaal kan leer. En sodra jou kind sy moedertaal behoorlik onder die knie het, leer hy 'n tweede en derde taal heelwat makliker aan. Met jou toewyding help jy jou kind dus om meertalig te wees! Al hoe meer ouers wonder of dit nog sin maak om hulle kinders in hulle moedertaal te laat skoolgaan as tersiêre instellings en die ekonomiese wêreld, nie net internasionaal nie, maar ook plaaslik, Engels as voertaal gebruik. Akademici en taalaktiviste is dit egter eens: Mense word deur hul moedertaal bemagtig. Kinders het hul moedertaal nodig om hul kognitiewe ontwikkeling te verseker.

Kinders leer makliker lees en skryf in hul moedertaal. Skryf is 'n tegniese aktiwiteit waardeur taal uitgedruk word en anders as gesproke taal, ontwikkel dit nie spontaan nie.

Dit is baie makliker vir kinders wat in hul moedertaal leer lees en skryf om die konneksie tussen gesproke en geskrewe taal te maak. As jy leer lees het in 'n taal wat vir jou maklik is, is dit soveel makliker om konsepte en vaardighede in 'n tweede of derde taal oor te dra. Byvoorbeeld, as 'n kind in Afrikaans tydkonsepte leer, hoef hulle nie weer die totale tydsbegrip in Engels te leer nie, maar slegs die Engelse woorde. Hulle het reeds die intellektuele basis en begrip. Ander intellektuele begrippe soos oorsaak en gevolg, of om tussen hoofgedagtes en ondersteunende detail te kan onderskei, word gemaklik vanuit die moedertaal na 'n tweede taal oorgedra. Gaan kyk gerus op Afrikaans.com se webtuiste (www.afrikaans.com) vir meer oor hierdie belangrike kwessie en die spilpunte oor moedertaalonderrig. Die leerhulp-afdeling beantwoord al jou vrae hieroor en daar is ook toepaslike inligting en skakels wat jou sal help om die mees geskikte bronne te raadpleeg. Die bestaande aanbod oor moedertaalonderrig (https://afrikaans.com/leerhulp/moedertaalonderrig/waarde/) vertel jou meer oor veeltaligheid en hoekom jy beter in jou moedertaal leer. Gee jou kind die geskenk van moedertaalonderrig!

Heartbreak in the last minute...

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The past weekend saw Round Three of the 2020 Vodacom Super Rugby tournament.

Last week's prediction that the Stormers will be a hard nut to crack, even on an away game, proved to be true. The first 40 minutes of the game between the Emirates Lions and DHL Stormers were a rather equal affair and at the break, the boys from Cape Town had a mere 18-15 lead. In the second half it was all about the Lions and it looked like they were going to derail the Stormers' undefeated 2020 record. With less than two minutes remaining, the Lions were leading 30-26 and on the stands the celebrations has already started. But then tragedy - from a Lions' point of view - struck with Stormers' center, Ruhan Nel making a wild dash for the score line. When the final hooter went, the Stormers could go to the change rooms with a 33-30 victory in the bag.

The Cell C Sharks had their first taste of defeat when the Hurricanes beat them 28-22 in Wellington, NZ and the Jaguares, the South American playing in the South African conference, gave the Reds a 43-27 thumping in Buenos Aires. The Vodacom Bulls had the weekend off.

Following the weekend's matches, the Stormers have 13 points, the Jaguares 10, the Sharks have eight and the Lions have five.

The Bulls have yet to register their first points.

This weekend's fixtures are:

- 22 February: Sharks vs Rebels - 05:45 at the Mars Stadium
- 22 February: Stormers vs Jaguares - 15:05 at Newlands
- 22 February: Bulls vs Blues - 17:15 at Loftus Versfeld

Rustie-eerstekrieketspan maak naam

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die eerste-krieketspan van die Hoërskool Rustenburg het onder druk-omstandighede die naweek teen Potchefstroom Volkies deelgeneem in die Finsbury-krieketreeks se laaste rondte.

Onder baie druk speel hierdie span steeds 'n uitstekende wedstryd.

Hoër Volkskool het die loting gewen en vervolgens gekies om eerste te kolf. Die Rusties se veldwerk was uitstekend en beperk Volkies tot 87 lopies. Charl Naude boul eerste vir die Rusties met syfers van 16/0 in 3 beurte en Rico Fryer 25/2 in 3 beurte. Hulle was afgelos deur Juan-Jacques Viljoen 12/0 in sy enkelebeurt en Odirele Modimokwane 12/3 in sy 7 beurte. Beste bouler van die dag was Brandon Venter 6.3 beurte 5/21. Die span se kolfwerk was iets om oor huis toe te skryf met Werner Eckard - 11 en Odirele Modimokwane - 17 as openingspaar. Daarna volg Nicklis van Onselen - 25, Tiaan van Tonder - 18, Charl Naudé - 6 nie uit en Rico Fryer 6 nie uit. Hierdie span is vir die derde jaar in 'n ry genooi om aan die Noord-Suid T20 Top skole-kriekettoernooi deel te neem.
