Lawman's swan song

Last week saw the farewell function of a prominent member of the Rustenburg judiciary after attorney Frikkie Pretorius of Van Velden-Duffey announced his retirement late last year. In his farewell address Frikkie paid tribute to an exemplary law firm and his mentors Igna Klynsmith and Dieter Krüger - both alumni directors of Van Velden-Duffey where he had practised for just over three decades. In its tribute to Pretorius, the company lauded him for his dedication and commitment towards family and criminal law. The glittering occasion was held at Brauhaus Africa just outside Rustenburg. Pictured above are Frikkie and his beautiful wife, Ria.

National State of Disaster extended

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs (CoGTA) Minister, Dr Nkosazana Dlamini Zuma, has gazetted a further extension of the National State of Disaster on COVID-19, until 15 April 2022.

In a Government Gazette issued on Monday (14 March), the Minister said the extension took into consideration the “need to continue augmenting the existing legislation and contingency arrangements undertaken by organs of state to address the impact of the disaster”. The country has been under regulations of the National State of Disaster on COVID-19 since March 2020 when South Africa recorded its first cases of the virus. President Cyril Ramaphosa, during his State of the Nation Address in February, said government planned to scrap the National State of Disaster as the country entered a new phase in the management of the COVID-19 pandemic. Later, Health Minister, Dr Joe Phaahla, said various departments were “working on alternative measures” to replace regulations related to the National State of Disaster which could be presented to the National Coronavirus Command Council (NCCC).

War in Eastern Europe: Bread price to sky rocket

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The war between Russia and the Ukraine might be thousands of kilometres away from South Africa, but we here will feel the pinch.

Russia's invasion of Ukraine will make bread in South Africa a lot more expensive, but consumers will only start to feel the impact three months from now, an economist has warned.

Between them, Russia and Ukraine control more than a quarter of the world's wheat exports, and Russia's invasion has caused a surge in the price of essential grains.

The ripple effect will start to reflect on retail shelves in South Africa in about three months an economist at Grain SA said.

But is not only local bread that will increase - cereal prices will also see a price hike due to higher wheat prices.

With the cost of bread edging higher, buying in bulk and storing it may become an attractive proposition. If appropriately sealed in a bag, most shop-bought breads freeze well and can be kept in the fridge for up to six months.

Just where markets will settle – and so how much bread will actually cost – is not yet clear. But between a weaker exchange rate, higher oil prices, and increases in fuel prices, bread prices are set to soar.

The war in Europe comes at a time when South African farmers are already battling exorbitant input costs, including double and triple-digit increases in fertiliser costs.

Jannie Strydom of Agri Western Cape told media that lower-income groups would be significantly affected by increases in bread prices and other staple foods such as maize meal. “The price of maize is determined by global markets, and should there be a shortage, an increase is inevitable and could result in an increase in staple food prices,” Strydom said. For now, Pick n Pay, one of South Africa's leading grocery retailers, has been able to contain internal food inflation below the official inflation, it says.

It said the coming months would be challenging as fuel costs continue to climb. To exacerbate these challenges, raw ingredient cost inflation to core commodities, such as oil and wheat, is also rising.

“These will have an impact on local prices. We will always try to mitigate the impact on customers and fight to keep prices down. These continued efforts have consistently helped us keep our internal selling price inflation well below CPI food inflation,” Pick n Pay said.

Farewell to Frikkie Pretorius

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - After more than 30 years in the profession, Van Velden-Duffey bid farewell to one of its most prominent attorneys, Frikkie Pretorius, at a prestigious evening held at Brauhaus Afrika on 9 March 2022.

Frikkie Pretorius retired at the end of October 2021. The firm was privileged to have Frikkie practice in its civil litigation, family and criminal law departments for over 30 years.

Those who had the pleasure to practice with him gained valuable experience in the legal field. Frikkie will be remembered for his dedication and commitment to the firm, his career and the legal fraternity. His departing speech was a heart-warming tribute to his family. He acknowledged his gratitude to his mentors, Igna Klynsmith and Dieter Krüger, both alumni directors of the firm, as well as his colleagues, supporting staff and co-directors of the firm for their support throughout his career. We bid a final farewell to Frikkie by quoting Saint Paul: “You have run with perseverance and have finished the race”.

Normality returning slowly but surely at Magistrate’s Court

Waldie Volschenk

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - At the Rustenburg Magistrate’s Court the wheels of justice had begun to roll into motion once again after an interruption of almost two weeks since the sudden closure of the Magistrate’s building on Friday, 25 February, due to serious concerns regarding the safety of magistrate’s, prosecutors, lawyers, administrative personnel and members of the public entering the premises.

A notice demanding the immediate closure and vacation of the building was served to the Magistrate’s Court with the demand that long overdue maintenance issues be addressed as a matter of the greatest urgency before anyone would be allowed back into the premises.

For days on end members of the judiciary had consulted with clients in the shade of trees outside the premises while disgruntled members of the public were lining up in long queues to literally wait for the law to take its course. The closure had necessitated a plan of action to be drawn up and presented to the Rustenburg Municipality while several meetings between the Department of Justice, management of the Magistrate’s Court and the Department of Public Works had been convened to decide on the interim way forward.

A matter of grave concern was how the immediate closure of the building had affected arrested members of the public who have lodged applications for bail. At the time Col Adèle Myburgh: head of media relations of the North West Police Services told Rustenburg Herald that the police and the Department of Justice were working closely together in order for arrested suspects to appear before court to obtain postponed court dates as an emergency measure. Whilst the first of court cases that could proceed and where witnesses had been present, the court slowly rolled back in motion from Monday this week. On Tuesday morning Rustenburg Herald was told that the Rustenburg Municipality was conducting an inspection in the building to ascertain to which extent failing infrastructure had been repaired or replaced. “It’s probably a matter of hours or mostly a day or two before the Rustenburg Magistrate’s Court would be firing on all cylinders once again, Rustenburg Herald was told.

Kulula, British Airways se vlerke, vir eers, geknip

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Suid-Afrika se Burgerlugvaart Owerheid het Comair se Operateursertifikaatvoorregte onbepaald opgeskort.

Die opskorting sal in plek bly tot Burgerlugvaart die versekering gekry het dat Comair, wat die operateur vir Kulula en British Airways is, se vliegtuie veilig vir passasiers is. Volgens ‘n verklaring van Burgerlugvaart, het Comair-vliegtuie die afgelope maand ‘n verskeidenheid probleme ondervind wat strek van enjins wat faal of onklaar geraak het en landingstoerusting wat nie reg funksioneer het nie. Comair mag teen die opskorting appéleer. Burgerlugvaart het egter in hul verklaring gesê dat Comair hul volle samewerking gee en dat daar gehoop word dat die probleme spoedig aangespreek en opgelos sal word.

Die owerheid het gesê dat dit jammer is dat vlugte ontwrig is, maar dat hul verantwoordelikheid daarby lê om die veiligheid van passasiers te alle tye eerste te stel.

Nog baie reën verwag

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Swaar reën het sedert vroeg Maandagoggend oor groot gedeeltes van die land uitgesak en deурдringende reën is vir die res van die week oor die Suid-Afrikaanse binneland voorspel.

In Rustenburg is nie minder nie as 62.4 mm binne enkele ure by Geelhout Gardens aangeteken na verskeie hewige buie wat by tye aan ‘n wolkbreuk herinner het. Met ‘n Januarie/Februarie/Maart-gemiddeld van 381 mm vir Rustenburg en die 333 mm wat in hierdie drie maande van verlede jaar gemeet is, dui die statistiek daarop dat Rustenburg egter nog heelwat reën vir die res van Maart sal moet kry om hierdie syfers te ewenaar. Tot en met Maandag, 14 Februarie, is ‘n totaal van 214 mm tot dusver oor die drie maande in Rustenburg gemeet. Die SA Weerdiens het reeds van vroeg vanjaar af “gewaarsku” dat Suid-Afrika weens die La Nina-verskynsel vanjaar tot diep in Maart en selfs in April goeie reën kan verwag. Nog goeie reën vir die oorblywende gedeelte van hierdie week kan intussen nog verwag word. Kliek gerus op die skakel <https://bit.ly/swaerreensakuit> vir ‘n videogreep oor hoe dit Maandag te midde van die jongste reën in Rustenburg gelyk het.

Bakwena Ba Modimosana fight to resettle on their land

RUSTENBURG HERALD - MMATAU - The rightful owners of a farm between Boshoeck and Swartruggens want the opportunity to go and resettle there for residential and farming purposes, however a court interdict is allegedly preventing them to do so.

Grootwagendrift, which falls under the Kgetleng Rivier Municipality was given back to the clan of Bakweena Ba Modimosana tribe, who previously owned the land but was forcefully taken from them during the apartheid era.

The land was handed to the chieftaincy of the tribe as well as the traditional council to manage in 1995.

According to Mummy Ngema, one of the community members, the land has been managed by different boards and leased to farmers who have utilised it to its best ability by accommodating tenants from neighbouring mines, leasing to other farmers for grazing and dipping as well as trophy hunting.

The clan, which is now staying almost 100 km from the land, in Mmatau Village allege that the land has not benefitted them since it was given back by Land Affairs. They now want to settle there and make the land work for them, especially the youth, who are unemployed.

“We want to use the land for settlement and commercial farming in order for youth to get access to the economy. We are urging the relevant departments to help us with our goal as we are afraid that our land will be occupied illegally by unknown people as it has been happening in South Africa recently,” said Mmami Ngema.

The clan in a previous court interdict according to information has been prevented to use the land for settlement in a matter brought to the courts by neighbouring farmers.

Oekraïne-krisis: Regering moet brandstofheffing opskort om druk op voedselpryse te verlig

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Agri SA se navorsing en ontleding dui daarop dat die Oekraïne-Rusland-krisis 'n ernstige uitwerking op voedselsekerheid in Suid-Afrika sal hê en dat dit 'n wesentlike risiko vir dele van die landbousektor inhou.

Met globale koringpryse en landbou-insetkoste wat astronomies styg, moet die regering dringend stappe neem om die brandstofheffing op te skort ten einde verligting te bring vir boere, veral die nasie se kleinskaalse boere. Dit kan help om ook voedselpryse vir Suid-Afrikaanse verbruikers in toom te hou.

Suid-Afrika se handel met Oekraïne het geweldig toegeneem oor die afgelope dekade. Tussen 2016 en 2020 het Suid-Afrika se landbou-uitvoer na Oekraïne meer as verdubbel - vanaf R76,5 miljoen in 2016 tot R155 miljoen in 2020. Landbou-invoer, wat redelik stabiel gebly het, het in 2020 sowat R390 miljoen beloop. Oekraïne sowel as Rusland is belangrike koringprodusente vir die wêreldmark en verantwoordelik vir 'n kwart van globale koringuitvoer. Onderbreking van die voorraadketting van dié stapelvoedsel sal wêreldwyd voedselprysskotte veroorsaak, veral in Suid-Afrika, wat 30% van die land se totale koring van hierdie lande invoer.

Rusland is ook die wêreld se voorste verskaffer van kunsmis. Onlangse data dui daarop dat globale kunsmispryse geweldig gestyg het tussen Januarie 2021 en Januarie 2022. Plaaslike kunsmispryse het verdubbel, terwyl globale kunsmispryse vervierdubbel het. Boere was dus reeds onder druk voor die huidige krisis. Die Russiese inval van die Oekraïne het bloot dié druk vererger.

Brent-ruoliepryse het ook nagenoeg verdriedubbel tussen Februarie en Maart 2022. Met die onlangse, sowel as verwagte styging in brandstofpryse, sal die vervoerkoste om voedsel by Suid-Afrikaanse verbruikers te kry geweldig toeneem oor die volgende paar maande - tensy die regering stappe neem om dit te vermy.

Dit is die rede waarom Agri SA 'n beroep doen op die regering om gedurende hierdie krisis brandstofheffings op te skort ten einde 'n toename in voedselpryse te vermy. Versuim om op te tree, sal bloot die kostedruk op verbruikers vererger en sodoende voedselsekerheid in Suid-Afrika in gevaar stel, veral vir die mees kwesbare gemeenskappe.

Tesame met verbruikers, sal die opskorting van brandstofheffings beskerming bied aan kwesbare kleinskaalse boere teen toenames in insetkoste en teen die verwagte aanslag op landbou-inkomste vanaf Rusland en Oekraïne. Landboukommoditeite is verantwoordelik vir meer as die helfte van alle Suid-Afrikaanse uitvoer na Oekraïne, meestal vrugte en neute. Dit sal waarskynlik 'n gewelddige uitwerking op die prestasie van sommige bedrywe in die eerste kwartaal van 2022 hê.

Sitrusprodukte beslaan die grootste gedeelte van uitvoer na Oekraïne en is geraam op R133,7 miljoen in 2020.

Blokkering van uitvoer na Rusland sal ook 'n nadelige uitwerking op Suid-Afrika se beduidende handel in landboukommoditeite met daardie land hê. Suid-Afrika se uitvoer na Rusland beloop meer as dubbel sy landbou-invoer. Landbou-invoer het stabiel gebly op ongeveer R2 miljard tussen 2016 tot 2020, terwyl uitvoer vanaf R2,1 miljard in 2016 tot R4 miljard in 2020 toegeneem het.

Die Oekraïne-Rusland-konflik hou dus beduidende gevolge in vir die prestasie van Suid-Afrika se landbousektor. Die regering moet dringend stappe neem om die vernietigende gevolge van hierdie verlore inkomste op die land se boere te versag; byvoorbeeld deur marktoegang te bewerkstellig sodat produkte wat bestem is vir Oekraïne, elders versend kan word. Elke dag wat die regering versuim om op te tree, hou 'n risiko in vir broodnodige werkgeleenthede in die sektor.

Agri SA sal alles in sy vermoë doen om met die regering en bedryfsbelanghebbendes oor die waardeketting heen te skakel, sodat ons gesamentlik kan verseker dat Suid-Afrikaners toegang het tot genoegsame voedsel in dié onsekere en moeilike ekonomiese tye.

The lowdown on Liquefied Petroleum Gas

RUSTENBURG HERALD - With Eskom’s renewed load shedding hitting South Africans again in full force, and vandalism plunging Rustenburg into darkness for often than not, consumers are looking at cost effective alternatives to, at least, put food on the table.

Yes, Solar should be the preferred alternative. It’s clean and 100% renewable - the sun rises every day. But it’s also very, very expensive to implement.

This brings us to gas.

When installed properly, it is a safe option - specially for cooking, and it won’t break the bank. The golden rule however - as with most things in life - is to do your homework and find a reputable dealer to buy from.

What you might not know, is that South Africa is divided into ‘fuel zones’ - and the price you pay for Liquefied Petroleum Gas (LPG), is determined by the fuel zone where you buy your gas. Rustenburg, Brits, Swartruggens, Koster and Pretoria are all graded in Fuel Zone 09C. This means that the MAXIMUM price a shop/retailer/garage may charge you for gas currently, is R34,46 p/kg. For example, for a 9kg gas bottle, no shop/ retailer/ garage may charge you more than R310 to refill your gas bottle. For 19kg the maximum price that may be charged for a refill is R654,74 and for 48kg it is R1654,08. These prices are adjusted monthly, and coincide with the fuel price adjustments every first Wednesday of every month.

Sunflower oil also casualty of war

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Slap chips are about to get more expensive due to the war in the Ukraine.

The Russian invasion has sent edible food prices soaring in a region on which South Africa depends - also for sunflower oil.

Consumers will have to pay more for potato products that use a lot of cooking oil, including fries and crisps, Potatoes South Africa told the media.

“The impact of the increase in cooking oil within the food industry is expected to realise in the processing industry on frozen potato produce, such as French fries and wedges, as well as crisps,” it said.

The hospitality and take-away restaurants industries will not be left untouched, it said. “We do foresee consumers feeling a pinch as the suppliers of chips will have to adjust their current pricing based on an increase in one of their main inputs, which is cooking oil,” said Potatoes South Africa. The Russian invasion sent prices of several essential commodities soaring, including edible oils such as sunflower oil – which was already in short supply over the last few years, after poor harvests of sunflower, palm, soya, and canola in crucial regions of the world. Although South Africa produces vegetable oil, it does not make enough to meet local demand, and imports - about 20% above local production - are heavily dependent on the Black Sea region. Over the past five years, South Africa imported up to 250,000 tons of sunflower oil from mostly Russia and Bulgaria.

Rustenburg Council takes milestone decisions

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A special Council meeting of the Rustenburg Local Municipality held on Friday (11 March), took milestone decisions.

The specific reports tabled for debate and ultimately resolution were: adjustments budget 2021/2022, mid year performance report – 2021/2022, Integrated Development Plan(IDP), budget and performance plan for 2022/2027.

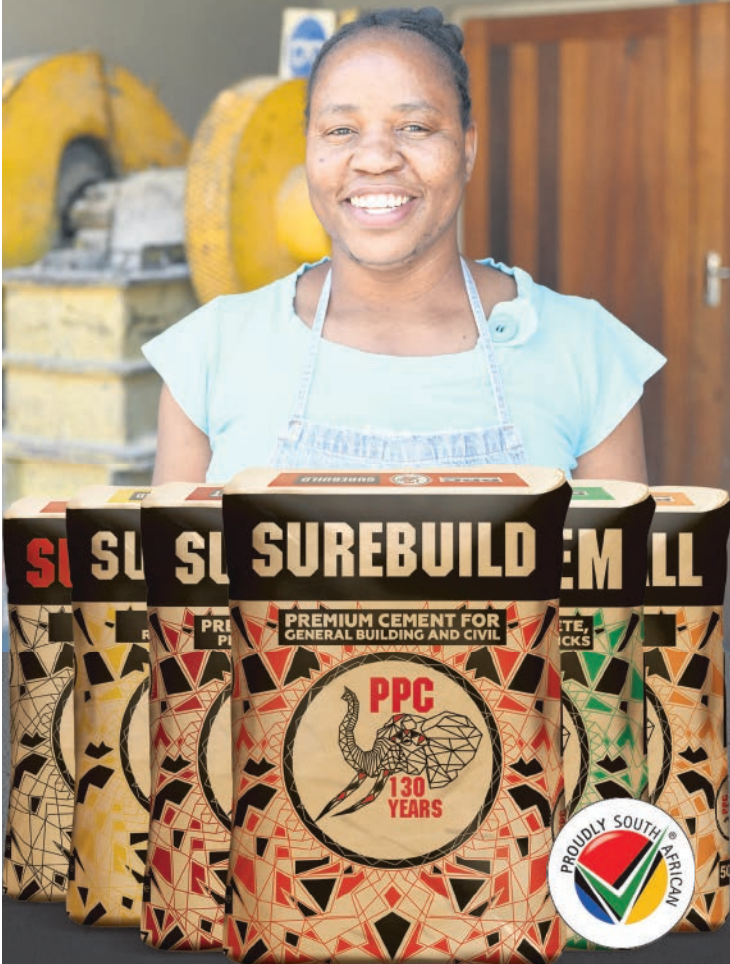

After through and elaborate debates conducted in Council in previous meetings, with the objective to ensuring that justice is done to reports tabled before Council, it is therefore pleasing to learn that Council resolved to adopt all reports tabled before it on its special meeting held on 11 March. This translates into realisation of service delivery, which communities so much need, particularly, in the areas of provision of clean running water, electricity, housing, safety and security, as well as job creation.

Riding for Autism

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A Ride 4 Autism Awareness (RAA) Campaign will be hosted here at the end of April.

"Many children have not been diagnosed yet, and many parents have no idea that their children may have Autism. Our goal is not only to create awareness in South Africa, but to also hopefully build a special school for Autism in Rustenburg - as there are none in the North West Province," says Lebo Mosime, organiser of the event planned for this city on 27 April.

The RAA was established three years ago in Kenya by Andy Speaks 4 Special Needs Persons Africa, a rights-based not-for-profit organization that champions for the mainstreaming of neurodevelopmental disabilities including Autism. In 2022 the event will cover eight cities in five countries, all of which will ride, walk, or cycle on the same date. In South Africa, the event will be hosted by the non-profit organisation Puo Phaa Mosadi in Johannesburg on 2 April, World Autism Day.

For the Rustenburg event, the activities planned for the day are:

- A Ride4Autism Awareness campaign.
- The Ride will be through a yet to be determined route in and around Rustenburg.
- Autism Booklets will be issued during the campaign by the riders at different points along the route.

- Caregivers and community members will be hosted at a venue to be determined, with information and resources provided by various specialists, and if possible, a medical camp.
 - Stalls displaying autism assistive devices, resources, and other products.
 - An entertainment area
- Local business and organisations are invited to join forces with Puo Phaa Mosadi for this event.

"Your support will enable us to provide professional aid to the initiative to raise funds for Rustenburg a Special Autism School, - our long term goal - as well as a therapy center where the general public can access affordable or free services. We also hope to be able to provide specialist professionals to assist parents, especially with early diagnosis. The provision for dentistry services for people living with Autism is also on the cards," says Mosime.

If your business or organisation wants to be part of the event, contact Lebo Mosime by sending an email to info@puophaaamosadi.org

New high-tech hybrid operating theatre

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - New high-tech hybrid operating theatre enables precise imaging diagnostics during surgery resulting in minimally invasive cardiac and vascular procedures.

Life Peglerae Hospital's recent theatre complex upgrade includes a new hybrid operating theatre that can be used to perform minimally invasive surgery, or full open surgery, or a combination of both, due to providing high-precision robotic diagnostic imaging, based on X-ray technology, during the procedure. "We're excited that this new technology provides us with a hybrid operating room enabling surgeons to perform a high-tech scan during the surgical procedure.

The benefit is that the scan enables precise diagnosis which affords the surgeon to, in most cases, perform minimally invasive surgery which limits the size of incisions needed", says Denise Botha, hospital manager at Life Peglerae Hospital. Botha explained that this means that patients' recovery time and hospital stay could be shorter, allowing them to return to their daily activities faster. The new high-tech hybrid theatre will specifically benefit cardio thoracic surgeons, cardiologist and vascular surgeons whose patients previously had to travel or be transferred elsewhere to have their surgery. "With the new technology now available at Life Peglerae Hospital in Rustenburg we can better serve our community ", added Ms Botha. The newly placed technically advanced imaging equipment includes a robotic C-arm imaging device. This robotic C-arm allows free range of movement over or under any part of the patient's body for 3D ultra-high-definition images. These images facilitate pre-procedural, intra-operative decisions and guidance aiding immediate response and reaction to interventional or operative complexities by the surgeon. Not only does the technically advanced robotic C-arm provide high-definition images, it also reduces patient radiation exposure as well as the quantity of contrast administered to the patient, thus protecting renal function. In turn, procedure time and anaesthetic duration are reduced. The enormous benefit of this theatre is that if needed, minimally invasive surgery can be easily converted to an open procedure as all the necessary capabilities are available.

New high-tech hybrid operating theatre enables precise imaging diagnostics during surgery resulting in minimally invasive cardiac and vascular procedures.

Sidney Gilroy kuier by Leeskring

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Op Saterdag 12 Maart 2022 het Rustenburg Leeskring 'n besondere byeenkoms aangebied.

Dit was nie net omdat dit op 'n Saterdag plaasgevind het nie, maar omdat skrywer Sidney Gilroy self kom gesels het oor sy werk en veral oor Klikbek, sy eerste roman.

Sidney was pas in Pretoria en Klerksdorp met die bekendstelling van sy derde roman, Vlam, en Rustenburg is dus die noordelikste punt wat hy besoek het.

Leeskringlede het dit werklik geniet om te hoor hoe Sidney te werk gaan om 'n roman te skryf, en die feit dat hy 'n karaktergedrewe skrywer is, het veral byval gevind. Aangesien al die lede reeds Klikbek gelees het, het hulle Sidney behoorlik met vroeë gepeper, wat hy op sy beurt baie geniet het.

Die Leeskring waardeur dit werklik dat Sidney kon tyd inruim om Rustenburg te besoek.

Op die foto verskyn voor (van links) Monica en Micky Badenhorst, Sidney Gilroy, Bettie Rossouw en agter (van links) Theresa Lodewyckx, Issie de Jager, Meisie Fowlds, Bettina Terblanche en Marita du Plessis.

Vat hande en ondersteun dié plaaslike besighede

Adverteerders op hierdie bladsy is kleiner ondernemings, soos eenmansake en tuisondernemings wat nie met die groot name in die bedryf kan meeding wanneer dit by die koop van advertensieruimte kom nie, en wie verstaan dit beter as die Rustenburg Herald?

Daarom skop ons af met twee bladsye met spotgoedkoop advertensies vir eenmansake en tuisondernemings tot die einde van die jaar.

Ondersteun dié besighede, want wanneer ons klein besighede een vir een sluit as gevolg van ondergang in die bedryf, is die rimpel-effek soveel groter en die plaaslike koopkrag word algaande net minder.

Wanneer jy 'n plaaslike besigheid ondersteun, help jy 'n kind om swemlesse by 'n plaaslike swemafrigter te kry of om sporttoerusting plaaslik te koop om hulle sport te beoefen, 'n broodwinner om 'n huislening, 'n motorpaaient of 'n kind se skoolgelde of 'n studielening te kan betaal en gesinne van voedsel te voorsien.

Kleiner besighede is meer toeganklik en gebruikersvriendelik en in plaas van met 'n antwoordmasjien praat wanneer jy skakel en knoppies te druk wat jou van Pontius na Pilatus stuur, praat jy met 'n persoon wat luister en jou navraag direk beantwoord. Municipality pursues social labour plans with mining companies

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Rustenburg Local Municipality has embarked on a comprehensive series of meetings with mining companies and IDP Multistakeholder Forum, within its jurisdiction, as already started with Royal Bafokeng Platinum mine and IDP Multistakeholders Forum, on Wednesday (9 March), as well as Tharisa Minerals on Friday (11 March). The series of these meetings continue until end of March 2022 according to Thapelo Matebesi, spokesperson on the Rustenburg Local Municipality.

According to Matebesi, the object of meetings is to receive presentations by mining companies, followed by deliberations from both sides, namely; municipality and mining personnel, with the view to re-aligning and customising projects contained in social labour plans (SLP's). This helps to prioritise burning issues and immediate needs of neighbouring communities, thus ensuring improved quality of life of residents.

With regard to IDP Multistakeholder forum, the objective is to ensure coherent planning with all stakeholders of the municipality. This coherent planning forms basis of the integrated development plan (IDP), which is the principal strategic planning instrument in terms of Section 152 and 156 of the Constitution. The areas involved in the social labour plans and corporate social investment include: provision of water, electricity, housing, land acquisition, human resources, school support projects, development, as well as procurement opportunities, amongst others. The ultimate objective is to hold mining companies accountable in honouring their social labour plans and corporate social responsibilities. "With this collaborative approach with mining houses and other government related organisations within our jurisdiction, we will be able to pull our resources together, for a common purpose of rendering quality service to our communities, thus improving quality of their life. By so doing, we will indeed be building Rustenburg together, which is our mandate as the third sphere of government, closest to our people", remarked Executive Mayor, Cllr Shiela Mabale-Huma, during the interactions.

The purpose is to review and re-align social labour plans and corporate social responsibilities by mines, thus ensuring improved quality of life of communities. (Photo: Thapelo Matebesi).

Gender Based Violence campaign held in Boitekong

RUSTENBURG HERALD - BOITEKONG - On Wednesday (9 March) the Boitekong Community Policing Forum (CPF) in partnership with various stakeholders held an awareness campaign against “Gender Based Violence” at Boitekong Stadium.

The campaign was initiated by the CPF after a high volume of domestic and gender based violence cases were reported from the area. With the help of the Boitekong Community Policing Officer (CPO), event’s coordinator Sergeant Lousa Magano, CPF members and social workers, thirty learners from three local primary schools that were found to be affected by domestic or gender based violence circumstances were invited and presented with hampers by Impala Platinum mines.

The main speaker of the day was Ms Setadile Manhen a social worker from Thuthuzela Trauma centre (National Prosecuting Authority) who further enlightened the attendees about the different levels of abuse and the remedies thereof.

Sergeant Happy Mafora who is the commander of sector 1 and where the event was held, warned the community about dangers of withdrawing gender based violence cases and urged them to refrain from such behaviour.

The Boitekong SAPS led by the station commander Colonel Ganas, Lieutenant Colonel Miller (Head of Visible Policing), Captain Moitlobo (Head of Crime Prevention) and the Bojanala Sub District 2 CPF chairperson Mr Phathaphatlha were in attendance as expected, giving guidance and support especially during the questions and answers session. Colonel Ganas thanked the community for honouring the event through their attendance irrespective of the pouring rain. He further assured the community that he will continue striving to improve the level of service delivery by the Boitekong police especially where women and children are being abused.

Thirty learners from three local primary schools that were found to be affected by domestic or gender based violence circumstances were invited and presented with hampers by Impala Platinum mines.

Colonel Ganas thanked the community for honouring the event through their attendance irrespective of the pouring rain.

Ons Gemeenskap Rustenburg Herald Keok

The combination of tortilla chips, salsa and guacamole is just simply one of the best share-food you can imagine. This week we are enjoying the company of Khumo Dolo, Juan Palm and Kelvin Steyn. For their day jobs they are part of the management team of the Rustenburg Mall, but when they want to 'kuier', they get into the kitchen and make nachos. The three also enlisted the help of Custy Mabusa – who made sure that they are people with a taste for life! The absolute beauty of nachos is that it is rather easy and quick to make, but it is big on flavor and taste. Khumo, Juan and Kelvin each made their own version of basic nachos, adding chicken or beef, or a little more or less spiciness. You can make individual plates, or you can make it in a baking dish – the choice is yours. And, you really don't even need to measure anything – this is the one dish where you can throw the rules out the window.

Juan Palm, Khumo Dolo and Kelvin Steyn presenting their dishes. Second from right is the Taste for Life expert, Custy Mabusa, who kept a watchful eye over proceedings.

Don't worry if you cannot resist this dish, it is 'nacho' fault!

INGREDIENTS:

- Heaps of good quality Tortilla chips
- Loads of grated Cheese (Tip: mix Cheddar, Gouda and Mozzarella. You can add your favourite cheese, too)
- Tomato salsa – plain or spicy, the choice is yours
- Generous amounts of Guacamole
- Sour cream

YOU CAN ADD EITHER:

Cooked Ground beef, Beef strips, Chicken strips, Spicy Jalapeño - finely chopped, Tomato mixture, Refried black beans (also a nice option).

METHOD:

- Start with your tortilla chips – the thicker type is better – and place it at the bottom.
- Add some of your copious amounts of cheese and a bit of the Jalapeño mixture – if you want spicy nachos.
- Add a bit of your tomato salsa.
- Then you can add your preferred meat, if you like.
- Begin a new layer of tortilla chips and cheese and salsa, then top with a layer of sour cream. Finish with a nice, thick layer of cheese.
- Now pop it in a pre-heated oven at 180° and bake for 5-6 minutes, or until the cheese has melted completely.
- Top generously with guacamole.
- Serve warm.

It's nacho average dish! Drench your tortilla chips with salsa to get your nachos started.

Starting to look good...

Finishing touches.

Guacamole is the proverbial cherry on top.

Khumo Dolo, Juan Palm, and Kelvin Steyn toasting a job well done.

Ons probleme begin by Nasionale Vervolgingsgesag

Die aanstelling van regter Raymond Zondo as hoofregter verlede week het by baie mense die hoop laat opvlam dat Suid-Afrika uiteindelik van sy kultuur van wetteloosheid en straffeloosheid verlos kan word. Suid-Afrika se vuisvoos gemeenskap wat hoop op 'n beter toekoms kan nie kwalik geneem word as hulle hierdie standpunt huldig nie. Dit is egter nie so eenvoudig nie. Die feit is - Suid-Afrika se talle probleme met misdaad, wetteloosheid en straffeloosheid het nog nooit by die regbank gelê nie, maar by die nasionale vervolgingsgesag. Selfs met uitstekende mense aan die stuur van ons regbank soos Arthur Chaskalson, Pius Langa, Sandile Ngcobo, Mogoeng Mogoeng en nou ook Raymond Zondo waarna daar nooit 'n vinger gewys kon word nie, kon die land die golf van korrupsie, gierigheid en 'n skrikwekkende misdaadsfer nie ontkom nie. Hierdie mense was sonder uitsondering regters van onkreukbare karakter en kon nie polities beïnvloed word nie.

Van die nasionale vervolgingsgesag kan daar egter nie dieselfde gesê word nie. Onder leiding van mense soos Shaun Abrahams, Ngcobo Jiba, Lawrence Mrwebi en talle ander het baie mense hard agter die skerms gewerk om toe te sien dat die mense met politieke en finansiële invloed bevoordeel word en nie vir hul talle wandade aanspreeklik gehou word nie. Ons kan sommer begin met kandidaat nommer een - Schabir Shaik wat die meeste van die kort tydjie wat hy in aanhouding was en daarna op mediese patrool vrygelaat is, op die gholfbaan deurgebring het ongeag sy 'ernstige' mediese toestand. Hierna het die patroon homself tot vervelens toe herhaal.

Op die regbank het uitstekende regters soos hierbo en natuurlik talle ander net soos gewone Suid-Afrikaners wie se geld ter sprake was, vergeefs bly wag dat reg en geregtigheid geskied. Na 'n worsteling van bykans 20 jaar indien nie langer nie kan Suid-Afrikaners nie meer kwalik geneem word as hulle meen dat nie almal in hierdie land voor die reg gelyk is nie. Die statistiek wat hierdie mening ondersteun, is net eenvoudig oorweldigend.

Na Schaik was daar mense soos Ellen Tsabalala, Hlaudi Motsoeneng, Mosebenzi Zwane, Supra Mahumapelo, Ace Magashule, Nomvula Mokonyane, Dudu Myeni, Brian Molefe (en 'n rits ander by Eskom - onder andere Ben Ngubane), Tom Moyane, Siyabonga Gama, Malusi Gigaba (ag dis eintlik hopeloos...) wat die staatskas mateloos geplunder en daarmee weggekom het - om van hoofkameraad Jacob Zuma natuurlik nie eers te praat nie. Trouens, selfs na die veelgeroemde aanstelling van adv Shamila Batohi het daar by die nasionale vervolgingsgesag niks gebeur om toe te sien dat geregtigheid geskied nie. Pres Cyril Ramaphosa kan nie ernstig opgeneem word met sy pogings tot hervorming totdat hy die nasionale vervolgingsgesag met wortel en tak uitroeï en 'n totale nuwe gesagsowerheid op die been bring nie.

Dit en alleen dit, sal vertroue in die Suid-Afrikaanse regbank herstel!

National Prosecuting
Authority the root of all evil

The appointment of Raymond Zondo as Chief Justice has sparked the hope among many South Africans that this country will finally be able to rid itself of its culture of lawlessness and impunity. The South African punch-drunk community who is hoping for a better future, cannot be blamed for this point of view. It is however, not that simple. The fact remains, South Africa's troubles with lawlessness and impunity could at no stage be blamed on the judiciary, but on the National Prosecuting Authority. Even with excellent lawmen such as Arthur Chaskalson, Pius Langa, Sandile NgCobo, Mogoeng Mogoeng and now also Raymond Zondo, the country couldn't escape its wave of crime, corruption and greed as experienced over the past 15 to 20 years. Of the esteemed people at the helm of the National Prosecuting Authority, the same cannot be said however.

Under the guidance of people such as Shaun Abrahams, Ngcobo Jiba, Lawrence Mrwebi and countless others, many people at the NPA have worked tirelessly to see to it that people with political and financial influence were not brought to book.

To illustrate, one can start with candidate number one - Schabir Shaik, who spent most of the time of his brief stint in prison before he was released on medical parole, on the golf course, regardless of his frail condition. After this the pattern has repeated itself ad infinitum, while on the bench excellent members of the judiciary have waited in vain like many South African to see the law take its course. After a struggle of more than 20 years, ordinary South Africans perhaps cannot be blamed should they maintain that the judiciary is to blame. This simply is not true!

After Schaik South Africans have witnessed people such as Ellen Tsabalala, Hlaudi Motsoeneng, Mosebenzi Zwane, Supra Mahumapelo, Ace Magashule, Nomvula Mokonyane, Dudu Myeni, Brian Molefe, Ben Ngubane, Tom Moyane, Siyabonga Gama, Malusi Gigaba and countless others escaping justice while helping themselves to public money. No need to mention public enemy number one - Jacob Zuma, is there? Even after all the excitement of appointing Adv Shamila Batohi as Chief Director of the National Prosecuting Authority the country was no closure to justice than before. For this reason President Cyril Ramaphosa's promises of reform cannot be taken seriously until he takes to task the uprooting of the NPA for once and for all. Only after this can the President come back to South Africans with talks of reform!

Water overcharged due to readings not taken regularly

The editor
The Rustenburg Local Municipality neglects to take water meter readings every month and do an estimation which is incorrect (low or high) and is entered onto our municipal account. Then after 3 or 4 months the readings are taken which are at times 3 to 4 times higher than your normal consumption.

Due to this we are charged for water in a higher bracket, rather than in a bracket which reflects our normal usage per month. Now we must go to the municipalities office to sort this out with a photo of the meter reading. The 3 monthly reading might be correct but it is the accumulation of the 3 to 4 months which pushes you in the higher bracket up to +- R7.00/ Kl. So again we are paying for incompetency of the municipality not doing their work. And we have to stand in queues and might be lucky if the system is not off line. As consumers we request the Rustenburg Local Municipality to do the right thing and take readings on a regular basis, and refrain from making their own estimates.

Onredelike beskuldigings

Die redakteur,
"Hoekom kry tuindienste altyd die skuld vir alles. As daar ingebreek is eerste ding wat die mense sê is 'dis die tuindienste'. As iets weg is - tuindienste. Hoekom word daar nie vingerafdrukke geneem nie.

Hoe kan 'n kragopwekker op my vol vuilgoed-bakkie gelaai word sonder dat ek dit sien.. Kom kyk by my huis. Ek sit in Pretoria en kry 'n oproep dat die polisie op pad is na my huis toe, want ek het sopas ingebreek.

Ek het gevra dat hulle met die restaurant-eienaar praat om te bevestig dat ek in 'n restaurant in Pretoria is en onmoontlik kon inbreek in Rustenburg, maar hulle het geweier om met hom te praat en net aangehou om my die skuld te gee. Hoekom is dit nodig om die skuld vir alles altyd op die tuindienste te pak?".

"Tuindienste".
