Hier kom die somer!

Dis eindelijk Desember. Die dae raak warm en loom - en hoog in die lug dryf die wolke rond. Die jongklomp is nou regtig lus vir vakansie; om somer net rond te hang, roomys te eet en tot laat te kan kuier. En natuurlik, in die swembad te kan baljaar. Dié groepie vriende wat besig is om in vakansie-rat te kom, is Amy van Rooyen, Katelyn Dale, Kyle Erasmus, Jandré Vermeulen en Pieta Niemandt. Hulle is deel van die Laerskool Rustenburg se leerderraad wat verlede week hul afskeid by die skool se swembad gehou het. Moenie volgende week se Rustenburg Herald Vakansie-uitgawe misloop nie! MEC Rosho cuts and adds on Provincial Adjustment Budget

RUSTENBURG HERALD - MAHIKENG - Consistent with the Premier's strategic direction, the adjustment budget makes provision for job creation and improved service delivery in the current financial year", the North West MEC for Finance - Ms Motlalepula Rosho said in her Provincial Adjustment Budget Speech 2021/2022 delivered in the legislature on Tuesday this week.

"Therefore an amount of R431.038 million is allocated as part of the Presidential Youth Employment programmes within the departments of Health, Education and Social Development. This allocation is in addition to the R63.736 million allocated at the beginning of the current financial year towards the Expanded Public Works Programme", Rosho said.

Further to this the Provincial Budget allocation increases from R46.240 billion to R48.788 billion which translates to an increase of R2 548 billion", the MEC announced. Furthermore the Department of Education's allocation is increased by R1.284 billion - from R18.011 billion to R19.295 billion.

Additional allocations of R5.220 million and R28.414 million were made to the Department of Social Development's budget for the appointment of social workers as part of addressing the backlog of unemployed social worker graduates. An amount R22.165 million was reduced from infrastructure allocations, bringing the adjusted allocation for this department to R1.828 billion in the current financial year.

The Department of Human Settlements receives an additional amount of R47.735 million, MEC Rosho announced.

In the Economic cluster, the budget for the Department of Economic Development, Environment, Conservation and Tourism is adjusted downwards to R892.32 million. This adjustment is as a result of the reduction of infrastructure amount of R51.853 million and an additional R6 million to assist the department with other pressures in the current financial year, Rosho said.

2021-reënseisoen nie so nat soos verwag nie

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Na wat aan die begin van vanjaar na 'n uitstekende reënjaar gelyk het toe Rustenburg in Januarie en Februarie onderskeidelik 'n "baie" aanvaarbare 199 mm en 107.1 mm se reën gekry het, het die res van die jaar in ietwat van 'n teleurstelling ontaard en is daar meestal nie naastenby soveel uit ons reënsters gegooi soos boere en ywerige tuiniers dit graag sou wou hê nie.

Hoewel Rustenburg in die laaste naweek van November (2021) 'n sopnat twee dae gehad het, het daar vir die res van die 11de maand nie vreeslik baie in die vorm van reën gerealiseer nie. 'n Totaal van slegs 66.4 mm is vir November 2021 gemeet - 'n volle 110 mm minder as die 176.4 mm wat in November verlede jaar gemeet is en wat natuurlik ook die hoogste Novembermaandneerslae sedert 2003 in Rustenburg was. Die Novembergemiddeld is nogtans nie baie hoër nie, hoewel dié 83.74 mm darem heelwat beter vertoon as 66.4 mm.

Wat die res van die jaar betref, die volgende:

In Januarie vanjaar is 199 mm in Rustenburg gemeet - presies 43.90 mm meer as die 155.1 mm van Januarie 2020. (Die gemiddeld vir Januarie sedert 2003 is 183.48 mm volgens die rekords van ons bekende "weerprofeet" - mnr Charlie Graham van Geelhout Gardens Kwekery wat enkele maande gelede die tuig neergelê het en die leisels van dié kwekery aan sy kleinseun (Grant) oorhandig het. Februarie vanjaar was ook nie sleg nie hoewel die 107.1 mm maar

Solidariteit: Nuwe brandstofpryse is onvolhoubaar

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Solidariteit het vandag sy teenkanting teen die jongste brandstofprysheffings uitgespreek en die onvolhoubaarheid daarvan beklemtoon.

Dit volg nadat 'n verdere skerp styging in brandstofpryse gister aangekondig is. Volgens Solidariteit sal dié nuutste brandstofheffing tesame met nuwe reisbeperkings teen Suid-Afrika wat die toerismebedryf lamlê, en algemene slegte ekonomiese toestande, dalk die laaste strooi wees wat die kameel se rug breek. Solidariteit is van mening dat verbruikers eenvoudig net nie meer sal kan byhou nie. "Dit is tyd dat die verbruiker, die gewone landsburger, eerste kom by ons regering. Mense moet werk toe kan gaan en kos kan gaan koop. Stygende brandstofpryse legs 7.60 mm meer is as die 99.5 mm wat in Februarie verlede jaar gemeet is. Vir Februarie is die jaargemiddeld wat sedert 2003 gehou word, 115.58 mm. Dit is baie interessant dat Februarie 2017 loshande die hoogste neerslag in amper 20 jaar opglewer het toe 'n allemintige 345 mm gemeet is. In Maart en April vanjaar - amptelik seker die twee "laaste" maande van Rustenburg se normale reënseisoen, het onderskeidelik 57.80 mm en 23.80 mm minder as dieselfde twee maande van 2020 opgelewer. Die enigste noemenswaardige styging in syfers teenoor dié van verlede jaar, was 'n bogemiddelde Oktober 2021 toe 98.4 mm gemeet is - 'n hele 73.90 meer as die 24.5 mm van Oktober verlede jaar.

Gemeet aan dié syfers is dit taamlik duidelik dat Rustenburg in Desember minstens 194 mm se reën sal moet kry indien ons wil hoop om min of meer gelyk te breek met die syfers van die 2020-jaar. Ons egter nie so seker of almal noodwendig na 'n sopnat kersfees en nuwejaar uitsien nie en in dié geval sal ons seker moet maak dat die reënsumbrele somer baie naby en reeds oopgevou in die lapas en braai-areas lê.

Municipality partakes in 16 days of activism against women and children abuse

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Rustenburg Local Municipality could not afford not to be part of a glamorous occasion of such a national significance, namely; 16 days of activism against women and children abuse campaign event launch that took place on the 26th November 2021, at the Hedgehog guesthouse conference hall.

Multitudes from a broad spectrum of society, namely; political leaders from local, provincial and national, executives from private sector, as well as members of the Women in Mining Association, converged to the place, to witness as political leaders pledged to continue intensification against the second pandemic in the country, after COVID19.

"I take this opportunity to implore upon communities of Rustenburg to oppose violence against women and children, until it is completely eradicated from our society. I urge our communities to be active against this second pandemic, not only during the prescribed annual period, but throughout our lives. Let it be an inherent part of our lives", remarked Executive Mayor, Cllr Kgomotso Shiela Mabale-Huma, in her message of support, before she signed the palm pledge.

finansies, sowel as aan die minister van minerale hulpbronne en energie geskryf en geëis het dat die brandstofheffing verlaag word en dat die pryse van petrol en diesel op alle vlakke aan die mark oorgelaat word. Ons vra opnuut dat die ministers gehoor sal gee aan ons beroep. Ons is besig om met ons regspraak te konsulteer. Ons is ook druk besig met 'n verslag oor prysvasstelling deur die regering in die brandstofmark, op grond waarvan ons volgende jaar die geveg vir goedkoper brandstof verder sal neem," sluit du Buisson af.

Yes to vaccines, NPIs and hospital readiness - No to economic restrictions

By John Steenhuisen MP - Leader of the Democratic Alliance

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "The DA has consistently spoken out against blanket economic restrictions, believing them to do more harm than good.

We have also consistently promoted vaccines as the solution.

We are glad that the government has finally come to its senses and moved away from stifling economic activity, banning beaches and so forth.

It is just a pity that thousands of businesses, millions of jobs, and billions of rand of tax revenue had to be lost before government

ROAD SAFETY TIPS FOR DRIVERS AND PASSENGERS

Here are a few tips for being a good passenger.

Don't distract the driver:
Drivers need to concentrate and distractions within the car can make this difficult.

Drink or drugs:
Never ever get into a car with a driver who has been drinking or taking drugs or who you suspect has been doing so. Do your best to persuade them not to drive.

Speed:
If you feel the driver is going too fast, you should say so because as a passenger in a vehicle, you also risk death or serious injury on the road due to the actions of your driver.

Seat-Belt:
Always buckle up, seat-belt prevent you from hitting the windshield or you from being thrown from the vehicle during a crash.

SA stays on Level 1

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - President Cyril Ramaphosa held a much anticipated press conference on Sunday night (28 November).

President Ramaphosa said that the early detection of the new Covid-19 variant has given South Africa a much better chance of containing the spread.

During his address, he pleaded with South Africans not yet vaccinated to please do so immediately.

"Please help us to open up the economy. We need to reduce the risk to those who are in the greatest risk. We are looking at booster shots for health care workers and vulnerable people with co-morbidity," the President said. He added that a task team are exploring making vaccination compulsory for certain activities. "It is a difficult, serious decision. But we must consider what is best for the country," he said. The President then announced that South Africa will, for now, remain on Alert Level 1. All restrictions currently in place will remain unchanged.

President Ramaphosa then hinted that government is exploring the possibility of lifting the State of Emergency, paving the way for all Lockdown restrictions to be lifted. The President criticized foreign governments imposing travel restrictions on South Africa and other southern African countries. "This is completely unjustified and will only do more damage to our economy and on the livelihoods of our people," the President said.

He said that the world should wake up and address Vaccine Inequality. "If the rich countries do not step up, and see to it that more vaccines are made available to other countries, more and more variants will emerge."

He concluded on a more positive note that South Africa will come through the storm. "We will defeat this virus," President Ramaphosa told the nation.

Beware of fake online car dealers

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The police in Rustenburg would like to warn potential car buyers to be careful when buying vehicles from online car dealers.

This warning comes after many cases have been opened with the police where potential buyers have been scammed of their hard earned money. According to Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson in Rustenburg, potential buyers would pay money into a given account and thereafter they realise later that they have been scammed.

He advised members of the community to verify if the car dealer is legit first before paying any money into their account. Those that have already fallen victim to this are advised to open cases with the police.

Three fatalities reported at Impala 6 Shaft

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The bodies of three impala workers were recovered underground following a mud-rush incident that took place on Sunday (28 November).

According to information received, seven employees were working at the bottom of the shaft when the area became inundated as a result of a mud rush. Two employees safely exited the area with minor injuries while five remained unaccounted for.

Two search and rescue teams were dispatched underground in an effort to locate and rescue the missing employees. Regrettably it was reported on Monday (29 November) that three of the five workers were found dead while two were found with serious but stable injuries.

"It is with deep regret we report that the search and rescue teams recovered the bodies of three of our employees. Their families have been notified and are receiving counselling and support. Two of our employees were, however, successfully rescued from the area and transferred to hospital for treatment.

Their families are being informed. They are both in a serious but stable condition. All operations at Impala Rustenburg's 6 Shaft remain suspended and Impala continues to work closely with the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy and other stakeholders.

No identities will be disclosed at this time while their next of kin are being informed.

Our deepest sympathies lie with the families, friends and colleagues of those whose lives were lost in this tragic accident," Implats said in a statement released on Monday (29 November).

Justice, at last...

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - If the wheels of our judicial system are not totally coming off, it is turning slow. 'Justice delayed is justice denied' is very real for many of South Africa's residents.

Former President Jacob Zuma is well known for his delaying tactics when it comes to legal matters. He is not the only one who knows how to employ these with astonishing success.

The Rustenburg Herald reported on the deaths of Tobie and Miemie Barnard, of two of Rustenburg's senior residents early 2014. On Christmas Day 2013, a certain James Cossa with his Isuzu bakkie ploughed into the Ford bakkie of the Barnards at the Midas four way stop on the road to Kroondal, killing Miemie instantly while Tobie succumbed to his injuries six days later. Mr Cossa's blood-alcohol level was later confirmed to be 0.18, that is 3.6 times the legal limit.

He was arrested on the spot, and later released on bail. This was the start of a seven years and nine months journey to eventually get justice for the unnecessary deaths of this special, elderly couple.

Most pensioners lose a significant portion of their influence on others during their so called 'golden years'. The case with Tobie and Miemie was in fact totally the opposite: they've maintained their influence and impact as true sources of wisdom to everyone around them, being it family or friends or even the community at large. Even at a ripe age, they remained useful and sought-after, and they were honestly not a burden to anybody. They were loved and admired and appreciated.

Therefore, their children could not accept it when the case was thrown out of court because Cossa was supposed to be repatriated to Mozambique where he originally came from. Nothing came from the repatriation plans and the Barnard siblings managed to get the case back onto the court roll. A few years later the case was again thrown out because some government department could not produce something required by the state prosecutor.

Again the Barnard siblings did not accept it, and provided the National Prosecuting Authority with the important facts of the case. The NPA eventually took the decision to prosecute (again), and appointed Advocate Theo Moetaesi as state prosecutor, who did a good job. Earlier this year, Cossa pleaded guilty on all charges.

After more than 40 court appearances and with the case for almost eight years in limbo, judgement was passed in the Rustenburg Regional Court early October 2021. Cossa was sentenced to four years in jail for reckless or negligent driving, and eight years on the charge of culpable homicide for Tobie's death and eight years for Miemie's death.

These sentences will be served concurrently. The Barnard family and a large circle of friends can now get closure and move on.

Fake company takes real money

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A number of local people have apparently been taken in by an alleged fake company.

The company claiming to be a promotional business, is said to have taken thousands of rand from people hoping to earn some cash.

The company recruited people to invest in cleaning material: You 'buy' a package, the company sell that package on your behalf and you get the profit. According to a leaflet in Rustenburg Herald's possession, people were promised 80 percent profit.

"We are devastated. When the excuses started, we realized that we have been scammed," one of the complainants told Rustenburg Herald.

At first, everything happened as promised. But then, payouts just dried up. When people started to enquire about their payouts, a man calling himself 'Riebeeck van Vyk' contacted them via Whatsapp, telling them the branch manager 'had deep personal reasons to be absent'. 'Van Vyk' reassured them that they would soon receive their money. That was in September. According to the complainants, they have not receive a single cent. "The office in Thabo Mbeki Drive is closed. There is nobody there. All the telephones are off as well," the source told Rustenburg Herald.

The source provided the newspaper with numbers, but all calls went directly to voicemail. Rustenburg Herald contacted some of the other 'investors'. One of the people lost nearly R10 000, while another lost close to R20 000.

According to the complainants, criminal cases were opened at Boitekong and Marikana Police Stations.

Constable sentenced for negligent loss of firearm

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Provincial Commissioner of North West, Lieutenant General Sello Kwena has welcomed the sentencing of Constable Fortune Godwin Moemise (36) who was recently sentenced by the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court in Tlhabane for negligent loss of a firearm.

Moemise from Rustenburg Detectives, was sentenced to R12 000.00 or 12 months imprisonment, half of which is suspended for five years on condition that he is not convicted of contravention of provision of Section 120 (s) of the Firearms Control Act, 2000 (Act No. 60 of 2000) during the period of suspension.

According to Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone, North West police spokesperson, the accused's conviction emanated from an incident in which he forgot his service pistol at his girlfriend's place on Thursday, (20 August 2020).

A friend to the Constable's girlfriend took the firearm and allegedly used it to commit attempted armed robbery and attempted murder.

The friend was arrested and separately charged for attempted armed robbery and attempted murder as well as unlawful possession of a firearm and ammunition.

The Provincial Commissioner hailed the sentence and at the same time warned members to ensure that their equipment are kept safe and in accordance with the prescripts

Cash-strapped SANDF creating chain of bakeries

The Democratic alliance has noted with concern the decision by the South African National Defence Force (SANDF) to create a chain of bakeries, which could potentially constitute as irregular and wasteful expenditure.

"The DA will write to the Minister of Defence, Thandi Modise, to call for an investigation into the South African National Defence Force's (SANDF) bizarre decision to create a chain of bakeries which could potentially constitute as irregular and wasteful expenditure.

According to reports, South African soldiers are putting their guns aside to run bakeries in order to help the SANDF deal with its budgetary crisis.

While the DA acknowledges the fact that the cash-strapped SANDF is confronted with a number of operational challenges, the opening of bakeries is not the solution. These bakeries fall outside of the defence force's mandate and has potentially opened SANDF up to irregular and wasteful expenditure of its already limited funds. This decision once again highlights the lack of strategic thinking and foresight within the SANDF's leadership ranks. In order to address its budgetary contracts, SANDF needs to be reformed and repositioned to address the modern-day challenges that South Africa faces, building a chain of bakeries will do little to achieve that goal." a statement from the DA said.

5 Great Benefits of CBD

CBD oil is derived from the buds and flowers of hemp plants. It does not contain THC, which is the substance that causes people to feel "high". However, it does provide many benefits which is why CBD infused products are so popular.

Reduces Anxiety: This is arguably the most awesome aspect of CBD. The qualities in the product create a relaxing effect that does not cause any interference in judgement.

Anti-Inflammatory: The pain reducing qualities of CBD derive from the anti-inflammatory elements within the substance. When combined with other pain-reducing products, the effect can be enhanced.

Better Brain Development: CBD or hemp oil contains essential fatty acids that improve brain development along with the retina of the eye.

Skin Products: It may seem strange at first to think of CBD having qualities that benefit the skin, but studies have shown its moisturising effects.

Improves Immune System: CBD helps the flora in the intestinal track to work better which in turn increases the efficiency of the immune system.

PLANTS NOT PILLS - THE HYPE ABOUT CBD

❖ What is CBD?

CBD is short for CANNABIDIOL. Cannabidiol, (CBD) was first discovered in 1942 by American chemist, Roger Adams. CBD (C₂₁H₃₀O₂) is one of approximately 113 cannabinoids identified and constitutes up to 40% of the cannabis plant extract.

Cannabis has had a very bad reputation for many years because of its association with intoxicating substances such as marijuana and hashish, but it has now eased because of the great benefits in the medicinal market. Since the legalisation of CBD, it has taken over this space.

Some of the most popular uses of CBD include using it to: Improve Sleep, Improve Mood, Increase Focus, Reduce Inflammation, Improve Digestion, Reduce Chronic Pain, Treat Skin, Reduce Stress and Anxiety, Control Nausea and Lower High Blood Pressure.

Gerrie Albertse oorlede

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Rustenburg het Dinsdagoggend vandeeweeke een van sy staatmakers oor baie jare verloor toe 'n bekende voormalige prokureur van die stad, Gerrie Albertse; in Pretoria in die ouderdom van 87 jaar oorlede is.

Wyle Gerrie en sy eggenote Santie het Rustenburg sowat drie jaar gelede verlaat en hulle in Pretoria gevestig waar hulle nader aan hul kinders en kleinkinders kon wees. Die egpaar was vir 45 jaar bekende en geliefde inwoners van die Platinastad.

Gerrie sal veral onthou word vir sy rol as prokureur by Van Velden-Duffey - sekerlik een van die bekendste prokureursfirmas in Rustenburg. Hy het op die ouderdom van 67 jaar sy uittrede aangekondig en daarna 'n Meestersgraad in Boedelreg aan die Noordwes Universiteit verwerf. Hy het daarna vir 10 jaar 'n tuisonderneming bedryf.

Gerrie en Santie was die afgelope nagenoeg net meer as drie jaar inwoners van Larmerier Village - 'n aftree-oord in Pretoria waar Gerrie sy groot liefde vir tuinmaak kon uitleef. Hy het egter geruime tyd gelede prostaatkanker opgedoen en is deur Hospice in Pretoria met versorging bygestaan totdat hy Dinsdagoggend oorlede is.

Gerrie en Santie was vir 56 jaar getroud en het talle geliefde vriende in Rustenburg gehad. Gerrie was hartstogtelik lief vir die Magaliesberge, die bosveld en boomryke Rustenburg-natuur. Hy was ook 'n ywerige gholfgeesdriftige en het vir baie jare op die bestuur van die Rustenburgse Gholfklub gedien. Die egaar het twee kinders waarvan albei dogters. Jeanne het in haar pa se voetspore gevolg en is 'n prokureur by 'n bekende prokureursfirma in Pretoria waar sy saam met haar man Willem en kinders, Meiring en Marian woon. Madi werk vir 'n organisasie wat in medisinale navorsing spesialiseer en woon in Stellenbosch.

Die begrafnisreëlings is nog nie getref nie, maar sal waarskynlik Sondag plaasvind. Santie het Dinsdag aan die Herald gesê elke oproep, blyke van simpatie en boodskappe van bemoediging word opreg waardeer.

Wyle Gerrie Albertse en sy eggenote Santie toe hulle Rustenburg ongeveer drie jaar gelede verlaat het. Gerrie is Dinsdagoggend in die ouderdom van 87 jaar in Pretoria oorlede.

MAMA MONICA

Does not ask for any money, she just helped for free. I was surprised to receive R8 million in my bedroom. The same day I gave her a call with tears of joy, she just told me to start using it. I went to the shop to buy some stuff to confirm that it is real money R1000! It was real money. I only gave her 10% in return. Our wedding date is on 31st of December.

Thank you for changing my life

REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

VAXX FACTS: Get vaccinated! The 4th wave is on it's way

Unvaccinated South Africans and those not fully vaccinated are urged to get their jabs as soon as possible, following the emergence of the Omicron variant, which is responsible for most of Gauteng's infections, and is spreading across the country.

The Omicron variant was first described in Botswana and subsequently in South Africa. It has since been identified in a number of countries.

South Africa has been praised for its early detection and reporting of the variant, which has far more mutations than any previous variants. It is not yet clear whether infection with Omicron causes more severe disease compared to infections with other variants, but it appears to spread more easily.

On Sunday, November 28, the World Health Organisation said researchers in South Africa and around the world are conducting studies to better understand many aspects of Omicron and will share their findings as they become available.

The identification of Omicron coincided with a sudden rise in Covid-19 infections in South Africa, and has prompted the authorities to yet again call on the nation to get vaccinated. It is now predicted that South Africa could enter its fourth wave within the next few weeks, if not sooner.

The rate of vaccination has slowed down in South Africa, which is alarming given that there is overwhelming scientific evidence that vaccination is the best defence against serious Covid-19 infections.

"Since the first Covid-19 vaccines became available late last year, we have seen how vaccines have dramatically reduced severe illness, hospitalisation and death in South Africa and across the world," said President Cyril Ramaphosa in a state address on Sunday, November 28.

The National Institute for Communicable Diseases has reported that the vaccines in use should protect people from severe illness resulting from Omicron infection. "Partial immune escape is likely, but it is likely that vaccines will still offer high levels of protection against hospitalisation and death," it said on November 28.

Forty-one percent of the adult population has received at least one vaccine dose, and 35.6% of adult South Africans are fully vaccinated against Covid-19. This is far from government's original target of vaccinating 67% of the population by the end of 2021, and is largely as a result of vaccine hesitancy or apathy.

While it is hoped that people will heed the call to get vaccinated, Ramaphosa said mandatory vaccination for certain sectors is being urgently reviewed. "If we do not address this seriously and as a matter of urgency, we will continue to be vulnerable to new variants and will continue to suffer new waves of infection," he said.

Meanwhile, the South African Health Products Regulatory Authority (SAHPRA) received an application on November 17 for the approval of a third dose – or booster shot – of the Pfizer vaccine, while in October, SAHPRA and Johnson & Johnson approved vaccine booster doses for all healthcare workers who received their first shot as part of the Sisonke Study.

All people over the age of 12 are eligible to be vaccinated.

1. Get vaccinated during Vooma Vaccination Week, December 3–10

Vaccination sites will be open daily, with selected sites opening on Sunday. See www.sacoronavirus.co.za for details.

2. People with disabilities, underlying medical conditions and pregnant women are urged to get vaccinated

People with a disability are often at higher risk of Covid-19 complications. In addition, the NICD says pregnant women are more likely to get severely ill with Covid-19, compared with women who are not pregnant. If you've been vaccinated, you might be eligible for a booster dose. Speak to your doctor.

3. Over 50s

If you're over 50, you fall into the age category that is most at risk of severe Covid-19 complications, says the Department of Health (DoH). "If all over 50s get vaccinated by the end of the year, four out of five deaths from Covid-19 could be prevented during the fourth wave."

4. Side effects

The DoH notes that there have been no deaths in South Africa attributed to Covid-19 vaccines. "It is normal to have some side effects, such as flu-like symptoms. If you're worried, feel short of breath or if your heart is racing, call the Covid-19 hotline for advice."

5. Be a Vax Champ and stop the spread of misinformation!

Vax Champs encourage their friends, family and neighbours to vaccinate. To become a Vax Champ, visit www.vaxchamp.org.za, WhatsApp 0600 123 456 or call the National Covid Hotline.

6. What we do know

While there is much we do not know about the new variant, we do know that getting vaccinated, wearing a mask, washing your hands regularly, and avoiding crowded places and packed indoor gatherings will help prevent the spread of all variants, and decrease the likelihood of landing up in hospital, should you contract the disease.

Enquiries: The Covid-19 hotline on 0800 029 999 or email info@vaccinesupport.org.za in English, Afrikaans, Zulu, Sotho or Xhosa.

Mediterreense koeskoes, kekerertjie-en hoenderslaai

Bestanddele:

- 225ml Koeskoes
- 4 vellose hoenderborsies
- 400g Kekerertjies, gedreineer en goed afgespoel
- 1 geel Soetrissie, in fyn blokkies gesny
- 100g Kersie –of rosatamaties, gehalveer
- 100g Fetakaas, gebreek
- 15ml vars Origanum, gebreek
- 50g swart Olywe, ontpit en gehalveer
- 20ml Olyfolie
- paar blaartjies Dill (as jy wil)
- 1 Chilli Beef geurblokkie

Metode:

Geur die hoenderborsies na smaak en braai tot gaar in die olyfolie – so min of meer 7min per kant, hang af van die dikte van die hoenderborsie.
Gooi 'n klein bietjie olyfolie in 'n pan, verhit effens en braai die koeskoes liggies. Roer aanhoudend. Verwyder van die hitte na sowat drie minute.
Los die Chilli Beef geurblokkie in 'n bietjie kookwater op. Voeg 200ml kookwater by en gooi dit dadelik oor die koeskoes. Bedek met 'n deksel en laat staan vir ongeveer 15 minute.
Roer die koeskoes met 'n vurk tot die korreltjies mooi los is en geen klonte gevorm is nie.
Voeg nou die kekerertjies, tamaties, soetrissie, olywe, feta en kruie by die koeskoes en roer met 'n vurk deur.
Verdeel die koeskoes in vier porsies en bedien met die hoenderborsies.

Roerbraai die koeskoes vir sowat drie minute.

Geur hoenderborsies na smaak en braai tot gaar in 'n bietjie olyfolie.

Ek het nie met koeskoes grootgeword nie. My ma het rys gekook, of soms stampmelies – dit was die mees eksotiese wat sy sou opdien. Ek was in die hoërskool voor sy 'n uitlandse gereg soos macaroni-en-kaas begin maak het!
Toe ek die wonder van koeskoes ontdek, was ek onmiddellik 'n 'fan'. Dis maklik om te maak – maar die moontlikhede is byna eindeloos: die gereg word wat jy van hom wil maak; hy neem die geur aan waarop jy besluit.
Koeskoes kan lieflik Midde-Oosters wies met geure van koljander en komyn, hy kan 'n Spaanse baadjie aantrek met 'n bietjie meer byt of hy kan subtiel Mediterreens raak met die smaak van olywe, tomatie en fetakaas.
Dis dié koeskoes wat ek dié week op tafel gaan sit. Die dis is heerlik koud, maar indien jy 'n warm bord kos wil bedien, is dit nét so in die kol.
Die beste deel is dat dit laevet is, maar ryk aan proteïene, vesel en yster, asook kalsium. Jy kry ook 'n goeie skeut B-vitamiene in.

Kersfeesvreugde - vir hoe lank nog?

Die realiteit in Suid-Afrika is egter dat 'n ontstellende hoeveelheid mense elke dag, te midde van beproewende omstandighede, 'n nuwe dag tegemoet gaan en dat derduisende mense nie eers op 'n enkele maaltyd per dag kan reken nie. Besef ons dat hierdie sektor in die gemeenskap by die dag besig is om te groei en dat mense wat tot onlangs relatief welaf was, nou nie meer so seker is of die lewe in hierdie land 'n Kanaänbestaan is nie. Baie mense sal maklik 'n vinger na ons regering se rol hierin wys. Sommige mense meen dat dit tyd is om met 'n nuwe perspektief na ons omstandighede te kyk. Miskien moet ons met groter dankbaarheid omgaan met die voorregte wat ons wel nog het? Dalk is dit goed vir nou - die vraag is net - hoe lank gaan dit nog so wees? Is die mense in Zimbabwe byvoorbeeld ook dankbaar vir die wonderlike voorreg om in die spreekwoordelike "broodmandjie van Afrika" te leef?

Joys of Christmas to continue?

Blitzboks dominate in Dubai

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Springbok Sevens team were devastating in Dubai the past weekend.

The Blitzboks won their 18th straight HSBC World Rugby Sevens Series match as they clinched the Emirates Dubai 7s crown in style by obliterating the USA by 42-7 in the Cup final on Saturday afternoon (27 November).

Ronald Brown - the HSBC Player of the Final - was in sublime form and contributed 25 points in the exhilarating final through three tries and five conversions as the USA had no answer for the Blitzboks' clinical play, sharp attack and strong defence. JC Pretorius, Selwyn Davids and Shaun Williams also added their names to the list of try-scorers. Brown scored early, after which Pretorius went over untouched from a quick tap penalty in the USA 22.

Right on halftime, quicksilver Brown waltzed his way over for his second try, which came from a turnover in the USA half, to hand the Blitzboks a 21-0 lead at the break.

But the scoreboard didn't stay that way for long. Pretorius attacked from the restart and after a very strong run, he put Brown over for his third try.

Greased lightning Selwyn Davids scored from a trademark chip, chase and gather before the USA pulled one back, but it was too little, too late and when Williams went over on the stroke of full-time, the South Africans could celebrate.

The Blitzboks road to the final looked like this:

QUARTER-FINAL: Blitzboks 29 (12) - Australia 5 (5)

Springbok Sevens - Tries: JC Pretorius, Siviwe Soyizwapi (2), Selwyn Davids, Tiaan Pretorius. Conversions: Ronald Brown, Branco du Preez.

SEMI-FINAL: Blitzboks 17 (7) - Argentina 7 (7)

Springbok Sevens - Tries: Shilton van Wyk, Siviwe Soyizwapi, JC Pretorius. Conversion: Ronald Brown.

FINAL: Blitzboks 42 (21) - USA 7 (0)

Springbok Sevens - Tries: Ronald Brown (3), JC Pretorius, Selwyn Davids, Shaun Williams. Conversions: Brown (5), Branco du Preez.
