Yarona: A bus-up?

It's very seldom a good day when Derek Watts and the Carte Blanche team shows up on your doorstep. The formidable investigative journalist visited Rustenburg recently to take a closer look at what precisely is going on with the much publicised Rustenburg Rapid Transport project known as Yarona. And what Derek and the team found, was not the rose-coloured picture the people involved in the project has been painting for years. The Carte Blanche team spoke to all the interested parties, and what transpired is that Yarona will never be self-sufficient - a best-case scenario projected by one of the people involved in the project is that the bus service will maybe be able to cover 40 percent of their running costs; the rest will have to be subsidized by government - or more plainly, by tax payers. In the photograph on the left is Derek with Cheryl Phillips, DA Member of Parliament. In the photo above Derek is taking a ride on one of the Yarona buses with Obed Muleele, Yarona Project Head. The main photo shows one of the vandalized bus stations. Yarona now wants another R1,5 billion to repair damaged infrastructure. Read this week's Viewpoint on page 17 for more on the Yarona saga. RUSTENBURG HERALD - MOEDWIL - Moedwil Geloftefees - 16 Desember 2022 by Bosveldoord: "Ons het onlangs Erfenisdag gevier, wat het ons voorvaders (Voortrekkers) vir ons nagelaat? Wat laat ek en jy vir ons kinders agter?"

16 Desember bly 'n hoogtepunt op die kalender van die Moedwil Geloftefees by Bosveldoord. Dit begin weer om 08:45 en tradisioneel kan dit 'n Familiefees genoem word. Dit is 'n bymekaarkom dag vir feesgangers oud-en-jonk oor die jare heen. Ds Ferdi Duvenier sal die Geloftediens lei. Die feesspreker sal by 'n later geleentheid bekend gemaak word. Die tema vir hierdie jaar is: 'Outyd-tot-Noutyd'. Ons behou die tradisie van 'n Gelofte dag soos op 16 Desember 1838 vasgelê. Dit bly 'n gesellige feesdag vir ons mense wat betrokke voel.

Hierdie jaar nooi ons u uit om deel te hê aan die geloftefeesviering. As dit moontlik is, kom in tradisionele drag - soos die Voortrekkers van ouds. Bring asseblief 'n bordjie eetgoed saam. Ons kuier altyd lekker om die verversingstafel. Ons verwelkom ook volksoue - artefakte vir 'n uitstalling: Oupa-en-oumagrootjie se ou wakis, statebybel, glorieryke herinneringe - bring enigiets met 'n sentimentele waarde vir die uitstalling, maar neem dit asseblief weer huis toe. Ons onthou ons voorouers - kom betaal jou gelofte".

"They are making my life hell"

"I am at the mercy of this unscrupulous person. And I'm not getting any help." Steven Makhene, who will be turning 80-years-old shortly, believes that a drug dealer is targeting him.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - MABISKRAAL - "I'm very sure that my life is in danger."

Steven Makhene (79) has been living in Mabeskraal for the best part of two years now. He moved there from Johannesburg to take care of his son and daughter-in-law's house while they are away studying.

But, believes Steven, some aspects of his previous life followed him to Mabeskraal.

"In Johannesburg I worked with an NGO that helped young people to get out of the claws of drugs. This brought me in conflict with a few drug dealers, many of them foreigners," Steven says.

Now Steven is convinced that a foreign drug dealer, living close to him, is out to get him.

"I am under constant surveillance. This person has hacked my cell phone, listening in to my calls, even blocking my calls when I try to call the police."

Steven says that this person is also targeting his house, projecting a high-pitched sound towards the residence. "When that happens, I cannot sleep."

He did open a case and the court has granted him a protection order. But, says Steven, the man is constantly in breach of this protection order. "When I want to call the police, he interferes with my phone signal." When he is able to make a call to the police at Sun City, Steven claims the phones are just ringing.

"This man is making my life hell. And the police are failing me."

Farmers and producers enjoying the company of good men and women and supporting the recently held first Farmers Market at the Rustenburg Show grounds.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG -
The First of what promises to be a series of monthly Farmers Markets held at the recently revamped Rustenburg Farmers Production Support Unit (FPSU) at the former Rustenburg Show Grounds was a major success.

The Farmers Market offered secure parking, approximately 20 stalls selling a variety of products such as fresh vegetables and berries, bottled marmalades, organic eggs, freshly baked goods, tasty fresh food and snacks, a coffee and beer garden, and much much more. Even the kids had a field day with a jumping castle to entertain themselves. For more serious "farmers" quite a number of small livestock including chickens, Dorper sheep and milk goats were available.

Please note that the next Farmers Market is scheduled for 26 November and not 29 October as announced previously. Keep watching Rustenburg Herald for more information and please do contact the organisers. The photographs on this page clearly show a wide variety of products on the shelves and everyone enjoyed the fruits of their labour. Please support the next Farmers Market at the former Show grounds at the end of November this year!

Culprit is Post Office, NOT PostNet

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Rustenburg Herald's free weekly newspaper, The Bonus, published a story earlier this week regarding the situation at the South African Post Office.

The story was published under the headline 'Post Office can't pay staff medical aid, but subsidises government grant payments'.

The story was also published on our website, as well as on social media.

It was published with the logo of the South African Post Office.

Now it seems that the story was shared on social media - but it was, in some instances shared with the logo of PostNet.

The article, that covers the dire financial state at the South African Post Office has absolutely no bearing on PostNet whatsoever. PostNet is a nationwide chain of individually owned business operators, while the Post Office is a government entity.

Waaat - 'n verkeersman?

Sjoe, het dinge in Suid-Afrika darem nie verander nie? Almal van ons wat darem nou al so 'n paar jaar agter die blad het sal baie goed kan onthou dat 'n verkeerspolisiesman vir dekades lank sekerlik die heel laaste ding was wat enige motoris op sy pad êrens heen sou wou sien. Deesdae met letterlik chaos en wanorde op ons paaie en padwoede feitlik 'n daaglikse gesig, is verkeerspersoneel 'n baie welkome (maar uiters skaars) gesig. Rustenburg Herald was vroeg vandeeweke uiters verras om na letterlik weke van mooipraat, uiteindelik weer die terugkeer van puntdiens by kritieke kruisings in die Rustenburgse spitsverkeer op te merk. Die persoon hierbo was tydens Maandagoggend se spitsverkeer op die Helen Joseph-brug en -aansluitings na en vanaf die Waterfall Mall, loshande die gewildste persoon in Rustenburg. Dit volg nadat die Rustenburgse Munisipaliteit in samewerking met sy "Rapid Transport" projek 'n aantal verkeerskontroleurs aangestel het om veral tydens beurtkrag en "dooie" verkeersligte met puntdiens by kritieke kruisings te help. Aan die persoon hierbo wil Rustenburg Herald namens die hele gemeenskap sê: "Baie welkom meneer!"

MySchool Rhino Day:

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - MySchool MyVillage MyPlanet (MySchool) have, to date, donated R25 million to help conservationists reinforce special tactical units to fight poaching through the MyPlanet Rhino Fund.

MySchool MyVillage MyPlanet, has boosted the fight against rhino poaching with a more than R25 million investment in conservation, through their MyPlanet Rhino Fund, that includes funding for high-tech security systems, the establishment of new K9 units and a national dehorning project in the 2022 financial year.

As the world celebrated World Rhino Day during September, the latest statistics showed that poaching continues to be a crisis in South Africa. Rhino poaching has been prolific in Southern Africa for more than a decade and during this time, the MyPlanet Rhino Fund has become one of South Africa's biggest citizen-driven fundraising initiatives for the conservation of these endangered animals.

MySchool alongside their loyal supporters take the initiative to protect the Rhino. They have committed a sum of R1,1 million to game ranger training, as these professionals are the first line of defence, risking their lives in the battle against dangerous poachers. For the fight to bring criminals to book they have granted a total of R900 000 for the installation and support of high-tech license number plate recognition cameras (LPR) in the field. These will enable the authorities to track, trace and prosecute perpetrators. An additional sum of R1,3 million has also been granted to set up and operate several new K9 units in the field.

"Love Run" word "Omgee-fees"

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Op 19 November vanjaar strek die nou reeds ses jaar oue "Love Run" sy vlerkies van omgee, by wyse van 'n "Omgee-fees". So glo die organiseerders dat die "Omgee-fees" presies dit gaan doen; omgee vir medemens, uitreik na ander, help, voorsien.

Die feesprogram skop af met die "Love Run", waar almal wat lief is vir beweeg kan kom deelneem deur slegs 'n blikkie (of 10) nie-bederfbare kos te skenk vir die G-om Projek. Hierdie jaar se roete vind plaas vanaf Uniestraat in Bergsig se rigting. Verkeersdepartement, marshalls en waterpunte sal ons deelnemers bedien met omgee. Die kos wat ingesamel word, word gebruik om die sowat 30 leerdertjies en hul gesinne te voorsien van 'n voorraad kos tydens die Desemberavakansie wanneer die skooltjie gesluit is en die leerdertjies nie die voorreg geniet van 'n gesonde bordjie kos per dag nie. Hulle is opgewonde om saam met NG-Suid hande te vat in hierdie poging. NG-Suid is immers hul veilige hawe waar die leerdertjies en vrywillige fasiliteerders elke dag gratis in goed toegeruste klaskamers kan skoolgaan vir die afgelope 17 jaar al. Hier woel en werskaf toegewyde tannie-juffrouens om hierdie kinders skoolgereed te kry vir groot skool. Aan die einde van hul G-om skool word elkeen gepas met 'n splinternuwe stel skooldrag en benodigdhede, sodat hul op gelyke vlak met hul mede-leerders hul skoolloopbaan kan begin.

Almal wat belangstel om deel te word van die "Omgee-fees" by wyse van uitstalruimte om jou unieke produk te kom bemark is welkom om die organiseerders te skakel: Retha Nel – 083 651 2856 of Marie Williams – (014) 592 2419 of Lourisa Venter – 082 806 4352. Die feesgangers kan hul beslis regmaak vir 'n interessante dag vol pret, goeie kos, optredes deur skole, kleuterskole, dansgroepe en kunstenaars. Kaartjies teen R30 sluit 'n gelukkige trekking en jou toegang tot die fees in. Kom ondersteun asseblief die "Omgee-fees" en wys jy gee ook om.

Op die foto verskyn Almarie Horn en Elize en Carrin Nabal tydens verlede jaar se "Love Run".

South African seniors need to make the most of higher interest rates to save for the tomorrow they want.

October 2022 – While the current high inflation levels and rising interest rates are creating cost-of-living challenges for all South Africans, the impact of increasing costs is often most severely felt by the more mature segment of the country's population.

For so-called 'seniors' – the broad label often applied to those who are over 55 – the economic challenges mean that good financial choices play an even more important part in their overall well-being and how they continue to plan for the future.

That is according to Sisandile Cikido, Head of Retail Investments at Nedbank, who points out that it is more important than ever for senior individuals to step back and assess their finances – not just to manage the negative impacts of the economic downturn, but also to capitalise on the positives.

'As is the case with most grey clouds, the current increasing-interest-rate environment offers a silver lining in the form of higher growth on your savings,' Cikido explains, adding that 'and for seniors – particularly those who rely on an income from their saved capital – it's important to take full advantage of the current higher-interest earnings opportunities.'

Cikido offers four key tips for seniors to optimise their money in the current economic climate.

Narrow down your goals

She explains that as we get older, it becomes increasingly important to map out a plan for the rest of our lives. 'Narrowing down your goals from what they may have been 20 years ago is a great way to hone in on what really matters and a realistic plan to achieve it, including saving any money as required.'

Think short- and long-term

Cikido emphasises that it is important to ensure that the narrower focus still includes all aspects of your life, from health and living arrangements to retirement, legacy and estate planning and fun things like hobbies and travel. She also highlights the importance of thinking and planning for long- and short-term goals. 'Research into Nedbank's senior clients shows that those who have savings accounts are typically aware of the need for this long- and short-term viewpoint, with most saving towards a combination of retirement, emergency funds and general life goals,' Cikido says. 'And this type of balanced view is very important because it helps you to choose the right combination of savings solutions to match each of these goals.'

Make sure you are capitalising on better interest rates

According to Cikido, one of the main reasons people give for not saving is that they do not believe that the interest rates on savings accounts are high enough. 'The recent interest rate hikes, coupled with the uncertainty in the share investment markets, has created a very compelling environment for savings,' she says. 'And with interest rates in double digits on some of Nedbank's longer-term savings accounts, there's never been a better time than now to start, or strengthen, your savings portfolio.'

Make that side hustle count for the long-term

One of the consequences of Covid-19 was a decline in the income earned by a large number of seniors. Nedbank's research shows that as a result many have turned to entrepreneurial ventures, or side hustles, to supplement their regular income streams. Cikido urges seniors to leverage that additional income for longer-term goals. 'A successful side hustle is a great way to build up the finances you need for your long-term goals,' she says. 'And with a little careful planning and a healthy pinch of self-discipline, it may be possible to leverage the current high-interest-rate environment by saving a portion of that extra income in a long-term deposit account to benefit from the power of compounding over time.'

'As we get older, our priorities typically start changing, new financial realities have an impact on our spending and saving actions, and good money management becomes more important than ever before in ensuring that we can enjoy the futures we want,' Cikido says. 'So, while the current high interest rates are not going to last forever, taking full advantage of them today, via a well-thought-out savings plan, could lay a solid foundation on which to achieve the tomorrow you want.'

Nedbank has added a new digital feature that enables non-Nedbank clients to apply for investment accounts on the Nedbank Money app and Online Banking.

Deur Waldie Volschenk

Tsholofelo Mathebe - our "French" host in What's Cooking this week. Tsholofelo was fortunate to have visited Paris - undisputed capital of the international fashion industry recently. This outing has inspired her to cook with renewed French flair. In this edition Tsholofelo demonstrates how easy it is to cook the evergreen Classic Chicken Cordon Bleu.

Tsholofelo Mathebe is a young aspiring model from Rustenburg who was privileged to have visited Paris – the undisputed fashion capital of the world – a few short weeks ago.

The visit to Paris was a gift from her mother in order for Tsholofelo to acquaint herself with the international fashion industry in which she is considering a career. Of course, Tsholofelo was also highly impressed by the flair and taste of French cooking and for this week's "What's Cooking" she treats us to the evergreen French favourite – Classic Chicken Cordon Bleu.

Tsholofelo goes French with Classic Cordon Bleu

Classic Chicken Cordon Bleu

Ingredients:

- 6 skinless, boneless chicken breast halves
- 6 slices Swiss cheese
- 6 slices ham
- 3 tbsp all-purpose flour
- 1 tsp paprika
- 6 tbsp butter
- ½ cup dry white wine
- 1 tsp chicken bouillon granules
- 1 tbsp cornstarch
- 1 cup heavy whipping cream

Method:

Pound chicken breasts if they are too thick. Place a cheese and ham slice on each breast within ½ inch of the edges. Fold the edges of the chicken over the filling and secure with toothpicks. Mix the flour and paprika in a small bowl and coat the chicken pieces. Heat the butter in a large skillet over medium-high heat and cook the chicken until browned on all sides. Add the wine and bouillon.

Reduce heat to low, cover and simmer for 30 minutes until chicken is no longer pink and juices run clear. Remove the toothpicks and transfer the chicken breasts to a warm platter. Blend the cornstarch with the cream in a small bowl and whisk slowly into the skillet. Cook while stirring until thickened and pour over the chicken. Garnish if preferred and serve warm.

Boneless chicken breast, a few slices of ham and lots of cheese - the basic ingredients of the French classic Cordon Bleu.

Believe us - it is as good as it looks and will take you barely more than 45 minutes to prepare! It's actually really easy to be a champion in the kitchen!

Adam Viljoen (78) in Pretoria oorlede

Adam Viljoen - 'n bekende voormalige inwoner van die stad wat vir baie jare aan die Rustenburgse Munisipaliteit verbonde was, is op 27 September in die ouderdom van 78 jaar in die Unitas-hospitaal in Pretoria oorlede. Adam en sy eggenote (Ina) was vir 'n tydperk van 38 jaar inwoners van Rustenburg en het in Februarie 2021 na Pretoria verhuis. Adam was vanaf 1983 tot en met sy aftrede in 2010 as elektriese ingenieur by die Rustenburg Munisipaliteit se departement Elektrotegniese Ingenieurswese werksaam en het in 'n stadium as hoof: Elektrotegniese Ingenieur waargeneem. Hy sal deur sy eertydse kollegas onthou word vir sy toewyding tot sy beroep en vir die daadwerklike, nugtere wyse waarop hy die uitdagings van die 2010 Wêreldbeker-sokkertoernooi benader het toe daar benewens verskeie internasionale sokkerwedstryde ook regstreekse televisie-uitsendings in en vanaf Rustenburg na die internasionale sokker-arena plaasgevind het. Adam se begrafnisdiens het op Maandag, 3 Oktober, vanuit die NG-gemeente Pierre van Ryneveld in Pretoria plaasgevind en is deur dr Deon Strauss van Rustenburg waargeneem. "Van ons Gewer het ons ontvang die gawe van 'n toegewyde eggenoot en vader", het die familie getuig. Adam word oorleef deur sy eggenote Ina, kinders Arno, Irma en Christie Bester asook kleinkind Ciska.

Rustenburg Rapid Transport - 'n doodloopstraat vol slaggate

Veertien jaar nadat die veelbewoë Rustenburgse Rapid Transport-projek in 2008 met groot bravade teen 'n geraamde koste van R3 miljard deur die destydse goed-gelowige departement van vervoer aangekondig is, is vervalle, leeggeplunderde infrastruktuur, spookagtige halfgeboude/afgebreekte bushaltes, 'n klompie kantore waar RRT-personeel bodemlose salarisse verdien en 'n dosyn of twee helderkleurige Yarona-busse met dolleë sitplekke wat doeleloos deur Rustenburg se steeds besige stadsverkeer vleg, al wat van die departement se befaamde, openbare vervoerstelsel oorgebly het.

Trouens, al wat die afgelope 14 jaar gebeur het sedert die RRT-stelsel geloods is met die visie om die openbare vervoermilieu in Rustenburg en omgewing vir altyd te verander, is dat die koste van die projek sedertdien (vrugtelos) tot R3,4 miljard toegeneem het en dat die projek onder die plaaslike gemeenskap 'n simbool van spot, van ergernis, van totale onbeholpenheid en onderprestasie geword het. Suid-Afrikaners is vandag sekerlik goed bekend met die uitdrukking: "vertel 'n leuen lank genoeg en dit sal spoedig as die waarheid aanvaar word". Op sy heel beste is laasgenoemde presies wat die RRT is - een groot leuen!

Maar vir die afgelope 14 jaar al hou die magte en kragte agter Rustenburg Rapid Transport en sy Yarona-operateurs hardnekkig vol dat die RRT projek 'n reuse sukses en 'n onvergelykbare aanwys vir die stad en omliggende gemeenskap is. Die waarheid is egter dat daar vir 14 jaar al saamgespeel, saam geskep en saam gelieg word oor die sogenaamde "meriete" van die RRT-projek. Dit was egter nog nooit enigiets meer as 'n hopelose mislukking van epiese proporsies nie wat selfs in 14 jaar nie daarin kon slaag om die vertroue of ondersteuning van sy beoogde teikenmark in te boesem nie.

Nie eers die RRT se edele strewe om die Suid-Afrikaanse taxi-industrie te inkorporeer/te bemagtig/uit te koop/in te sluk (teen astronomiese koste natuurlik) kon die taxi-industrie en sy kliëntebasis oortuig dat hier 'n werkbare alternatief is nie. Dalk het die grootkoppe van die taxi-nywerhede geweet wat om te verwag van enigiets met sy oorsprong uit sentrale regeringsvlak. Was die RRT nie dalk 'n set van die regering om sy hande op die welvarendheid van die hoofsaaklik onafhanklike taxi-industrie te lê nie? (Ons vra maar net). Rustenburg se veelsproke RRT is vandag 'n vae lugkasteel, 'n fabelagtige droom van 'n groep mense wat 20 jaar gelede dalk nog vertroue gehad het in die moraliteit van hul medemens. Slegs mense wat direkte finansiële voordeel uit die RRT put, sou vandag nog met "meriete" kon aanvoer dat die RRT inderdaad bestaansreg het. Ons wil vandag voorspel dat die RRT wat Rustenburg betref waarskynlik nooit wasdom sal bereik nie en eenvoudig 'n doodloopstraat is wat enorme uitgawes op die Suid-Afrikaanse belastingbetalersgemeenskap afdwing ter wille van die oorlewing van 'n paar individue en boonop ongelukkig geen waarde tot die gemeenskap toevoeg nie!

Rustenburg Rapid Transport - a cul de sac full of potholes

Fourteen years after the troubled Rustenburg Rapid Transport Project was announced with great aplomb at a cost of R3 billion, a network of dilapidated, ransacked infrastructure, a number of offices where RRT personnel are earning bottomless salaries, a dozen or two brightly coloured Yarona buses driving aimlessly throughout town is all that has remained of the Department of Transport much acclaimed public transport system. In fact, all that has happened over the past 14 years since the launch of the RRT project, is that the financial layout of this extravagant project systematically rose to R3.4 billion and that the RRT became the symbol of ridicule, of ineptitude, of anger and underachievement at almost unprecedented scale among the local community.

Today, 28 years into our new democracy, South Africans are well aware of the expression: "tell a lie long enough, and it will soon be accepted as the truth". This, in essence, is exactly what the Rustenburg Rapid Transport project is all about - nothing more than one fat lie!

But over the past 14 years the powers that be behind the RRT have stubbornly insisted that the project was a major success and an invaluable asset to the city and surrounding community. The truth however is that for 14 years everyone has played along, lied along and scooped along. Today, especially after yet another broadcast of Carte Blanche on M-Net on Sunday evening in which Rustenburg was the laughing stock of the country, everyone should know that Rustenburg's RRT project was never anything more than a embarrassing failure of gigantic proportions which could never manage to gain the trust let alone the support of its intended target market in the community. Not even the RRT's noble aim of aspiring to empower/to incorporate/ to buy out (at astronomical cost that is) the South African taxi industry could convince the taxi industry and its clientele that this could be a workable alternative. Perhaps the big wigs of the South African taxi industry have realised all too soon that nothing good could be expected from anything coming from central government. Could this all have been a ploy by government to get its hands on the lucrative but independent taxi industry?

Today it is clear for all to see - in Rustenburg the RRT is and always has been a pipe dream! A dream of a group of men who still believed in the morals of South African society 20 years ago. Today, the RRT is nothing more than a cul de sac full of potholes that is forcing enormous costs on the South African taxpayer for the sake of an idea that offers absolutely nothing in return!

"We need to unite"

Dear Editor

My name is Gladwin Koketso Molotlegi. I'm the son of the late Kgosi Mollwane Molotlegi (Lebone 2) who died during the year 2000.

I should have in terms of customs and traditions, as well as the laws of South Africa, succeeded my father as the Senior Traditional Leader of the Royal Bafokeng Nation. It is not clear why I'm not identified and subsequently recorgnized as the rightful heir to the Royal Bafokeng Chieftaincy.

It is however known that the current incumbent, Kgosi Leruo Molotlegi, is the younger brother to the late Kgosi Mollwane Molotlegi (Lebone 2).

I'm making a humble request to Mr Keorapetse Tumagole, Kgosaana Tumagole, Bothata Molotlegi and Mr Batsile Mokgatle to intervene and take responsibility on behalf of everyone, because the Royal Bafokeng-ship is submerging. We do not want a Bafokeng of one billionaire and over 200 000 beggars - our people don't deserve all that are happening.

Let us unite as Bafokeng nation to fight against corruption and injustices. We have many victims of rape, gender based violence and alcohol abuse, to name but a few. Yet, nobody wants to help them. We have a lot of talented people in Bafokeng, but they don't get any support from the Kgosi - which is totally unacceptable because our ancestors sacrificed so much for this Bafokeng land. There is absolutely a huge gap between Kgosi Leruo and the community.

Unity is strength, division is weakness. When we are united, then we can surmount any challenges and accomplish any goal. The development of our society depends on this spirit. Let us make Royal Bafokeng great again.

Gladwin Koketso Molotlegi, via email. (Letter shortened)

#DontBeAHothead: Choose to know, get tested!

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Strawberry Lips challenges South Africans to not be a hothead in their new Breast Cancer Awareness Month campaign. Life can be a handful. Whether because they don't know their risk or because they've never been shown how to check themselves, many young women in South Africa don't find treatment until it's too late. The survival rate for breast cancer once it has reached stage 3 and 4 is only 24%, but, if caught early, that survival rate skyrockets to 93%. This year, Strawberry Lips continues its work to encourage young South Africans all over the country to check their breasts regularly. For October, the #DontBeAHothead campaign aims to create awareness and educate young women about early detection, encourage them to talk to their health care providers and check their breasts. This October don't be a hothead! Keep your cool and get tested. Choose to know because the sky is the limit. What are you waiting for? Get started today by checking your breasts. Touch, Look and Check. Join the conversation this Breast Cancer Awareness Month, share the #DontBeAHothead.
