RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Back injuries are one of the leading causes of disability, preventing people from continuing with work or their daily activities.

7 -11 September has been earmarked as a National Back Week and this year's theme is 'Rehabilitation after COVID -19 infection'.

"It is important that during this time of COVID-19, members of the community engage in any form of exercise in order to improve fitness, reduce breathlessness, improve coordination and balance, decrease stress, improve mood and boost confidence and energy", said Constance Kubu, Chief Physiotherapist. Though during COVID-19, there are challenges that are associated with exercising, one can do simple exercise at home such as walking, one leg stand, wall push, deep breathing exercises, to name a few. Kubu further highlighted that back pain is caused by muscle strain, pressure on the nerves, in the spine, and joint inflammation.

It can also be a result of other illnesses. She emphasized that back injuries can result in loss of strength, such as not being able to pick up objects or the ability to stand upright for long periods of time. Members of the community are cautioned to take care of their back through the following interventions; Maintain healthy weight, losing weight will decrease pain - consult a dietician - practice posture when sitting, standing and walking, carry your bag with both straps. JST Physiotherapy Department is available to assist members of the community regarding the back ache problems. However, protocols of referral should be maintained from local clinic to JST hospital. For more information, the public is advised to contact the Physiotherapy Department at 014 590 5302.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A 32-year-old man and his girlfriend (38) were scheduled to appear in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court earlier this week.

The two were arrested in the early hours of Monday (7 September) when police acted on information and pounced on the home in Protea Park. According to information

This Suzuki, presumably a rental vehicle, was used by hijackers in the execution of the acts in Protea Park and Rustenburg Kloof.

Rowers se vlugmotor in botsing

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - 'n Groep verdagtes wat blykbaar 'n snoepwinkel in Oos-Einde beroof het, het kort daarna sommer self hul rieme laat styf loop.

Die groep het blykbaar in 'n Toyota Corolla gevlug toe hul in Bethlehemstraat in 'n botsing betrokke was. Die polisie was kort daarna op die toneel en het verskeie items, waaronder 'n speelgoedrewolwer in die erf van 'n woonhuis gevind. Dit word vermoed dat die rowers die items, asook die speelgoedrewolwer oor die heining gegooi het. Die polisie ondersoek die voorval

Baby on tracks: Police looking for mother

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Police are investigating a case of Concealment of birth after the body of a baby was found on the railway tracks in East End near Kruger Street.

The tragic discovery was made by a passers-by early on Thursday morning (3 September).

According to police spokesperson, Capt Elsabé Augoustides, the body was that of a full-term baby. Part of the investigation is to determine whether the baby was stillborn or not. Police have requested anyone with information to contact them urgently on 014 5904115/6/7.

Rustenburg Herald has received, the man is also suspected of being very instrumental in house-grabs that occurred in the city earlier this year. Subsequent to the arrest, police seized three vehicles: a Audi A4, Volkswagen Golf 5 and Hyundai Atos. All three vehicles were linked to car hijackings committed between 4 and 5 September 2020, in Protea Park and Rustenburg Kloof. Furthermore, a white Suzuki Swift which is alleged to have been used during the commission of the crimes, was also seized. Preliminary investigation revealed that the male suspect has a pending case of car hijacking committed in December last year in Rustenburg. Meanwhile, a veterinarian was summoned to the scene to assist in sedating a vicious dog which bit a police officer on the leg after being set on police by the suspect. The suspects would have appeared in court on Wednesday (9 September) on possession of suspected stolen motor vehicles, illegal possession of firearm and illegal possession of ammunition. Investigation into the matter continues. The North West Provincial Commissioner, Lieutenant General Sello Kwena commended the police for their swift reaction which led to the arrest and seizures.

Way forward with Valuation Roll 2020 still undecided

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Exactly two months have passed since the Rustenburg Municipality's formulation of an Action Plan to clear the way forward with regard to the highly controversial Valuation Roll which had Rustenburg property owners up in arms earlier this year.

During a Special Virtual Council Meeting of the Rustenburg Municipality on 30 June 2020 following widespread outrage on the released Rustenburg Municipal Valuation Roll, tabled documentation of the so-called Action Plan confirmed a Council recommendation that the evaluator at the time was granted one calendar month to rectify problems with the Valuation Roll submitted for 2020, failing which would lead to the termination of the evaluator's contract with the Rustenburg Municipality.

In spite of time frames set for this first important step (10 June 2020) there has however, been no further development on the issue. Rustenburg Herald's enquiries to the Municipality on the progress of the Action Plan and more details on whether the evaluator had in fact succeeded in drawing up a new Valuation Roll or alternatively, that the contractor could be replaced in terms of the tabled documentation, our enquiries were met with perhaps more questions than answers.

At the time of our going to print on Wednesday this week, Rustenburg Herald received nothing substantial on the way forward with the current or "new" Valuation Roll which is to be implemented on 1 July 2021.

The only implication at the current stage was that should a new valuator be appointed, he would in fact have little over five months at hand to come up with a new and acceptable Valuation Roll ready for implementation on 1 July 2021.

Nuwe tuiste vir swaargewig-masjinerie

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG
- Die ooggendverkeer in Watervallaan
in Rustenburg se oostelike
nywerheidsgebied het Dinsdag
vandeensweek vir 'n wyle tot stilstand
gekom toe "groot masjinerie" aan die
werk gespring het.

Die okkasie was 'n reuse-staaldraaibank van 11-ton wat by Lennox Machine Shop 'n permanente tuiste gekry het. Mnr Albert de Witte, nuwe eienaar van die massiewe draaibank wat in Engeland vervaardig is, is per swaarvragmotor van Durban na Rustenburg vervoer. Dit was nogal 'n storie om die stuk masjinerie hier by ons en veral op sy plek te kry", het mnr De Witte vertel. Dit "stukkie" nuwe tegnologie en veral die formaat daarvan bring nuwe moontlikhede aan ons bedrywighede by Lennox hier in Rustenburg, het De Witte vertel. "Ek kan nie wag om die draaibank deur sy passies te sit nie", het hy gesê". Ja, nuuskieriges is sekerlik welkom om te Lennox in te loer en te sien wat Albert en sy span voortaan kan vermag.

'n Stuk masjinerie van 11 ton is nie 'n grap om te hanteer nie. Indien dinge verkeerd loop kan 'n hele gebou in 'n oomblik verwoes word. Daarom dat die aflaaiwerk maar versigtig geskied.

"Eind goed, alles goed", is wat mnr De Witte hier wys. Lennox Machine Shop in Coetzerstraat spog na dese met "splinternuwe" tegnologie wat nuwe moontlikhede bring.

Final 2020 Women's month operation

On 31 August the city's women in uniform conducted the final Women's Law Enforcement Operations for Women's Month 2020. Operational Commander was Brig Nozipho Modise and the activities started off with a joint parade at Olympia Park of SAPS, SANDF and Public Safety. Thereafter they were off to the R30 and R24 respectively for roadblocks, Vehicle Control Points and crime prevention patrols at the taxi rank, malls and parking areas.

RRT system: Another step finally completed

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Barely a month after the first Yarona bus was handed over to the City's Executive Mayor, today the Rustenburg Local Municipality and taxi industry partners witnessed the handing of two completed kerb side stations in the Rustenburg CBD.

The handing over took place on Friday (4 September).

The city hopes to be receiving six more completed RRT stations in the coming months, with the intention of the system becoming operational in the first half of 2021. To date construction work has commenced on the system's central station located on corner of Oliver Tambo and President Mbeki Drive, in the City center. Furthermore, plans are afoot to procure more buses to be used in implementing the system and the first batch of ten buses should have been delivered before year end. The implementation of the RRT was marred by numerous challenges, including community unrests, which the Municipality had to resolve in the interest of the continuation of the project and subsequent operationalization of the system. In receiving the two completed RRT stations, Rustenburg Executive Mayor, Mpho Khunou said the process that led to this monumental achievement was never easy. "We have to start by thanking our communities as well as the business sector for their patience and inconvenience that the construction phase of the project caused. There had been too many naysayers who actually did not believe that Rustenburg will realize an integrated public transport system, the first of its kind in our province. Having spent over 3 billion rands already on the project, there was no way we were going to give up," the mayor said in his speech. He added that the municipality will also be signing a memorandum of understanding with bus manufacture – Bus Mark, the BOC (bus operating company) which will further confirm that the realization of the project is on course and will be taking off the ground soon. In attendance at the hand-over were members of the Taxi Negotiating Forum (TNF) who have been engaging the municipality on numerous issues, which included compensation of taxi operators who had been identified as being affected by the implementation of the RRT, as well as the interface of how the municipality and the taxi industry co-exist to ensure the successful implementation of the RRT.

Members of the Mayoral Committee on Roads and Transport – Councillor Lucky Kgaliadi (Corporate Support Services), Councillor Joyce Mashishi-Ntsime, Public Safety Councillor Victoria Makhala and Municipal Manager Victor Makona - also attended the handing over.

Gelukkige 10e, Dok!

Deur Christelle van Rooyen-Wessels

RUSTENBURG HERALD – RUSTENBURG – Hy mag nie biltong eet nie; ook nie soeshi nie. Pomelo's is ook taboe, asook ander lekkernye wat meeste mense as hul gunstelinge sal tel.

"Al die ooffer is deur-en-deur die moeite werd. Want dit gee my die geleenthed om oud te word saam met my fenomiale vrou en my lieflike dogter. En ek het die geleenthed om een van die mooi dae my eerste kleinkind in die wêreld te verwelkom."

Só vertel dr Pieter Wicht. Bietjie meer as tien jaar gelede het die toekoms nie so rooskleurig vir hom gelyk nie. "Eintlik het die moeilikheid 20 jaar gelede begin. Ek was baie sportief en sou aan 'n muurbaltoernooi deelneem. Toe kry ek bronchitis. Ek was egter vasbeslote om aan die toernooi deel te neem en goed te vaar, dat ek bly oefen het. En toe beskadig ek my hartspier," vertel dr Pieter. Hy het behandeling gekry, maar sy toestand het bly versleg, tot op die punt waar sy hart net nie meer wou nie. Hy is op die oorplantingslys geplaas. "Toe kom die oproep dat daar vir my 'n hart is," onthou hy. Die hart was van 'n 25-jarige man van die Baai wat in 'n motorfietsongeluk omgekom het. "Mens is so verskeur op daardie oomblik. Jy is baie jammer oor die lewe wat beëindig is, maar jy is ook ontsettend dankbaar vir die kans wat jy gegun word," vertel hy. Op 19 Augustus 2010 is die oorplanting gedoen en daarna moet dr Pieter ses weke in die hospitaal deurbring. Agtien maande later kon hy egter weer die pad vat en begin draf. "Ek hardloop nou weer weekliks 30km. Ek het soveel om voor dankbaar te wees."

Success story - Shingle formula

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "My husband had prolonged stress at his work place for a very long time.

He started to get severe pain in his nerve ends. He was in constant pain. He couldn't sleep because of the pain. I went to doctors, he started drinking pain killers but his condition got worse. By the time I brought him to Lorraine and Anya his whole body was full of sores, even his scalp. He could hardly move. Lorraine started my husband immediately on the Shingle formula, 3 times a day for 3 months. His whole body cleared up. He had energy again and his adrenal glands got restored. He didn't go to bed tired anymore and he woke up refreshed. The sores disappeared and he felt like a new person. He even looked younger. Thanks so much for all your help Lorraine, we are forever thankful for your help. I have my husband back again" - ML Edenvale. Shingles (herpes zoster) is caused by a virus much like the one that causes chicken pox. But where chicken pox causes a general skin eruption, shingles usually erupts along a nerve path. Differences aside, the nutritional deficit caused by both diseases is high. Cravings - if you crave milk indulge the craving - because it is often associated with L-Lysine shortages. Try our Shingle formula today - It handles the cause of the problem. Phone Anya or Lorraine today to find out more about our Shingle formula and MelloMag C. Contact Anya or Lorraine for your scan - (011) 452 8892/3/5.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - KGASWANE
- Spring Day and the first week of September annually mark the celebration of Arbor Day/Arbor Week - a special day devoted to the planting of various species of indigenous trees all over South Africa to teach South African the value of trees and why it is important to protect trees for the sake of our children's future and the generations thereafter.

This year (Friday, 4 September) saw Arbor Day celebrated by Kgaswane Nature Reserve with a special short talk by Rustenburg's very own Naas Grové, President of the South African Dendrological Society on the value of trees and the origin of Arbor day.

At least four indigenous trees were planted by North West Parks, the Rustenburg Bird Club, the Jolly Walkers Club and Impala Rustenburg.

Rustenburg Herald's photographers were also on the scene and captured these images.

South African schools and universities - new dates for 2021

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Universities South Africa has agreed to extend the academic year to the end of February 2021, to ensure that matriculants are not compromised by the late release of the Grade 12 results.

Universities are expected to start their 2021 academic year in March or April next year. While the opening of universities is not universal, they are certain that when they issue (matric) results on 23 February next year, they will not be disadvantaging learners because most universities will start their 2021 academic year in March or April next year.

This comes after the department announced last month that the 2020 Grade 12 examinations would be completed by 15 December, with marking being concluded on 22 January and the results released on 23 February 2021. The new school year will commence on 25 January 2021 for teachers and learners a few days later.

{StandpuntViewpoint}*

Suid-Afrika nie vir sissies nie...

Suid-Afrikaners oor alle kulturele en politieke grense heen sal seker maar eendag moet begin aanvaar dat hierdie land nie vir sissies is nie. Dit was nog nooit nie en sal seker maar vir nog 'n lang tyd 'n plek wees waar 'n mens jou been hoog sal moet optel as jy saam met die groot honde wil loop, soos dié betekenisvolle stukkie wysheid tog te pragtig verduidelik. En om eerlik te wees - Afrika was nog nêrens en nooit 'n maklike plek nie. Van die vernietigende, droë Sahara-woestyn in die noorde, tot die selfs nog meer vernietigende Namib in die suidweste. Dan is daar die onherbergsame Okavango-delta op die Suid-Afrikaanse en Botswana-grense. In die middel van ons land is daar die ewe-onherbergsame Karoo, die Kalahari, die Richtersveld waar net die Koi-mense dit vir 'n lang tyd reggekry het om 'n bestaan te maak - en selfs dié unieke volk is vandag nog in 'nstryd gewikkeld omdat daar voortdurend op hul tone getrap word en omdat hul kultuur, taal en tradisies geïgnoreer en hul tradisionele grondgebied en leierskap miskien word. Tog word dit allerweé aanvaar dat die Koi die eerste mense in Suid-Afrika was.

Van die vroegste tye af was die vlaktes en valleie van Suid-Afrika 'n plek van konfrontasie. Oorloë tussen die Zoeloe, die Xhosa, die Basoeto en al wat leef, die Matabele, die Boer, die Brit... Met 'n land so groot soos Suid-Afrika en die vasteland is dit eintlik 'n eienaardige verskynsel dat oorlog die eerste ding op die agenda was wanneer verskillende groepe mense, bevolkingsgroepe of kulture mekaar ontmoet het. Asof daar dalk nie genoeg land vir almal sou wees nie. En tog het mense van allerlei kulture, rasse, volke en nasies hierheen gestroom. Selfs die Hollanders, Italianers, die Duitsers, Engelse en Franse. Meestal te midde van groot konfrontasies en konflik. Uiteindelik was daar weens volke, nasies, groepe en kulture se diversiteit slegs een gemene deler: Die onderhandelingstafel. Uiteindelik so ook met Resolusie 435 in Namibië, 'n paar jaar later met Kodesa (Convention for a Democratic South Africa) in Suid-Afrika en tot vandaag is daar verskille, konflik en skeuring regdeur Afrika - soos in Soedan wat eens die tweede grootste staat in Afrika was en noem maar op die staatshoofde van verskeie Afrikalande wat in die afgelope vyf, ses jaar uit die kussings gelig is. Dit is 'n sameloop van omstandighede, van gebeure, van verwikkeling, van ontwikkeling, eenvoudig van geskiedenis dat ons vandag minstens elf bevolkingsgroepe met 11 moedertale in een Suid-Afrika is.

Enigiemand sal jou kan sê dat fyngevoeligheid in hierdie plek jou nêrens sal bring nie. Ook nie kinderagtigheid en kleinwêrelmse politiekery nie. Wanneer sal ons leer om mekaar te respekteer, ons verskille te erken, ons selftrots op waardige wyses te demonstreer en nie toe te laat dat klein dingeties soos onskuldige foute sonder bybedoelings ons van stryk bring nie?

South Africa not for softies...

South Africans of different political and cultural origin will probably have to accept that this country is not for softies... Africa never was and never will be a place where things happen easily... Or as the expression goes: A place where you have to lift your leg up high if you want to walk with the big dogs... Africa has never been an easy place. From the bone-dry Sahara desert in the north, to even the more uninhabitable Namib in the south west. The inhospitable Okavango in southern Botswana, to the challenging Karoo, the Richtersveld, the Kalahari where for ages only the Koi people have managed to survive. But today, even the Koi is struggling and fighting for recognition, to have their culture, their language, their traditions and their traditional kingdoms and leaderships respected by present government. But still, the Koi are largely recognised to have been the first people in this uninhabitable place, yet they are treated as foreigners.

From the earliest of times the valleys and plains of Africa were places of conflict and war. Wars between the Zulu, the Xhosa, the Basotho and literally all who lived at the times: The Matabele, the boer, the British. From day one war has always been high on the agenda when different tribes, nations or cultures met. Almost as if land on this continent was in shortage. Yet people from all nations and cultures couldn't refrain from arriving in Africa. The Dutch, the Germans, the English, the French, even the Italians, can you imagine? And wars were common. Eventually, over ages, only one common denominator has remained: The conference table where we have negotiated with others for what we have today, or for what we still need to achieve. This was so clearly demonstrated by Resolution 435 in Namibia, a few years later Codesa (Convention for a Democratic South Africa) in Kempton Park and to illustrate, even today there are constant changes, divisions and splits all over Africa - such as Sudan (until recently, the second largest country in Africa). It remains mind-boggling to recall the number of African leaders removed from the soft and comfortable cushions lately... And yes, then we have to realise, as a result of a "fortunate" (note - NOT tragic) culmination of events, we have at least 11 different nations/cultures/groups with 11 official languages in South Africa today. Anyone will tell you, being hyper sensitive in this place will bring you nowhere. Also not immaturity or small-world politics. When will we learn to respect each other, to recognise our differences and to demonstrate our pride in a dignified manner? When will we be big enough not to allow insignificant little issues such as innocent mistakes or someone else's lack of proper judgment to cause us to lose our way?

Boomplantdag Bergsig Akademie

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Ter ere aan die onderwysers en leerders van 2020, plant Bergsig Akademie 'n boom om hulle te herinner aan die struikelblokke van 2020.

Met die doel om nooit te vergeet dat hoop en groei vir altyd deel van die toekoms sal wees. Die Olienhouboom of wilde olyfboom wat hulle geplant het, is enig in sy soort. Wanneer jy gaan oplees oor die boom, word daarna verwys as 'n werk-esel. Die Olienhouboom word ook gekenmerk vir die feit dat dit in haglike omstandighede boontoe sal beur. Verder is dit ook bestand teen ryp, wind en koue en wanneer die Olienhouboom volgroeid is, lewer dit ook baie koelte. So kon Bergsig Akademie nie anders as om te dink dat hierdie boom ook die onderwysers simboliseer nie. Hulle beleef ook vreeslik baie ryp, koue en wind in hul lewens. Hierdie jaar veral was iets besonders en het hulle opnuut geleer hoe om aan te pas. Hulle het baie uitdagings in die gesig gestaar en moes gewoond raak aan die nuwe normaal. By die skool en in hul persoonlike lewens het baie verander en daar was tye wat hul gevoel het asof die wêreld omgekeer word. Mense gaan dark vir jare verby hierdie bome loop en hul skaars opmerk en so is dit ook maar met onderwysers, dit voel asof al die harde werk ongesien verbygaan en asof hulle nie regtig die leerders bereik nie, maar tog aan die einde van die dag verskaf hulle die koelte aan die leerders wat hul ook vorm om eendag die pad te kan stap wat die Here vir hul bepaal het.

"Duimpie Den Kleuterskool het onlangs saad van dankbaarheid gesaaï en met die hulp van ds Dawie de Koker "saad" vir Kindersorg gesaaï. Een van die Den se pappas, mnr Carlos Mendes, het ons hande geneem deur niks minder nie as 10 sakke Tusk-mielie meal beskikbaar te stel, waarmee ons die kindertjies met ons "saai-projek" kon betrek om ons almal se dankbaarheid teenoor ons Hemelse Vader bekend te maak".
