Ma, pa't vir ons 'n Jeep gekoop

Vir die afgelope naweek (Saterdag) se "Jeep-pret" tydens die Extreme Adventure Festival by Steineck net buite Kroondal, het hierdie hele familie as 'n span opgedaag om vir pa te ondersteun terwyl hy die stof, modder en slotte aangedurf het. Uiteindelik was die familiepoging die moeite werd want pa Rassie Ras (links voor in die middel) het glad nie sleg gevaa met sy selfgeboude CJ6 2.4 turbo-aangedrewe Jeep nie. Rassie neem al vir 13 jaar deel aan ekstreme 4x4-byeenkomste. Die span wat benewens Rustenburg ook uit besoekers van Delmas en Ventersdorp bestaan, is Rassie, Lizele en Chante Ras, Yolande, Aby, Marthinus en Jonathan Schoeman en Chris en Elize Breitenbach van Ventersdorp. Sien nog foto's van Saterdag se opwindigheid by Steineck elders in hierdie uitgawe.

Lennie Engelbrecht with her family to support her during the farewell.

Farewell to Rustenburg Management Area veteran

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Retirement is a journey that every employee will at some stage have to pass through in their lives. It is also an opportunity for relaxation, as well as spending more quality time with loved ones.

This was the case when the Rustenburg Management of the dept of Correctional Services arranged a farewell function on 24 August for the first and only woman, Lennie Engelbrecht, in the management area to have gone on pension after 40 years of uninterrupted service.

In his address, the Head of Centre, Michael Mafokata described Ms Engelbrecht as an ideal correctional official who had passion for her work. Representing the Acting Area Commissioner, the Area Coordinator Development and Care, Royen Nedzingahe indicated that the department is losing a real 'Mbokodo'.

"Thank you for the 40 years that you gave to the department."

"As we sit here, we are not sure if there is anyone amongst us who will be able to achieve what you have achieved to date," said Mr Nedzingahe.

Karwas teen honger

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die 'Care 2b Kind'-organisasie hier voed maandeliks sowat 300 huisgesinne in Rustenburg.

Behalwe net kos, voorsien 'Care 2b Kind' sover as moontlik ook aan dié gesinne toilettware en ander broodnodige items.

En alhoewel die organisasie volledig en deeglik geregistreer is, ontvang hulle nie enige hulp van die regering af nie.

"Ons probeer regtig om self projekte aan te bied en om donasies op dié manier aan te vul," vertel Riana Kroëse, stigter van 'Care 2b Kind'.

En nou het die organisasie dalk 'n beter kans om self in van hul gesinne se behoeftes te voorsien: Danksy 'n waldoener kan 'Care 2b Kind' nou hul eie mobiele motorwassery bedryf.

"Persones wat by ons maandeliks hulp ontvang, beman die motorwassery - sodoende kry hul ook die geleentheid om diensbaar te voel," sê Riana.

Nie net kom die karwas na jou besigheid of woning toe nie, hul prysie is spotgoedkoop!

Ondersteun gerus 'Care 2b Kind' se motorwassery; nie net gaan jou motor spoggerig lyk nie, jy help ook om kos op die tafels van gesinne wat sukkel te sit.

Former Rustenburg Commando premises in ruins

The scene at the former premises but now ruins of the Rustenburg Commando in Commando Road where the signs of decay, neglect, scandalous looting and lack of intervention by the authorities are clear for everyone to see. Rustenburg Herald was told that a lengthy legal battle between the Rustenburg Municipality, the North West government and the South African Heritage Foundation has since been abandoned since it was clear that the case was going nowhere. Rumours of a school being developed on the premises in meantime, also got off to nothing more than rumours. It is hard to believe that these premises were declared a National Monument by the South African Heritage Foundation decades ago. Rustenburg Herald hopes to come up with answers as to the future of the premises and had approached the spokesperson of the Rustenburg Municipality for comment.

Law enforcement women take to the streets

On Friday (26 August), the Bojanala District Sub 2 led by the Acting Commander Brigadier Regina Ntoagae, in partnership with various government departments, Rustenburg Local Municipality, Royal Bafokeng Reaction Unit, Road Traffic Infringement Agency, Transnet, Women in Mining and Local Pastors Forum amongst others joined hands in marching against gender based violence and femicide by handing a memorandum at the Rustenburg Magistrates Court. The memorandum was handed and accepted by the Rustenburg Senior Magistrate.

Captain Elsabe Augoustides, Sgt Dipuo Sebetlele, Susan Quirk (Grenville Principal), Social Workers and Sgt Masilo.

Rustenburg police visit Grenville High School

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Addressing GBV during Women's Month in August, the Sector Commander W/OFF Nkamane, Sgt Dipuo Sebetlele, Capt Ptele, Capt Augoustides and Sgt Letswete visited learners to warn them about the implications of statutory rape emanating from having sexual intercourse with an underaged school learner.

Learners were encouraged to refrain from embarking on serious relationships while still at school. Prevention of emotional and physical abuse was also discussed. Domestic Violence is a reality and many learners are dealing with serious challenges at home. # NW casino licence up for grabs

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Rustenburg Regional Court postponed the case against attorney, Betty Diale (52), to 14 October, for mediation proposals. She is out on warning and has been cautioned not to interfere with the state witnesses.

According to information received from Henry Mamothame, NPA Regional spokesperson in the North West, Diale's defence attorney indicated to the court that they intend to provide the state with mediation proposals to settle the matter. The state did not oppose the postponement and will study the proposals for consideration.

Diale is facing six charges of theft, amounting to approximately R700 000, allegedly stolen from Road Accident Fund (RAF) claimants. Police reports reveal that Fidelity Funds, a body that oversees the conduct of attorneys, received several complaints from the RAF claimants, whose payments were deposited into Diale's trust account. The claimants alleged that the said money did not reach them, after the payout and henceforth, reported to the police for investigation. Diale was practicing as an attorney, during the alleged commission of the crimes between 2009 and 2011, and was subsequently charged with six counts of theft in June 2021.

The Legal Practice Council has struck her off the roll, preventing her from practicing as an attorney.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The province, home to the country's best-known casino, Sun City, may soon have its fifth and final gambling hub.

The North West currently has four licensed casinos. The most well-known is Sun City, which has played host to music concerts, golf tournaments, and Miss World pageants. Sun City Casino has more than 800 slot machines and nearly 40 table games, together with five different types of holiday accommodation, and occupies a massive 1,500-hectare piece of land.

But Sun City isn't the only casino in the province - and it's not the biggest. That title belongs to the Rio hotel, casino, and convention resort in Klerksdorp. The Rio has a total gaming space of 24,743 square metres, making it one of the biggest casinos in the world and the biggest on the African continent. There's also the Mmabatho Palms in Mahikeng and the embattled Carousel Casino on the border of the North West, where the province meets Gauteng and Limpopo.

The North West may soon have a fifth casino, equalling the amount held by the Western Cape. The North West Gambling Board is entitled to issue five casino licences. With four of those licences already issued, the Board recently published an invitation to tender for a service provider to conduct a feasibility study for the fifth, and final, casino licence in the province. The province's interest in another casino is a relatively recent development, emanating from a Constitutional Court ruling in late 2019 that centred around the National Gambling Policy Council's decision to grant the North West an additional licence. This came after the province's fifth licensed casino, the Morula Sun, was excised from the North West to Gauteng in 2006 as a result of changes to the demarcation of provincial boundaries.

The Board announced, in 2020, that it would conduct a feasibility study with the intention of identifying the most viable location for a casino. "The dates for the commencement and completion of the project will be informed by the feasibility study, however, the Board estimates that the launch for the brand-new Casino will be around the last quarter of 2024/2025 financial year," the North West Gambling Board said in a statement at the time.

Molefi & Co get bail

RUSTENBURG HERALD - JOHANNESBURG - Former Eskom and Transnet executives Brian Molefe and Anoj Singh were released on bail of R50 000 at the Palm Ridge specialised commercial crimes court earlier this week.

The two were arrested on Monday (20 August) in relation to a fraud and corruption case involving the state logistics company.

They appeared alongside former Regiments Capital directors Niven Pillay and Litha Nyhonyha. The state did not oppose bail for any of the accused, who handed themselves over to police earlier in the morning.

The case was joined to that of former Transnet chief executive Siyabonga Gama, former chief financial officer Garry Pita, group treasurer Phetelo Ramosebudi, Regiments partner and former Trillian executive Eric Wood and Trillian Asset Management director Daniel Roy. They were arrested in May and made their second appearance on Monday, alongside Gupta associate Kuben Moodley.

The charges against Molefe, Singh, Pillay and Nyhonyha pertain to the Regiments Capital and Trillian Capital corruption scandal, in which both companies were paid a fee in excess of R90-million for securing a R30-billion club loan for Transnet to purchase diesel and electric locomotives in 2015.

State prosecutor Thembela Bakamela told the court he would be content with bail of R50 000 for the four additional accused, because "most" of the six initial accused had been released on the same amount.

Pillay has an outstanding matter for which he is already out on bail, but has applied for a review of that. He thus appeared under schedule six, meaning he had to prove "exceptional circumstances" as to why he should be released on bail.

His attorney, Ulrich Roux, told the magistrate, Emmanuel Magampa, that his client had made provision for R50 000 bail, and that because the state was not opposed, along with reasons given in his application affidavit, he was eligible.

Molefe's legal representative, Mpho Molefe, told the court that his client was a pensioner and had only managed to raise R20 000 towards bail. The rest would have to be raised from family and friends, he said. "He earns roughly R12 000 per month."

Prior to this, while reading out Molefe's application affidavit, the advocate had told the court that Molefe received a pension of R52 000 a month. The R12 000 in earnings was a result of Molefe being a director at a logistics company.

While testifying before the Zondo commission of inquiry into state capture, Singh was confronted with evidence that Regiments based its tenders submitted to Transnet on confidential memos he sent to Molefe.

The cost of the controversial acquisition of 1 064 locomotives by the state-owned freight and logistics company in a deal in which the costs rose from R38-billion to R54.5-billion as companies pledged to pay the Gupta family R9-billion in kickbacks.

Singh was grilled on the cost escalation when he appeared before the Zondo commission. He said he was not familiar with the acceptable profit margins on locomotives, hence Transnet relied on the advice of consultants in the negotiations.

For the same reason, he said he was unable to detect that the contract price had been so heavily inflated that it allowed kickbacks of 21%. It is expected that these will not be the last state capture charges Singh and Molefe face.

Both are suspected of enabling the acquisition of the Optimum Coal Mine by the Guptas's Tegeta Resources to set the company to secure coal contracts from Eskom, which proved ruinous for the power utility. And both have denied testimony by former staff members that they received piles of cash from the family.

The matter was postponed to 14 October. It was mentioned in court that more suspects are expected to be arrested on the same charges.

Beheerliggaam bekyk voorval waarin humeure opvlam

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - 'n Polemiek het op sosiale media losgebars met allerlei beskuldigings dat onderwyspersoneel, ouers en spelers van die Hoërskool Rustenburg en sy eweknie van Middelburg Saterdag tydens 'n plaatfinaal van o/15-rugbyspanne slaag geraak het toe die humeure in 'n stadium opgevlam het.

'n Ondersoek na 'n voorval Saterdag tydens 'n rugbywedstryd tussen die o/15A-spanne van die Hoërskool Rustenburg en die Hoërskool Middelburg het tot dusver geen bewyse opgelewer dat volwassenes, insluitend personeel, minderjarige spelers aangerand het nie.

"Die twee spanne het in die plaatfinaal van die Noordvaalbeker gespeel. Op die videomateriaal kan gesien word hoe 'n klomp toeskouers op die veld storm toe die eindfluitjie blaas. Daar is 'n geruk-en-pluk tussen 'n groot groep mense. Ons het reeds met RHS-leerders, afrigters en ander ooggetuies gepraat om uit te pluis wat gebeur het," sê mr. Bernhard Visser, voorstander van die beheerliggaam van die Hoërskool Rustenburg.

"In hierdie stadium dui die inligting tot die beskikking van die RHS-beheerliggaam dat geen afrigters, ondersteuners of ouers van RHS enige minderjarige spelers aangerand het nie. Die videomateriaal en verklarings wat reeds beskikbaar is, gee ons 'n goeie idee van die verloop van gebeure. Die ondersoek is egter nog aan die gang en die beheerliggaam versoek enige personeel met inligting of bykomende videomateriaal om dit aan die skool te verskaf."

Visser sê hy het ook reeds uitgereik na die beheerliggaam van die Hoërskool Middelburg en het 'n positiewe gesprek gehad wat gefokus het op gedeelde waardes. "Ek hoop ons sal kan saamwerk om die voorval op 'n sinvolle en deursigtige wyse te ondersoek."

Die skoolbeheerliggaam van die Hoërskool Rustenburg keur gewelddadige gedrag ten sterkste af. "Ons leerders se veiligheid is egter ons eerste prioriteit. Indien daar bewyse is wat daarop dui dat RHS-spelers se veiligheid in gedrang gebring is, is dit ons plig om toe te sien dat hierdie bewyse beskikbaar gestel word, behoorlik ondersoek word en dat daar teen skuldiges opgetree word. Die beheerliggaam is daartoe verbind om enige formele ondersoek na die voorval te ondersteun en sy volle samewerking te gee." Die beheerliggaam is ook van mening dat voorvalle soos hierdie glad nie tuishoort by skolesport nie. Visser sê die sportveld is 'n uitbreiding van die skool se leeromgewing en dit is belangrik dat volwassenes 'n navolgenswaardige voorbeeld stel. "By RHS word daar groot klem gelê op sportmanskap en dat enige kompetisie in 'n goeie gees moet plaasvind."

Hospice Rustenburg

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Hospice Rustenburg is celebrating its Silver Jubilee this year, made possible through the Grace of God and the support of the Rustenburg community and businesses.

Hospice would like to thank all partners and donors, previous and current who have made this milestone possible. The Hospice and staff have endured through Covid-19 a subsequent economic down turn. Though it has proved to be an extremely difficult period, Hospice has maintained its services throughout. Hospice Rustenburg also supported the Public health system by performing some 40 000 Covid screenings during the height of the pandemic. Hospice Rustenburg was founded in 1997, by Sr Jenny Arlow, with the purpose of providing quality Palliative Care services in the urban area of Rustenburg. From these humble beginnings, the ever-increasing need for the services of Hospice, to people with life threatening and life limiting illnesses, necessitated expansion to the Rustenburg outlying rural areas.

Hospice currently provides care to 470 patients from urban and rural areas. Hospice House is situated in the urban area of Rustenburg and houses the admin team, Social Worker and Professional Nurses. The depot, where donations are sorted, is also based at 4 Boshoff Street.

The Hospice Urban Programme is headed by Sr Rina Coetzee, assisted by a volunteer nurse and volunteer assistant. Sr Rina assists patients with pain management, care and support for general health issues as well as emotional and family support.

The Hospice Outreach Programme is managed by Nurse Williams Besong, together with the Social Worker and Home-Based Care Teams. These teams, comprise of a total of 19 Care Workers who are stationed in rural areas. The areas covered are Outreach, Boschfontein and Kroondal. The problems these communities face is underlined by general poverty, lack of education and limited access to essential services. Through Hospice programmes we are placing a social and health-based support system into their homes. This way Hospice supports both patients and their family members with health and social support and Hospice thus contributes to the public primary health care environment towards social upliftment.

Hospice Rustenburg has 38 Orphaned and Vulnerable children in their programme and has established various support groups addressing Gender Based Violence and issues around Adolescent Girls and Young Women. These groups meet weekly and various topics are discussed.

Hospice Rustenburg, in partnership with Consolidated Holdings runs two Wellness Clinics in Rustenburg. One at Three Star Cash and Carry and the other at Foodtown Tlhabane. General services include monitoring of hypertension, diabetes, TB screening and support, follow up home based care, referrals, medication management, HIV screening and testing, health education and wound management. These services are free of charge.

Hospice Rustenburg is in dire need of funding to continue operating services in all the areas. Tough economic conditions have had a huge impact on access to funding. Various projects and programmes can be supported by the general public and businesses -

- Equipment Hire – Medical equipment, i.e wheelchairs, bathers, commodes etc are rented out to the public at nominal fees. Oxygen machines are also available for hire.
- Hospice Shops – The main shop was established in 2000, situated at 48 Steen Street and the second shop was established in 2018, at the Wildevy Centre Proteapark. These shops operate solely through donations from the public and all income raised are used to sustain the Organisation.
- Adopt a Nurse/Care Worker – Businesses or individuals can make a monthly contribution towards the expenses of said Nurse or Care Worker.
- Events – The annual Hospice Golf day is a highlight of every year and raises much needed funds through the generosity of the public.
- Rags Project – Donations of slightly damaged cotton clothing and linen are cut and packed and sold to local businesses
- School Projects – The Pack a Sack and Sticker projects at local schools are the main source of donations that are sorted, priced and sent to the charity shops for resale.
- Hospice tins at businesses.
- Training venue for hire – This venue is booked and used by local businesses to train staff
- Hospice also heeds the call for any calls for proposals and endeavours to source funding by any means possible.

How can the general public support Hospice?

- By sponsoring any item on the Hospice Wish List.
- By donating towards a security upgrade at Hospice House. 16 break ins over a period of 6 months necessitate the urgent upgrade of perimeter fencing, facing Bethlehem street as well as the huge need for spotlights on the premises.

Wellness Clinic.

• By donating items to be sold at the charity shops. Furniture, kitchen utensils, electrical items in working condition, crockery, cutlery, bric-a-brac and items of clothing, linen and shoes are needed to stock the shops.

- By supporting our shops and events.
- By donating towards security upgrade of Hospice House - 4 Boshoff Street has been plagued by 16 break ins over a six month period and Hospice is in need of spot lights, razor fencing etc to upgrade the premises.
- By donating time as a volunteer to assist with sorting, shop assisting, cashier, rags project, at fundraising and events, general maintenance etc.
- By donating skills, i.e marketing, social media etc.
- By making a monetary donation.
- By donating in memory of.
- By raising awareness of Hospice and the work Hospice does.

Hospice Rustenburg can only continue to operate through the generosity and the support of the caring community of Rustenburg. Hospice thanks everybody who has supported them over the years and also would like to thank the Board, Management and Staff for their unselfish commitment and dedication.

Rustenburg Herald Koek

Deur Christelle Wessels

'Salsa' can mean one of two things.

It's either a spicy, Latin American dance, or it is a spicy, Latin American dish.

Chef Pieter Germishuys, the man behind dishing up great dishes and good times at Jabulani, just outside Rustenburg, is not going to give dance instructions this week, but he will share how to prepare Salsa Verde – the sauce that can trace its roots back to the ancient Aztec, Mayan, and Incan civilizations.

Rare Roast Beef Rump slices served with a classic Salsa Verde dressing. You can even add slices of mango on top for an even more refreshing taste - and look, its healthy as well.

Pieter Germishuys (front) with third year students of Inspirare, Henco Chalmers and Zayne Vosloo.

Springtime is Salsa time!

Salsa Verde with Roast Beef Rump

Ingredients:

1½-2 cloves garlic
2 big handfuls of fresh flat-leaf parsley
1 bunch of fresh basil
1 handful of fresh mint
1 small handful of capers
1 small handful of gherkins
1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
3 tablespoons red wine vinegar
8 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil

Method:

Peel the garlic and pick the herb leaves, then finely chop on a large board with the capers and gherkins. Place in a bowl, add the mustard and vinegar, then slowly stir in the oil until you achieve the right consistency. Balance the flavours with black pepper, a bit of sea salt and maybe a little more vinegar. Keep aside in the fridge. INGREDIENTS for the RUMP/ FILLET Marinate your Rump in olive oil, salt and pepper and rosemary. Pre-heat a pan or griddle pan, or even use your braai! Sear on both sides over high heat to give colour and keep in the juices. The longer you leave it on the heat, the more cooked it will be. Leave to rest on a board. Cut it into thin slices and put it on a spoon or on a toasted bruschetta bread and finish it off with a generous amount of Salsa Verde.

Want to be fancy? Drizzle it with a Balsamic Reduction, edible flowers, fresh basil or eat it just as is! Not only will you WOW your guests, you will probably feel the urge to start salsa dancing.

* For more show stopping Canapés for easy spring and summer entertaining indoor or alfresco, have a look at our INSPIRARE and JABULANI's Facebook pages.

Hors d'oeuvres are one of the small details that can make a big difference when you are entertaining. Appetizers can really enhance the atmosphere of your event.

A small bite with a big flavour punch! This is so simple to prepare, yet so fancy.

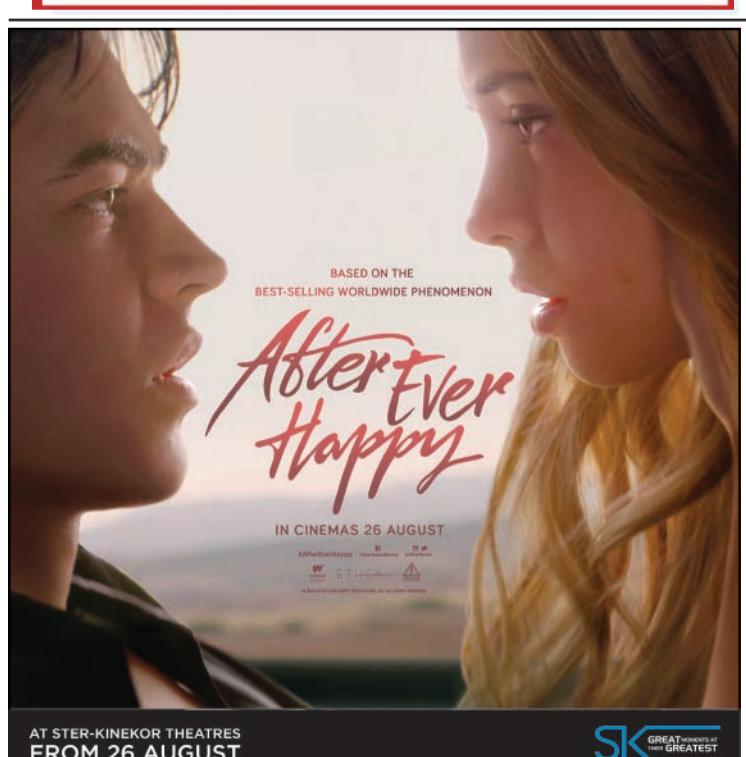

Consider adding a salad to your appetizers? Try pan roasted peaches with feta and rocket/baby spinach.

Uiteindelik - NVG se ratte knars aan't loop

Baie Suid-Afrikaners se oë het sekerlik vandeensweek groot gerek toe dit bekend geword het dat die Valke na maande en jare van intensieve ondersoek en herhaalde beloftes van die Nasionale Vervolgingsgesag aan die Suid-Afrikaanse nie-kriminele gemeenskap, uiteindelik opdrag gekry het om toe te slaan op korruptes en staatskapers. In verskeie operasies het Suid-Afrikaners (die paar van ons wat nie 'n lewe uit misdaad, bedrog, korruksie, diefstal of een of ander bedenklike geknoeierey maak nie) grootog toegekyk hoe talle prominente rolspelers in die land se staatskingsdrama van die afgelope wie-weet-hoeveel jaar deur die Valke opgepik en gearresteer is. Onder die vermeende knoeiers (tot groot vermaak van bogenoemde paar van ons) was natuurlik ons bobaas-akteur en sakdoelhuiler Brian Molefe ('n oomblik wat hy sekerlik nooit in sy lewe sal "downlive" nie soos die Engelse sê) en talle van sy trawante soos Anoj Singh, Niven Pillay, Litha Nyhonyha, die groot vis Siyabonga Gama, Garry Pita, Phetolo Ramosebudi, Eric Wood, Daniel Roy en Kuben Moodley.

Ons sê "grootog" omdat verreweg die meeste van ons Suid-Afrikaners wat elke dag swoeg en sweet om 'n eerbare en eerlike lewe te maak sekerlik nooit gedink het dat dié dag ooit sou aanbreek nie.

Ons kan eenvoudig nie die versoeking weerstaan om veral nou, die pragtige uitdrukking te gebruik wat ons so na aan die hart lê nie - die Engelse een wat lui:

"The wheels of justice turn painfully slow, but they turn mercilessly". So ja, hier is ons nou - presies nege jaar nadat Suid-Afrika se omvangryke staatskingsdrama onder aanvoering van die opperbevelvoerder Jacob Zuma op skouspelagtige wyse ontvou het met die landing van die nou berugte Guptas se Waterkloofvliegtuig in Pretoria. Sedertdien het 'n donker, ondraadse nes van ondeurdringbare geheime en 'n gekonkel in elke hoekie en elke draai wat gewissel het van bedrog, leuens, verdoeseling, valse gerugte, omkopyery, verdagmakery en beskuldigings in talle gelede onder die Valke en veral by die Nasionale Vervolgingsgesag maar ook die Suid-Afrika se Staatsveiligheidsagentskap verdeelheid en verwoesting gesaai. Kan 'n mens jou indink dat die Nasionale Vervolgingsgesag in hierdie tyd (sedert 1998) deur nie minder nie as ses permanente en drie tydelike direkteure van die Nasionale Vervolgingsgesag "gehardoop" het en dat nie een hiervan sy/haar volle termyn van 10 jaar in die kantoor uitgedien het nie. Ongelukkig is dit so dat heelwat van hierdie probleme aan die Valke self toegeskryf kon word - soveel so dat die Valke tans, nadat daar van die dooie hout ontslae geraak is, opgesaal sit met die bykans onbegonne taak om 22 477 sake met 'n gekombineerde waarde van R1.5 trillion te ondersoek. Suid-Afrika het vandeensweek na jare se gewag oplaas die ratte van gerechtigheid aan die rol gesien knars.

Finally - NPA's gears grind into motion

Thousands of South Africans probably couldn't believe their ears earlier this week when the National Prosecuting Authority announced that almost a dozen high profile personalities who have been implicated in state capture amounting to billions of rand were arrested by the Hawks on Monday. "Couldn't believe their ears" because in spite of promises by the National Prosecuting Authority for years, South Africans were beginning to accept that this would probably never happen and that's the end of it. But miracles do happen even in South Africa and Monday was a bad day at the office for many high flying former directors of several state-owned institutions when the law finally caught up with them. For South Africans without any doubt the best news of the day was that public enemy number one (no, not Nic White) - Brian Molefe, our Oscar nominated handkerchief crier, was among the group that also included Anoj Singh, Niven Pillay, Litha Nyhonyha, the big fish Siyabonga Gama and several other lesser known men. This event which many would have thought would never have dawned on our beautiful country, once again brings us back to the so appropriate English expression (may we be excused for quoting it once more?) which goes: "The wheels of justice turn painfully slow, but they turn mercilessly". The arrests of these men probably couldn't have happened at a better time. Coinciding with the arrests this week, almost to the day, was the ninth anniversary of the infamous Gupta Landing at South Africa's Waterkloof Military Airport in Pretoria, as remembered by South African investigative research and advocacy group Open Secrets. Perhaps not all South Africans, but most definitely those few of us who are slogging away at the office every day in an attempt to make an honest living, will remember the Gupta landing at Waterkloof as the day which saw State Capture unfolding in the country. Since then, an impenetrable network of lies, deceit, corruption, accusations, untruths, suspicion, victimisation, bribery and much, much, more were being orchestrated amongst the ranks and command structure of the Hawks, the National Prosecuting Authority and the country's State Security Council or in other words - "a systematic attempt to capture agencies tasked with chasing down state capture crooks", as was disclosed by Open Secrets earlier this week.

It is almost unthinkable to note that in this time (from 1998 in fact) the National Prosecuting Authority has cycled through six permanent and three acting National Directors of the NPA with not even one of these completing his/her term of 10 years in office - as also disclosed by Open Secrets this week. Unfortunately it is true that a lot of these problems could be attributed to the Hawks themselves. At the same time however, this has caused a backlog of such immense proportions, that (after the removal of the dead wood) the Hawks now have to laboriously battle through some 22 477 cases with a combined value of R1.5 trillion. This week, South Africans have witnessed the first of these gears slowly grinding into motion in almost a decade.

Angus Buchan bid vir Krugersdorp, hele land

RUSTENBURG HERALD - KRUGERSDORP - Die Evangelieprediker, Angus Buchan bid op Saterdag, 24 September vir inwoners van Krugersdorp wat met uitdagings soos werkloosheid, armoede, misdaad, dwelmmisbruik, alkoholisme en satanism worstel. Dié gebedsdag is die gevolg van 'n smeekbrief en noodroep van 'n inwoner van dié dorp waarin die skrywer sê dat die dorp besig is om die stryd teen bogenoemde euwels te verloor. Suid-Afrikaners wat die dag graag sou wou bywoon maar weens ander verpligte nie kan nie, kan egter gerus wees dat hulle kan deel in die seën wat dié dag uitgestort word. "Angus het laat weet dat hy op dié dag vir alle Suid-Afrikaners gaan bid - 'ons spreek lewe oor ons land, ons mense, diegene wat siek, depressief en werkloos is", sê die predikant wat bekend is vir sy hoed en bybel in die hand. "Ons glo dat daar deur Jesus genesing, verandering en hoop na almal in ons land sal kom - dit is waarom ons die geleentheid "Speak Jesus" noem", sê Buchan. Die geleentheid is gratis en word by 'n afgemerkte terrein in Krugersdorp aangebied. Rigtingwysers sal die hele dorp vol wees, word daar verneem. Die hekke na die terrein open reeds om 07:00. Besoekers is versoen om water, hoede, sonskerm, kos, gemaklike skoene, toiletpapier, stoelle, piekniekkomberse en 'n sak vir ullis saam te neem. Ongelukkig sal daar nie kostalletjies wees en daar sal ook geen braairoosters of gasbraaitoestelle toegelaat word nie. Om dit vir mense makliker te maak om vir Buchan op die verhoog dop te hou, is mense versoek om nie sambrelle of gazebo's saam te bring nie.

Hoera vir Rustenburgse sportlui

Die redakteur

Sjoe, ek het darem net gevoel om 'n briefie aan die koerant te skryf en te sê baie dankie vir die uitstekende dekking oor die afgelope twee maande al en spesifiek oor die uitmuntende prestasies van Rustenburgse sportlui op die plaaslike, provinsiale, nasionale en internasionale vlak. Ons moet by gebrek aan prestasie van die Bokke darem werlik ons Rustenburgse sportmense gelukwens met hul puik prestasies oor die afgelope tyd. Mense soos Pieter Coetze in die swembad, (moenie

'n fout maak nie - Pieter se sussie is ewe vis in die water), Louis Meintjes met die fiets, Caitlin Thompson met haar fiets, om na van ons eie langasems in die Comrades-marathon te praat nie. Dan was daar ook etlike ander Noordwes-sportlui wat presteer het soos Adele Brodryk van Potchefstroom wat derde geëindig het in die Comrades marathon se vroue-afdeling. Nee wat, as ons "eie" mense so presteer kan ons maar die Bokke vir 'n wyle verskoon - dalk het hulle net 'n rus kansie nodig?

Excellent service by the Tlhahane police

The editor

I have often heard complaints from community members about the services rendered by the police in Rustenburg and Tlhahane. Last week I became a victim of crime when my house was broken into and an undisclosed amount of cash, various items - including the work's laptop was stolen. When I noticed that my house was broken into early in the morning before I came to work, I immediately called Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi. Ofentse, Police spokesperson in Rustenburg, advised me to open a case with the police in Tlhahane. I was surprised by the excellent service I received.

The Rustenburg Forensics came to my house as quickly as they could and managed to get the suspect's fingerprints. I would like to thank the Tlhahane SAPS for helping me swiftly.

The case is being investigated by Sergeant BG Mogotsi, who has been in contact with me on a regular basis. It was later on that the police realised that I was a journalist from the Rustenburg Herald. It is good to know that it does not take a status for the Tlhahane police to render a good service. Well done to you guys and keep on serving the community well.
