Rustenburg CPF elects new executive

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - On Thursday evening (2 June) the Rustenburg Community Policing Forum (CPF) Executive was finally and officially elected at Agape Church after enormous challenges and COVID-19 amongst others.

The proceedings were steered by the provincial CPF chairperson Mr Mgamulane side by side with the CPF provincial coordinator Captain Maatla and closely supported by both Rustenburg SAPS management led by Brigadier Pheto and the provincial commander in partnership Police Colonel Myburg.

A committee of ten was elected (Chairperson Kagiso Marobe, Deputy chairperson Marcus Haasboek, Secretary Mercia Haasbroek, Deputy Secretary Daisy Moloko, Treasurer Rassie Byleveld including Hennie Barnard, Dawie Oodendal, Koketso Mpudi, Tina Vosloo travelling home from Rustenburg to Brits on that Saturday. Near the R512 Randburg off-ramp, around 21:00, their Hyundai Santa Fe hit rocks that were placed across the road and a tyre was punctured. Juandr  tried to drive on, but a little further on he had no other option than to pull off the road to change the tyre. While he was busy, three men approached him. “Juandr  told the men that they can take everything they had with them. He pleaded with them not to hurt them. And then they shot him in the head,” recounted Johanette.

The robbers also shot Johanette in the shoulder while she was trying to shield her baby and prevent the men from grabbing the child out of her arms.

If you have useful information regarding the incident, please contact Juandr ’s brother, Marco on 067 736 2609, or the investigating officer, Sgt Sebjane on 072 224 6805.

Murder suspect appears in court

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A 52-year-old man was expected to appear before the Bafokeng Magistrates’ Court in Tlhabane on Tuesday (7 June), on a charge of murder.

According to sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, Rustenburg police spokesperson, the man’s court appearance stems from an incident reported on Saturday evening, (4 June). Police in Phokeng were called to the R565 road, near Kgale Section where upon arrival, they found the lifeless body of a 44-year-old man, in a pool of blood. He was declared dead by Emergency Medical Rescue Services (EMRS) on the scene.

Initial investigations revealed that the victim was allegedly following a 52-year-old man who was with his girlfriend, driving around in an Audi. Furthermore, he blocked the Audi vehicle with his Toyota bakkie at an intersection and a fight ensued between the two. According to information received, the victim allegedly attacked and stabbed the suspect with a knife and somehow the suspect managed to overpower the victim and took the knife and stabbed him to death.

The Acting District Commander, Brigadier Regina Ntoagae, has noted with concern a number of murder cases reported over the weekend in Rustenburg, Freedom Park and Ikemeng, whereby a knife was used as an instrument to commit those crimes. She urged the community to resolve conflict in a peaceful manner instead of resorting to violence.

INCREASED VIOLENT CRIMES A WORRY, SAYS DA

Rustenburg 8th on Top 30 Serious Crime hotspots in SA

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Democratic Alliance (DA) in the North West is horrified at the provincial crime statistics released by Police Minister Bheki Cele for January to March 2022 last week.

Violent contact crime marked a sharp increase in the province leaving a bloodbath in its trail. Over the period, there were 214 murders, up by 39 more murders (+22.3%) over the same period last year. Sexual assault offences increased by 12.1% bringing the total to 942 reported cases. Attempted murder is up by 8.5% with a total of 242 reported cases. Assault with the intent to cause grievous bodily harm increased by 30.9% recording a total of 3 621 recorded cases in the first three months of this year. Common assault is up by 24.1% with 2 624 cases, robbery increased by 8.5% with 545 cases and robbery with aggravating circumstances increased by 12.4% with a total of 1 635 cases.

Rape increased by 10.9% with a total number of 769 reported rape cases. Rape remains an underreported crime and the real rape case figure can be expected to be far higher. Mmabatho and Boitekong Police station made the Top 30 Rape Hotspot list, recording 46 and 44 reported rapes respectively.

Rustenburg Police station ranks eighth on the Top 30 Serious Crime hotspots in the country with community reported serious crimes. A total of 1816 serious crimes were reported in the first quarter 2022, up 10%, while it ranked sixth in the Top 30 for robbery at business premises, followed by Klerksdorp landing the 13th spot.

Another underreported crime is stock theft. Both Taung and Ganyesa Police stations reported stock theft cases that ranked them 11th and 24th on the Top 30 Stock Theft areas.

“These crime statistics indicate that the South African Police Service (SAPS) in North West is not only losing the fight against violent crime, but also it’s ability to prevent serious crime before it occurs. This also shows that crime intelligence in the North West is unable to identify and prevent crime before it happens.

As things stand, the SAPS is unable to protect the lives, livelihoods and property of residents in North West. While we acknowledge and appreciate the efforts of dedicated police officers who sacrifice their lives in service of the community, the rise in violent crime indicates that they are not supported by effective leadership from Minister Bheki Cele down to the National and Provincial Police Commissioners,” said Leon Basson, DA North West Provincial Leader.

“The SAPS in the North West are severely under-resourced, placing not only residents, but police officers at the non-existent mercy of violent criminals.

If we are to win the fight against violent crime in North West, we must do more to train and capacitate police officers and make sure that they have the necessary resources at their disposal to not only respond to and investigate crime, but prevent it. For this, the crime intelligence services must be fully resourced,” Basson added.

Tax season shorter this year

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Taxpayers are advised to get ready sooner rather than later. The annual tax filing season kicks off in a month's time, but taxpayers should take note that the deadline for submissions has been brought forward by a month for non-provisional, manual and branch office submissions.

The South African Revenue Service (SARS) is set to publish the dates for submissions and to specify which taxpayers do not have to submit a return in the government gazette. It will provide more information in due course, a SARS spokesperson said when asked why the due dates have been brought forward.

The filing season starts on 1 July and taxpayers who submit their tax returns manually, or at a branch office have until 24 October to do so.

Non-provisional taxpayers who use the SARS eFiling platform also have until 24 October. During the 2021 filing season taxpayers had until 23 November, which was extended to 2 December.

Provisional taxpayers have until 23 January – brought forward from the usual end of January – to file their returns.

Provisional taxpayers are those with more than one income stream such as remuneration, rental or interest income.

SARS will continue to auto-assess individuals based on third-party data received from employers, financial institutions, medical schemes, and retirement fund administrators. Taxpayers are advised to 'Accept' or 'Edit' and submit the auto-assessments by 24 October if they are individual non-provisional taxpayers. Individuals who are auto-assessed but do not accept, edit or submit their auto-assessments will receive an estimated assessment from SARS - which is not subject to objection and appeal.

Last year more than three million taxpayers were auto-assessed.

Over 2.2 million taxpayers accepted the auto assessment, with more than 1.5 million accepting without any changes. This represents a 74% acceptance rate of a new service offering, SARS said in a statement after the closure of the 2021 filing season.

Virtual filing

The revenue service noted an increase in virtual filing during the 2021 filing season. SARS reported that over 4.3 million non-provisional tax returns were submitted by the due date.

Of those, over 2.6 million were submitted via eFiling, an increase of 7%. SARS noted that 523 659 returns were submitted through the MobiApp, a 59% increase.

There was a 15% decrease in the number of returns submitted at branches.

More than 90% of the assessments were issued in under five seconds compared with 85% the previous year. SARS paid out refunds to 86% of taxpayers within 72 hours, compared with 77% the year before.

More than R17 billion was refunded to taxpayers.

Home office expenses

Many South Africans have been and still are working from home since the outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic, and claims for refunds on home office expenses have increased significantly. However, SARS has been very strict about paying refunds and in the previous tax year 60% of home office claims were disallowed. However, it is important that taxpayers pay careful attention to the rules regarding home office deductions and that they ensure that they do qualify for deductions in terms of the current legislation.

SARS released an interpretation note in March wherein it provides clarity on the matter and also sets out various examples to determine eligibility.

Verification audits

Verification audits within 21 days appear to be a challenge for SARS.

Only 67% of the audits were completed in this time frame and although this is better than the 62% in the previous year, it is below the 70% target SARS set for itself.

Cash-in-transit heist on the R510

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG – A cash-in-transit heist was reported on the R510 near Boitekong on Monday (6 June). “It was like being in a war zone; bullets flying everywhere,” eyewitnesses reported. Apparently the robbers opened fire after the cash van was bombed.

Another eyewitness recounted that community members were seen grabbing money from the scene and running away, regardless of the rain of bullets.

According to a reliable source, security guards were taken to hospital for treatment.

By our time of going to press no official comment was made and Rustenburg Herald was awaiting response and further details about the incident from national police spokesperson, Col Athlenda Mathe.

Rajesh, Atul Gupta arrested in Dubai

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Political parties, law enforcement agencies, the South African business sector and ordinary South Africans were unanimous on Tuesday this week to express their satisfaction on the news that at least two of the infamous Gupta brothers who are suspected to have looted Eskom and Transnet of hundreds of millions of rand in dubious state capture contracts, were arrested by Interpol in Dubai early on Monday evening.

Interpol has issued a red alert warrant for the arrest of the notorious brothers after the news has spread globally of the Guptas' involvement in South Africa's alleged State Capture scandal fronted by South African politicians and heads of state-owned entities. The looting of state-owned enterprises has continued for between three to five years and has practically left Eskom and Transnet bankrupt. State capture is generally viewed to be the main cause of Eskom's collapse and the introduction of load-shedding in the country, since the electricity utility could since manage no proper budget to keep abreast with maintenance issues.

The news of Rajesh and Atul Gupta's arrest was widely welcomed almost unanimously on Tuesday morning while Interpol was continuing their hunt for the third brother Ajay. It is not known how Ajay Gupta has managed to escape his arrest but it is considered to be a matter of time before he will also meet his fate", Interpol said at a press conference where the arrests were announced. South Africans were however advised not to keep their breaths for the extradition of the Guptas' to take place very soon. Endless red-tape and bureaucratic processes are likely to be huge role players. "At least we have seen the very first meaningful development since the Guptas have fled South Africa some two years ago. Many South Africans still believe that the Guptas will never face the full might of the law since they are in cahoots with high profile politicians and former heads of state-owned institutions such as Brian Molefe", a comment on the arrests read.

Hawks take control of Ramaphosa theft investigation

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A storm has erupted over the head of President Cyril Ramaphosa after it was uncovered that an amount of $4 million was allegedly stolen from his Limpopo farm in February 2020.

The alleged theft occurred during an ordinary house robbery it was announced over the weekend. To add insult to injury former spy boss Arthur Frazer has laid charges of "irregularities" arising from the incident against President Ramaphosa.

In addition to speculation that the President could be involved in money laundering with such an astonishing amount of cash in his care, Frazer has apparently also alleged that Ramaphosa could be defeating the ends of justice since he (Ramaphosa) had neglected to report the incident to the South African Police at the time. The latest development on the story is that the Hawks have now taken over the docket whereas it was initially investigated by the Presidential Protection Unit (PPU). Frazer's affidavit alleged that the PPU had used off-book methods of investigation, including engaging the services of a local farmer to help. The take-over of the Hawks in the investigation suggests a shake-up of the President's Praetorian Guard, the PPU, is imminent since their methods have landed Ramaphosa in hot water. A Namibian gang or thieves is alleged to have been responsible for the house-breaking at the farm in 2020, according to the preliminary investigation.

Implats announces additional listing

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Even though Impala Platinum (Implats) is set to list on an alternative bourse, its primary listing will remain on the JSE.

Implats indicated that it is to list on A2X Markets (A2X), with its ordinary shares to be available for trade on A2X from 13 June. The company will retain its primary listings on the JSE and its Level 1 American Depositary Receipt programme in the US. Implats' issued share capital will be unaffected by the secondary listing on A2X. Implats has mining operations in South Africa, Zimbabwe and Canada and employs more than 56 000 people across its operations.

"The Implats counter is a high-quality and liquid scrip and we are pleased to have the opportunity to offer it to the broadest possible range of investors. This secondary listing complements our primary listing and provides investors with a competitively priced choice of venue to transact in the company's shares," says Implats CFO Meroonisha Kerber. "Implats investors gain exposure to a global precious metals portfolio, comprising operating PGM (Platinum group metals) assets, projects and a toll-refining business. Together, our operations are well positioned to capture the benefits of the full PGM value chain through integrated processing facilities, including wholly-owned smelters, as well as base and precious metal refineries. "This secondary listing on A2X aligns with international best practice and supports the growth and development of South Africa's capital markets," Kerber adds. The listing will bring the number of instruments available for trade on A2X to 68, with a combined market capitalisation of about R4.5 trillion. A2X is a licensed stock exchange that provides a secondary listing venue for companies. It is regulated by the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the Prudential Authority in terms of the Financial Markets Act.

Triple J Q4 Fuel amptelik geopen

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Maande lank se uitsien na ‘n splinternuwe vulstasie op die hoek en boonop die gerief van ‘n OK Express-gerieflikheidswinkel het Rustenburgers en veral inwoners aan die oostelike grense van Rustenburg se tradisionele sakegebied Vrydagoggend na Triple J Q4 se opening op die hoek van Oliver Tambo en Tuinstraat laat stroom. ‘n Propvol program wat nie aan vermaak, lekker gesels, motorfietswaaghalse en heerlike eet- en drinkgoed ontbreek het nie, is vir die dag opsygesit. Rustenburg Herald se fotografe was ook op die toneel en het meegaande foto’s saamgestel.

Mnr Nico Pietersen van Rustenburg, ‘n gereelde wenner van Rustenburg Herald se blokkiesraaisels, bly maar ‘n man met die geluk aan sy kant. Mnr Pietersen was boonop die wenner van ‘n stel bande ter waarde van R10 000 wat in ‘n kompetisie rondom die opening van die nuwe Triple J Q4 Fuel-vulstasie op die spel was. Mnr Pietersen word hierbo deur Donovan Johnston gelukkig gewens.

Foto regs: Heel links en heel regs is Francois Velloen en Johan Marais van Q4 - die ander “gaste” is Jacques Swart, die Q4-gelukbringertjie, Michelle Meyer en Samantha Klinghardt, Gail du Randt van OK Express, Angelene Naicker, Elska de Winnaar en Donovan Johnston.

In gewone volgorde is Emily Lethogonolo, Torbin Thurman, Wynand Maritz, Delvis Mashilo, Gail du Randt, Donovan Johnston, Jacques Swart, Marius Beukes, Charlotte Mashego en Tinus Coetzee.

Triple J Q4 Fuel - “opening van ‘n vulstasie in dié area lank agterweë”

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Rustenburgers aan die oostelike grense van die stad se tradisionele sakegebied, maar ook talle ander inwoners van die omliggende omgewing, hoef voortaan nie meer “dorp toe te gaan” as die melkies of brood ‘n bietjie aan die min kant is nie of wanneer hulle skielik deur die lus vir sjokolade oorval word nie.

Sedert verlede Vrydag is daar die gerief van ‘n 24-uur OK Express-gerieflikheidswinkel by Triple J Q4 Fuel op die hoek van Oliver Tambo en Tuinstraat. Verlede Vrydag was ‘n groot dag waarna daar vir maande uitgesien is toe die nuwe vulstasie tydens ‘n opwindende program in gebruik geneem is. Vir Rustenburgers was daar allerlei vermaak met motorfietswaaghalse, sangers met spitsvondige kwinkslae, lekker eet- en drinkgoed, baie pryse om te wen, die weersiens van goeie vriende en die hoogtepunt natuurlik - die geleentheid om met Naas Botha blad te skud en oor die glorieryke dae te gesels. Vir eregaste was daar later die middag ‘n skaap op die spit met allerlei vermaak en opwindende soos ‘n stel Hankook-motorbande ter waarde van R10 000 wat uiteindelik deur mnr Nico Pietersen gewen is.

Jacques Swart, ‘n bekende Rustenburger in veral motorsportkringe het tydens ‘n kort praatjie sy waardering uitgespreek teenoor die span wat oor die afgelope twee maande baie hard gewerk het om alles reg en gereed te kry vir die heuglike gebeurtenis. Hy het ook sy dank gerig aan personeel en die ontwikkelingspan, eregaste en besoekers oud en jonk wat die openingsdag bygewoon het en nuwe vriendskapsbande gesluit het.

Vir Rustenburgers was die plaaslike bekendstelling van die nuwe Q4 Fuel-brandstofhandelsmerk ook ‘n eerste. Rustenburg Herald se fotografe was ook op die gastelys en het die dag se opwindende op kamera vasgelê.

Foto links: Lesley Moshome was een van die eerste Rustenburgers om Vrydag brandstof in te gooi. By hom is die ryvlak-assistentie Iphraim Molefe en Kabelo Gaomphe.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - TLASENG - “A change of lifestyle in eating, drinking and engaging in physical activities is the best way to lower high blood pressure and increase the years of living longer...”

This was disclosed last week Thursday (2 June) at a World Hypertension Day Campaign Against High Blood Pressure held at Tlaseng Clinic. The event was organised by Rustenburg Sub-District Dietetics Unit in partnership with Environmental Health Practitioners.

Heart attacks, strokes and kidney diseases were said to be amongst some of the fatal results of Hypertension, commonly known as High Blood Pressure. Members of the community engaged in a 3,5km walk and various physical activities as a way to demonstrate healthy-lifestyle factors that are effective against High Blood Pressure. “Eating a healthy diet with less salt and adding of herbs and spices to food helps to improve heart health and reduce blood pressure,” said Dietician Koena Madibana.

Environmental Health Practitioner Lerato Matijila urged members of the community to quit smoking: “Smoking worsens high blood pressure and also causes lung cancer, bad breath and aging skin,” she said.

Other lifestyle habits to defeat hypertension include limitation of alcohol intake, less caffeine intake, and monitoring of blood pressure at health facilities.

Members of the community engaged in a 3,5km walk.

Om bewustelik te lewe

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Om bewustelik te lewe: In gesprek met die skrywer en meditasie-instrukteur Johannes de Villiers.

Die meeste van ons het al die term “mindfulness” gehoor . In Afrikaans noem ons dit “bewustelikheid” – met ander woorde om bewustelik te lewe. Afrikaans.com het met die skrywer en meditasie-instrukteur Johannes de Villiers gesels. Johannes het reeds twee boeke spesifiek oor bewustelikheid geskryf. Sy jongste boek, Meer as jou seerkry, is gebaseer op die insig wat hy verwerf het toe sy eie lewe uitmekaar geval het. Hy gesels met “deskundiges en terapeute, maar ook gewone mense wat deur die lewe platgevee is”. Hierdeur kom hy tot die slotsom dat groei wel kan plaasvind, al is ’n mens stukkend.

Johannes sê dat bewustelikheid verwys na die stilwordpraktyke wat oor eeue heen in baie wysheidstradisies onderrig is. “Die laaste 30 tot 40 jaar het daar toenemend onder Westerse sielkundiges en terapeute ’n belangstelling opgeduik in hoe dié tegnieke mense kan help om hul eie gevoelens, gedagtes en lewe beter te bestuur.

“Die kern van bewustelikheid is meditasie, die tegnieke waarmee mens bewustelikheid inoefen. Deur oefeninge te doen waarin jy jou vermoë slyp om jou aandag in die realiteit te fokus eerder as in die geraas in jou kop, kweek ’n mens ’n tipe rustigheid, deernis en later ook wysheid.” Johannes sê dat hoewel hy reeds jare lank mediteer, boeke oor die onderwerp geskryf het, en so meer, dit hom nie immuun gemaak het teen emosionele swaarkry en pyn nie. Covid het hom genoodsaak om sy joga-ateljee en gastehuis te sluit en in 2021 het hy in ’n diepe hartseer verval oor sy lewe wat so anders uitgedraai het as wat hy dit wou hê. Hier was hy – ’n man in sy veertigs, werkloos, en sy drome aan skerwe. “Een van die vernaamste vereistes om te kan groei, is dat jy by ’n plek van aanvaarding van jou nuwe lewe moet kom. As teenspoed jou tref, beteken dit ’n ou lewe (’n ou huwelik of ou werk of ou gesondheid) het verlore gegaan. Jy gaan nooit weer terugbly na die mens wat jy voorheen was nie. En vir baie mense is dit moeilik om dit te aanvaar. Hulle lewe word oorheers deur die drang om weer na hul ou lewe terug te keer. Hulle is bitter oor wat hulle nie meer het nie.

“Dis verstaanbaar. Maar bewustelikheid/mindfulness leer ons dat groei net kan plaasvind in die werklikheid waarin jy jou hier en nou bevind, nie in die verlore lewe wat nie meer bestaan nie. So jy moet rou, jy moet huil, jy moet indien nodig jou hare uit jou kop trek, maar op een of ander manier moet jy die realiteit in die gesig staar dat jou ou lewe verby is en nooit weer gaan terugkeer nie.

“Jy is nou in ’n nuwe lewe. Nie een wat jy gekies het nie. Nie een waarvoor jy aanvanklik weet hoe om dankbaar te wees nie. Maar hierdie lewe is die enigste plek waar jy kan groei en vir ander van diens kan wees.” “Baie mense dink meditasie is om in ’n beswying te gaan of jouself te hipnotiseer of iets. Maar meditasie is net ’n tegniek om tuis te kom in die lewe – die onvolmaakte lewe – wat jy het. In party meditasies fokus jy op jou asemhaling, in party fokus jy op jou lyf, maar in almal gebruik jy tegnieke wat jou leer om nie in jou gedagtes weg te dryf na die lewe waarvoor jy wens nie, maar eerder tuis te kom in die lewe wat jy hét.”

“Ek sal almal aanmoedig om van tyd tot tyd stil te gaan staan as die lewe dol raak en net hul handpalm teen hul hart te hou. Voel die hitte van jou palm teen jou bors. Maak dalk jou oë toe as jy kan. Herinner jouself dat jy liefde nodig het in jou swaar tye en gee jouself van daardie liefde. Sê: Dis normaal om te sukkel. Dis normaal om soms spyt te wees. Dis normaal dat jou lewe anders lyk as die een waarop jy gehoop het.

“Die lewe werk meestal op die ou einde wel uit. Dit werk net nie heeltemal uit soos wat jy wou gehad het nie. Dit verg moed en geduld om dit te aanvaar.

Maar as jy daarmee vrede kan maak, sal jy verstom wees oor die groeikrag wat daar in jou gebrokenheid skuil.” Lees die volledige artikel hier: <https://bit.ly/raakstil>.

Gupta-broers “ko huistoe”

Die arrestasie van die beweerde “staatskapers” Rajesh en Atul Gupta wat daarvan verdink word dat hulle honderde miljoene rand in ‘n reeks staatskapingstransaksies met Suid-Afrikaanse staatsinstellings soos Eskom en Transnet gebuit het, was die eerste daadwerklike verwikkeling in ‘n hoofstuk wat die meeste Suid-Afrikaners gedink het hulle nooit ooit sou sien nie. Rajesh en Atul Gupta is Maandagaand Suid-Afrikaanse tyd in Dubai in die Verenigde Arabiese Emirate vasgetrek nadat Interpol maande gelede ‘n lasbrief vir hul arrestasie uitgereik het. Dit is in hierdie stadium nie bekend hoe die derde Gupta-broer, Ajay arrestasie vrygespring het nie.

Die Suid-Afrikaanse mediagehoor het Dinsdagoggend met ongeloof verneem dat twee van die Gupta-broers vasgetrek is en dat hulle aangehou word totdat hulle hopelik later aan Suid-Afrika uitgelewer sal word om op talle aanklagte van staatskaping en korrupsie tereg te staan. Suid-Afrikaners moet egter nie hul asem ophou dat die Gupta-broers binnekort aan Suid-Afrika uitgelewer sal word nie. Die proses sal ongelukkig gepaard moet gaan met eindelose rompslomp in die vorm van burokratiese prosesse en dit sal naief wees om nie te verwag dat die Gupta-broers alles in die stryd sal werp om hul uitlewering aan Suid-Afrikaanse owerhede te voorkom nie. Boonop is daar onder die Gupta-broers hoegenaamd nie ‘n gebrek aan geld nie en soos die ou Afrikaanse idioom lui: “Geld wat stom is, maak reg wat krom is” - ons hoef nie te verwys na wat vroeër onder “bewind” van ons voormalige president Jacob Zuma en

Guptas brothers to come “home”

The arrest of at least two of the infamous Gupta brothers (Rajesh and Atul) who along with their third brother (Ajay) are the main suspects in South Africa’s notorious State Capture drama of the past three, four years, is by far the biggest news of the past week. Rajesh and Atul were captured by international Interpol agencies in Dubai on Monday evening following a Red Alert warrant for their arrest by Interpol months ago. At this stage it was still unclear how the Ajay Gupta has managed to escape arrest.

The arrest of at least two of the brothers concludes the first chapter of a story that most South Africans believed they would never witness. What is to follow in getting the Gupta brother extradited to South Africa, may however not go as smoothly as expected and South Africans are advised not to hold their breaths in anticipation of this. In the world and times we are living in it goes without saying that the Gupta family certainly has no shortage of money and it is only natural that they will throw everything they have at preventing them from being extradited to South Africa where they will have to face the law. Sadly however, it is no secret that across the world, money - especially loads of it - will go a long way in ensuring that those who are in trouble with the law, find it much easier to escape from it. Furthermore, bureaucratic processes with endless red-tape

Skenk ‘n kombers aan DBV

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Dis is ‘n kouer winter as die vorige jare - of, dit voel beslis so.

En ons wat bevoorreg is, kan saans onder lekker warm beddegoed gaan inkruip. Maar elke aand is daar dié skepseltjies wat nie altyd só gelukkig is nie - die diere by die DBV. Indien dit in jou vermoë is, skenk ‘n kombers aan hulle. Kom ons ontfern ons oor die diere wat so afhanklik van die gemeenskap se ondersteuning is - dit gaan jou nie veel kos nie, maar vir die diere sal dit ‘n baie groot verskil maak.

Mckenzie September at the Fields College Rapid tournament.

Rowan Gounder playing at the Africa Schools Championships.

Bojanala chess players represent SA

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Two players from Bojanala Chess Federation, Thatego Lefyedi and Rowan Gounder have been invited to compete in the World School Chess Championships 2022.

They qualified after their brilliant showing at the Africa Schools Individual Chess Championships that took place in Kenya, 2021.

Meanwhile, another Bojanala player, Mckenzie September, just returned from Greece where she represented South Africa at the World Youth Rapid and Blitz Championships. Mckenzie secured her invitation to this competition when she became the South African Online Junior Closed Chess Champion in the U/16 girls, online category. Mckenzie is the first player in the history of Bojanala Chess, to obtain the title of South African Closed Champion.

According to the Bojanala Chess Federation, the number of Bojanala players to represent South Africa in 2022 international chess tournaments will still grow. This is just a result of player performances during the 2021 chess calendar year. It all started with them participating in Bojanala tournaments that were rated by Chess South Africa and the International Chess Federation (FIDE).

Lincoln September, the president of Bojanala Chess Federation, says that players are now working towards the South African Junior Chess Championships that will be take place in the Birchwood Hotel and OR Tambo Conference Centre, during January 2023. Bojanala will invite their strongest players to participate in trials, after which they will only select 66 players to represent them.
