New life for Noah

Noah, a Labrador cross-breed that has experienced the dark side of life and the cruelty of humans, enjoying the fruits of love, care and attention after he was rescued by the Rustenburg SPCA. The story of Noah's ordeal and escape from what could only have ended in a tragic death, has since culminated in a happy one with a fairy tale ending. Noah is currently recovering from his painful ordeal. His guardian angel, Charnelle de Beer, a volunteer at the SPCA, says her only hope is to see Noah healthy and happy at a loving fur-ever home. To help Noah on the road to full recovery, the SPCA would welcome help to buy special food for him, as well as a special cream - F10 - to treat his wounds. Pictured above Noah is spoilt by four-year-old Anri Robinson (left) and her namesake Anri du Toit (5). (Photograph: Waldie Volschenk).

Life sentence for child rapist

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A 49-year-old man has been sentenced to life imprisonment after he was found guilty of raping an eight-year-old in Lethabong on 5 February 2017.

According to information received from Col. Adèle Myburgh, provincial police spokesperson, the 49-year-old male accused visited the family of an eight-year-old victim on Sunday, 5 February 2017 in Lethabong. He left and took the victim with him at about 11:30 and he raped her in dense bushes, close to a local Primary School. The victim reported the incident to her mother who immediately contacted the police. The accused was arrested one day after the incident and appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, 7 February 2017. He was ultimately found guilty of rape and sentenced on Wednesday (31 March 2021), to life imprisonment. The court ordered that the accused's name be included in the National Register for Sexual Offences. Moreover, he was declared unsuitable to work with children.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Pype wat bars in dié stad is nijs vreemd nie. Om die waarheid te sê, dis alledaags.

Mens hoef net vyf minute op sosiale media te spandeer om oorval te word deur hordes klagtes oor krane wat al vir dae lank leeg is terwyl water in strome langs strate af vloei. Frangipanistraat in Safarituinie is al byna berug vir die hoeveelheid kere wat die munisipale waterpype daar bars en dan ontsaglike skade aan mense se eiendomme aanrig. Van die inwoners in dié straat se versekerings wil nie eens meer waterskade eise aanvaar nie. Verlede week was dit weer sulke tyd in Frangipanistraat, en nadat min hulp van die munisipaliteit ontvang is, moes die huisbewoners self mense kry om die pyp te herstel.

Oor Paasnaweek was dit die bewoners van Ibislaan wat feitlik die hele naweek sonder water was nadat 'n munisipale waterpyp die gees gegee het en dié naweek het Kwartelsingel se inwoners hul by die mense van Ibislaan aangesluit om nog 'n naweek sonder water te wees. Teen Dinsdagoggend het water steeds in Kwartelsingel geloop. Rustenburg Herald het die Rustenburg Munisipaliteit genader vir kemmentaar, maar teen druktyd is geen antwoord nog ontvang nie.

Die gesin moes inderhaas vertrekke in hul woning ontruim toe water, afkomstig van 'n munisipale waterpyp wat gebars het, deur hul huis stroom. (Foto: Verskaf)

Impala Rustenburg hands over projects to municipality

RUSTENBURG HERALD - KANANA - On Friday (9 April), Impala Rustenburg officially handed over nine Social and Labour Plan (SLP) projects to the local community.

Along with community leaders and representatives of the Royal Bafokeng Nation family and the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy Impala celebrated the handover of the completed projects, which are valued at over R94 million and created an additional 714 jobs in the area. Recognising the value of Impala's contribution to the local community, Kgosi Leruo Molotlegi of the Royal Bafokeng Nation, said, "On behalf of the Nation, we wish to thank Impala for its contribution towards our long-term vision for sports, community and youth development. A partner like Impala allows us to create facilities such as the Kanana multi-Sport Centre which gives us a strategic advantage highlighted in our sports vision for not only sports development and creating the athletes of the future but they also contribute to the sports economy and local enterprises through potential eventing and hosting of youth and elite sports, arts and cultural events." Continuously proving Impala's desire to go above and beyond what is required, the company's investment into formal youth training, a bursary programme, learnerships, a cadet programme, SMME development and job creation is designed for long term impact. The deep involvement of Impala in the Rustenburg communities has also extended to assist in Covid-19 awareness, donations of PPE and ventilators, first aid kits, food parcels, and partnerships with taxi associations to assist in keeping the community safe. The SLP projects involved community leaders and representatives very early in the planning phases and covered a wide range of development initiatives, including school facilities, roads, a water scheme, and community facilities, in four communities where the need was the greatest. Cllr Mpho Khunou, Executive Mayor of the Rustenburg Local Municipality, said at the handing over ceremony, "As a municipality, we are extremely proud of these projects and we are confident they will continue to make an impact and leave a legacy. They are giving youngsters hope for the future that they would not otherwise have had. We are also proud of what Impala has done during the difficult period of Covid. Last year we reached out to Impala to help us deal with the challenges we were experiencing. Amongst many other initiatives, they adopted some of the schools to help matriculants recover lost time, and if you look at the results of those schools you can see the impact. We are proud as a municipality to have a corporate citizen such as Impala, and this handover is an important example of what we can achieve if we all work together as the community of Rustenburg." Mark Munroe, Chief Executive of Impala Rustenburg, says, "Contributing to the upliftment of our communities is crucial to us. We're an integrated part of the local community and if our community is struggling, our business in turn will struggle." The SLP projects that Impala Rustenburg has completed formed part of their 1st and 2nd generation SLP undertaking and include: Ramotse Community Centre in Luka, Luka Makgotta Offices; Luka Roads and Storm Water Channel; Luka Water Scheme upgrade, Luka Mogono Hall renovations; Kanana Roads and Storm Water Channel; Kanana new Multipurpose Centre; Kutlwanoong Road upgrade as well as Lefaragatlhe Sports facility. Munroe concludes, "We are honoured to be an integrated part of the community and many of these facilities and infrastructure upgrades are already in use by the people of our communities. We are proud to officially hand over these projects today, and we hope to see the residents of the various communities benefiting from them for many years to come."

Slegs 14 dae oor voor waardasie-D-dag

Waldie Volschenk

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Vanaf hierdie uitgawe van Rustenburg Herald het die eienaars van residensiële, kommersiële (besigheid) of landboupersele in die jurisduksiegebied van die Rustenburgse Munisipaliteit nog net 16 dae gracie om beswaar aan te teken teen die munisipaliteit se onlangs vrygestelde nuwe waardasierol vir die volgende ses jaar.

Dit is teen hierdie tyd lankal nie meer nuus dat dié nuwe waardasierol eienaars die josie in het en in baie gevalle uiterlik bekommert het omdat alle tipes eiendom maar veral landbougrond feitlik deur die bank met reusagtig stygings in eiendomswaardasies aangepas is. Dramatiese stygings van tussen 100 en 400% is hoëgenaamd geen uitsondering nie. Plaaslike eiendomsagentskappe, waardeerders en regslui dui reeds vir maande lank daarop dat die nuwe waardasierol 'n absolute grap is en dat dit duidelik is dat die munisipaliteit na strooihals gryp om sy neipende geldtekort aan te vul.

Vir diegene wat nog nie weet wat die belangrikheid van die munisipale waardasies is nie (en veral diegene wat meen dat dit 'n "statussimbool is") - die waarde van jou eiendom soos min of meer elke ses jaar hersien word, bepaal die koers waarteen eiendomsbelasting op jou maandelikse munisipale rekening bereken word - hoe hoër jou "geskatte" waardasie - hoe meer eiendomsbelasting gaan jy betaal. Dit is gewis NIE 'n statussimbool of uitstekende nuus as jou eiendom teen 'n buitensporige hoë prys gewaardeer word nie. Die werkelike relasie rondom die nuwe waardasierol is dat dit reeds vir die tweede keer sedert Februarie 2020 aangepas/hersien is nadat die rol in Februarie verlede jaar ook vir 'n herrie gesorg het omdat die nuwe rol hoëgenaamd nie 'n getroue refleksie is van wat die afgelope sowat agt jaar in die Rustenburgse eiendomsmark plaasgevind het nie. Prinsipals van eiendomsagentskappe, agente, munisipale waardeerders en kundiges, trouens enigeen wat die afgelope paar jaar sy eiendom in die mark gehad het - selfs die wat gekoop het - is dit eens dat die Rustenburgse eiendomsmark in dié tyd 'n skerp daling getoon het van minstens 20 - 25% indien nie meer nie.

Enigiemand wat hom sedert 2010 in Rustenburg bevind, weet maar al te goed dat die Rustenburgse ekonomiese nie net weens die bykans dekade-oue landwye resessie nie, maar veral sedert die berugte Marikana-incident in 2012 en die rampsspoedige Impala mynboustaking kort daarna net nooit weer die kop behoorlik kon optel nie. In dieselfde tyd het letterlik honderde besighede wat hul deure moes sluit, groot nasionale franchises wat van Rustenburg ontrek het, brooklyn-inkomstes vir baie mense in die eiendoms- en sakesektor en vreemde verskynsels soos voedingskemas by talie hoë-en-laerskole 'n algemene gesig geword. Die lank en die kort was dat die munisipale waardeerder dit goedgedink het om 'n nuwe waardasierol met ontstellende hoë, heeltemal irrasionele stygings in eiendomswaardasies vry te stel. Verder word die nuwe waardasierol in terme van die Rustenburgse Munisipale begroting op 1 Julie 2021 geïmplementeere en na 'n proses van "konsultering" met eienaars, is daar vir eienaars geleentheid om teen die nuwe waardasierol beswaar te maak. Besware moet egter betrekking hê op 'n spesifieke eiendom en nie die waardasierol as sulke nie en moet deur markverante voorbeeld van transaksies in jou omgewing vergesel wees. 'n Alternatiewe waardasie deur 'n erkende waarder is nie noodwendig 'n vereiste nie, hoewel Rustenburg Herald sou meen dat dit raadsaam kan wees.

Die slechte nuus soos Rustenburg Herald reeds etlike maande waarsku, is dat besware op 30 April 2021 sluit waarna die rol met ingang 1 Julie 2021 in werkung tree. Kopieë van die waardasierol kan op die webwerf www.rustenburg.gov.za gevind word en lê trouens by verskeie openbare instellings in en rondom Rustenburg ter insae. Vir meer besonderhede kan eienaars ook met Chris Breytenbach van Era eiendomme by tel (014) 597 4977 in verbinding tree.

AfriForum Chairperson challenges Municipal Manager on public notices - "due process not followed"

RUSTENBURG HERALD - The public notices on the Rustenburg Municipality's proposed new Valuation Roll for residential, business and agricultural premises as advertised by the Rustenburg Municipality in February this year are considered flawed as a result of a number of discrepancies in important details in the notices advertised in two local newspapers.

This is the opinion of Chris Trytsman, Chairperson of AfriForum Rustenburg.

In an open letter to Rustenburg's Municipal Manager (Mr Victor Makona) just over 14 days ago, Trytsman expressed his concerns that the process followed to notify the public of important details surrounding deadlines and such of the new Valuation Roll, were not followed in terms of the Municipal Systems Act.

For the sake of clarity and explanation to the Rustenburg public,

Trytsman's letter is as follows:

"Regarding the inspection of the valuation roll and the lodging of objections: The attachments reflect the public notice in both the Rustenburg Herald and the Platinum Weekly and more specifically the issues of 19 February 2021 and 12 February 2021. At first glance it looks like the same notice. With a more detailed inspection of the notice, it seems that there are some serious discrepancies i.e., the dates differ. The financial years applicable to the new roll is from 1 July 2021 in both but the last financial year is 30 June 2023 and 2026, respectively. There is a three-year difference between the dates of the financial years. Secondly the last date on which the valuation roll is open for inspection differs. In the Platinum Weekly the date is reflected as 12 April and in the Rustenburg Herald it is reflected as 30 April 2021. Surely you will agree with me that this is creating confusion. We urge you to please rectify this situation."

Furthermore, the public notice is flawed in that the last day to submit objections is not reflected clearly in either of the two notices attached. The notices only mention that the valuation roll is open for inspection and that the objections should be lodged within the abovementioned timeframe; and then further down in the notice the closing date for inspections is mentioned. No mention is ever made of a closing date for lodging objections. The only "closing date" referred to is the closing date for the inspection of the roll, not the lodging of an objection.

I am also of the humble opinion that, with exception of the above-mentioned unsuccessful attempts to advertise the public notice as envisaged in Section 49 of the Act, none of the other obligations in terms of the subsections of Section 49 have been adhered to. These subsections are not suggestions or discretionary. They are compulsory!

At the time of Rustenburg Herald's going to print this week, no response had been received by either the Rustenburg Municipality or the Municipal Manager, Trytsman told Rustenburg Herald.

"Julle steel my hond!"

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "Daardie is my eiendom. My eiendom is gesteel en nou het ander mense sê en ek moet stilbly. Ek is die slagoffer."

Só meen Jurgens Eilerd.

Sosiale media was sowat twee weke gelede aan die gons nadat 'n foto op Facebook versprei is van 'n man wat met 'n pitbull oor sy skouer stap. "Dit was baie warm en Dozer was moeg. Dié dat ek hom gedra het," vertel Jurgens. In 'n onderhou met Rustenburg Herald vertel hy dat hy onderweg na 'n onderneming in Oos-Einde was waar hy 'n kwotasie vir werk moes gaan gee. "'n Vrou het langs my gestop en my 'n geleentheid aangebied. Ek was dankbaar en het dit aanvaar." Jurgens vertel dat hy egter skaars by sy bestemming was, of hy merk 'n man op wat hom dophou. "Ek het die persoon gaan konfronteer en hy het gesê hy is Riaan van der Heever van die Rustenburg DBV en dat hy 'n klagte oor my ontvang het. Ek het vir hom gesê om te skoert, hy het niks met my uit te waai nie," vertel hy. Hy sê hy het toe sy hond weer opgetel en geloop. Hy was van plan om na 'n vriend van hom se huis te gaan. "Ek was al 'n ent weg, toe stop dieselfde vrou wat my vroeër 'n geleentheid gegee het, weer langs my en beveel my om my hond aan haar te oorhandig. Ek het vir haar ook gesê om te skoert," sê Jurgens. Volgens hom het die vrou toe uit haar voertuig gespring en na hom toe gehardloop. "Ek het haar voor haar bors gestamp. Maar toe daag nog 'n voertuig op en twee mans duik my grond toe. Hulle het my vuurwapen afgeneem en ek het hulle toe met my mes probeer afweer, maar toe die een man my eie vuurwapen op my rig, het ek die mes laat val," is Jurgens se weergawe. Hy sê Van den Heever het ook intussen weer opgedaan. "Ek het uitdruklik vir hom gesê ek gaan nie my hond aan hom afstaan nie. Hy het gesê dis reg, ek moet net 'n papier onderteken om aan te duï dat ek bewus is van die klagte teen my." Jurgens voeg by dat 'n polisiebeampte op die toneel hom ook belowe het dat hulle nie sy hond sal neem nie. "Maar toe ek weer my oë uitvee, is die DBV weg met my hond en nou kry ek hom nie terug nie," sê hy. Volgens Van den Heever het hy Eilerd deeglik ingelig en vir hom gesê dat die hond na 'n veearts geneem sal word vir evaluasie omdat dit duidelik was dat die hond nie gesond is nie. Die veearts het toe dan ook, volgens Van den Heever bevind dat die hond baie ernstig siek is en dat die hoop op herstel bitter skraal is. "Die hond kon beswaarlik staan en het slegs in 'n sirkel gestrompel. Volgens die veearts is dit waarskynlik as gevolg van 'n breinbesering," verduidelik Van den Heever. Toe Rustenburg Herald mnr Eilerd hieroor inlig, was hy glad nie geneë nie en het aangedui dat hy die aangeleentheid nie só gaan laat nie en dat hy regshulp gaan inwin oor wat hom te doen staan.

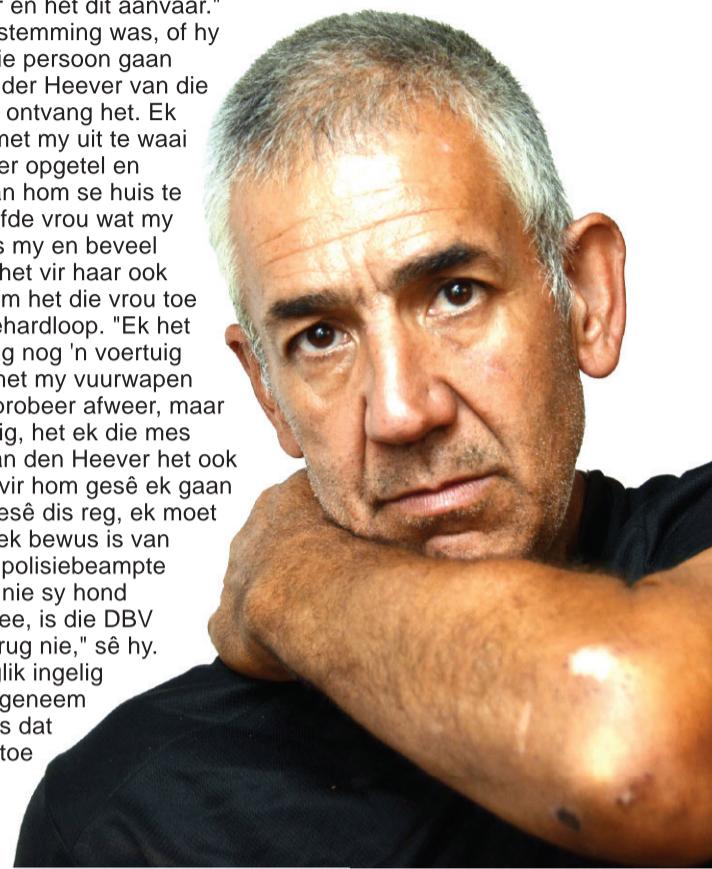

Foto bo: Jurgens Eilerd meen dat sy hond by hom gesteel is. "Kyk hoe lyk ek na die aanval op my!"

Melkstal - top-gunsteling in Rustenburg

Die Melkstal bly sonder enige twyfel 'n top-gunsteling in Rustenburg- en omgewing! Hierdie gesellige restaurant se wens is dat elke kliënt se besoek vir hom of haar só onvergeetlik aangenaam is, dat hulle keer-op-keer wil terugkom om die jongste smaaksensasie wat deur die span baasbakstomers onder "aanvoering" van Cornel voorgesit word, op die proef te stel. Die res van Cornel se span bestaan uit haar regterhand - Halemah, Anna, wat leergierig met nuwe geheime in die bakkuns eksperimenteer en dan is daar ook die nuwe barista (Keen) wat selfs Jo Black se smaaksintuie laat borrel en jubel het. Die Melkstal bly eenvoudig die beste keuse om die perfekte kombinasie van goeie geselskap, goeie atmosfeer en uitmuntende kos te geniet! As jy reeds, wanneer jy hierdie lees, 'n dreigende smaakontploffing ervaar, maak dan seker dat jy die logiese volgende stap neem en gaan sit saam met jou vriendegroep of familie vir 'n fees by die Melkstal aan - die Melkstal-span kan nie wag om al jou

Ons bak (maar brou nie) in ouma Susanna se broodkombuis

Mariana Paul van Rustenburg by haar mammie – ouma Susanna Izaks by wie sy geleer het om te bak. Ouma Susanna bak vandeelsweek vir ons 'n heerlike broodjie.

Die afgelope paar weke reeds het Rustenburg Herald se kookspannetjie omtrent in Mariana Paul en haar mammie se kombuis tent opgeslaan – só lekker het ons gekuiern gesmul.

Mariana en haar mammie ouma Susanna Izaks is beide deeglik bedrewe met die kook- en bakkuns – ons het veral laasgenoemde die afgelope paar weke herhaaldelik geniet en baie baasbaksters het waarskynlik die onlangse paasnaweek geëksperimenteer met die resep vir paasbolletjies wat ouma Susanna vir ons voorgesit het. Hierdie week egter demonstreer ouma Susanna vir ons 'n eenvoudige resep vir heerlike tuisgebakte brood waarmee jy jou vriende by die volgende braai kan beïndruk. Ouma Susanna se broodjie "rys" soos volg:

Tuisgebakte brood

Bestanddele:

6 koppies meel
1 pakkie kitsgis (10 g)
600 ml louwarm water
1 eetlepel suiker
4 eetlepels kookolie
5 ml sout

Metode:

Los die gis op in louwarm water. Voeg die suiker by en roer liggies. Laat staan vir sowat 10 minute sodat dit kan rys. Meng die meel met sout. Voeg die gismengsel en kookolie by die meel en knie baie goed. Laat staan op 'n warm plek om tot dubbelgrootte te rys. Sodra dit klaar gerys het, knie dit weer terug en plaas in 2 klein broodpannetjies. Laat staan in pannetjies om weer te rys.

Plaas dan in voorverhitte oond (180 °C) en bak vir 45 minute. Toets of die brood gaar is deur die bodem van die pannetjie te klop - as dit hol klink is die brood gaar. Smeer die broodjie met 'n bietjie botter as dit uit die oond kom (opsioneel) en laat effens afkoel.

Daar is min dinge so heerlik soos 'n pasgebakte brood wat jy met 'n dik lagie botter smeer en wegval terwyl dit nog warm is... Met 'n kopje lekker koffie naby natuurlik!

Watter winkelbrood kan hiermee vergelyk word?

Altyd die lekkerste oomblik nadat 'n splinternuwe tuisgebakte broodjie uit die oond kom – behalwe vir die eerste diep botterby natuurlik?

'n Pasgebakte brood is heerlik as hy net warm uit die oond kom met 'n lagie botter wat wegsmelt.

Daar is min dinge so heerlik soos 'n pasgebakte brood met 'n dik lagie botter en konfyt op.

VLU Platinastreek bied Hawaii Konferensie aan

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Op Woensdag 7 April 2021 het eregaste en lede vanoor die hele Platinastreek met kleurryke stringe om die nek die jaarlikse VLU-konferensie bygewoon.

Die tema was Hawaii, kleurvol en vrolik soos die advertensies van Hawaii. Covid-19 voorsorgmaatreëls is sorgvuldig nagekom met maskers op die gesigte, sanitering en sosiale afstand. Anders as ander jare was daar baie min eregaste, geen gasprekers of uitstallers nie. Maskers is slegs vir fotosessies afgehaal!

Ds Theo Möller, leraar van die Rustenburg Gemeenskapskerk het die konferensie op 'n gepaste wyse geopen. Daar is hulde gebring aan vyf VLU-lede wat ons vooruitgegaan het. Een vorige NWVLU president, mev Marie Richards asook voormalige Suider-Afrika Areapresidente van WBPV, dr Semane Molotlegi, wat die afgelope jaar oorlede is. Groot-Marico en Skuinsdriftakke was die gasvrou-takke. Annemarie Visser van Groot-Marico het die verwelkoming gedoen. Nadat NWVLU president, Gerda Swart, haar groeteboodskap oorgedra het, is die Konferensie ampelik as geopen verklaar. Groeteboodskappe is ook oorgedra deur Genè Conradie, streeksvoorsitter van Sonneblomstreek en mnr Johan Bezuidenhout van NWK wat ook Platinastreek se hoofborg is. Elsie Marx van Verwesstreek kon ongelukkig nie teenwoordig wees, maar haar groeteboodskap is voorgelees. Mev Gerda Swart, NWVLU president het 'n spesiale toekenning aan die vorige NWVLU president, me Pam Janse van Rensburg oorhandig. Me van Rensburg het daarna haar dank en waardering uitgespreek teenoor die NWVLU en in besonder Platinastreek. Mev Elaine Smit, die voorsitter van Platinastreek het 'n Oorkonde namens Platinastreek aan me Pam van Rensburg oorhandig vir 45 jaar se uitsonderlike toegewyde en lojale diens aan die VLU. Daarna het die algemene jaarvergadering plaasgevind. Mev Elaine Smit het haar voorsittersverslag voorgehou vir goedkeuring. Al die ander jaarverslae is ook voorgehou en goedgekeur. Dit is kommerwekkend dat ledetalle daal. Al die kompetisie-artikels is kunstig uitgestal vir konferensiegangers om te bewonder. Al die deelnemers en pryswenners word hartlik gelukgewens met hulle prestasies. Die tak met die meeste punte is Rustenburg, gevvolg deur Marikana en derde was Brits.

Francis Liebel van Marikana-tak was die lid met die meeste inskrywings en het ook die meeste punte behaal. Elaine Smit het aan haar 'n sertifikaat van Verdienste en 'n VLU-koekliger oorhandig. Francis is die afgelope agt jaar die lid wat hierdie prestasie behaal. Fia van der Merwe van Britstak se Multi-media artikel was aangewys as die mees kreatiewe artikel by die konferensie terwyl Elaine Smit se foto "Deur 'n venster" die meeste punte behaal het. Elaine Smit se termyn as streeksvoorsitter het verstryk en Louise Herbst van Brits is verkies as die nuwe streeksvoorsitter. Verona Loots van Mosaïek is verkies as die 1ste-visevoorsitter van Platinastreek. Hartlik geluk aan hierdie twee dames wat vir die volgende drie jaar die leisels van Platinastreek gaan vashou. "Ons dank aan die Hervormde Kerk Waterkloof vir die gebruik van hulle fasilitete, die spysenering en voortdurende vriendelikheid". "n Spesiale woord van dank aan Cecile Volschenk van Rustenburg Herald vir neem van foto's en sodoende spesiale oomblikke verewig! Dit word opreg waardeer!. Konferensie 2022 sal DV deur Rustenburgtak aangebied word". (Klik op die volgende skakel vir 'n kort videogreep van die VLU Konferensie 2021 - <http://bit.ly/vlukonferensie2021>)

'Settlement' behind police station

The editor

For quite some time now we have observed a 'settlement' mushrooming just behind the Rustenburg Police Station along Steen Street. Nothing is being done to move these settlers and we fear for our lives as we do not know what activities they get up to around this area at night. Normally it is the job of Public Safety officials to ensure that 'settlements' like this are removed, however despite this being right behind the Rustenburg Police Station no action is being made. I would like to urge public safety to look into this and assist in removing these people here since this is not legal for them to erect structures there.

Dromme vir treinwaens

Die redakteur,

Ons (Rustenburg Rusoord) het oral gesoek na 210 liter plastiese dromme met die doel om treintrokke te maak vir 'n Oupa en Ouma dag wat Rustenburg Rusoord vroeg in September 2021 aangebied. Marianne Meyer (Rustenburg Herald) het uitgevind dat daar leë dromme by die Rustenburg Herald se kantore is en ek (Johan Meyer - bestuurder van Rustenburg Rusoord) het aangebied om drie te koop. Einde ten laaste is ek net aangesê om drie drome te kom oplaai. Ek wil net namens Rusoord sê baie dankie vir die skenking, in hierdie tye moet ons alles moontlik doen vir fondsinsameling om organisasies soos Rusoord in staat te stel om finansieel te oorleef.

*Vriendelike groete,
Johan Meyer (bestuurder Rustenburg Rusoord).*

Baie beïndruk met Evotel

Geagte redakteur

Ek wil graag die werkers van Evotel wat Rustenburg omdolwe komplimenteer. Oral waar ek ry sien ek hulle is hard aan die werk; lyk nie eens of hulle rus nie. As Evotel se diens so goed gaan wees soos hulle werkspanne, het hulle 'n wenresep. Baie dankie aan al die spanne!

Not happy with Home Affairs Rustenburg

The editor

We are requesting that something be done about how Home Affairs Rustenburg is treating the people of Rustenburg. Every day at 11:00 we get told that the system is off-line and that system goes back online at 14:00. The queue is very long and we arrive early in the morning around 05:00 and we get assistance around 08:00. This is frustrating as we are not addressed with respect as per the constitution Act 108 of 1998. Our human dignity has been undermined. The department in Rustenburg is dragging their feet in carrying out the core mandate which is to register and affirm the identity and status of citizens and to regulate immigration efficiently and securely. This office is failing to enable us as citizens to exercise our constitutional rights and access services in banks, schools, workplace and other departments.

Weer te vinnig meneer?

Dit is ongetwyfel onafwendbaar dat die moontlikheid van privaat-verkeerbeheer en -instellings in Suid-Afrika as 'n saak van dringendheid ondersoek moet word. Na presies drie dekades aan die stuur van die land kon die regerende party nog nie oortuig word om die belangrikheid van behoorlike dienslewering op al drie vlakke van regering na waarde te ag of minstens darem (veral op plaaslikevlak) op 'n redelike standaard te handhaaf nie. As 'n mens begin onderzoek instel na die omvang van privaatinstansies en -kontrakteurs wat lankal reeds op semi-permanente basis na die onderskeie funksies van plaaslike owerhede omsien, wil 'n mens jou hande saamstaan. Kyk maar net na die geweldige vooruitgang wat privaat-sekuriteitsmaatskappye die afgelope 15 jaar in Suid-Afrika begin maak het - tot so 'n mate dat privaat-sekuriteitsinstansies deesdae nie eers meer 'n pluimkie kry as hulle etlike ure en dikwels selfs dae lank voor die Suid-Afrikaanse Polisie by 'n misdaadtoneel opdaag nie. Dit is ongelukkig glad nie meer 'n buitengewone verskynsel nie. Dit is boonop sekerlik net naïwe mense wat reken dat hierdie tendens binnekort of ooit gaan verander en dat die regerende party sy huis in orde sal kry.

Trouens, ons moet onself daarop voorberei dat ons binne 'n paar jaar of wat (hopelik gouer as dit enigsies moontlik sou wees) om splinternuwe maar privaat-verkeersowerhede of -instellings veral gedurende spitsstye, tye vanuitgewone druk verkeersituasies, ongelukke, na-ure en veral oor naweke op ons paaie te sien en nie slegs by hoë uitsondering onder 'n boom of 'n soortgelyke wegkrupplek met 'n spoedkamera in die kajuit van 'n minibus of dergeliks soos ons nou al gewoon is nie. Vir enigiemand wat die afgelope 20 jaar al gereeld op ons paaie is, is dit duidelik dat plaaslike regerings nie daarin belangstel of in staat is om dienslewering te handhaaf nie en dat die invordering van 'n addisionele inkomste namens die munisipaliteit min of meer die enigste funksie van die totaal ontoereikende personeelkorps van die verkeersdepartement is.

Die ordelike en veilige vloei van verkeerstoestande en -situasies het lankal nie meer enige betekenis nie, vandaar seker die feit dat niemand meer 'n verkeersbeampte wil wees nie - dit is tog soveel lekkerder om 'n baas te wees en jou dae op kantoor deur te bring waar jy jou ure lank in 'n lugverkoelde vertrek met rekeningspeleties en twyfelagtige webwerwe kan besig hou terwyl jy groot geld verdien waaroor die arme padgebruiker betaal. Vroeër vandeelsweek byvoorbeeld, het berigte dat die eens funksionele Padongelukkefonds (Road Accident Fund) met R300 miljoen oorbestee en uitgeput is, oopslae gemaak. En dan meen onse president Ramapromises dat "Radikale Ekonomiese Tranformasies" betyds in die kiem gesmoor is? Hoe sê die Engelse: "dream on..."

Speeding again Sir?

In this day and age it speaks for itself that the viability of private traffic control services and institutions have to be investigated as a matter of urgency. After exactly 30 years at the helm of this country it is abundantly clear that the ruling party could not be convinced of the utmost importance of sustaining proper service delivery at all three tiers of government, especially at local government level. With regard to service delivery, it is almost beyond belief that one comes to realise exactly to what extent private security companies and contractors have benefited from government's waning interest in these functions. To such an extent in fact, that in recent times it is hardly ever considered a feather in the cap of private security companies to arrive at a crime scene several hours if not days ahead of the local police service - simply because it is no longer viewed as anything extraordinary! What makes matter worse, is that only naive people could argue that this state of affairs is likely to change within the near future and that the ruling party is definitely set on getting its house in order.

Surely it must speak for itself that South Africans will have to prepare themselves (hopefully within the immediate future if not sooner) that we will soon see a multiple of private traffic control services and institutions on our roads during peak hours, extraordinary traffic situations such as Easter weekend, at accident scenes, after hours and weekends in particular, and not only during occasional "patrols" while armed with radar speed cameras or hiding in the shade of overhanging trees or the cabin of a minibus along our roads. Anyone who is familiar with South African traffic conditions will immediately tell you that in today's world local governments are not the least interested in service delivery and that securing an additional income for local municipalities has lately become the primary function of ill-equipped skeleton staff traffic officers who are only deployed when the budget is really running low.

It would be recklessly naive to reckon that safe and smooth traffic conditions are still a priority on our roads today. This is easily demonstrated by the fact that hardly anyone wants to be a traffic officer anymore. No, wouldn't it be much nicer to be a "boss" with your own air-conditioned office where you could earn big money (for which the abandoned road user pays for) while you occupy yourself with computer games and dubious websites for hours on end between the occasional meeting? Earlier this week for example, reports of the for ages fully functional Road Accident Fund being desperately bankrupt with over expenditure of R300 billion, have made headlines. To think that our President Ramapromises thought that Radical Economic Transformation was nipped in the bud?

Pieter Coetzé, former learner of Laerskool Proteapark and Hoërskool Rustenburg added his name to the list of Olympic qualifiers on the final day of the SA Swimming Championships in Gqeberha on Monday. Pieter provided a thrilling ending to the championships. The 16-year-old narrowly missed out on qualification on his way to the 100m backstroke title last week, but dipped under the required time in the opening leg of the 4x100m medley relay, touching in 53.62 seconds. Rustie-swemmer tops in Noordwes

Liandri nommer een in Suid-Afrika

Baie geluk aan Liandri de Wet, graad 9-leerder van die Hoërskool Rustenburg, wat tydens die afgelope Suid-Afrikaanse Klubkampioenskappe (ASA), vanaf 7 - 12 April in Paarl, goud in skyfwerp behaal het. Sy gooi 'n allemintige 46.07m. Nie net het hierdie afstand haar nommer een in Suid-Afrika gemaak nie, dit was ook haar persoonlike beste.

Baie geluk aan Simoné Henning, graad 8-leerder van Hoërskool Rustenburg, wat tydens die Noordwes-swemprys-uitdeling, aangewys is as die Junior Victrix Ludorum, asook die beste 100m vlinderslag-swemmer in Noordwes.
