

Bagging the big bucks

"And the winners are...!" Yes, it was with great excitement that the prize-giving of the past year's Blank Space Art competition saw two young artists being rewarded "big time" at Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé on Friday. 15-year-old Esmari Cronjé and 22-year-old Koketso Mabelane were the overall winners and cashed in two Shopping Vouchers to the value of R10 000 each courtesy Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing and Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé. From left above at the prize-giving are Cecile Volschenk of Rustenburg Herald (administrator of the competition), winning artist Koketso Mabelane, Steven Vorster of Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing, our Chief Judge well-known Rustenburg artist Mollie Moolman, winning artist Esmari Cronjé and Arnold van der Walt of Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé - congratulations to the winners and all those who have supported us throughout the year and hats off to our loyal sponsors - Pick n Pay Rustenburg! Miss South Africa makes Top Three at Miss Universe 2021

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Miss South Africa Lalela Mswane made the Top 3 at the 70th Miss Universe pageant which was held in Eilat, Israel recently this week.

Mswane was crowned second runner up with Miss India Harnaaz Sandhu taking the crown and Miss Paraguay Nadia Ferreira the first runner-up.

Twenty-four-year-old Mswane, who comes from KwaSokhulu in Richards Bay, represented South Africa against contestants from 80 other countries in the competition. Mswane was one of the front runners throughout the build-up to the finale, wowing the judges in the national costume competition on Friday where she wore a white outfit by the Costume Department with white feathers symbolising a Dove of Peace.

In her final speech before the winner was announced, Mswane urged young women to choose courage over comfort.

"I would like young women to know that since the beginning of time they have had everything within them to achieve anything they wanted, it is the world that convinced that we do not. I am overwhelmed to have made it into the Top 3 of the competition. The whole experience has been beyond my wildest expectations. Congratulations to Harnaaz and Nadia and all the other contestants who made this journey so special. I am deeply thankful to all the amazing people who have supported and uplifted me," said Mswane.

At the time of winning the Miss South Africa title in October this year, Mswane had graduated with a Bachelor of Law from the University of Pretoria. She is also a model and a dancer.

They bag the big bucks

Cecile Volschenk of Rustenburg Herald (administrator), Koketse Mabelane (winner Greystone Crossing), Steven Vorster of Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing, Mollie Moolman - Chief Judge, Esmari Cronjé (winner Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé) and Arnold van der Walt of Pick n Pay Lifestyle Square in Beyers Naudé Avenue during the prize-giving on Friday.

The winning entry of fifteen-year-old Esmari Cronjé with an artwork depicting the challenges and dangers of Covid-19 of the past two years. Esmari is one of two winners to clinch a shopping voucher to the value of R10 000 sponsored by Pick n Pay Rustenburg.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Both overall winners in this year's Rustenburg Herald Pick n Pay Blank Space Art competition are young talents of 15 en 22 years-old respectively who can indeed look forward to a delightful Christmas holiday season.

Fifteen year-old Esmari Cronjé and 22 year-old Koketso Mabelane have each won a Grand Prize to the value of R10 000 in shopping vouchers sponsored by Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing and Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé.

Our Chief judge of the fourth quarter - well-known artist Mollie Moolman, couldn't contain her excitement on the absolute brilliant artworks that had been entered for the competition from early this year.

Though colour is very important and is often used to great effect in art throughout the world, both overall winners of this year were pencil drawings. It was however the quality of these entries and the context of the material that was entered that saw Esmari and Koketse walking away with the grand prizes.

The Blank Space Art competition will resume early in January 2022 once again and artists who find themselves with time on their hands during this holiday season, do not have to wait - get on with it - why not work on your new entries right away?

Remember to enter your art into the boxes marked "Blank Space Art competition" at Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing, Pick n Pay Lifestyle Square in Beyers Naudé and reception of Rustenburg Herald in 13 Coetzer Street.

To our winning artists: Congratulations, enjoy your prize-money to the fullest and all the best for 2022. Keep watching Rustenburg Herald and Bonus for all the details of the competition.

We also wish to thank Messrs André Coetzer, Derrick Oberholzer and Steven Vorster of Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing and Beyers Naudé for their continued support of our art competition as well as all artists who have supported us with the Blank Space Art competition throughout the past two very challenging years.

Keep on working - who knows - you might be the next winner of 2022?

Another brilliant entry in pencil by 22 year-old local artist Koketse Mabelane. Koketso and his family are definitely looking forward to a wonderful Christmas holiday season - congratulations!

Ensuring safety: Executive Mayor of Rustenburg Local Municipality, Cllr Kgomotso Shiela Mabale-Huma, inspecting parade and checking outstanding traffic fines, as well as expired goods in various shops, during the Safety and Clean city campaign launch.

Rustenburg's Safe and Clean City campaign launched

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - To ensure that communities of Rustenburg enjoy their festive season under a safe and secured environment, free from petty and serious crimes, the Executive Mayor of Rustenburg, Cllr Kgomotso Shiela Mabale-Huma, launched a safe and clean city campaign on Monday (13 December) at the Municipality's Disaster and Rescue offices.

The launch, according to Thapelo Matebesi, Rustenburg Local Municipality's spokesperson, coincided with pass-out parade of 20 newly graduated firefighters, after having undergone intensive training by the Municipality, with the view to integrating them with the current squad of firefighters, thus strengthening it.

"The objective to this campaign is to send a clear message to criminals that lawlessness and anarchy will not be tolerated in Rustenburg. We will also, amongst others ensure Covid-19 regulations are adhered to by businesses and residents, whilst at the same time doing spot checks for expired goods. By so doing, we will all have a happy festive season," remarked Executive Mayor, Cllr Kgomotso Shiela Mabale-Huma.

She also took the time to wish all residents of Rustenburg a safe and blessed festive season and a prosperous new year.

IMPALA CARING FOR ITS COMMUNITIES

Celebrate safely this festive season!

Impala Rustenburg wishes you a blessed festive season and a New Year that brings good health, happiness and prosperity, as we work together to build a sustainable future for Rustenburg and its people.

Thank you for working with us throughout this year to build and strengthen our infrastructure, resources and skills.

We are grateful to the communities of Rustenburg for making 2021 a year of exceptional teamwork.

Impala remains committed to supporting and ensuring long-term benefits for our workforce and the wider Rustenburg community wherever possible.

In this period of celebrations, please be safe:

Be safe on the roads by being alert and obeying road safety rules

Be safe from Covid-19 by sticking to the protocols of sanitising, social distancing, wearing your mask and getting vaccinated.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The festive season is a time where families come together to celebrate life, joy and happiness, creating memories that will be remembered long after the season comes to an end.

With the above in mind, and as part of Bakwena's continued commitment to Road Safety, Bakwena would like to ensure road users that all lanes at our plazas will be open in the peak direction to accommodate busy conditions. There will be no construction or closed lanes along the N1N4 route as from 15 December 2021.

Road users are encouraged to plan their journeys to avoid travelling in the peak periods. Peak periods are expected as follows:-

N1 Northbound & N4 Westbound15th, 16th, 17th, 24th & 31 December 2021 between 12:00 and 21:00

N1 Southbound & N4 Eastbound2nd & 9th January 2022 between 12:00 and 21:00

Bakwena spokesperson, Solomon Kganyago, says road safety is Bakwena's priority and various additional measures have been ramped up along the route including partnering with Various authorities to ensure the safety of motorists traveling the route.

Through Bakwena's ongoing partnership with Motus Corporation and Kia South Africa, 6 additional patrol vehicles have been deployed along the Bakwena N1N4 route from Monday 6th December 2021 until Monday the10th January 2022 covering the December and January festive period. These vehicles will assist with visible policing, route surveillance, crash assistance as well as provide support to road users who find themselves in difficulty along the route. If faced with an emergency while travelling the N1N4 route, the number to dial is 0800 BAKWENA / 0800 2259362, use the information on the blue km board markers to identify your location when requesting assistance or reporting incidents

For those traveling with e-tags, ensure your tag is topped up before your journey to minimize delays using the dedicated e-tag lanes. Registered e-tag users can pay their accounts via SANRAL Customer Service Centre, EFT, SANRAL Call Centre, at selected Checkers, Pick 'n Pay and Shoprite stores or via the SANRAL app. For road users wanting to get an e-tag, e-tags are available at the following locations along the N1N4 route: –

- N1 Total Panorama Petroport
- N4 Doornpoort Engen One Stop
- N4 Magalies Total Petroport
- N4 Kroondal Shell Ultra City

Eliminate your interaction with toll plaza staff by taking advantage of the special promotion Bakwena is running in partnership with N1 Total Panorama Petroport whereby you get a FREE e-tag and 10% off your sit-down meal at either Tonkawa Spur, Steers or Nando's at the N1 Petroport bridge. Promotion is valid between 1 December 2021 to 31 January 2022.

An additional safety and convenience measure is the dedicated Tap and Go credit card facility available at selected plazas along the N1N4 route for South African chip enabled credit cards. Using this lane will save you time and eliminate your contact with plaza operators thereby reducing your exposure to COVID-19. Please note that debit cards and foreign credit cards are not accepted along the N1N4 route.

For more information on planning your journey, please go to www.bakwena.co.za (safety information). For live traffic updates, you can follow Bakwena on twitter: @BakwenaN1N4. Bakwena would like to take this opportunity to wish our road users and their families a safe and pleasant trip along our route this holiday season.

Head-to-head race for Bafokeng shares

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The race to get the majority stake in Royal Bafokeng Platinum (RBPlat) is nearly as close as the one in Sunday's Abu Dhabi F1 final.

Both Impala Platinum (Implats) and Northam Platinum have added to their stakes in RBPlat as the two continue to compete for a larger share of the business.

On Tuesday (7 December) Northam announced it has acquired additional shares in RBPlat, increasing its shareholding from 32.8% to 34.95%

The following morning Implats announced it has now built up its stake in RBPlat to 32.26%. The previous week Implats announced it had acquired 24.5% of RBPlat shares from institutional shareholders and would extend the same offer to remaining shareholders. That is, R150 per share, consisting of R90 cash plus 0.3 ordinary shares in Impala.

The bidding war for RBPlat has market observers worried that it denotes top of the cycle behaviour, when cash-flush miners buy assets at high prices when commodity prices peak. Implats and Northam however consider RBPlat as a rare opportunity to acquire a quality Platinum Group Metals asset.

It was first thought that only Implats was in the market to acquire RBPlats when it warned the market in October that the two were in acquisition talks.

Northam appeared to come out of the blue last month when it announced it had brokered a deal directly with Royal Bafokeng Holdings (RBH), RBPlat's parent company, to acquire its shares in the platinum business at R180 a share.

While some assumed Implats to be out of the running, the miner announced its acquisition of the 24.5% stake as it extended the offer to remaining shareholders with an aim of ultimately acquiring at least 51% of RBPlat's shares. In last week's announcement Northam said the further acquisitions were implemented at a volume weighted average cash consideration of R162.70 per RBPlat Share and at a maximum cash consideration of R165.00 per RBPlat Share.

The company has now also secured an option and a right of first refusal agreement with Emikaway (EMI) - a wholly owned subsidiary of Royal Bafokeng Holdings – which could potentially see Northam's shareholding increase to 38.27 % in time.

STAY HOME • STAY SAFE • STAY STRONG • STAY HEALTHY

Glencore Ferroalloys heeds government's call to help fight GBVF in South Africa.

With the scourge of rape and violence against women on the rise in communities across the country, Glencore Ferroalloys has stepped up to contribute towards the fight against these crimes by supporting government's Thuthuzela Care Centres initiative and empowering women in their local communities.

Thuthuzela Care Centres are one-stop facilities that serve as a critical part of the country's anti-rape strategy. The aim of the centres is to reduce secondary victimisation, improve conviction rates and reduce the cycle time for finalisation of cases.

Glencore Ferroalloys recently committed R4 million towards the building of another Thuthuzela Care Centre at the Dilokong Hospital, located at Gowe, a rural village in the Fetakgomo Tubatse Local Municipality in Limpopo. The Dilokong Hospital Thuthuzela Care Centre being built by Glencore is expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2022.

Glencore CSR Superintendent, Ntombizodwa De Toit, said she looks forward to a time when construction of the centre is completed so it can begin the important work of supporting women and children who are victims of rape in the community.

"As an organisation we pride ourselves in ensuring that we live our values, and with this particular project our values of responsibility, openness, and simplicity resonate most," she said during a recent sod turning ceremony at the site.

De Toit said this initiative by Glencore is in response to one of the biggest challenges faced in the country.

"It is a challenge that needs all hands on deck and most importantly, it is a challenge that calls for strong partnerships because GBVF affects everyone irrespective of age, gender or nationality. To roll this project out, we aligned ourselves to Pillar 4 of the NSP which speaks to the integrated care and support of GBVF survivors and their families, and we are proud to start the process of ensuring that our community members have access to their own Thuthuzela Care Centre," she said.

The new centre will be built within the Dilokong Hospital which services 166 villages with an estimated population of 335 676. This is a welcome intervention in an area characterised by a weak economic base, inadequate infrastructure, major service backlogs, dispersed human settlements and high poverty levels.

Glencore Ferroalloys also recognised women empowerment as an important tool which can go a long way in giving a voice to the voiceless. On 26 November 2021, Glencore Ferroalloys in partnership with the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy (DMRE), Women in Mining Advisory Committee (WIMAC) and Mine Health and Safety Council (MHSC), officially launched their 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence and Femicide (GBVF) awareness campaign. The campaign which calls for zero tolerance against the abuse of women and children within the South African mining industry, is a collective effort from Glencore Ferroalloys and other mining houses in the Rustenburg area to play their part in creating awareness, as well as supporting victims of GBVF near their operations.

As part of this campaign Glencore Ferroalloys announced support for start-ups founded by women, which will be mentored at their Enterprise and Supplier Development (ESD) hub which was launched in 2020 to support local businesses around Glencore's operations.

"Our aim from the ESD hub is to support recipients and uplift communities. We aim to provide them with the tools they need to equip themselves so they can equip others. Our first step is to work together with the recipients to create a development plan after investigating the needs and shortages within their businesses. We then put them through a programme with an expert in a particular field to mentor them as they develop their skills. We are proud to walk this journey with these women whom we have seen grow from strength to strength and we will continue to hold hands with them to ensure that they reach their full potential." Enterprise and Supplier Development Superintendent of Glencore Ferroalloys, Charlin Ntuli said.

Ferroalloys CEO, Japie Fullard making his pledge on Zero Tolerance against Gender Based Violence

Glencore Ferroalloys' contribution to the fight against GBVF is a massive step in helping to turn the tide against crimes on women and girls in South Africa. The mining giant has also announced the rollout of several site campaigns which started on the 25th of November and will run until the 10th of December to ensure maximum awareness, and foster a collaborative effort in dealing with GBVF across all its operations.

Home Affairs extends operating hours ahead of festive season

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Home Affairs Minister, Aaron Motsoaledi, has approved the temporary extension of operating times at front offices by two and a half hours from 08:00 to 17:30 from this week until 30 December 2021 - to deal with the high demand for services.

This extension period excludes weekends, public holidays, 17 and 24 December 2021, as the offices will be closed. The Minister has also extended operating hours at some of the busiest ports of entry by between two and seven hours, making some of them operational 24 hours. This is to enable a continuous processing of truck drivers. Other travellers will be processed during the hours that fall outside the curfew. The Minister encouraged those who applied for their IDs more than two weeks ago to come and collect their documents at the offices where they made their applications. In the past two months, the department issued 206 254 unabridged birth certificates, processed 187 813 ID applications, registered 129 324 births and issued 116 049 death certificates. These are the services that were in high demand during the past two months. The department will offer all Home Affairs services during the extension period.

“The only people who will be sent home are those who arrive after 17:30. Everybody who arrives before 17:30 should be served and not turned away,” the Department Home Affairs said in a statement.

Wife gets life for killing husband

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Provincial Commissioner of North West, Lieutenant General Sello Kweni welcomed the life sentence handed down to Helen Mashaba (41) by the North Gauteng High Court on Monday (6 December).

The sentencing came after the accused was apprehended by Mooiwool Police after confessing to being the mastermind behind the murder of her husband on Friday (10 October 2020).

According to information received from Captain Aafje Botma, police spokesperson in the North West Province, the police were summoned to a scene regarding a body that was spotted at Malerna Section in Modderspruit, close to Mooiwool. Upon arrival at the scene, they found the lifeless body of a male with three gunshot wounds on the upper body. The wife (accused) was interviewed and she confessed. It was also revealed that the accused hired two hitmen to kill her husband execution style. It was further established that Mashaba had prior plans to kill her husband.

Thus, she was found guilty on Thursday (20 October 2021) and her bail was revoked. The two hitmen are still at large and the police request anyone who may

Suspected murder and kidnapping accused remanded in custody

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Five suspects were remanded in custody following their appearance before the Mogwase Magistrates' Court on Thursday (9 December) for the alleged kidnapping and murder of 40-year-old Koketso Ntsimane.

According to information received from North West police spokesperson, Captain Aafje Botma, the accused's court appearance emanated from their arrest in Witranjia Village, Sun City, on Wednesday (8 December 2021), in connection with the disappearance and subsequent killing of Koketso Ntsimane of Rustenburg.

Ntsimane was reported missing at Rustenburg Police station on Wednesday (27 October 2021). Following an intensive search by the police, Ntsimane's Mazda vehicle was found abandoned in Mabeskraal Village near Sun City in November 2021. Furthermore, information was received that the victim was allegedly kidnapped and killed by his fiancé's boyfriend. Ntsimane's lifeless and decomposed body was ultimately found in Mapaputle Village in the vicinity of Sun City.

Solomon Lambole (55), Kagiso Kube (27), Ali Banda (44), Thabang Mashiane (26) and Thabang Mokoka (28), who are also facing a charge of defeating the course of justice, were expected to appear again before the Mogwase Magistrates' Court on Tuesday (14 December), for legal representation, while investigation into the matter continues.

Missing person alert

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The police in Letlhabile would like to request the community's assistance in locating Thabo Daphney Tshepe (66), who is residing at Lerulaneng section in Rabokala village, close to Letlhabile township.

According to information available at this stage, she was last seen by her daughter on Thursday (25 March 2021), at about 22:00 when they went to sleep. However, it is alleged that the following morning, she was nowhere to be found. A search was conducted around Rabokala Village without any success. In addition, Tshepe is mentally ill.

At the time of her disappearance, she was wearing a blue traditional dress and a headdress. She is light in complexion, medium in height and she has a skinny body structure with a gap in the upper front teeth.

Anyone with information regarding her whereabouts can contact the Investigating Officer, Detective Sergeant Thembi Mahlangu of Letlhabile Detectives on cell: 072 356 6473 or Crime Stop on 08600 10111. Anonymous tip-offs can be communicated via MySAPS App.

In die ouderdom van 57 jaar moes die familie afskeid neem van hul geliefde Gustav Clappen op 6 Desember 2021. Hy gaan baie gemis word. Sy diens het plaasgevind op 14 Desember vanuit His Vision Kerk Rustenburg om 11:00. 'n Liefdesdiens gelewer deur Martins Funerals Rustenburg (014) 592 0037. (220971)

Pad versper

Motoriste word gemaan om uiters versigtig te wees wanneer daar saans op ons paaie gereis word. Reeds vroeg in die huidige feesseisoen het verskeie ongelukke wat wissel van gering tot baie ernstig reeds in die Rustenburg- en Marikana-omgewing plaasgevind. Een van die jongste voorvalle het hom Dinsdagaand by die Buffelspoort-aansluiting op die Bakwena N4 afgespeel toe 'n ligte passasiersmotor met 'n swaarvragmotor in 'n botsing betrokke was. Die voorval het omstreeks 20:00 plaasgevind. Volgens voorlopige inligting van die polisie is niemand ten tye van die ongeluk ernstig beseer nie.

Sakeliga tree toe tot vuurwapenstryd

RUSTENBURG HERALD - JOHANNESBURG - (Die) Sakeliga het onlangs aansoek gedoen om as amicus curiae – vriend van die hof – toe te tree in 'n saak in die Konstitusionele Hof met die doel om die eiendomsregte van wapeneienaars te beskerm.

Talle wapeneienaars se reg op wettige besit van hul vuurwapens is tans onder beleg weens die polisie se weiering om nuwe aansoeke vir wapenlisensies te ontvang waar wapenlisensies nie tydig hernu kon word nie. In hierdie spesifieke saak voor die Konstitusionele Hof, weier die Suid Afrikaanse Polisie (SAPD) om nuwe lisensiëringsaansoeke te ontvang ten opsigte van wapens waarvan die lisensies wat reeds ten gunste van die sekuriteitsmaatskappy, Fidelity, uitgereik is, verstryk het in afwesigheid van 'n tydige hernuwingsaansoek. Sô sê Tian Alberts - Sakeliga se regs- en skakelbeampte.

Die implikasie van die SAPD se beleid is dat Fidelity se wapens bloot vernietig moet word. Hierdie onvolhoubare situasie forseer wapeneienaars soos Fidelity om bruikbare eiendom om tegniese redes bloot te verbeur en dan daardie wapens met nuwe wapens te moet vervang. Sakeliga voer in sy hofstukke aan dat die SAPD se interpretasie van die Wet op Beheer van Vuurwapens, in stryd met die Wet self, ekonomies onhoudbaar is en aanleiding gee tot absurditeit in die reg. Sakeliga meen eerstens dat dit ekonomies onhoudbaar is om van eienaars soos Fidelity (wat in grootmaat wapens aankoop) te verwag om nuwe wapens aan te koop wanneer lisensies nie tydig hernu kon word nie. Die vereiste behoort eerder te wees dat wapeneienaars soos Fidelity juis vermorsing van skaars ekonomiese hulpbronne moet kan voorkom deur nuwe lisensies ten opsigte van die bestaande wapens te kan uitneem, ten einde wettige besit te herstel, sê Alberts.

Tweedens gee dit aanleiding tot absurditeit in die reg indien diegene wat wapens verbeur het weens byvoorbeeld beslaglegging deur die polisie, in 'n beter posisie is as diegene wat ter goede trou wapens ingehandig het omdat die lisensie nie betyds hernu kon word nie. Die Wet op Beheer van Vuurwapens maak voorsiening daarvoor dat enige wapeneienaar betoog teen die vernietiging van hul eiendom mag indien. Dit impliseer dat wapeneienaars nuwe lisensieaansoeke mag indien om wettige besit van hulle vuurwapens te herstel. Met die SAPD se onversetlike interpretasie van die Wet op Beheer van Vuurwapens, word eienaars soos Fidelity die reg om verteenwoordigings te doen en 'n geleentheid te hê om wettige besit te herstel, ontsê. Sakeliga vra vir 'n pragmatiese benadering wat bestaanbaar is met die Wet op Beheer van Vuurwapens. Dit is dat wapeneienaars wettige besit van hul wapens wat by die polisie ingehandig is moet kan herstel deur aansoek te doen vir nuwe lisensies. Hierdie saak voor die Konstitusionele Hof is op 18 November aangehoor. Sakeliga se aansoek om voeging as amicus curiae en die oorweging van Sakeliga se substansiële argumente word as deel van die skriftelike rekord voor die hof oorweeg. Uitspraak word eers later in die Nuwejaar verwag.

Zimele launches retail sector skills development programme

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Anglo American Zimele is pleased to announce the launch of its retail skills development programme aimed at unlocking employment opportunities within the sector for youth in their host communities.

It is expected that up to 400 youths in four host communities will benefit from the programme, which is offered in partnership with Reach Summit (Pty) Ltd, through acquisition of skills that will enhance their employability in the retail sector.

“This initiative forms part of Anglo American Zimele's efforts to actively pursue partnerships with key players in sectors that have the highest potential of creating employment opportunities for youth living within Anglo American's host communities,” said Larisha Naidoo, Head of Anglo American Zimele.

The initial phase of the programme will be focused in two host communities – Rustenburg and Kathu – targeting 200 youths from each of these areas.

The skills programme is demand-led and would be focused accordingly to include jobs including check out controllers, sales assistants, credit controllers and storeroom attendants, and it will be offered in a blended approach of on-line learning and face-to-face.

The programme follows a similar training programme targeted at enhancing skills for the Tourism and Hospitality sector, through which about 270 youths from host communities around the Mogalakwena, Rustenburg, Far Eastern Limb, Sishen and Postmasburg operations have been placed in jobs.

These programmes are designed and implemented to develop relevant skills for the youth to enable them to secure employment opportunities in the sectors that are in high demand as well as to offer recruitment and job placement support into national and global brands.

The training is SAQA-recognised with programme participants gaining NQF Level 2 or 4, depending on the course they participate in. Only youths from the host and zone of influence are eligible to participate in the programmes.

“We are excited to be in this partnership to help youth in our country take advantage of employment opportunities presented by the retail sector, which is one of South Africa's biggest, most affluent, and important sectors with fastest growing segments including textiles and clothes, hardware, general stores, household goods, pharmaceuticals, and food and drinks,” said Matt Lambert, Managing Director of Summit.

Anglo American encourages youths from our host communities to participate in these programmes when advertisements for participation are made. However, youth are urged to remain cautious of job scams that are sometimes distribute to the public purporting to be from Anglo American.

When will the matric exam results be released?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The class of 2021 concluded their final matric examinations on 7 December 2021.

When South Africa entered this year, some pupils were still engaging with their teachers via online classes after shifting from face-to-face interaction due to the second wave of Covid-19 pandemic. There were also concerns that some matric pupils would drop out as they were forced to adapt to a devastating pandemic and massive class disruptions.

The 2021 National Senior Certificate (NSC) examination results will be released in January next year. Basic Minister Angie Motshekga is expected to announce the matric exam results on 20 January 2022, while provinces will then release the results the next day on 21 January.

Last month, the Department of Basic Education (DBE) confirmed that more than 40,000 markers would handle the marking of the NSC exams. The markers are expected to finish marking by 22 December this year. The marking is set to be captured on 27 December.

Meanwhile, Umalusi standardisation is expected to take place by 6 January. The education quality assurance council needs to declare that the exams and the marking processes are up to standard in order for the NSC exam results to be released.

Here's how you can get your matric results:

NSC results - To obtain a NSC one must achieve 40% in three subjects, one of which is an official language at Home Language level and 30% in three subjects. Matriculants can get their official statement of results from the school, exam centre where they wrote their exams or online through the DBE's website.

Step 1: Visit the Department of Basic Education at <https://www.education.gov.za/MatricResults/ExamResults/tabid/175/Default.aspx>

Step 2: Register using your details.

Step 3: Click on the link for 2021 NSC exam results.

Step 4: Enter your examination number.

Step 5: Your results will appear on the screen.

Step 6: Click the download button and print.

IEB results - Independent Examinations Board (IEB) pupils will see their results go public on 19 January 2022. The IEB sets and marks the final exams for most of the country's private and independent schools.

IEB results can be obtained in the following ways:

You can obtain your official certificate of results from your school as of 19 January. Pupils will be able to find their results online using the IEB website when they are released. Results can also be accessed via SMS (If the IEB has been provided with your cellphone number, your results will automatically be sent to the number provided or you can register by SMS by sending a message to 35135).

Larisha Naidoo, Head of Anglo American Zimele.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - As part of tightening the grip on crime and extending the reach to communities through blue light visibility, police in the province arrested 545 suspects through Safer Festive Season Operations conducted last week.

In one of the activities in Rustenburg, the Deputy National Commissioner: Crime Detection, Lieutenant General Liziwe Ntshinga, handed out gifts and food hampers to nine survivors of Gender Based Violence (GBV). Upon addressing the survivors, the Deputy National Commissioner who was accompanied by the Rustenburg Local Municipality's Member of Mayoral Committee for Public Safety, Councillor Virginia Mputle, said she was happy to see the survivors smiling again. "With these Christmas presents, we want to show you that you are not alone," said the Deputy National Commissioner. This was in conclusion of the annual 16 Days of Activism for No Violence against Women and Children campaign. She also commended Sgt Obakeng Rasego of the Rustenburg Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences (FCS) Unit and WO Bonita Dry of Ikageng Detectives and for arresting and ensuring that Thabang Gordon Moloi (28) and Tshepo Ben Moloi (42) - accused persons not related to one another - get three life terms, as well as 279 and 122 years imprisonment respectively for crimes ranging from kidnapping, rape, robbery, murder to escape from lawful custody. During the course of the various operations 5-12 December, suspects were apprehended for different contact and property related crimes as well as crimes dependent on police action for detection. Of the arrested suspects, 129 were nabbed during various "Operation Basadi" activities.

Please - SPCA needs your help before you go

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Residents looking forward to a glorious December Christmas holiday are encouraged to spare a thought to the plight of the Rustenburg SPCA before leaving Rustenburg this year! "December and January are the toughest two months waiting for us and personnel of the SPCA are going to have their work cut out for them. Not only are these the months that we are overcrowded with animals, but December and January are the two months that are usually physically and emotionally exhausting and financially challenging.

We at the Rustenburg SPCA are trying everything we can just to make sure that we and our animals survive from the beginning of December until the end of January. We are praying and really need the community to take our hands to support us to keep those animals in our care well fed, healthy and happy. Without the assistance of the usual crew of helpers in the community we are lost even before the start of this difficult season. On behalf of all those lovely animals in our care, we are praying for miracles each and every day and we keep on in the hope that help is going to arrive at our doorstep in the form of cash donations or food for our animals.

If you have a heart for animals - you can help in various ways:

Please remember that the Rustenburg SPCA is inundated with stray animals, abandoned or surrendered animals and that we only have very limited space available. Without the community assisting us, all would be lost. We are constantly in need of cash or donations in the form of pet food. The Rustenburg SPCA's monthly expenses exceed R100 000 while it only gets R33 000 (payable as a bulk amount of R192 500 every six months). The rest must come from who knows where and members of the SPCA are emotionally drained as a result of this dire situation. That is why the SPCA runs fund raising campaigns and similar projects to keep its head above water. Please consider donating towards the SPCA - we can issue tax deductible certificates (IT18a - please send proof of your payment to vice-chair@spcarb.org.za and your certificate will follow).

The SPCA would also appreciate help in the form of a donation towards our vets accounts - you can pay directly to them as well - Bergbos Animal Clinic (014) 533 1959; Petpassion Animal Care Clinic (076 969 5999) or Animal-QI Wellness Centre (014 941 1155).

You can also consider a donation towards the building of isolation kennels where sick animals can be kept - even help in the form of building material of builders will be most appreciated. If you or someone you know could help in any way, please call Marisa Kruger - Manager of the Rustenburg SPCA on 084 885 5173 or send an email to manager@spcarb.org.za or Debbie du Toit at vice-chair@spcarb.org.za.

VOOR JY NOU JOU OË UITVEE, IS DIT KERSFEES!

Omdat die laaste sowat 19 maande taaier as 'n seningrige stuk vleis was, is beursies maar plat. Maar jy hoef nie te raap en skraap om kersgeskenke te koop nie! Wil jy artikels verkoop waarvoor jy nie meer 'n nut het nie? Wil jy jou diens te adverteer? Wil jy jou besigheid se produkte aanbied? Die Rustenburg Herald bied jou EEN GRATIS ADVERTENSIE PER WEEK in ons Geklassifiseerde Afdeling (Smalls) aan. Dis baie eenvoudig: besoek ons webwerf by www.northwestnewspapers.co.za, kies Rustenburg Herald, en dan kies jy die 'Classified' hofie. Indien jou advertensie 15 woorde of minder is, is dit heeltemal gratis. Indien dit meer as 15 woorde is, betaal jy sleg R1,50 per woord - wat steeds 'n absolute winskopie is!

THERE ARE ONLY A FEW WEEKS

Because the last 19 months was challenging for most people, budgets are tight. But it needn't be, and we would like to extend a helping hand.

We are offering you ONE FREE ADVERT PER WEEK in our classified section. Use this to sell your unwanted items, your car, or your skills and services. It's easy - simply visit our website at www.northwestnewspapers.co.za, click on Rustenburg Herald, then on the Classifieds heading. Keep your advert less than 16 words, and you will get it for free. If the advert is more than 15 words, you pay R1,50 per word - still a great bargain.

Office of the Premier

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS OR NOMINATIONS OF MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC TO SERVE AS MEMBERS OF THE PANEL OF EXPERTS ON MEGA AND INFRASTRUCTURE PROJECTS IN THE NORTH WEST PROVINCE

The province has over a period of time experienced challenges in the design, planning, execution and spending on infrastructure projects, including coordination and integration. In addition, the infrastructure projects were not designed and planned within the context of economic growth, job creation and reduction of poverty.

A need to shift from the current fragmented approach to an integrated project design, planning and execution has been identified by the North West Province. This new approach is intended to leverage funded and unfunded infrastructure projects (both private and public) and other opportunities on a sustainable basis moving forward.

The Province therefore seek to appoint a panel of experts to advise and facilitate the design, planning, funding/financing and execution of Mega and other infrastructure projects.

The scope of work for the panel is in several phases. Firstly, to evaluate the provincial list of infrastructure projects as attached to TORs and consider recommending a minimum of one to five mega projects. In the event this failing to achieve the desired outcomes, then identify new mega projects from the beginning using available tools of analysis. These projects must comply with the criteria and categorization of projects according to the Infrastructure South Africa model.

The second phase involves consideration of old abandoned/incomplete projects and advise on the feasibility of reviving some or all of them into mega projects. This will entirely be determined by a cost benefit analysis and such projects being able to create more job opportunities on a sustainable basis.

The third phase is determining whether departments and entities have the required human capital skills (capacity) to execute infrastructure projects on a large scale. This includes the capacity of the Office of the Premier to coordinate and integrate such infrastructure projects.

The fourth and last phase is to assess whether the Office of the Premier has the required human capital skills (capacity) to execute to coordinate, integrate, direct, monitor and evaluate infrastructure projects in the province

In each phase, the design, planning and execution of such mega project should be tested through attraction of private funding based on bankable business plans, and where appropriate, a feasibility study being conducted

Requirements

Persons desiring to serve on the panel must have experience, skill and expertise in any one of the following areas: Construction; Civil Engineering, Industrial development and Business; Financial/Budgeting; Spatial Planning and Development; Agriculture/farming Planning and Management; Energy Planning and Management; Transportation Planning and Management; Water Provision-Planning (including storm system) and Supply; and Human Settlements Planning and Management, project management.

The prospective members should meet the following broad requirements:

- South African Citizen;
- Must be above 18 years of age;
- An individual with good networks on both local and national levels. (An international network(s) could be an added advantage);
- An individual with knowledge and expertise in the relevant fields listed above;
- A strong understanding of local, regional, national and international big-projects planning, design and management trends;
- Commitment and capacity to serve on the panel for the required duration.

The applicants or nominees are required to have at least 5-10 years' work experience in the applicable fields. When appointing suitable candidates due consideration will be given to gender, race and disability.

Terms and Conditions

- Interested individuals or applicants may nominate or apply to serve on the Panel of Experts.
- The panel is expected to perform and complete the assignment with a period of four months. This term may be extended with due regard to possible delays or unforeseen circumstances.
- The Office reserve the right not to make an appointment or to require further details from each nominator, nominee or applicant.
- Resource or base documents will be compiled to assist the panel to execute its tasks.
- The Office shall serve or perform secretariat services for the panel.

Candidate or applicant particulars

Written nominations or applications should be submitted containing the following details:

- Full name and address of institution and/or individual nominating the candidate;
- Curriculum Vitae (CV) of the candidate or applicant indicating the following details:
- The candidate's full names and surname
- ID number
- Gender
- Contact address, telephone, fax numbers, and email address (if any)
- Experience knowledge and skills related to the task of the panel
- Certified copies of academic qualifications
- Two names and contact details of referees
- The nominee's signed acceptance of the nomination or signed application

Appointment Procedures

A selection committee will consider all nominations or applications in accordance with the guide for the appointment of panels and make recommendations to the Premier to appoint suitable candidates.

AfriForum se Rustenburg-tak maak dorp skoon

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die AfriForum-tak in Rustenburg het in November voortgegaan met hulle volhoubare skoonmaakprojek. Die span het veral gefokus op Geelhoutpark en Cashan waar hulle die gras van die parke gesny het en rommel opgetel het. Daar is ongeveer vyf hektaar se gras gesny in Kremetart-, Sesdelaan, en Kloofstraat, terwyl 23 sleepwa-vragte vol rommel verwyder is.

“Die munisipaliteit versuim al vir jare om die parke en oop areas in Rustenburg te onderhou, wat tot gevolg het dat hierdie areas in ’n bedenklike toestand is. Die toestand van hierdie areas veroorsaak omgewing- en veiligheidsrisiko’s. Sommige van die materiaal wat die skoonmaakspan al in die parke gevind het is baie skadelik vir die omgewing en die bebosde areas dien as skuilplek vir misdadigers. Ek is daarom baie bly dat die tak hierdie projek prioritiseer het,” sê Petrus Coetzee, AfriForum se distrikskoördineerder vir Marico.

“Ons dryf hierdie projek omdat dit tyd is vir ons as gemeenskap om self verantwoordelikheid te neem vir ons dorp. Ons kan bloot nie toelaat dat die munisipaliteit die dorp in die afgrond in wanbestuur nie. AfriForum sal voortgaan om die gemeenskap te ondersteun en volhoubare projekte te identifiseer om sodoende ’n beter omgewing te probeer skep. Baie dankie ook aan elke AfriForum lid wie se finansiële bydraes hierdie projekte moontlik maak,” sê Chris Trytsman, voorsitter van AfriForum se Rustenburg-tak.

Word vandag nog deel van AfriForum se Rustenburg-tak: SMS “Rustenburg” na 45351 (R1) of skakel vir Chris Trytsman by 082 469 2221.

COVID 19 SAFETY TIPS for the holiday

In South Africa, December is all about hot summer days, beaches, shisanyama Sundays, family gatherings and bush breaks.

To reduce the risk of Covid-19 exposure this festive season, the Department of Health is encouraging all South Africans to get vaccinated against Covid-19 as soon as possible.

Here are some tips on staying healthy during the holidays.

1. Celebrate at home
Prepare traditional dishes with those in your household. Host a virtual dinner and share recipes with family and friends. Put up your favourite decorations and share photos online. Watch movies or sporting events at home. Shop online instead of in stores.

2. If you gather, do it wisely
Keep it small and stay local. Stay outside if possible and ensure proper ventilation if indoors. Wear masks and social distance. Wash or sanitise your hands regularly, especially before eating. Vaccinate before you celebrate and encourage other attendees to do so too.

3. Beach safety
Choose a spot where you can keep a safe distance from others, whether in or out the water. Avoid sharing food, equipment, toys, drinks and utensils with other people. Visit the beach in groups of no more than five. Adhere to the rules of the lifeguards and other officials. Stay two metres apart from other families at all times.

4. Avoid...

- Large gatherings, especially indoors.
- Buffets, sharing food, drinks and utensils.
- Places with crowds, such as large events and shopping malls.
- Contact with anyone who is sick or may have been exposed to Covid-19.

5. Do...

- Get vaccinated.
- Wear a mask.
- Sanitise or wash your hands often.
- Sneeze into your elbow.
- Avoid shaking hands.
- Maintain social distancing.
- Meet outside or in well-ventilated spaces.
- Avoid touching your face.
- Throw away used tissues.

Ouma Lenie se maklike melktert

Melktert

Bestanddele:

Kors:
Fyngemaakte Tennisbeskuitjies – genoeg om ‘n groot tertbak se bodem te bedek – gemeng met sowat 6 eetl gesmelte margarine/botter. (Ouma Lenie, wat ‘n paar jaar gelede oorlede is, het aan Stork margarine geglo)
Druk die mengsel in ‘n dunnerige lagie op die bodem vas.

Vulsel:
6 k Melk
1k Suiker
6 Eiers, geskei
6 eetl Koekmeel
6 eetl Maizena
1 tlp Vanieljegeursel
Knippie Sout
Kaneel om oor te sprinkel

Metode:
Gooi die melk en vanieljegeursel in ‘n pot en verhit oor lae hitte. Sodra melk kook, sit die plaat op sy laagste hittestelling. Klits eiergele, suiker en sout en roer koekmeel geleidelik by. Meng die Maizena met ‘n bietjie melk en roer dan by die eiergeelmengsel. Klits nou alles goed en voeg by melkmengsel. Roer deurentyd om klonte te voorkom. Klits die eierwitte tot dit punte kan vorm. Wanneer die melkmengsel verdik, voeg die eierwitte geleidelik by. Roer dit deeglik deur. Verwyder na ‘n paar minute – wanneer jy seker is die mengsel is gaar – en gooi in die voorbereide tertbak en strooi kaneel oor. Laat baie goed afkoel voor bediening.

 Verdubbel bestanddele vir ‘n groter tert.*

Die konsep van melktert – ‘n soet eiervla – is al sedert die Middeleeue ‘n gewilde nagereg.

‘n Tikkie Mediterreense lekkerte vir ‘n smaaklike, vinnige gesinsete.

Lenie Breed, Natasha se ouma, se melktert is ‘n groot familiegunsteling. Natasha het dié foto van Ouma Lenie met Rustenburg Herald gedeel waar sy hoeka besig is om melktert te maak.

Dié week kook Natasha Izaakse, uitstallingskoördineerder van die Waterfall Mall vir ons lesers.

Wanneer jy eg-Suid-Afrikaanse geregte opnoem, is melktert een van die eerstes wat op die lysie gesit word. Maar, dis nie so Suid-Afrikaans soos wat mense dink nie! Glo dit of nie, maar dié hemelse stukkie soetheid is al van die Middeleeue af bekend. Die Romeine was reeds 2 000 jaar gelede versot op eiervla, soet én sout. Die streng vasdagreëls wat die Katolieke Kerk mettertyd ingestel het, het veroorsaak dat monnikke en nonne met mekaar gewedwyer het om smaakvolle plaasvervangers vir vleis, vis, melk en eiers te skep. So is amandelpap, gemaak van amandelmelk en gegeur met gemmer en kaneel, tot perfeksie ontwikkel. Na ‘n rukkie het die oorspronklike amandelpap ‘n eiervla-pap geword en het broskors of skilferdeeg as kors in gebruik gebly. Middeleeuse resepte dui graag aan dat suiker agterna oor geregte gesprinkel moet word -net soos ons vandag nog kaneelsuiker oor melktert sprinkel. Dié week maak Natasha Izaakse, uitstallingskoördineerder van die Waterfall Mall in Rustenburg vir ons haar ouma, Lenie Breed, se familieresep vir dié lekkerny. Dit was hierdie lekkerny wat vele familiebyeenkomste in ‘n fees verander het, vertel Natasha. “Ek reken myself bevoorreg om die een te wees wat Ouma se skatkis van resepte nou te mag hê,” sê Natasha. Ons wys jou hier langsaan hoe om Ouma Lenie se maklike melktert te maak:

Stof oor grondonteiening
nog nie gaan lê

Die nuus dat die ANC se pogings verlede week in die parlement misluk het om grondonteiening sonder vergoeding deur middel van 'n wysiging in die Nasionale Grondwet moontlik te maak, kon nie op 'n beter tyd gekom het nie. In die tye waarin ons leef is bemoedigende nuus aan regeringskant 'n skaars item. “Bemoedigende” of “goeie” nuus moet egter dalk eers gekwalifiseer word voordat daar oor die saak voortborduur word aangesien nie almal saamstem dat die verwerping van die grondwetwysiging “goeie nuus” is nie.

Die feit dat die ANC nie daarin kon slaag om 'n tweedertede-meerderheid in die parlement te verkry wat vir hom nodig sou wees alvorens artikel 25 van die Nasionale Grondwet met betrekking tot eiendomsreg gewysig kon word, is 'n goeie aanduiding dat die saak in hierdie stadium beslis nie “slegte” nuus is nie. Verdermeer, soos deur dr Corné Mulder van die VF Plus verduidelik is, is dit duidelik dat die wysiging van artikel 25 en uiteindelik Grondonteiening sonder vergoeding nie die wil van die mense verteenwoordig het nie omdat minstens 75% van die meer as 600 000 geskrewe dokumente wat die ad hoc-komitee oor grondhervorming ontvang het, heftige teenkanting teen die konsep van onteiening sonder vergoeding was.

Dit is ou nuus dat ekonome, landbou-

Dust not yet settled on land expropriation

The news that the ANC's efforts towards an amendment of Section 25 of the National Constitution to enable land expropriation without compensation has failed in Parliament last week, could not have come at a better time. In the times we are living in, encouraging or good news is not encountered too often. Nonetheless, perhaps we should qualify “encouraging” or “good” news before continuing on the issue as it is obvious that not everyone agrees that the rejection of the proposed amendment necessarily qualifies as good news.

We describe the failure of the amendment as “encouraging” news based on the fact that the ANC couldn't succeed in clinching a two thirds majority in Parliament before it could proceed with emending the Constitution. For us, this clearly proved that an amendment of the Constitution is, at this stage, not the will of the people of South Africa. Furthermore, as illustrated by Dr Corné Mulder of the FF Plus, this was above all else demonstrated by the fact that more 75% of the 600 000 documents received by the Ad Hoc Committee on Land Reform strongly objected against the Expropriation of land without compensation.

It is old hat that economic experts, agricultural and community leaders have

Rustenburg Impala geniet potjie gholf na uitdagende jaar

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Rustenburg Impala Rugbyklub het die afgelope week 'n suksesvolle gholfdag aangebied danksy die ondersteuning van New Concept Mining asook verskeie medeborge wat die koöperatiewe dag moontlik gemaak het.

Na 'n jaar waarin die klub danksy Wynand Burger en Joël Scherman herry's het uit moeilike omstandighede, het die klub se rugbyspanne oor die afgelope seisoen die B-afdeling van die Bulleliga onoorwonne afgesluit. Hoewel die eerstespan in die finaal uitgeskakel is deur TUT, het die tweedespan die knoop deurgehaak wat aanstaande jaar vir die klub groter uitdagings gaan stel. In die nuwe seisoen sal daar drie spanne van Rustenburg in die Carltonreeks van die Bulle wees wat beteken daar sal teen klubs van Tukkie's, Northam Plats, Naka Bulle, Harlequins en Centurion meegeding moet word. Voorwaar 'n groot uitdaging vir spelers en die bestuur wat hul man sal moet staan in een van die land se sterkste ligas. Die fondse wat bekom is deur middel van die gholfdag sal baie help met logistieke uitgawes gedurende die nuwe seisoen maar daar sal na nog borge gesoek moet word ten einde die Gold Cup-wenners van vorige jare te help om weer suksesvol mee te ding.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Munga, is a single stage non-stop mountain bike race, rated as the world's toughest race with riders needing to complete the 1135 km's in 120 hours.

Richard Roos, Brand Ambassador for Thrivosity – Hello Life, undertook this extreme challenge from Bloemfontein and finishing at the Doolhof Wine Estate in Wellington in an amazing time of 106 hours 33 minutes.

Raging winds, turrets of rain, flowing streams and rivers, freezing temperatures, scorching hot sun, hours and miles of nothing - just you, your bike and your thoughts - make this truly the most challenging and toughest race in the world. Well done to Richard - you have made Rustenburg proud.

Onwards and upwards to bigger, better and more challenges for 2022.

North West dominates the Vodacom Wheelchair Basketball challenge

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The North West once again dominated the Vodacom Wheelchair Basketball Challenge when they won both the men's and women's finals in a clean sweep at the Vodacom Mandeville Indoor Sports Centre recently.

In the men's division, the North West beat Gauteng 54-37 in their final to claim their fourth consecutive Vodacom Wheelchair Basketball Challenge title. "We're all extremely excited to have achieved this. It's always a great feeling when the hard work pays off like this," said North West men's captain Thandile Zonke.

"We worked incredibly hard coming into the Vodacom Wheelchair Basketball Challenge. Everyone was dedicated and put in the effort, and I think the result shows just how hard we worked. Gauteng did rattle us a little bit in the second and third quarter, but we composed ourselves and took control of the game again in the fourth quarter. We're just very excited to be the champions again." And in the women's division, the North West Stinging Bees beat the Gauteng Lionesses in a more closely contested final that ended 27-20 and earned them their third consecutive Vodacom Wheelchair Basketball Challenge title. "We trained so hard and we focused a lot on skills leading up to this Vodacom Wheelchair Basketball Challenge. It means so much to us to have won this title three times, and we're very grateful," said captain Linda Bosele. The winning teams each earned R100 000 in prize money as Vodacom ensured both equal opportunity and equal prize money in the men's and women's divisions. "We have supported these athletes for over two decades now through the provision of a world-class facility such as the Vodacom Mandeville Indoor Sports Centre and competitive opportunities such as the Vodacom Wheelchair Basketball Challenge. It's a privilege for us to be involved in a sport that literally changes people's lives and embodies exactly our philosophy that we can go 'Further, Together'," said Michelle van Eyden, Head of Sponsorship for Vodacom.

Diàn en Devan neem teen verskeie Afrika-lande deel

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Diàn le Roux en Devan Swart, twee voortreflike Noordwes-skuts wat tot die Suid-Afrikaanse Nasionale-span verkies is, het die afgelope naweek aan die Africa Archery Tournament, teen verskeie Afrika-lande deelgeneem.

Die skuts het oor twee dae verskeie vlugte geskiet om die beste span en skuts te bepaal. Suid-Afrika se Nasionale-span behaal twee keer goud, in die Bullseye en 3D-afdelings en word ook as die algehele winner in Afrika aangewys. Diàn le Roux en Devan Swart word ook gekies vir die Africa Federation Team. Die Africa Federation Team is die top 16-skuts van Afrika wat volgende jaar in die Wêreldkampioenskappe, Afrika gaan verteenwoordig, teen lande soos Amerika, Kanada en Engeland. Die twee Noordwes-skuts tel onder die beste van die beste en hul uitmuntende prestasies gedurende die pandemie, om onder die top van eers die Noordwes Provinsiale-span en toe die Suid-Afrikaanse Nasionale-span en nou Afrika Federation Team te wees, is voorwaar 'n uitsonderlike prestasie.

Two Wheels Moving the Soul

Chairperson Dimakatso Sefora, Guest Speaker Nosipho Simelane, MEC Galebekwe Tsofso Tlhapi and a Club Captain Masello Lolo.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - It was an eventful day for the Bojanala Ladies Cycling Club on Saturday, 11 December 2021.

These ladies are known for riding for the good cause in Rustenburg. The ladies celebrated their first year anniversary, had their first award ceremony and officially launched their club kit in Thaba Legae Guest Lodge this year. As the outcome to their successful rewarding event, the ladies say they felt truly blessed and honoured as they were also in the presence of the MEC of Art, Culture, Sports and Recreation, Ms Galebekwe Tsofso Tlhapi and a guest speaker Nosipho Simelane who is an experienced cyclist from a movement called Bafazi. The ladies have had a good year to complete all the good deeds they have achieved and planning to carry on for the next years to come. "Growth has never felt this good to end the year the way we did by making our club official with our new gears", says one of the ladies. "Good Morale in Cycling comes from good legs." – Sean Yales.
