Entrepreneurs: Make a success of your journey

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - When an entrepreneur stands at the beginning of his business' path, he have the option on focusing on one of two things: he/she can focus on the rocky road, the dangerous cliffs and the steep uphill, or the entrepreneur can set his eyes on the horizon and start walking, not losing sight of where he is going.

Author Booker Nyaundi's debut book, 'The journey of the entrepreneur' offers help to unlocking your skills to make a success of your business.

Rustenburg Herald spoke to Booker, a father of four, about his first book and the role he sees for entrepreneurs in the current economy. "Entrepreneurs bare the engine for growth in a troubled economy like the situation we are facing. Whether you are already in business or considering becoming an entrepreneur in troubled economy creating value and analyzing the consumer needs for consumers is critical for success.

By studying this book it helps people to prepare themselves for the future challenges through creativity thinking, innovative thinking, technological and developing skills to collaborate and social networking with different stakeholders. Instead of people using social media for unproductive issues, one can use it to grow, market and promote their businesses or companies. Promoting entrepreneurship is the way to go. It creates competition and reduces scarcity of products for example most African counties are struggling with manufacturing and supplying PPE, of which it's something that anyone can do or learn to do," is Booker's opinion.

"The pandemic has really affected the economy ranging from emerging businesses to well established businesses. We are all going through a tough time. Entrepreneurship can be the answer to economic hardships in so many ways," he adds.

The Zimbabwean, who has been a Rustenburger since 2007, holds a diploma in Marketing from an Australian institutions. Booker is also currently studying 'Driving Innovation' with the Chartered Institute of United Kingdom. He is the founder of Pythons Business Consultants which was formed in 2011. They are an education and training service provider which is CETA Accredited on Roadworks Civil Engineering, Health and Safety as well as Plant Operations courses.

For more information about the book, contact Booker on 071 597 5151/ 014 592 6950 or send an email to pbconsultants@gmail.com

The journey of the entrepreneur is a book indicating the importance of entrepreneurship education to students, school leavers and budding entrepreneurs from different social and economic backgrounds because it teaches people to cultivate unique skills and think outside the box. Moreover, it helps to identify business opportunities, ensures social justice and stimulates the economy.

This book provides entrepreneurial skills and knowledge to help people establish their own enterprises as well as assisting them to gain core business skills in sales, finance, marketing and accounting. Other critical skills covered include effective communication, confidence, decision making, analytical skills, data and information management skills, as well as innovation and creativity.

How COVID-19 Vaccines work

Life Peglerae Hospital welcomes Dr Moinuddeen Vally as a Vascular Surgeon

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Life Peglerae Hospital welcomes Dr Moinuddeen Vally as a Vascular Surgeon to its team of Specialists.

Dr Vally has returned to his hometown here in Rustenburg after a number of years away training and gaining experience as a surgeon.

Having grown up in Rustenburg, Dr Vally attended the Zinniaville Secondary School, from grade R and matriculated there as well. He is popularly known as “Moin” among peers, teachers, friends and family.

After matriculating he completed his Bachelor of Medicine and Surgery (MBChB) at the University of Pretoria (Tuks). He then completed his Internship and community service here in town at the Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital. It is here that he developed a passion for Surgery after working under Dr Albert Schutte.

Dr Vally was fortunate enough to immediately commence specialist training in general surgery at the George Mukhari Academic Hospital linked with Sefako Makgatho Health Sciences University (Previously Medunsa). Here he gained valuable experience in Laparoscopic Surgery and endoscopic procedures in the department headed by Professor Zac Koto.

Dr Vally further did sub-specialist training in Vascular and Endovascular surgery at the same institution under Dr Neil Cloete and Professor Cobus van Marle. He is one of +/-60 other practicing vascular surgeons in South Africa.

After 16 years of studying and training, Dr Vally will practice from Suite 11 at the Life Peglerae Hospital Doctors consulting rooms at 169 Beyers Naude Drive. At his practice he will see patients with all vascular related problems including varicose veins and leg ulcers, thrombosis, arterial insufficiency, aneurysms and dialysis related surgery. The practice contact details are as follows: (014) 004 0120/0659928803. Hours: Monday to Friday 08:00 – 17:00.

Hospital Manager Denise Botha says: “We are extremely proud to welcome Dr Vally back to Rustenburg. He will be making a valuable contribution to the community with his scarce skill, making a difference in our community and assisting Life Peglerae in serving the community by providing world class medical care.”

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - To understand how COVID-19 vaccines work, it helps to first look at how our bodies fight illness.

When germs, such as the virus that causes COVID-19, invade our bodies, they attack and multiply. This invasion, called an infection, is what causes illness. Our immune system uses several tools to fight infection. Blood contains red cells, which carry oxygen to tissues and organs, and white or immune cells, which fight infection. Different types of white blood cells fight infection in different ways:

Macrophages are white blood cells that swallow up and digest germs and dead or dying cells. The macrophages leave behind parts of the invading germs called antigens. The body identifies antigens as dangerous and stimulates antibodies to attack them. B-lymphocytes are defensive white blood cells. They produce antibodies that attack the pieces of the virus left behind by the macrophages. T-lymphocytes are another type of defensive white blood cell. They attack cells in the body that have already been infected. The first time a person is infected with the virus that causes COVID-19, it can take several days or weeks for their body to make and use all the germ-fighting tools needed to get over the infection. After the infection, the person's immune system remembers what it learned about how to protect the body against that disease. The body keeps a few T-lymphocytes, called memory cells, that go into action quickly if the body encounters the same virus again. When the familiar antigens are detected, B-lymphocytes produce antibodies to attack them. Experts are still learning how long these memory cells protect a person against the virus that causes COVID-19.

We can go into a lengthy, technical explanation of how the COVID-19 vaccines work, but let's stick to a very basic explanation. For starters, the vaccine does NOT contain the virus. The vaccine tricks your body's immune system into thinking it has already encountered the Covid-19 virus and has already fought it off. So, if you do get infected with the virus, your fighter sells is like “oh, we've seen this guy before. He's the one who trashed the rented room and stole the kettle! Let's kick him out without further ado..”

Of course the different types of vaccines work in different ways to offer protection, but with all types of vaccines, the body is left with a supply of “memory” T-lymphocytes as well as B-lymphocytes that will remember how to fight that virus in the future. Sometimes after vaccination, the process of building immunity can cause symptoms, such as fever. These symptoms are normal and are a sign that the body is building immunity.

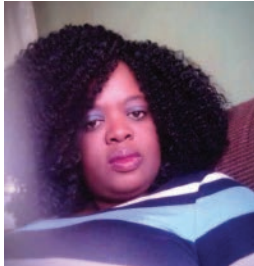

What does Rustenburg Herald readers think about getting vaccinated?

In a Facebook poll conducted on Monday (18 January) it seems the majority of our readers will not be taking any Covid-19 vaccine willingly in the near future.

SOME REACTIONS FROM READERS :

King McSymon Lesang
Our government did not clearly think well when coming to vaccinating our nurses and doctors first because if something goes wrong with it we will suffer the consequences... Imagine if our doctors and nurses get ill who will take care of the remaining covid19 victims????

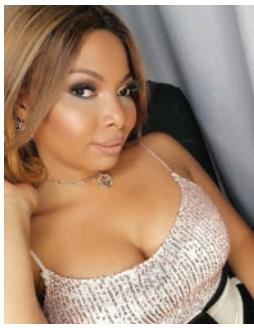

Reneilwe Suzan Tlaka
Yes.... It is worth taking that risk...There are so many rumours about this vaccine, but I choose not to listen to them and get that vaccine.

Lsg Mojanaga
With all the uncertainty going around it's still questionable

Bradley Bowles
Yes we any way going to die one day

Lesego Matshwane
I think they're gonna make it compulsory. Workplaces and schools might need you to produce proof of vaccination before entering. That's just my 2 cents.

Lau-Ann Bause
No I won't. Too many stories on people reacting negatively or dying due to the vaccine. I would also not let Healthcare workers and the elderly take the vaccine first... We need the HCW and the elderly are fragile. They can start with the leaders... It took years to perfect the vaccines our babies and kids receive... Now they want to start using a vaccine that has been “created” in less than a year... So no thanks...

Father apprehended after kidnapping twins

Wat de joos doen Eskom?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Van verlede Donderdag af gaan die grootste gedeelte van Suid-Afrika weer gebuk onder Fase 2 beurtkrag.

Alhoewel Eskom Maandagaand (18 Januarie) aangekondig het dat hulle nou eers weer beurtkrag opskort, meen energiekeners dat niemand té bly moet raak nie.

“Iets soos ‘n Fase 8 is nie uitgesluit nie,” meen Izak du Plessis in sy aanlynnuusprogram, Nuuspod.

Ted Blom het vroeër dié week met Izak gesels oor sy mening oor die Eskom-dilemma.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Once again the Rustenburg Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences (FCS) Unit, supported by Gauteng Provincial Crime Intelligence and Evaton Tactical Response Team (TRT) have been applauded on a job well done after successfully locating kidnapped twins and arresting a 37-year-old suspect.

According to information received from North West police Spokesperson, Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone, the suspect, who is the biological father of the children, was on Wednesday (13 January) arrested in Evaton for the alleged kidnapping of the six months old twins. The latter's parents were separated and staying at different places in Rustenburg at the time of the incident. The father, in accordance with the apparent agreement, was daily in the morning taking the children to the child care centre while the mother was responsible to fetch them in the afternoon. However, the mother was informed by the staff at the centre on Thursday afternoon (26 November 2020) that the father never dropped the twins. Neither attempts to call the father nor tracing him at his business premises yielded positive results. Thus, the matter was reported to the police for investigation. The suspect appeared at the Rustenburg Magistrates Court on Friday (15 January) on a charge of kidnapping. Lieutenant General Sello Kwena thanked the members for their collaboration that led to the arrest of the suspect and ensuring that the twins were reunited with their mother.

School assistants payments delayed

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Last year a total of 319 061 people were appointed through the initiative to help teachers with curriculum coverage and learner homework assistance as well as the upkeep of the school premises and other infrastructure maintenance with a budget of R5 billion.

To this day these assistants have reportedly not received their promised stipends for December period.

“The Democratic Alliance (DA) has called on Treasury and the Department of Basic Education (DBE) to provide clarity with the utmost urgency on where the blockages are in the disbursement of the stipends to assistants who form part of the DBE's Basic Education Employment Initiative programme. “These assistants have worked tirelessly since December with the hope of finally receiving a stipend in order to support themselves and now they are left in a desperate situation without their promised remuneration. This is highly unfair because these unemployed people who looked forward to an opportunity of employment and having the dignity of income through a job. They are left completely in the dark as to where their money is, with no answers to them or the families, the DA said in a statement. The DA said although this was supposed to be a good initiative, it is now a complete indictment on the DBE, they said they will stop at nothing to ensure that these assistants are treated with dignity and they are reimbursed for their hard work.

Waardasierol: Meer tyd vir besware

Waldie Volschenk

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Huiseienaars in die munisipale jurisduksiegebied van die Rustenburgse Munisipaliteit is die afgelope maand reeds pynlik bewus van die nuwe munisipale waardasierol wat onlangs vrygestel is.

Ten spyte van die ontsteltenis rondom die feit dat waardasies in die Rustenburg-omgewing dramaties opwaarts aangepas is met die onvermydelike gevolg dat eiendomsbelasting in terme van verbruikers se munisipale rekeninge ewe-dramaties gaan styg, bied nuwe inligting tot ons beskikking 'n geringe mate van verligting. Die huidige stand van sake is dat uiters bekommerde eienaars redelike tyd gegun sal word om die nuwe waardasierol onder oë te neem en reëlings te tref vir 'n alternatiewe waardasie deur 'n onafhanklike waardeerder aan die hand waarvan besware by die munisipaliteit ingedien kan word indien eienaars so voel.

Volgens 'n bekende plaaslike raadslid is dit nie só dat eienaars van eiendom slegs tot einde Januarie 2021 gegun sal word om by die munisipaliteit beswaar aan te teken nie. "Nee, die proses is darem ietwat meer verbruikersvriendelik en die realiteit is dat die nuwe beoogde waardasierol teen einde Januarie 2021 eers gesertifiseer sal word voordat dit vir 'n tydperk van drie maande aan die publiek voorgelê sal word vir die nodige kommentaar en 'n proses van beswaar", het Rustenburg Herald verneem. Dit is egter uiters belangrik dat die publiek kennis neem dat die proses van "beswaar aanteken" aansienlik meer behels as om bloot by die munisipaliteit kassie te maak oor jou eiendom se nuwe waardasie.

Besware aan die munisipaliteit moet vergesel wees van 'n alternatiewe waardasie deur 'n erkende en onafhanklike waardeerder en indien die eienaar van voorneme is om 'n aansienlike aanpassing op sy waardasie af te dwing, is verdere kostes ten opsigte van regshulp waarskynlik onvermydelik.

Die Rustenburgse Munisipaliteit het by wyse van 'n amptelike kennisgewing in Rustenburg Herald op 27 November 2020 aangekondig dat hy 'n nuwe konsep-waardasierol ontvang het wat hy van voorneme is om einde Januarie 2021 aan grondeienaars voor te lê en vanaf 1 Julie 2021 amptelik te implementeer.

Die nuwe waardasierol kan intussen by die Rustenburgse Munisipale kantore te Missionary Mpheni House (Beyers Naudé-rylaan) en die munisipale webwerf www.rustenburg.gov.za onder oë geneem word.

Die waardasierol lê ook ter insae by streeks-gemeenskapsentrums asook die openbare biblioteke van Rustenburg, Karlienpark, Boitekong en Marikana.

Hawkers "harassed" by Public Safety

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Increasing reports of hawkers being "harassed" by officials of Rustenburg's Directorate Public Safety have reached Rustenburg Herald in recent months.

Hawkers trying to make an honest living by the selling of wood, food and similar items in Rustenburg's uptown areas, told Rustenburg Herald that officials from Public Safety arrived on the scene and issued fines of R2 500 for the apparent transgression of municipal bylaws. Some hawkers have claimed blatant attempts of bribery by some officials were common.

At the same time however, dozens of informal hawkers are doing rather well with the selling of grass, plants, wooden gardens furniture and handmade articles in several other areas in town, notably at the back of High School Rustenburg towards the Rustenburg Civic Centre in Kloof Road. Hawkiers selling all kinds of edibles, looking for jobs and/or simply begging have been a common sight in Boven Street right opposite Bergsig Academy for the past five to eight years if not more.

Disgruntled hawkers told Rustenburg Herald that "ventures" to the offices of the Rustenburg Municipality to inquire about the processes and requirements were unsuccessful and they were sent from pillar to post whilst losing valuable time in terms of moneys lost during their absence from their usual hawking

In memoriam

’n Bekende persoonlikheid van die Marikana- en Rustenburg-omgewing, Bossie (Joachim Hendrik Boshoff) Janse van Rensburg is op Maandag, 18 Januarie in die ouderdom van 76 jaar oorlede. Bossie se afskeidsboodskappe van sy familie het gelui: “Dat die Here gee en neem, is waar. Dat Hy ons Verlosser en Troue God is, is waar”. So het die Vader dan ook besluit om vir Bossie Janse van Rensburg, geliefde eggenoot, pa, oupa, broer en vriend, na sy finale bestemming, Sy Vaderhuis, te neem. Alle dank en eer aan die Almagtige Vader want ons weet dat ons geliefde veilig gearriveer het. Ons harte is stukkend maar berus ons by die Here se wil. Ons treur maar nie soos verlorene nie.

“Hiermee wil ons graag net almal bedank met die skielike heengaan van ons dierbare moedertjie, ouma en oumagrootjie, Marietjie de Villiers (83 jaar en 10 maande) op 22 Desember 2020. Sy was geliefd onder almal wat haar geken het en ’n jarelange Rustenburger sedert die vroeë 80’s. Haar plekkie sal leeg wees in die harte van elkeen wie haar geken het, maar ons berus daarby in die wete dat sy nou sonder pyn en moegheid voortleef by ons Hemelse Vader. Tot ons weer ontmoet”. Blank Space Art competition open once again - entries awaited

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Believe it or not - we are at the beginning of a new year and once again Rustenburg Herald's Blank Space Art competition is open to all artists wishing for an opportunity to earn some handy cash and of course, the main prizes of two extremely valuable Pick n Pay shopping vouchers valued at R10 000 each.

We envite all local artists to submit their entries in the entry boxes at both above mentioned Pick n Pay stores and reception at Rustenburg Herald's offices in 13 Coetzer Street. In addition to the two grand prizes at the end of the year, two artists coming out on top of our quarterly competition, will each win a cash prize of R1 000 which are sponsored by Rustenburg Herald. Entries could be paintings/drawings in virtually every medium you could think of and even handcraft items are welcome. We encourage the public to visit the big display panels at each of the two Pick n Pay stores to come to terms with the standard of amateur art in Rustenburg. We also thank all those who have participated in the past and contributed towards the competition. We are looking forward to be surprised by our artists in the new year!

Win R250!!! # 596

'n Tweede misdaadroman vir Christelle

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Christelle van Rooyen-Wessels, vir die afgelope 21 jaar al joernalis en mediabestuurder vir die Noordwes Koerantgroep, se tweede misdaadroman, Brandmerk, is pas deur Penguin Random House SA, vrygestel.

Christelle het met ons oor dié boek, wat reeds baie gunstig deur kritici ontvang word, gesels.

Vraag: Hierdie is jou tweede boek. Hoe het jy die skryfproses dié slag ervaar? Het dit baie van die eerste ronde verskil?

Christelle: Ja! Met Adder het ek die vryheid gehad om sommer net te skryf. Ek het nie verwag dat 'n uitgewer régtig in my boek belang gaan stel nie. Met Brandmerk het ek baie meer bewustelik geskryf. Ek het ook baie hard probeer om van die foute wat ek met my eerste manuskrip gemaak het, te vermy.

Vraag: Dit was aan die einde van Adder duidelik dat daar 'n opvolg gaan moet wees. Het jy na die boek verskyn het, dadelik met dié opvolg begin?

C: Nee, ek het met 'n ander manuskrip begin wat niks met Adder te doen gehad het nie. Maar die Adder-karakters het ander planne gehad en kort-kort het een, by wyse van spreke, bloot opgedaag en woorde in my kop kom lê. Ek het dit eers geïgnoreer, maar een oggend was ek besig om beddegoed op die wasgoedlyn op te hang. Ek het met 'n paslaken gespook en, meteens was dit asof Adder se uitgesproke Ronnie hier langs my gestaan het. "n Verdomde paslaken is deur die blierrie duiwel homself uitgedink," het ek haar hoor sê. Nêr daar het ek die wasgoed gelos, voor die rekenaar gaan sit en dié sin van Ronnie gaan skryf. En ek kon nie ophou nie. Dié stukkie dialoog het ek later in die middel van die boek eers gebruik.

Vraag: Jy raak aan baie donker onderwerpe – geweld teen vroue en kinders. Lê die kwessie jou na aan die hart of vertel jy bloot agter die storie aan?

C: Geweld teen vroue en kinders behoort almal na aan die hart te lê. Uit die aard van my werk as joernalis kom ek ook té gereeld met gruwels te doene wat selfs erger is as die fiktiewe dade wat ons as skrywers kan uitdink. Dit is egter ook 'n onderwerp waarmee ek persoonlik baie goed vertrou is. As kind, as tiener en as jong meisie moes ek deur situasies gaan waardeur ek sou verkies het om níé te gaan nie. Maar ek het onlangs iets gelees wat my met ander oë laat kyk het na die slegte ervarings wat ek beleef het. Dié aanhaling was: "When I was young, somebody gave me a box full of darkness. Only later I realised that even this was a gift."

Vraag: Het jy, as skrywer, empatie met die slegte ou in die storie? Waarom sê jy so?

C: Ja, ek het. Baie van die misdaadfiksie – Afrikaans én Engels – fokus op die speurders wat die misdaad moet oplos. My stories se binnekring gaan oor die slagoffers en die moordenaar. En ek leer hulle intiem ken. Vóór ek kan begin skryf, kry dié mense eers gestalte, lewe. Ek ervaar hul trauma; ek kan voel hoe hul na ontlading of troos smag. Dit maak dat ek baie keer snot en trane voor die rekenaar sit en huil oor al die sleg wat my karakter moes beleef en wat gevorm het wie hy/sy is.

Vraag: Hoe beïnvloed jou werk in die koerantbedryf jou manier van aan 'n storie dink?

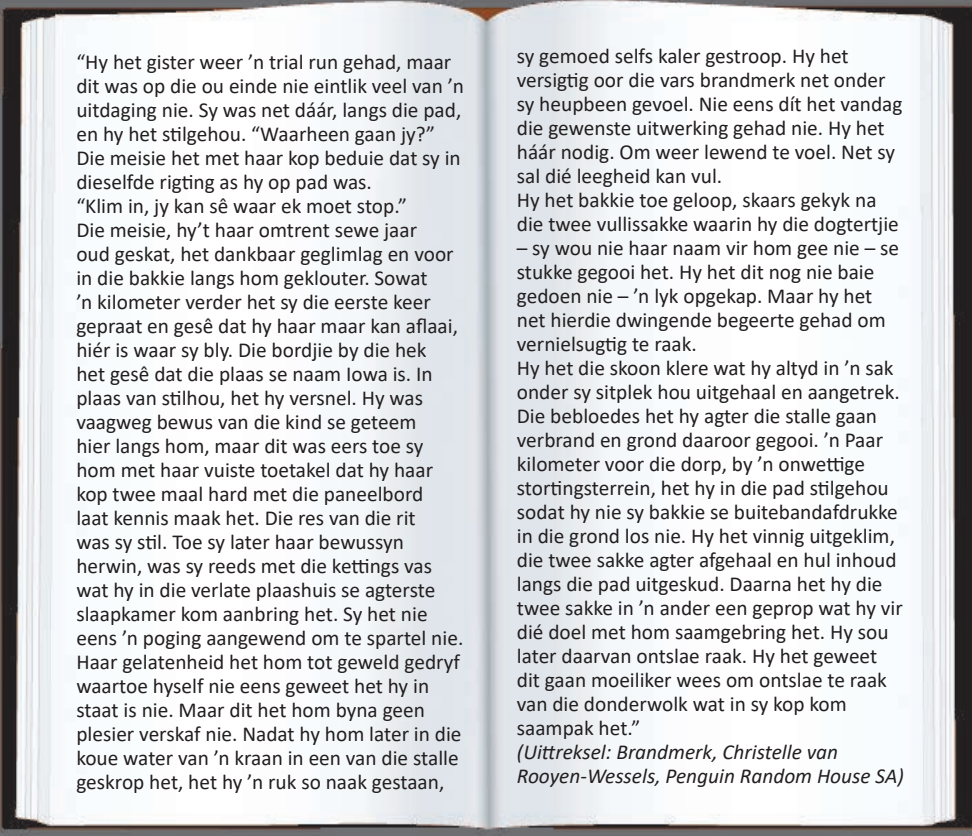

C: Ek dink dit help my geweldig baie om my storielyn realisties te hou. Ek werk daagliks met die polisie en met regte misdaad en dit gee my insae wat nie alle skrywers beskore is nie. Ek het ook direk na skool by die polisie in Port Elizabeth begin werk. Vir bykans twee jaar was ek by die Blitspatrolie gestasioneer en ek het ondervinding opgedoen wat nou vir my van onskatbare waarde is.

Dit help natuurlik ook dat twee van my broers, asook my swaer tot en met hul aftrede polisiemanne was.

My swaer was boonop vir 'n klompie jare 'n moord-en-roof speurder by Brixton.

Vraag: Watter boek uit 2020 het jou verras (enige genre)?

C: Ek het net voor die grendelstaat met 'n nuwe manuskrip begin en het gevolglik nie naby 'n boek om te lees gekom nie! Maar die nuwe manuskrip is darem klaar en reeds by Penguin. Ek het egter steeds nie geleentheid om regtig nou te lees nie; ek het pas met 'n vierde manuskrip begin.

PHYSICS + MATHS = MINING ENGINEERING. IT'S A GLENCORE STORY.

When Katlego Molete received over 90% for his matric physics and maths in his small village near Lichtenburg, he knew he wanted to study Mining Engineering. Awarded a Glencore bursary, his final year of study is fully funded, with extensive support and follow-up from the company. Although Covid-19 has interrupted his vacation work plans, he is still hoping to spend some time at Glencore's Alloys operations in December and January. When he starts working full-time, he wants to begin in production, and hopes to be a Mine Manager one day, and ultimately, run his own mining consultancy. Katlego's story is part of what we mean at Glencore by progress, together.

How will we fight corruption?

One of the biggest problems with corruption in the world we are living, especially in Africa and South Africa, is that it is virtually impossible to control and even worse to obtain dependable statistics on the issue.

The reasons for this speak for itself for corrupt people will pay staggering amounts of money in return for favours and smiles and everything that goes with it. Just as fundamental as the deed itself, is the silence that goes hand in hand with corruption. Corruption is as easy as being silent, even if you have done nothing else.

The appeal of real "big" money with the potential to change people's lives forever, can never be underrated and because it is always other people's money that is involved, the possibilities are invariably fabulous, even for the richest among the rich.

Corruption often comes in different forms and grades and some of these are so common and acceptable that it is not even recognised as corruption. But just what is the difference between corruption and an honest business transaction?

Simple: If you use your own money to reach your objectives, it is business, if you secretly use some one else's (your employer or government's money), it is corruption.

South African will agree that the extent of corruption in our country is absolutely bewildering. Most people cannot imagine the scale thereof. Whether it is the traffic official who want you to buy him a chicken snack and a Coke rather than getting fined, the official at the municipality who is prepared to do something for you much quicker than it usually takes at a fee, or a contractor paying millions in return for a government contract.

A high profile government official once said that corruption in the African culture is absolutely institutionalised, it is as old as the mountains. Many people can't even understand that it is wrong and totally counter-productive.

Even in a smallish town such as Rustenburg corruption has spread like wildfire in the past two decades. Nobody does anything without a little "something" extra, full stop. The extent is so wide, that even the most noble and honourable people unknowingly and reluctantly get entangled in its web.

To make matters worse, if you have done it once, you are very likely to do it again and again. All that seems to change is the grade of corruption and the amount of money/ favour that goes with it.

Waarmee sal ons korrupsie bestry

Een van die grootste probleme rondom korrupsie in die wêreld waarin ons leef, veral in Afrika en die hegendaagse Suid-Afrika, is dat dit prakties gesproke onmoontlik is om te beheer en selfs nog moeiliker is om werklik betroubare statistiek rondom dié wêreldwye euwel te bekom.

Die redes hiervoor spreek natuurlik vanself, korrupte mense betaal reusagtige somme geld vir gunsies en gawes en alles wat daarmee saamgaan en net so fundamenteel as die korrupte daad self, is die stilte wat vir wie weet hoe lank daarna heers.

Korrupsie is eenvoudig so maklik soos om stil te bly, al het jy andersins geen "misdaad" gepleeg nie.

Die bekoring van werklike "groot" geld wat die potensiaal het om mense se lewens vir altyd te verander, kan maar net eenvoudig nie onderskat word nie en omdat dit altyd "ander mense" se geld is waarmee korrupsie gepleeg word, is die moontlikhede feitlik fabelagtig - selfs vir die rykstes onder die rykes. Dan natuurlik is dit ook 'n feit dat daar verskillende grade en vorms van korrupsie is en verstommend genoeg is sommige hiervan so aanvaarbaar en alledaags dat dit nie eers as korrupsie gereken word nie.

Maar wat is die verskil tussen 'n eenvoudige sake- of besigheidstransaksie en ware korrupsie? Eenvoudig: As jy jou eie geld gebruik om iets te bereik of te kry, is dit sake. As jy iemand anders, soos jou werkgever of die regering se geld in die geheim gebruik om jou doel te bereik, dan is dit suiwer korrupsie.

Suid-Afrikaners sal saamstem dat die voorkoms van korrupsie in ons land tans angswekkend hoog is.

Die meeste mense kan hulle nie eens naasteby die omvang daarvan indink nie. Of dit die verkeersman is wat jou afpers om vir hom 'n hoenderhappie en 'n Coke te koop anders kry jy 'n boete, of die amptenaar by die munisipaliteit wat bereid is om vir jou 'n gunsie te doen wat dinge vir jou veel makliker sal maak as wat normaalweg die geval is, of die kontrakteur wat 'n hooggeplaasde amptenaar miljoene aanbied om 'n regeringskontrak te bekom. 'n Taamlik hooggeplaasde regeringsamptenaar het by geleentheid opgemerk dat korrupsie in die Afrika-kultuur absoluut "institutionalised" is. Soveel so dat baie mense nie eers kan insien dat dit verkeerd en uiteindelik heeltemal teenproduktief is nie.

Ook in Rustenburg het korrupsie die afgelope 20 jaar bykans dieselfde vlakke bereik. Niemand doen niks sonder 'n "ietsie ekstra" of beloning nie, punt. Só wyd is die voorkoms van die euwel, dat selfs die onskuldigste persoon half onwetend en onwillig in die strik trap.

As jy dit boonop eenkeer gedoen het, is die tweede en derde keer sommer veel makliker, al wat mettertyd blyk te verander, is die graad van korrupsie en die hoeveelheid geld/guns wat daarby betrokke is.

Eiendomseienaars met belasting geboelie

Die redakteur

Die kennisgewing (Rustenburg Herald 27 November 2020) deur die munisipaliteit ter insae van 'n voorlopige waardasierol, is 'n buitengewone stap wat geensins deur toepaslike wetgewing vereis of voorgeskryf word nie. Die munisipaliteit sal seer sekerlik argumenteer dat hulle die onnodige en buitengewone stap gedoen het in die gees van deursigtigheid? Sal dit nie 'n vars briesie wees nie?

Kommerwekkend is egter dat die voorlopige rol wat tans ter insae lê, geensins nuut is nie. Ek kon geen verskil vind tussen die 2020-rol en hierdie rol nie. Die waardasierol van 2020 is nie geimplimenteer nie juis agv die growwe nalatigheid van die waardeerder in bepaling van waardes van die eiendomme. Waardes wat drie tot vier keer meer is as wat die markwaarde van die eiendom is. En dit is steeds so! Ek weet nie of ek moet lag of huil nie.

Kan dit wees dat die rede vir die absurde waardes daarin geleë is dat die munisipaliteit deeglik kennis dra, dat die enigste manier om beswaar te maak teen die rol, is om teen elke individuele eiendom se waardasie apart beswaar te maak?

Geen kollektiewe beswaar word deur die wet toegelaat nie. Dat die munisipaliteit weet dat dit 'n substansiewe opponering behels en dat dit die belastingbetaler gaan geld kos om te doen? Dat almal nie die geld het om te opponeer nie en dat hulle op so 'n manier die eiendomseienaar in Rustenburg boelie in absurde belasting in?

Kan dit wees? Ja dit kan!

Music students
excel brilliantly

Carmen Traut het die uitsonderlike prestasie behaal om in haar matriekjaar die kwalifikasie ATCL in sang te behaal. Nou is sy ’n “associate of the Trinity College of London”. Omdat die eksaminators in 2020 nie na SA kon vlieg nie, moes sy haar 35min sangprogram eenmalig op video vaslê en dit is so oorgestuurd vir beoordeling. Baie geluk, Carmen. Sy is die afgelope jare deur Elsie Cunliffe onderrig. Sterkte met die toekomsplanne om verder aan die Operaskool in Kaapstad in musiek en sang te kwalifiseer. Sy het ook haar Graad 7 Unisa klaviereksamen onder Eunice van Wyngaardt verlede jaar geslaag en is reeds besig met Graad 7 viool. Harde werk en deursettingsvermoë sal altyd beloon word!

Congratulations on obtaining your Grade 4 music theory exam of Unisa, Simran Daya. She is a pupil of Elsie Cunliffe.

Thando Mtetwa did the Grade 5 Music Theory of Unisa examination in November 2020. Congratulations with your fine results. He is a pupil of Elsie Cunliffe.
