

Traffic cops without 'wheels'

Councillor Luan Snyders, Provincial Chairperson of the DA in North West and Rustenburg Cllr speaking on social media and alleging that approximately 20 Traffic vehicles of the Rustenburg Traffic Department - all Volkswagen Golf GTIs - have been out of order for who knows how long - hence the shortage of effective traffic policing in Rustenburg and environment. According to Cllr Snyders, the Rustenburg Municipality currently has only a few - perhaps only one - vehicles in good running condition at its disposal to patrol the Rustenburg Municipal area. These vehicles are allegedly all damaged or awaiting spares and/or repair. According to Cllr Snyders he was planning on engaging Rustenburg's Municipal Manager on the issue. In the meantime Rustenburg Herald is awaiting the response of the RLM.

Sagte reëntjie verkwik, maar reënimeters moet nog ‘n slag vol

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Vir Suid-Afrikaners was die viering van Menseregte Maandag en die langnaweek ‘n heuglike verposing.

Vir tuisblyers in Rustenburg was daar boonop ‘n aangename sagte buitjie reën wat vir die grootste gedeelte van die dag neergesif het en ‘n bietjie ekstra verkwikking gebring het. Nogtans was die reënsyfers oor die afgelope paar dae minimaal.

Met ‘n syfer van 235 mm tot dusver vandeemaand (Maart 2022) sien Rustenburgers uit na nog ‘n paar goeie neerslae om min of meer op datum te kom met Rustenburg se Maartgemiddeld van 381 mm - ‘n hele 146 mm minder as wat Rustenburg gemiddeld sedert 2003 gekry het. Rustenburg Herald bedank mnr Charlie Graham van Geelhout Gardens Rustenburg vir sy gereelde en betroubare reënval- en weerstatistiek.

Afrikaans.com: Ontwikkel jou kind se mondelinge vaardighede

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - “Vandeeweek deel ons graag ‘n verkorte weergawe van die volgende artikel op Afrikaans.com: Ouers: Ontwikkel jou kind se mondelinge vaardighede so (deur Wilna van Rooyen, vroeëkindertontwikkelingspesialis verbonde aan die Afrikaanse Onderwysnetwerk - AON).

Die volledige artikel kan hier gelees word: <https://afrikaans.com/2022/02/01/ontwikkel-jou-kind-se-mondelinge-vaardighede-so/>.

Kinders se kommunikasievaardighede ontwikkel slegs wanneer hulle gemotiveerd is om iemand anders te laat verstaan wat hulle beleef, dink, voel of nodig het. Dit is ‘n feit dat kommunikasievaardighede makliker tuis as in ‘n skoolopset ontwikkel. Kinders is vanselfsprekend meer gemaklik wanneer hulle tuis kan oefen om hulself in woorde uit te druk. Ouers het meer geleenthede as onderwyseresse om een-tot-een-gesprekke met kinders te voer en kinders vind dit makliker om tuis aktief aan gesprekke deel te neem omdat daar tuis direk met hulle gepraat word en hulle nie nodig het om hul beurt af te wag om iets te sê of vra nie.

Ouers kan die ontwikkeling van kinders se mondelinge vaardighede daagliks met behulp van twee p's ondersteun: Die eerste stap is om plek in jou dag te maak vir geselsies met jou kinders. Dit help ook om ‘n plan met teikenwoorde teen die muur op te plak.

Wenk 1: Die maklikste manier om plek vir geselsies te maak is om kinders tuis by alledaagse aktiwiteite te betrek.

Gesprekke wat in en om die huis gevoer word terwyl jy en jou kind saam dagtakies verrig, is goud werd om hul mondelinge vaardighede te help ontwikkel.

Dit help as ouers hul kinders vra om hulle met allerhande takies in die huis te help – selfs wanneer dit nie regtig nodig is nie – omdat kinders ingesluit voel wanneer hulle betrek word en makliker gesels oor tasbare ervarings waarmee hul hande en verstand op die oomblik besig is.

Kinders leer nuwe woorde vinniger in ‘n omgewing wat vir hulle prakties en bekend is.

Nog ‘n rede hoekom kinders se taalvaardighede so goed ontwikkel wanneer ‘n mens met hulle gesels oor take of speletjies waarmee hulle besig is, is omdat hulle gewoonlik met werkies help en speel in ‘n omgewing wat hulle goed ken.

Kinders leer die taal wat hulle die meeste hoor die heel beste aan.

Kinders sal vanselfsprekend leer om te praat met ‘n aksent wat ooreenstem met die aksent wat hulle meestal hoor.

Netso kan ‘n mens verwag dat die kwaliteit van die woordeskat en sinskonstruksies wat ‘n kind hoor sal bepaal wat die kwaliteit sal wees van die woordeskat en sinskonstruksies wat daardie kind later self sal gebruik.

Dit is hoekom dit belangrik is vir ouers om as goeie taalmodelle op te tree.

Wenk 2: Plak ‘n plan met teikenwoorde teen die muur op.

Ouers kan self ‘n lys teikenwoorde saamstel wat hulle dikwels in alledaagse gesprekke met hul kinders kan herhaal om die kinders mettertyd so goed aan die woorde bekend te stel dat hulle dit self sal begin gebruik.

Die lys kan weekliks bygewerk en aangepas word.

Dit is belangrik om nie net selfstandige naamwoorde nie, maar ook werkwoorde, beskrywende woorde en allerlei uitdrukkings by so ‘n lys in te sluit.

McCain recalls some of its products

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The National Consumer Commission (NCC) has urged consumers in possession of certain McCain sliced beans and Spar stir fry products to return them to the point of purchase.

In a statement released last week, Acting Commissioner Thezi Mabuza said the supplier informed the Commission of its precautionary recall after small fragments of glass were found in the products.

According to the statement the products were packaged from July 2021, with best before dates between 2022 and 2023.

"We urge consumers who might have these products not to consume them and return them to the retailer for a full refund or an exchange. The safety and protection of South African consumers is the mainstay of the Consumer Protection Act (CPA)," Mabuza said.

ANC takes a stand against corruption

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The African National Congress (ANC) has drawn a line in the sand in the fight against corruption as it understands that the scourge erodes trust in government and undermines the social contract it had entered with the people, Aaron Motswana, ANC Member of the North West Provincial legislature (MPL) highlighted on Thursday (17 March).

"The ANC -led government has anchored preventative measures such as civic education and centralized major procurement processes, including the increasing the capacity of anti-corruption agencies and institutions such as the Auditor General and Public Protector," emphasised Motswana during the debate of the motion with notice.

Motswana pointed out that the appointment of the head of prosecutions in the province as well as the increased investigative capacity in both the Special Investigation Unit (SIU) and the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation (the Hawks) are latest measures to bolster the fight against corruption.

He said that the ANC has enhanced protection of whistleblowers as well as legislated individual liability and continue to shine light on corruption activities within the private sector through appropriate reporting mechanisms.

"We wish to see these efforts translating into tangible action against the corrupt and the corrupters who are responsible for looting of public resources as well as long jail terms and asset forfeiture mechanism implemented for recovery of looted public funds" he stressed.

Agreeing with Motswana, Job Dliiso (ANC MPL) acknowledged that corruption has a disproportionate impact on the poor and the vulnerable, increases costs and reduces access to services, including health, education, quality water supply, building houses including delivery and maintenance of the quality road infrastructure without potholes in townships, villages and cities.

New lockdown regulations on the cards

RUSTENBURG HERALD – RUSTENBURG – The country’s State of Disaster will probably be lifted within the next month.

However, don’t rip off that mask or shelve the sanitiser just yet - you’ll still be legally bound to follow a set of pandemic-controlling protocols, which remain enforceable with punitive measures in place.

Here are the proposed lockdown regulations to replace the state of disaster: Health minister Dr Joe Phaahla has published an amendment to South Africa’s Regulations Relating to the Surveillance and Control of Notifiable Medical Conditions.

To unwind the national state of disaster, President Cyril Ramaphosa has stated it is necessary to introduce regulations to ensure necessary protocols remain in place.

Among the amended regulations published last week were:

- Mandatory medical examinations, isolation and treatments for people with notifiable medical conditions, with an option to self-isolate for those with Internet access.
- Mandatory face masks for indoor gatherings and public transport.
- One-metre physical distancing.
- Employers to encourage work-from-home where necessary and restrict face-to-face meetings.
- Travellers entering and leaving South Africa must have a vaccine certificate, or a negative PCR test no older than 72 hours.

More economic opportunities for women being called for

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The African National Congress (ANC) in the North West Provincial Legislature has called for added efforts to ensure economic opportunities for women as part of a programme to address gendered poverty.

Speaking during the Human Rights month debates in the North West Provincial Legislature on Thursday (17 March), Mmoloki Cwaile, ANC Member of the Provincial Legislature (MPL) said economic freedom and the provision of opportunities for women is key towards pushing back the frontiers of poverty and safeguarding human rights

"It is unfortunate that progress has been slow in opening up economic opportunities for women and addressing the scale of gendered poverty," conceded Cwaile.

"This is an area that requires far greater attention, especially as we as the ANC have committed ourselves to build a social compact to decisively address unemployment and poverty" he said.

Reaffirming the party's commitment to rebuild the country by driving programmes to mitigate both the economic and social impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic particularly on women, Cwaile reflected on the events of the Sharpeville Massacre and the strides of heroes of the liberation struggle.

"We have come far as a country from being a society that cares only for a few at the expense of the majority. Men and women who marched against the pass laws under the apartheid government were firm in their conviction that freedom for some is freedom for none and that no one must be left behind" he stressed.

"Our people crave liberation from poverty and they hunger for the dignity of free will. By reducing the barriers of their fundamental human rights, we will in turn create a framework in which our people will have an opportunity to fulfil their dreams of success" he highlighted.

The month of March has been set aside for Human Rights Commemorations under the theme "The Year of Unity and Renewal. Protecting and Preserving our Human Rights Gains".

- Hand sanitisers must be placed at all entrances of public places to promote hand hygiene.
 - Restrictions on funeral attendance – during Covid–19, funerals are limited to 100 people.
 - Restrictions on night vigils and after-funeral gatherings – banned during Covid–19.
 - Restrictions on attendance at other gatherings – 50% of venue capacity, if attendees have vaccine certificates. Without proof of vaccination, attendance is limited to 1,000 indoors and 2,000 outdoors.
- The regulations allow further restrictions to be implemented through other government departments.
- The Department of Health may give advice relating to curfews, a national lockdown, sports, economic activity, public transportation, religious and cultural practices, and the sale of alcohol.
- Once the regulations are approved, the Department of Health said it would be implemented without being tabled in parliament, since it is subordinate legislation already delegated to the minister.
- Public comments on the proposed amendments are open until 15 April 2022.

THEY SAY

They say I'm sorry for your loss
They say your heart will mend
They say you're in a better place, and death is not the end.

They say you're reunited with loved ones gone before.
They say that you'll be waiting when I walk through heavens door

I feel their love in every word of comfort they impart, and know that each is spoken from deep within the heart.

But all the words of comfort,
through kind, sincere, and true,
can't take away the emptiness
I'm feeling without you.

Die Diere-engele

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - 'We Care' is al vir sowat 30 jaar besig om 'n verskil te maak in die welstand van diere hier.

Christa en Ria Mynhardt bedryf die sentrum waar siek, beseerde en wees inheemse wilde voëls, klein soogdiere en sommige reptiele gerehabiliteer word.

"Ons leuse is 'Rescue, Rehabilitate and Release'. Al die diere wat ons onder ons vlerke neem, word sodra hul genoeg herstel het, weer in die natuur vrygelaat. Geen diertjie word aangehou nie," verduidelik die twee vroue.

Tans kom die fondse vir die rehabilitasie uit Ria se pensioen en goedgunstige donasies. Christa is voltyds besig met die rehabilitasie en verdien geen ander inkomste nie.

"Hierdie is belangrike, gespesialiseerde werk. Maar ons het dringend fondse nodig," sê hulle.

Die fondse sal aangewend vir die nodige dierekosse, veeartskostes, medikasie, brandstof, water, elektrisiteit (vir elektriese matrassies en ander verwarming), skoonmaakparaat en ontsmettingsmiddels en steriliseerders insluit.

"Verder sal dit ook gebruik word vir mandjies, hokke, beddegoed, voergereedskap soos tweekers, spuite, voerbuisse en kropnaalde om net 'n paar te noem," sê Christa.

Die sentrum het ook dringend 'n nuwe wasmasjien en voedselverwerker nodig, asook 'n stoorfasiliteit vir skoon hokke, bakke en handdoeke.

"Ons spesiale dank aan 'n spesifieke dierekliniek in Proteapark vir hul onbaatsugtige hulp en diens," sê Ria en Christa.

Christa wil graag einde April 'n internasionale Wildlife Rehabilitasie-kursus in Gauteng bywoon om haar vaardighede en kennis verder uit te brei. Die kursus kos ongeveer R2000. As daar dalk mense is wat kan bydra, sal Christa en Ria baie dankbaar wees.

Lion on the loose at Ledig/Mahobieskraal

RUSTENBURG HERALD - PILANESBERG - Residents of Mahobieskraal and Ledig off the R556 on the Sun City road have been requested to exercise extreme care and to be on the look-out for an escaped lion in the area.

According to reports the lion has been on the loose since Saturday and a mauled goat was the only sign of the big cat to date. Authorities were also unsure from exactly where the lion had escaped since no tracks of the animal leading from the neighbouring Pilanesberg National Park could be found. Residents of the area have been warned to be very careful on Monday this week while efforts to recapture the lion were continuing. Residents are to be extremely careful and to keep young children from walking about their villages freely.

People noticing a lion totally out of place were requested to contact their nearest police station as a matter of the greatest urgency. Hunters, trackers and game wardens were out in the veld to look for the lion on Tuesday morning. Cattle farmers in the area were especially concerned for the safety of their livestock.

CITES TAG ALLOCATION CRITERIA FOR HUNTING OF WILD LEOPARD IN THE NORTH WEST PROVINCE FOR YEAR 2022

1. The allocation process for tags for hunting of wild leopards Panthera pardus, under the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Fauna and Flora (CITES) in the North West Province will be initiated. We have been awarded two CITES tags for leopards for 2 of the 3 Leopard Hunting Zones (LHZs) as determined by the Scientific Authority. Other than adhering to the National Norms and Standards for leopard hunting, we seek to have our own criteria so we too can contribute to the species sustainability and ensure fair utilization process the species.

2. Applications for these tags will be done through the nationally provided leopard hunting platform app.zahunt.org. Any landowner that qualifies can submit their application online and the province will before the draw scrutinize the applications and verify the properties.

3. The following criteria will be used as selection criteria:

3.1. Only applications from natural rangelands in Communal lands (Traditional authority areas), livestock ranches and game farms within the North West Province whose land falls within the identified natural distribution of free roaming leopards would be considered into a draw.

3.2. Other than being in the species' distribution, natural habitat suitability has to be demonstrated.

3.3. An individual draw is conducted for an individual tag available in a specific area in accordance with recommendations as stated in the quota distribution report, which will be one tag per LHZ, and only applications from such specific identified distribution areas would be considered in such draw.

3.3.1. Care should be taken to ensure equitable opportunity to all, the computerized draw system is developed for a random selection on a rotational base,

3.3.2. Applicants will only be considered from the Bushveld ecoregion or Central Bushveld bioregion, provided it is within the Municipal Districts of the Ngaka Modiri Molema and Bojanala Platinum Districts.

3.3.3. Applications would be considered for a property or properties, if collectively so, exceed a minimum size of 3000 ha,

3.3.4. Applicants are encouraged to partner with communal lands (Traditional authority areas) to extend property size as this will be an added advantage and

3.3.5. Applicants are invited from all areas except designated protected areas, such as the Magaliesberg Protected Environment (Cor area of the Magaliesberg Biosphere Reserve) and the Marico Protected Environment (Core area of the Marico Biosphere Reserve).

4. The department will reject applications if:

4.1. It is of the opinion that the hunting of leopard/s in specific areas could or will have a negative impact on the leopard population occurring in those specific geographical areas even though the property meets the above criteria.

4.2. Applications are from areas that fall outside the natural distribution, and the habitat is not suitable.

4.3. No or limited credible scientific data exist on the particular area.

4.4. Property is in the Kalahari or Highveld eco region.

4.5. Property within the Magaliesberg and Marico Protected Environment.

5. Applications received after the annual closing date of 08th April 2022 would not be considered.

6. Once allocated, tags are not transferable from one property to another, but are huntable on the properties applied for and hunting must take place within the particular calendar year of issue (May to December 2022).

7. The landowner that has been successful may only use a registered hunting outfitter for the hunt. The hunting outfitter may only allow a registered dangerous game professional hunter that has a valid permit token to hunt a leopard with a client.

Employers must know your Covid vax status

RUSTENBURG HERALD – RUSTENBURG – No exceptions: all South African employers must take measures to determine the vaccination status of their workers.

This is according to the latest instructions by the department of Employment and Labour for managing Covid-19 in the workplace.

According to President Cyril Ramaphosa, the country is planning to exit its coronavirus-induced State of Disaster. This will bring an end to two years of regulations governed by the Disaster Management Act. But this now means that restrictions associated with different levels of lockdown to manage the Covid-19 pandemic will be incorporated into existing legislation.

It also means that rules around managing Covid-19 in the workplace are also changing.

Workplace rules have remained unchanged since June 2021. That's when last the department of employment and labour updated its Consolidated Direction on Occupational Health and Safety measures in certain workplaces.

Within the context of South Africa's Occupational Health and Safety Act (OHSA), these directions set the rules for mask-wearing, social distancing, and symptom screening at workplaces.

The directions required employers to develop risk assessments plans to determine the risk of exposure and the control measures to limit infection. Part of these risk assessments included a provision for developing a mandatory vaccination policy, bearing in mind employees' Constitutional rights to bodily integrity and right to freedom of religion, belief, and opinion.

Since then, several major South African companies have implemented mandatory vaccination policies. Being fired for refusing to be vaccinated against Covid-19 has been upheld by the Commission for Conciliation, Mediation and Arbitration (CCMA).

The rules around vaccinations and other Covid-19 containment measures in the workplace across South Africa were updated last week, when the Minister of Employment and Labour, Thulas Nxesi, gazetted the "Code of Good Practice: Managing Exposure to SARS-CoV-2 in the Workplace."

"In due course, the Minister will issue OHS regulations to supplement the Code," the department said on 15 March.

"The code's purpose is to assist employers and employees in managing SARS-CoV-2 exposure in the workplace by guiding employers and employees in conducting or updating a risk assessment in accordance with the OHSA and Hazardous Biological Agents, 2022 in respect of SARS-CoV-2 exposure, developing a plan to limit infection, transmission, and mitigate the risks of serious illness."

The Code of Good Practice relies greatly on previous directions issued in 2021 but has a few new additions, particularly when it comes to Covid-19 vaccines.

The Code now requires that "every employer must take measures to determine the vaccination status of their workers". Additionally, employers are empowered to require their employees "to produce a vaccination certificate".

Whereas the previous directions mentioned Constitutional grounds as a right to refuse vaccination, the new Code makes no mention of bodily integrity or right to freedom of religion, belief, and opinion.

"As such, it appears that the Code of Good Practice would be less generous to employees if they appeal to a non-medical (religious or belief based) objection to vaccination," noted a law expert in response to the new rules.

Disclosure of an employees' vaccination status – a "critical issue" addressed by the new Code, will however have to be done in accordance with the relevant Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA) requirements.

THE BEST IN FRESH GUARANTEED!

After years of uncertainty as to the future of the Paul Bodenstein Park, the Rustenburg Municipality has invited the public, all interested parties and especially the business sector to have a say in the future of this beloved park. The rainy season proved to be a bad time for interruptions in maintenance issues with tall grass and overgrowth to almost gigantic proportions before the Parks division of the Rustenburg Municipality could intervene recently. The Municipality now awaits proposals and suggestions from the Rustenburg community on how the Bodenstein Park could be utilized to maximum benefit of the entire community. Send your proposal by email to RLM's Manager of Parks at ljele@rustenburg.gov.za

Will the Rustenburg Rapid Transport operate in our lifetime?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG – The Rustenburg Herald has been inundated with complaints from the general public about the construction and launch of the new Rustenburg Rapid Transport system which, according to numerous articles that have been published, was supposed to be operational long ago.

On 30 October 2018, the Rustenburg Local Municipality released an update to the public that at the end of 2017/18 financial year, the municipality had already spent about R2.7 billion upgrading old infrastructure and constructing new public transport infrastructure in Rustenburg. The infrastructure included 20km of bi-directional BRT lanes, walk ways and 17 sub-stations.

In the statement RLM said over the next three years the municipality would launch a cashless bus service which would run on 20 km-long BRT trunk corridors, 18 stations and over 400 km of routes which will be introduced in phases and would aim to over 80% of the municipality.

Fast tracking to 2020, on 4 September 2020, the Rustenburg Local Municipality once again through a press release celebrated a “huge” milestone when two stations were handed over from the contractor, and Busmark signed a lease agreement on the ten buses that will start Phase 1A of the project. Attending the event was the then Executive Mayor of the Rustenburg Local Municipality, Cllr Mpho Khunou, MMC's of respective Directorates, Councillors, Media, Directors, Bus Operating Company, the Taxi Negotiating Forum, Rustenburg Transit (Pty) Ltd, Busmark and other stakeholders.

What seems to be the construction of a bus Depo, opposite the Rustenburg Show Grounds.

Up to this day, the much awaited Rustenburg Rapid Transport is still not operational in Rustenburg.

At the end of 2017/18 financial year, the municipality had already spent about R2.7 billion upgrading old infrastructure and constructing new public transport infrastructure in Rustenburg.

LOCAL KFC FRANCHISE OWNER WINS TWO AWARDS

THE Pretoria based franchisee, Gunret Foods, is celebrating two award wins at the recent KFC Africa Franchise Summit – an event that celebrates franchise partners and their outstanding performances.

It was a tough year, but resilience and perseverance paid off for owner Alex Gunning as the franchise group took home two of the top awards for Operator of the Year 2021 and Digital Leader for 2021.

“I am very proud of the Gunret team and how we have operated at such high standards through very difficult trading conditions” he says, “We have remained focused and relevant in tough times, adapting to the changing environment in which we operate”.

Gunret Foods is a KFC franchise that owns and operates 42 KFC outlets, the majority of which are in Gauteng, with others in Rustenburg (8) and Cape Town (8).

The first outlet was acquired in 1985 and has since grown from strength to strength.

The founder Burt Gunning who passed away last year, built the multi-franchise business from one store 37 years ago.

Chief Operations Officer Paul Roos says that “Being the best is a team effort, we win together, and we celebrate achievements as a team.

This only happens when every person in the organisation works towards excellence.

The group is on an expansion drive with a number of new stores planned and has recently opened KFC Rivonia Boulevard on 1st March 2022 with another new store planned for 24th March 2022 in Waverley Plaza in Pretoria.

There are plans to expand further with stores to open soon in Hebron Mall, Brooklyn, Willow Park, Saxby Corner, Mankwe (Mogwase) Gunret Foods has won top franchisee in South Africa multiple times.

Gunret Foods always strives for the highest standards which results in a high level of customer service.

The franchise group was one of nine franchisees in the world nominated to represent Africa in 2018 as Operator of the Year at the KFC International Franchise Awards in Orlando, United States out of 23,000 restaurants and 28 countries in the world.

This was a great honour for the company and for KFC South Africa.

Some of the recent outstanding achievements have been

1. 2021 Operator of the Year Award
2. 2021 Digital Leader Award
3. 2020 Representing Africa at the International Franchise Convention
4. 2019 Franchise of the Year winner
5. 2019 People Grower of the Year winner
6. 2019 Culture Champion in Training

With a strong focus on people internally and externally – Gunret always delivers on its promise of customer service, operational excellence, compliance, training, people growth, development, and a commitment to be the best

The group currently employs over 1,300 staff members and has been able to continue trading well through turbulent economic times over the years.

The franchise feels that it has a responsibility to give back to the community – the group currently has five charities it supports directly through the KFC Add Hope programme as well as school support with sponsorships.

Gunret Foods is also involved in the KFC Mini Cricket programme at a community level to get kids active and introduce them to the game of cricket.

World Obesity Day observed

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - World Obesity Day observations afforded Job Shimanakana Tabane Hospital a platform to raise awareness about obesity and its detrimental effects on health. Obesity is defined by a Body Mass Index (BMI) of 30 kg/m or higher.

A person who is overweight has a BMI between 25 and 29.9 kg/m. World Obesity Day was commemorated on Friday (4 March), under the theme: “Everyone needs to act”.

According to Chief Dietitian, Vukosi Msimeki, Obesity is a disorder that involves excessive body fat and contributes greatly to a lot of comorbidities, cardiovascular diseases, dyslipidemia and some cancers. These diseases are classified as non-communicable diseases or chronic diseases of lifestyle and forms part of the quadruple burden of diseases. Obesity is also a risk factor in complications that relate to COVID-19.

Msimeki said obesity can be prevented by consuming ample amounts of fruits and vegetables (5-a-day rule), wholegrain and high fiber starches, eating the right portion sizes and reducing intake of unhealthy fats found in fried foods and processed foods. Engaging in fitness activities is as important as eating right. As complex as obesity is, it is caused by various factors such as mental health, genetics and the environment.

“Access to equal, quality healthcare in our communities is one of the biggest steps that can be taken to combat the prevalence of obesity”, concluded Msimeki.

For more information as to how diet can help combat obesity kindly contact: 014 590 5502.

Oom Paul deur die blare?

Praat van iemand wat in sy graf omdraai as hy dit nie lankal al gedoen het nie... Hierdie foto van Paul Kruger, eertydse president van die ZAR (hoofingang - ou Rustenburgse stadsaal) het mense reeds geruime tyd al aan die praat. Kostelike kommentaar lui dat oom Paul hier duidelik effens deur die blare of erger nog - dalk hoog in die takke is en dit is vir die kyker om te besluit watter een van die twee uitdrukkings van toepassing is. Maar wie weet, dalk sou oom Paul ook oor die goeie reën van die afgelope tyd verheug gewees het en nie omgee om vir 'n wyle in die skadu's van 'n boom teen die Rustenburgse son skuiling te soek nie. Sommige Rustenburgers is egter omgekrap en meen die verskynsel dui op 'n ooglopende gebrek aan onderhoud.

Dealing with obesity needs determination: Rustenburg Sub-District Health Dieticians

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - “Making a few exercises for three days and starting to look how you have shed the weight should be for amateurs as the ‘weight-shedding’ process takes time with continuity and ‘a never give-up’ attitude”, said Christinah Phago, a Senior Dietician for Rustenburg Sub District Department Health. Phago said this during the Dieticians’ “Obesity Awareness” campaign held at Boitekong Community Health Center.

This was their third campaign held during this year after the ones at Tlhabane and Phokeng in the past two weeks.

“The aim of these campaigns is to help people to deal with obesity and also to de-stigmatise the minds in various social systems against mistreating people living with obesity. People with obesity are hurled with criticisms mostly at sporting, health, and transportation and social arenas.

“Some criticisms may be subtle – at the end it affects psychology. We have to learn to love and accept people as they are as Obesity is an un-chosen challenge which affects anyone. It can be relatives, friends or acquaintances – yet it can be dealt with positively and be overcome,” said Phago.

Phago together with her team of Dieticians Patience Mogwere, Vicky Seloane and Community Service

Dieticians Lana Berg, Koena Madibana and Reata Botha have been engaging Rustenburg communities through series of physical activities and health talks at Clinics. As form of exercise, people are urged to engage in physical activities including walking for over 15-minutes per day.

“Exercising, drinking water regularly up to 8-glasses per day; and eating foods on smaller quantities on intervals, is good for the body and attaining gradual weight loss”, said Tlhabane Health Center based Dietician Patience Mogwere.

Experts recommend continual physical exercising for the good of heart, sleeping patterns, stress handling, sex life, weight loss, anti-ageing, brain health, high esteem, oxygen and nutrients supply to all cells in the body, amongst others.

Be Water Wise

World Water Day is an annual United Nations Observance on 22 March. It raises awareness of the 2 billion people living without access to safe water and how we can help to make sure the world achieves the goal of equal access to water and sanitation by 2030.

Why is conserving water important?

Water is a limited resource that we depend on. But we don't just use water for drinking. We wash in it, clean with it, and use it to produce everything from clothing to food. What each of us does in the world – how we live – makes a difference. As we learn the value of clean, safe water and how scarce it truly is, we can take steps to protect it.

What can you do to help?

Stop leaky taps

Always turn taps off tightly so they don't drip. You can save 60 litres of water going straight down the drain every week just by fixing leaking taps immediately.

Shower with less

Every minute you spend in a shower uses up to 17 litres of water. Set a timer on your phone to keep your showers short, sweet and water-saving.

Brush your teeth and shave with less

Turn the water off while you're brushing and save 6 litres of water a minute. When washing or shaving, partially fill the sink and use that water rather than running the tap continuously.

Save when washing clothes

Hand washing: Use less washing powder – a little goes a long way and means you'll use less water for rinsing. Use a plug when you wash as well as rinse. Save all the rinsing for last and use the same water.

Machine washing: Waiting until you have a full load means you'll use less water and energy than doing two half-loads. This means lower bills too!

Catch rainwater

Installing a water tank or using buckets to collect rainwater means you can water your garden when it's not raining.

Wash dishes with less

When hand-washing dishes, never run water continuously. If you're using a dishwasher, always wait until you have a full load, and use the eco cycle.

Impala remains committed to investing into water projects that influence the preservation of water and ensure available resources for generations to come.

Working together to conserve water.

Adverteerders op hierdie bladsy is kleiner ondernemings, soos eenmansake en tuisondernemings wat nie met die groot name in die bedryf kan meeding wanneer dit by die koop van advertensieruimte kom nie, en wie verstaan dit beter as die Rustenburg Herald?

Daarom skop ons af met twee bladsye met spotgoedkoop advertensies vir eenmansake en tuisondernemings tot die einde van die jaar.

Ondersteun dié besighede, want wanneer ons klein besighede een vir een sluit as gevolg van ondergang in die bedryf, is die rimpel-effek soveel groter en die plaaslike koopkrag word algaande net minder.

Wanneer jy 'n plaaslike besigheid ondersteun, help jy 'n kind om swemlesse by 'n plaaslike swemafrigter te kry of om sporttoerusting plaaslik te koop om hulle sport te beoefen, 'n broodwinner om 'n huislening, 'n motorpaaier om 'n kind se skoolgelde of 'n studielening te kan betaal en gesinne van voedsel te voorsien.

Kleiner besighede is meer toeganklik en gebruikersvriendelik en in plaas van met 'n antwoordmasjien praat wanneer jy skakel en knoppies te druk wat jou van Pontius na Pilatus stuur, praat jy met 'n persoon wat luister en jou navraag direk beantwoord. Want to win a breakaway to Sun City?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Easter is almost upon us and as a traditional time for families to reconnect after a busy start to the year, why not enjoy a break-away at Sun International's Sun City Resort in Rustenburg.

The 'surf and safari' resort, set in a lush green paradise surrounded by a craggy mountain backdrop, borders the Pilanesberg National Park and is just the place to gather the kids, parents and grandparents for a fun-filled holiday.

Easter activities for the kids include a photo opportunity with the Easter bunny and his helper, from Friday April 15 to Monday April 18, 1pm – 9pm at Sun Central. On Saturday April 16, there will be three Easter egg hunts on the Cabanas lawns.

The resort offers a wide variety of accommodation offerings; from the three-star Cabanas Hotel, the four-star Sun City hotel and casino, the five-star Cascades and The Palace of the Lost City to the self-catering Sun Vacation Club, there is something to suit all tastes and requirements. There is plenty to see and do for all ages, from walks through the magnificent gardens, which have been afforded botanical garden status, to getting 'lost' in The Maze of the Lost City, one of the largest permanent mazes in the southern hemisphere and an ice-cold craft beer or craft gin awaits you at the other end.

Adventurous families can take a Segway Tour around the resort or brave the 2km long zip slide, which stands 280m above the ground and hits speeds up to 120km per hour. Mankwe Game trackers offer a range of outdoor activities including quad biking and game drives. The resort is also home to two of South Africa's top rated 18-hole golf courses. Parents who want to enjoy adult activities can drop their children off to have fun under supervision at Kamp Kwen, which offers indoor and outdoor activities.

Water enthusiasts can take advantage of the year-round sun and enjoy the two-metre-high swells at Valley of Waves where a mechanically generated wave pool and a range of exciting water slides offer endless fun and excitement. At the man-made Waterworld lake, enjoy parasailing, jet-skiing, wake boarding, water-skiing and more, or for the more sedentary, a sundowner cruise.

A visit to the neighbouring Pilanesberg National Park is a must. The malaria-free park offers a super seven sighting experience. In addition to the big five of lion, leopard, elephant, rhino and buffalo, you can also keep an eye out for cheetah and wild dogs in their natural habitat. Book an experienced guide for a safari or take a self-drive. For the ultimate experience, try the hot-air balloon flight at dawn for breath-taking views of the park.

The resort has more than 30 eateries to choose from – wherever your day's journey takes you. Look out for the legendary Hard Rock Café and Legends at the Sun City hotel, Maltos at the Cascades hotel with its beautiful vistas over the pool, The Brew Monkey at the Valley of Waves, as well as a selection of your favourite take-away and sit-down restaurants at Sun Central.

Sun City was recently named Africa's Leading Family Resort in the 2021 World Travel Awards, proving that South Africans have the best of the best right on their local doorstep. The resort is filling up fast, so secure your booking today, via the website and the online booking engine. Facebook: @SunCitySA; Instagram: suncityresortsa; Twitter: @SunCityResortSA

Rustenburg Herald

scammed – advertise with the name
you can trust

NOT ALL
ADVERTS ARE EQUAL.

Some promise you the moon, but then your paid for message ends up in a dirty bundle next to a shop's door – unwanted.

You can advertise on Social Media, yes – and take the huge risk of getting scammed by someone with a fake profile.

We at the Rustenburg Herald understands that effective advertising can be expensive and complicated. But not if you use our Online options. If you want your business to succeed, you need to advertise. If you want to sell unwanted items, you need to advertise. And one of your best tools is Rustenburg Herald's Classified Adverts. You can go the traditional way and come to our offices at 13 Coetzer Street to book your adverts. Or, you can take the online route and log on to our website, book your advert and submit it - all in just a minute or two. Best of all, you can place one advert per week for absolutely free - provided it's less than 16 words. If it consists of 16 words or more, you'll only pay R1,50 per extra word - still an absolute bargain. WHY WAIT?

Go to our website <https://www.northwestnewspapers.co.za/herald/> and simply choose the 'Classified Advertisement' section to start.

Our advertisements is result driven; you can be too.

{StandpuntViewpoint}* Menseregtedag 'n grap

Die viering van Menseregtedag elke jaar op 21 Maart is na afloop van die afgelope langnaweek weer eens in die spervuur. Veral politieke partye het baie te sê met elkeen wat heeltmal te begrype sy eie standpunt en agenda rondom die doel en betekenis van Menseregtedag huldig. Om die uiteenlopende standpunte van politieke partye hier te bespreek of te ontleed, sal 'n futiele oefening wees - politiek is maar 'n barbaarse spel en 'n gebeurtenis soos Menseregtedag kan as die ideale politieke speelbal dien. Waar jy ook al histories of polities rondom die viering van Menseregtedag staan - dit kan slegs objektief benader word as ons politiek vir 'n oomblik uit die gesprek laat en as uiteenlopende gemeenskappe kollektief kyk of Suid-Afrikaners nog rede het om Menseregtedag te vier.

As Suid-Afrikaners oor alle grense heen kyk na wat in ons Nasionale Grondwet vervat is en waarmee ons 30 jaar later steeds opgesaai sit, is dit duidelik dat dié dag tot op hede geen doel gedien het nie behalwe om soos hierbo genoem, 'n politieke speelbal te word. President Cyril Ramaphosa het die afgelope naweek die hoofrede van Menseregtedag (nogal op Koster) in Noordwes gelei. Dit terwyl almal weet - as daar nou een plek in Suid-Afrika is wat as uitstekende voorbeeld sou dien van waar menseregte tot stof en as vertrap word, is dit Koster. Vandaar natuurlik die ANC se keuse om dit hier te “vier” en vir mense te sê “nee wat Suid-Afrika (Koster) vandag is nie so sleg nie - daar is dinge wat belangriker is, soos die gebeure van 62 jaar gelede”.

Soos verwag het hy die bal behoorlik rondgeskop en soos elke jaar tevore gesê die dag is ter ere aan diegene wat gedood is tydens die Sharpeville-opstande in 1960 - presies 62 jaar gelede. Mense se emosies is opgeswee, ou koeie is uit die sloot gegrawe en daar is herhaaldelik vir mekaar gesê “nooit weer nie”. Nou is die vraag: Presies wat het dit ons nou of ooit vroeër in die sak gebring behalwe om mense te verdeel en eenheid te kniehalter? Maar die president het nie 'n enkele woord gesê oor hoekom mense se regte soos in Koster (en feitlik oraloos Suid-Afrika) in 2022 steeds vertrap word nie. Sestig jaar gelede is 'n sekere groep mense se regte in Sharpeville vertrap. Dit is vir die ANC-regering genoeg rede om vandag voort te gaan om mense uit alle sektore van die bevolking se regte te vertrap. Dit is soos om vir Suid-Afrikaners 'n tweebeendag te hou. Almal (behalwe die president en sy partygenote) daag egter met net een been op. “Maar o ja, dit is omdat mense van 60 jaar gelede almal twee bene gehad het” lei ons af is die president se redenasie...

Human Rights Day a joke

The celebration of Human Rights Day on 21 March every year has become somewhat of a political minefield. The past weekend was no exception. Political parties across the spectrum usually have a lot to say about Human Rights Day and what the purpose and meaning of Human Rights Day is supposed to be. To address and debate the merits of South Africa's diversified political scene, would be futile. Politics is a barbaric game and any initiative such as this could just as well serve as a political football. Wherever you are on Human Rights Day and whether it warrants a national celebration or not can only be considered objectively if we leave politics out of the equation and consider whether Human Rights Day still serves any purpose. If all South Africans consider our National Constitution and what we have to put up with 30 years later, it will be very clear that HRD serves no purpose but to be kicked about like the proverbial football. President Cyril Ramaphosa has delivered the main address of Human Rights Day (ironically at Koster) in North West on Monday. This while everyone knows that if there is a community where the rights of its residents are violated every day, it must be Koster. Hence of course, the ANC's decision to celebrate the event here. As if to say “no it is not so bad in Koster - there are more important issues at hand, such as the events of 62 year ago!” But as usual the ball was kicked around mercilessly, people got worked up and tragic events of decades ago were dusted and presented once again. The day apparently served as a statement of “never again”. Yes, that's right - never again - while since day one under the current political dispensation the rights of people are still violated everywhere you look. We should ask: How exactly do South Africans of today benefit from any of this? But the President hasn't said a single word on why people's rights (as in Koster) are still being violated 62 years later by no other than our government. To rephrase - 60 years ago the rights of a certain community in Sharpeville (April 1960) were grossly violated by the Apartheid government. Today - 62 years later - the same is happening in Koster and across South Africa with people expected to pay exorbitantly for services only to be left without water, sanitation and proper services for days, weeks and months on end. It is like government decides to organise a two-legged day. Everyone except the President and his entourage however turns up with only just one leg. “Oh yes, but it is because the people that the event is attributed to, all had two legs...” we imagine the President saying... Perhaps these and other atrocities will be “celebrated” 60 years later?

Rather safe than sorry

Dear Editor Sharing this experience just to warn residents to be extra careful. Please take care when driving at night - especially when it's quiet and there are fewer cars on the road. Last week as I was driving in Arend Avenue at the Santa Monica 3-way stop, I noticed a police vehicle with its hazards on. I passed, and immediately I saw it starting to follow me. What was strange is that they had their lights off until I got to my house in Canary Avenue. I opened the gate using a remote control.

They then switched on their headlights, as well as the vehicle's blue lights. But no siren rang. I decided to continue driving, because I couldn't stop and put my two daughters' lives in danger over police - who could be fake - who are driving around with their lights off.

As soon as they saw me driving into my driveway, they drove off. I thought this is something we should all be aware of, and if possible, drive to a safe, public place like a filling station or another place of safety.

Municipal flats not prepared for fire

The Editor

Residents of the Municipal Flats for the elderly in Kremetart Avenue Rustenburg are concerned by a lack of well-planned inspections and maintenance to our fire extinguishers and the complex's electrical wiring. According to official records, the last time that the equipment was inspected, was on 8 October 2021, which I seriously doubt since I have seen no one at the premises during this time. Even to date no one from the municipality has arrived to inspect the fire equipment. We are concerned that should a fire start at the premises, residents on the ground floors would probably be able to vacate their premises in time, but I seriously doubt for the safety of residents on the top floors. Furthermore, I found it strange that units B, C, D, and E are equipped with two fire extinguishers on the ground floor and two on the top floor, while units A and F only have one unit on ground level and one on the top floor. This is an unacceptable situation as the lives of residents on top floors are indeed in danger. Most of these residents are elderly and some have difficulty with mobility which speaks for itself. As to the wiring issue, the following: I was attempting to change a light bulb in my unit recently which surprisingly caused a blue flame from the installation and caused the DB box to trip which is a cause for concern. I have been struggling since last year to have someone from the municipality coming over to check and repair the installation but to no avail. We wish to appeal to the Rustenburg Municipality to please consider our safety and to intervene as a matter of urgency...

Hope Proteas don't wilt in World Cup heat

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - An unbeaten 135 from Australia's premier batter Meg Lanning of only 130 balls, steered her side to a comfortable five-wicket win over South Africa at the Women's World Cup in New Zealand.

This was the Proteas' first loss in their fifth match at the tournament, and despite the setback they remain firmly on track for a semifinal berth. Australia won their sixth consecutive match and had already booked their place in the last four going into the contest. The Proteas batters put on an 88-opening stand, the highest in the World Cup against Australia, which included a welcome return to form for Lizelle Lee, who scored 36 from 44 balls. Down the order, Marizanne Kapp added a typically brisk 30 of 21 balls and vice-captain Chloe Tryon chipped in with 17 not out from nine balls, leaving Australia to chase a tough target. But the Australian women proved that they can put their money where their mouths are. South Africa had to go into the match without leading bowler Masabata Klass, who missed out with a shoulder injury. Her replacement, Tumi Sekhukhune, failed to settle as the Australian batters targeted her specifically. The unfortunate Sekhukhune went for 68 runs in just seven overs. South Africa now need one more win to guarantee their place in the last four. They have two group games against the West Indies (Thursday, 24 March) and India (Sunday, 27 March) to come to secure their objective of reaching the playoffs which starts on 30 March.
