In die winter is dit nou maar 'n feit dat die meeste mense se tuine ietwat valerig lyk en as die winter regtig koud is soos tans skynbaar nog aan die gang is, kan selfs sprokiestuinne sommer maklik verlep. Egter nie noodwendig wanneer die natuur in beheer is nie soos hierbo duidelik deur die Marlothii-tuin van mnr Egmont Vosloo van Rustenburg geïllustreer word. Hierdie pragtige aalwyn is die immerbekende en -gewilde Aloe marlothii wat maklik tot ses meter hoog kan groei. Mnr Vosloo en sy regterhand, Andries Sitoé, het 'n hele "boord" met minstens 1 000 marlothii digby sy grensmuur op die eertydse Montengoelu net duskant die Magaliesberg van saad gekweek. Saterdag markdag onder die "boere"

Die toneel by die Rustenburgse Boeremark wat by die voormalige skougronde gehou word. Eerskomende Saterdag is dit weer markdag! Dir mark begin om 09:00 en toegang is gratis.

Die Rustenburg Boeremark is 'n blink idee vir 'n lekker uitstap saam met oupa en oma - hierbo is oupa Jurie en oma Liz Barnard saam met die kleinkinders Luan en Linke Loubser by die dorperkrale afgeneem waar die volgende Boeremark eerskomende Saterdag weer plaasvind.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Rustenburgers word herinner aan die Rustenburg Boeremark wat eerskomende naweek, Saterdag, 29 Julie, by die voormalige Rustenburgse skougronde aangebied word.

Die Rustenburg Boeremark is ongeveer 'n jaar oud en is 'n heerlike geleentheid vir almal wat van tuisgemaakte produkte en artikels hou. Besoekers kan kus en keur tussen allerlei stalletjies wat letterlik alles van vars groente, gebottelde lekkernye soos konfynt, blatjang, ingemaakte kos en slaai, biltong, vleishappies, en 'n wye verskeidenheid handgemaakte kuns en klere, houtspeelgoed en -artikels tot gebreide babaspeelgoed wat aanebied word.

En dan is daar natuurlik ook wegneemhappies soos hamburgers, warmbrakke en ag, te veel om op te noem. Maak tog seker dat daar 'n goeie klompie kontant in die beursie is - jy sal nooit weet watter verrassings daar vir die besoeker by dié mark is nie. Vir mense wat graag meer te hore wil kom van die wêreld van boerdery, is daar geleentheid om skouers te skuur met 'n klompie dorperkrale en-kenners en as jy dalk liewers 'n klein lappie mielies wil plant, is die mark ook die plek om aan te klop en met boeremense skouers te skuur. Hierdie naweek se boeremark sal egter 'n "bumper" wees soos die Engelse sê omdat die mark Saterdag saam met 'n ewe-opwindende Boeredag saamval.

Die Boeremark is 'n heerlike geleentheid om sommer net op 'n Saterdagoggend in te loer om 'n luilekker-naweek in te lui. Dit is hoogs onwaarskynlik dat u nie ou kennisse of selfs goeie vriende hier sal raakloop nie. Natuurlik is hier ook 'n stalletjie waar vriende 'n koppie boeretroos kan geniet. Onthou - daar is ook pret vir die kinders!

Die Rustenburg Boeremark begin om 09:00 en duur tot om 15:00. Tuisskeppers en -produsente wat 'n ietsie het wat hulle graag by 'n mark sal wil aanbied, is welkom om 'n stalletjie te neem teen slegs R100. Stalletjies kan bespreek word by farmers.tracy.ad@gmail.com of daar kan by 072 580 1076 of 078 397 1397 navraag gedoen word. Onthou - toegang is gratis en daar is volop veilige parking met sekuriteit. Sien julle by die Boeremark!

Wheelchairs for people with disabilities

Glencore Ferroalloys donates wheelchairs to community members living with disabilities

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Glencore Ferroalloys marked this year's Mandela Day with a gesture of goodwill for its most valuable stakeholders. In a bid to support individuals living with disabilities, Glencore donated 13 specialised wheelchairs to community members in Ikemeleng, Kroondal near Rustenburg.

Mandela Day, celebrated annually on July 18th, commemorates the life and legacy of the late Nelson Mandela, a global icon of peace, equality, and justice. Glencore embraced the spirit of Mandela Day by empowering members of its communities as part of its continued efforts to bring progress to the lives of those living around its operations.

To fully understand the challenges faced by its community members, Glencore initiated Health Impact Assessments in partnership with local healthcare professionals in line with the company's bid to prioritise the health of those living in its communities. Numerous households with people living with disabilities were found to have no access to wheelchairs, while some had wheelchairs in impaired conditions making life more challenging for the individuals and their families.

"We are honoured to contribute to the comfort and well-being of our community members on this special day. By providing these wheelchairs which are tailored to the specific requirements and measurements of each recipient, we hope to improve the mobility and quality of life for individuals living with disabilities in order to enable them to fully participate in their communities," said Conroy Van Der Westhuizen, Chief Community and Social Responsibility Officer for Glencore Ferroalloys.

The event was one for the books for the community members, with many of them expressing heartfelt messages of gratitude for the much-needed support.

"Through this support, Glencore has given those living with disabilities the value of respect and dignity. What many people do not realise is how hard it is to not be able to do things for yourself and to constantly need assistance even for the simplest tasks. These wheelchairs will serve to empower and motivate community members to live their lives fully and with the freedom that they deserve," said Sister Martha Makalane, Ikemeleng Clinic Manager.

The wheelchairs donated will not only enhance the lives of the recipients, but will also serve as a symbol of hope in creating a more inclusive world for marginalised communities. Glencore's Mandela Day initiatives and many of its CSI projects stand as a testament to its ongoing commitment of leaving a lasting legacy of positive change in its communities.

Attorney in court for alleged RAF fraud

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG – Emanuel Mesele Tau (50) appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrate’s Court earlier this week on charges of fraud.

The attorney was arrested on Monday (24 July) by the Hawks’ Serious Commercial Crime Investigation.

The arrest emanates from an investigation into a Road Accident Fund (RAF) pay-out of approximately R763 195 which the attorney allegedly received on behalf of a client, but kept it for himself.

It is reported that the client who had lost her husband in a vehicle accident requested the assistance of the accused to lodge a claim with RAF. In 2014, the pay-out was allegedly received by the accused, who failed to divulge this information to client.

In 2021, after allegedly many failed attempts to get hold of the attorney, the widow reported the incident to the police. The case was subsequently transferred to the Hawks for further probing, resulting in the arrest of the attorney.

Tau was released on R5000 bail and the matter was adjourned to 8 August for the Regional Court date.

Two ex-RLM employees arrested for fraud

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Alleged tender fraud has to former employees of the Rustenburg Local municipality in very warm water.

Obakeng Glen Mokgale (39) and Orebotse James Tlale (40) were arrested by the Hawks’ Serious Commercial Crime Investigation on Wednesday (19 July) and charged with four counts of fraud.

These charges relate to a tender which was awarded by the Rustenburg Local Municipality, for high mast lights to be installed at the Kanana phase 2 and Robega phase 2, in Rustenburg. All procurement processes were duly followed for the tender to be awarded.

However, investigations revealed that the tender was awarded to a company that was not compliant. This company submitted fraudulent documents in order to be awarded the tender.

Mokgale and Tlale were allegedly notified of the noncompliance, but continued to recommend that this company be awarded the tender.

The company is said to have also submitted fraudulent invoices amounting to over R1,7-million - for a service that was not rendered.

Mokgale and Tlale continued to sign the procurement documents, pretending to have seen the service that was rendered, for payment to be processed.

The municipality has since instituted internal disciplinary processes which resulted in the dismissal of the two, and criminal charges were subsequently registered. Police are expected to conduct the arrest of the remaining suspects before the next court sitting.

The Rustenburg Magistrates’ Court postponed the case to 15 August to accommodate the arrest of the remaining suspects before the matter is transferred to the Specialised Commercial Crimes Court for trial.

The court granted Mokgale and Tlale each R30 000 bail and they were warned not to interfere with the state’s witnesses and to avail themselves for the next court sitting.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A family from Chaneng received a house from the Rustenburg Local Municipality on Mandela Day (18 July).

The municipality partnered with the North West Provincial Government to deliver the house to a needy family in commemoration of Mandela Day. "We did this to pay tribute to Nelson Mandela and to remind the international community of his humanitarian work," said Mayor of Rustenburg, Shiela Mabale-Huma.

Mandela Day was created to inspire people to embrace the values of democracy and contribute towards the ideals of ensuring a just and fair society.

"This event was part of the many events that took place in Rustenburg on Wednesday (18 July) as the commitment by the Rustenburg Local Municipality to make impact in the lives of the community of Rustenburg and encourage everyone to accede to the significance of this day. The 67 minutes symbolically represent the number of years the former President fought for human rights and the abolition of apartheid," said Mayor Mabale-Huma.

Acting Premier, Nono Maloyi, and the MEC for Agriculture and Rural Development (DARD), Desbo Mohono, attended the event when the house was handed over.

by Christa Mynhardt, We Care Wildlife Rehabilitation Centre

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Recently the We Care Wildlife Rehabilitation Centre was notified that a black-shouldered kite was shot with a pellet gun.

The kite was collected and taken to a veterinarian and, it was found that the bird's one wing was fractured irreparably due to the shooting. Sadly the bird had to be put down and this was humanely done. We see this as unfair, unnecessary and a big loss. According to research, the diet of these birds consists of 90% rodents - mice, rats et cetera.

We were told that the kite was shot by a child who thought he was shooting a dove. That made us wonder. Why do people think it is ok to shoot any bird? Why do people teach their children to shoot birds and animals? Why do they even give their children things like pellet guns, sling shots or air rifles?

I am sure parents can think of better gifts for their children. Worst of all, parents allow their children to fire these dangerous "toys" in built up areas. Not only is it dangerous to other people, their pets and wildlife in the area, but it is illegal.

And these callous actions have consequences.

When a wild indigenous bird, for example, gets shot, the bird that was shot is not the only one suffering - or dying.

Just one example is the grey hornbill. If the male gets killed, the female is stuck in the nest with eggs or even chicks. The female undergoes a molt of all her flight and tail feathers at the time of egg laying. These are re-grown by the time she emerges from the nest. In other words, she is totally dependant on the male for food at this stage. Should she be able to get out of the nest, she will not be able to fly, which means she and the chicks will slowly die of starvation.

With mammals, if you shoot a mother there is no way a baby will be able to survive without his mother's milk and care.

The answer is simple:

Stop shooting birds and animals for fun. It is unfair and cruel. Find yourself a hobby that does not include killing our innocent, defenseless wildlife.

If you as a parent do decide to give your child a pellet gun, air rifle or sling shot, please teach them not to shoot at any living creature. Teach them not to shoot in built up areas and supply them with targets - like tins.

Let's stand together and protect our precious wildlife. To quote Mahatma Gandhi: "The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way its animals are treated."

The black-shouldered kite had to be euthanized after the bird's one wing was fractured irreparably after being shot by a child.

Doves are favourite targets for children - and adults armed with dangerous 'toys' such as pellet guns and air guns.

Skrywer van Wit-Wolf praat oor vergifnis, genade

Klerksdorp Rekord se redakteur, Salomé Kotzé (regs) saam met skrywer, Sandy Schoeman

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Dit is baie maklik om te praat. "Talk is cheap..." sê die Engelse.

Elke tweede een verkondig daaglik naasteliefde en seëning en die woorde raak leeg. Maar dan kry jy daardie mense wat nie bloot retoriese woorde en frases strooi nie, maar wat liefde lééf. Stefaans Coetzee is só 'n mens. Dié naweek is Stefaans in Rustenburg om sy boek 'Onbeskryflike genade' bekend te stel.

"Hierdie boek is vir enigeen wat al verwerp was, onwaardig bevind, of geëtiketteer was. In die skrywer se eie woorde: 'My gebed is dat jy uit my verhaal krag sal put om die klippe waarmee jy gestenig is te gebruik om 'n altaar te bou.'

Hy is Stefaans Coetzee. Dis genoeg. Jy is genoeg." Sô skryf die boekresensent Anshen Conradie.

Stefaans is Saterdagoggend (29 Julie) om 11:00 by NG Kerk Proteapark. Hy en Sandy Schoeman, skrywer van die topverkoper, Rooi letterkind, sal oor hul werk gesels.

Die vorige aand, Vrydagaand, is hulle by die Agapé Gemeente om 18:00 en Sondagoggend (30 Julie) weer by NG Proteapark, dié keer om 09:00.

Stefaans se pad tot by die aanvaarding van vergifnis was nie maklik nie. Hy het sy verlede soos 'n Kainsmerk gedra, gebukkend onder die las van die verskriklike daad wat hy as jongman gepleeg het en waarvoor hy tronk toe gestuur is.

Hy kon die pad van soveel ander geloop het wat in hul skuldgevoelens verstrengel geraak het en toegelaat het dat dit hulle versmoor. Maar Stefaans het gekies om met liefde na sy medemens uit te reik, al is sy hand van boetedoening soms wreed weggeklap en sy verlede voor sy kop gegooi. Hy het gekies om versoening en vrede sy nuwe wapens te maak en om met elke tree wat hy gee, liefde te lééf.

Moenie dié geleentheid om twee uitsonderlike skrywers - en mense - te ontmoet, misloop nie.

My kleuter byt! Hoe moet ek dit hanteer?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Afrikaans.com het met die vroeëkindertontwikkelingspesialis en eienaar van Oasis Club Learning, Yolandi van den Heever-Breytenbach, gesels oor wat ouers te doen staan as hulle kleuter byt.

Yolandi is ook die ontwikkelaar van Afrikaans.com se kleuterkurrikulum op ons splinternuwe leerhulpblad.

As jou kind byt, wys dit op iets wat fout is by die huis?

As ouer wil mens dadelik die vinger na jousef wys en die blaam vierkantig op jou eie skouers laai. Dit is egter nie nodig nie, want glo dit of nie, dit is normaal en dikwels die kleuter se manier van kommunikeer. Nietemin, 'n mens kan dit ook nie net aanhou ignoreer nie en daarom is dit nodig om die saak reg te benader en te hanteer. Mens hoor soveel verskillende opinies en oplossings vir hierdie probleem, na wie luister ek?

Daar is deesdae kenners vir elke ding. Dit kan nuwe (en gesoute) ouers oorweldig. Jy hoef nie altyd almal se raad in jou huis toe te pas nie. Oorweeg die volgende en besluit dan wat om te probeer, wat om gedeeltelik toe te pas en wat om liefste te ignoreer:

- Stem die raad ooreen met my eie oortuigings rondom kinders grootmaak.
- Stem die raad ooreen met wat ek van my kleuter weet en wat ek weet in my huis werk.
- Wie is die persoon wat die raad gee? (Hoe lyk hulle eie agtergrond en benadering tot kinders?)
- Moontlike strategieë wat toegepas kan word
- Trek die kleuter se aandag af.

• Probeer raaksien watter situasies die kind laat oorgaan tot byt en bestuur dit voor die tyd. Beperk die vier uur lange inkopietog totdat jou man jou kleuter kan oppas.

• Maak seker daar is voorsiening gemaak vir fisiologiese behoeftes. Bv 'n tandering en pynstropie vir seer tandvleise.

• Tree ferm op wanneer so 'n insident plaasvind. Moet asseblief nie lag of iets dergelik nie.

• Oppas om straf uit te deel, maar aanvaar ook dat jou kleuter nie die Engel Gabriël is nie.

• Werk saam met die skooltjie en juffrou. Hulle is darem in die meeste gevalle nie daarop uit om op jou tweejarige te pik nie.

• Beperk aktiwiteite wat kan lei tot frustrasie – veral oormatige skermtyd wat tot frustrasie kan lei. Die kleuter is gemaak om te klim, klouter en aktief deel te neem aan die wêreld.

• Neem jou kleuter se gemoedstemming in ag en toon begrip daarvoor. Dis egter nie nodig dat jou kleuter die huis regeer nie.

• Kleuters het beperkte moraliteit en reageer nog nie uit 'n verstaan (begrip) van goed en sleg nie. Die kleuter hou egter van die beloning wat gepaard gaan met "goeie" gedrag. Moet dus nie van jou kleuter verwag om uit hulle eie te weet dat byt verkeerd is nie.

• Indien jy as ouer vermoed dat die bytery 'n ander oorsaak het, en geen strategie werk nie, kan 'n arbeidsterapeut of spelterapeut se hulp ingeroep word.

Blue light bullies to get their day in court

By Andrew Whitfield MP - DA Shadow Minister of Police

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The DA welcomes the latest announcement from IPID that after weeks of stalling, the blue light bullies were processed at Sandton Police Station on Sunday and appeared in Randburg Magistrate's Court on Monday.

This comes after the DA lodged a complaint with IPID which prompted IPID's investigation.

Independent Police Investigative Directorate spokesman Robbie Raburabu said that the eight cops would be processed at Sandton Police Station on Sunday. The Blue Light Bullies must now be treated like all other violent criminals following this violent and unprovoked attack. The criminal justice system must perform its duties without fear or favour.

We will monitor this case very closely, as it signifies the importance of holding those in positions of power accountable for their actions. The safety and well-being of our citizens should never be compromised, and we trust that the legal process will ensure that justice prevails for the victims and their families.

As a society, we must condemn any abuse of power and continue to work towards a just and fair South Africa for all. The DA will remain steadfast in advocating for the rights and safety of all citizens, ensuring that those who engage in such despicable behavior face the full consequences of their actions, the DA's Andrew Whitfield concluded.

Bathabile Dlamini out of ANCWL race

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The ANC Women's League (ANCWL) elected new leadership at its 13th national conference on Sunday, with Sisisi Tolashe winning the presidency in a landslide victory.

Tolashe was elected by the 2 962 delegates who voted at the conference, which was held at Nasrec, south of Johannesburg, at the weekend. Tolashe, the deputy minister in the Presidency for Women, Youth, and Persons with Disabilities, received 1 756 votes, while her closest challenger, Thembeke Mchunu of KwaZulu-Natal, received 1 038 votes. Former ANCWL president Bathabile Dlamini, who was seeking re-election, came in third with just 170 votes. The results were announced on Sunday evening ahead of President Cyril Ramaphosa closing the conference. The other elected leaders of the ANCWL were Deputy president: Lungi Gcabashe; Secretary-general: Nokuthula Nqaba; Treasurer-general: MaQueen Letsoha-Mathae; Deputy secretary-general: Dina Pule.

The league's delegates made their choices known through songs and chanting of names of their favourite candidates. The "change" hand sign echoed through the plenary followed by pro-Tolashe chanting. According to the Sunday Times, there was a push for Dlamini to abandon her presidential campaign and run for chairperson. Tolashe is the Deputy Minister of Women and Youth in the Presidency and is said to enjoy support from the majority of provinces. The former league president Angie Motshekga backed Tolashe's campaign against Dlamini.

MALNUTRITION CRISIS: Rising food inflation hitting the poorest where it hurts

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Vulnerable South African households continue to suffer and struggle to put food on the table. This leads to more and more cases of malnutrition.

The announcement by StatsSA last week of an 11.1% increase in food prices over the past year, comes on the heels of the revelation that severe acute malnutrition (SAM) in children younger than five has risen by 26% over the past five years. And earlier this year the Department of Health revealed that 12 582 children aged 0 to 5 years have died in hospitals since 2013 due to moderate and severe acute malnutrition.

It is hardly a wonder that children are starving when South Africans cannot afford basic necessities. Inflation statistics released earlier this week, show that the price of bread increased by 15%, vegetables by 21.2%, and milk, eggs and cheese by 13.8%. The June Household Affordability index indicated that the price of 30 kg maize meal increased by 18% the past year, 5 kg samp now costs 16% more, while 5 kg carrots and 10 kg onions skyrocketed by 40% and 97% respectively.

With the average cost of a household food basket of R5056,45 and the food poverty line of R663, it is no surprise that a study by the University of Witwatersrand published in January 2023, found that one in five South African households were food insecure.

"We propose various solutions to address malnutrition," says Bridget Masango, Democratic Alliance (DA) Shadow Minister of Social Development

These proposals include:

* Expand the basket of basic food items that are exempt from Value Added Tax (VAT). This is to see if there are any other food items that are not currently exempt, but could be considered for exemption. These would include protein food items, such as bone-in chicken, beef, tinned beans, margarine, peanut butter, and baby food. Other items would include flour, tea, coffee, and soup powder.

"The goal is to provide poor and low-income families with some relief by reducing the taxes they have to pay on essential food items," Masango said.

* To increase the child support grant to align with the official food poverty line. This reflects a genuine commitment to uplifting struggling families and ensuring that no child goes to bed hungry.

* Include support for pregnant mothers through the child grant. "By nurturing child nutrition from the very beginning, we aim to break the cycle of stunting and set children on a path to brighter prospects," added Masango.

"It is crucial that we understand an injury to one is an injury to all. Allowing the most vulnerable in society to suffer is not only immoral, it also creates a bleak future for everyone that calls South Africa home," she concluded.

JOU Nentedop vermaak in 'n

deur Christelle van Rooyen-Wessels

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Dis nie altyd maklik om 'n tiener te beïndruk nie - vra maar vir enige ma wat al een van dié wesens groot moes kry. Alles is 'lame', al was dit gister nog heeltemal aanvaarbaar. Niks wat jy voorstel - wat jy voor jou siel weet sal interessant wees - prikkel hul belangstelling nie. Jy voel gelukkig as jy bloot met 'n oë-rol tot orde geroep is. Maar boeke, het ek ontdek, kan jou die sleutel tot die kluis van 'n tieners se hart gee. Die regte boek - op die regte tyd, by gesê - kan die oorsaak wees dat jou tiener vir een oomblik vergeet dat hy/sy onder geen omstandighede in jou teenwoordigheid sal glimlag nie. Louis Pretorius se 'Kompleks' kan daardie boek vir jou wees. Louis Pretorius is 'n bekende en bekroonde regisseur met verskeie suksesvolle TV-reekse soos "Die Boekklub", "Fynskrif" en "Fraksie" agter sy naam. 'Kompleks', die roman, is 'n verwerking van die TV-reeks met dieselfde titel wat op Showmax te sien is. Kortliks gaan die storie oor Sean.

Hy was nog altyd gefassineer deur die heelal en alles daarin. Hy lê gereeld in die aande in sy bed en dink aan al die mense wat voor hom op aarde was. Hoe almal gepoog het om die heelal te verstaan: waar ons vandaan kom en waarheen ons op pad is. Die probleem is, jy weet nie wat gebeur met jou in die ander heelalle nie en die kans om hulle ooit te sien is skraal. Of nul. Sean hou duim vas vir 'n inter-meer-al-ruimtetewurm, maar al wat nou bestaan is hierdie heelal en hierdie realiteit. Om die waarheid te sê, hy dink hy het beland in een van die heelalle van 'n Sean wat beslis 'n fabrieksfout was. Maar hy ontmoet vir Mika en meteens is niks meer soos dit was nie. Altans, nie in hierdie heelal nie ... 'Komplek' is in die kol vir jong volwassenes en bevat temas waarmee hulle in besonder baie sal identifiseer. Die boek is nou beskikbaar en word deur Lapa uitgegee.

How is a woman supposed to cope?

by Christelle van Rooyen-Wessels

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - It's hard enough being an adult, let alone a functional one. Leigh-Anne feels like neither. A white woman from Cape Town's Southern Suburbs, she's gradually unravelling as wife, mother, sister, daughter and office manager. The story opens in winter with Leigh-Anne lost at midnight on Rondebosch Common. Three losses are preying on her. First, there's her relationship with her ageing dad, who seems to be hiding a secret. Secondly, Leigh-Anne's desire for Samuel, her thin and distracted psychiatrist husband, has run dry, and she can't help thinking about her colleague Omar at NGO Phambili - Omar with the hairy wrists and warm jacket.

The third area of loss is through a perceived betrayal of her activist best friend, Gwendal, whose increasing battiness alienates her teenage daughter. How is a woman supposed to cope? With chocolate and wine, of course, and by making plenty of lists... Leigh-Anne's children, Tom and Jamie, pipe up from the sidelines. They are oblivious as their mother grows fatter and drunker, her clandestine bingeing a backdrop to their lives. Leigh-Anne seeks refuge by ordering her world into threes and multiples of threes, which are presented as lists. Her lists corral her worries and failures but can't fix them. Looming large is the loss of a national dream, evident in the poverty all around them. In her search for answers, she will have to betray everyone she loves - only then can she truly come out of hiding. 'How to Hide Inside a Three' is Jane van der Riet's first novel. She grew up in Cape Town and joined the anti-apartheid struggle as a student. She has worked at the Social Change Assistance Trust, the Trauma Centre for Survivors of Violence and Torture, and as a student counsellor at the University of Cape Town. Jane still lives in Cape Town, where she practises as a psychotherapist. 'How to Hide Inside a Three' is published by Penguin Random House South Africa and will be available in shops and online from August.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The 1st of September is the beginning of spring, a new season after a dry autumn, and cold winter.

Desiree Holtzhausen would like to invite ladies to a women's camp on 1-2 September, with the theme: It's Time for a New Beginning ("Dis is Tyd vir 'n Nuwe Begin"). "What the Lord opened up in my spirit was that most of us all have been to a women's camp weekend and it's an amazing experience, we are so spiritually uplifted after such a camp, then its time to go home, back to reality, back to a husband who does not treat you well, and complains all day, broken marriage, children that are rebellious, unforgiveness, depression, anxiety, trauma, heartache ect and the list can go on and on. God wants to heal you from inside out, once you get rid of all old baggage, the next spiritual upliftment camp will surely make more of a lasting impact on you". This camp will be dealing with three main subjects: It's time to let go of your past, It's time to heal and become whole, It's time to face your future. Desiree Holtzhausen is the wife of Pastor Sakkie who started the first Biker Church in Rustenburg more than 14 years ago but has gone into a new season of Harvestime Fellowship, a place for emotional healing, labour to harvest the lost, and restoration. For more information please contact Desiree Holtzhausen at 083 309 5597.

Rys, maar gebraai

Mens raak effens moeg vir die gewone ou goeies voorberei. Boonop vertel jou kop jou mos ook dis tyd vir ietsie anders. Nou, daardie kere wanneer jy lus is vir iets, maar jy weet nie regtig vir wat nie, probeer rysballe. Dis nie moeilik om te maak nie, maar dis nou ook nie 'n gereg wat jy binne minute aanmekaar gaan slaan nie. As jy dus 'n uur of so op hande het, en jy wil jou huismense – of gaste – regtig bederf, is hierdie lekkernye nét die happies om te berei en voor te sit.

Diepgebraaide rysballe

Bestanddele:

- 1k ongekoekte rys
- Knippie sout
- 10ml paprika
- 5ml swartpeper
- 50ml botter/margarien
- 2k kookwater
- Klein ui, fyn gesny
- 1 knoffelhuisie, gesnipper
- 100g cheddar/goudakaas, in blokkies gesny
- 40g parmesaankaas
- 1 eier (geklits met bietjie melk)
- Droë broodkrummels
- Olie vir braai
- 1 glas wyn (eie keuse), vir die kok

Metode:

Roerbraai die uie, knoffel, rys en speserye. Gooi kookwater by en laat kook die rys soos gewoonlik – min of meer 15 minute. Rys moet al die vloeistof geabsorbeer hê. Laat koel effens af.

Klits die eier met 'n klein bietjie melk, voeg die kaas en rys by. Bedek en los in die yskas vir 20 minute. Sit die broodkrummels in 'n vlak bak. Maak balletjies met die rys en rol in die broodkrummels. Verhit die olie in 'n pan en braai die balletjies tot goudbruin (ongeveer 2 minute) Skep uit en dreineer op handdoekpapier. Bedien saam met 'n doopsous van jou keuse.

Roerbraai die rys in botter/margarien voor jy water byvoeg.

Die olie moet goed warm wees anders gaan die balletjies stukkend kook.

Dis belangrik dat die rys in ferm balletjies gerol word alvorens dit gebraai word.

'n Heerlike versnapering, of saam met 'n slaai 'n ete. Bedien die rysballe saam met 'n doopsous van jou keuse.

Bang vir hof - wat wou?

Vir Suid-Afrikaners was dit baie goed om te sien dat die berugte en veelbesproke agtal-blouligboeliebende van adjunkpresident Paul Mashatile vandeeweek hul rondstaan in die hof moes ken.

Sowat van lompe verduidelikings en verskonings het 'n mens lanklaas gehoor. Nie gewoond daaraan om aan die verkeerde kant van die "gereg" te staan nie en ook nie so lekker nie né menere?

Ja en dit is na jare se klagtes deur die publiek nou hoog tyd dat daar teen die polisie se blouligbrigades opgetree word - niemand kan in hierdie land net eenvoudig maak net wat hy wil nie - ja al werk jy vir die staatspresident! Maar nou moet ons vra.

Gaan ons nou sien dat lede en eenhede van ander blouligbrigades hulle aan hierdie "waarkuwing" steur en gaan daar 'n merkbare verbetering (reiniging) onder hierdie eenhede plaasvind, of is die hofverskyning net maar nog 'n poging van die regering om die gemoedere te paai maar uiteindelik die skuldiges te verskoon.

Dit is mos nou nie van gister af dat die ANC blameer word dat hy nog nooit teenoor magsvergrype en misdadigers in sy eie geleedere optree nie en dat mense wat hulle aan misdaad oor die algemeen skuldig gemaak het, skaars 'n week (of 'n maand) later, ongestoord van sy vervolging ontsnap. En hoe kan die ANC probeer om Suid-Afrikaners anders te oortuig?

Net vandeeweek (die afgelope naweek al) het die nuusblaai dit uitgeskreu dat die skelm, korrupte en onbekwame voormalige president van die ANCWL - Bathabile Dlamini - selfs na die vernedering van haar skuldigbevinding 'n jaar of wat gelede, steeds probeer om 'n plekkie op die soustrein te bekom/behou toe sy weer eens een van die kandidate vir hierdie belangrike posisie was.

Suid-Afrikaners het sekerlik 'n sug van verligting geslaak toe dit bekend word dat sy genadiglik toe nie die paal gehaal het en sy met 'n beledigende 170 stemme die aftog moes blaas.

Net so was dit weer eens die naweek die geval met die beoogde korrupsieverhoor van Zandile Gumede - voormalige e Thekwini uitvoerende burgemeester en deesdae groot kanon van die ANC in KwaZulu-Natal wat op dosyne en dosyne indien nie honderde nie, klagtes van korrupsie teregstaan. Die saak moes intussen weer eens uitgestel word omdat 'n belangrike getuie en fluitjieblaser doodsdreigemente ontvang het. En is dit nie ook maar wat Jacob Zuma, Ace Magashule en ag al die ander gedoen het nie... Soos water op 'n eend se rug sê ek jou...

No fear of prosecution

For millions of South Africans it was good to see the eight armed bullies and so-called "personal protection squad" of Deputy President Paul Mashatile slumping very uncomfortably in court earlier this week. So much of clumsy excuses and laughable explanations we haven't heard in a long time. "Afraid of the wrath of communities" they said behind Covid-19 masks as mediocre camouflage. (Couldn't they afford anything better - thought they were working for the elite "Presidential Squad"? And rightfully so, serves them right, get yourself another helping and feel how it feels to be at the "law's" receiving end of intimidation, abuse, violence and similar atrocities committed by people who thought they were untouchable!

But then again - how much is this going to contribute to members of blue light brigades becoming more respectful of the law, of the dignity of those who employ and pay them and who are able to conduct themselves in a disciplined manner, acting with restraint or caution, albeit in a professional manner. The message should be clear, in this country - no person - not even the President - can do as he pleases and that is the end of it! Still, for some people the court appearance serves as little else but a demonstration to put the public at ease, to calm the masses and to ultimately, get away with it. The ANC unfortunately, is not known for its eagerness to prosecute those from within their ranks who have committed foul. More often than not, it is more likely that we will see a serious perpetrator walking free from his prosecution whistling freedom chants without remorse. Worse still, how could the ANC convince South Africans to think differently?

Just this very weekend South Africans had to witness how former disgraced ANCWL President, Bathabile Dlamini, found herself among the candidates in the race for Women's League President after all that has happened. Really - has she no shame?

In KwaZulu-Natal it was more of the same with similarly disgraced former e Thekwini Executive Mayor Zandile Gumede - and now big gun of the ANC in KZN who is facing dozens and dozens if not hundreds of corruption charges turning up for her corruption trial only to be postponed since an important eyewitness and whistle blower in the case had been receiving death threats. And that readers, is basically exactly the same that Jacob Zuma, Ace Magashule, Supra Mahumapelo and almost countless others have done - it's like water rolling from a duck's back...

What's going "up" here?

The Editor

Over the past few weeks I have followed the "development" of Rustenburg's own "Big Hole" immediately across the Rustenburg Municipality's offices in Nelson Mandela Drive with renewed interest. Recent activities at the site have suggested something new to be erected here and I have thought it interesting given the new development of a major food outlet at the Waterfall Mall. Then I must admit - I also have an interest or special plan for that specific area and have been wondering how to come into contact with the developers/owners of these premises. During the past ten years the "Big Hole" has been rumoured to be anything from a new (old) fire station, a shopping centre, a new hotel in midtown, and whatever anyone could think of. Anyone with any ideas please? Incidentally, anyone with great ideas on a name for the development in case of a multi floor "skyscraper"? It's such a shame that the tallest building in Rustenburg is actually in the northern industrial area with the second tallest building an age-old hotel in Mandela Drive. Surely it couldn't be a new filling station, could it?

Boeliegedrag in die kleuter

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Wanneer 'n mens dink aan boelies op skool, dink 'n mens gewoonlik aan kinders in die laerskool, en veral die hoërskool, maar blykbaar vind boeliegedrag selfs in die kleuterskool plaas. Hoe weet 'n mens dit is nie net rof speel nie en wanneer word dit as boeliegedrag geklassifiseer? Hoe moet jy as ouer of onderwyser die saak hanteer? Afrikaans.com het met die vroeëkindertontwikkelingspesialis en eienaar van Oasis Club Learning, Yolandi van den Heever, hieroor gesels. Yolandi is ook die ontwikkelaar van die Afrikaans.com-kleuterkurrikulum wat deel uitmaak van hul splinternuwe leerhulpafdeling. Die definisie van boelie. Hoe lyk boelie? Kleuters en peuters is rowwe diamante en moet nog 'n begrip van reg en verkeerd aanleer. Op hierdie ouderdom is hulle boonop redelike selfsugtige mensies en is dit ook 'n baie natuurlike verskynsel. Kleuters en peuters speel rof, hulle stamp en skater en lag. En soms bly ander kinders in die slag. Daarom moet ons onderskei tussen die boelie en die rofspeel wat deel is van normale groeigedrag van die kleuter.

- 'n Boelie is egter iemand wat iemand anders seermaak.
- Hierdie boeliegedrag word oor 'n tydperk herhaal (teenoor dieselfde persoon).
- Daar is 'n magswanbalans tussen die partye.
- Boeliegedrag kan fisies, emosioneel of sosiaal wees.
- Emosionele boelies fokus op verbale boeliegedrag (dink aan die tipiese wê-wê-wê-wê-wê singdreunkreet).

- Sosiale gedrag sluit in die uitsluiting van 'n kleuter uit speletjies of aktiwiteite.
- Ouers moet nooit 'n kind se klagtes ignoreer of minag nie. Kyk uit vir tekens soos:
- jou lewenslustige kind wil nie meer skool toe gaan nie,
- jou kind wil nie vertel saam met wie hy of sy gespeel het nie, en
- jou kind soek verskonings om nie deel te neem aan aktiwiteite nie, veral by die skooltjie.

Indien jou kind 'n slagoffer van boeliegedrag is, kan speltherapie van hulp wees. Luister na jou kind en let op na jou kind se gedrag. Hier is dit baie belangrik om seker te maak dat die gedrag werklik voldoen aan die vereistes van boeliegedrag. Mens moet baie versigtig wees om veral kleuters te etiketteer. Dit is 'n ouderdom waar kinders impulsief optree en sonder voorbedagte rade of skroom iets doen sonder om werklik aan die gevolge te dink. Larries borg 'n "berg" Bybels

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - As oudste skool in Rustenburg het die 102-jarige Laerskool Rustenburg (Larries) besef hoe bevoorreg hulle is.

Met die herdenking van die Bybel in Afrikaans vir die afgelope 90 jaar (2023) het hulle besef dat oud-Larries vir minstens 12 jaar nie so bevoorreg soos hulle was om 'n Bybel in hul Moedertaal te hê nie. Daar is summier besluit om 'n grootse poging aan te wend om in hierdie feesjaar fondse in te samel om vir minderbevoorregte kinders 'n Bybel te gee. Die aanvanklike oogmerk was dat elke klas probeer om 'n standaardhardebandbybel te borg.

Kartonboksies is in klasse uitgedeel en onder die Larries het die wens ontstaan dat die seuns en meisies van elke klas onderskeidelik 'n Bybel borg. Gou-gou is daar elke dag munte skool toe gebring en die boksies het vinnig gegroei. Na 'n week is albei bussies in elke klas getel en groot was die verbasing toe al 36 klasse van Larries elk genoeg geld bymekaar gemaak het om twee Bybels te borg. Altesaam 78 Bybels kan na dese danksy hierdie mooi poging versprei word. Larries bedank elke ouer, leerder en onderwyser vir hulle ywer en geesdrif om só God se Woord te versprei. Ons is opreg dankbaar dat ons die blye Boodskap aan 78 ander kinders en hul ouerhuise kan versprei. Die mooi bedrag wat ingesamel is, is oorhandig aan ds Johan Bezuidenhout - ambassadeur van die Bybelgenootskap in Rustenburg. Vir verdere bydraes deur ander belangstellende groepe of instansies kan daar na 084 514 1092 geskakel word.
