What is the fuss over the valuation roll?

Whichever way the Rustenburg Municipality is headed with the highly controversial recently released Municipal Valuation roll, what is sure at this stage is that Rustenburg property owners are not going to take it lying down. Despite a temporary "hold" on the evaluation roll until this Friday, 22 May, property owners have flocked to law firms, evaluators and estate agencies to object to the roll. Amongst others, this has led to collaboration between local law firm DupWest Inc and Chris Breytenbach Valuers to set the record straight. Pictured above are Ockert van der Merwe, Erich Nieuwoudt, Nico Esterhuyse, Hennie Terblanche, Renee Breytenbach, Chris Clemente, Chris Breytenbach and Ruurd van der Wal from DupWest Inc, Chris Breytenbach Valuers and Era Real Estate Rustenburg. Viruses don't discriminate, and neither should we Preventing stigma can save lives.

Stigma and fear robs people of their human dignity and worth.

What is stigma?

When we treat someone unfairly because they have COVID-19 or we victimise a person for spreading the virus.

Why is stigma harmful?

- Drives people to hide the illness to avoid discrimination
- Prevents people from seeking health care immediately
- Discourages them from adopting healthy behaviours.

What is discrimination?

It is the unfair treatment of someone else, or a group of people, for example, people who have COVID-19.

DOs

- ✓ Do talk about the new coronavirus disease (COVID-19).
- ✓ Do speak accurately about the COVID-19 risks, based on scientific information and the latest official health advice. Know your facts so you can correct misinformation when needed.
- ✓ Do follow the steps that work to prevent the virus from spreading. There are simple steps we can all take to keep ourselves, our loved ones, and the most vulnerable safe.
- ✓ Do speak to children in an age-appropriate way about COVID-19.
- ✓ Do support families, caregivers and health care providers affected by COVID-19 with love and compassion without putting yourself or anyone else at risk.

DON'Ts

- ✗ Don't use language designed to generate fear, like 'plague' or 'apocalypse.'
- ✗ Don't share information from sources that are not trusted or reliable or spread rumours or fake news.
- ✗ Don't encourage behaviour that is contrary to government advice.
- ✗ Don't allow people to become isolated. Those infected or at risk need your compassionate support while maintaining physical distance.
- ✗ Don't stigmatise those recovered from COVID-19.
- ✗ Don't blame people by talking about them 'transmitting COVID-19' or 'infecting others' or 'spreading the virus'. Every one of us is capable of contracting, carrying and transmitting the virus. It is an invisible enemy.
- ✗ Don't use language that devalues and disrespects individuals who have become sick with COVID-19. We are all at risk of infection.

We will continue to manage this as a team.
Always show respect and care to everyone around us.

Might be light for Comair's ticket holders

What is all the fuss over the Municipal valuation roll about?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Why should I be concerned over how much the Municipality has valued my property for?

Simply put, you pay property tax based on the value of your property. If you do not object to the valuation as stipulated in the valuation roll before 30 June 2020, your valuation will be deemed to be correct and your property tax will be calculated on that value for the next 4 years.

Will the difference in the property tax, justify the costs of objecting thereto?

In order to answer the above, do a quick calculation by following these easy steps:

Confirm the new value of your property as stipulated on the valuation roll. Visit https://www.dupwest.co.za/dpw/Municipal_property_valuation.pdf

Find your property and compare the new value to what you think your property is actually worth.

Multiply the two values with the following factors to calculate the yearly tax rate of your property:

Residential: 0.0072
Business: 0.0269
Industrial: 0.0274
Agricultural: .00019

For example: your house is worth R1 000 000.00, but is valued for R2 000 000.00. Difference is (R1 Mil 0.0072) R7 200 - (R2 Mil.0072) R14 400 =R7 200

You are therefore going to pay R7 200 per year more property tax on your property if the property is overvalued with R 1 mil.

If I am going to pay much more, how do I object?

An objection to the municipal value of your property should be filed in terms of a procedure as prescribed by legislation.

Should your objection not be upheld, an appeal may be lodged to a valuation appeal board.

It is recommended that a proper valuation of your property from a professional valuator be obtained to successfully prevent the overvaluation of your property.

You can obtain a prescribed objection form from the municipality and build your own case with supporting documents including a valuation, lodge the objection and then appear in front of the valuation appeal board if required, or

You can instruct DUPWEST to do everything.

For a very reasonable fee negotiated with the valuator, DUPWEST will have your property valued by a registered and professional valuator, file your objection and submit an appeal to the valuation appeal board if needed. Should a hearing before the valuation appeal board be required, we will negotiate with you for a further appearance fee.

Are there any other factors to consider?

Yes, should you sell your property the purchaser will have to pay transfer duty. SARS calculates the transfer duty on the market value that is either the purchase price or the municipal valuation, whichever is the highest.

As an example:

If you sell your property for the true value of R2 mil, but the municipal value is R3 mil, the purchaser will have to pay transfer duty calculated on the highest being the municipal value. Instead of paying R50 250 transfer duty on R2 Mil, the purchaser will have to pay R146 000 on the value of R3 mil. A difference of R95 750! You will have to prove to SARS that the municipal value is inflated, which is not always easy.

If you want to save on unnecessary expenditure, you have only until 30 June 2020 to object or be content to pay substantially more for municipal rates and taxes for the next 4 years.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The business rescue practitioners for embattled airline Comair will be communicating with ticket holders about proposals for a way forward, after the company was grounded.

Ticket holders have the same rights as other creditors, and the business rescue practitioners "will, in due course, also be addressing separate correspondence to such persons with proposals on the way forward", a statement on the airline's website reads.

Comair, which operates British Airways flights and Kulula in SA, entered business rescue on 5 May — a form of bankruptcy protection that allows a financially distressed company to delay creditors' claims against it or its assets.

The company has appointed Shaun Collyer and Richard Ferguson as joint business rescue practitioners, who will oversee the restructuring of the company to work out if it can survive or if assets should be auctioned off to pay off creditors.

“Hang on,” says Municipality - valuation roll to be revisited

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - In a document circulated by the Rustenburg Municipality following outrage among property owners on the new Municipal Valuation roll ostensibly available for inspection by property owners at various locations, property owners were urged to suspend the filing of their objections pending a resolution of Council on the matter since it became apparent that gross errors were contained in the roll causing widespread panic and anger.

According to the circular, a meeting was held between the Executive Mayor, the Municipal Manager, Councillors and property evaluators on 14 May during which the concerns of property owners were deliberated on. Property owners were told that a report will be tabled in a Special Council Meeting scheduled for Friday, 22 May, when Council will discuss and resolve the entire process after which a revised/approved Valuation Roll will be tabled. In the circular, property owners were urged to suspend filing of their objections pending the resolution of Council on the matter. The resolution will be communicated as soon as it is available, Council said. Property owners have however, flocked to evaluators, estate agencies, lawyers and the like to lodge objections against the new roll hoping to escape a possible bottle neck situation should the Rustenburg Municipality decide to indeed approve the existing Valuation Roll. See article elsewhere on this page.

Public Safety Officers apprehended for business robbery, fraud, theft

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - In recent weeks the Directorate for Public Safety has been inundated with formal complaints relating to acts of alleged impropriety by members while executing their duties.

These complaints led to investigations by the Directorate on the allegations. In the first incident, a law enforcement officer reduced a fine which had already been procedural reduced to R1000 from R 5000 without following proper procedure and authorization - and subsequently pocketed the difference in the amount of the fine issued. Another officer, in an unrelated incident did exactly the same thing - also reducing a fine without authorization and pocketing the difference. Both these officers have been charged with fraud. Another member of the law enforcement unit, who has been arrested on a charge of theft, had received money meant for a fine issued by the Municipality without issuing a receipt for the payment. It emerged during the investigation that the money was not recorded and a receipt did not exist. Late last week another law enforcement officer and a traffic officer were arrested in connection with a business robbery in Lemenong Section, Phokeng. The duo were conducting a business compliance inspection, on suspicion of the business illegally selling cigarettes. The shop was inspected - and then allegedly robbed by the two of stock and cash to the value of R700.

In reacting to the arrests, the Executive Mayor Mpho Khunou, said the municipality has been serious about ridding itself from criminal elements. In order to ensure that the City progress well, strategies from crime prevention will be continuously implemented without any fear, favour or prejudice for the benefit of our people and their safety," Khunou emphasized.

Clash with house invaders

RUSTENBURG HERALD- RUSTENBURG- The problem of occupying houses illegally, reportedly belonging to mining companies in Rustenburg North, Protea Park, Geelhoutpark and Rustenburg East got to an all-time high when a fight ensued between alleged illegal house occupants and two concerned residents of Protea Park, Suikerbos Avenue.

In a video that has gone viral on social media, a man with a dog, can be seen standing in front of the gate, allegedly attempting to prevent the alleged invaders from entering the premises, an argument ensues, the dog jumps onto one alleged invader and he retaliates with an assault on the dog. This incident took place on Friday (15 May). According to Captain Elsabé Augoustides, police spokesperson in Rustenburg a case of assault was opened by Mr Henry Holsthyzen who could be seen in the video and his girlfriend Corné Labuschagne with the police in Rustenburg. This incident comes after one of the mining companies, Sibanye Stillwater, condemned incidents of occupying houses illegally belonging to the mine, as they recently launched an investigation into these incidents in Rustenburg with the possibility of evictions. The police in Rustenburg have condemned this incident and have requested the community to report any suspicious house invasions before the invaders settle in as this will make it easier to deal with the problem.

Illegally occupied houses: eviction looming?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Rustenburg Herald, after being inundated with complaints from residents in Rustenburg North, Rustenburg East and Geelhout Park about houses reportedly belonging to certain mining companies were occupied illegally, launched an investigation into this matter. According to Ms Jane Mpolokeng, PR Councillor of Ward 16, who visited the Rustenburg Herald recently, the decision was made after consultation with various Councillors around Rustenburg as well as the mines and the municipality. However, in a statement issued on Wednesday (25 March) the Democratic Alliance after also receiving complaints from residents condemned this.

"The Democratic Alliance in Rustenburg has been approached by residents who have raised concerns of illegal occupation of empty houses, requesting DA Councillors to take action. The DA immediately engaged the three mining companies, Impala, Anglo Platinum and Sibanye Stillwater informing them of the illegal occupations," the statement said. The Rustenburg Herald can confirm that Sibanye Stillwater is currently busy with investigations as we were contacted by their General Crime Investigation Unit last recently. Keep an eye on the Rustenburg Herald for this developing story.

Covid-19 and the judiciary

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The various Regulations issued in terms of the Disaster Management Act during the National Lockdown has a profound effect upon the ability of Courts to dispense justice.

Apart from the Regulations, various directives had been issued by the Minister of Justice and Correctional Services, the Chief Magistrate for the North West Province, the Regional Court President for the North West Regional Division and the Judge President of the North West Division of the High Court with regard to the functioning of Courts during Alert Level 4. In essence, these directions are intended to restrict personal contact between persons in courts and court buildings. Only persons with a material interest in specific cases are allowed to enter court buildings and strict access control are enforced. No criminal or civil trials are proceeding during the lockdown period and such cases are postponed by special arrangements. Only bail applications are heard. Urgent and uncontested applications are proceeding in the District and Regional Courts, and Family Law matters are regarded as permitted services in terms of Alert Level 4. This includes child and spousal maintenance proceedings, protection orders in terms of the Domestic Violence Act or the Protection from Harassment Act and care, contact and protection proceedings in respect of children. Legal Practitioners may only render certain permitted services which are deemed essential and urgent. They are expected to deal with matters online, telephonically or in writing. No online facilities are available in the Magistrates Courts, but it is available at the High Court. Only a third of administrative personnel in the Courts are allowed to work and the hours during which they are at work are limited.

Service of process and execution of writs and warrants by sheriffs are limited to cases which are urgent or permitted services. All warrants of execution, including evictions and attachment of property are suspended, unless the judicial officer who presided over the matter had, in the interests of justice, ordered that it may be executed.

Groot winkels mag nie meer voorskryf

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die Suid-Afrikaanse Kompetisiekommissie het verlede week 'n ooreenkoms met die Shoprite-groep bereik waarvolgens dié groep nie meer op Eksklusiewe Regte-klausules in hul huurooreenkomste met winkelsentrums sal aandring nie.

Dit volg kort nadat die Pick n Pay-groep 'n soortgelyke ooreenkoms met die kommissie bereik het. Na 'n ondersoek verlede is bevind dat die Eksklusiewe Regte-klausule wat deur die groot spelers in huurooreenkomste ingesluit word kompetisie in die mark kniehalter. Die ondersoek het verder bevind dat daar ook geen regverdiging gevind kon word vir die invoeging van dié tipe klausules nie.

Die ooreenkoms wat Shoprite met die Kompetisiekommissie onderteken het, is ook van toepassing op Checker, Usave en OK Foods.

Waar die Shoprite-groep die huurkontrak aangegaan het, of namens 'n konsessiehouer aangegaan het, sal die ooreenkoms onmiddellik van krag wees. In gevalle waar die konsessiehouers self die huurooreenkomste aangegaan het, sal hulle 12 maande kans kry om die klausule te laat skrap.

Birthday Butternut Soup

This week the Rustenburg Herald's cooking page is featuring Arista Annandale.

Arista is the communications officer of the Democratic Alliance (DA) in the Northwest. She is also a previous Noot vir Noot Series champion

Arista writes:

'We can all agree that ageing is not necessarily our favourite pastime, but ageing during lockdown is a different kettle of fish.

The best way to look at this, is on the bright side and I have been privileged enough to have my daughter, Chef Aneska Annandale, cook me a delicious soup on my birthday."

Follow the link <https://bit.ly/birthdaybutternutsoup> to see a video of this week's recipe on the Rustenburg Herald webpage

Butternut soup

Ingredients:

1.5kg Butternut cubes
3 Onions, chopped
2 Green Apples, cored and diced
30ml Curry
750ml Milk
30ml Sugar
2 Oranges' zest and juice
Oil
Chopped Coriander
Rolls, to serve

Method:

Chop onions and place on baking tray with butternut cubes. Sprinkle with oil and place in oven at 220° until cooked (about 30 minutes). Add apples and curry powder to the cooked butternut and onions. Place the butternut mixture into a blender along with the milk, sugar, orange zest and juice. Season to taste and add coriander. Serve with bread rolls or any bread of your choice.

Easy bread rolls

Ingredients:

500ml flour
20ml baking powder
2ml salt
20ml butter or margarine
1 egg
125ml milk

Method:

Mix flour, baking powder and salt. Add butter by working it through the flour mix with fingers. Whisk egg and milk together and add to flour mix to form dough. Roll out in large circle of about 1cm thick. Cut into quarters and then cut quarters into halves. You should now have triangles, which should be rolled up like croissants. Place on baking tray with loose ends up. Coat with whisked egg and bake for about 15 minutes.

Voila! Serve with bread rolls or any bread of your choice.

Hats off to Bill McGill

There must be few people who did not stop to lift their hats or to hoist their flags half-mast in memory of Rustenburg's "own" world famous artist - Bill McGill who had passed away a single day after his birthday at the age of 86 years on Sunday.

Typically of Bill's cheerful character, few people knew that he struggled with his health over the past three to four years. Even close to the end, the twinkle in his eye has never faded and Bill chose to rather share a joke or a flash of wit with people than to lament on the troubles of life.

Few people in Rustenburg if anyone at all has left such an everlasting footprint and colourful legacy to his hometown, the bushveld, the Pilanesberg, his beloved Marico and the North West Province. For very close to 50 years, Bill was a proud and happy child of Rustenburg and it is indeed a compliment to the entire Rustenburg community, that an artist with such a keen eye and wonderful talent chose to settle in our modest town at the foothills of the Magaliesberg.

Dozens of tributes have poured in since the news broke that Bill had passed away on Sunday. Perhaps more than anything else, Bill's life and his "song" is testimony to the fact that one will be remembered most for your humanity, your kindness, your sense of humor, your love of man and nature and life itself rather than your great achievements or those distinguished halls where your name is mentioned in reverence.

This week, it goes without saying that many people will take joy and pride in the fact that they have a "McGill" against the wall at home or at the office.

Yes, this is indeed something special. But those few, perhaps quite a few people who knew Bill McGill intimately, the man behind his art, the breathtaking bushveld scenes, his almost tangible portrayals of mankind and nature and who often smiled at his countless stories of his vast experience in life, they are indeed the most fortunate!

We lift our hats to a phenomenal artist, an unforgettable man and dear friend!

Hoede af vir Bill McGill

Daar is sekerlik min mense in Rustenburg wat nie vandeewee die hoed hoog lig en die vlase halfmas hys ter nagedagtenis aan Rustenburg se "eie" wêreldbekende kunstenaar - Bill McGill - wat Sondag, 'n enkele dag na sy verjaarsdag, in die ouderdom van 86 jaar oorlede is nie.

Tipes van Bill se sprinkelende geaardheid, het nie almal geweet dat hy die afgelope nagenoeg drie tot vier jaar met siekte geworstel het nie. Selfs tot naby aan die einde, het die vonkel in Bill se oog nooit verdof nie en het hy verkies om liewers 'n grappie of 'n kwinkslag met mense te deel as om oor die laste van die lewe te kla.

Daar is sekerlik baie min mense in Rustenburg, indien enigiemand anders, wat met sy afsterwe so 'n onuitwisbare voetspoor en kleurrike erflating aan sy tuisdorp, die bosveld, die Pilanesberg, die Marico en die Noordwes-provinsie agtergelaat het. Bill McGill was vir baie naby aan 50 jaar 'n trotse inwoner van Rustenburg en dit is vir Rustenburg 'n pluimpie dat iemand met die kunstenaarsoog en kwistige kwas van Bill McGill nie sy heil elders gaan soek het nie.

Huldeblyke het sedert Sondag konstant ingestroom sedert die nuus van McGill se afsterwe Sondag rugbaar geword het. Bill se lewe en sy "lied" is 'n klinkklare bewys daarvan dat 'n mens veel langer vir jou suiwer menslikheid, jou humor, jou liefde vir mens en natuur en vir die lewe self onthou sal word as vir die vele prestasies wat jy agter jou naam kon skryf of die talle vooraanstaande plekke waar jou naam met eerbied vermeld is.

Daar is sekerlik honderde indien nie meer kunstgeesdriftiges nie wat vandeewee na Bill se afsterwe 'n sug van verligting kan slaak om te weet dat hy/sy 'n "McGill" êrens in die huis of kantoor teen die muur het.

Daar is egter 'n klompie - ja, dalk heelwat mense, wat werklik kan sê dat hulle die mens agter die kuns, die asemrowende bosveld- en natuurtonele, sy tasbare uitbeelding van mens en dier en sy talle interessante staaltjies/stories geken het.

Laasgenoemde was onteenseglik 'n veel groter voorreg - ons lig ons hoede hoog uit eerbied vir 'n meesterskilder, maar bowenal 'n onvergeetlike vriend en mens!

Dis nou te lank...

Geagte redakteur

Hoe langer hierdie inperkingregulasies geld, hoe erger is die uitwerking op mense se gemoedstoestand.

Kyk maar op die Facebook-bladsye van groepe van Rustenburg - mense is geniepsig en aggressief teenoor mekaar. En dis grotendeels as gevolg van vrees.

Mense is bang hul geliefdes word ernstig siek. Hulle is bekommerd oor wat die krisis aan die ekonomie - en hul eie sakke - doen. Baie van ons wonder of ons oor 'n maand nog tot 'n mate kop bo water gaan kan hou. En ons hande is afgekap - ons voel dus boonop magtelos.

Dit is dus nou van uiterse belang dat ons moet probeer verstaan hoekom ons omgekrap en onrustig is, hoekom ons so sleg slaap so geïrriteerd is.

As jy verstaan hoekom, sal jy ook dié rondom jou se optrede beter begryp - en besef dat hulle nêr so bang soos jy is.

Dit sal natuurlik baie help as die regering openliker is met hoe hulle besluite neem.

Die meeste wetenskaplike menings is nou dat die staat van inperking sy doel gedien het. Myns insiens moet ons vinniger na vlak 3, en kort daarna na vlak 2, beweeg - sodat die lewe vir dié wat werkloos en arm is minder onuithoudbaar is en ons land se ekonomie nie heeltemal ten gronde gaan nie.

Iona Ford, Rustenburg, per e-pos.

Kan nie wag dat die wêreld “gesond” moet word nie

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "Laerskool Rustenburg se graad R- en graad 1-maats kan nie wag dat die wêreld gesond moet word nie - want ons verlang na ons juffrou, mnr Koos, die skoolwerk en die sport. Mamma is bietjie kwaai , maar sy "try", ons verlang na pouse en kosblik deel - want "2 minute noodles" begin ons nou verveel!"

René Schoombee, Laerskool Rustenburg se skakelbeampte deel met Rustenburg Herald hierdie kosbare sêgoed van die kleingoed van Larries. In 'n poging om konstante kontak te behou met die leerders word daar daaglik foto's en videos uitgeruil en kry die leerders kans om hul gevoelens te deel. "Covid-19 het die wêreld soos 'n storm getref en die lewens van ons kinders verander. Kinders mis die roetine van 'n skooldag en tuisbly is nie meer so lekker nie, maar die onderwysers se pogings (uitdagings, oproepe, videos en tuiswerk) gee die kinders die versekering dat juffrou "daar" is", aldus René. Die pas afgelope naweek is die kleingoed versoek om hul juffrou te teken en die prentjies het somer elke mamma-juffrou se Moedersdag opgehelder!

Sun City to host Premier Soccer League?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG –According to the national media, Sun City is rumoured to be the favoured destination to provide a Soccer World Cup-style base for all Premier League Soccer teams to complete the 2019/20 campaign.

This holiday destination in the North West province is being sounded out as a potential venue to host all 32 teams. Professional soccer in South Africa came to a halt in March due to the Covid-19 virus with all leagues across the world suffering a similar fate.

South Africa's two professional leagues - the Absa Premiership and Glad Africa Championship - both consist of 16 teams who all have between six to nine fixtures remaining. PSL medical advisor Mahlane Phalane also confirmed that the option of playing behind closed doors at limited venues, as well as a World Cup round-robin competition are two more ideas being considered. "In our proposal, it will take approximately 21 days before we can resume football," he said.

"This comes from a number of reasons. Firstly, we'll check the biological side of a person where we are saying the players should be in self-isolation for 14 days.)

JAKE REPLACES ZONDAGH

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Bulls have appointed former Springbok coach Jake White as director of rugby, the franchise confirmed last week.

The 2007 Rugby World Cup-winning coach has been in charge of Japanese outfit Toyota Verblitz since 2007 and now joins the Pretoria-based franchise effective immediately.

His contract will see him at the nation's capital until 2023, as he steps into the post vacated by Alan Zondagh earlier in the year.

Bulls chief executive Alfonso Meyer said he was delighted to have the 56-year-old join the franchise. White has previously taken charge of two Super Rugby franchises, both at home and abroad.

Both times he was employed as a head coach, first taking charge of the Brumbies in Australia and following that, he took over the helm at the Sharks from Kiwi coach John Plumtree - assuming a dual role as coach and director of rugby in 2013.

"The Bulls brand has always been a powerhouse in rugby and respected around the world," said White. "There's a great history and heritage here, and I'm looking forward to adding my contribution to the Bulls' legacy."

2020 Comrades Marathon cancelled

RUSTENBURG HERALD - DURBAN - The 2020 Comrades Marathon has officially been cancelled. ASA President Aleck Skhosana said. "Cancelling what would have been the 95th edition of the Comrades Marathon was a long and arduous decision to make".

"With the race's rich history, its powerful nation-building attributes and contribution towards social cohesion, as well as its immense economic impact, it would have been premature to rush into an outright cancellation sooner," Skhosana said.

"However, we believe we have jointly arrived at the correct decision to protect the health and safety of all concerned as well as the lives of our fellow South Africans."

The Comrades Marathon, which is a 89 km endurance race between Durban and Pietermaritzburg was first postponed in April due to the Covid-19 pandemic. It was originally set to take place on June 14. This year marks the first time since the period between 1941 and 1945 that the race is cancelled after the runners, organizers, and supporters stood against the atrocities of war.
