Hemelsluise ook amper weggespoel

RUSTENBURG HERALD -
RUSTENBURG - Nee, asb net nie nog reën nie", is waarskynlik hoe baie mense voel nadat ongekende reën die afgelope net meer as 'n week oor groot dele van die land uitgesak het.

Maar "boere" soos ons almal maar is, sê ons nie maklik "nee dankie" sê vir reën nie, maar soos dit verlede Vrydag in Rustenburg gereën het, is dalk 'n bietjie oordadig om dit sagkens te stel. Verlede Vrydag se reën was op baie plekke in die stad 'n vloed soos wat lanklaas hier gesien het en berigte van groot skade aan paaie, infrastruktuur en huise en tuine het Dinsdag steeds ingestroom.

Hoewel die reënval plek-tot-plek gewissel het, het tussen 85 en 125 mm Vrydag in sowat 90 minute in Rustenburg uitgesak. Sommige het selfs gemeen dat hulle meer as dit gemeet het en dat die reënmeters meer as een keer uitgegooi moes word. Selfs die kleinse rivierlopies het in siedende watermassas ontaard en menige motoris is onkant betrap toe daar gepoog is om darem betyds by die werk te kom. In Tuscany Village is talle huise oorstrom, so-ook in Cuckoolaan, onder by Rockcliff Estates waar beide mure aan weerskante van die berugte "Rockcliff Spruit" weggespoel is. Talle laagwaterbruggies is tydelik gesluit omdat dit 'n gevaar vir verkeer ingehou het en by die Kremetartlaanbruggie was 'n Mahindra-bakkie amper "bokveld" toe toe dit in die siedende water vasgeval het. Nooddienste was egter vinnig op die toneel en het hulp verleen.

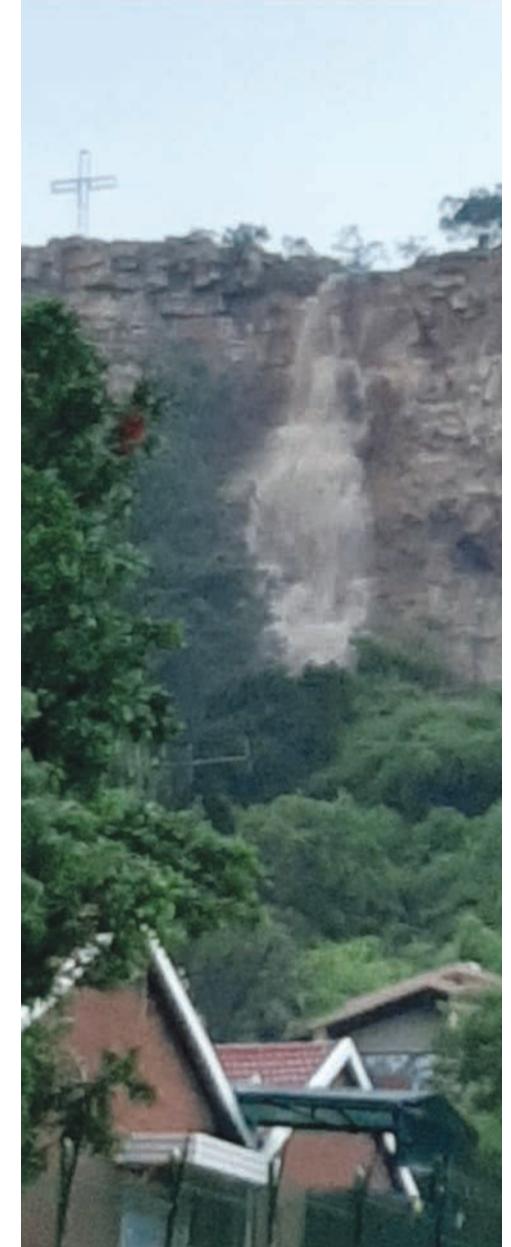

Vir Rustenburgers wat nuuskierig oor die weersake en weerpatrone is, kan ons sê dat Rusenburg met amper nog die helfte van Desember wat voorlê, stewig op pad is na die hoogste jaarlike reënval die afgelope 118 jaar, volgens die rekords van mnr Charlie Graham. Tans is ons egter nog in die tweede plek met so 'n rapsie meer as 1 120 mm - in 1997 het Rustenburg die hoogste reënval sedert 1904 gehad met 1 291 mm wat in een jaar uitgesak het. Ironies genoeg was 2015 die swakste reënjaar sedert 1904 toe daar slegs 271 mm in ons reënmetters was.

Die berugte Rockcliff Spruit waar die mure en omheining weggespoel het.

'n Siedende watermassa by die Rustenburgse Gholfbaan.

'n Waterval aan die bokant van Rustenburg se bekende "rooi Kloof" of ook bekend as "Little Margate" - mense wat langer as 50 jaar in Rustenburg woon sê dat hulle nog nooit so iets gesien het nie.

Fatal Accident investigated

RUSTENBURG HERALD - SWARTRUGGENS - Police here are investigating cases of Culpable Homicide following an accident involving three vehicles.

According to Capt Sam Tshelenyane, it is alleged that on Saturday (10 December) at about 17:40, police were called to the scene of the collision on the N4 between Swartruggens and Rustenburg. Upon arrival at the scene, police found a silver Audi A4 with five occupants. The Audi was allegedly traveling from the direction of Rustenburg towards Swartruggens. "It is alleged that the Audi tried to overtake another vehicle on the left hand side and the vehicle went off the road. The driver then allegedly tried to pull his vehicle back onto the road, lost control of it and collided with an oncoming Toyota Land Cruiser with two occupants," Capt Tshelenyane said.

According to Capt Tshelenyane, a Mercedes Benz truck was apparently also involved and it crashed into the two vehicles.

All five occupants of the Audi A4 were certified dead on the scene. The driver of the Land Cruiser was transported to a nearby hospital, while his passenger was air-lifted to another hospital with serious injuries.

The truck driver, the only occupant of the truck, was also transported to a local hospital with minor injuries.

Impala's Global Entrepreneurship a worldwide celebration

Some of the business owners from the new intake of SMMEs, who are progressing through Impala Rustenburg's 12-month Enterprise and Supplier Development programme.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Global Entrepreneurship Week is a worldwide celebration of entrepreneurship that takes place annually in the second week of November, during which the international spotlight falls on the potential for entrepreneurs to contribute to economic growth.

In this spirit, Impala Rustenburg is celebrating the intake of another 40 mine-community SMMEs, who have embarked on a 12-month development journey. This intensive, year-long Enterprise and Supplier Development programme is funded by Impala Rustenburg and aims to equip SMMEs in the mine communities with the skills and tools to grow their businesses and realise their potential.

Impala Rustenburg CEO Mark Munroe says, "Entrepreneurs are the future of our country. With unemployment continuing to rise, entrepreneurship is one of the most sustainable ways for young people to create jobs – not just for themselves but for others in our communities. According to Global Entrepreneurship Monitor, the youth in South Africa have the highest levels of perceived entrepreneurial competence across four indicators – self-efficacy, opportunity alertness, risk-willingness, and access to a role model. It is incumbent on corporate South Africa to be that role model and to nurture entrepreneurial competence." Impala Rustenburg's Enterprise and Supplier Development Programme forms part of the company's socio-economic development plan, which assists mine-community SMME owners to formalise their businesses.

Since November 2019, more than 400 SMMEs have benefitted from Impala Rustenburg's Enterprise and Supplier Development initiatives. These include a five-day workshop, where a significant number of SMMEs are given important information to help them develop their businesses, after which candidates are selected and invited to attend the 12-month training programme to further develop their business skills. Earlier this year, mine-community SMMEs began their 12-month training programme through Classic Oriental Consultancy and Accuracy Group.

During the programme business owners receive training in the fundamentals of entrepreneurship, compliance and governance, as well as financial management and marketing. Impala Rustenburg's support of the local business community expanded this year to include the development of an Economic Inclusion Centre, which now provides SMMEs with a range of business facilities, services and an information hub from which to access valuable insights to assist them in making their businesses more profitable. Munroe concludes, "Corporate South Africa has a duty and a responsibility to ensure that small business owners – particularly the youth – have the resources to be successful, to grow their businesses, to become employers, and to contribute to the growth of the economy."

At Impala Rustenburg, we take this responsibility to heart, and we are deeply invested in our programmes that assist SMMEs to grow into sustainable enterprises."

Bruno bly om te lewe na trauma

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - 'n Hond is 'n mens se beste vriend.

Ongelukkig kan die omgekeerde nie ook gesê word nie. Sowat 'n maand gelede het 'n man, wat glo onder die invloed van drank was, sy bure se hond bewusteloos met 'n stuk hout geslaan - en toe 'n gat in sy erf gegrou en die hond daarin begrawe. Maar die hond, Bruno, was nie dood nie.

Toe Bruno se eienaars by die huis kom, het hul 12-jarige seun hul dié verskriklike nuus gegee. Naarstiglik het hul die hond gaan uitgrawe, met nie hoop om hom te kan red na drie lange ure nie. Bruno se wil om te lewe was egter sterker as die gruwelike beserings wat hy opgedoen het en wonder bo wonder is hy lewend uit sy graf gehaal.

Vir meer as 'n week het Bruno se eienaars hom self probeer dokter aangesien daar nie 'n veearts op Koster is nie. "Iemand het gesê ek moet Rustenburg se DBV kontak om vir raad te vra. Hulle het my te hulp gesnel en gesorg dat Bruno by 'n veearts van die Bergboskliniek kom," vertel Bruno se eienaar. Omdat hulle in vrees lewe dat die buurman wéér hul hond sal probeer seermaak, het hulle die bitter besluit geneem om hom eerder af te staan sodat hy aangeneem kan word.

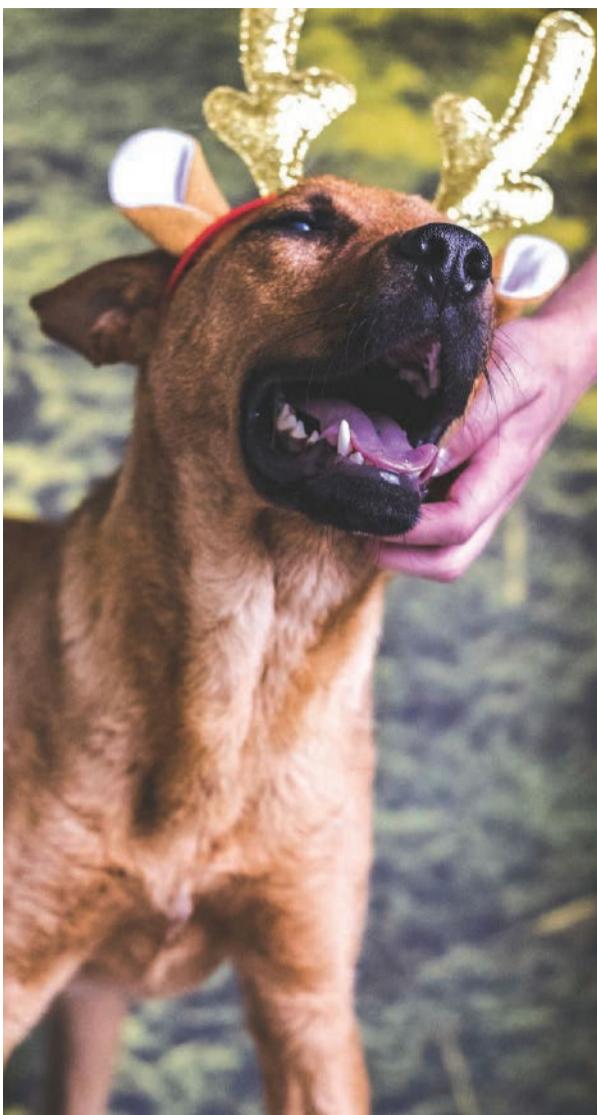

"Bruno, wat nou sowat 'n jaar oud is, is die liefdevolste hond. Vandat hy die inwoner van hok K8 geword het, het sy stertjie nog nie ophou waai nie. Hy floreer op elke ou bietjie aandag wat na sy kant toe kom en hy hou ook van interaksie met sy mede-honde-inwoners. Bruno is baie spesiaal," sê Marisa Kruger van die Rustenburg SPCA.

Bruno se sig is aangetas deur die beserings wat hy opgedoen het en dit veroorsaak dat hy nie goed kan sien nie. Sy entoesiasme om te lewe is egter van só aard dat dit hom nie te veel van stryk bring nie.

"Asseblief, Bruno verdien om Kersfees by 'n liefdevolle gesin te kan wees. Kom neem hom aan sodat hy kan weet dat hy al die liefde wat hy verdien, sal kry," vra Marisa.

Kruger het bevestig dat 'n klag van dieremishandeling teen die man wat Bruno so verniel het, aanhangig gemaak is.

Kontak asseblief die DBV dadelik om vir Bruno die huis te gee wat hy so ryklik verdien. Skakel hulle by 014 592 3181 (kantoor) of vir Marisa Kruger op 084 885 5173.

Al het hy die wredeheid van 'n mens eerstehands ervaar, is Bruno so gelukkig om te lewe, sy stertjie bly swaai. Kan jy vir Bruno 'n huis gee waar hy veilig sal wees? Bruno en die Rustenburg DBV sê baie dankie aan die omgee wat Cheryl Phillips reeds geopenbaar het. (Foto: Verskaf)

Dierbare Bruno kry 'n drukkie by Marisa Kruger. Dié blymoedige dier het haar hart gesteel en sy wil baie graag hê dat hy voor Kersfees by 'n familie moet wees. (Foto: Verskaf)

Magalies Water Obtains Clean Audit

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Magalies Water has obtained a clean audit outcome arising from the 2021/22 financial year reporting period.

This was confirmed by the Auditor General of South Africa, where Magalies Water also recorded a 90 percent performance against the strategic objectives, the company had set for itself. In the last three financial years, Magalies Water has been able to consistently achieve 90 percent and above performance year-on-year against what had been set on the shareholder compact. The SOE with an asset base of over 3 billion rand, has displayed resilience to which this success can be attributed. Magalies Water's Chief Executive Mr. Sandile Mkhize says, this third consecutive clean audit is as a result of dedication and teamwork. He continued "at the heart of any organization's success or failure are its people, which is the most important asset. We have experienced numerous challenges including rotational work during the height of Covid-19, in which period we lost some of our own employees. The news of the disestablishment of the now defunct Sedibeng Water created anxiety among our people and that required added efforts which are human centered in ensuring that the organization continued to operate and meets its targets while managing this sensitive process. Therefore, it is our belief that this outcome is as direct result of our employees' commitment to ensure that Magalies Water becomes consistently performing organization, despite the challenges we experience from time-to-time" he concluded. Following the formal gazette by the ministry of Water and Sanitation, Magalies Water is set to continue with operations in the areas formerly serviced by Sedibeng Water within the North West such as the Dr. Ruth Segomotsi Mompati, Dr. Kenneth Kaunda, and Ngaka Modiri Molema district municipalities. To this end, the water board has been directed by the minister to intervene and bring about sustainable bulk water supply to the communities of Ramotshere Moiloa local municipality within the Zeerust jurisdiction. Magalies Water has also been awarded an accolade by the PMR Africa, for the sterling work the organisation continued to do in the water sector. The PMR Africa Awards are held annually and acknowledges contributions and initiatives, strategies, efforts, and hard work done by companies in their sector. PMR Africa looks at the organizations that contribute to ethical and sustainable business practices within its industry. Magalies Water received a Golden Arrow Award, in their role to stimulate economic growth, and development of the North West Province.

Rustenburg Herald Koek

Deur Christelle Wessels

Dis mos nou al 'n uitgemaakte saak: ure se sloof voor die stoof om vir jou gesin 'n feesmaal vir kersfees voor te berei is bloot onnodig.

Jy kan heerlike geregte bedien sonder dat jy kombuisvoos hoef te raak. Met net bietjie meer as 'n week voor Kersfees oor, help Sjef Pieter Germishuys met 'n plan vir 'n treffergereg.

Sjef Pieter, van Inspirare Cooking Academy is al byna sinoniem met kos waaroer jy sal wil huis toe skryf. Hy is nie net 'n meester in die kombuis nie, sy studente pluk die vrugte van sy kundigheid met kwalifikasies wat deure vir hul oral in die wêreld kan open. Pieter is natuurlik ook 'n man wat van onthaal hou. As jy dus 'n funksie of byeenkoms beplan, vra vir Pieter – jou geleentheid sal ongetwyfeld 'n 'happening' wees.

By die rustige en netjiese Jabulani, skaars ses kilometer uit die dorp op die Dinie Estatepad, word geen moeite gespaar om klante se wense te bewaarheid nie.

Gesels met Pieter vir meer inligting. Om jou hoenderstapel – vir vyf porsies – te maak, benodig jy die volgende.

Rustenburg Geloftefees

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die Rustenburg Geloftefees word gehou in die NG Moedergemeente in Fatima Bhayatstraat 165 op Vrydag 16 Desember. Die verrigtinge begin om 08:45 met voorsang en dr Hennie Kotze is die prediker. Vir meer navrae kan Alet Potgieter by 084 332 4199 geskakel word.

Behoorlike onderhoud noodsaaklik

Met die feestyd wat hier in die tweede week van Desember in volle blom is, wil Rustenburgers nie aan die onplezierighede van die afgelope jaar herinner word nie en word daar uitgesien na die weersiens van geliefde vriende en familie, kinders wat dalk in die buiteland is en kersbome wat pragtig versier is. Om van al die lekker eetgoed nie te praat nie. Rondom ons is die wêreld besig om hom vir die vrede van die kerstyd voor te berei en vir klein kindertjies is dit lankal al tyd om die slapies af te tel totdat Vader Kerfees kom kuier.

Ongelukkig is daar in hierdie tyd van vrede en vreude mense wat somme moet maak van die skade wat verlede week tydens een van die ergste vloede tot nog in Rustenburg aangerig is. Ja, as 'n mens altyd op soek is na fout, sal jy dit sekerlik vind. Een van die redes vir verlede week se storm- en waterskade kan tot 'n groot mate toegeskryf word aan die feit dat Rustenburg se stormwaterdreineringstelsels vir jare al veel te wense oorlaat. Min mense sal met ons verskil as ons sê dat nagenoeg 60% van ons stormwaterdreineringstelsels toegeslik en oorgroei is en nie naastenby so effektiel is soos dit veronderstel is om te wees nie.

Dit is hoekom ons verlede week gesien het dat stormwater veral in bergagtige gebiede en hellings met die paaie "afgestorm" het na laeriggende gebiede instede daarvan dat die water sy weg na afloopspuite en dreineringstelsels kon vind. Rustenburgers het die afgelope jaar gesien wat gebeur indien stelsels, infrastruktuur en installasies nie behoorlik onderhou word nie. Dit is eenvoudig 'n idiotiese manier van dink as jy meen jy kan onderhoud aan homself oorlaat en die geld wat daarvoor begroot is (indien wel) vir ander plesiere (soos salaris en bonuses) aanwend. 'n Eenvoudige vergelyking - die Rustenburgse Munisipaliteit moet homself afvra of daar nog soveel slaggate in ons paaie en strate sou wees indien die onderhoud van stormwaterdreineringstelsels gereeld aandag gekry het. Nou sit ons met die situasie dat ons stormwaterdreineringstelsels en die honderde slaggate in ons paaie herstel moet word.

Proper maintenance crucial

With the December holiday and festive season upon us, Rustenburg's people surely wouldn't want to be reminded of the sorrows and disappointments of the past year in as far as service delivery by the Rustenburg Municipality is concerned. The fact is, this time of the year people are looking forward to the joys of Christmas and to once again enjoy the company of beloved friends, families and their children of whom so many find themselves abroad these days. Yes, the little ones have already begun to count down the days to Christmas and are wondering what father Christmas would be bringing in his bag this year.

We wish all of them a wonderful Christmas with unforgettable memories.

For some however, it is time to calculate the cost of quite bad damages after probably the worst flood in decades in and around Rustenburg last Friday. And then yes, we know, if one wants to be negative, you will find more than enough reason to do so. The following needs to be said however. Probably the main reason for the extent of damages in last week's flood, is the fact that Rustenburg's storm water drainage systems leave an enormous lot to be desired. It is no secret that the maintenance of storm water drainage systems was shockingly neglected for at least the past two decades if not longer. That is why we have seen that storm water during Friday almost unprecedented showers, especially among hilly and mountainous areas, literally "stormed" down streets and walkways to flood numerous people's homes and collapsed walls and other infrastructure. It is an idiotic way of reasoning to think that you can leave maintenance of systems, installations and crucial infrastructure to itself and use the money budgeted for this for other purposes such as salaries and bonuses. Perhaps the Rustenburg Municipality should ask itself whether we would have had such an enormous problem with potholes in our streets if storm water systems had been properly maintained. Now we have to repair both storm water drainage systems as well as hundreds of potholes in and throughout town.

"Please offer me an opportunity"

Dear Editor

I am gainfully - and happily - employed, but I'm looking for an opportunity to better myself by adding to my work experience. I hope that there is a company that can offer me an unpaid internship to gain work experience.

I am a BCom HR graduate from Unisa, looking for an exposure in that field, to inquire basic skills and have a bit of experience. I am born and bred in Rustenburg, currently working in one of the platinum mines and am willing to dedicate my spare time and off days to gain more knowledge on HR matters practically.

understand that HR matters are confidential, sensitive, and private to the company, but I plead to be given a chance to know even if it is just a basic/ admin related issue.

I would appreciate such an opportunity to get work experience that will help me sharpen the skills I acquired during my studies and become more marketable. Is there any organisations in and around Rustenburg willing to give me a chance? Please give me a call on 064 6912899 or send an e-mail to sellobm5@gmail.com. Your assistance will be highly appreciated.

Sello Mabusetsa, via e-mail, Rustenburg

Geloftedag - 16 Desember

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG

- "Kom ons herdenk wat ons voorouers aan God as Gelofte afgelê het op 16 Desember by God's Window (4km vanaf Kloof).

Ons moet die dag en tyd afsonder en as nageslag dank betuig en aan ons kinders die geskiedenis oordra.

Ons moet hulle leer wat gebeur het, toe daar nood was vir oorlewing.

Kom bring jul kinders en familie dat ons die Gelofte sal onthou en oordra aan ons nageslag.

Soos ons elke jaar saamkom met 'n film van gebeure by Bloedrivier 1838 en dan dank en eer aan die Here gee vir beskerming. Die Gedenkdiens is om 08:00 en daar is geen toegangskoste nie. Na die diens kan gesinne, familie en vriende saam braai, swem en stap in die berg. Toegang beloop R100 per voertuig en as die weer dit toelaat gaan daar ook heerlike boeresport gereel word". Bojanala Chess Region – A Chess force to be reckoned with RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The South African Junior Chess Championships (SAJCC) 2022 took place at the Wild Coast Sun hotel in Port Edward, from 3 to 12 December 2022. The SAJCC is the biggest chess event in South-Africa with regions all over the country competing.

Bojanala Chess selected six A-teams to compete in each age category, plus two development teams. In a record breaking first for Bojanala, four of the six teams (U/8, U/14, U/16 and U/18) secured top three podium finishes. The U/12 development team, made up of reserves and U/10's, caused some big upsets and lost their top three position to Durban Chess, by tiebreak. Their fourth position remains very impressive and could still see them win the Bojanala Team of the Year award.

In the South African Junior Blitz championships, Gafaone Mogomotsi ended

third in the U/10 section. Heinrich Marx and Leroux Byliefeldt were tied in third position in the U/14 section. Leroux's achievements did not stop there though. He got one over GM Kenny Solomon, South Africa's only grandmaster, during his GM simultaneous exhibition. Kenny has a rating of 2338, compared to Leroux's, 1414. This means that the GM is almost 1000 rating points stronger than Leroux! In the Wild Card U/10 girls section, Danika Naidoo steamrolled through the field with seven wins out of seven games. These results confirm that Bojanala Chess ended the year as one of the strongest chess playing regions in the country. On top of the SAJCC performances, 29 of Bojanala's players have been invited to the South African Junior Closed Chess Championships 2023. This is where the top players in the country compete for National Colours. The event is only by invitation and just getting that invitation, is a massive achievement.

Chess in Bojanala is booming!
