Rustenburg Herald

A brief moment in time

‘n Foto wat die tyd vir ‘n oomblik laat stilstaan. ‘n Vlugtige stukkie nostalgie uit ‘n sluimerende Rustenburg bykans 60 jaar gelede - niks langer gelede as wat vir mense bekend sal lyk nie en al wat nodig is om te dink: “Haai - ek was daar, dit voel soos gister...” Die foto is vanuit Pleinstraat Rustenburg in ‘n westelike rigting geneem - daar waar Modern Trend van Basie Joubert en die Rustlers (aan die linkerkant effens in die voorgrond) dekades gelede was met talle ander bekende landmerke soos die ou Landdrosgebou in Kaap Hollandse styl (regs). Miskien kan jy onthou waar jy was in die tyd toe hierdie (onbekende) fotograaf die knoppie gedruk het. Uit die voertuie op die foto kan ons aflei dat dit tussen 1956 en 1968/9 moes wees - dit kon trouens tot baie vroeg in die sewentigerjare gewees het.

Many of us can remember our little town in those days - the “boys” (we wonder how old most of them are now?) will do well in recognising the popular vehicles of the day. Some of the cars that we could identify are a 1956/7 Ford Customline (at the right, front), a Studebaker, two Valiants, a Datsun 1500 Bluebird pickup, a late fifties/mid sixties Chevrolet pickup (in the parking bay on the left), a Mini by Leyland, a Volkswagen Beetle and Volkswagen Sedan, Mercedes-Benz, a Peugeot 504 and something that looks alarmingly close to a Chevrolet El Camino on the right which of course, could turn our dating of the photograph on its head. The days of yesteryear, how swiftly they have passed us by.

Please support foody bins

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - In a renewed campaign to rush to the aid of the Rustenburg SPCA several new innovations were recently adopted.

Probably some of the most obvious of these are the bright blue "foody bins" (wheelie bins that are placed out in the community as collection points for all kinds of pet food, dog food, cat food, or anything else that you feel like contributing.

"These "foody bins are placed at businesses and schools in Rustenburg so as to raise awareness and request food donations to assist in feeding the animals at the Rustenburg SPCA. The financial position at the Rustenburg SPCA is dire and we request any business owner, school or individual that could place a bin on their premises to receive donations to do so", a prominent Rustenburg patron of the SPCA and in future responsible for many roll-outs of special events and campaigns to benefit the Rustenburg SPCA and ultimately, our beloved pets and all animals in the care of the SPCA, told Rustenburg Herald. In the accompanying photographs there are exampes of the "blue foody bins" that have been placed out at prominent community centers such as Tuscany Spar, Little Genius Naskool, Theresa School of Dance, and hopefully soon, numerous other spots around town. The Rustenburg public who indeed are hard-pressed for time, are encouraged if not implored, to support this drive entirely and only aimed at the welfare of the animals in our town. Lets become a proud city again - one that cares for its human beings and animals!!!

An example of the "foody bins" which are being placed out at community centres in Rustenburg to serve as collection points for dog and cat food and anything else that the public might donate. There is a great need for the public's support in Rustenburg, perhaps the greatest ever and the public is wholeheartedly encouraged to support this drive. "Come on - we have made it much easier for everyone to become involved - simply "do" whenever you notice one of these bins somewhere in town!"

Tap water needs no home treatment

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Rand Water has recently issued a statement urging customers to beware of misleading marketing initiatives aimed at promoting the use of home-based water treatment devices.

"Home water treatment devices provide no benefit to customers as the water supplied by Rand Water undergoes a rigorous purification process before distribution to its customers," the statement said. Rand Water further said that traders use ambiguous statements to market home-based water treatment devices such as domestic water filters for "health reasons". These statements often mislead consumers into purchasing water treatment devices that provide no benefits. Rand Water would like to reiterate that it supplies water that is safe for human consumption and its customers (municipalities) maintain a extensive water quality monitoring programme to assure consumers of safe and healthy water.

Protest action

Road barricaded with burning tyres.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - On Tuesday morning (June 29), there were reports that the R24 and R104 was affected by protest action particularly at the entrance of the mines.

It is alleged that the protest was related to workers who were reportedly protesting about a Mine. The entrance towards the mines was blocked with burning tyres.

No reports of violence or damage to property were made. The police were at the scene to monitor the situation.

By our time of going to press no information was available as to why the disgruntled group took to the streets.

The entrance to the mines on the R24 was closed temporarily.

DA asks for extension of TERS

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - After President Cyril Ramaphosa's announcement that South Africa will return to much stricter lockdown regulations, the Democratic Alliance (DA) has requested government to re-open the Unemployment Insurance Fund (UIF)'s Covid-19 Temporary Employer-Employee Relief (Ters) scheme.

This, the DA says, is to assist businesses that won't be able to operate over the next 14 days. The tougher lockdown will deal a devastating blow to many enterprises in the liquor industry, the restaurant and hospitality sectors, as well as tourism, weddings and conferencing.

"The new lockdown regulations will threaten the livelihoods of thousands of employees who are unable to earn an income," said Dr Michael Cardo, DA Shadow Minister of Employment and Labour. The Covid-19 Ters scheme came to an end in March.

Visiting hours suspended at Moses Kotane Hospital

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Notice is hereby given to community members that visiting hours at Moses Kotane Hospital have been temporarily suspended with effect from June 25 until further notice.

This according to a statement from the hospital is to ensure that the spread of coronavirus is reduced.

The hospital apologised for the inconvenience this may cause.

Vaccine now available for 50-59-year-olds

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Those 50-59-year-old can get ready to roll up their sleeves to get their jab.

Government will be opening up Covid-19 vaccine registrations to more age groups nationally from this week.

The acting health minister Mammoloko Kubayi-Ngubane has made the announcement last week.

Kubayi-Ngubane said that registration will open on the electronic vaccination data system (EVDS) from July 1. Vaccinations for this age group are scheduled to begin on July 15.

Venue has neighbours up in arms

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The apparent total disregard for lockdown regulations at a venue outside the city had some neighbours of the place up in arms.

People resorted to calling the police on Saturday evening when loud music and a large number of patrons partied on at the venue way after the lockdown curfew of 22:00 started.

"The police did came. But they waited outside and then left without stopping the party," one angry resident told the newspaper.

"We are very aware of the incident. The police could not gain access to the premises as the gates were locked. But the incident is receiving our attention," Sgt Ofentse Mokgadi said in response to an enquiry.

According to Sgt Mokgadi, Police attended to a number of venues to past weekend where Covid regulations were disregarded. "We fined three establishments for contravening regulations," he added.

Level 4 lockdown: Another mountain to climb

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - In the last 15 months South Africans have come to learn that, as soon as we overcome one Covid-19 obstacle, the next is waiting.

At a time when most people have thought that the pandemic will be well and truly behind us, we have moved back to a level 4 lockdown. The new Covid-19 variant, Delta, is proving to be more transmissible than any of its predecessors and five of the country's nine provinces are experiencing infections rates that are, to put it mildly, alarming. Gauteng has emerged as the new epicenter with 60% of all new infections currently registering in this province. The new adjusted alert Level 4 regulations came into effect on Monday (June 28) and will, for now, be in place until July 11. The regulations include:

* The sale of alcohol is prohibited - on and off site.

* The curfew is between 21:00 - 04:00. In effect this means any business operating at night must close at 20:00.

* Gatherings: All gatherings are prohibited. This include political, cultural, social and religious gatherings

* Funerals and cremations will be allowed, but no more than 50 people may attend. All after funeral gatherings, as well as night vigils before funerals are prohibited.

* Restaurants and other eateries may only sell take-aways or deliveries.

* Schools must be closed no later than Friday (July 2).

* Universities and all other tertiary institutions must close from Wednesday (June 30). University residences may stay open.

* Travel: Travel, for leisure purposes, to and out of Gauteng is prohibited. But there are exceptions for businesses, and the transport of goods.

* All businesses must attempt to let their employees work from home and postpone all travel and trips.

* Masks: wearing of a mask is compulsory and not wearing it in public is a criminal offence.

BUILDING OUR FUTURE
ONE LEARNER AT A TIME

Get to know
Keamogetse Mataboge

"Your perseverance and commitment are key in building your future"

Keamogetse Mataboge (20), who grew up in Tsitsing, is an aspiring diesel mechanic who joined the Impala learnership programme in June 2020.

Mataboge applied to join the Impala learnership programme, an initiative that was developed to empower local community youth, because she enjoys using her hands. She thrives on the practical exposure she is receiving from the programme, and regards it as one of the most exciting aspects of being on the learnership journey.

Mataboge, who describes her mother as her rock, is on a quest for knowledge and experience, which she will undoubtedly receive through the learnership programme. With the discipline of diesel mechanics being widely regarded as male-dominated, Mataboge found herself initially intimidated and felt that she would be overlooked, but she says that "the Impala family does not make you feel like you are in a male-dominated industry. We all work together."

The soon-to-be artisan, who has overcome what she describes as a difficult upbringing, hopes that through her hard work she will inspire many young women and challenge the gender stereotype associated with the mining industry. She believes in showing people that all things are achievable through hard work. "Your background and upbringing should never discourage you".

About the Impala Learnership Programme

- The programme was developed to assist in developing local community youths through registered artisan programmes to make them employable.
- Learners are trained through the Artisan Development Programme which is registered with the Mining Qualification Authority and Quality Council for Trades and Occupations.
- The programme runs for three years and it offers training in electrical, fitting, diesel mechanic, boilermaking, rigging and instrument mechanic.
- More than 1000 learners from the different mining communities have gone through the programme.
- The programme includes both theory and practical training throughout different work areas around Impala, such as underground, plant and service areas.
- Applicants need a minimum of an N2 certificate with 4 subjects relevant to a trade, physical fitness to work on the mine and proof of residence within the local communities.
- The programme has benefitted the communities immensely and most of the artisan labour that is currently employed by Impala went through the learnership programme.

Hospital accelerating quality health

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital strives for the provision of quality health care services to all Bojanala District. In the provision of health care services, the hospital is guided and conforms to Batho Pele Principle, Public Service Regulation of 2016 (code of conduct) and Patients Rights Charter as an entity of government, which all employees are expected to abide by.

The hospital and staff members continuously work towards a common goal of providing high quality health care to all. To achieve this, members of the public are encouraged to report unprofessionalism displayed by JST staff members. The hospital has put measures in place to ensure that professionalism is maintained and accelerate service delivery to both patients and customers. "The Management of JST hospital does not tolerate unethical behavior that contradicts the Batho Pele principles towards patients and customers. In order to maintain the desired professional and work culture, JST staff members are compelled to wear identification tags at all times.

Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital suspends visiting hours

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Following the announcement by president Cyril Ramaphosa that South Africa has moved to lockdown level 4, Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital has decided to suspend visiting hours with effect from 29 June 2021, until further notice.

The decision to suspend visiting hours according to Kagiso Mbaiwa, spokesperson of the hospital, is to reduce cross infection of COVID-19 amongst patients, staff members and the public at large. In instances where the condition of the patient warrants visitation of family members or next of kin, this should be arranged with the ward management. The hospital apologized for the inconvenience this might cause.

Delta invades Israel - despite vaccinations

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Even with South Africans older than 50 now getting the opportunity to get the Covid-19 vaccine, the country is still far behind other nations in getting their people protected against the virus.

But, it seems not even being fully vaccinated gives you 100 percent protection - specially against the dreaded Delta variant. Israel has been a trailblazer in the post-pandemic world, largely returning to normal in May following one of the world's fastest vaccination drives.

But dozens of new cases recently emerged at schools in two cities, Modiin and Binyamina, leading to hundreds of people being quarantined. However, despite the new outbreak, the country's current death rate remains close to zero, and only 26 of 729 active coronavirus patients were hospitalized, according to data released by the Health Ministry in Israel. Many of those who contracted the Delta variant had been vaccinated, according to the director general of the Health Ministry, Prof. Chezy Levy, though he did not specify if they had had one or two doses. The Delta variant is unlikely to pose much risk to people who have been fully vaccinated, experts have said. Israel has relied on the two-dose mRNA vaccines made by Pfizer-BioNTech and Moderna. Before the recent outbreak, the daily caseload in Israel had fallen close to zero.

“House of horrors on our doorstep”

Waldie Volschenk

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Yes, apparently Rustenburg has at least a dozens of these - the so-called “house of horrors” and as had been proved by quite a few sister towns and cities around the country, the Platinum city is quite not on its own in this.

As a matter of fact, it seems that virtually each and every little town or big city has at least one “house of horrors” and some of these dozens if not more. It is a sign of the time - or is it? On the other hand - should it be or should it be tolerated and if so - why on earth?

Residents on the western side of Marais Street in uptown, or “bodorp” as this traditional area in Rustenburg is known are beyond comprehension and don’t know who to turn to. An old, quite common residential dwelling (standard house) became these residents’ “house of horrors” as a result of all kinds of unthinkably wicked and profane things picking up here shortly after the dusk hour every single day - for weeks - for months.

All kind of evil spells - prostitution, a flourishing drug trade, alcohol abuse and illegal trade in alcohol/shebeen, a “home” for criminals involved in crime such as burglaries, theft, public indecency and the list goes on and on. In the past five to eight months, several residents here have fallen victim to a variety of these crimes such as arson, burglary, theft from motor vehicles, prostitution with cars arriving and departing from dusk till dawn day in, day out and horror goes on and on.

Some of the unfortunate residents/owners whose property borders this terrifying place, have approached Rustenburg Herald in a desperate for help because, yes, you could have guessed it - noboby listens, nobody is interested - nobody cares in the least. Just another day in our busy lives with complaints and joys like any other - not my problem...

A few simply facts: As far as could be established, the property (34A Marais Street) is the property of the now defunct (or on the brink of defunct) North West Development Corporation, which at some time, occupied the property themselves. Later on - or earlier, it was leased by Ithuba - the former company overseeing the Lotto. For the past five to eight months however, nothing, nobody, just the horrors... Now we ask ourselves (and our municipality): Is this fair? Is this tolerated? what can these people do and just how long will it take? No, we don’t have these answers yet - but we will have soon, if only to illustrate that in this town and in this country for as far as we can help it - there is a right way and a wrong way - this is the wrong way and it cannot be allowed for a single day longer! (Keep watching Rustenburg Herald for just how this story is going to unfold! - hopefully very soon!

Don’t be fooled by this tranquil setting - you’d be surprised what awaits you on the other side.

There is no end to the noise, pollution and destruction.

A picture paints a thousand words - or does it?

Rustenburg verloor 'n opregte allemansvriend

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "Op 26 Junie 2021 het Rustenburg 'n groot gees verloor. Janneman van Vuuren was opgeneem in Peglerae Hospitaal vir longonsteking waarna hy positief getoets is vir Covid. Om te sê die hele wêreld het vir hom gebid is nie 'n oordrywing nie! Ons is oorweldig deur almal wat gebel het, navraag gedoen het en saam met ons gebid het vir Janneman.

Janneman was in Hoërskool Rustenburg (RHS) waarna hy lank aan Saambou Bank en Standard Bank verbonde was. Later was hy ook bekend in die eiendoms- en motorbedryf. Janneman was 'n groot man met 'n sagte en klein hartjie wat soveel liefde gehad het vir almal. Mense sal hom onthou as die man met die lekker lag en die groot glimlag. Hy het ook 'n vlymskerp humorsin gehad wat almal altyd laat lag het. Liesha, Annemie, Vidette asook sy moeder Rina en die hele hele Van Vuuren-familie wil opreg dankie sê vir al julle liefde, omgee, gebede en oproepe. Janneman was baie geliefd deur almal en sy afsterwe laat 'n groot leemte in baie se lewens". Die roudiens sal om 11:00 op Donderdag 8 Julie gehou word. As gevolg van Covid is daar beperkte spasie en sal bywoning slegs op uitnodiging geskied. “Lighthouse is op die lug”

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "Lighthouse Children's Home" versorg tans 47 kinders tussen die ouderdomme van 3 maande en 14 jaar. Daar is 18 skoolgaande kinders en met dié dat skole van tyd tot tyd gesluit was en werk by die huis gedoen moes word, het dit vir 'n ongelooflike "kopseer" gesorg oor hoe hierdie 18 kinders hulle werk gedoen kan kry.

Elsa Doubell moes die werk druk by haar huis en het dan met pakke en pakke werk by "Lighthouse" aangekom waar die huisma Caz van der Westhuizen en helpers moes sorg dat elke kind se werk gedoen word. Dit het net 'n onbegonne taak geword aangesien die kinders in verskillende grade en skole is. Bergsig Akademie het bewus geword van "Lighthouse Children's Home" se penarie en het 'n rekenaarkamer op die perseel met 5 rekenaars toegerus. LCS Consensus het 'n drukker en wifi gegee en sodoende kan die kinders darem nou ook hul werk op datum hou en doen. Met die nuwe regulasies kon hierdie skenkings seker nie op 'n beter tyd gekom het nie en is die eienaars, kinders en almal betrokke by "Lighthouse Children's Home" ongelooflik dankbaar vir die skenkings. Ook wil hulle baie graag almal betrokke bedank vir die kragopwekker wat aan hulle geskenk is, dit is in hierdie tyd van beurtkrag en kragonderbrekings net so groot skenking, baie dankie aan almal vir die skenkings.

Vir die eienaars van "Lighthouse Children's Home", Elsa Doubell, Gaylen Coelho en Amorie Nortje is die opvoeding van die kinders van kardinale belang en daarom is dit met groot dankbaarheid dat hulle almal wat betrokke is by "Lighthouse" en gehelp het met hierdie groot skenkings dat die opvoeding van die kinders nie agterweë bly nie, bedank.

Baie dankie aan die gemeenskap van Rustenburg vir die skenking van hul kragopwekker, die kinders was sommer baie opgewonde.

Reigning Miss South Africa, Shudufhadzo Musida with learners of Boitekong.

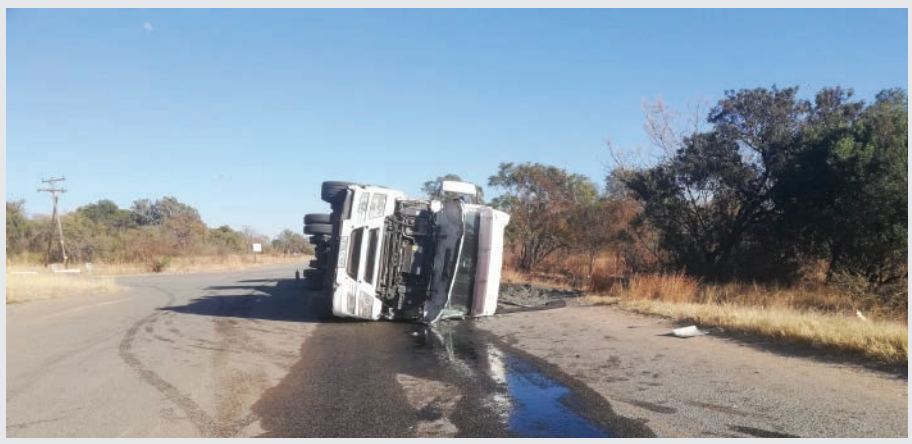
Miss South Africa in Rustenburg

RUSTENBURG HERALD - BOITEKONG - The reigning Miss South Africa, Shudufhadzo Musida, believes that mental health has to be spoken about openly.

She articulated her view that the stigma attached to mental illness issues has to end in an address to learners at Boitekong Secondary School and Meritig Secondary School in Rustenburg, Northwest, on Thursday (June 24). Shudu was a guest of the Adopt-a-School Foundation, an entity of the Cyril Ramaphosa Foundation. In partnership with JSE-listed mining company Merafe Resources, Adopt-a-School Foundation hosted a Health, Sanitation and Sexuality Awareness Campaign at Boitekong Secondary School and Meriting Secondary School in the North West Province.

This campaign is part of a broader Social Welfare project funded by Merafe Resources. The campaign aims to educate learners about puberty and their transition into adulthood, helping them to make informed choices. Sexuality Education offers learners useful information on sexuality, puberty, menstruation, male reproductive health, relationships, contraception, teenage pregnancy and STIs, including HIV/AIDS. Shudu said she was delighted to be able to talk to the young adults about mental health. “I have been told that this school was established in 2006 by the Boitekong community and Government. Before that, learners had to walk 15 kilometres to a neighbouring school,” Shudu said.

This truck a “sidewinder?”



This heavy truck overturned close to the Lapologang turnoff on the N4/ Buffelspoort Road during the course of Sunday night. The exact time of the accident is unknown. The truck and its content were the only signs of the accident when it was discovered by passing motorists on Monday morning. Rumour has it that the driver of the truck has been injured and was admitted in hospital in Rustenburg. At the time of Rustenburg Herald’s going to print no further information was available.

Anita van Zijl du Plooy.

Anita du Plooy - a true ambassador of Rustenburg

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Anita van Zijl du Plooy of Zietsman-Horn Inc, Rustenburg has been awarded a Certificate of excellence (LAW) by Woman's Lifestyle for her service to the Rustenburg community where she diligently empowered many indigent women, of all races and colour, by assisting them with the administration and finalisation of the deceased estates of their late husbands.

Anita was born in Rustenburg and has been living in Rustenburg for 67 years. At present, she is a Para-Legal working at Zietsman-Horn Incorporated Rustenburg for more than 40 years in the Estates and Estate Planning Department. She is also drawing Wills, registering Trusts and Closed Corporations. Zietsman-Horn was established in 1923 and in 2021 they are celebrating 98 years of service to the community in and around Rustenburg. As such she has built-up a vast knowledge of the workings of various aspects of legal practice.

She was also chairperson of the Woman's Agricultural Society and appointed Commissioner of Oaths by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development for her service to the community. She is a regular speaker at Woman's Societies in Rustenburg where she spells out the necessity to have a Will and to empower each woman to know exactly what is going on with the finances in a marriage.

Anita is closely involved and proud to be associated with charity projects such as Meals on Wheels, CANSA and of course, one cause that is remarkably close to her heart - the Beanies for Premature Babies. She is involved as a volunteer by knitting beanies and socks in "The Beanies 4 Babies Project" of the NICU Pelonomi Hospital in Bloemfontein. Many of the babies are born prematurely and are critically ill. They have an increased risk of hypothermia because they cannot regulate their body temperature. Many of the moms do not have the means to provide their pre-term infants with a beanie. The dream is to provide comfort and support to premature infants admitted to Pelonomi NICU by providing each infant with his/her own pair of knitted socks and a beanie. This is then given to them as soon as they arrive in the NICU and will be taken home with them when they are discharged.

Something about Anita. She was married for 47 years to Danie du Plooy, but Danie sadly passed away in 2020. They were high school sweethearts and he was the person from which she drew her strength. She has three adult children and eight grand children for whom she strives to be a role model.

As the eldest child of three sisters, she in her early years learned to be responsible. Her mom and dad taught the three sisters to count their blessings and to laugh at them. Never take life too seriously, but……. To do their absolute best and God will do the rest. Anita's role model is Professor Thuli Madonsela for she is the face of justice. Her other hobbies include flower arrangement and knitting. One thing that very few people knew about her is that she was awarded with a sharp shooters badge and also have a yellow belt in JKA Karate. Anita's motto is: "Always try to help someone, you may be the only one who could".

Let us boast with your art; win big money

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Are you a talented young artist? Can you draw, paint, sketch or create interesting if not wonderful works of art?

Then did you know that you could win "big money" in Rustenburg Herald and Pick n Pay Rustenburg's Blank Space Art competition? The art competition is open to all age groups and we particularly invite our young artists to try their hand at this. Two valuable cash prizes of R1 000 (one from each of the two participating Pick n Pay stores – Beyers Naudé and Greystone Crossing) are up for grabs once every three/four months sponsored by Rustenburg Herald. But there is more – at the end of every year, all the "monthly"/quarterly winners will be judged in a final grand judging and two extremely valuable prizes – Pick n Pay Shopping Vouchers to the value of R10 000 each will be awarded by the two Pick n Pay stores – one winner from each branch. These valuable prizes are sponsored by Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing and Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé in the Lifestyle Square.

"Post" your art entries in virtually any medium you can think of (provided it is in manageable size - not much bigger than a standard A4 please) at the entry boxes marked "Blank Space Art" at the two Pick n Pay Stores or reception at Rustenburg Herald's offices in 13 Coetzer Street. There is no entry fee and there is no limit to the number of entries you are submitting. Good luck to all participating artists!

Win R250!!! # 619

Chef Pieter Germishuys, assisted by second year Inspirare Culinary institute student, Henco Chalmers created a curry feast fit for a king.

Winner, winner chicken dinner!

I can claim unabashedly that I am a curry connoisseur. I have grown up with my mom's prize winning curries for school functions or church 'basaars' and through the years I have been known for making a great curry myself. But boy, did Pieter Germishuys, chef and owner of Inspirare Culinary Institute, blow my socks off with his Chicken Jalfrezi curry. And of course he served it with homemade garlic naan.

Jalfrezi is a curry dish originating in Bengal and popular throughout the Indian subcontinent - and beyond. It consists of a main ingredient such as meat, fish or vegetables, stir-fried and served in a thick spicy sauce.

Here is how Chef Pieter prepares it:

What exquisite flavour!

Chicken Jalfrezi Curry

INGREDIENTS:

For the sauce:
- ½ large onion, roughly chopped
- 2 garlic cloves, chopped
- 1 green chilli, finely chopped
- vegetable oil, for frying
- 400g can plum tomatoes
- 1 tbsp ground coriander
- 1 tbsp ground cumin
- 1 tsp turmeric

For the meat & vegetables:
- 2-3 chicken breasts, diced
- 1 tsp ground cumin
- 1 tsp ground coriander
- 1 tsp turmeric
- ½ large onion, sliced
- 1 red pepper, chopped
- 2 red chillies, finely chopped (optional)
- 2 tsp garam masala
- handful of fresh, chopped coriander leaves

METHOD:

Take 2-3 diced chicken breasts and coat in 1 tsp cumin, 1 tsp coriander and 1 tsp turmeric then leave it to marinate in the fridge while you make the sauce.

To make the sauce, fry ½ roughly chopped large onion, 2 chopped garlic cloves and 1 finely chopped green chilli in a large pan with a little vegetable oil, for around 5 mins, until browned. Add 300ml water to the onion mixture and simmer for around 20 minutes. Meanwhile, put a 400g can plum tomatoes in a food processor and give it a good whizz (aim for a smooth consistency). Heat another large pan and gently fry 1 tbsp coriander, 1 tbsp cumin and 1 tsp turmeric in a splash of oil for about a minute. Add the tomatoes to this pan and simmer for around 10 minutes. Whizz or blend your onion mixture in the food processor and add it to the spiced tomato sauce. Season generously, stir, then simmer for 20 minutes. (You can make large batches of this sauce and freeze it for later use)

Fry the marinated chicken in vegetable oil and stir continuously. After a few minutes, turn down the heat and add the remaining ½ sliced onion, 1 chopped red pepper and 2 finely chopped red chillies. Stir until the onions and pepper soften. Add the sauce you prepared earlier to the cooked chicken and simmer for around 10-20 minutes, adding a splash of water if it gets too thick. Just before you dish it up, stir in 2 tsp garam masala and handful of chopped coriander leaves. Serve with basmati rice or naan bread.

Garlic Naan ingredients:

- 1 ¾ cup self-raising flour
- 1 cup plain yoghurt
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 15ml butter to brush the Naan Breads
- Garlic to taste

METHOD:

Mix the flour, yoghurt and salt together and knead until elastic.

Heat a frying pan with a drop of oil. Roll out the breads very thin in a preferred shape and pan-fry until golden and bubbles appear. Turn over with a lifter.

Brush bread with the garlic butter.

Not your average 'basaar' curry!

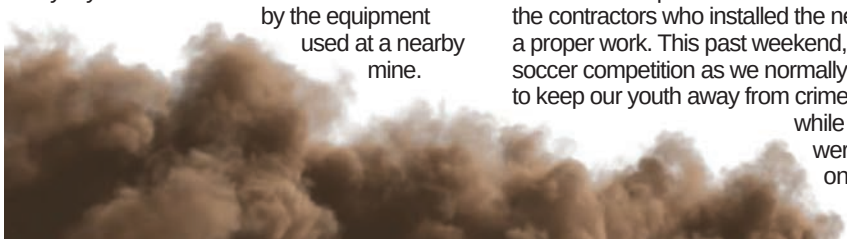
Community of Boitekong complaining about dust

The editor

We as the community of Boitekong are sitting with a problem that is slowly but surely affecting our health and the health of our children. Everyday there is a cloud of dust that is caused by the equipment used at a nearby mine.



We have sent several complaints to the mine however it seems like our complaints are not being taken into consideration. They have constructed a net according to what we have been told to trap the dust however it seems like the contractors who installed the net did not do a proper work. This past weekend, we had a soccer competition as we normally do, in order to keep our youth away from crime and drugs, while the games were in progress once again a cloud of dust could be seen coming from the mine. Imagine how this affects the lungs of our children while they are trying their best to keep away from bad things in the community.

The Department of Mineral Resources (DMR) has been informed several times however nothing is being done. We request the newspaper to assist with an article to highlight the problems we are experiencing. To view the situation please follow this link:https://bit.ly/cloudofdustboitekong

So impressed with JST Hospital

Dear Editor,

I was admitted to the JST Hospital on May 31 and discharged on June 7. My procedure was on June 2. There were some bladder stones, and also my prostate to be removed. I now want to agree with some earlier letters in your newspaper regarding good service I received at the hospital. The hospital was as clean and neat as any private hospital. The staff of Ward 10 was as competent as private hospital staff, even though they are working under difficult circumstances. Getting to the surgical side, I have only the highest regards for Dr. Garcia (Specialist) and his theatre team. They are highly professional and throughout my whole time since I first came into contact with Dr. Garcia, I was treated with respect and dignity. Not once did I have any doubts that I was in good hands. My sincere thanks to Dr. Garcia and everybody at JST Hospital, you turned my life around. Joachim Johannes Nortje, Rustenburg, via email.

{StandpuntViewpoint}*

Nkandla o Nkandla, waarom het jy my verlaat?

Suid-Afrikaners het Dinsdagoggend om omstreeks 10:30 eenvoudig oopmond na die nuus geluister en die hande saamgeslaan. Kan dit wees? Kan dit wees dat die ANC (ja ons verstaan dis 'n regsaksie deur die Konstitusionele Hof en nie die ANC nie) na presies 27 jaar besluit het om die rug styf te maak en op te staan vir dit wat reg is? Is dit hoegenaamd moontlik dat die ANC (ja, ons het mos gesê ons verstaan!) uiteindelik tot die besef gekom het dat dit langer nie kan aangaan nie en terselfdertyd die jare-ou kwessie besweer het van al hoe meer mense wat begin glo het dat nie almal in hierdie land voor die reg gelyk is nie - veral nie as jy 'n hoë-profiel ANC-lid is nie - veral nie as jy 'n voormalige staatspresident is nie - veral nie as jy 'n voormalige ANC-president is nie! Nouja, die lank en die kort van hierdie lang en uitgerekte saak wat heeltemal te lank toegelaat is om voort te ploeter, het almal nou al gehoor. (Dalk moet iemand net doodseker maak dat Zuma en sy regverteenwoordigers dit ook gehoor het?) Zuma moet tronk toe! Zuma moet homself binne vyf dae aan die gereg "oorhandig" en as hy dit nie doen nie, moet hy deur die polisie en die kommissaris van polisie gearresteer word en na die gevangenis begelei word waar hy die volgende 15 maande lank moet deurbring. Zuma se saak (sy minagting van die reg) is Dinsdagoggend met minagting van die tafel gevee, sy verdediging is verneder en uitmekaar geskeur. Tronk toe vir 15 maande - direk - binne vyf dae of ons arresteer jou" was die boodskap van hoofregter Khampepe in die Konstitusionele Hof in Johannesburg. Nouja, wel nie 24 maande soos regter Raymond Zondo aanbeveel het nie, maar 15 maande is seker genoeg om 'n punt te bewys - trouens - ses maande seker ook? Zuma kan self besluit waarheen hy wil gaan, Johannesburg of sy geliefde Nkandla, waar sy vertrapping van die reg en die gereg ironies genoeg jare gelede begin het. Nou kan dit ewenwel ook daar eindig - daar waar hy gedink het hy is absoluut onaantasbaar. Papier is geduldig, maar ons moet nou eenvoudig ons bedenkinge opsy stoot en aanvaar. Die woord is uit, die skrif is aan die muur! Ons sluit af met die volgende: ('n Immergroen gunsteling). "Die wiel van geregtigheid draai stadig, pynlik stadig - maar dit draai genadeloos!"

Nkandla oh, Nkandla, why have you forsaken me?

On Tuesday morning at around 10:30, millions of South Africans sat in front of their radios/tv's and as one the nation's mouths fell open. Unthinkable, could it be? Are we dreaming? In this South Africa? Or is it a joke? Moments earlier, former President Jacob Zuma was slapped by the Constitutional Court in Johannesburg to a direct prison sentence of 15 months behind bars. Could it be that the ANC (yes, we know it's a legal issue), has decided to firm up its back for quite the very first time in 27 years since the party took power - ironically on 27 April 1994. Now for the first time in decades, South Africans might begin to believe in this country (and the ANC) again.

This simply is an unprecedented moment of a country that could have been great a few years ago already, had the basics been done properly the first time. Something like this happening to not only a former President, not only an ANC-member but a former ANC President is simply unthinkable, unimaginable! Now ok - by now just about everybody in the country has learnt about Zuma's fate. (It might be a good idea to make sure that Zuma and his representation have also heard the news?) Zuma must go to prison! He must hand over himself to the judiciary within five days whereafter he will be accompanied to prison where he will be detained for the next 15 months. If not, he will be arrested by the police and the Commissioner of the South African Police. His ongoing undermining of justice and disdain for the judiciary has been stopped in its tracks - it is over! It's been allowed to march on time after time FOR way too long, but, finally it's over! Zuma's contempt of Court case was wiped from the table by Supreme Judge Khampepe with utter and similar contempt than what justice had received from Zuma for far too long. Yes, perhaps not 24 months as Chief Judge Raymond Zondo had suggested, but 15 months is probably more than enough to prove a point - in fact - exactly so six months! Zuma is free to decide where he wants to go - Johannesburg or his beloved Nkandla, where his shameful ridicule of South African justice began many years ago. Now quite appropriately his life of unaccountability is also likely to end here - here where he often thought of himself as untouchable. Paper is patient yes we know, but now we all have to cast aside our doubts and start to believe in this country again. We conclude with the following: (An old favourite). "The wheels of justice turns slowly, painstakingly slowly - but it turns mercilessly!

Rustenburg se mense en besighede

Die redakteur

"Ek het onlangs die voorreg gehad om DBV/SPCA Rustenburg te besoek om 'n hondjie aan te neem, ek het in talle diere se oë gekyk wat smeek "Asseblief vat my huis toe saam met jou". Wil net graag die wonderlike hartsmense wat die bestuurder, werknemers en vrywilligers van SPCA Rustenburg insluit, uit my hart bedank vir die onbaatsugtige werk en hulp wat julle doen vir die diere in Rustenburg. Sonder julle sou talle diere geen heenkome gehad het nie, op straat gewees het, honger dors, bang, koud en in pyn. Mense alvorens jy nie self gaan kyk by die DBV/SPCA nie, sal jy nie weet wat se emosies diere ook ervaar nie. Die verskil is net hulle het nie 'n stem soos ek en jy nie. Wanneer jy na hulle kyk is dit hartverskeurend hoe hulle probeer om jou aandag te kry. Dis asof hulle verstaan hulle kompeteer met soveel ander diere om 'n huis te kry. Hulle smag na die liefdevolle arms van 'n eienaar wat hulle liefde, kos, water, 'n warm kombers gee. Ek dink nie ons besef die omstandighede waaruit party van die diere kom nie, dit is haglik. Daarom het die mense wat by die DBV/SPCA werk al my respek, want dit is hulle wat die ergste van die ergste sien, wat trane afvee maar diep delf om die diere tot hulp te kom. Hulle sien wreedheid en kondisies wat enige mens sal laat sidder. Party van die diere hanteer dit so sleg om in die hokke aangehou te word, dit is asof hulle nie die stres kan hanteer nie. Ek besef ons leef in tye wat bitter moeilik is met Covid en werkloosheid maar kan ek asseblief 'n beroep op die publiek en besighede doen as jy 'n dier wil byvoeg by jou familie gaan eerste na die DBV/SPCA en neem een daar aan. Jy verstaan nie die verskil wat jy maak aan daardie dier se lewe nie en ook nie hoe die personeel juig as een van die diere daar aangeneem word nie. Ook as daar besighede is wat kan bydra tot die daaglikse onkostes om die diere te voer en komberse te verskaf, asook die medisyne wat hulle benogid, asseblief maak julle harte oop en maak 'n maandelikse bydrae. Dis winter, dis koud en ons is so geneig wanneer ons snoesig in ons eie beddens snags lê, is daar diere wat bibber van die koue en smag na wat ons so vanselfsprekend aanvaar. Ondersteun die DBV/SPCA Rustenburg want as dit nie vir hulle is nie, sterf duisende diere onder die mees haglikste omstandighede. Hulle is die advokate en helpers wat die help wat nie kan praat nie".

Dink aan ons diere.

Het jy al ooit gewonder waarom ....?

Die redakteur,

"Het jy al ooit gewonder waarom die President, mnr Cyril Ramaphosa, tot vervelens praat oor die drie baie belangrike beginsels van afstand tussen mense, handhigiëne, dra van masker in die openbaar? Want waar jy ookal kyk, sien ons mense wat in groepe staan en gesels, sonder maskers en g'n afstand hou - wat net besluit het dit is nie vir my nie. Is dit verkeerd as ons mekaar gedurig daaraan herinner om die drie goeie reëls na te kom? Is dit verkeerd wanneer 'n winkel of besigheid, of selfs tydens 'n kerkdiens, dit vereis van my om 'n masker te dra, afstand te hou en my hande te saniteer voordat ek gehelp kan word? Is dit verkeerd as daar vir jou en my gesê word dit is 'n kriminele oortreding as jy sonder 'n masker in die publiek verskyn? Miskien is dit belangrik dat elkeen van ons die dieper waarheid hiervan sal verstaan en die vraag vir onsself afvra: "Wie het hierdie belangrike reëls uitgevind? Is dit die Regering? Is dit mnr Ramaphosa? Is dit die Wêreld Gesondheidsorganisasie? Nee, nie een van hulle nie. Wanneer jy jou Bybel sou lees, sou jy hierdie drie goue reëls daarin vind. Reeds 3500 jaar gelede het Moses neergepen in die Bybelboeke van Exodus en Levitikus met goeie rede, want God het dit van Sy volk verwag. Dit was die opdragte van God aan Sy volk. Was jou hande - Exodus 30:18-21; Indien jy simptome het, hou jou afstand, bedek jou mond en vermy kontak - Levitikus 13: 45,46; Wie aangesteek is, moet tussen 7 en 14 dae in kwarantyn bly - Levitikus 13: 4-5. Die Bybel, wat die Woord van God is en die beste raad vir alle mense het, roep jou en my op om hierdie drie goue reëls na te kom. Dit is steeds vandag van toepassing op jou en my. Kom ons erken God se reëls - dit is tot elkeen se veiligheid maar ook tot liefde vir jou naaste".

SA, USA and Kenya in same Sevens pool

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The pools for the Tokyo 2021 Olympic rugby Sevens competitions have been announced by World Rugby.

The teams have been allocated to three pools of four teams, according to rankings based upon performances in the HSBC World Rugby Sevens Series and other World Rugby sanctioned tournaments over the past two years. There are some mouth-watering encounters for fans around the globe to look forward to as rugby sevens makes its second appearance at the Olympic Games following an unforgettable debut in Rio. The men's competition sees three of the top four placed teams from the Rio 2016 Olympic Games together in Pool B as reigning Olympic champions Fiji will face silver medalists Great Britain and hosts Japan, who finished a very creditable fourth in Rio, along with Olympic debutants Canada who claimed bronze at the last HSBC World Rugby Sevens Series event, which took place in Vancouver last year. Pool A sees a renewal of the delectable antipodean rivalry between current Rugby World Cup Sevens and World Series champions New Zealand and Australia, who met in the final of the last Series event in Vancouver, with the All Blacks Sevens winning a tightly contested match 17-14. Joining them in Pool A are Argentina, who finished sixth in Rio, alongside Olympic debutants the Republic of Korea who qualified for Tokyo by winning the Asian qualification tournament with an extra-time 'golden point' try to overcome Hong Kong.

South Africa, bronze medalists in Rio, and USA are in Pool C having both achieved direct Olympic qualification by finishing in the top four of the HSBC World Rugby Sevens Series 2019, where the USA Eagles finished runners-up after reaching the medal podium in seven of the 10 Series rounds.

Joining them are Kenya, who qualified courtesy of their first Rugby Africa men's sevens title since 2015, and Olympic debutants Ireland, who secured the final spot thanks to a thrilling 28-19 victory over France in the World Rugby Sevens Repechage in Monaco earlier this month.

Trethewey, Roets shine in Desert Race

Lance Trethewey and Adriaan Roets. (Image: Nadia Jordaan)

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The recent Toyota Gazoo Racing SA (TGRSA) 1000 Desert Race, round three of the South African National Cross Country Series (SACCS) that took place over three days and almost a thousand gruelling kilometres in the Northern Cape, took its toll on competitors in the Special Vehicle Category and a healthy amount of points for those who made it to the finish, resulted in the standings to be turned on its head.

In the end, Lance Trethewey/Adriaan Roets (Schalk Burger Motorsport BAT) scored their third consecutive victory this season to keep their overall and Class A championship lead (105 points). Behind them a lot of shuffling took place as a well-earned second place at Upington for Clint Gibson/Alaric Smith (Class A Stryker), who could not finish the season opener, meant they moved onto the podium and are now sitting in second place (60 points). And a maiden Class G Side-by-Side (SxS) victory as well as finishing fourth overall for the Larney brothers, Cecil and Elardus, pushed them onto the podium (48 points). The 2021 SACCS season reaches the halfway mark with the fourth and fifth rounds, the Vryburg 400, taking place on August 13 and 14 in the North West Province.
