Jak de Priester kuier by Melkstal

Die bekende Afrikaanse sanger Jak de Priester het onlangs in Rustenburg se wêreld 'n buiging kom maak en bewonderaars het in groot getalle opgeruk om De Priester op die verhoog te sien. Maar natuurlik ontwikkel 'n man somer gou-gou 'n hol kol op die maag na omtrent 'n uur agter die mikrofoon en dit was meer as genoeg rede om Rustenburg se gasvryheid op die proef te stel. Hiervoor het Jak Rustenburg se ewebekende Melkstal gekies waar hy deur die span op die hande gedra is. Die Melkstal se span het natuurlik ook 'n "hou" ingekry en het geesdriftig saam met hul held gekuier en vir foto's geposeer. (220997)

Convicted rapist gets five life sentences

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Provincial Commissioner of North West, Lieutenant General Sello Kwena welcomed five life terms handed down to a 42-year-old Michael Motsamai Segale by the Rustenburg Regional Court on Tuesday (8 February 2022).

According to provincial police spokesperson, Captain Aafje Botma, Segale's conviction came after intensive and thorough investigation conducted following cases of rape he committed between April and June 2013 at Boitekong and Lethabong village outside Rustenburg. Segale who is from Lethabong Village, targeted young girls aged between 5 and 15. As part of his method of committing these crimes, the accused would ask the girls to show him certain places and upon directing, him he would cunningly persuade the victims to accompany him. The unsuspecting girls would in the end be instructed to undress and raped after being threatened with a knife.

The long arm of the law caught up with the accused on Friday, 19 July 2013. It was established during the arrest that the accused was on parole after being sentenced to 25 years imprisonment on 30 January 2003 for rape. Subsequent to the arrest, the accused was linked with all the rape cases through the DNA.

He was ultimately sentenced to five (5) life terms on four counts of rape.

Lieutenant General Sello Kwena commended the Investigating Officer, Detective Sergeant Obakeng Rasego and other investigating officers who worked on the cases before as well as prosecution for their cooperation that culminated in the conviction.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Rustenburg Local Municipality kickstarted a series of Integrated Development Planning (IDP) process with a bang on Friday (11 February), at a fully packed Lefaragatlhe community hall.

The IDP compilation process, is legislated in terms of Section 21 of the Local Government Municipal Systems Act, NO. 32 of 2000(MSA), wherein the Municipality has to solicit developmental inputs from all Wards within its jurisdiction, with the purpose to dealing with them according to their order of priority.

This mandatory community consultative process is embarked upon at the beginning of the five-year term of every Council, reviewed annually, with the objective to assessing progress in terms of service delivery to communities. In this regard, the Rustenburg Local Municipality has clustered all its 45 Wards, thus ensuring that every community is reached. "It is so pleasing to see this positive and overwhelming attendance and active participation by residents of Wards 1 to 7, as we begin our mandatory IDP process, whilst at the same time communities have the opportunity to interact with their newly elected Ward Councillors and members of the Mayoral Committee (MMC's).

I urge our communities to use these IDP community consultative meetings to voice their challenges and grievances, thus helping us as the Municipality to identify them", remarked Executive Mayor, Cllr Kgomotso Shiela Mabale-Huma, during the well-attended community meeting at Lefaragatlhe community hall. The process ends on the 9th March 2022

Citizens urged to participate in Census 2022

RUSTENBURG HERALD- RUSTENBURG - Deputy Minister in the Presidency, Thembu Siweya, has called on citizens and all who live in the country to participate in Census 2022 set to start from 3 to 28 February 2022. Siweya said this is to enable government to plan for the long term.

"I am pleased that we can now have fresh data to help us with policy formulation and evidence-based decision making. Conducting a census is key as it is the only source of small area data." The Deputy Minister Siweya said. "We recruited our fieldworkers via online methods only and we will use only digital devices to collect data for Census 2022. Remote data collection is available, which should help those who want to do self-enumeration to participate from anywhere and at their own convenience. "It has been over 10 years since we last conducted census in 2011. Census 2022 offers the country an opportunity to collect, compile and publish updated demographic, economic and social data for all persons in the country," said Statistician-General Risenga Maluleke. Census Project Director Calvin Molongoana said his team is ready to oversee the implementation of all processes to ensure a successful population and housing count. This is South Africa's fourth population count post-democracy and the country's first digital census where at least 165 000 fieldworkers will be deployed across the country to count everyone within the borders of South Africa. National and Provincial training of permanent staff concluded by 13 January 2022 while virtual district training across the country commenced last week on 18 January. Distribution of working tools such as tablets and vehicles continues in all areas.

Protest action reported in Kroondal

RUSTENBURG HERALD - KROONDAL - On Tuesday morning (15 February), motorists travelling through kroondal were urged to use alternative roads as a protest action was reported affecting the three way stop at Kroondal, affecting the mine road.

The protestors blocked the road with burning tires and rocks. The Rustenburg Local Municipality said the protest action was due to power supply and access to a farmland that the protestors were occupying in the area. "Residents were protesting about access to a farm they have been staying on as well as power supply. The MMC for Technical and Infrastructure, Cllr Thabang Rampou went to address them and the crowd dispersed peacefully, after farm keys were given to them. Electricians were busy on site with power installations," Thapelo Matebesi, spokesperson of the Rustenburg Local Municipality said in a statement issued on Tuesday (15 February).

Trolley pusher gets justice

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The South African Police Service management in Rustenburg welcomed the sentencing of Victor Keabetswe Mokgatlangana (41) to an effective 15-years jail term for the murder of Kagiso Semanye in June 2018 and further congratulated Warrant Officer Karel Khumalo for a sterling work in securing the heavy conviction.

According to Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, Rustenburg Cluster police spokesperson, it is alleged that Mokgatlangana and Semanye were both self employed and working as trolley assistants/pushers at a well known and big retail store on Bethlehem street when they had an argument related to their work earlier that morning. On 4 February 2022 justice was finally served when the court sentenced him to 15 years direct imprisonment.

Programme	Province	District	Main elements of programme
Comprehensive Prevention Programs for Men who have sex with other Men – (MSM)	North West	Bojanala	The module is aimed at providing a comprehensive, targeted, peer-led HIV/ TB/SRH package of services to men who have sex with men using a peer education approach. The aim is to reduce the number of new HIV infections and further spread of HIV. Through combination prevention modality the program promotes integrated structural, biomedical, and behavioural approaches that are tailored to address the specific drivers of key populations’ risk. By combining all three approaches into a single integrated approach to HIV prevention it is envisaged that such integrated approaches have the best chance for a sustainable impact. Through structural interventions , the module seeks to promote an enabling environment by addressing the political, economic, and socio-cultural factors that are the drivers of vulnerability to HIV infection. Biomedical interventions Biomedical HIV prevention consists of interventions that can reduce HIV transmission such as provision of antiretroviral therapy (ART) to people living with HIV, pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP) for HIV negative clients at risk and post-exposure prophylaxis (PEP) given to people with a recent exposure or potential exposure to HIV a short course of ART to prevent HIV acquisition. Other interventions include provision of condoms and lubricants. Behavioural interventions seek to promote and sustain safe behaviours among individuals and social units using a range of educational, motivational, peer education, and skills-building interventions, focusing on knowledge, attitudes, skills, and beliefs.
Comprehensive Prevention Programs for Transgender people – (TG)	North West	Bojanala	The module combines HIV prevention services with complementary medical, legal, behavioural and psychosocial services, which in turn affects transgender persons’ HIV risk behaviors, risk determinants, and overall health. For maximum health impact, comprehensive HIV prevention for transgender persons warrants efforts targeted to various impact levels—socio-economic factors, decision-making contexts, long-lasting protections, clinical interventions, and counselling and education. Its goal is to reduce the number of new infections through activities with a greater sustained impact. Through structural interventions , the module seeks to promote an enabling environment by addressing the political, economic, and socio-cultural factors that are the drivers of vulnerability to HIV infection. Biomedical interventions Biomedical HIV prevention consists of interventions that can reduce HIV transmission such as provision of antiretroviral therapy (ART) to people living with HIV, pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP) for HIV negative clients at risk and post-exposure prophylaxis (PEP) given to people with a recent exposure or potential exposure to HIV a short course of ART to prevent HIV acquisition. Other interventions include provision of condoms and lubricants. The program will also introduce gender affirming healthcare in the form of hormone replacement therapy as part of comprehensive package. Behavioural interventions seek to promote and sustain safe behaviours among individuals and social units using a range of educational, motivational, peer education and skills building interventions, focusing on knowledge, attitudes, skills, and beliefs.

Implats gets love from board

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The board of mid-tier producer Royal Bafokeng Platinum has recommended that the company shareholders accept a mandatory offer from Implats Platinum to acquire their shares.

If the transaction goes through, which seems likely, it would be a major consolidation move in South Africa's cash-rich platinum group metals sector. "We are delighted that both the independent expert and the independent Board appointed by RBPlat has endorsed our offer and agreed that the offer is fair and reasonable.

In addition, we note the independent Board's recommendation to shareholders to accept our offer," Implats CEO, Nico Muller, said in a statement on Monday (14 February).

He added that the Implats offer provides a compelling value proposition for RBPlat shareholders. "The offer is crystallising inherent equity value at an attractive premium through the receipt of a combination of cash and high quality and liquid Implats scrip,"

Muller said. He further said that they believe that the level of ownership they have already achieved is indicative of the broad support for their offer and affirms the strategic rationale and value proposition.

The Implats offer opened for acceptance on 18 January 2022 and is expected to close at 12:00 on 17 June 2022.

Hartseer - groet aan bekende 'inwoner'

RUSTENBURG HERALD - PILANESBERG - Amarula - sekerlik een van die bekendste olifante in Afrika en vir jare lank 'n gewaardeerde 'inwoner' van die Pilanesberg Nasionale Park, is pas in die ouderdom van 65 jaar in dié park dood.

Amarula was die grootste olifantbul in die park en het onder wildgeesdriftiges bekend geword toe hy en nog 'n klompie ander olifante in 1998 uit die Kruger Nasionale Park na Pilanesberg verskuif is. Amarula het in 2011 groot opskrifte gehaal toe hy "per ongeluk" 'n toeris se motor op sy kant gekeer het. Amarula was baie lief daarvoor om homself teen besoekersvoertuie te skuur en het om 'n onverklaarbare rede 'n liefde vir Volkswagen-modelle gehad. Amarula was 'n maklik-herkenbare olifant weens sy geamputeerde stert - die stert is beseer tydens die verskuiwing destyds na die Pilanesberg en is later deur 'n veearts geamputeer. Baie Amarula-volgelingen het oor die afgelope week veral op sosiale media kommentaar gelewer nadat die bul se dood bevestig is. Amarula se karkas is vroeër verlede week deur veldwagters gevind.

Two pregnant giraffes electrocuted - owner blames poor Eskom maintenance

RUSTENBURG HERALD - BOONS - Poor maintenance resulting in dangerously low hanging overhead Eskom power cables has lead to the death of two female and pregnant giraffes on a farm (Rhenosterhoek) in the Boons area some 40 km southeast of Rustenburg.

This gruesome discovery was made on Saturday, 11 February, when Dr Immanuel de Wilde - an orthopedic surgeon - took a game drive during his latest routine visit to the farm.

Dr De Wilde cultivates fresh fruit and vegetables and also has a number of cattle and several species of game on the farm. According to Dr De Wilde's farm manager, Wayne Cloete, De Wilde has been struggling with Eskom since October 2021 to have a number of dangerously low hanging high voltage power cables inspected and maintained, if not repaired at once. Nothing came of Dr De Wilde's complaints to Eskom however, Cloete alleges.

Cloete furthermore alleges that he had informed Dr De Wilde moments after his arrival on the farm on Friday, 11 February, that the two giraffes haven't been noticed for quite some time in recent weeks. It was however during the a game drive/inspection early the Saturday morning that the gruesome discovery was made. Rustenburg Herald also reported on the death due to electrocution of another giraffe in the Swartruggens area some three year ago and almost exactly as these latest incidents, dangerously low hanging high voltage power cables were to blame. Another similarity between the two incidents, is that in both cases Eskom officials are blamed for not responding to calls for maintenance or warnings of a possibly live threatening situation due to the poorly maintained cables. According to Cloete the Eskom power cables were hanging as low as a standard roof top.

Though little further is known on the incident, Dr De Wilde has indicated that he is considering legal action against Eskom as a matter of urgency. De Wilde has also called on Afriforum Rustenburg or surrounding areas to further assist him on the matter. De Wilde could be contacted on 083 265 4677 or alternatively, Wayne Cloete on 076 611 7800.

The carcass of a female and pregnant adult giraffe that is alleged to have died as a result of electrocution on the farm Rhenosterhoek, Boons during recent weeks. It is suspected that the giraffe (two pregnant females) were both electrocuted by dangerously low hanging high voltage power cables. The owner, Dr Immanuel de Wilde blames Eskom for the incident. De Wilde alleges that repeated calls to Eskom officials for a visit, proper maintenance or repair, went without answer.

A picture which clearly demonstrates a dangerously slanting Eskom power installation on the farm Rhenosterhoek, Boons of Dr Immanuel de Wilde.

Poor maintenance by Eskom personnel is blamed once again for the death of two female and pregnant giraffes on the farm Rhenosterhoek of Dr Immanuel de Wilde - an orthopedic surgeon.

Upload required documents to avoid delays

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - With the demand for renewing vehicle licences on the South African Post Office (Sapo) website peaking, vehicle owners are advised to upload documents that comply with legal requirements.

In a statement released on Friday (11 February), Sapo said individuals who renew vehicle licences can avoid any unnecessary delays by making sure that they upload ID copies that are certified (certification not older than three months). It also urged individuals to ensure that documents are signed and that their proof of address is not older than three months.

Individuals who renew a company-owned vehicle require a signed proxy letter with the company letterhead, the BRNC form must be attached, certified ID copy of the proxy as well as the proof of address for the company. “The full renewal process, including payment, is done online, leaving only the last step of accessing the actual disc. This is done in one of two ways; the Post Office can deliver the disc to the consumer at R75 or the disc can be collected from the post office counter at no charge.

Zinniaville Secondary School bids a sad farewell to a true humanitarian RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - "Zinniaville Secondary School suffered a great loss on the passing of our beloved educator, colleague and friend, Mrs Nozigigaba Kgasoe.

Mrs Kgasoe joined Zinniaville Secondary School in 2008 and won over everyone who was lucky enough to meet her. Mrs Kgasoe was a member of the Senior Management Team and a stalwart. A pillar of strength in ensuring the discipline at school and also served as Chairperson on the Discipline Committee. She made great strides in improving her Commercial Department. Her passion for the Simama Ranta Eskom initiative took ZSS to great heights when just after two years of participation the school won R50 000 towards entrepreneurship skills amongst learners.

Mrs Kgasoe fondly known as "Noni" was a true humanitarian who had a heart of gold. She always placed the needs of others above her own. Mrs Kgasoe would take it upon herself to visit the homes of learners and would ensure that she gets to know the parents, grandparents, as well as the extended family members. Mrs Kgasoe would purchase food and clothing for those learners in need of it without the knowledge of the school, going as far as delivering it to their doorstep. Her generosity did not just end with the learners, but also extended to her family, friends and church members. Her famous words such as "Baby Yaka", "Abuti" and "Hey Baegetso" would continue to ring in our ears. Mrs Kgasoe would always be smartly dressed and when complimented would say a "Woman of Class" should show off her style. The loss of Mrs Kgasoe is indeed a great loss to ZSS and the teaching fraternity. A loss of an educator is not only a loss to the school but to the Nation. We salute you for what you have done for Zinniaville Secondary School, the staff, the learners and community. "Hamba Kahle" Mrs Kgasoe. Rest in eternal peace."

The late Mrs Nozigigaba Kgasoe.

Ou enjins doen die praatwerk by antieke enjindag

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Human Jordaan van die Paul Kruger Gastehuis op die R24 bied op Saterdag, 19 Februarie, weer sy jaarlikse antieke enjindag aan wat deur menige ou enjingeessdriftiges en veral die Willem Prinsloo Landboumuseum in Pretoria ondersteun word.

"Enjinmeters" kom van heinde en verre met hulle trots in die vorm van ou enjins wat meestal uit skrootwerwe "gered" en pynlik netjies gerestoureer is. Dit is vir die besoeker 'n nostalgiese gesig om baie van hierdie ou masjinerie "te onthou" en te sien met watter toewyding hierdie manne hul stokperdjie benader. Dit is ook bemoedigend om te sien hoe die pragtig die ou "ysters" uit toeka se dae vandag nog gewillig hul "werk" doen.

Soos gewoonlik sal daar heerlike verversings en drinkgoedjies te koop aangebied word as die Februarieson 'n bietjie warm word en vir diegene met 'n groter aptyt is daar ook 'n restaurant waar formele etes bedien word.

Die enjins word vanaf 08:30 aan die brand gedraai en teen 14:00 is dit tyd om op te pak en huiswaarts te keer. Die jaarlikse antieke enjindag is 'n moet vir almal wat in tye van ouds en ou artikels belangstel. Toegang is heeltemal gratis - kom herleef Suid-Afrika se pioniersdae en kuier oor 'n glasie met die enjinmanne en hul masjiene. Onthou - die Paul Kruger Gastehuis op die R24 sowat 6 km vanaf Rustenburg.

Sjoe, nie eers toe dit splinternuut was het enige antieke enjin ooit só gelyk nie. Talle ander pragtige en interessante ou modelle sal op Saterdag, 19 Februarie, by die Paul Kruger Gastehuis op die R24 die praatwerk doen - kom kyk gerus!

Customers enjoying unbeatable discounts as well as friendly service from MiniMore personnel on opening day - Tuesday, 15 February.

MiniMore at the Biblio Plaza on the corner of Nelson Mandela and Thabo Mbeki Drive is everything but "mini" - this is a massive store and a shopping opportunity that warrants a really big trolley!

VLU Kashané-aandtak se 20ste verjaardag

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - VLU Platinastreek het 20 jaar gelede 'n behoefte raakgesien vir 'n aandtak sodat werkende vroue hulle ook by die Vrouelandbou-unie kan uitleef.

Op 12 Februarie 2002 is Platinastreek se "babatak", Kashané-aandtak gestig. Aangesien die tak 'n naam eie aan Rustenburg wou hê, is daar besluit op die naam Kashané. Die naam is afgelei van die Magaliesberge wat eers die Kgwashane-berge geheet het tot en met 1840.

Saterdag 12 Februarie is Kashané VLU-aandtak se 20ste verjaardag in styl gevier. In 20 jaar het baie veranderinge plaasgevind, lede bedank, weggetrek en van die nege stigterslede is slegs Theresa Graham steeds by die tak. Charmaine Coetzer, takvoorsitter het almal welkom geheet en Theresa Graham het geopen.

Lettie de Bruin was die streekvoorsitter wat 20 jaar terug die tak amptelik geopen het, so dit was net gepas dat Lettie, Theresa se 20 jaar toekenning aan haar oorhandig tydens die tak se verjaardagviering. Lettie de Bruin het ook 'n geborduurde tafeldoek wat sy ontvang het na haar termyn as streekvoorsitter teruggeskenk aan die streek. Verona Loots en Elsa van Rooyen het dit in ontvangs geneem.

Verona Loots, eerste-vise van Platinastreek het 'n groeteboodschap namens die streek oorgedra en Anne Heyneke het die groeteboodschap van Gerda Swart, Noordwes se president voorgelees. Theresa Graham het die eerste notule van Kashané-aandtak se stigtingsvergadering voorgelees. Liz-Mari Janse van Vuuren het 'n paar baie mooi sangitems gelewer. Estelle Grundling het vir Cecile van Rustenburg Herald, asook ander media bedank dat hulle altyd bereid is om die tak se foto's en berigte te plaas.

Francis Liebel, Charmaine Coetzer, Elsa van Rooyen, Dina van Dyk, Theresa Graham en Lettie de Bruin het almal die stigtersvergadering 20 jaar gelede bygewoon en was ook teenwoordig by die verjaardagviering. Kashané het hierdie jaar vier lede bygekry en het tans 12 lede.

Theresa Graham en Lettie de Bruin. Lettie het haar 20-jaar toekenning aan Theresa oorhandig. Theresa is ook die enigste stigterslid wat nog aan die tak behoort.

Dames wat 20 jaar gelede teenwoordig was tydens die stigtingsvergadering: Charmaine Coetzer, Francis Liebel, Elsa van Rooyen, Lettie de Bruin, Dina van Dyk en Theresa Graham.

Ons Gemeenskap Rustenburg Herald Kook

Deur Christelle Wessels

Ek gaan nou oop kaarte speel: Ek het nog nooit in my hele lewe 'n vlatert probeer maak nie. Die plan vir die tert het ontstaan nadat 'n kollega verlede week verjaar het en ons met só tert kom bederf het. Maar het ek gesukkel om 'n resep in die hande te kry!

Ek het eindelijk op een afgekom, maar dit so klein bietjie na my eie smaak aangepas.

So klein bietjie raad: maak baie seker dat die vla heeltemal afgekoel is voor jy dit op die suurlemoenkondensmelklaag gooi. Indien dit nog warm is, gaan jy met 'n loperige tert opgeskeep sit.

Vlatert in 'n japtrap

BESTANDDELE:

- 1l volroom Melk
- 80ml Suiker
- 200ml Vlapoeier
- 100ml Botter (gesmelt)
- 160ml Suurlemoensap (of na smaak)
- Skil van 1 Suurlemoen (gerasper)
- 2 blikke Kondensmelk
- 2 pakkies Tennisbeskuitjies

METODE:

- Breek die tennisbeskuitjies fyn en meng met gesmelte botter.
- Druk dan helfte van die beskuitjies as kors in 'n tertbak.
- Sit in yskas tot vulsels gereed is.
- Kook 800ml van die melk, terwyl die vlapoeier met die ander 200ml aangemaak word.
- Sodra die melk kookpunt bereik, gooi 'n bietjie van die warm melk by die vlapasta en gooi alles dan terug in die pot by die res van die kookmelk.
- Roer tot die vla verdik.

- Haal van die hitte af en sit eenkant om deeglik af te koel.
- Gooi nou die kondensmelk in 'n mengbak en voeg die suurlemoensap, asook gerasperde skil by. Meng deeglik.
- Gooi jou kondensmelkmengsel oor die voorbereide kors.
- Volg met 'n lagie van die van die gekrummelde beskuitjies. Hou bietjie oor om bo-oor te strooi.
- Gooi nou die afgekoelde vla oor en dan die laaste van die beskuitjekrumsels.
- Plaas terug in die yskas en verkoel goed voor opdiening.

'n Lekker kors is die fondasie van enige lekker tert. Jy kan 'n soetskors maak, of jy kan beskuitjies met gesmelte botter meng – die keuse is joune.

Maak vlapoeier met 'n bietjie melk aan voor dit by die kookmelk gevoeg word.

Voeg gerus 'n bietjie meer suurlemoensap by indien jy verkies.

Begin die tert met die suurlemoen-en-kondensmelkmengsel.

Underground leak, sagging paving

The Editor
I would love to have an answer from the Rustenburg Municipality on how our complaints from No 1, Ardisia Avenue in Geelhout Park will be addressed. From the looks of it, it is very clear that underground leakage has caused the sagging of a quite new paving project. The leak is very prominent as running water could be heard from quite a distance away. There is no sign of leakage on the surface however, the leak is underground and water is disappearing into the underground drainage system. This has been reported to RLM repeatedly, but to date we have seen no response. Very soon we could expect some of the paving to also disappear into the leaking area which might even deteriorate to a sinkhole, if this is not already the case.

Nog ‘n staatsrede - nog beloftes

In sy jongste Staatsrede in die Kaapstadse Stadsaal weens die voorval van brandstigting aan die Parlementsgebou ‘n klompie weke gelede (ja, nie noodwendig ‘n positiewe begin nie nê?) moes ons arme president Cyril Ramaphosa behoorlik bontstaan om al die vure wat tans in haas elke regeringsdepartement of sektor in die land woed, doodgeslaan te kry. Hoewel dit waarskynlik ‘n moedige poging was, is nie almal daarvan oortuig dat die president dit grootliks reggekry het, of minstens dan net daarin geslaag het om Suid-Afrikaners te oortuig dat hy hierdie keer gaan slaag nie.

‘n Mens behoort eintlik sommer van die begin af te vra - wat is dan nou eintlik die doel of die nut van die Staatsrede? Is daar dan nou werklik nog mense wat glo dat die president nou uiteindelik presies weet waar die wiele afgeval het en indien wel, dat hy dié nuutgevonde kennis met gewone Suid-Afrikaners sou deel? Ons is nie so seker hiervan nie, en uit ons agtergrond wat meestal uit “gebreklike inligting” bestaan, dink ons die oplossing hoef glad nie so ingewikkeld of veelvoudig te wees nie.

Die nasionale media het baie onlangs breedvoerig berig oor die president se veelbesproke “tienpuntplan” (soos dit min of meer gelyk het) waarmee hy hoop om die land reg te ruk. Die president se nuwe gonsword in hierdie jongste staatsrede van hom, was “hervorming”. Waar ? Wel, omtrent orals moet ons tot die gevolgtrekking kom. Noem maar op - die hervorming van staatsgrond, toelae, elektrisiteit, korrupsie/luittjieblasers, die daggabedryf, onlustevoorkoming en -beheer, staatsentiteite en nimmereindigende rompslomp. Na talle staatsredes stem ons nie meer saam nie. Baie (of die meeste) van hierdie dinge is tot dusver al geïdentifiseer en sonder sukses probeer hervorm. Ons is presies waar ons was toe pres Ramaphosa in 2017 aan bewind gekom het, of nee, ons is as’t ware ‘n entjie verder terug - vandaar die “staatsrede” nie waar nie?

As ons president maar vandag besef het dit gaan so sleg in ons land, omdat ons mense nie meer in ons leierskap glo nie, nie meer in eerlikheid, verantwoordelikheid of aanspreeklikheid glo nie, nie meer in gelykheid voor die reg glo nie, nie meer in werksetiek of morele waardes glo nie, nie meer in geregtigheid, dissipline, straf of vergelding glo nie.

En dit alles mnr die president, omdat die voorbeeld wat Suid-Afrikaners die afgelope 27 jaar van die regering gekry het, direk en totaal in stryd is met alles hierbo. Enigiemand met kinders of ondergeskiktes sal jou kan sê - “jy kan beloftes maak, jy kan raas, straf, slaan, vloek, skreeu of preek, as jou voorbeeld nie strook met wat jy sê nie, hou jou “staatsrede” vir jouself!

Another SONA - more promises

In his latest State of the Nation address in the Cape Town City Hall (not a great start right?) due to the incident of arson at Parliament a few weeks ago) our dear State President had to stir his stumps to put out all the fires currently raging in virtually all government departments and sectors around the country. Although it was a deserving attempt, not everyone is convinced that President Ramaphosa succeeded in putting out these fires, or at least, succeeded in convincing us that it finally dawned upon him where the South African “dream” has gone wrong if not derailed altogether.

Perhaps we should have asked from the outset - what is the real purpose or benefit of the so-called State of the Nation address (Sona)? Could it be that some people still believe that out of the blue the President would finally grasp where we have lost track of our real purpose and if so indeed, that he would share this new-found wisdom with ordinary South Africans? After years and decades of failing promises, he will finally get it right? We are not so very sure about this... From the media’s usually distorted perspective of mostly half truths and/or flawed information, we arrived at the conclusion that the solution really shouldn’t be that complicated or numerous.

As usual, the SA media has reported comprehensively on the President’s much-debate ten point plan (or that’s what it appeared to be?) which he hoped would assist him to “reset” just about everything in the country. And this time round, the new buzz word was “reform”. Of what you would ask... Well, of just about everything! Go on name it - reform of state-owned land, of grants, of electricity (Eskom), of corruption and whistleblowers, of the hemp (dagga industry) or the full utilisation thereof (a bit far-fetched won’t you say?) of unrest and riot control, of state-owned entities and endless red tape. Well, after countless SONA’s, we simply don’t agree anymore. Most, if not all of these issues have been identified and addressed before and where are we - exactly where we’ve been when President Ramaphosa came to power in 2017, or another few steps backwards right - hence the need for another “SONA”.

If only the President would only realise - things are as bad as they are because South Africans have lost hope in our leadership, in the principles of honesty, responsibility and accountability, in equality before the law, in all ethics, moral values, in righteousness, discipline, punishment or retribution. And all of this Mr President, because the example by the South African government during its 27 years of governance, was in direct conflict with all these above! Ask anyone with kids of subordinates, you can make promises, you can threaten or shout or swear, preach or punish, if your example is in conflict with what you say, keep your SONA to yourself!

Deel 2: Is die mens sy troeteldiere se grootste vyand?

Die redakteur,
In die tweede aflewering van die mens wat sy eie huisdiere verwaarloos en verstoot, wil ek die volgende verhaal met u deel vanuit ‘n hond se belewenis: “My mense was so lief vir my toe ek klein was, hulle het my gekoester, my liefde gegee en met my gespeel. Toe word ek ouer, alles was nog reg, maar toe word ek in die motor gelaai. Min het ek geweet dat dit my laaste keer is dat my eienaars my ooit weer sal sien. Ek was nog opgewonde want vir die eerste keer ry ek saam, dit voel so lekker om saam te ry. lewers stop die motor en ek voel dat dinge nie reg is nie. Die deur word oopgemaak en my eienaar haal my uit die motor uit. Ek hoor baie diere blaf en huil en toe raak ek vreesbevange. My eienaar hou my nog vir ‘n rukkie vas en sit my in ‘n hok buite ‘n vreemde plek waar die hekkie gesluit word.

Ek is so verward en met blydschap waai ek tog my stert en ek sien hoe my eienaar verdwyn en wegry. Ek hoor hoe almal huil om my en met my stert tussen my bene beleef ek ‘n vrees. Ek gaan lê op die kombesie wat in die hok neergelê is. Meteens sien ek ‘n vreemde mens naderkom. Ek blaf en knor maar ‘n hand reik uit en vryf my oor my kop en lyf. Ek is bang en kruip al hoe dieper in die hok in om weg te kruip. Die persoon praat met my en streel my en daarom kruip ek nader en wonder of sy my gaan seermaak of nie. Ek voel tog verlig, maar bang. Sy sit ‘n rukkie by my en dit voel so goed en lekker - dalk gee sy vir my om.

Later staan sy op en verlaat die hok met die hekkie wat sy agter haar toemaak. Nou is ek weer op my eie, alleen, kry nie geslaap nie want almal om my huil vir hulle eienaars en ek huil vir myne. Dit voel in die nagtelike ure so koud en alleen.

Al het ek genoeg kos en water, voel dit so alleen hier in die hok. Ek begin depressief raak want mense stap by my hok verby sonder om aandag te gee. In my gedagtes wonder ek wat moet ek doen om raakgesien te word, om net ‘n bietjie liefde te kry?

So gaan dae verby en weke en elke aand huil almal om my en elke dag blaf almal om my. Gaan iemand my kom haal, of gaan ek vir ewig alleen wees?”

Spreek 12:10 sê: “n Goeie mens sien om na die welsyn (behoefte) van sy diere, maar die goedheid van die goddelose is wreed teenoor sy diere”.

Raw sewage flow potential health hazard

The editor
For the past seven days we have struggled with raw sewage flowing at 48 Hawthorn Avenue, Geelhout Park. The flow has become so intense that almost the entire yard is left with faecal matter and sewer water. The matter was reported numerous times to the Rustenburg Local Municipality by our local Councillor and by affected residents, however no one has come out to fix the problem. The reference number which was received is 148254. I am hoping that anyone in a senior position at the Rustenburg Local Municipality can read this and compel the workers to come and fix this problem since it is now becoming a health hazard.

Concerned Hawthorn Avenue resident

‘Eendjie Park’: What happened here?

Bodenstein Park from the road.

Bodenstein Park from inside the park.

The Editor
We would like to bring the poor condition of the ‘Eendjie park’ - Bodenstein Park - to your attention.

This park is - supposed to be - more than just a park; it is also a community meeting place where friends and family can meet up and enjoy their moments. But at this stage the park is in terrible condition. We live in a complex across from the park and we would just like to know why only parts of the grass in the park were cut short, while other parts, as well as all the way down Eend Street was left uncut. The length of the grass is getting out of hand and it doesn’t just look bad, but we feel it isn’t safe to drive home - especially at night, as you can barely see anything going on in the park or on the side of the road.

If there is anyone that can assist in this matter, it would really be appreciated!

Join hunting and sport shooting organisation

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - SA Veld\Field Sport was established in Rustenburg during August 2017.

"We promote internationally accepted hunting practices, which are simulated in our sport shooting events. Shooters can take part in approximately (50) different events, competitively, for recognition or socially, as a family sport.

Our motto is "Firearm safety first last and always". Therefore we are proud to say that no shooting accidents have ever happened during an event or on a hunt managed by us. Our members can attend Hunting and Sport Shooting training, to ensure that they are equipped to the highest standards available in our country. Through our affiliation with CHASA (The Confederation of Hunting Associations of South Africa), we may issue Dedicated -Hunter and -Sport Shooting Status to members who qualify. This enables members to retain their beloved firearms.

SAFS manages the world-class, Waterval Shooting range (just outside Rustenburg next to the N4, en-route to Swaruggens), where a large number of big shooting competitions have been hosted over the years. This is one of only a few ranges, where facilities includes; Bow-, Handgun-, Airgun-, Air Pistol-, Rimfire-, Centre Fire- (to 900m), Big Bore-, and Shotgun ranges. The range also sports a "Bush lane" where tactical exercises are done.

Waterval Shooting range has a cafeteria, swimming pool and braai facilities, where shooters and their families can spend some quiet time after a shoot, in the countryside. Visitors pay R150 to use the range during the week or on Saturdays, but members do not pay range fees.

Two Hunting competitions are arranged annually, for members who qualify. The sought after "Top Hunter" award is made to one participant during these events annually".

The friendly Melani and Daleen, are waiting for your call at the SAFS office, tel 078 968 6451, or you may visit them at the office, 64 Boomstreet Rustenburg, between 07:00 and 16:00 Monday to Thursdays.

You may also apply for membership directly on the web site at www.safieland.org.
