Crane topples over, overhead roof structure collapses

A scene in Waterval East that almost seems bizarre - not your everyday sight in and around town - or anywhere else for that matter. A crane that has toppled over as a result of "being overloaded" or perhaps incorrect operation could be a logical explanation. This scene has been left abandoned as if frozen in time in Waterval East for at least the past five weeks, if not longer. Rustenburg Herald managed to track down the relevant company but got no official comment from the company or any of its personnel. The scene had been shut down pending the outcome of an investigation by the insurance company and other parties. The Rustenburg public is strongly discouraged from approaching the scene for a closer inspection - this is dangerous, if not life-threatening! (Photo: Waldie Volschenk). Read story on p.13.

Fate of possible
tariff adjustment on assessment
rates decided today

RUSTENBURG HERALD -
RUSTENBURG - Property owners (business/residential/agriculture) who have been following the debacle/debate/development of the Rustenburg Municipality's controversial Valuation Roll and subsequently, the inevitable rising costs of assessment rates as a result, might just have a slight glimmer of hope that at least some of these rising costs could be avoided.

Rumours have had it lately that in light of the rather dramatic adjustment in general of Rustenburg's Valuation Roll 2021/25, the municipality has announced that a more palatable adjustment to the assessment rates only, is current being debated/considered by Council.

This was in fact currently under heavy debate by the municipality's Mayoral Committee on Finance earlier this week.

At the time of our going to print, the outcome of the issue was still being awaited. Keep watching Rustenburg Herald (and our website rustenburgherald.co.za) for more details as they break the news.

Voter registration weekend postponed

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Late last week the Independent Electoral Commission (IEC) announced that it has postponed the voter registration weekend by two weeks in light of the third wave of the Covid-19 pandemic currently sweeping the country.

The decision was made following a review of the current conditions, including the rate of infections and hospitalizations over the past few weeks and its impact on preparations for the registration weekend. The registration weekend has been rescheduled from 17-18 July to the weekend of July 31 to August 1.

"The commission has taken this very difficult decision in the interest of saving lives of voters, election staff, party representatives and all citizens while still preserving the Constitutional requirement to hold elections," said the IEC in a statement.

Six million fatality-free shifts at Pilanesberg Platinum Mine

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Pilanesberg Platinum Mine (PPM), a local Platinum Group Metals producer, recently announced that it had recorded over 6.2 million fatality-free shifts, which had been achieved over a period of 12 years.

To commemorate this milestone, PPM held a two-day event to celebrate this significant milestone.

The achievement highlights the true reflection of the mine's strives towards embedding a Zero Harm culture throughout its operations and has furthermore entrenched Zero Harm into its value system.

According to Willem Hagen, PPM's Compliance Manager, PPM works hard on reducing potential risks within its operations. He adds that although other role players in the industry normally reach this milestone in half the time PPM did, the 6.2 million fatality-free shifts over the 12-year period is an outstanding achievement for any mining operation.

"We are proud of the determination and commitment that the PPM team continues to display towards ensuring that the mine is a Zero Harm work environment. The achievement was only made possible through teamwork, dedication, cooperation and mutual support from the entire team (management, supervisors, union members, employees, and contractors). By remaining focused and continuing to strive towards achieving Zero Harm, we aim to celebrate another 12 years without incidents," Hagen said.

Casper Badenhorst, PPM's Chief Operating Officer, says that the mine has come a long way in ensuring that the correct measures and mechanisms are put in place to make safety a top priority.

Badenhorst added that PPM has dedicated significant resources and efforts to maintain its safety practices. "Safety is a top priority for us because our employees are our greatest assets. One of our company's main focus areas is to encourage the team to look out for the safety of one another, to ensure they come to work safe and return home to their families safely after each shift."

"Although PPM continues to introduce relevant mechanisms that promote Zero Harm; we believe that the best way to ensure Zero Harm remains a top priority at work, is to influence the mindsets and attitudes of our team," Badenhorst shared.

Newly established Office of Community Development: Royal Bafokeng

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Royal Bafokeng Administration is pleased to announce the establishment of its new Office of Community Development to live out the legacy of Her Majesty, the late Queen Mother of the Royal Bafokeng Nations (RBN), Dr Semane Bonolo Molotlegi (Mmemogolo).

According to a statement received, the Office of Community Development will continue the work carried out by the Office of Mmemogolo, a department within the Office of Kgosi. Anchored by its intention to alleviate poverty in the Bafokeng Villages, the office champions projects to sustain the livelihoods of women and children and it will report directly to the Office of Kgosi.

Mmemogolo played a pivotal role in helping the RBN develop into a modern community it is today. After her passing in December 2020, she left a legacy of strong advocacy for holistic development of communities-focusing on education, health, economic activities and general wellness.

This work will now be led by two Community Development Officers- Mme Maida Theresa Molotlegi and Mme Rebecca Monica Tumagole, both selected for their deep knowledge and strong track record of tackling issues facing the community.

Mme Rebecca Monica Tumagole has dedicated 28 years of her life to nurturing and educating young minds and is a long-standing member of the Royal Bafokeng's Woman's Club. Furthermore, she has been a ordained priest for 21 years and is currently the leader of the Anglican Church in Phokeng.

Mme Maida Theresa Molotlegi obtained her Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Sciences at the University of the North (now University of Limpopo) in 1970. She has 21 years of social work experience and a combination of skills that will be greatly beneficial to the Office of Community Development.

"We welcome these two remarkable women to the Office of Community Development and wish them all the best as they continue the critical work that Mmemogolo began," said Kgosi Leruo Molotlegi.

Another success for local 'Mounties'

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Four men were arrested here after they were found with an unlicensed firearm in their vehicle.

Francis Radebe (38), Mosoua Ntoi (36), Tholang Libitsa (41) and Marelebohile Ramaria (26) appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Monday (12 July) on a charge of possession of unlicensed firearm.

The case was postponed until next Monday (19 July) and the accused were remanded in custody.

The men's court appearance stems from an incident wherein members of the Rustenburg Mounted Unit spotted a suspicious Black Volkswagen Golf 4 while patrolling the city's CBD Thursday (8 July) at about 12:00.

Officers approached the vehicle, parked in Boom Street, and proceeded to search it. During their search, an unlicensed firearm was found hidden under a cloth on the rear seat.

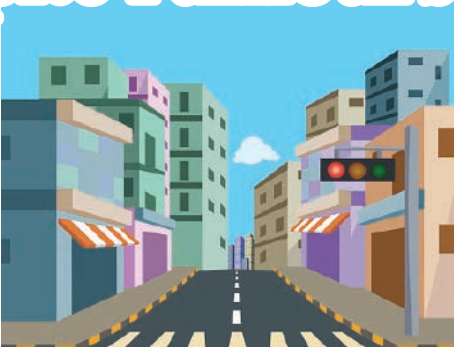

City calm despite rumours

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - No incidences of rioting or looting - or other forms of protests - have been reported here.

Rustenburg Police confirmed on Tuesday (13 July) that they are monitoring the city closely, but that no acts of violence have occurred.

According to North West Police, the province is currently also calm with no riots or looting taking place anywhere.

With people understandably on edge, there were rumours of incidents, but those proved to be inaccurate.

Vaccinations for 35 to 49-year-olds in August

Reason for violence and looting explained

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The One South Africa Movement (OSA) is disturbed by the widespread public looting and violence that has ensued in towns and cities across South Africa under the "shut down SA" banner.

"This is a serious threat that we dare not sugar coat. We cannot afford to decline into lawlessness and violence, or to be divided on lines of race and tribe- this will take us nowhere and simply flame more violence and division. ANC factionalism and ethno-nationalism are at the heart of this crisis. The ANC is fighting it out and the people are suffering. We the public must call out all leaders of the ANC for bringing us to this point. In truth the devastating socio-economic conditions in poor communities that allow politicians to exploit the needs of the disadvantaged for their own ulterior motives. The poor are being exploited, being used as pawns by powerful and selfish politicians. This must be denounced in the strongest of terms," a statement from OSA said.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Yes, babies can get Covid-19. And they are as vulnerable as the elderly.

While Covid-19 tends to be less severe in children, this protection does not extend to babies. Research has shown that infants under 1 year of age could get severe, even critical symptoms.

Monitoring a baby

As babies and young toddlers cannot verbally express their symptoms, parents and caregivers should find other ways of evaluating their health, such as taking their temperature and monitoring their breathing.

Some signs of respiratory distress in babies include:

- very rapid breathing, which is more than 60 breaths per minute in a newborn
- making snoring-like sounds when breathing
- sucking in the muscles surrounding the rib cage when breathing

- grunting
- flaring the nostrils in newborns.

Complications

Babies with Covid-19 can develop severe complications, such as:

- sepsis, a type of systemic infection that can damage the organs
- organ failure, especially of the kidneys
- heart failure
- hypoxia, which happens when the body cannot get enough oxygen, potentially damaging the brain and other organs.

Some children have developed a type of severe inflammation following Covid-19. This syndrome is called multisystem inflammatory syndrome in children (MIS-C). Doctors may also refer to it as pediatric multi-inflammatory syndrome (PMIS).

Covid: Gauteng at its peak?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A third wave of coronavirus cases in Gauteng may have peaked after daily infections surged to a record last week.

The one week average for infections in province, accounts to 11,503 on Tuesday, from 11,647 on Saturday.

"The tide seems to be turning", said Alex van den Heever, chairman of Social Security Systems Administration and Management Studies at Johannesburg's University of the Witwatersrand, citing data he compiled. "This may be the peak."

Daily new infections last week surpassed the previous record set during a second wave in January despite President Cyril Ramaphosa having placed the country in the strictest form of lockdown since May 2020.

Thari bus Services adds new buses to its fleet

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Transportation is an essential part of the development of any country.

A large part of the South African people rely on public transport to commute from one place to another, on a daily basis. This industry however, is constantly marred by a few challenges, some of which include low ridership because of the state of the vehicles and lack of accessibility to public transport in rural areas. However, buses have been regarded as a safer option compared to other modes of transport. This is the reason that bus operator, Thari Bus Services added 38 new buses to their fleet. The 38 are, according to the bus operator General Manager Collin Moodley, part of the 100 that are expected to have been replaced by the end of 2021.

“Today we proudly show these 38 buses and we envisage to replace a fleet of 100 buses before year end 2021. The pandemic has impacted the pace of arrival of the remaining 62.

With this massive upgrade we now seek to improve commuter reliability and safety and improve commuter reliability and safety and improve service delivery that allows us to be the number one in the area” said Moodley. The North West MEC for the department of community safety and transport management Sello Lehari, has given Thari a stamp of approval. He said while he was happy that the old buses are finally being replaced, he hoped that they would continue to serve the community of Bojanala with dignity.

While Thari waits for the process of the of licensing to be concluded, the bus operator will continue to serve the communities around the Bojanala District, including Rustenburg, Madibeng and Brits, the MEC has urged the bus operator to make sure that it gives back to the community.

“As a department, we will never cease to encourage the agenda for transformation. When you get business in North West, you must make sure that it remains in North West and that only the people of the North West benefit” he said. The 38 buses comprise of 20 Volkswagen 65-seater and 18 Mercedes Benz 66-seater.

Adjusted Level 4: The details

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - South Africa will remain on the adjusted Level 4 lockdown for the next two weeks.

But, don't get your hopes up - alcohol is still off the cards. The restrictions will now remain in place until 25 July. In his national address on Sunday (11 July), Ramaphosa said that there is no other option than to extend the lockdown in the hopes of curbing the spread of the devastating Delta variant of the Corona virus. At present, the country has over 200 000 active Covid-19 cases.

In the last two weeks over 4 200 South Africans have lost their lives to Covid-19.

“Our health system countrywide remains under pressure. By next week, daily hospital admissions across the country are likely to reach the levels observed during the peak of the first two waves. Covid-19 related deaths in hospitals are also increasing, and have surpassed those observed at the peak of the first wave,” the president said.

While Gauteng is still the epicentre of these infections, Ramaposa said that cases are now surging in other provinces with the healthcare sector increasingly under strain. Infections are rapidly increasing in the Western Cape, Limpopo, North West, KwaZulu-Natal and Mpumalanga, he said.

The following restrictions will remain in place:

- * The evening curfew remains in place from 21:00 – 04:00, and only those with permission to do so may leave their homes during this time;
- * All social, religious, and political gatherings remain prohibited;
- * Schools will remain closed until 26 July;
- * The sale of alcohol remains prohibited.

However, Ramaphosa said that some restrictions will be eased for some businesses. These include:

- * Restaurants and eateries will be able to operate as normal while observing strict protocols – Such establishments may not accommodate more than 50 people at a time or, for smaller venues, more than 50% of their normal capacity;
- * Certain other venues such as gyms and fitness centres may also reopen;
- * Agricultural activities such as livestock auctions will be permitted.

The president said that Cabinet has decided that all business licenses and permits that expired between March 2020 and June 2021 will remain valid until 31 December 2022. South Africa reported 11 182 new cases on Monday (12 July), taking the total number of active reported cases to 198 759.

A further 220 Covid-19 related deaths have been reported, taking total fatalities to 64 509 to date. In Northwest there was - on Monday - 24 805 active cases (110 618 reported, confirmed cases) with 2584 deaths. The province had 83 229 recoveries to date.

Impala Rustenburg rollouts vaccinations to workers

Impala Rustenburg has completed the first dose vaccination of more than 1 000 employees who are over 60 years of age and the first 800 of its employees who fall into the next 50 to 59 year age category as part of the government's Covid-19 vaccination rollout. Impala Rustenburg also vaccinated more than 820 of its healthcare workers in the first vaccination phase. Mark Munroe, Chief Executive of Impala Rustenburg, said the total number of people vaccinated at Impala Rustenburg now exceeds 4 000 and the vaccination programme is rapidly gaining momentum. Dr Jon Andrews, Implats' Group Executive for Health and Safety Executive, who has led the Group's medical response to the pandemic, said they were proud and privileged to have been able to assist the North West Department of Health with their vaccination programme since the start of the government rollout. For more information about registering for the vaccination, go to: <https://sacoronavirus.co.za/vaccine-updates/>. Ons groet Pam Janse van Rensburg

Ons groet Pam Janse van Rensburg (67), geliefde vrou, ma, ouma, suster, sielsgenoot vir baie, voormalige NW-VLU presidente en VLU-lid vanaf 1976, “Teacher at Grenville High School” (1983-2003). Pam het elke dag VOLUIT en positief geleef. Haar hart het gaan staan na 37 dae op ’n ventilator onder sedasie in die Zuid-Afrikaanse Hospitaal (28 dae na haar man, Dana). Sy was ’n formidabele geliefde dame wat ’n impak gemaak het op almal se lewens wat sy aangeraak het. Sy word reeds SO baie gemis... Pam word oorleef deur hulle vier kinders, drie skoondogters, ses kleinkinders en almal wat haar waardeur het en liefgehad het. Die familie wil almal bedank vir hulle boodskappe, omgee en gebede in hierdie tyd. Hierdie sal ’n Drive-in/Drive-thru begrafnis wees op die Plaas Rietfontein Derby, vir verdere reëlings gaan na die webtuiste: www.JvanRensburgs.com. Lees ook volgende week meer oor die diep voetspore wat hierdie besondere vrou in Rustenburg en omgewing getrap het.

Nickolaas Antonie Stols is op 1 Julie in die ouderdom van 57 jaar oorlede. Hy word oorleef deur sy vrou, ses stiefkinders, 10 kleinkinders en twee agterkleinkinders. Ons mis hom baie, sy stem het stil geraak, rus sag by Jesus se voete pa.

Die troosdiens van wyle Helen Bezuidenhout (71), wat op 11 Julie oorlede is, vind plaas op Maandag 19 Julie om 14:00 vanuit die OAK Proteapark, Moepellaan Rustenburg. Vir meer navrae skakel Cobus 081 379 8919 of Wilna 074 200 2687 by Econo Begrafnisdienste. ’n Diens met liefde en waardigheid deur Econo Begrafnis- en Verassingsdienste. (220204)

In liefdevolle herinnering aan my man Pieter Cilliers (08/08/1959 – 15/06/2021). Sy heengaan laat ’n groot leemte by sy vrou Sanet, kinders en familie en vriende. Almal wat hom liefhet gaan hom baie mis. Alle lof aan ons Hemelse Vader vir ons tyd saam. Ons weet hy is nou veilig en gesond in God se arms. Baie dankie aan pastoor Morné Lötter van die VEK-gemeente vir die roudiens gehou op 23 Junie. Dankie ook vir al die boodskappe van almal wat ons ontvang het. Groot waardering.

We remember with love Martin Dickerson. His book of life was opened in 1953. The last chapter was closed on July 7. Arrangements for his memorial service are made by Ruth. Due to Covid places are limited and attending the service will be by invitation only. For more details phone Cobus 081 379 8919 or Wilna 074 200 2687 at Econo Funeral Services (014) 597 2730. Geliefde inwoner van dorp oorlede

Die geliefde en bekende oom Piet Bezuidenhout, pa van die bekende voormalige Rustenburgse leraar - Johan Bezuidenhout - wat die afgelope naweek in die ouderdom van 84 jaar oorlede is. Oom Piet word oorleef deur sy eggenote - tannie Attie, vier kinders, ses kleinkinders en drie agterkleinkinders. Oom Piet het destyds as jong man van 21 in Rustenburg begin werk en ook hier sy aanstaande (tannie Attie) ontmoet. Die egpaar was uiteindelik vir 60 jaar en 11 maande getroud. Hy was op allerlei terreine - van rugby, skole tot kerksake - by die Rustenburg-gemeenskap betrokke. Oom Piet het die laaste 28 jaar van sy lewe teen kanker gestry. Die afskeidsdiens vind eerskomende Saterdag, 17 Julie, om 11:00 in Rustenburg plaas.

Rooi ballonne vir Janneman

Janneman Janse van Vuuren was die spreekwoordelike allemansvriend en nie almal wat wou, kon sy gedenkdien bywoon nie en daarom is sy lewe verlede week op gepaste wyse met rooi balonne herdenk en gevier. ’n Paar werkskollegas, vriende en mense van die publiek het besluit om Johannes Jacobus Janse van Vuuren se lewe met rooi balonne te herdenk. CST Security het kom erewag staan tydens die geleentheid.

Ouma Corrie oorlede

Ouma Corrie Wijnbeek het rustig in haar slaap op 13 Julie, na haar Hemelse Vader gegaan. Sy het 108 geseënde jare gehad, waarvoor ons die Vader dank. Die voorbeeld wat sy vir ons as gemeente van die Gereformeerde Kerk, Swartruggens, en haar eie groot familie, gestel het, sal ons altyd in ons harte bewaar. Haar plekkie in die kerkbank is leeg, maar in ons harte sal ons haar altyd onthou. Spesiale woord van dank aan ds Dirk, Nelriet en Dirk (junior) wat haar so mooi versorg het.

Crane collapse: Goliath steel support structure ripped to pieces

Waldie Volschenk

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Rustenburg residents in the area of Waterval East have been at a loss for words for several weeks now following the mysterious ‘toppling over’ of a big crane which obviously couldn’t handle the load it was carrying.

Furthermore it seemed to have entangled itself in a large section of the massive overhead steel support structure and finally ‘brought the roof down’ on it. Not only is this an unfamiliar, weird and surrealistic picture, but to make matters worse the scene seemed to have frozen in time and was left unchanged and untouched for probably five or six weeks now.

For the past couple of weeks already, just about everybody travelling to Gauteng in an eastern direction - especially in the vicinity of Waterval East as well as other residents who regularly drive past the area, have been asking questions and talked about the “phenomenon”.

It was only after a laborious struggle and perseverance that Rustenburg Herald managed to come to grips with what could possibly have happened.

Though Rustenburg Herald finally got a breakthrough on Monday this week and succeeded in locating the involved party and the company the crane belonged to, the manager (Mr X) wouldn’t identify himself (or his company) and refused to speak to us for publication purposes. We were however made to understand that indeed this was a “reportable incident” which took place during the construction of a roof structure of a new development.

From what one could gather from the scene, it seems that somehow, one or a couple of the overhead steel support structures that the crane operator must have attempted to lift, seemed to have been somewhat too much for the crane’s operating limits. The whole ‘thing’ then seemed to have collapsed pulling a number of steel support structures down on the crane which also toppled over. It is also clear that possible injuries to the operator or site workers can not be excluded. No information on this has however been made public at any stage.

As standard protocol dictates in incidents such as these, the construction site was subsequently shut down immediately and abandoned pending the outcome of an investigation by the insurance company and other relevant parties. As for the photographs however, these speak for themselves...

Like entangled in a spider’s web...

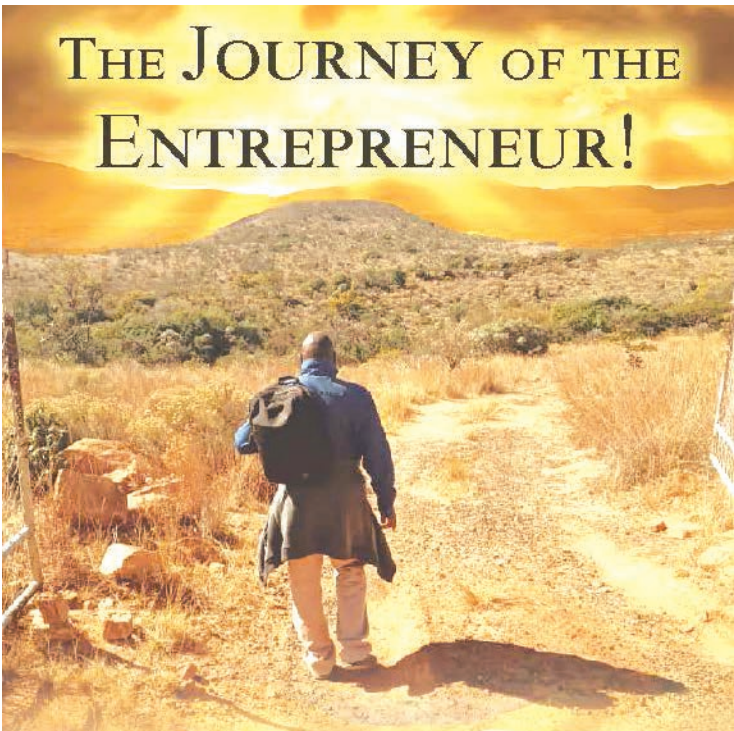

Yes, accidents like these do happen...

Só lyk 'n tevrede bakker.

Anneline van Huyssteen is 'n bakker vir wie jy gerus maar die kuns kan afvra. Wat bak sy? Wel, koekies wat gewis amper te mooi is om te eet, of nee, nie amper nie – dit is só mooi dat mense dit dikwels eenkant sit om te hou. Kyk gerus na die artikel en volg sommer ook ons video op die webtuiste - die skakel is onder geplaas sodat jy sonder sukkel by dit kan kom. Die kort en lank van Anneline se bakkuns is om fyn koekies te bak wat sy “Custom royal icing cookies” noem. Dit doen sy onder die vaandel van Cookies & Stuff wat sy uiteraard vanuit haar kombuis bedryf. Sy bak die koekies soos 'n mens min of meer gewone koekies bak, maar dan word dit op 'n eiesoortige en uiters kreatiewe manier versier om niks anders as heerlike kunswerkies te word nie. Ja, dit is vir die publiek beskikbaar en is ongelukkig nie regtig die “sweet cakes” waarvan die Engelse praat nie – maar dit is bekostigbaar vir iemand wat iets baie spesiaals wil hê. Onthou – die kuns lê in die versiering – geniet dit!

“Fancy” koekies

Bestanddele:

- 2 ¼ k Meel (All purpose)
- ½ t Bakpoeier
- ¼ t Sout
- ¾ k Botter
- ¾ k Suiker
- 2 x Eiers
- 1 x Vanilla Ekstrak

Metode:

Gooi die meel, bakpoeier en sout in 'n bak en meng goed. Klits die botter en suiker tot dit goed gemeng is, voeg eiers en Vanilla in die botter/suiker-mengsel en klits tot dit romerig vertoon. Voeg dan die droë bestanddele wat eerste voorberei is, by mengsel en roer, klits en vou tot die deeg gevorm is. Voorverhit die oond teen 180°C. Gooi bietjie meel op die werksblad, rol die deeg daarop uit en druk gewenste vorms uit met koekiedrukker. Plaas die koekies op 'n oondpan en bak die koekies vir tussen 7-9 min, sodra die kante van die koekies ligbruin word is die koekies reg. Laat die koekies eers afkoel voor dit van die oondpan afgehaal word.”

Om te versier:

Maak die basis-versiersuiker aan. Jy gaan 'n loperige beslag (versiersuiker) nodig hê vir die basis (agtergrond) van die koekie en 'n stywer beslag vir die details. Verdeel, verkleur en sit elke kleur in aparte versiersakkies. Kleure van die versiersuiker hang van die ontwerp van die koekies af, maar meestal speel jou verbeelding (of styl) die belangrikste rol. Wanneer dit gereed is, sny die gewenste grootte “gaatjie aan puntjie (hoekie van klein sakkie) sodat jy maklik met jou hand kan versier. Met 'n meer loperige beslag, versier die basis van die ontwerp op die koekie en laat dit droog word voor jy 'n ander kleur daarop sit. Ons noem dit “flood”. Laat die koekies vir minstens 3 ure staan om mooi droog te word. Wanneer die kleure op die koekie droog is, kan jy met 'n stywer “icing” die details begin. Laat staan die koekies vir minstens 4 ure om seker te maak die basis en details van die koekies is heeltemal gestol en droog voor verpakking. Lekker bak en brou!! Skakel Anneline van Cookies & Stuff by 076 463 7208 as jy nog wil weet of ongetwyfeld die kunstigste, heerlikste koekies in die dorp wil bestel!

Die klompie bestanddele is al wat nodig is...

Nou rol jy 'n dun lagie platkoekiedeeg uit.

Druk vormpies uit, lig versigtig op en plaas in koekiepan.

Laat koekies goed afkoel – baie goed – en begin dan versier. Anneline se behendigheid met die “kwas” is meesterlik! Sommer 'n paar verskillende kleure in die hoek van 'n plastieksakkie waarvan een puntjie presies afgeknip is.

En só lyk die seekoeitjie nou.

Is dit die gesig van ‘n demokrasie?

Sjoe die land brand! Zuma is in die tronk en soos sy ondersteuners ‘gewaarsku’ het, het chaos en anargie rondom ons losgebars. Paaie word versper, vragmotors word aan die brand gesteeek - tot meer as 40 al vandeeweek - winkelsentrums word geplunder en mense, veral joernaliste word links en regs in die openbaar beledig of aangeval of beide.

In 'n landswyse televisieboodskap het President Ramaphosa vandeeweek 'n oproep op die land se mense gedoen om te bedaar en die ongelukkige huidige situasie met oorleg en verantwoordelikheid te benader. "Daar is geen regverdiging vir enige vorm van geweld of intimidasie in die land nie, ons is 'n demokratiese land met 'n demokratiese-verkose regering en ons neem demokratiese besluite," het die president probeer paai. En juis, presies hier is waar 'n mens maar net eenvoudig die streep moet trek en aanvaar dat die gereg sy gang moet en sal gaan.

In president Ramaphosa se woorde was daar 'n groot waarheid opgesluit: In dié situasie is daar 'n absolute regsposisie wat te alle tye ingevolge die grondwet moet (en sal) geld.

Daar is baie mense ontevrede, baie mense gekwel, baie mense bekommerd en baie mense wat op een of ander manier ‘bedreig’ voel. Met Jacob Zuma in die tronk kan daar begrip hiervoor wees - maar slegs begrip. Die logiese pad om te volg om dié geskil op te los - is eenvoudig 'n verkiesing. Nee, ons stel nie 'n nuwe (of nog) 'n verkiesing of referendum voor nie - dit is onnodig omdat dit lankal reeds gedoen is en omdat ons juis nou met die gevolg daarvan gekonfronteer word.

Dit wat die ongekrapte skares nou doen; die chaos wat ontaard het, die skade aan die land se beeld, sy ekonomie, sy infrastruktuur en hulpbronne - al die dinge en dade is eenvoudig onwettig. Dit is onwettig omdat dit ONdemokraties is. Die besluite wat nou op die ‘tafel’ (ook die kamers van die Grondwetlike Hof) lê en wat geneem is, is die gevolg van 'n eenvoudige demokratiese proses wat hiertoe besluit het - basta - dit kan nie anders nie! Die enigste ander (wettige) opsie, is dalk nog die onderhandelingsstafel, of dan alternatiewelik - die volgende nasionale verkiesing - en dit is nie baie goue nie... Ons kan nie nou wet in eie hande neem omdat ons nie ons sin gekry het nie, omdat ‘ons man’ nie die wenner is nie. Vir die eenvoudige rede: Moet ons dan nou van die wetsgehoorsame samelewing verwag om ten spyte van hul deelname aan 'n demokratiese proses nou skielik "ons onwettige wil" te aanvaar en dan uiteraard seker - sonder slag of stoot - sonder om ook bedreig, kwaad, en ongelukkig te voel? In watter land in die wêreld kan dit so werk? (Ja, ons hoor jou...).

Is this the face of a democracy?

Wow, the country is on fire and is burning. Zuma finds himself in prison and just like his supporters have ‘warned’, chaos has erupted across the country. Roads and highways are blocked, trucks are set alight, (almost 40 over the weekend only), shopping centres are looted and people and especially journalists are abused or attacked in broad daylight!

In a countrywide television broadcast President Ramaphosa has called on the country and its people to calm down and to approach the current situation with caution and understanding and above all - responsibility.

“There is no justification for any kind of violence or intimidation in this country, we are a democratic country with a democratically elected government and we are taking democratic decisions”, the President pleaded. This exactly, is the entire and only point he ever needed to make: First, we will have to accept that the law shall and will find its course. There is a very simple absolutely legal position at stake here: Many people are angry, disappointed, troubled and feeling ‘threatened’. There are also those who are quite contempt with what have happened. With Zuma in prison perhaps one could possibly understand how and what feelings people might have on the issue, but absolutely nothing more! The logical road ahead is an election! No, we are not suggesting a new or another election or possibly even a referendum - this is totally unnecessary because this had already taken place earlier (in 2017 to be precise) and this has left us with the result thereof. What the angry crowds and protesters have been doing since last week and the ensuing damage caused to the country's image, our economy, our infrastructure, our resources and our people, is simply totally illegal! They are illegal because they are undemocratic. The decisions on the table, (also the chambers of the Constitutional Court) are those that have been enforced since early last week. They are the result of a democratic process and decisions - there is nothing more. The only other (legal) option, is the negotiation table, and then alternatively, the next national election which is not around soon.

None of us can simply take the law into our own hands because some decisions do not suit us? Do we then expect the millions of other law-abiding citizens to accept our will on the issue in spite of their participation in the country's democratic processes? And also then, do we also expect those in favour of the current decisions, to simply put up with our will without feelings of anger, frustration, protests and violence? In which country in the world does it work like that? (Yes, we heard that...).

NW Business speaks out against looting

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The North West Chamber of Commerce and Industry issued a statement in which they strongly condemns the looting of businesses and the destruction of buildings and other vital economic infrastructure.

"These actions are unacceptable and cannot be allowed. We support the President of the Country in calling these actions nothing else than lawlessness and it cannot be part of peaceful protesting. The South Africa economy is in dire straits and unemployment is already sky high. Actions like these will just increase unemployment and weaken the economy further," said

Nick Setsetse, NW Business chairman. By Tuesday afternoon (13 July), the North West Province was relatively calm. "We would like to thank the people of the Province for their restraint to take part in these actions of criminality. We urge all our members to stay calm and vigilant to ensure that we are not influenced by these looting and destructive incidents," said Setsetse.

He added that the Chamber appeal to government at all levels to work and engage with business and other social partners in addressing unemployment as being the main reason for these actions where protest becomes violent and turns into what is now happening.

Home burns down, assistance sought

The editor

I live in Meriting with five of my children who are unemployed and I am also unemployed. Last week tragedy struck when the house that we are living in caught fire. Fortunately me and my children managed to get to safety, however all our valuables, clothes as well as important documents were lost in the blaze. The cause of the fire is still unknown. I have attempted to ask for assistance from the Rustenburg Local Municipality however they said they cannot assist but only provided us with mattresses. I write this letter with the hope that there could be someone out there who can help us rebuild our lives. Anyone who is willing to assist can contact us on the following numbers: 072 372 3591 or 072 804 9427. Mamiki Motsewabangwe (Meriting)

Baie dankie

Die redakteur,

Net 'n woordjie van dank vir jul welwillendheid om so dikwels Huis Sering se blokraai- en soduko-inskrywings te trek. Dis 'n wonderlike en welkome meevaller. Ons het besluit dat elke wenner in die toekoms R50 gaan afstaan vir ons Helpende Handefonds. Ons moes al twee jaar gelede daaraan gedink het, dan sou ons deur jul goedhartigheid, reeds 'n stewige bedraggie kon bydra vir genoemde fonds. Helpende Hande brei en werksaf om aan die einde van elke jaar skenkings aan kinderhuise te maak - onlangs was Môrester Kinderhuis ons "teiken". Nogmaals, baie dankie". Sering inwoners.

Barmhartige Samaritane

Geagte redakteur,

Ek wil net graag weereens dankie sê vir die man en dame wat hulp aan my verleen het toe ek die afgelope naweek op die roltrap by die Pick n Pay sentrum geval het. Ek waardeer dit opreg. Dit is verblydend om te weet dat goeie mense soos julle nog bestaan.”

Coffee-on-the-Go tot die redding

Woensdag (7 Julie) het onderwysers in hul hordes opgeruk na inentingstasies om hul Covid-inentings te ontvang. By Peglerae se inentingstasie (ou La Femme) was dit dan ook nie anders nie en het die rye om die hoek gestaan. Gelukkig het Melkstal se nou reeds bekende Coffee-on-the-Go tot menige "rystaners" se redding gekom en kon 'n heerlike lafenis (cappuccino, koffietjie) geniet word terwyl daar gewag word om ingeënt te word. Sammy Norris en Neo was reg om die mense in die lang rye te help of diegene wat na die entery uitgekom het om met 'n heerlike koffie of cappuccino verras te word. Coffee-on-the-Go het darem die lank wag so klein bietjie draagliker gemaak vir die menige onderwysers en lede van die publiek wat die lang rye moes trotseer om ingeënt te word teen Covid-19 wat die land in 'n derde vlaag getref het.

CREATING A SYMBOL OF HOPE FOR BERSEBA

Sport can play a positive role in bringing communities together, but only if facilities are available for people to enjoy its benefits. When Glencore uncovered the need for a sports field in the Berseba community near its Rhovan Mine and Smelter in the Rustenburg area, the company sprang into action.

With the help of local contractors, Matlafala Trading, a brand-new sports field was created that stands as a proud symbol of hope.

Not only do members of the local community, as well as children from Berseba Primary School benefit from the new sports field, it also contributes towards improved standards of living in communities near our operations, through the economic benefits associated with using local contractors.

Novak should get 25 - John McEnroe

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "It will be a "major surprise" if Novak Djokovic does not win 25 Grand Slams."

This is the expert opinion of tennis legend John McEnroe.

McEnroe spoke after Djokovic (34) claimed a record-equaling 20th men's title by beating Italy's Matteo Berrettini in Sunday's Wimbledon final, matching the record held by Roger Federer and Rafael Nadal.

Only Margaret Court, Serena Williams and Steffi Graf have more, but said McEnroe in an interview, he expects Djokovic to surpass them too.

"Djokovic is playing better than he has ever played," he told BBC Sport. "I think he will probably win at least four or five more, obviously depending on staying healthy."

After triumphing in the Australian Open and French Open too, Serbia's Djokovic has now won all three Grand Slam titles this year. With the Olympics and US Open coming up, he could emulate Graf's 1988 'Golden Slam', though says he is "50/50" about playing in Tokyo.

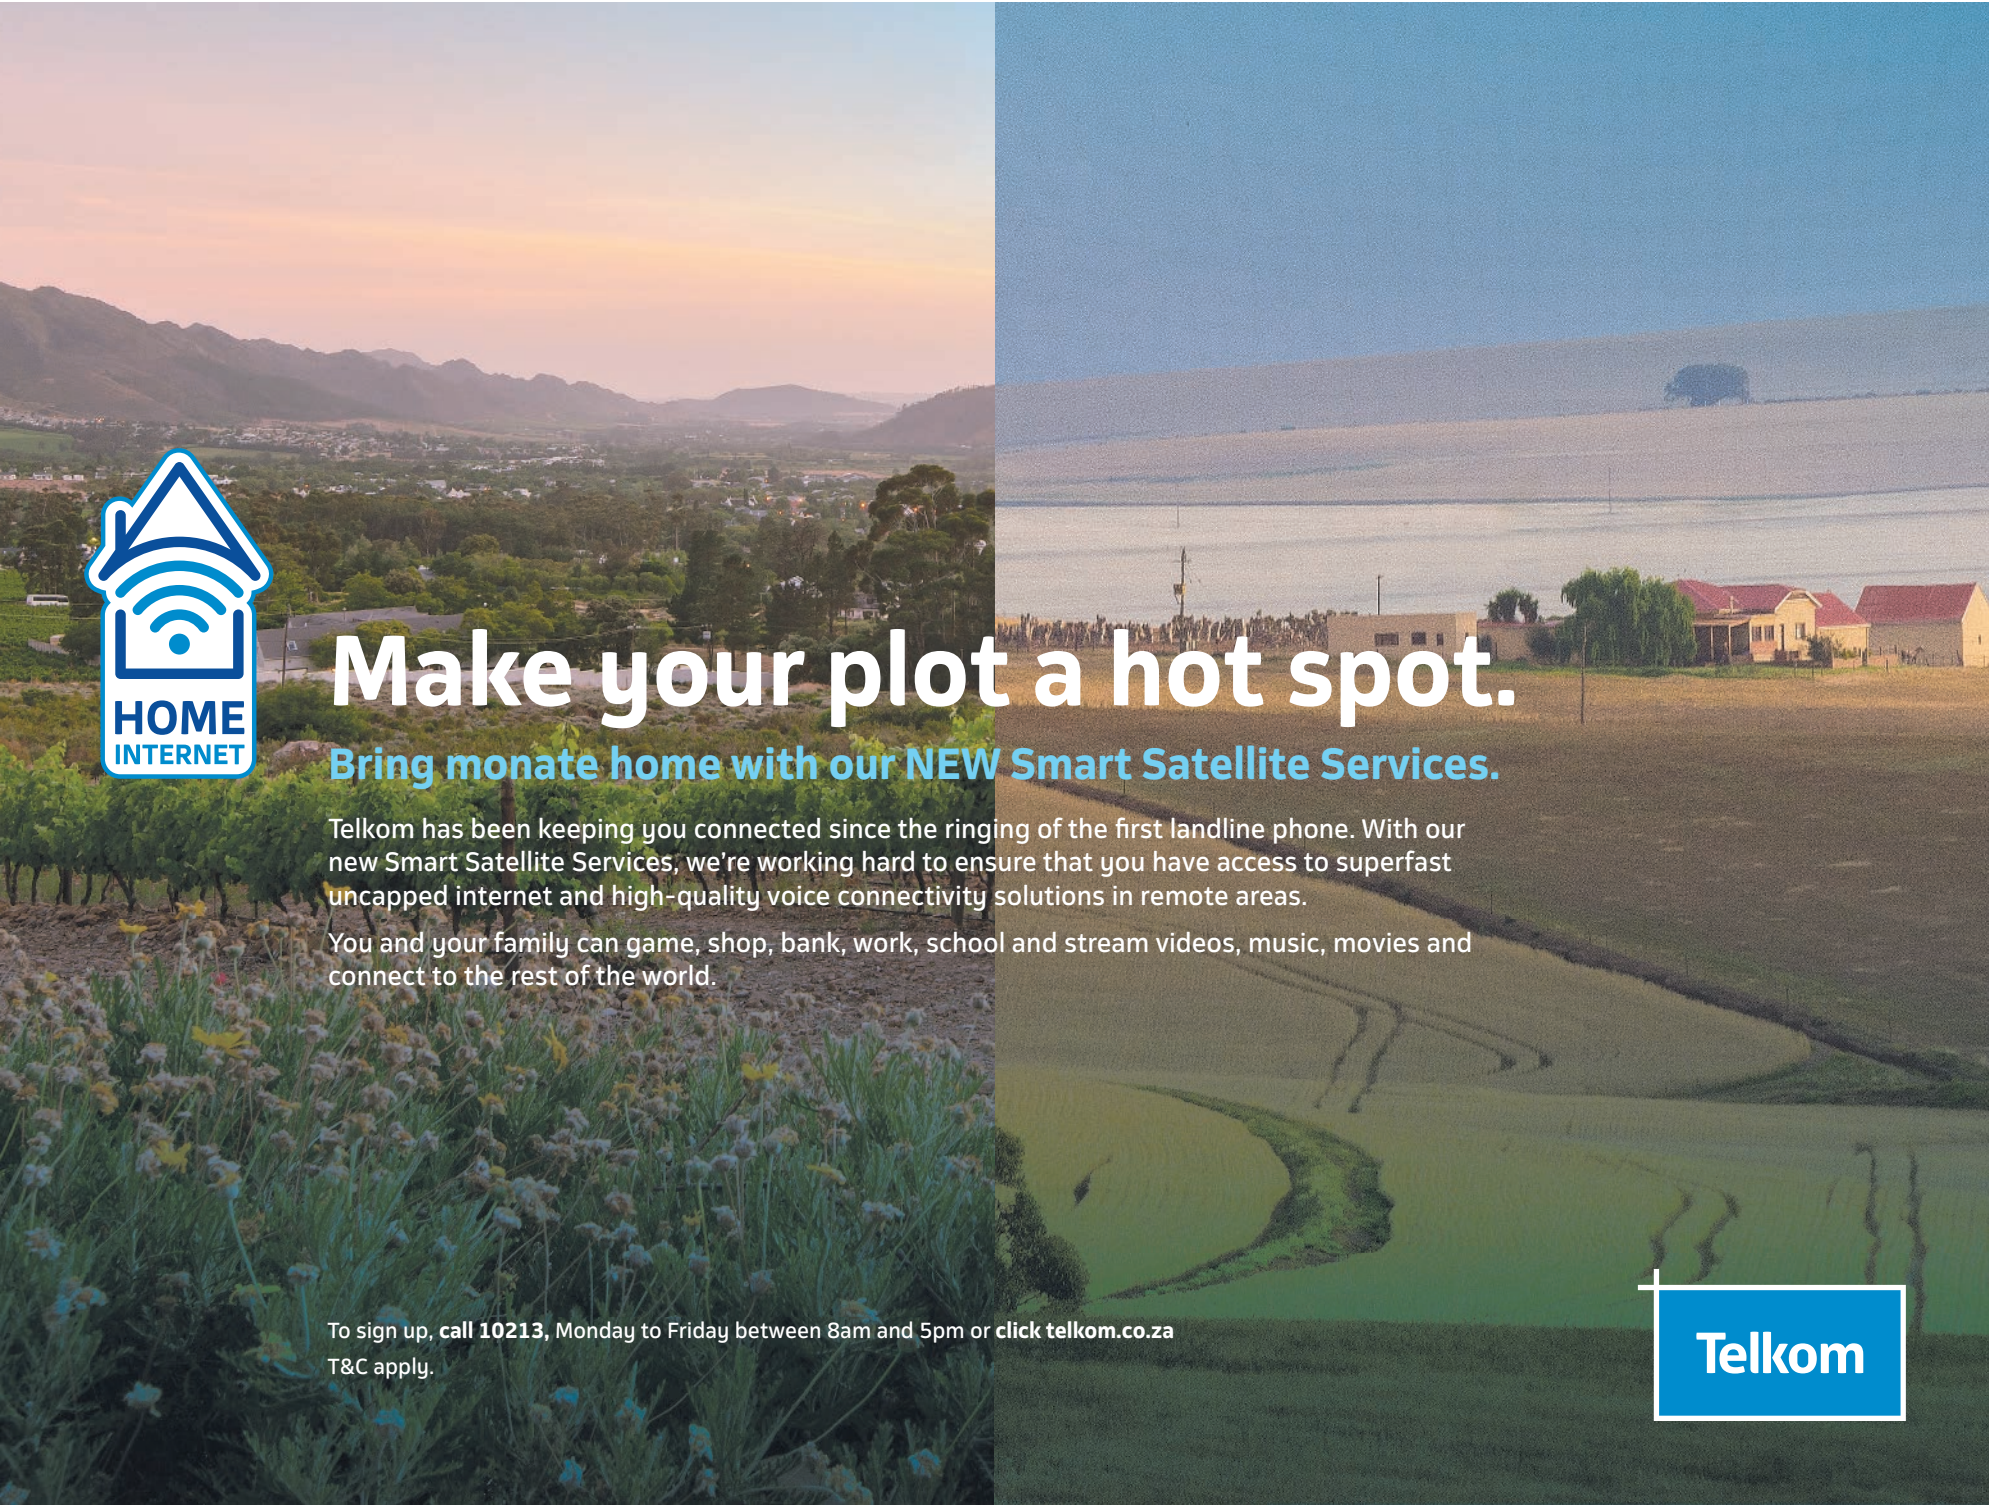

"Djokovic has put himself so far out in front of everyone in terms of his ability to embrace what he is doing - in terms of creating history - and being able to execute under a lot of stress," said McEnroe. McEnroe himself won seven Grand Slam single titles during his career. What is undisputable, is that Novak Djokovic is definitely an extremely likely contender for the title of GOAT (greatest of all time), the other being Roger Federer and Rafa Nadal.

"It's rare when you get three guys who are playing at the same time and it would be hard to argue they aren't the best three players ever.

That's not just based on the number of majors, which obviously is a big thing, but their overall bodies of work. There is plenty to talk about with these guys," said McEnroe.

He jokingly concluded the interview by saying that if someone had told him when he was playing that there would not only be one guy to win 20 majors, but there would be three, he would have said the same thing as what he said to the umpire in 1981 - you cannot be serious!

Novak Djokovic is rewriting tennis history. And he's not finished yet.
