Sinterklaas en sy bokkies bedrywig...

Dit is feitlik Kersfees, sagte reën sak omtrent elke dag uit en smôrens is Rustenburg in 'n miskomers toegewikkel. Maar vir kinderharte en mense wat nog jonk van gees is doen dié "vreemde" weer vir hierdie tyd van die jaar geensins afbreuk aan die wonderlikste tyd van die jaar nie. By die huis van Mervin en Charmaine Coetzee in Loerielaan 1A is daar die afgelope klompie weke al skuins na sonder 'n toeloop van mense - Mervin en Charmaine het vanjaar die ekstra myl geloop en hul huis in 'n Kersligparadys opgetower en Rustenburg en besoekers staan elke dag letterlik tou om 'n kans te kry om die liggieparadys van naby te ervaar en familiefoto's te neem. Die Coetsees se huis is een van talle wat vanjaar te midde van al die Covid-beproeuwings en beperkings van die afgelope feitlik twee jaar in 'n liggiefees omskep is. (Sien adreslys op bl 13 in hierdie uitgawe). Rustenburg Herald en sy personeel van Noordwes Koerante wens al ons lesers en adverteerders 'n vredevolle, aangename Kersfees en opwindende nuwejaar toe! Geniet u vakansie en kom veilig tuis! (Foto: Waldie Volschenk).

Magalies Water clinches another Clean Audit

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - North West based water utility Magalies Water has out-performed itself in the auditing period of the 2020/21 financial year by obtaining a clean audit with an improved performance of 95 percent achievement of all of the strategic targets.

This is an improvement of two percent, from the previous financial year of the 2019/20 where the water board obtained another clean audit with a performance of 93% achievement of all its set strategic objectives. Magalies Water as a state-owned enterprise was one of the one-hundred-and-fifteen (115) auditees in the period under review which received a clean audit out of a total of four-hundred-and-twenty-five (425) of all government departments and SoE's. This constitutes about 27 percent of the overall, auditees in the period under review. The Chief Executive Mr. Sandile Mkhize said in the recently completed audit process with the Auditor General of South Africa (AGSA), Magalies Water continued to perform extremely well due to the combined efforts of its staff complement who have rallied behind the strategic objectives.

The PMR Africa Awards are held annually and acknowledges contributions and initiatives, strategies, efforts, and hard work done by companies in their sector. Magalies Water received a Golden Arrow Award, in their role to stimulate economic growth, and development of the North West Province. In reacting to the accolade, Mkhize said this was testament to the high-performance culture that Magalies Water has inculcated within its rank-and-file to ensure that the institution is not only seen as a bulk water service provider but an organisation that prides itself with outstanding performance especially within its sector.

This is not the first occasion where Magalies Water has been awarded this accolade, since 2010 to date the institution has received this award from PMR Africa for a record 11 years in succession.

Hiker suffers head injury from mountain fall

RUSTENBURG HERALD- BUFFELSPOORT - A man believed to be in his 50's has suffered a critical head injury after slipping and falling 10 meters down a cliff face in the Mountain Sanctuary Park near Buffelspoort in the Magaliesberg on Friday evening (17 December).

According to Ross Campbell, ER24 spokesperson, paramedics were on the scene at 18:00 along with the Mountain Search & Rescue and SARZA Search & Rescue who happened to be training in the area. It took the team approximately 30 minutes to reach the patient who had fallen from the slippery rock face and into a small body of water, hitting his head. Despite his injuries, the patient was in a stable condition. The patient was immobilised on a stretcher and carried out in the dark by the team, who managed to reach the waiting helicopter by 20:15. The private medical helicopter flew the patient to a private hospital for further care.

North West Education to clampdown on illegal schools

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The North West Department of Education is sending a strong message to the community about schools operating illegally in the province.

These are unregistered private or independent schools that are aimed at derailing the future of our learner's and have a negative effect on their academic records and to a great extent contributing to learner drop out. MEC for Education in the North West Province, Mmaphefo Matsemela made a clarion call to the community to report unregistered schools that always lure unsuspecting parents to costly fees with no value. "I make this call to the North West community to come forward and report these schools because Chapter 46 (1) of the South African Schools Act 84 of 1996 provides that "No person shall establish and maintain an independent school unless it is registered with the Head of Department"

The Act also states that: "Any person who contravenes this is guilty of an offence, and upon conviction shall be liable to a fine or imprisonment for a period of up to 3 months". "These schools are disruptive to our educational system since we end up not being able to trace a learner's progression due to lack of proper record keeping. These illegal schools must close shop now and for good, otherwise in January 2022, just after the reopening of the school calendar, the Department acting jointly with SAPS will embark on a full blown campaign to identify and ultimately use the law to close these illegal schools which hit hard on the vulnerable learners and unsuspecting parents, and arrests will be made in law enforcement", said Matsemela.

She further stated that, an unregistered school often would have bogus teachers who do not carry SACE certificates and these ills undermine the quality of the education system in the country.

South Africa staying - for now - at lockdown level 1

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The National Coronavirus Command Council (NCCC) met last week and decided to retain the lockdown restrictions at Adjusted Alert Level 1.

This was announced by Health Minister Dr Joe Phaahla on Friday (17 December). The minister has called for responsible behaviour and stronger compliance with Covid-19 prevention and treatment protocols during the festive season.

"The NCCC has reflected on the current Covid-19 situation and deliberated on a number of recommendations tabled by the Department of Health as part of safety measures to prevent a possible surge in Covid-19 infections associated with social gatherings which can be 'super spreader' events carrying a huge risk of transmission of the virus," said the department on Thursday (16 December).

The Council has directed the department to closely monitor the rising Covid-19 infections, hospitalisations, mortality and recovery rates, which are largely driven by the Omicron variant, which is contributing to the fourth wave in the country.

According to scientific studies, the virus is spreading quicker than in previous waves, but the rates of hospitalisations and deaths remain relatively low.

The Minister said that it is in South Africa's hands to maintain the current break in the clouds into a lasting sunshine in order to have a safer and joyous Christmas and prosperous New Year.

"We call upon all travelers, especially those who are unvaccinated or partly vaccinated coming from areas declared hotspots, to get vaccinated before hitting the roads. This is to protect their families and friends they will be visiting during this period associated with large social gatherings like parties and weddings, which can be 'super spreader' events that carry a huge risk of transmission of the virus", the Minister said.

Vaccination and following all safety precautions, will not only reduce the spread of the virus but also take the pressure off hard-working healthcare professionals who have worked tirelessly to keep everyone safe.

Minister Phaahla added that the department will continue to closely monitor the situation throughout this period in terms of daily infection cases, hospitalisations, mortality and recovery rates, and make the necessary recommendations to the NCCC in the best interest of people's lives and livelihoods.

Working with the provinces, the department will ensure that sufficient vaccination sites remain operational, including pop-up sites at some public places like malls, open community sporting based venues and roadblocks.

"We also urge public transport operators to enforce compliance with mask-wearing at all times, hand sanitising and open windows to allow sufficient ventilation," Dr Phaahla said.

Duo apprehended

RUSTENBURG - MARIKANA - Vigilance and hard work paid off when the Marikana police apprehended two suspects aged 35 and 37 for attempted ATM bombing and possession of explosives.

According to information received from Lt/Col Amanda Funani, police were conducting patrols in the early hours of Tuesday morning (14 December 2021), when they spotted and approached two men near Automated Teller Machines (ATMs). Upon seeing the police approaching, the duo ran away leading to a chase. Subsequently, the police managed to catch the men and searched their bags. During the search, explosives were found inside the bags. The police allegedly went back to the ATMs where the men were initially spotted and ultimately found other explosives connected to two ATMs. The pair were arrested and were expected to appear before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Wednesday (15 December), on charges of attempted ATM bombing and possession of explosives. The Provincial Commissioner of North West, Lieutenant General Sello Kweni, congratulated Marikana members for their vigilance and swift reaction that resulted in the arrest.

Essential services such as Infrastructure, Water, Sanitation, Electricity and also Waste Collection will continue as normal.

Post Office open throughout the festive season

RUSTENBURG HERALD- RUSTENBURG- All branches of the South African Post Office (Sapo) will remain open on weekdays and Saturday mornings throughout the festive season. In a statement on Friday (17 December), Sapo said the majority of post office branches are closed on Sundays and public holidays, while some selected branches in shopping centres are open on Sundays and public holidays.

"Post offices throughout the country play a central role in the payment of the South African Social Security Agency (SASSA) Social Relief of Distress (SRD) grants to citizens, who are the hardest hit by the COVID-19 pandemic and the associated economic downturn. The last three digits of the beneficiary's ID number determine the date on which he or she can visit a post office branch to collect his or her grant," Sapo said.

The rest of the month is dedicated to the payment of SRD grants. The first week of every month is reserved for the payment of SASSA grants to the elderly and disabled, as well as child grants.

"SRD SASSA beneficiaries must visit a post office branch only after they have received an SMS informing them that the grant is available. If a beneficiary's cellphone was used to apply for one grant only, they can also receive the grant from any Pick 'n Pay or Boxer supermarket," Sapo said.

Regular transactions, such as the payment of motor vehicle licences, account payments and sending and collection of parcels, remain available. "Most branches of the SA Post Office have a separate queue for customers who are there to collect their R350 SASSA SRD grant. The system of separate queues ensures that all customers wait for the minimum time," Sapo said.

Daughter allegedly arranges hitmen to kill family

Murder suspect arrested while trying to flee

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Mogwase Police have arrested a 27-year-old murder suspect, while about to board a taxi from Mogwase to Rustenburg on Friday, (17 December).

According to Lt/Col Amanda Funani, provincial police spokesperson, the suspect, his girlfriend and the victim were at a local tavern enjoying themselves on Thursday night till the early hours of Friday morning, (17 December). The trio left the tavern and went to the suspect's place where a fight allegedly ensued between the victim and the suspect. During the fight, the suspect allegedly took out a knife and stabbed the victim on the neck, then fled the scene together his girlfriend. The victim was seen by a passerby who informed his sister and called the police. He (victim) was subsequently transported to a local hospital where he was certified dead. Following an intensive search, the suspect and his girlfriend were found trying to leave to Rustenburg. He was thus, arrested and charged with murder.

The Provincial Commissioner of North West, Lieutenant General Sello Kwena, condemned the incident and commended the Mogwase Detectives for acting swiftly and arresting the suspect who is expected to make his first appearance in the Mogwase Magistrates' Court on Monday, 20 December 2021.

The accused is expected to appear together with two alleged hitmen she hired to wipe out her family. The pair were arrested in Brits and Soshanguve respectively on Friday, 17 and Saturday, 18 December 2021.

That was after the woman went to Mmakau Police Station and admitted to killing her family members. According to Lt/Col Amanda Funani, police spokesperson in the North West Province, it was reported at the time of the incident on Tuesday, 6 December 2016, that the then 16-year-old daughter went outside to dispose of the water she had been using to wash dishes. Whilst outside, she heard gunshots inside the house and went back to investigate, but the suspects allegedly shot her on the thigh and fled the scene with a family car; Chrysler Voyager. The woman then alerted neighbours who informed the police. Consequently, the police found lifeless bodies of a 42-year-old father who was a police officer, his wife (40), 18-year-old pregnant daughter and six-year-old son lying in a pool of blood.

The woman and her two accomplices both aged 23, are facing five counts of murder and armed robbery.

The Provincial Commissioner of North West, Lieutenant General Sello Kwena welcomed the arrests which he said will send a clear message that crime does not pay.

Business robbery suspect arrested

RUSTENBURG HERALD - MOOINOOI - Mooinooi and Brits Police apprehended a 35-year-old man after he and seven others allegedly committed a business robbery at a retail store in a Shopping Complex at Mooinooi, on Sunday (19 December).

According to reports, two police officials and an administration clerk walked on business robbery in progress at one of the retail stores.

The suspects allegedly pointed the police officers with firearms and subsequently disarmed them of their service firearms. They (the suspects) then allegedly took an undisclosed amount of cash and fled the scene with two white Toyota Corolla vehicles.

Consequent to the incident, a law abiding citizen tipped the police and gave them descriptions of the getaway cars. According to information received, Brits Police who were rushing to back up their counterparts in Mooinooi spotted the suspects' vehicles on the N4 road towards Brits. As a result, a high speed car chase ensued until the suspects abandoned their vehicles and ran into the bushes.

The police managed to arrest the 35-year-old suspect who was expected to appear before the Brits Magistrates' Court on Tuesday (21 December), facing charges of business robbery, and two counts of robbery with firearms. Investigation into the matter, including tracing of the remaining suspects, is underway.

The North West Provincial Commissioner, Lieutenant General Sello Kwena thanked the community member for the vigilance and sharing with the police information which led to the arrest and recovery of the firearms.

He further reminded the police to always be alert.

Heerlike kersete

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die Ou Plaas Dorp gebaseer op die Barnardsvlei-pad, naby Mooinooi, se eienaars het besluit om vir die minderbevoorregte bejaardes van Mooinooi 'n vroeë kersete te hou op 16 Desember.

Die groepie was warmhartig verwelkom waar hul in vars buitelig gesit het op die plot. Die bejaardes is bedien met 'n heerlike hoenderpotjie met rys en gevolg met roomys vir poeding. Baie dankie aan die mense wat die potjie gemaak het en vir die donasies (WP, Maggie, Jacquese, Angelique en Priest Jannie - baie dankie). Daar was voorsiening gemaak van die Wesrand se Motorfietsklubs (Roadhogs Krugersdorp, Wicked Wheels en Flaming Hawks) en vriende van die Wesrand en Mooinooi wat bygedra het tot 'n geskenkpakkie en 'n lekkerny per persoon - baie dankie. Dit was 'n groot plesier om te kon sit en met die mense te kon gesels en die stories te kon hoor. Dit was 'n lekker bederf vir almal. Die organiseerders wil ook 'n instelling maak waar hulle die venue/plot wil oopstel vir die bejaardes om 'n piekniekmandjie te pak op 'n Sondag en net die dag te geniet in vars buitelig en gesellig saam te verkeer. Vir meer inligting skakel/whatsapp gerus Hester by 073 012 8856.

COVID 19 SAFETY TIPS for the holiday

In South Africa, December is all about hot summer days, beaches, shisanyama Sundays, family gatherings and bush breaks.

To reduce the risk of Covid-19 exposure this festive season, the Department of Health is encouraging all South Africans to get vaccinated against Covid-19 as soon as possible.

Here are some tips on staying healthy during the holidays.

- Celebrate at home
Prepare traditional dishes with those in your household. Host a virtual dinner and share recipes with family and friends. Put up your favourite decorations and share photos online. Watch movies or sporting events at home. Shop online instead of in stores.
- If you gather, do it wisely
Keep it small and stay local. Stay outside if possible and ensure proper ventilation if indoors. Wear masks and social distance. Wash or sanitise your hands regularly, especially before eating. Vaccinate before you celebrate and encourage other attendees to do so too.
- Beach safety
Choose a spot where you can keep a safe distance from others, whether in or out the water. Avoid sharing food, equipment, toys, drinks and utensils with other people. Visit the beach in groups of no more than five. Adhere to the rules of the lifeguards and other officials. Stay two metres apart from other families at all times.
- Avoid...
  - * Large gatherings, especially indoors.
  - * Buffets, sharing food, drinks and utensils.
  - * Places with crowds, such as large events and shopping malls.
  - * Contact with anyone who is sick or may have been exposed to Covid-19.
- Do...
  - Get vaccinated.
  - Wear a mask.
  - Sanitise or wash your hands often.
  - Sneeze into your elbow.
  - Avoid shaking hands.
  - Maintain social distancing.

Rustenburg se inwoners is welkom om 'n draai te maak en die liggies wat my man met soveel liefde en harde werk opmaak, te kom besigtig en geniet. Daar is lekkerny-pakkies vir die kleiner inwonertjies. Môrester Kinderhuis en Lighthouse Children's Home gaan ook hierdie jaar vir ons kom kuier. Daar sal ook 'n groot houer ten bate van die DBV/SPCA wees waar inwoners net 'n pakkie kos of komborsie of enigiets vir die diere van Rustenburg kan ingooi. Dit is nie 'n ingangsfooi nie, dit is net ter fondsinsameling vir die Rustenburgse Dierebeskermingsvereniging, indien u 'n bydrae sou wou maak. Geen ingangsfooie word gevra nie, kom geniet net die Kersfeesliggies en die samesyn. Ons is by die heel laaste sirkel (net na Orange Grove) op die R24. By die sirkel draai links op die Rex-pad, regoor die dieseldepot (±80m), eerste pad draai weer links, ry dan reguit tot by doodloop, draai weer links, ry dan in liggies vas.

Christmas light fantasy world

Rustenburgers staying at home this Christmas do not have to miss out on the fun of Christmas. Quite appropriate for the so-called Platinum City dozens of Rustenburg residents have put themselves to task to literally light up the spirits during this Christmas holiday season. The photographs taken on this page reflect the scene at No 1 Loerie Avenue in Safari Gardens where Mervin Coetzee and his wife Charmaine have really put their backs into it this year - to great effect we must say. If your children are nagging for a Christmas light spectacle this holiday, you sure know where to take them for a treat of fantasy! See our list of Christmas lights venues elsewhere in this edition/on this page. Thank you Mervin and Charmaine for colouring our world!

Kersfeesliggies

Kom geniet die liggies by Loerielaan 1A, Safarituine.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "Ons Kersliggies is weer aan by Loerielaan 1A vanaf 19:00 tot 22:00 in die aand. Ons wil graag vreugde in die gemeenskap bring met ons liggies en wil harte bly maak in hierdie Kersgety. Dit is so lekker om te sien hoe die mense ons liggies geniet. Ons maak self die figure, sit liggies op en ek verf dit self, wat my soveel plesier gee". - Charmaine en Mervin.

Kersfees, ja dis nog dieselfde

Kersfeestyd... 'n Tyd aan die einde van elke jaar waarin 'n mens dit nie kan verhelp om aan jou kinderjare terug te dink nie. En hoe dinge verander het. Kan enige mens ooit vergeet hoe dit gevoel het om 'n kind te wees, om uit te sien na 'n wonderlike vakansie met die skole se heropening wat "ligjare" vorentoe lê? Kersfeeskoekies bak, die kersboompie opslaan en om dit vir weke lank te versier totdat dit later, ja, soos 'n regtige kersmisboom lyk.

Dan die opwinding om ouma en oupa, ooms en tantes, die neefs en niggies weer te sien na 'n jaar wat vir 'n kinderhart na 'n ewigheid gevoel het. Vir diegene wat so gelukkig was om 'n bobaasbakster vir 'n ma te hê, is daar sommer 'n tradisionele kersfeeskoek of twee ook gebak, selfs al was vrugtekoek met 'n effense brandwynmaak nie noodwendig vir 'n kind die hoogtepunt van die kersseisoen se eet- en smulplesier nie, maar die dik laag versiersuiker met die gesig van 'n vriendelike ou oom met 'n spierwit baard en die belofte van 'n hopelik 'n paar onvergeetlike verrassings het dit altyd die moeite werd gemaak.

En dan kersoggend, vroeg uit die vere, suutjies sitkamer toe sluip om eerste te kyk watter en hoeveel mooi geskenke en pakkies in die vrolikste kerspapier toegedraai is en onder die kersboom lê. Toe ons nog jonger was, het ons gewonder oor die onuitputbare Vader Kersfees wat nie

'n enkele huis oorgeslaan het nie, in elke huis in elke stad of dorp regoor die wêreld sy kosbare vrag kersvreugde afgelewer het en nooit tou opgegooi het nie voordat die werk klaar was nie. Telkens was 'n mens genoopt om jou kersfeesbriefie aan Vader Kersfees weer van voor af oor te skryf met die hoop dat jy nie iets of iemand vergeet het nie - en nog meer hoop dat Kersvader jou sal glo dat jy 'n goeie, soet en hardwerkende kind was wat beslis 'n vir sy goedhartigheid kwalifiseer.

En dan soos ons groter geword het, het die opwinding van kersfees ietwat getaan, het ander dinge belangriker geword en het baie van ons drome en die magiese wonder van kersfeestyd effens verwelk. Maar tog het die herinnering daarvan gebly, selfs al sien ons dit net in die oë van ons kinders en kleinkinders en al maak klein geskenkies wat aan ons geadresseer is, nie meer so baie saak nie. Dit is dan wanneer 'n mens onthou dat geen kersgeskenk ooit groter kan wees as die vreugde en vrede om jou kinders en geliefdes aan jou tafel of rondom die braaivleisvuur te hê nie. Die wete dat dit met hulle goed gaan, en dat ons almal in Veilige Hande is. Eendag sal dit met hulle ook so wees - mag hulle ons dan onthou... Ons wens al ons lesers, adverteerders, Rustenburgers en besoekers 'n wonderlike feestyd in die geselskap van hul geliefdes toe!

Christmas, yes it's still the same

Christmas time... A time that we can't help to think about the days long gone when we were children... And how things have changed over the years... Will anyone ever forget the excitement of Christmas when we were young and happy boys and girls, with the excitement of a magic Christmas holiday looming and the reopening of the schools only light years ahead.

Christmas cakes and pies, putting up the Christmas tree and adding an extra piece of flickering lights, small decorations and bright red, yellow, blue and green paper decorations for days and weeks on end to shout it out that Christmas is here and that Father Christmas could be expected within a day or two... All the excitement of seeing grandpa, grandma, uncles and aunts, nephews and nieces and cousins after a year that felt like an eternity.

For those fortunate to have a mother or grandmother who really knew her way around a kitchen, off course there simply had to be a traditional Christmas cake or two, even though fruit cake with its peculiar taste was not necessarily to a child's liking. But the friendly face of Father Christmas with a long white beard and a big red bag filled with dolls, toys and joys, added much to the glitter and excitement of what was a huge event in any child's life.

On Christmas morning, we would rise before everyone else to sneak to the lounge hush-hush to see what delightful surprises were waiting beneath the Christmas tree. When we were younger still, how we marveled at the never tiring Father Christmas and just how he managed to make it in time and not miss a single home all around the world. And just how many times some of us have returned to the Christmas tree to add something or someone they might have forgotten in their letters to Father Christmas. Most of all with the hope that dear old Father Christmas would believe us that we were good for most of the year and that we indeed qualified for a wonderful Christmas gift. And then as we grew older, how the joys and excitement of Christmas have subsided, how even the little gifts beneath the tree addressed to us did not matter that much anymore. But still some of the joy remained, even if only the joy reflected in our children and grandchildren's eyes. Then we realise that the joys of Christmas could never be greater than the privilege to have one's children and loved ones at your table or around your braai fire. Knowing that they are here, that they are safe and that all of us are in Safe Hands. One day they too will also experience the joy of children and family and yes, perhaps they will remember us... We wish all our readers, advertisers, Rustenburgers and visitors a merry Christmas and a happy New Year in the company of your families!

Hennie's restaurant now open

A brand new restaurant titled "Hennies" saw its opening at the Platinum Square in Rustenburg within short walking distance from the well-known Checkers Hyper store on Wednesday last week. Ample and safe parking and of course mouthwatering dishes as well as your favourite drink await you and your family at Hennie's - mind the "house rules" though. Keep watching Rustenburg Herald for advertisements and promotions at Hennie's shortly. In meantime, why not treat your family or friends to a entertaining evening dinner or lunch at Hennie's. The Hennie's franchise is the brainchild of well-known and popular Jonathon (Rikus de Beer) of Radio Raps. Pictured above at the prelim opening are proprietors Dawie de Beer, Tristian, Gerrie, Yolande and Theuns van der Merwe, as well as Wouter Smit, Jan Breedts and Thabang Tshuma.

'n Anderster kerskoek

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Baie van ons het grootgeword met die idee dat 'n kerskoek 'n móet is vir 'n kerstafel.

Dis nou die tradisionele vrugtekoek wat so maand voor die tyd al gebak word en weekliks met brandewyn besprinkel word.

Maar heelwat mense - veral die jongklomp - hou nie van vrugtekoek nie.

So, Rustenburg Herald het vir sjef Pieter Germishuys van Inspirare Culinary Institute/Tarentaal gevra om 'n moderne weergawe van 'n kerskoek te maak en hy het met dié skepping - 'n somerbessie kaaskoek vorendag gekom.

Hier is hoe Pieter dié mooie kaaskoek maak:

BASIS:
Vat enige pan van jou keuse en spuit dit met kleefwerende kossproei. (Die einste "Spray 'n Cook")

Vat 2 pakkies beskuitjies (Tennis of Lemon Creams) en maak dit fyn. Smelt 'n bietjie botter of margarien en voeg by die beskuitjies. Meng deur. Dit moet net-net bymekaarkom. Onthou, jy kan altyd meer botter byvoeg - maar nie uithaal nie!

Druk die beskuitjiemengsel in die onderkant van die pan. Dit kan so ongeveer 2cm hoog wees. Plaas eenkant.

Nou vir die KAASKOEKVULSEL...

Oor die jare het ek hierdie een vervolmaak en ek deel graag die stappe kortliks.

1. In 'n mengbak plaas 1 x houer (200g) gladde roomkaas, 1 x blikkie kondensmelk, ongeveer 25 ml strooisuiker en 100ml suurlemoenasap. (Jy besluit of jy vars gaan uitdruk of sommer die botteltjie gaan koop)

Nou meng jy dit met 'n klitser tot glad.

2. Vat 'n glasbakkie, gooi 100ml koue water binne in en sprinkel 50ml gelatien poeier bo-oor die water. Dit sal begin "spons" en in die water intrek. As dit gespons het, plaas vinnig vir 20 sekondes in die mikrogolfoond tot gesmelt -jy moet nie enige korreltjies voel nie. Hou dan eenkant.

3. Vir die laaste stap, klits 1 L vars room tot dit net begin styf word. Moenie oorklits nie, anders skif dit.

Vou die roomkaasmengsel in by die room tot glad. Laaste voeg jy die afgekoelde gelatien by. Meng goed en gooi in die bak met die beskuitjebasis.

4. Plaas in yskas om te stol. Garneer jou kaaskoek met vars bessies van jou keuse!

As 'n tradisionele kerskoek jou nie aanstaan nie, sal dié somerbessie kaaskoek 'n waardige plaasvervanger wees.

Sjef Pieter Germishuys deel 'n resep wat hy deur baie jare vervolmaak het dié week met Rustenburg Herald se lesers.

Please - Rustenburg SPCA need your help before you go - two puppies available for adoption

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Residents looking forward to a glorious December Christmas holiday are encouraged to spare a thought to the plight of the Rustenburg SPCA before leaving Rustenburg this year!

"December and January are the toughest two months waiting for us and personnel of the SPCA are going to have their work cut out for them. Not only are these the months that we are overcrowded with animals, but December and January are the two months that are usually physically and emotionally exhausting and financially challenging. We at the Rustenburg SPCA are trying everything we can just to make sure that we and our animals survive from the beginning of December until the end of January. We are praying and really need the community to take our hands to support us to keep those animals in our care well fed, healthy and happy. Without the assistance of the usual crew of helpers in the community we are lost even before the start of this difficult season. On behalf of all those lovely animals in our care, we are praying for miracles each and every day and we keep on in the hope that help is going to arrive at our doorstep in the form of cash donations or food for our animals.

If you have a heart for animals - you can help in various ways: Please remember that the Rustenburg SPCA is inundated with stray animals, abandoned or surrendered animals and that we only have very limited space available. Without the community assisting us, all would be lost. We are constantly in need of cash or donations in the form of pet food. The Rustenburg SPCA's monthly expenses exceed R100 000 while it only gets R33 000 (payable as a bulk amount of R192 500 every six months). The rest must come from who knows where and members of the SPCA are emotionally drained as a result of this dire situation. That is why the SPCA runs fund raising campaigns and similar projects to keep its head above water. Please consider donating towards the SPCA - we can issue tax deductible certificates (IT18a - please send proof of your payment to vicechair@spcartb.org.za and your certificate will follow). The SPCA would also appreciate help in the form of a donation towards our vets accounts - you can pay directly to them as well - Bergbos Animal Clinic (014) 533 1959; Petpassion Animal Care Clinic (076 969 5999) or AnimalQI Wellness Centre (014 941 1155).

You can also consider a donation towards the building of isolation kennels where sick animals can be kept - even help in the form of building material of builders will be most appreciated. If you or someone you know could help in any way, please call Marisa Kruger - Manager of the Rustenburg SPCA on 084 885 5173 or send an email to manager@spcartb.org.za or Debbie du Toit at vicechair@spcartb.org.za. Remember our banking details: Rustenburg SPCA FNB acc nr 5360 4095 349 branch 250655 Ref to use: Vet Bills; Donation; Kennel Sponsor; Isolation Kennels; Electricity; Petrol. The Rustenburg SPCA wish you a merry Christmas and a wonderful New Year!

Staff of Rustenburg Herald thought it a great idea to make this Christmas and New Year (hopefully) considerably better for the dozens of pets and strays at the Rustenburg SPCA during this exciting period. A cash donation and several bags of pet food were handed to Marisa Kruger - manager of the Rustenburg on Friday. Pictured from left are Marisa Kruger, Cecile Volschenk, Liesl Broeksma and Christelle Niemandt of Rustenburg Herald. The Rustenburg SPCA has emphasized that two adorable twin puppies (both males) in the photograph above, are available for adoption in what could be their last chance for find a happy home. Please call Marisa on 5923181 or 084 885 5173 if you have a heart for animals! Please phone today!

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Rustenburg Civic Centre was a hive of activity on Friday, (17 December), when Executive Mayor, Cllr Kgomotso Shiela Mabale-Huma, accompanied by Single Whip of Council, Cllr Louisa Lorato Mabe, Members of the Mayoral Committee, Lebogang Pule, Boipelo Marekoa, Virginia Mputle and Khoeli Libe, hosted a vibrant female employees seminar.

The objective of the seminar was to comfort, encourage and mobilise women working for the Rustenburg Local Municipality and those amongst communities, to speak out against violence directed at women and children, as well as femicide, thus exposing it, with the view to eliminating it completely in the society. Speaker after speaker, invited as panelists, comprising of pastors, motivational speakers and victims of abuse, reiterated the need to speak out against women and children abuse, so that government and broader society can rescue them.

" This is an annual event on the Municipality's calendar, organised by my office. We want to send a clear message to perpetrators of violence against women and children, that the national campaign might have ended on the 10th December 2021, but ours is to make it our daily routine practice, to speak out against women and children abuse. We want to mobilise our communities and Municipality's male employees to join hands with our female employees in the struggle against women and children abuse, as well as femicide. With this united front, we are positive that we will end this second pandemic in our country, as declared by President Ramaphosa. We do not discriminate against our male employees, we only wanted to afford the female employees the platform and opportunity to ventilate their ordeals, thus, helping them to heal, physically, spiritually and mentally, so that they can render quality services to our communities ", remarked Executive Mayor Mabale-Huma, during her keynote address, to the thunderous applause by fully packed audience. She also wished residents of Rustenburg, a peaceful festive season, and a prosperous new year with their families.

FESTIVE SEASON MESSAGE BY EXECUTIVE MAYOR TO RESIDENTS

The festive season is upon us already, as we wrap the year 2021. It has been a hectic year of local government elections in our country, compounded by wrestling with the national campaign of eliminating the Corona virus pandemic in our society. We have had to endure the consequences of this undesirable pestilence, as many of us lost their loved ones through it. This has taken a toll on our spirituality. However, not all is lost. This time of the year gives us an opportunity to reflect on the year that was, while at the same time putting our ducks in a row in preparation for the new year.

It is against this background that I encourage you to use this festive break to relax and recharge your batteries, so to speak, with the view to starting the new year with the necessary energy needed to do better than we did this year.

May your festive season be filled with cheer, warm memories and happiness. I wish you and your families heartwarming Christmas and prosperous New Year.

Cllr Kgomotso Shiela Mabale-Huma
Executive Mayor
Rustenburg Local Municipality.
