Millions in damages after raging fire destroys apartment

The owner of Unit 5 Mountain View Residential in Geelhout Park has suffered damages to the value of very close to R1.5 million when the apartment and most of its contents were destroyed by fire shortly after 12:00 on Tuesday afternoon. Ms Yvonne Magae still suffered from severe shock when Rustenburg Herald visited the scene on Tuesday. The heartbroken Ms Magae told us that she was not injured but that her 28 year-old son suffered burns to his arm when he attempted to save some of the items in the department. Though the cause of the fire was still unknown, flames seemed to have rushed throughout the unit rapidly and turned Ms Magae's life into a living hell within minutes she said. The Rustenburg fire brigade was on the scene within minutes and fire fighters have managed to prevent the flames from spreading to neighbouring apartments.

Four in court for armed robbery

RUSTENBURG HERALD- SWARTRUGGENS - Last week Wednesday (6 April), Rustenburg Highway Patrol officers, working on the N4 road close to Swartruggens, spotted a suspicious black Mercedes Benz, which was suspected to be involved in the commission of an armed robbery in Zeerust, reported earlier the same day at about 13:00.

The vehicle according to Col Adéle Myburgh, North West police spokesperson, was pulled over and four suspects were arrested after they failed to give account for a firearm and an undisclosed amount of money found in their possession.

Drivers licences a bumpy ride

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - South African motorists whose driver's licences were due to expire at the end of March 2022 as a result of a major backlog in the issuing of licences were up in arms and according to the Organisation Undoing Tax Abuse (Outa) South African Transport Minister Fikile Mbalula was headed towards a "war" with South African

This would have been the case should the deadline for applications for the renewal of drivers licences not have been extended to 15 April2022. Sadly however, this is a matter of cold comfort as barely three weeks offer little consolation and even less chance that all South African motorists would be able to succeed with their applications for the renewal of their licences in just 15 days. To ad insult to injury, Rustenburg motorists in particular were in outrage as it turned out that the Rustenburg Municipality's Licensing department were unable to accommodate the number of people flocking to its offices as a result of the backlog. Last week Rustenburg Herald was inundated with calls from outraged residents as soon as it became known that the Licensing department were turning away prospective applicants who have gathered at the main entrance from early hours in the morning. According to the head Communications of the Rustenburg Municipality - Thapelo Matebesi, the Licensing department are unable to accommodate more than 120 applicants per day as a result of system constraints regarding eye testing facilities and personnel. "Two eye testing officials from Rustenburg have been deployed at Marikana and Chaneng stations as we are yet to appoint officials at these stations", Matebesi said. "We are however able to assist more people in the Bojanala region", he concluded.

Stolen ferrochrome recovered

RUSTENBURG HERALD - MARIKANA - The police have recovered ferrochrome in Norite, near Wonderkop and Marikana after they received a tip off from mine security.

On Thursday morning (7 April), police were summoned to the scene where a bakkie overloaded with ferrochrome was found abandoned near a railway line.

Near the bakkies were 12 more piles of ferrochrome which were hidden in the bushes and ready to be loaded.

While the police were busy with preliminary investigations, they discovered another bakkie broken down in Marikana next to the road.

Upon closer inspection, they discovered that the bakkie was also carrying ferrochrome. An enquiry was registered by the police to determine who the owners of the vehicles were.

Police are also following up information that may lead to the arrest of the suspects.

The estimated value of the recovered ferrochrome is still unknown.

legal mining syndicate descended upon by the Hawks

RUSTENBURG HERALD- RUSTENBURG - A multi-disciplinary team consisting of members of the Hawks' Serious Organised Crime Investigation assisted my members of the Special Task Force, National Intervention Unit, Air Wing, South African Air Force, Bidvest Protea Coin, Hawks' Tactical Operations Management Section (TOMS), Hawks' Priority Crime Specialised Investigation (PCSI), Klerksdorp Illegal Mining Task Team and Forensic Science Laboratory descended on an unsuspecting illegal mining syndicate in several helicopters at Batlhako mine in Rustenburg on Thursday afternoon (7 April).

Hawk's spokesperson, the highly elaborate operation stems from months of intelligence gathered on the illegal mining activities of Chrome that had allegedly been hampering official mining operations for some time. It is alleged that the illegal mining activities are conducted by a syndicate comprising of different role players who all benefit from the organised crime network.

During the operation two primary syndicate members were arrested whilst three suspects were wounded after they allegedly tried to evade arrest by driving off the crime scene thus allegedly activating a high speed chase and a resultant shootout.

Approximately 3000 tons of chrome worth approximately R2.5 million was seized. Other seizures include four Interlink trucks, one tipper truck, three excavators,

One of the recovered excavators.

The members used helicopters to descend on the suspected Mining Syndicate.

Get ready for more higher prices

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - We can expect prices of consumer and commercial goods to keep rising as global supply chain backlogs show no signs of easing, warns Cargo Compass SA, Sebastiano Iorio.

Shortages will have a significant impact on an already fast-rising inflation rate says lorio.

"Prices of consumer goods like electronics and clothing, including imported basic food products, are certainly going to keep rising while commercial goods such as imported machinery, hydraulic pumps and computer chips - are not yet in short supply in South Africa, but could well be later this year," he added.

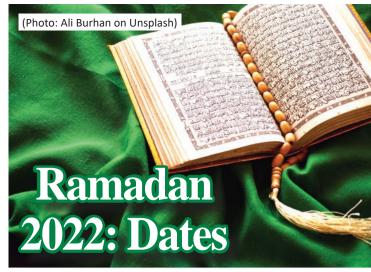

Rapidly rising freight charges are also contributing to dramatic price hikes in shipped goods says lorio in a company statement.

"We've come through a very difficult time with Covid. We were certainly hoping that this year we would start to see it ease off but in fact it has not eased off. We've seen that the congestion and delays are continuously growing. Transit times to SA from Europe, the USA and China are continuously rising," lorio explained.

Shipping lines are also increasing freight rates to the point where it impacts the consumer. Importers are paying more to get goods to South African shores; in fact the costs have skyrocketed, according to Iorio.

"Two years ago the basic Shanghai to Durban or Cape Town - for a 12-metre container - cost would have been in the region of $2,000, quite a decent price. Today we are facing, for the same container and slower transit times, anything in the region of about $14,000 for that container," he said. Iorio warned that they do not see a slow-down or a return to normality for at least the remainder of this year. "The goods are still coming in to South Africa, and they're demanding price. Customers want to get their goods here and are accepting this, otherwise they won't have any stock on the shelves," Iorio concluded.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The holy month of Ramadan is the first celebration on the Islamic calendar.

It marks a four-week period of fasting for Muslims around the world. This year, Ramadan began on 2 April, and will come to a close around 1May - depending on the visibility of the moon.

Ramadan is the ninth month of the Islamic calendar and lasts between 29 and 30 days, based on the lunar calendar.

Muslim holidays shift slightly every year due to their observance of the lunar calendar, as opposed to the commonly-used Gregorian calendar, meaning celebrations fall around 11 days earlier each year. The timing of holidays and celebrations depends on the sighting of the moon's crescent, following a new moon. Since the visibility of the moon is dependent on a number of factors -including clear skies.

Muslims are required to spend a period of 30 days abstaining from food and drink, including water, during daylight hours, as a means of celebrating and reflecting on their faith.

It is one of the five pillars of Islam - the fundamental rules that all Muslims follow - along with the Shahadah (declaration of faith), Salat (prayer), Zakat (charity) and the Hajj pilgrimage.

During Ramadan, there is an increased offering of the Salat, with Muslims giving thanks to Allah, while the fasting ritual allows them to understand the suffering of others. Those observing the fast are encouraged to read the Quran and the holy text is recited at the Tarawih, special nightly prayers that are held throughout the month.

The fast begins just before dawn, when a light meal called 'suhoor' is permitted to be consumed. At sunset, a prayer known as 'Adhan' signifies the end of the fast, when worshippers traditionally eat dates with juice, milk or water.

To break the fast fully at the end of the month, families usually come together to enjoy the meal of lftar.

Once fasting is over, it's traditional to celebrate Eid al-Fitr.

This celebration is marked with lights, decorations and gifts, with worshippers often dressing up and decorating their homes.

* Rustenburg Herald wishes all our Muslim friends, advertisers and readers a blessed Ramadan.

Laat poësie die koue verdryf

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die beroemde lerse digter, William Yeats het 'n baie eenvoudige, maar tog diepsnyende verduideliking oor wat digkuns is: "We make out of the quarrel with others, rhetoric, but of the quarrel with ourselves, poetry.'

Vra vir 'n persoon om 'n stukkie aan te haal uit 'n voorgeskrewe boek op skool, en hy gaan waarskynlik sukkel. Maar vra hom om 'n stuk aan te haal uit 'n gedig wat hy op skool geleer het, en hy gaan vir jou 'n antwoord kan gee. Digkuns het, soms onwetend, 'n baie groter impak op 'n leser as net 'n gewone storie. Want 'n goeie digter kan in net 'n paar strofes vir jou die wêreld meer verstaanbaar maak, vir jou die woorde gee om jou eie emosies mee te beskryf of gestalte gee aan gedagtes wat jyself nog nie kon omskryf nie. Ter viering van die genre word daar op 28 April 'n Poësie-aand gehou. Digters, amateur digters, of voornemende digters word genooi om 'n kort uittreksel uit hul gedigte vir keuring voor te lê om as deel van die aand se program opgeneem te word. Die aand word by Tarentaal Teater gehou en sal om 18:30 begin. Chris Pieterse sal as gaskunstenaar optree en van Koos du Plessis se liedjies kom sing. Chris Coetzer sal, onder andere, 'n voordrag lewer.

Kaartjies kos R160 elk, en daar sal 'n kontantkroeg beskikbaar wees. Wins sal vir aangewend word die misdaadvoorkomings-organisasie, RGKB.

Digters wat hul eie bundels het, word genooi om dit te kom bemark, asook kunstenaars wat hul eie skilder -of tekenwerk wil kom uitstal. Besprekings sluit 22 April. Vir meer besonderhede, stuur 'n Whatsapp na Mirandie op 082 406 6308.

Eight Rustenburg preschools get help from Shoprite

RUSTENBURG HERALD - BOITEKONG - Eight Early Childhood Development (ECD) centres in Rustenburg's Boitekong township received critical infrastructure upgrades made possible by the Shoprite Group.

The upgrades included a brand new build for the Moremologo Educare Centre, started by Mapula Mashaba in 2017 as a way to serve the community and support her family. The building in which it operated was dilapidated and unsafe. Given the extensive work required, Shoprite decided to demolish the old building and replaced it with a brand new, sound structure.

"The new school has helped us attract more enrolments and brought back former learners who left because of the poor condition of the old building. Shoprite has been very generous! I still can't believe what they have done for us, and I am very grateful for their continued support," said Mashaba.

Shoprite's infrastructure upgrades at ECD's are aimed at ensuring that learners have access to a safe, stimulating learning environment in which they are able to thrive, that the centres have access to water and sanitation, and are equipped with safe bathrooms and proper kitchens.

Not far from Moremogolo is the Mphe Banna Educare Centre, run by Monica Sedumedi, whose late husband – Joel Mokoena – was a loyal Shoprite employee for 35 years.

Shoprite ensured that Sedumedi's ECD received a much-needed revamp as well as practitioner training. "I am very grateful to Shoprite for their continued support and so happy that we are able to take better care of our children now," said Sedumedi.

This investment also benefitted the larger community with six other ECD's in Boitekong – Letlhabile Early Child Care Centre, Mmelegi Day Care Centre, Petra Domus Day Care Centre, Happy Hearts Day Care Centre, ECD's Boitekong Rustenburg - Moremologo Educare Centre: Mmapula Manopole.

Onalerona Day Care Centre and Kgolagano Day Care Centre – also receiving structural upgrades. "Local tradesman were hired to do the upgrades at the eight ECD's in Boitekong. With Shoprite's support, the respective school principals identified, appointed and managed skilled and experienced workers from the community," explained Judy Maluleka, Shoprite's CSI Manager.

Shoprite is committed to advancing early childhood development by investing in critical structural upgrades, skills training for practitioners as well as nutritious meals and educational resources for children at ECD centres across South Africa. In the last financial year, Shoprite's support of 103 ECD's benefitted 5 062 children and 291 837 nutritionally balanced meals were served to children in supported ECD centres.

Tamaaibraai voed duiser

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die Rustenburgse Vryburgers was die afgelope naweek deel van die landswye "Tamaaibraai-projek" - 'n inisiatief deur die Vryburgers van Suid-Afrika waarin daar na minderbevoorregte persone en verdienstelike instansies uitgereik is.

Die Tamaaibraai is reeds vir 'n hele paar jaar 'n nasionale projek waarin daar heerlike braai-etes beskikbaar gestel word aan instansies en persone waar die nood groot is. Die Rustenburgkorps het sowat 300 etes voorberei vir die Kremetart- en Kerkstraat munisipale woonstelle asook Rusoord Tehuis vir Bejaardes. Danksy dié projek is daar landswyd sowat 3 000 etes aan behoeftiges regoor die land uitgedeel. Die volgende projek wat nou reeds in beplanningstadium is - die Gekombineerde Gholfdag - vind vanjaar op 11 Junie plaas en die Vryburgers hoop dat daar vanjaar oudergewoonte op die ruimhartige ondersteuning van Rustenburg se sakesektor staatgemaak kan word. Instansies wat nou reeds van voorneme is om by dié baie spesiale fondsinsamelingsprojek betrokke te wees, word genooi om met Jaco by 082 550 3937 in verbinding te tree.

Free, accredited online learning helps high schoolers improve grades

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Worried the high school learners you know are being held back by all the teaching interruptions of the pandemic over the past two years? It's not too late for them to catch up and prepare themselves for better exam results. And it doesn't cost a cent.

A joint programme of the Western Cape Education Department (WCED) and Stellenbosch University, called the Telematics Schools Project (TSP), is extending online learning support for learners at Basic Education Department high schools in grades 10 to 12 countrywide, with content presented in English and Afrikaans. It's free to register and, what's more, requires no data.

To access course work in 18 subjects, from languages (English, Afrikaans and isiXhosa) to Mathematics, Physical Sciences, Accounting, History, Geography and more, all learners need to do is register with the zerorated Telematics Schools Project website. Just a personal email address is required.

Once registered, learners will have instant access to live-streamed online teaching or, if more convenient, to recorded versions of the lessons, which they can work though in their own time and at their own pace. They can return to lessons as often as they need until they feel they are sufficiently familiar with the work.

They have access to all the lesson videos, workbooks, revision programmes and course content summaries, including other materials such as infographics, as well as practice exam papers to help them make up for all the teaching and learning time lost since 2020.

Content is quality assured by WCED senior curriculum planners. The system is open to all grade 10 to 12 high school goers across the country.

Online access is also available via Facebook, but then users need their own data.

Many high schools across the country have already signed up with the project, but in these cases content is viewed by the whole class at once, explains Zainab Suliman of Stellenbosch University's Centre for Learning Technologies. Ms Suliman is the deputy director of the centre's operations, telematics services and projects, and manages the TSP. Dr Glynis Schreuder, chief education specialist: Curriculum FET (Further Education and Training) and project manager of the TSP at the WCED explains: "We are thrilled by the number of schools taking advantage of the facility and we are receiving excellent feedback about how much it is helping learners to master the curriculum and also to recover possible curriculum losses/deficits resulting from the rotational timetabling during the pandemic. In the classroom they can watch live-streamed content and participate interactively, or they can watch recorded sessions timed to suit the school programme. "We encourage all grade 10 to 12 learners to register individually to benefit further. Even if they are participating at school, if they register individually they can return to work covered in their own time and engage with the recorded broadcasts as often as they need to."

She adds that, in addition to the broadcasts of lessons covering specific topics, quarterly revision programmes are also provided. "The revision programme summarises each term's work to help learners further familiarise themselves with the syllabus. We understand the many life pressures learners face. We want them to be able to integrate the use of this condensed content into their daily realities as effectively as possible."

The TSP also gives registered users access to life skills workshops and videos, along with information on presentation skills, work readiness, preparing for job interviews, how to write a curriculum vitae, and even how to enhance personal mental health.

NW church leaders call for peace

Mahikeng Ministers Fellowship (MMF) in the North West on Tuesday called for churches to pray for peace and an end to the Russia-Ukraine conflict during their Good Friday/ Passover weekend gatherings.

While restoration of families including churches devasted by the Covid-19 pandemic should be foremost in our prayer points, the unfolding human tragedy in Eastern Europe demands for Christians the world over to stand in the gap, extend their prayers and helping hand to millions who have been displaced by the senseless conflict," highlighted MMF Chairperson, Senior Pastor Dr. Moss Tlalang of behalf of the Interdenominational five-fold ministries fraternal. Dr Tlalang reminded church leaders and congregants to be conscious of the fact that covid-19 is still very much an active threat, therefore compliance with health protocols and regulations will be paramount during this important period in the Christian calendar in order to prevent a surge of infections that might spark a forth wave. "We must take to the LORD the challenges of climate change contributing towards devastating flooding currently being experienced in Kwa-Zulu Natal and other parts of the country, rising unemployment, drug abuse, teenage pregnancies, corruption, escalating crime levels fueling Afrophobia and pray earnestly for economic recovery," he stressed. He wished those who will be travelling to church conferences and various destinations safe travel urging them to observe the rules of the road, maintain safe following distances, avoid speeding as well as rest every two hours to avoid fatigue. "We call on law enforcement to exercise zero tolerance on lawlessness as well as reckless driving on public roads by increasing visibility and activating operations to tackle opportunistic crime," underscored Tlalang

NOTICE OF AMENDMENT OF THE ISSUED ENVIRONMENTAL AUTHORISATION FOR THE PROPOSED UPGRADE OF THE N4 BAKWENA TOLL ROAD ADDITIONAL CARRIAGEWAY BETWEEN D1325 MARIKANA INTERCHANGE AND THE R52 KOSTER TURN-OFF REFERENCE: 14/12/16/3/3/1/1633/AM1

An Environmental Authorization (EA) was issued to the South African National Roads Agency SOC LTD (SANRAL) on 13 March 2017 for the proposed upgrading of the existing N4 Bakwena Toll Road from a single carriageway road to a dual carriageway road between the D1325 Buffelspoort (Marikana) interchange (N4-13 km 2.8) and the R52 Koster turn-off (west of Rustenburg). Due to the reduction in traffic as a result of Covid-19 and the resulting poor economic growth and financial constraints, the project could not be started within the specified 5-year validity of the EA. A request for extension of the validity was subsequently submitted to the Department of Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment (Department).

Based on the review of the reason for requesting an amendment to the issued EA, the Department has decided to amendment condition 7 of the EA dated 13 March 2017 in terms of Chapter of the Environmental Impact Assessment Regulations, 2014 as amended to read as follows:

"7. This activity must commence within a period of ten (10) years from the date of issue of the authorization (i.e., the EA lapses on 13 March 2027). If commencement of the activity does not occur within that period, the authorization lapses and a new application for environmental authorization must be made in order for the activity to be undertaken."

In terms of Regulation 4(2) of the Environmental Impact Assessment Regulations, 2014 as amended, we are notifying all registered interested and affected parties of the Department's decision.

Should you wish to appeal this decision your attention is drawn to Chapter 2 of the National Environmental Management Act, 1998 (Act No. 107 of 1998) National Appeal Regulations published under Government Notice R993 in Government Gazette No 38303 dated 08 December 2014, which prescribes the appeal procedure to be followed.

To obtain the prescribed appeal form and for guidance on the submission of appeals, please visit the website:

https://www.environment.gov.za/documents/forms#legal_authorizations. A request for a copy of the appeals document or the submission of any appeal can be send to: appeals@dffe.gov.za. Should any person wish to lodge an appeal it should be done within 20 days from the date of this notification.

Additional information or a copy of the amendment EA can be obtained from Etienne van der Lith at the details provided below.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION PROCESS THARISA MINERALS (PTY) LTD ADDITIONAL WASTE STORAGE AT THE THARISA MINE

Tharisa Minerals (Pty) Ltd (Tharisa) is an opencast mining operation that produces chrome and platinum group metals concentrate. The opencast mine is located on the farms 342 JQ and Elandsdrift 467 JQ near the town of Marikana in the Bojanala District Municipality and Rustenburg Local Municipality. North West Province.

Mining is undertaken in two mining sections, namely the East Mine and West Mine, using conventional open pit truck and shovel methods. Waste rock from the open pit areas is either stockpiled on Waste Rock Dumps (WRD's) or backfilled into the open pit as part of concurrent rehabilitation. # Waterglen beesstert

Menige mense beweer dat hul die beste beesstertresep het; min tref egter die kol. Maar die kombuisspan – onder die leiding van Sarah Senne en Rina Mophuling - by Waterglen Gastehuis bedien al vir die afgelope 20 jaar beesstert wat mense van heinde en vere laat ry om te kom smul.

Hul geheim is baie eenvoudig: goeie bestanddele en tyd.

Want beesstert laat hom nie aanjaag nie. O nee, hy wil stadig prut sodat die vleis doeksag kan raak en elke vesel met soveel delikate geure as moontlik deurdrenk kan wees.

O ja, en wanneer jy aansit om jou ete te geniet, kan jy maar weet dat Hendrik Mncube, die vriendelike kroegman, byderhand sal wees om jou op die hande te dra.

Zuma buit gapings in regstelsel uit

Daar is 'n bekende uitdrukking wat lui: Wat is die sin daarvan om 'n opinie oor iets/ iemand te hê as jy dit nie kan verander nie? Die menslike spesie is nou maar eenmaal 'n nie-statiese en ontwikkelende wese wat hom soos enige skepsel binne die enormgroot skepping goed kan aanpas binne die omstandighede waarin hy hom bevind. Vir die mense wat wonder waarheen ons nou skielik die mantel gedraai het, die volgende:

Ons het onlangs 'n lansie gebreek vir die Suid-Afrikaanse regstelsel en by die standpunt arriveer dat die Suid-Afrikaanse regstelsel nie te blameer is vir die feit dat mense soos Jacob Zuma, Dudu Myeni, Brian Molefe, Ace Magashule en dosyne ander steeds skynbaar sorgloos en vry kan rondloop nie, maar die sondebokke by die Nasionale Vervolgingsgesag.

Dit terwyl daar honderde inderwaarheid seker derduisende mense in gevangenisse opgesluit sit wat met die "lang arm" van die gereg te doen gekry het en opgesluit is nadat hulle skuldig bevind is aan, in vergelyking met bogenoemde "lotte" se vergrype, feitlik niks meer as lagwekkend-betekenislose misdaadjies nie. (Ons praat nou nie van moordenaars, verkragters en misdadigers in kategorie A-misdade nie).

Maar na die soveelste beoogde hofverskyning van beide Jacob Zuma en Dudu Myeni vandeesweek wat albei kwalik meer as 'n kat-in-die-sak opgelewer het, moet die vraag weer eens gevra word:

Regtig? Is dit so dat alle Suid-Afrikaners voor die reg gelyk is? En dan moet 'n mens antwoord - "nee, duidelik nie". Die feit dat 'n veroordeelde krimineel soos Jacob Zuma vir 'n baie lang tyd (ons moet dit eintlik 'n era noem) met verloop van sy Nkandla- en korrupsieverhore (tot dusver daar was ook etlike ander) as voormalige staatspresident van die land op staatshulp kon aanspraak maak met betrekking tot die koste van sy hofsake terwyl "gewone mense" uit hul eie sakke moet opdok vir goeie verdediging, maak dit 'n ondubbelsinnige "nee". Maar wag 'n bietjie sou sommige mense dalk opmerk: Is dit dan nie so dat die staat gratis regshulp voorsien in die geval van beskuldiges wat nie regshulp kan bekostig nie - so wat is die verskil nou eintlik?

Sou iemand wat byvoorbeeld sy bank bedrieg het of sy buurman se kat doodgeskiet het (maar nie regshulp kon bekostig nie) dit ook kon regkry om die regspleging in Suid-Afrika só eindeloos te frustreer dat daar in 20 jaar geen vordering gemaak kon word nie? Hoekom lyk dit vir Suid-Afrikaners toenemend of 'n man wat 'n ernstige aanklag in die gesig staar 'n beter kans het om uit die hof/tronk te bly as die man wat onder invloed bestuur het en 'n ongeluk veroorsaak het? Kan dit wees dat die Suid-Afrikaanse regstelsel "homself" onder sekere omstandighede in 'n hoek vasgeverf het en dat dit iemand soos Jacob Zuma gekos het om dit vir die

Dankie vir inligting

Ek wil net baie dankie sê vir die hulp van die Rustenburg Herald om my seun Ruan

Na my brief verlede week in die koerant verskyn het, het verskeie mense my gekontak met inligting oor my seun.

Al wil hy nie nou met ons in aanraking kom nie, het ek vir die eerste keer in sowat agt jaar 'n rustiger gemoed omdat ek nou weet dat hy nog lewe.

Travel safe this Easter holidays

Just out of concern, I would like to wish those that will be travelling this Easter period to be safe on the roads, obey road rules and be patient with fellow road users.

Every year around this time we loose a lot of people on our roads because of road accidents.

Drivers, especially in Rustenburg are very reluctant to follow the rules of the road. This is evident throughout the whole year with road rage at the top of the agenda followed by those who don't even bother to stop at the stop

I am hoping that this behaviour will change this coming long weekend.

This is very important because we will be happy to be back together again at our various working places as well as different schools and organizations.

Radio nie meer boeiend nie

Daar is twee dinge waarsonder ek nie kan klaarkom nie - my weeklikse Rustenburg Herald en my RSG waarna ek amper elke dag luister as ek by die huis of in die motor is. Wat RSG betref, weet ek nie hoe ek die onlangse veranderinge by sekerlik een van die oudste radiostasies in die land en 'n belangrike gedeelte van my opvoeding om die waarheid te sê - gaan hanteer nie.

Ek was geskok deur die aanvanklike aankondiging oor al die programaankondigings deur RSG se nuwe bestuur, maar het nie eintlik besef hoe ingrypend die veranderde programme my gaan beïnvloed nie.

Dit is dieselfde om een oggend op te staan en nie een van jou kinders en jou man te herken nie. Hoewel RSG se musiekkeuses my in die laaste tyd nie meer veel aangestaan het nie, was die meeste programme nog lekker opvoedkundig en leersaam en die omroepers was mense met jare se ondervinding of baie talentvolle mense. Ek is nie nou meer so seker of dit nog die geval is nie.

Soos 'n ander luisteraar opgemerk het, ek is ook nie altyd lus om soggens na die gegiggel van jong omroepertjies te luister of wat hulle idees rondom baie dinge is nie. Omroepers is nie daar om die luisteraar te vermaak met sy/haar kennis nie - maar om die luisteraar voor te stel aan 'n paneel van kundiges en ingeligtes wat 'n mens se lewens

Dit is vreemd dat mense wat ewe skielik programbestuurders is nie laasgenoemde weet nie.

Zuma exploits loopholes in judiciary

There is a well-known expression that time in recent years to absolutely no avail goes: What is the use of having a mind of you cannot change it? The human species is after all a non-static, ever evolving creature and well equipped to adapt to changing conditions almost effortlessly. Many people will probably wonder where we have turned our coats to this time. Recently we broke a lance for the South African judiciary and arrived at the viewpoint that the judiciary is not to blame for the fact that people such as Jacob Zuma, Dudu Myeni, Brian Molefe, Ace Magashule and countless others continue to walk about as free men and women without a worry in the world. The guilty ones we argued, were the National Prosecuting Authority who indeed must carry a lot of the blame. The point we're ask, is why it is that thousands of South Africans who have been found guilty of really inferior or minor crimes in comparison to these above, couldn't manage to escape prison or other hefty sentences? (Obviously, murderers, rapists and other category A criminals are not included here). Think about student Sibongile Mani who was sentenced to five years in prison for instance. On the other hand - on Monday South Africans have witnessed both Jacob Zuma and Dudu Myeni appearing in court (or destined to at least) for the umpteenth we're tempted to say. A waste of time, a shameful effort. Again we must ask: Really? Is it true that all South African are equal before the law? This time the answer must be "clearly not". What the Man in the Street would like to know, why is it that a convicted criminal such as Jacob Zuma could have access to limitless funds in state money on the basis of him being a former State President (despite being convicted as a criminal and a fraud) in defending his case while any other man or woman has to pay for their defense themselves? But wait, we hear someone saying: "Isn't free legal advice available to anyone who cannot afford a lawyer? Yes that may be true, but would anyone who had defrauded his bank trying to make or the question we should or killed his neighbour's cat but claimed to be unable to afford legal advice be able to frustrate the judiciary for two decades with no end in sight? Probably not... We are no experts of the law, but to ordinary men and women, it seems worrisome that someone who has committed a serious offence appears to have a better change of getting away with it that a man who was driving under the influence and got involved in an accident? Could it be that in some awkward way the judiciary has managed to paint itself into a corner and that it took someone like Jacob Zuma to exploit it?

Learners visit Vaalkop Water Treatment Plant

Learners learning about the importance of water conservation.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - As part of Impala Rustenburg's school support programme, a competition was held to create awareness among mine community schools about the importance of protecting water resources.

Learners were required to write a one-page essay on how they plan to protect South Africa's scarce water resources and how they can play a part in saving water in their communities. The top 30 Grade 10 and 11 learners from eight high schools in Impala Rustenburg's mine communities were selected to participate in an educational day trip to Magalies Water's Vaalkop Water Treatment Plant on World Water Day (22 March).

"We are proud to invest in campaigns that highlight environmental issues with the purpose of changing behaviour to ensure that we build more environmentally sustainable and robust communities," said Mark Munroe, CE Impala Rustenburg.

The campaign was a collaborative effort between Impala Rustenburg and Magalies Water and sought to raise awareness about water conservation, environmental sustainability and climate change. Learners visited the Vaalkop Water Treatment Plant, one of Magalies Water's four treatment plants. At Vaalkop, the learners received presentations from Magalies Water on geographic information systems, scientific services, public relations, and plant operations, as well as career options within the various fields. This was followed by a plant tour, from the water inlet point to the water treatment centre, including an overview of the supervisory control and data acquisition system.

"Thank you to all the learners who took part in the competition and congratulations to our top 30 learners whose essays were well written and demonstrated their understanding that South Africa is a water scarce country. We hope that all the learners who took part in the competition will continue to implement their plans to save water at their schools and in their communities," said Annah Kgaswane, Impala Rustenburg's Head of

Congratulations to learners who achieved the top five slots, and who are a credit to their schools: Thethe Secondary School, Matsukubyane Secondary School and Mmanape Secondary School.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Laerskool Elandskraal se Diensraad het op Saterdag, 9 April die DBV Rustenburg besoek onder leiding van me J Liebenberg (Leiervoog) en me N Wessels (Bemarking).

Daar het hul gehelp om die diere se hokke skoon te maak.

Aangesien daar koue verwag is die naweek, het hul gesorg dat die diere warm slaapplekkies het deur ekstra komberse in die hokke te sit en natuurlik het hul met die diere gespeel. Opvallend was dat die personeel van elke hondjie en katjie iets te vertel het. Dit is met swaar harte wat hul daar weg is, maar ook met die gerustheid dat hul weer so sal maak. "Baie dankie aan die DBV, Rustenburg wat nie net hul deure nie, maar ook hul harte oopgemaak het sodat ons die dag saam met hul vierpotige kinders kon deurbring, sê me J Liebenberg.

Is facing extreme financial difficulties, with little help from RLM.

Blitzboks: Hoping for better luck in Canada

RUSTENBURG HERALD RUSTENBURG - This coming weekend the South African Sevens team will travel to Canada in a bid to get back on the winning track.

From 16-17 April, the Blitzboks will be in action at the Vancouver Sevens - and they will hopefully have a better showing than at the past weekend's Singapore Sevens.

The team's 36 match winning streak came to an unexpected and rather abrupt end on Saturday (9 April).

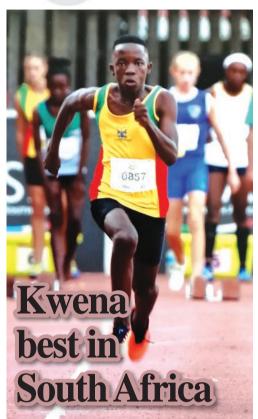

The Blitzboks started the tournament out in their usual devastating way; simply sweeping the competition away in a flood of sidesteps and tries. But the final match in Pool A was a totally different story. The Blitzboks took to the field against the USA - and from the word go the Eagles got off to a flying start, swooping down and blocking any advances the South Africans made. At halftime, the score was 7-0 in favour of the Eagles, and it stayed that way for the first five minutes of the second half. With less than two minutes left on the clock, the Blitzboks levelled the score and hopes were revived that they will be the winners of Pool A on point difference.But

With the clock already in the red, the Eagles' Dmontae Noble did a superb offload and speedster Perry Baker went over to see his side come out on top 12-7. South Africa, however, did qualify for the quarter-finals, but was beaten by Fiji resulting in the Blitzboks not making podium position for the first time in quite a while.

Hopefully this weekend's Vancouver tournament, with the Blitzboks still the top ranked team (followed by Australia, Argentina and the USA) will see a reversal of fortunes for our home-boys.

The Vancouver Sevens and Sunday, 16, 17 April.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG Fields College is very proud of one of their learners, Kwena Mojapelo on extraordinary achievement accomplishment.

Fields College is proud to be the home of an exceptional young man whose work ethic, natural talent and commitment has catapulted him to SASA (South African School Athletics)

Mojapelo represented the North West Province by competing in the South African School Athletics in two events in March 2022. He ran a personal best of 12.13 seconds in the 100m which is a mere 2.55 seconds behind the fastest man in the world, Usain Bolt.

He was awarded the gold medal for U/12 in the 100m and 150m sprint events.

Kwena is a role model to any young learner who is willing to match commitment with talent and push to be the very best version of Kwena Mojapelo and Amanda Coetzee (Principal of Fields College).

The flying Blitzbok...Sako Makata was a star in the South African Sevens team's match against Kenia at the Singapore Sevens the past weekend. Unfortunately the lightning fast muscle man picked will be played this Saturday up an injury in the quarter-final. Hopefully he will be back in form for this weekend's Vancouver Sevens.
