Local Louis carries SA hopes on his bike

Louis Meintjes - currently probably the best international cyclist this country came up with in quite a few years, if not ever - especially judged by his performances at the Tour de France - those that he did contest in recent years. This star rider, who hails from Rustenburg and who now rides for INTERMARCHÉ WANTY - GOBERT MATERIAUX, finds himself in 19th position overall at the start of the second week after the first of only two rest days of the gruelling three-week-tour through the world's most mountainous terrain and roads - the Swiss Alps and the Pyrenees - in Europe if not the world on Monday. Next Monday will be the second and final rest day of the tour with the riders reaching by far the most difficult sections of the tour - the Pyrenees with monstrous mountain climbs such as the Col du Tourmalet (gradient of 7.4%) on Stage 18, the Col du Portet (gradient of 7 - 8%) in Stage 17 and Mount Vintoux (gradient 8.8%) in Stage 9. There is also the dreaded but quite short climb of just over 5 km but a gradient of 18.8% over the final 2 km on Signal d'Uchon in Stage 7. The tour will finish Stage 21 when the riders reach Paris where they will finish underneath the Arc de triomphe on July 18.

Dis-Chem walk-in vaccination activated

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Dis-Chem pharmacy has announced that it is now accepting walk-ins, whether they're insured or not, for Covid-19 vaccinations.

This according to them, includes people aged 50 years and above who have recently been urged to register for their jabs on the Electronic Vaccination System.

More than 500 000 people in the age group of 50 to 59 have already registered and some have received their first doses, despite the department of health initially aiming to launch this phase on July 15.

Walk-ins had previously primarily been accommodated at public sites and uninsured South Africans were turned away from private sites. These directions have now changed, with Dis-Chem confirming on Monday (July 5) that it would accept walk-ins, regardless of their insurance status.

DA asks for extension of TERS

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - After President Cyril Ramaphosa's announcement that South Africa will return to much stricter lockdown regulations, the Democratic Alliance (DA) has requested government to re-open the Unemployment Insurance Fund (UIF)'s Covid-19 Temporary Employer-Employee Relief (Ters) scheme.

This, the DA says, is to assist businesses that won't be able to operate over the next 14 days. The tougher lockdown will deal a devastating blow to many enterprises in the liquor industry, the restaurant and hospitality sectors, as well as tourism, weddings and

Sun City becomes Samaritans

PILANESBERG - SUN CITY - After temporarily closing the doors to all but two of Sun International's hotels in South Africa during the Level 4 Covid-19 lockdown, staff at ten properties around the country last week donated R160 000 worth of perishable food from their kitchens to charitable organisations.

"The level 4 restrictions introduced last week made it difficult for us to operate, so we had to make the decision to close all properties until 11 July, with the exception of The Table Bay Hotel in Cape Town and The Boardwalk Hotel in Gqeberha. But we are pleased that many of the charities which we support regularly, were able to benefit," said Heidi Edson, Sun International's Group Socio-Economic Development Manager.

"Instead of going to waste, the many kilograms of fruit and vegetables from various Sun International kitchens has now been used to feed those in our communities who are most vulnerable to poverty – children and the elderly."

Sun City Resort in the North West Province, which had overflowing kitchens ready to feed guests when the closure was announced, has distributed perishables worth R45 000 to nine charities in under privileged surrounding areas. The charities range from those caring for orphaned children, to the RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - For many years, Noko Nerton Ntjana worked full-time in construction, and dreamed of starting his own business. In 2017, armed with no more than a burning ambition to succeed, he took the plunge and started his own road maintenance company.

Four years later, Thuso Projects provides full-time employment to nearly 70 people, and provides general supply services and road maintenance to mining operations in the Rustenburg area. Ultimately, Ntjana aims to branch out beyond the mining sector to help South Africa's municipalities deal with the issue of poor road infrastructure. With the support of Anglo American's enterprise and supplier development initiative; Zimele, Thuso Projects was introduced to Anglo American's inclusive procurement programme. With the help of some intensive business skills training and mentorship, Thuso landed its first project at Anglo American Platinum's Amandelbult mine – and the company has never looked back. "I always knew I wanted to own my own business, but didn't know how to start. I have received the most amazing support from Zimele, who saw my passion and invested in me at a time when I needed it. They have been a key factor in the success of my business by helping me to see the bigger picture in business. They are always ready to support and help find solutions to the problems facing small start-up businesses," said Ntjana.

Zimele has been building sustainable small and micro and medium enterprises (SMMEs) across South Africa for over 30 years through funding of these SMMEs. In recent years, it has focused more on supplier and enterprise development in the communities around Anglo American's operations, by using Anglo American's existing inclusive procurement spend to create more small businesses and help community-based suppliers access new markets. Anglo American Zimele's Partnerships and Value Chain Manager, Sibongile Shoba, says the success of Thuso Projects is an excellent example of how sustainable local procurement networks can be built in South Africa. "We see entrepreneur development as a major factor in creating sustainable businesses and communities that will thrive long after the mining operations they serve are gone," says Shoba. Ntjana says he is already looking at ways of building his business activities outside the mine. "My future plans are to own my own business premises in an industrial area, which I can use as a base for projects across the province and the country. Roads are a burning issue for the entire country, and I want to try my best to develop Thuso's expertise in this field," he said.

Health MEC pleads for compliance

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - North West MEC for Health, Madoda Sambatha has expressed concern with the increasing number of Covid-19 positive cases in the North West province in the past two weeks.

"We are gravely concerned by the steady increase of Covid-19 cases in the province. This is a serious cause for concern for our province given the status quo unfolding in Gauteng province," lamented Madoda Sambatha. He said Bojanala and Dr Kenneth Kaunda districts remain the major concern for the province as they continue to register more positive daily cases and as the main economic zones of the province, a special attention must be paid to these districts.

The province has administered more than 159 272 vaccines to date and MEC Sambatha would like to reiterate his plead to all eligible persons to continue to register on the EVDS for vaccination. The process to register persons 50 years and above for vaccination has opened on July 1.

Harry en Melisca Emmenis in gelukkiger dae. Melisca en haar baba is albei verlede week oorlede.

Roudiens vir ma, dogter in Rustenburg

Danie Jacobs

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG – Die gemeenskap is geskok en verbysterd na die dood van ‘n jong ma en haar ongebore baba.

Melisca Emmenis (24) is op Dinsdag (29 Junie) in ‘n Rustenburgse Hospitaal aan Covid-verwante komplikasies oorlede. Sy het die vorige dag ‘n nood-keisersnee gehad en haar babadogtertjie, Marizelle Maggie (Zellie), is stil gebore. Melisca was ses maande swanger toe sy Covid-19 opdoen. Sy en haar man van twee jaar, Harry (25), het albei positief vir die siekte getoets en volgens Melisca se ma, Marelize Thorpe, het hy bykans geen simptome gehad nie. “My dogter het op 15 Junie positief getoets by haar werk nadat iemand die virus opgedoen het. Haar dokter het gesê sy is nie in gevaar nie omdat sy nog jonk is. Sy moes net by die huis bly, rus, haar medisyne gebruik en dit soos ‘n gewone griep hanteer.” Sy het egter sieker geword en is later in die hospitaal opgeneem. Haar toestand het aanhou verswak tot sy uiteindelik ‘n noodkeiser moes ondergaan. ‘n Dag later het Melisca gesterf. Marelize het benadruk dat swanger vroue ekstra versigtig moet wees as hulle Covid opdoen en dadelik mediese hulp moet kry. Melisca is oorspronklik van Klerksdorp en sy en Harry - wat ‘n boorling van Rustenburg is - is daar getroud. Hy is van Rustenburg. Melisca het by ‘n makelaar in Rustenburg gewerk. Sy word oorleef deur nog ‘n broer, Herman, en ‘n kleinsus, Micaela. Die roudiens vir Melisca en Zellie vind op Donderdag (8 Julie) in die Woord en Lewesentrum in Rustenburg plaas. Dit kan op Martin’s Funerals Rustenburg se FB-blad gevolg word. “Ons gaan ballone vrylaat. My dogter was gek oor ballone,” het Marelize gesê. Die familie is gebroke oor die verlies van die jong mamma wat so uitgesien het na die koms van Zellie.

Impala contractors initiate unprotected stoppage at Impala operations

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Contractor employees working for companies providing services to Impala Platinum in Rustenburg have initiated an unprotected work stoppage at the operation .

Reports have it that NUMSA, recently an unrecognised union, is instigating the industrial action. The affected contractor companies have all obtained interdicts against NUMSA and the striking workers in the Labour Court and High Court, respectively.

Impala is concerned about the illegal work stoppage and associated protest action - especially given the risks associated by a 3rd wave of Covid-19 infections Impala would like to urge the contracting companies and worker representatives to find an amicable resolution within the legal framework as soon as possible with due consideration for the continued health and well-being of the workers. "These actions are endangering the lives and livelihoods of many employees and their families in a time when society can least afford it", a spokesperson for the Impala group said.

Food is becoming a luxury

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Food prices in South Africa are much higher than last year, so most of us have noted.

The latest Household Affordability Index, annually conducted by the Pietermaritzburg Economic Justice & Dignity group (PMBEJD) shows that while food prices have dropped slightly in June, baskets are way higher than they were last year – outpacing inflation by some margin. The civil society initiative found that its household food basket saw a marginal drop in price month-on-month – but remains at much higher levels than September 2020, when the basket was first compiled. Over the past 10 months, the cost of the average basket price increased by 7.1% or R271.90. Inflation over the same period was much lower, tracking between 3% and 5%.The basket comprises 44 core food items most frequently purchased by lower-income households who make up the majority of households in the country. Over the last month maize meal, rice and flour have come down in price. All fruits and vegetables except potatoes and onions have also come down, with the group noting that potatoes and onions are typically sourced in the Free State during the winter months. On the other side, all meat prices have gone up – a typical trend during the winter months where feed costs and energy costs increase. Cooking oil, sugar, sugar beans and margarine have also seen prices climb, while polony has shown a significant spike, the PMBEJD said. SARS weary of home office claims

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Have you thought about claiming for your home office expenses from SARS?

If you've never done it before, proceed with caution!

SARS has recently published an update on its website in relation to home office expenses. This statement serves to provide additional clarity for individual taxpayers who may be considering submitting claims for home office expenses in their income tax returns that that can now be filed for the 2021 tax year.

Understandably, due to the impact of Covid-19, a number of individuals spent more time than usual working from home. In considering whether to claim for any related expenses, it is important to note the following:

1. There have been no changes to the legislation in relation to a "home office". The legal requirements remain the same as before the Covid-19 pandemic. In brief this means:
 - 1.1. An office, appropriately equipped, must have been set up at the place of primary residence;
 - 1.2. The office must have been used regularly and exclusively for work purposes;
 - 1.3. The office must have been used for more than 50% of the employee's duties or, if the employee earns more than 50% of their remuneration from commission or other variable payments based on work performance, more than 50% of the employee's duties must have been performed away from the employer's office;
 - 1.4. Any home office expenses must be linked to employment use and must be verifiable; and
 - 1.5. Home office expenses must be claimed against source code 4028 in the income tax return.
2. Where the home office is in taxpayer owned property, taxpayers should note that formally defining part of a primary residence as a home office will most likely have an adverse impact on a future capital gains determination. The home office area will, on a pro-rated basis, be excluded from the primary residence exclusion of R2 million on disposal of the residence. Careful consideration should, therefore, be given before a claim for home office expenses is made. Taxpayers may also find that working from home led to savings on expenses they would otherwise have incurred, like transport, wear and tear on vehicles and so forth. Taken together with the loss of part of the of the capital gains exclusion, these savings may outweigh the benefit of a claim for home office expenses.
3. Whilst all claims for home office expenses may be subject to further verification or audit by SARS, it is important to note that there is a high likelihood that a taxpayer who claims home office expenses for the first time will be selected for verification or audit.

SARS Commissioner, Edward Kieswetter says: "The need for many employees to work remotely has been necessitated by the Covid-19 pandemic in an unprecedented manner. We understand that many employers, and employees alike, are grappling with establishing a new normal. We would simply ask taxpayers to consider carefully the longer term implication of defining an area in their primary residence as a home office for tax purposes. It may be more prudent to wait and establish a more sustainable rhythm before making the decision". This statement does not replace the actual text of the provision in the Income Tax Act, 1962, nor the guidance on the SARS website. Taxpayers who require further assistance may refer to our website at www.sars.gov.za. For more information, contact SarsMedia@sars.gov.za

Help pours in for Rustenburg SPCA

Tap water needs no home treatment

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Rand Water has recently issued a statement urging customers to beware of misleading marketing initiatives aimed at promoting the use of home-based water treatment devices.

"Home water treatment devices provide no benefit to customers as the water supplied by Rand Water undergoes a rigorous purification process before distribution to its customers," the statement said. Rand Water further said that traders use ambiguous statements to market home-based water treatment devices such as domestic water filters for "health reasons". These statements often mislead consumers into purchasing water treatment devices that provide no benefits. Rand Water would like to reiterate that it supplies water that is safe for human consumption and its customers (municipalities) maintain a extensive water quality monitoring programme to assure consumers of safe and healthy water.

Klerksdorp verloor ’n Legende

RUSTENBURG HERALD – KLERKSDORP – Rool Jansen van Vuuren (75 jaar, 2 maande en 4 dae): “Jy was geliefd, loop nou langs ons, ’n diamant vol van liefde en teerheid, soos Spreuke 10:7 sê: “Die nagedagtenis van die ‘regverdige’ moet altyd onthou word”.

"Romien, Luzaan, Rool (seun), Karlien, Werner, Roal, Ro-lay, broers, suster, familie en vriende. Ons dank aan julle vir julle liefde, omgee en ondersteuning deur Rool se hele lewe. Julle was ware ligstrale in sy lewe. Hy was enig in sy soort, een uit ’n triljoen. Rool was ’n fenominale man, ’n regte aristokraat, liefdevol, dinamies. Sy afsterwe laat ’n groot leemte by almal en sy herinneringe leef voort in ons harte! Hy het die rugbyspelertjies soos ’n magneet na hom aangetrek en elkeen laat voel hulle is wenners – die klein bulletjies asook die groot rugbyspelers. Hy het bekend gestaan as “Oupa” en hulle het hom altyd omhels. Hy was altyd langs die atletiekbaan om die atlete te ondersteun. Hy was ’n ware mense-mens. Wanneer jy vir hom gevra het hoe dit gaan was sy antwoord altyd “dit gaan skitterend”. Ons dank aan die Medicare-personeel en die dokters in Potchefstroom, ook dr Bennie van der Walt, sy huisdokter en dr Ruak Botha (internis), sy onkoloë, dr Rust en dr Blaauw van Klerksdorp. Sy borrelende persoonlikheid het almal geraak. Rool was geliefd en bemind en altyd vol humor. Ons dank aan Jureen Begrafnisondernemers en ds Fanie du Plooy van NG Kerk Flamieda vir die roudiens". "Our hearts silently screams in pain. Tears roll from our eyes and speaks about the love for you. We miss you but know you are with the Lord Almighty".

Wyle Rool Jansen van Vuuren.

Failing municipalities must stop - take responsibility says OUTA

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The decline of municipalities across the country will not stop until municipal officials and political office bearers are held accountable, says the Organisation Undoing Tax Abuse (OUTA).

OUTA commented on the Auditor-General's latest municipal audit outcomes report for the financial year of 2019/20.

According to the AG's report, the financial position of just over a quarter of the 257 municipalities in the country is so dire, that there is significant doubt that they will be able to continue meeting their obligations in the near future.

The Auditor-General, Ms Tsakani Maluleke, cited various reasons for the dire situation, including endemic corruption, poor leadership, lack of capacity, little to zero consequence management and a general disrespect for financial legislation.

Julius Kleynhans, Public Governance Executive at OUTA, says it is crucial for municipal leadership responsible for the dire state of local government across the country, to be held accountable. "If nobody is held accountable, the status quo will remain." According to Kleynhans, successive audit reports point to a lack of consequence management, poor leadership and a lack of accountability.

"It has become the norm that officials and political office bearers are, at best, suspended or removed from office and in many cases deployed to other government positions. Until individuals or leadership collectives are held accountable by way of legal prosecution and even imprisonment, nothing will change, and matters will just get worse."

According to the Auditor-General, only 72 municipalities (28%) have been able to submit "quality financial statements for audit purposes" while the remaining 185 municipalities "have still not mastered the basics of financial reporting".

An analysis of current and previous Auditor-General reports from 2016/17 to 2019/20 - which covers the entire elected term of local government beginning in August 2016 - reveals there is a general decline in overall municipal audit opinions.

What is a five years balance?
When you retire with the GEPF with 10 years or more of service, the GEPF retiring member (pensioner) receives a gratuity (lumpsum) and an annuity (monthly pension) calculated according to the rules of the Fund. The monthly pension is guaranteed for as long as the pensioner lives. If a pensioner dies within 5 years of retirement, a lumpsum equal to the balance of the five-year annuities, excluding the annual supplement, will be paid to the beneficiaries.

This means that in the event the pensioner passes away within the first five years of retirement, the remaining balance that would have been payable up to five years after retirement will be paid to their beneficiaries.

Put simply, if a pensioner passes away within the first five years of receiving his/her pension, his/her beneficiaries will receive a death benefit that is equivalent to the remainder of her monthly pension.

What happens if a member passes on within the 5 years of retirement?
Where a pensioner passes away within 5 years of retirement, the surviving spouse(s) and dependants can apply for a portion of the 5 year balance, and the spouse and qualifying children can also apply for spouse and child pension.

The default value of the spouse pension is 50% of the annuity the pensioner was receiving on date of death, but this may be 75% if the member opted for enhanced spouse benefits on retirement. If the member has more than one wife, the annuity will be shared equally among them, subject to certain rules.

The value of the child pension is decided by the number of eligible children and spouses. In addition, the deceased member's dependants may submit a funeral benefit claim. The benefit payable will depend on the date of death, but for deaths on or after 1 October 2017, the benefit payable in the event of the death of a member, pensioner or spouse is R15000, and for an eligible child it is R6000. This benefit is subject to taxation;

What happens if a member passes on after 5 years of retirement?
If a pensioner passes away more than 5 years after retirement, there will be no lumpsum payable to his or her dependants, but the spouse(s) and eligible children can still apply for annuities and a claim for the funeral benefit can also be submitted

In addition, the deceased member's dependants will be entitled to spousal pension and child pension for all the children under the age of 22 years

G-om projek vier 20ste bestaansjaar

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die G-om projek vier vanjaar sy 20ste bestaansjaar!

“Ons leuse: ‘n Honderd jaar van nou af sal die bankrekening wat ek gehad het, die soort huis waarin ek gewoon het, of die soort klere wat ek gedra het, nie saak maak nie. Maar die wêreld mag baie anders wees omdat ek ‘n verskil gemaak het in die lewe van ‘n kind.”

“Die G-om projek of Wee (Skots vir klein) -care project is ‘n projek om minderbevoorregte voorskoolse kinders in Rustenburg en omliggende gebiede te help. Die kinders is van verskillende rasse en kleur is nie ‘n oorweging in die projek nie. Die projek vind plaas vanuit die NG Kerk Rustenburg-Suid se kerksaal (wat hulle gratis aan beskikbaar stel) vanaf Maandag tot Vrydag – 08:00 – 11:00. Die projek bestaan uit twee dele: ‘n Voedingskema - Voorskoolse kinders kry van Maandag tot Vrydag ‘n voedsame maaltyd en ‘n vrug, met vrugtesap of melk. ‘n Stimuleringsprogram - Ons volg ‘n goedgekeurde program by ons projek. Ons is baie trots om te sê dat ons elke jaar vir elkeen van ons kinders wat graad 1 toe gaan ‘n stel skoolklere gee en ‘n skooltas met al hul skryfbehoeftes en benodighede vir graad 1. Die projek sluit gewoonlik aan die einde van November, wat beteken dat die kinders vir minstens 6 weke geen kos vanaf die projek kry nie. Daarom word ‘n basiese kospakkie uitgedeel. “Love Run” - Die pretloop, gewoonlik middel November elke jaar, is ook ter ondersteuning van kospakkies en deelnemers bring slegs ‘n blikkie of blikkies kos om bogenoemde bokse mee te vul. Verdere hoogtepunte is die konsert, Kersboom-partytjie, die mamma-dag. Sedert Januarie 2016 word ons kinders deur Solly Phule vervoer. Ons vervoerkoste is altyd ons grootste finansiële uitdaging. Hoe kan jy help? Help kosmaak, Bak/borg ‘n verjaarsdagkoek, Borg ‘n kersgeskenk, Skenk artikels vir kospakkies, Kom help kospakkies pak, Help met die stimulerings, Borg ‘n kind se busgeld, Gee vir ons ‘n donasie van die bedrag van jou keuse, Ondersteun ons 20ste verjaardagvieringe, naamlik Lootjie-boekies, “high tea” en ‘n moontlike gholfdag.

Gaan kyk asseblief na ons projek op Facebook: G-om projek in Rustenburg. Kom raak betrokke by ons! Jy sal verbaas wees oor hoeveel dit jou verander

Aarto misses the bus - failed to be implement on deadline

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Despite the planned implementation date of the Administrative Adjudication of Road Traffic Offences Act (AARTO) having been 1 July 2021, no such implementation has been effected and any future plans to roll out this Act, in its current format, seem highly unlikely.

Although it has been confirmed that the implementation of AARTO will be phased in, none of the necessary infrastructure required to do so, seems to be in place.

Furthermore, the implementation of AARTO could possibly be permanently halted by the pending OUTA court case, which challenges AARTO's constitutionality, scheduled to be heard in October 2021. As South Africans await the outcome of the above, for the time being, South Africans can breathe a sigh of relief with regards to this looming administrative compliance burden. Keep watching Rustenburg Herald for all the latest developments.

As a verified artist he is able to utilize better marketing tools to reach a larger audience than ever before. Working as a DJ, Photographer & a music producer, he is currently working on an Album to be released on the August 1. The album is funded by Samro Foundation. “The album ‘Love and Joy’ by myself and Lady Albatross is a revolutionary house music collaboration between myself, a South African native and the internationally known artist Lady Albatross. Well versed in traditional African drumming, I infused my house music productions with a cultural and spiritual rounded sound. In order to expand into new international markets, and share my love of traditional drumming and music, I have reached out to Lady Albatross (from California, USA currently residing in Norway) to make this album,” said Moate. Lady Albatross is a multi-instrumentalist, vocalist, song writer, sound engineer and has a very versatile musical background. ‘Love and Joy’ brings together the best of their talents and cultural experiences creating a revolutionary house music sound with hints of big band jazz, R&B, and even classical music. “In addition to our album's production, we will release a series of mini music videos based on our works. These mini music videos will capture the unique culture, scenery and essence that has inspired ‘Love and Joy, he said.

{StandpuntViewpoint}*

'n Week, nog net 'n week dan weet ons almal!

Ons was verlede week vol bravado na aanleiding van die voormalige president Jacob Zuma se gevangenisstraf van 15 maande wat deur die Konstitusionele Hof aan hom opgelê is nadat hy skuldig bevind is aan minagting van die hof. Dit was natuurlik nadat Zuma versuim het om voor die Zondo-kommissie te getuig, hom sonder die nodige verlof van 'n kommissiesitting verskoon het en hom nie aan die waardigheid en soewereiniteit van die Zondo-kommissie onderwerp het nie.

Maar ja, natuurlik was dit ook na jare van frustrasie vir miljoene inwoners van hierdie land nadat die elletlange "lys" van verskrikking - 'n "lys" van Zuma se vergrype, misstappe, sondes, skandes, disrespek, minagting, eiegeregtigheid, onaanspreeklikheid, onverantwoordelikheid en oënskynlike onaantasbaarheid Suid-Afrika en sy wetgehoorsame, gedissiplineerde gemeenskap die mure uit gedryf het!

Nou is die skrif aan die muur en nadat die slag gelewer is, stem "onse president" alweer nie saam met die norms van ordelikheid, beskaaftheid, redelikheid, ens, ens nie en wil hy weer eens die hof se gesag uitdaag of probeer om dit met selfverontskuldiging te omseil. Wel voorspoed vir Zuma dan! En die hele kwessie soos dit tot hier ontstaan en ontwikkel het, bring die gemeenskap en die reg net weer eens by 'n eenvoudige kruispadbeginsel waarby 'n mens eenvoudig nie kan verbykom nie. Dis of hiernatoe, of daarnatoe en basta!Die kwessie is so: Indien Zuma vandag (sy aansoek is tweeledig) - sou slaag - selfs net gedeeltelik met "verskoon my van arres voor Woensdag asb" en "verskoon my van my 15 maande gevangenisstraf" wanneer die Konstitusionele Hof op 12 Julie uitspraak hieroor lewer - behoort almal in Suid-Afrika en ja, die hele wêreld wat nog altyd/nooit/ooit hieronder gewonder het (nie), dat nie almal in hierdie land is gelyk is voor die reg nie "finish en kla". As Zuma 'n gewone, armsalige landsburger soos die meeste van mense in hierdie land is - sou hierdie aansoek nooit geslaag het nie of selfs net die geringste simpatie ontlok het nie en sou hy trouens lankal (nie eers gister of vandeeweek) in arres gewees het.Indien die Konstitusionele Hof op 12 Julie volstaan met die 15 maande-gevangenisstraf aan Zuma, is dit eenvoudig selfs nog duideliker: Jammer vriende maar ja inderdaad: Almal in hierdie land is uiteindelik gelyk voor die reg. Of jy nou Jan Alleman, Armsalige Andries of wie ook al is - of jy ANC, kommunis of ACDP is - of jy wit of swart is, of jy man of vrou is, of jy ryk of arm is, of jy politieke mag en invloed het of nie, of jy vriende met die Guptas is of nie, en of jy jammer is of nie. Almal is gelyk voor die Suid-Afrikaanse reg - jy ook - kry vir jou meneer!

One week - just one week and we will know!

We were quite bold when the news came to light last when that former President Jacob Zuma was destined for a short visit to jail (prison) for period of 15 months after he had been convicted by the Constitutional Court of account of contempt of court. This of course, was during his brief appearance at the Zondo Commission during the probe into state capture. Charges were laid against Zuma after he had refused to appear in front of the Zondo Commission, when he excused himself without leave from a sitting of the Commission and because he did not submit himself to the sovereignty of the Zondo Commission.But of course, this was also when the endlessly long list of Zuma's transgressions ranging from indulgences, errors, mistakes, scandals, disrespect, contempt, righteousness, lack of accountability, irresponsibility, and the belief in his untouchable persona finally became just too long and absolutely reckless. Now that the writing is finally on the wall, it is clear that once again, our President dares to disagree with acceptable norms and civilization on what would be a fair and tolerable sentence for him, but that actually, he should be acquitted!? Once again he distances himself from fair reason and tries to eyebind the Constitutional Court by claiming unfair treatment and refused to accept accountability.Well good luck to Zuma then! And what is going to follow in exactly one week will once and for all tell and prove to millions of South Africans - those who have ever wondered if it could still be correct to say that in this country, absolutely everyone is equal before the law and the judiciary - come what may! If Zuma succeeds with his application today (his application is twofold - today "to be excused from being arrested" this week or on Wednesday and on 12 July "to be acquitted without any prison term or sentence") the country and the world will know that "no, unfortunately, not everyone is equal before the law in South Africa - "finish en kla"! The fact remains: If Zuma were an ordinary man with no political connections or power, nor a former president, nor a prominent member of the ruling party, nor someone with influence, did not have lucrative connections to pay for his defiance against the court and the law, this application would never have succeeded (or even heard) and he would have been arrested quite some time ago and not only, yesterday or this week. If Zuma's application is rejected and on 12 July the Concourt finds to reaffirm its sentence of 15 months to Jacob Zuma, the case is even clearer. Everyone in the whole wide world will know: "Yes, in South Africa, the law and judiciary are sovereign and in fact the only entities that indeed are "untouchable". Everyone - no matter who you are, how rich or poor you are, whether you are male or female, black or white, powerful or meek, ANC or communist or ACDP, or if you have friends like the Guptas or Gigabas or not - whether you are sorry or not! And remember - you have asked for this - repeatedly - over and over again - now see what your friends or connections or lawyers can do...

The Editor,
You have the power to create change! Thank you is but a small statement to those that have changed the lives of the children and carers at Lighthouse Children's Home with their donations towards a much-needed 60KVA generator. A fundraiser was started on June 1 and within 7 days, individuals, families and businesses came together and managed to raise over R130 000 for this initiative. A special thanks to each and every single one that contributed to this cause, all donations big and small have made such a difference. A special thank you to the main sponsors Robday Mining Supplies, Pierre and Heleen Olivier and Pereira's Steel Works. Also, a special thank you to Braam Koekemoer from JB Engineering who delivered and installed the generator at no cost. To all contributors, your efforts don't go unnoticed and we thank you for making the lives of our little ones easier when there are power outages. The children were very excited to see the delivery of the generator take place and have been told what a difference it is going to make at the orphanage. Lighthouse Children's Home.

Dokter, personeel gaan uit hulle pad

Geagte redakteur
Hoe sê mens dankie vir 'n dokter wat jou aan die lewe gehou het? Ek skryf die brief uit dankbaarheid. Dankbaarheid vir 'n baie spesiale dokter, dr M. Mbao, 'n sagte sielsmens wat regtig omgee vir sy pasiënte. Verder wil ek net ook van die geleentheid gebruik maak om vir al die verpleegsters, susters en administrasiepersoneel by Peglerae Hospitaal in Rustenburg - van ongevallige tot in die saal - dankie te sê. Ek was positief getoets vir Covid-19 op 3 Junie en moes vier dae later gehospitaliseer word.

Dr Mbao het dadelik my vertoue gewen met sy sagte omgee-hart. Behalwe vir die Covid-simptome, het ek boonop ook longontstekking opgedoen. Dit het tot gevolg gehad dat ek naderhand nie meer self kon asem haal nie en heeltemal van suurstof afhanklik was. Vir 14 dae was dr Mbao nie net geneesheer nie, maar ook die een wat my aanhoudend gemotiveer het om te bly veg. Op dag 15 kon hulle my suurstof stelselmatig begin verminder. Behalwe die dokter en verpleegpersoneel - veral die van Saal A -, is ek ook baie dank verskuldig aan die fisioterapeute, die hospitaaladministrasie en almal anders wat by my behandeling betrokke was. Ek wil nie name noem nie, want ek is te bang ek laat iemand uit. Iets wat my baie diep geraak het, was die sang van die susters na skofte verander het. Dit was so mooi - hulle het soos engele geklink.

En mense besef nie waardeur mediese personeel regtig gaan nie; watter trauma hul elke dag beleef nie. My hart het gebreek toe ek sien hoe 'n suster in trane uitbars omdat sy 'n pasiënt verloor het.

Ek bid vandag vir elke persoon wat werk by Peglarae Hospitaal, asook my huisdokter en sy personeel. En natuurlik ook vir almal wat in dié tyd geliefdes aan Covid moet afstaan.

Ek was naby aan die dood en almal het begin dink dat my tyd aangebreek het om te groet, maar hier het ek 'n tweede kans op die lewe gekry. Ek lewe elke dag voluit.

My laaste dankie is aan Julian Peach van die Grasdak Kerk. Hy het elke dag vir ons almal gebed en hy dra elke een by die naam op na die Here.

Ek het wonderlike vriende ook gemaak in die hospitaal en dit was so lekker om mense te kon sien huis toe gaan.

Al gaan daar nog donker dae wees, moet ons daar wees vir mekaar.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The spokesperson of the Office of Premier Job Mokgoro, Vuyisile Ngesi together with the ANC in the North West has condemned in the strongest possible terms, the circulation of fake news suggesting that Premier Mokgoro had been redeployed.

On Tuesday, Mahikeng in the North West and indeed the country woke-up to the so called news doing the rounds on various social media platforms informing the public that Mokgoro had resigned as the North West Premier.

In their immediate response, the ANC in the North West said, “In act of utter desperation to sow divisions in the North West, these faceless wedge-drivers and peddlers of lies suggest that Cde. Job Mokgoro has resigned and will be replaced by the IPC Convenor, Cde Suzan Dantjie, these reports are devoid of any truth.

“Whilst we acknowledge that the structures of the organization are discussing the matter of the North West Premiership internally, Cde. Job Mokgoro has not resigned nor replaced. We further wish to remind our people that the deployment of any Premier remains an exclusive domain of the National Executive Committee. Once ANC structures have exhausted all internal engagements in this regard, appropriate public pronouncements will be made”.

Failing municipalities must stop - take responsibility says OUTA

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The decline of municipalities across the country will not stop until municipal officials and political office bearers are held accountable, says the Organisation Undoing Tax Abuse (OUTA).

OUTA commented on the Auditor-General's latest municipal audit outcomes report for the financial year of 2019/20. According to the AG's report, the financial position of just over a quarter of the 257 municipalities in the country is so dire, that there is significant doubt that they will be able to continue meeting their obligations in the near future.

The Auditor-General, Ms Tsakani Maluleke, cited various reasons for the dire situation, including endemic corruption, poor leadership, lack of capacity, little to zero consequence management and a general disrespect for financial legislation.

Julius Kleynhans, Public Governance Executive at OUTA, says it is crucial for municipal leadership responsible for the dire state of local government across the country, to be held accountable. “If nobody is held accountable, the status quo will remain.”

According to Kleynhans, successive audit reports point to a lack of consequence management, poor leadership and a lack of accountability. “It has become the norm that officials and political office bearers are, at best, suspended or removed from office and in many cases deployed to other government positions. Until individuals or leadership collectives are held accountable by way of legal prosecution and even imprisonment, nothing will change, and matters will just get worse.”

According to the Auditor-General, only 72 municipalities (28%) have been able to submit “quality financial statements for audit purposes” while the remaining 185 municipalities “have still not mastered the basics of financial reporting”.

An analysis of current and previous Auditor-General reports from 2016/17 to 2019/20 - which covers the entire elected term of local government beginning in August 2016 - reveals there is a general decline in overall municipal audit opinions.

Fewer municipalities received net-positive audit opinions (unqualified with or without findings) while more municipalities recorded net-negative audit opinions (qualified with findings, adverse with findings, disclaimed with findings or outstanding audits).

OUTA urges the Auditor-General to refer obvious cases of criminality to the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) and the South African Police Service (SAPS), as is required by the recent amendment of the Public Audit Act, which came into effect in April 2019.

The amendments provide the Auditor-General with powers to refer suspected “material irregularities arising from an audit to a relevant public body for investigation”. Furthermore, the amended Act further allows for the Auditor-General to issue a “certificate of debt where an accounting officer or accounting authority failed to recover losses from a responsible person and to instruct the relevant executive authority to collect the debt”.

“For as long as there is no accountability for poor financial controls and maladministration, criminality and corruption will flourish. The Auditor-General needs to urgently refer clear cases of fraud and corruption to the appropriate authority to help rebuild the trust deficit that exists between residents and municipal leadership,” said Kleynhans.

Kleynhans urged the Auditor-General to create the extra capacity needed within her office to expedite the enforcement processes against errant administration and councils.

Hartbeespoort trail run cancelled

Rustenburg Noord Primary learners read to lead!

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - In light of the current status of the Covid-19 pandemic in South Africa event organisers, Stillwater Sports, have released an adapted calendar of events for the Thirsti AfricanX Trail run with the exclusion of the Thirsti AfricanX 2-Day Xplore that was scheduled to take place at the Van Gaalen Kaasmakerij, Hartbeespoort in August 2021.

"With South Africa only recently entering the third wave of the pandemic, there is currently no indication on when restrictions will begin to ease," says Michael Meyer, Managing Director of Stillwater Sports and founder of the Thirsti AfricanX Trail run. "Instead of making the call at short notice, we have decided to cancel the 2-Day Xplore (in the North West Province) sooner rather than later as a two-day event requires additional planning from the entrants' side.

Existing entrants can request a full refund.

As a show of gratitude these entrants also have the option to transfer their entries to the Thirsti AfricanX Trail run 3-Day Stage Race that will take place at the Houw Hoek Hotel (Western Cape) in March 2022 or the Thirsti AfricanX Trail run 2-Day Xplore that will take place at Normandien Farms (Newcastle, KwaZulu-Natal) in April 2022.

Although the entry fees for these two events are slightly higher, the existing entrants will not be required to cover the difference."

For more information please visit www.stillwatersports.com, contact Stillwater Sports on 082 991 0045 or email entries@stillwatersports.com.

Federer oldest man to reach quarter-finals

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - At 39 years and 337 days, Federer is the oldest man to reach the quarter-finals at Wimbledon in the Open era – and he looks very impressive as he did so.

Sixth seed Federer turns 40 next month but his attitude towards success at the place where he built most of his legacy remains as sprightly as ever. A lack of court time in the past 16 months, because of a knee injury which required two surgeries, left many wondering how the Swiss would fare this fortnight.

This was another improved display from the former world number one as he reached the SW19 men's quarter-finals for a record-extending 18th time. Roger Federer continued his Wimbledon comeback on day seven with a straight-sets, 7-5, 6-4, 6-2, win over Lorenzo Sonego on 'Manic Monday' (5 July) to reach the quarter-finals. Federer will next take on either second seed Daniil Medvedev of Russia or Poland's Hubert Hurkacz in the last eight as he continues his tilt for a ninth Wimbledon title. Russia's Medvedev led 6-2 6-7 (2-7) 6-3 3-4 when the pair were forced off the outside court two because of persistent rain. With world number one Novak Djokovic in hot pursuit of the tally of 20 Grand Slam singles titles that Federer shares with fellow legend Rafael Nadal, the stakes are high for the Swiss superstar this week.

Djokovic will play Marton Fucsovics in the last eight after the Hungarian beat Russian fifth seed Andrey Rublev. The Serb will now contest his 50th Grand Slam quarter-final, with only 39-year-old Federer ahead of him after the Swiss reached his 58th.

"My confidence level is very high after winning the French Open," Djokovic added. Day eight, Tuesday (6 July) at Wimbledon 2021 will see Ashleigh Barty and Aryna Sabalenka in quarter-final action. Joe Salisbury is in doubles action twice, first with Rajeev Ram and then Harriet Dart on No 3 Court. Tough call, but the all-Aussie affair between Ashleigh Barty and Ajla Tomljanovic could be a great tussle as the No 1 seed looks to reach a first ever Wimbledon semi-final. It won't be an easy ride against Tomljanovic, who benefited despite a late finish after fourth round opponent Emma Raducanu retired hurt.

A potential upset may come as Karolina Pliskova, who is a former number one, starts to get nervy in grand slams and so the unseeded Viktorija Golubic should fancy her chances of an upset having impressed in her victory over Madison Keys on Monday. The youngest player in the women's quarter-finals is second seed and 23-year-old Aryna Sabalenka, and she has a tough match with Ons Jabeur on Centre Court. Jabeur was the first Arab to win a WTA title when she triumphed at Nottingham last month and is now the first Arab or North African man or woman to reach a Wimbledon quarter-final since 1974, two communities she says she is proud to represent.

Order of play, singles – Tuesday July 6 – from 13h30 pm

To finish: Daniil Medvedev (RUS) [2] leads Hubert Hurkacz (POL) [14] - 6-2 6-7(2) 6-3 3-4

Ons Jabeur (TUN) [21] v Aryna Sabalenka (BLR) [2]
Ashleigh Barty (AUS) [1] v Ajla Tomljanovic (AUS)
Karolina Pliskova (CZE) [8] v Viktorija Golubic (SUI)
Karolina Muchova (CZE) [19] v Angelique Kerber (GER) [25]
Order of play, singles – Wednesday July 7
Roger Federer [6] v winner of Medvedev and Hurkacz match
Novak Djokovic [1] v Marton Fucsovics
Matteo Berrettini [7] v Felix Auger Aliassime [16]
Karen Khachanov [25] v Denis Shapovalov [10]
