Pap en kaiings, ander feestelike happies lok rekordgetalle

Die Buffelspoort Karnaval wat die afgelope nagenoeg sewe, agt jaar reeds deur die Rustenburgse Gemeenskapskerk by die gewilde ATKV Buffelspoort-vakansieoord digby Marikana aangebied word, het vanjaar behoorlik uit sy nate gebars en in alle waarskynlikheid rekordsyfers van die afgelope drie jaar oortref. Totaal vergete is die beperkinge en beproewinge van die vorige twee jaar toe Covid-19 sy septer oor alles wat wou woeker geswaai het. Te oordeel aan 'n stampvol Buffelspoort-vakansieoord, wag Rustenburgers en besoekers van omliggende areas nou al baie lank om die hare te laat hang en behoorlik fees te vier. Die mooie klompie mense wat hierbo aan een van talle lekkernye tydens die karnaval wegval, is (van links) Derick, Marli en Rentia Visser, Nerina Odendaal, Rialet en Tiané Visser. Sien nog foto's van die Buffelspoort Karnaval op p13 van hierdie uitgawe. (Foto: Waldie Volschenk).

SA economy contracts on intensifying power outages - GDP contracted 1.3% in the last quarter of 2022

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Reserve Bank estimates that the electricity crisis will shave 2 percentage points off output growth in 2023.

South Africa's economy shrank more than expected in the fourth quarter, when the state-owned power utility intensified rolling blackouts that continue to put a dampener on output. Gross domestic product contracted 1.3% in the three months through December, compared with upwardly revised growth of 1.8% in the previous quarter, Statistics South Africa said Tuesday in a report released in the capital, Pretoria. That's the biggest contraction since the third quarter of 2021, when deadly riots, looting and arson disrupted supply chains, industrial output and demand for manufactured goods. The median of 12 economists' estimates in a Bloomberg survey was for a 0.4% slump.

New legs for Rustenburg’s Morné

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A well-known couple in Rustenburg and proprietors of a similarly well-known and popular restaurant in town are looking forward to a new and bright future with rejuvenated hope after Jacaranda FM's Morning Angels have reached out to help the family with much needed assistance during a time of crisis.

Morné and Mariëtte Coetzer are well known and loved members of the Rustenburg community. They are also known for helping other people who and where they can.

But this time, the Coetzers were the ones in need.

Tragedy struck when not only Covid-19 seriously affected the couple and their family but when Morné became the victim of a serious flesh eating bacteria that resulted in him losing both his legs below the knee. This indeed was a tragedy as Morné not only provided for himself and his wife Mariëtte, but for an entire family of 11 people including the couple's two sons, both their mothers, Morné's aunt, their godchild, Morné's sister-in-law and her twins. Sadly they have lost Morné's brother due to a heart attack in November 2021.

This Morné and Mariëtte have achieved by running a popular pub and grill outlet (Hunters Pub & Grill) in addition to their individual day jobs as well. To make matters worse, Morné lost half of his day job income due to Covid 19 but this didn't prevent him from paying the salaries of his staff at the Pub & Grill outlet.

Things really changed for the worse when in August 2021, Morné developed sores on his legs and by the end of the year (2022) these were so bad that he ended up in hospital and both his legs being amputated at the knees.

Literally overnight the family was faced by severe challenges in providing for their extended family. To top it all, Morné was desperately in need of prosthetic limbs while needless to say, the hospital bills were also piling up. Fortunately, the family's plight did not go unnoticed when a good Samaritan came forward and offered to make prosthetic legs for Morné at the vastly reduced price of R60 000 per pair. In addition, a group of artists who have been supported by Morné at his Pub & Grill organised a fundraising campaign to help him in his hour of need. Furthermore, several people (including Mariëtte and Pierre de Beer) immediately wrote to Jacaranda FM's Good Morning Angels with a cry for help. The couple and all their supporters were elated when the wonderful news came that Jacaranda FM's Morning Angels would assist Morné with an amount of R60 000 for the prosthetic limbs while Morné's friend Pierre de Beer also pledged R10 000.

Ultimately, all is well that ends well the saying goes, Morné and Mariëtte wish to thank Jacaranda FM's Morning Angels, all those who have pledged contributions towards the campaign and especially Pierre de Beer for their selfless sacrifices in reaching out to others who need it most.

Morné and Mariëtte Coetzer who can now face the world and its challenges with rejuvenated hope after two traumatic years.

Die hele land het sowat twee weke gelede notisie geneem van ‘n jong man wat sy oog op Hollywood het. De Wet du Toit, wat as kind in Pilanesberg gewoon het, staan deesdae bekend as die Tarzan van George. De Wet wys sy lewe daaraan om Tarzan in elke sin van die woord te wees en hoop om ‘n filmmaker se oog te vang sodat hy dié rol ook op die grootkerm kan vertolk. Maar wie het eintlik Hollywood nodig as jy reeds miljoene volgelinge op TikTok het? Boonop is daar nou Sondagaande op Kyknet (Kanaal 144) ‘n reeks, Tarzan van George, waarin hy verskyn. Verhoor van oud-onderwyser begin RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die voormalige onderwyser wat daarvan beskuldig word dat hy 'n tienerseun gemolesteer het, het verlede week weer in die hof verskyn.

Die man, wat verbonde was aan een van die stad se vooraanstaande laerskole, is reeds in 2021 in hegtenis geneem in verband met die beweerde molestering van die 14-jarige seun.

Die vermeende pedofiel, in sy veertigs, is aangekeer nadat die ma van die tiener op inkriminerende boodskappe op sy foon afgekom het. Volgens die polisie het dit toe aan die lig gekom dat die man toe reeds 'n geruime tyd - sedert die seun 13-jaaroud was - 'n onbehoorlike vriendskap met die kind gehad het.

Tydens sy hofverskyning Dinsdag (28 Februarie) is die saak tot 8 Mei uitgestel.

Sy borg van R4000 is verleng tot en met sy volgende verskyning.

Aanval op dokter skok

RUSTENBURG HERALD – RUSTENBURG – Slegs enkele maande nadat haar lewensmaat, Frans Venter, op ‘n plaas buite die dorp vermoor is, is ‘n dokter daar deur vyf mans oorval.

Volgens inligting tot Rustenburg Herald se beskikking was die dokter Vrydagoggend (3 Maart) op pad terug plaas toe, toe sy by die hek deur vyf mans, wat haar voorgelê het, oorrampel is.

Hulle het by haar in die voertuig geklim en gedwing om na haar woning op die plaas te ry.

Voor hul by die huis in is, het al vyf glo plastieksakke oor hul hande getrek. Die dokter se groot, kwaai honde is met stokke toegetakel en verwilder sodat die diere heeltemal getraumatiseer is.

Die vyf, blykbaar almal buitelanders, het daarna die huis deursoek. Hulle het toe gevra waar haar lewensmaat, Frans is. Sy het hul die houer met sy as gewys.

Na wat verneem word, is sy deur die mans aangerand alvorens hul haar VW Touareg se dokumentasie geëis het en met dié motor op die vlug geslaan het.

Die mans is blykbaar opgemerk toe hulle omstreeks 09:30 Vrydagoggend in die rigting van Majakaneng in die Touareg – registrasienommer KLG 940 NW – op pad was.

Rustenburg Polisiewoordvoerder, kapt Elsabé Augoustides, het die voorval bevestig.

"Die polisie ondersoek die insident en klagte van huisroof en motordiefstal is geopen," het kapt Augoustides gesê.

According to Rustenburg Police spokesperson, Capt Elsabé Augoustides, three men entered the Ackermans that morning.

The other two robbers were already there with other staff members.

After taking the 300 cellphones, the robbers forced one of the staff members to open the back door and the three fled with their loot.

Rustenburg Police are investigating a case of armed robbery.

Implats shares dive as it reports lower interim profit after power cuts, furnace rebuild

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Impala Platinum (Implats) shares dropped by almost 8% yesterday after the miner reported a 2.1% drop in half-year profit due to power cuts and a furnace rebuild, which negatively impacted the production of platinum group metal. (PGM).

The shares slid to an intra-day low of R159.39. They have fallen by 40.99% in the past year.

In its results for the six months ended December 31, 2022 the group said basic and headline earnings increased by 1% both to R14 billion. Basic and headline earnings per share of 1 648 cents per share and 1 654 cents per share were 3% and 2% lower, respectively. It declared an interim dividend of R4.20 per share amounting to R3.6bn, a 20% decrease from last year's R5.25bn.

Implats reported a 4% increase in revenue to R57.8bn, while net profit increased by 3.1% to R14.8bn. More on this Implats expects higher interim earnings despite load shedding Mining sector's top three challenges: Eskom, Transnet and Russia invading Ukraine

Implats earnings down, but the company has big plans ahead Implats CEO Nico Muller said: "The group's financial performance was supported by a robust rand, PGM pricing and destocking refined metal inventory to offset the impact of lower refined volumes, but was hampered by broad-based inflationary pressures and a marked rand depreciation."

Looking ahead, Muller said the operational focus for the remainder of the 2023 financial year was on ensuring stability at its South African mining and processing assets during an expected period of inflationary pressure, persistent load shedding, and recommissioning of its refurbished Number 4 smelter in Rustenburg in the fourth quarter of the 2023 financial year.

However, Implats warned that project activity and capital spending were set to increase in the second half of its 2023 financial year. In the reporting period, the miner's refined output declined 9% to 1.476 million ounces from 1.617 million ounces in the same period last year. Smelting capacity was constrained by increased (electricity) load curtailment and the scheduled rebuild of the Number 4 furnace in Rustenburg, which started in late November, 2022.

It delivered sustained production momentum and saw strong demand for its primary products in the reported period, amid a robust rand PGM pricing environment, mitigating the financial impact of broad-based inflationary pressures, it said. The benefits of a geographically diverse production footprint and initial contributions from its suite of growth projects countered the challenging operating environment, typified by high inflation and intensified utility-level power constraints in South Africa, it said.

Implats said the global macroeconomic backdrop was generally expected to become more benign in 2023.

"PGM markets are expected to tighten during 2023, as auto production progressively recovers from recent supply chain constraints, China moves away from its zero-Covid policy, and industrial demand remains resilient.

"The risk to primary global supply has been elevated by the escalation in load curtailment in South Africa and logistical and supply chain constraints in Russia. Secondary supply should deliver modest growth, but remains vulnerable to rising funding and freight costs, constrained processing capacity, and weak auto sales in developed markets," it said. Muller said Implats was committed to rigorous stakeholder engagement as they navigated the changeable socio-economic environment in South Africa and Zimbabwe, and pursued the proposed acquisition of a majority stake in Royal Bafokeng Platinum.

Hospital opens new pharmacy

Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital opened a new pharmacy at the Mental Health Unit. The pharmacy is operational from 06 March and will solely service patients and mental health care users only. The operating hours are 07:00 -16:00, Monday to Friday. The addition of another pharmacy in the hospital forms part of the multi-disciplinary team approach in accelerating quality health care to community members and to a larger extend hospital patients. The pharmacy services 75 mental health patients - on average - daily and will also help in decongesting the Outpatient Pharmacy. In total the hospital now has three pharmacies.

Here are some tips to help you spot job scams:

Puoetsile Patrick Goliath (AMCU Full Time Health and Safety Rep), Dr Kebalepile Mokgethi (Managing Director from RBA), Dineo Modungwa (Director at Mmakgoge Group), Cllr Sheila Mabale-Huma (Executive Mayor), Mark Munroe (CE at Impala Rustenburg), Life Pilusa (AMCU Full Time Health and Safety Rep) and Tina Malau (Head of Stakeholder Relations) at Impala Rustenburg officially opening Impala Rustenburg's 16 Shaft new and expanded facilities.

R40 mil facility for Impala 16 Shaft

The expansion includes modern offices, a change house and lamp room facilities, which will contribute to improving 16 Shaft's morale, culture, efficiency and productivity.

The tender selection criteria required the successful company to be a local, women-owned business, and with significant industry experience. Local sub-contractors from mine-host communities were also employed for the project, further benefitting Impala Rustenburg's communities.

Mark Munroe, Chief Executive at Impala Rustenburg, expressed his pride in sharing the positive impact of the expansion, saying: "We are excited to announce the opening of our new facilities at 16 Shaft. This investment in our operations improves our efficiency and created opportunities for the communities around us. We remain committed to providing safe, sustainable and value-adding mining practices while also investing in the local business community to ultimately create a better future for all our stakeholders."

Kgomotso Motuku, Director at Mmakgoge Group, expressed her delight in the project, saying: “We were thrilled to be a part of this project with Impala Rustenburg. The opportunity allowed us to showcase our skills, capacity and quality of work. It is also positive that Impala is invested in providing opportunities that allow for gender diversity and women empowerment, and I commend the company for that.”

Speaking at the launch event on 1 March, Executive Mayor Cllr Sheila Mabale-Huma said, "There are many lessons to be learnt from Impala. They have taught me that you can't expect high levels of productivity if you don't take care of your workers. This new facility is testament to Impala's focus on ensuring that workers are happy. I am impressed by Impala's wall of fame, which motivates employees to come to work, work hard and do well. I am equally impressed with Impala's emphasis on ensuring that local communities benefit from procurement and tenders and that a woman in a construction business from a local community was awarded the opportunity to undertake this project." Cllr Mabale-Huma continued, saying, "We always fight with the mines when our local communities are not afforded an opportunity in this sector, however it is important to also give credit where it's due, hence as councillors we must inform and update our communities about the achievements received from the mining sector as well. Rustenburg is the economic hub of the North West province because of the mines. We all need to work together as the community of Rustenburg – understanding that we all belong to Rustenburg and we should strive for the best, just as Impala is."

"Impala Rustenburg's investment in the new 16 Shaft facilities underscores its commitment to responsible mining practices and supporting local communities. In the face of large-scale unemployment in Rustenburg and throughout South Africa, Impala Rustenburg's continued growth is a positive development. The Company is committed to building a sustainable future for the mining industry in South Africa, and ensuring continued investment in its local business community," concluded Munroe.

All you need to know about the budget 2023

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Finance minister Enoch Godongwana delivered the 2023 National Budget Speech on Wednesday, 22 February.

Perhaps a week or two after the annual budget speech has left South Africans with enough time to come to terms with the main points of this year's budget and to decide how you are going to approach your financial affairs. For those who still need a little time, here are the main points of the 2023 Annual Budget in a nutshell once again:

The budget touched on many points and topics, including the country's current economic standing, its growth estimates, the energy sector and the continual struggle to cope with the indebted power utility Eskom, new tax proposals and the social wage. According to Godongwana, since the 2022 budget, global growth estimates for 2023 have been revised lower.

"The International Monetary Fund projects global growth to slow from an estimated 3.4% in 2022 to 2.9% in 2023," said the minister. "Global economic risks remain high, including those related to the ongoing war in Ukraine, and could impede growth if they materialise."

For this year's budget, Godongwana said that government would maintain a prudent fiscal approach with a focus on bringing the deficit down without resorting to a hike in taxes or further cuts to the social wage and infrastructure. "The consolidated fiscal deficit is projected at 4.2% of GDP for 2022/23, and this will reach 3.2% in 2025/26," said the minister.

He said that government debt is very high, with gross debt stock projected to increase from R4.73 trillion in 2022/23 to R5.84 trillion in 2025/26.

Overall, the 2023 Budget allocates additional funding totalling R227 billion over the medium term.

Some of the biggest takeaways from the mid-term budget:

Eskom debt relief

The finance minister said that Treasury is proposing a total debt-relief arrangement for Eskom of R254 billion. He said that debt relief would be provided in two parts, namely:

* R184 billion – representing Eskom's full debt settlement requirement in three parts over the medium term.

* R70 billion – a direct take-over of Eskom loan portfolio in 2025/26.

As a result of the debt relief, Eskom will not require further borrowing during the relief period, said Godongwana.

Energy support package

In line with announcements made by President Cyril Ramaphosa in his latest State of The Nation Address (SONA), the finance minister said that there are two new tax measures to encourage businesses and individuals to invest in renewable energy and increase electricity generation in South Africa.

From 1 March 2023:

Businesses will be able to reduce their taxable income by 125% of the cost of an investment in renewables. Individuals who install rooftop solar panels will be able to claim a rebate of 25% of the cost of the panels, up to a maximum of R15,000. In terms of the rooftop solar rebate, he said that it could be used to reduce their tax liability in the 2023/24 tax year and is available for one year.

"From 1 March 2023, businesses will be able to reduce their taxable income by 125% of the cost of an investment in renewables," said Godongwana. The head of the Treasury said that in April 2023, it would launch the Energy Bounce Back Scheme, which will guarantee solar-related loans for small and medium enterprises on a 20% first-loss basis.

Revenue, retirement and tax proposals.

Under the 2023 budget, there were no major tax proposals – a welcomed change by consumers and businesses alike. According to the minister, the personal income tax brackets will be fully adjusted for inflation, which will increase the tax-free threshold from R91,250 to R95,750. Godongwana announced that to promote investments in renewable energy, the general fuel levy and the Road Accident Fuel levy will not be increased this year. "Medical tax credits will also be increased by inflation to R364 per month for the first two members, and to R246 per month for additional members."

"The retirement tax tables for lump sums withdrawn before retirement and for lump sums withdrawn at retirement will be adjusted upwards by 10 per cent. This means that the tax-free amount that can be withdrawn at retirement increases to R550,000," he said. In terms of retirement, from 1 March 2024, the new "two-pot" retirement system will be implemented. New draft of the legislation is in the pipeline, said Godongwana.

Grants

The department of Social Development has been allocated R66 billion of the national budget. In terms of the current social relief distress grant (SRD grant) that was intended to be temporary during the pandemic, a further R36 billion has been given for the extension of the grant until March 2024. The other R30 billion granted to the department will now be used for inflation-linked increases for other grants, such as the old age and disability grant and the childhood support grant, among more.

Updated increases in social grants are as follows:

- The old age grant will go up from R1,985 to R2,085
- The old age grants for those over the age of 75 will increase to R2,105
- Grants for war veterans increase to some R2,105 from R2,005
- Disability grants go up to R2,085
- The Foster care grant increases by 5.1% to R1,125
- Care dependency grants rise to R2,085 from R1,985
- Child support grants go up by 5.2% to R505
- Grant-in-aid rises to R505 – up by 5.2%

Public sector wage

The budget carries across the costs of the wage increase from 2022, said Godongwana; however, it now includes pay progression, a housing allowance and other benefits for civil servants. Speaking on the wage negotiations that have recently commenced, the minister said that the budget does not pre-empt the outcomes; however, the future wage must strike a balance between fair pay, fiscal sustainability and the need for additional staff.

Sin tax

The sugar tax saw little change in light of the difficult operating environment for the sugar industry – the health promotion levy remained unchanged.

Beer and other alcoholic beverages were, however, not as lucky. The government has proposed to increase the excise duties associated with alcohol and tobacco to 4.9% – in line with expected inflation.

Summarily, this means that a South African will pay this much more:

- 10 cents up on a 340-millilitre can of beer
- 18 cents up on a 750-millilitre bottle of wine
- R3.90 increase on a 750-millilitre bottle of spirits
- R5.47 up for a 23-gram cigar by R5.47
- 98 cents more on a pack of 20 cigarettes

Ambassador of America, Ernest Gibson handing over the certificate for best diplomat to Julia Mokgwetsi of Rustenburg at the Best Diplomats Turkiye in Istanbul recently.

Julia back from Turkey

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Julia Mokgwetsi of Rustenburg has been accepted as a participant of Best Diplomats Turkiye which took place from 24 - 27 February in Istanbul, Turkey.

Best Diplomats is a New York based International organisation which focuses on training and crafting Future Diplomats through Diplomatic Simulations. It serves as a platform for Young Leaders and Change makers to exchange ideas and resolve the most challenging global issues. These Diplomatic Simulations are an ideal avenue for aspiring Future Diplomats to grasp and grip the lobbying and critical thinking skill set that will enable them to become a better diplomat.

Julia Mokgwetsi of Rustenburg at the Best Diplomats Turkiye which took place from 24 - 27 February in Istanbul, Turkey.

Certification of documents at the Rustenburg SAPS

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The prevention of crime and the investigation thereof, is the core function of the SAPS.

However, the certification of documents also forms part of the scope of services rendered to the public. Quite a number of people who visit the police station in Rustenburg, come from other towns in the district and recently it is evident that the demand for certifications is ever increasing.

To ensure that the demand is met, Rustenburg SAPS have identified a side entrance for those who queue outside. This queue is in the shade, adjacent to the main building, ensuring protection against harsh weather. It is also safer to queue on the inside of the premises, preventing people from queueing around the street corner and pavement.

Certification is done as a secondary function and the public's co-operation in this regard is of the utmost importance. While the crime in the CBD area is of a main concern, understandably members on patrol will focus on preventing robberies and other serious crimes in this area. Fully functional, operationally trained members need to focus on prevention of serious crimes and the arrest of notorious criminals.

Alternatively, members of the public can have copies certified at the following places:

- * Lawyers or notary public (who are members of a recognised professional body)
- * Actuaries or accountants (who are members of a recognised professional body)
- * Members of the judiciary
- * Other State Departments, such as Home Affairs, The Rustenburg Local Magistrate's Court, the Post Office, as well as
- * Directors, managers or company secretaries of a bank or regulated financial services or business.

While nobody will be refused assistance, you might have to wait longer for services as members appointed in terms of the Police Act will be attending to crime prevention duties. A floor manager is appointed on each shift who will be moving up and down the queue to ensure that those who are there for purposes of affidavits, registering of dockets, as well as reporting of accidents, clearances and expungement, will be channelled to ensure the streamlining of the queue.

Preference will be given to elderly, pensioners, disable members of the community, visibly injured people who are challenged to walk or remain standing for long periods of time, expectant mothers, as well as those who have obvious mental and psychological challenges.

The certification of copies is done free of charge. You are kindly requested to bear in mind that the volume of people might restrict us from assisting with more than ten copies at a time.

Furthermore, you are requested to provide your own copies as SAPS cannot use the station's resources to make copies for members of the public. Copies will not be certified if the original document is not produced for verification purposes.

Members of the public are encouraged to use the services of their local police stations in this Cluster, as well as the other service providers within their localities.

The certifications are valid for a full three months period. Use your existing certified copies during this period before returning to the SAPS for new certifications

Rustenburg Station Commander, Brigadier Joël Pheto expresses his gratitude to the public for your understanding, as we remain committed to the rendering of a professional service to the Community, prioritizing the prevention of crime.

No less than three Councillors of the Rustenburg Municipality - Cllr Gert du Plessis, Ilse Edwards, Abri Rootman, as well as Mr Bernie Bruckner of Arendskloof Security complex and Chantél Niehaus of Santa Monica during a visit to the Arend Avenue Sewerage Disaster last Monday afternoon.

Arend Avenue spill now full-scale disaster - shouldn't it be declared as such?

Waldie Volschenk

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Rustenburg and in particular residents of Safari Gardens (not to mention Arendskloof Security Complex) find themselves in week seven of nothing but a Grade 1 sewerage disaster since a sewerage installation in Arend Avenue was damaged during what seemed to be a second cloudburst on Sunday, 29 January.

Since the sewerage spill was reported to the Rustenburg Municipality on 1 February, the problem has deteriorated into a full scale disaster which seemed to worsen with each attempt of the Rustenburg Municipality to rectify the problem. More than a month later residents and property owners of Arendskloof are fuming with rage and frustration. According to reports thousands of fish have died in Arendskloof's three dams while a rich bird life with several species of water birds have fled the area.

The Arendskloof Sewerage Disaster took a turn for the worse when the Municipality's Acting Director Technical and Infrastructure and the Unit Manager Sanitation on Monday, 20 February, reported that the RLM does not have the capacity to replace/repair the four meters deep sewage line between the intersection of Loerie and Arend Avenues and an open trench at Santa Monica town house complex. While hope has long ago diminished that the disaster could be repaired in a matter of days or definitely within a month, a pool of sewerage immediately in front of Santa Monica town house complex has in mean time turned into a overflowing sewerage dam up to eight to 10 meters in diameter from where the overflow finds its way towards a storm water culvert on the opposite side of Arend Avenue some 50 meters on to the Kgawane fountains and finally into the first of three pristine dams in the Arendskloof Security Complex. Over the past 12 to 15 days residents became increasingly adamant that the process to call in the help of a private contractor by mean of the so-called Supply Chain Management Deviation is choked in red tape and ineptitude.

Meantime Rustenburg Herald waited in vain for the Rustenburg Municipality's comment on the issue which we were promised by the former spokesperson, Thapelo Matebesi, only to be let down no more than minutes to our deadline and instead referred to the new spokesperson of RLM on barely her first day in office without any prior arrangement.

Meanwhile more and more reports of residents in and around Arendskloof and the two Santa complexes contracting gastro and more alarmingly, symptoms of cholera - are pouring in. Among these Ms Chantel Niehaus, Property Supervisor of Santa Monica and her 16 year-old son. A resident of Arendskloof who preferred to remain anonymous told Rustenburg Herald that his young son and daughter fell sick with gastro during the past week. Boitumelo Mareume, new spokesperson of the Rustenburg Municipality on rather short notice agreed to respond to our late enquiry as soon as she had gathered the necessary information.

Chantel Nienaus, Property Supervisor at Santa Monica town house complex told Rustenburg Herald that both herself and her 16-year-old son have been struggling with gastro as a result of the more than one month-old disaster in the area.

WOW!!

Classified online advertisement a winner!

Rustenburg Herald's online Classifieds Ads are a winner for anything big or small. Nothing beats the comfort and ease of use of our online Classifieds system and you will find it a useful "tool" to keep close to your working desk in future. In the times we are living in, it is also welcome news that it won't cost you a fortune and you don't have to be a "computer kid" to find your way around it.

Going to Rustenburg Herald on our website at www.northwestnewspapers.co.za, choose "Book a Classified"-subtle and follow the instructions. "Publish an advertisement of 15 words or less for free – going "bigger" will cost you only R1.50 for each extra word – you will agree that this is a ingenious marketing option. If you publish more than one advertisement per week, it will cost you R1.50 per word extra – voila!

Rustenburgtak sny gras in areas waar misdad seëvier

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die AfriForum-tak in Rustenburg het gedurende Februarie meer as vyf hektaar gras in hierdie dorp gesny.

Die areas waarop daar gefokus is, is misdadbrandpunte en sluit in die hoek van Kerk- en Heferstraat, die hoek van Bovenstraat en Helen Joseph-rylaan en die hoek van Kruger- en Bultstraat.

Die tak se doelwit vir hierdie jaar is om die hoeveelheid gras wat verlede jaar gesny is, te verdubbel. "Die Rustenburg-tak wag nie meer vir die munisipaliteit om op te tree nie, hul vat dit nou in hul eie hande om soveel as moontlik kernkwessies aan te pak. Hoewel daar heelwat onkoste aangegaan is om hierdie deurlopende aksies te dryf, kan hulle met trots sê dat hulle 'n reuseverskil in die gemeenskap maak. Die beplanning vir die volgende aksies word vooraf gedoen wat dan met ons lede wat handjie wil bysit, gedeel kan word," sê Armand Viljoen, AfriForum se distrikskoördineerder vir Marico.

Ngara Construction to the rescue

Verandering nie noodwendig verbetering nie

Terwyl daar in ANC-geledere waarskynlik 'n redelike mate van tevredenheid is dat president Cyril Ramaphosa nie te veel “skade” onder die heersende klompie kaders in die kabinet aangerig het met sy kwansuise kabinetskommeling van die afgelope week nie, is daar onder opposisiepartye en sommige vakbonde kwaai kritiek dat die president nie genoeg gedoen het om die kabinet van sy droë hout te suiwer nie.

Onder hierdie was natuurlik die twee toenemend ongewilde kabinetsministers Lindiwe Sisulu en Nathi Mthethwa, wat die langste onthou sal word vir hul onverdoeselde pogings om hulself en hul vriende te verryk met blatante “aftreeprojekte” soos Sisulu se belaglike maar super ambisieuse sokkerborgskap van die Britse Sokkerklub Tottenham Hotspur ten bedrae van 'n bykans ongelooflike R1 miljard en Nathi Mthethwa se selfs nog meer verspotte vlagpaalprojek ten bedrae van R22 miljoen waarmee hy gehoop het om weg te kom voordat hy 'n sekere uittoeg uit sy kabinetspos sou moes aandurf.

Maar vir kiesers is die teleurstellings dat Suid-Afrika streeds opgeskeep sal moet sit met die onbeholpe Bheki Cele as minister van polisie (Cele het groot steun in KwaZulu-Natal) en Nkosazana Dlamini Zuma wat vir nog baie lank onder Suid-Afrikaners ongewild sal wees nadat sy die land en sy mense tydens die Covid-19-pandemie op onsinnige wyse gyselaar gehou het met allerlei maatreëls wat weinig tot die bekampings van Covid-19 kon bydrae terwyl dit intendeel baie mense ontnem het van die geleentheid om tydens die beperkinge van Covid-19 ekonomies te oorleef. Sy sal natuurlik ook onthou word as 'n geswore ondersteuner van haar eertydse eggenoot - Jacob Zuma - en opponent van president Cyril Ramaphosa tydens die jongste rondte munisipale verkiesings in Oktober verlede jaar. Haar aanby in die kabinet kan weinig anders gesien word as net maar nog 'n poging van die “strategie” Cyril Ramaphosa om nie te veel steun uit ANC-geledere te verloor nie. Net so is daar groot teleurstelling onder baie Suid-Afrikaners dat Gwede Mantashe wat in alle waarskynlikheid in sy jarelange verbintenis tot die ANC, maar veral sedert hy kabinetsminister geword het, vir feitlik niks onthou sal word nie. Maar “bloed is dikker as water” lui die spreekwoord mos - so gepraat van kaderontplooiing. Wie weet nou nog nie dat Mantashe Ramaphosa se swaer is nie?

En terwyl ons nou van spreekwoorde praat: Ons kan nie help om te dink dat daar veels te veel verwag word van die nuwe minister van energie nie - hoe lui hierdie spreekwoord: “Een swaeltjie maak nie 'n somer nie” nê?

After calling on the Rustenburg Municipality for months if not years on end to repair bad potholes in front of our offices in 13 Coetzer Street, Rustenburg Herald finally realized that we were probably flogging a dead horse and called in the help of the private sector. Responding to our call was none other than Ngara Construction and Projects Pty Ltd who did a sterling job of fixing the entrance and exit areas immediately in front of our offices. “We were treated like trash”

Dear Editor
I am not happy with the service that I've received at the Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital. I went there with my aunt (79) and we were ill treated by the security guards. We arrived 01:30, the file was only opened a few minutes before 5:00 - and by 06:15 she was still not attended to. We did have a referral letter, and we gave this to the hospital staff. But it seems they decided to throw it away. While waiting with my aunt, a nurse decided to blatantly tell me that I have to leave the patient - who was not attended to for hours - and go wait in the waiting area. After that my aunt tried to go to a toilet on her own - and she fainted, seemingly much to the amusement of the nurses, security guards and doctors; they just laughed at us screaming and shouting for help.

I am not happy about this. I will make sure that my voice is heard about this.

I really feel we were treated like trash.

Goitse Lesele, Rustenburg, via email

Response from JST:
The Management of Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital has swiftly reacted to this allegation by instituting an internal investigation pertaining to ill-treatment done by the security guards. The hospital will be in contact with the complainant to redress and also establish what transpired and resulted in this ill-treatment.

The security services are outsourced hence the management of the security company will be held accountable for mistreatment of the patient by security officers.

Mechanisms have been set in place to ensure that patients are treated accordingly and personnel are obliged to wear their identification work nametags. The name tags ensure that patients can easily identify staff members inclusive of security personnel though it is an outsourced service. In every Unit, strategically mounted “Know who is in charge” depicting whom to raise your complaint against mistreatment. Quality Assurance Office is embedded with the responsibility to ensure that complaints are resolved and maintenance of set service standard and compliance off is effected. The hospital therefore, condemns any form of mistreatment and continuously ensures that staff members are compliant with Batho Pele Principles. Community Members are encouraged without fear to report any form of abuse and mistreatment levelled against them by our personnel or external service providers within the hospital.

Ms Gloria Thapi, Hospital CEO

Change not necessarily better

While among the ranks of the ANC there shouldn't be too much discontentment that President Cyril Ramaphosa has caused too much damage and disruption among the cadres with his reshuffling of Cabinet this week, some unions and opposition parties will disagree. From the ranks of the latter the general feeling is that President Ramaphosa hasn't done enough to rid Cabinet of the dead wood within its ranks. Among these are the increasingly dreaded and unpopular Lindiwe Sisulu and Nathi Mthethwa. It's no secret that both these Ministers will be best remembered for their unconcealed attempts to clinch for themselves quite lucrative retirement packages by enriching themselves and their friends during the final moments of their tenures in Cabinet, notably Sisulu's ridiculous attempt to clinch a sponsorship deal of an astonishingly extravagant R1 billion with the British Soccer Club Tottenham Hotspurs while Mthethwa will remain practically immortal with his R22 million flag post project preceding his long awaited exit from Parliament. With the departure of Sisulu and Mthethwa who were the architects of their own downfall, there is growing disappointment that the country will have to put up with the incompetent Bheki Cele - a man who for some inexplicable reason, enjoys great support in KwaZulu-Natal. As far as Nkosazana Dlamini Zuma is concerned, perhaps even more. There is little doubt that Dlamini Zuma will be remembered for a very long time for her pointless restrictions during the country's battle with Covid 19 pandemic. Not only did she introduce several measures of which the most couldn't contribute in any way towards the fight against Covid-19, but thousands of people felt neglected and abandoned because government has left them at the mercy of a Minister who couldn't care less for their efforts to survive economically during the peak of the disease in 2020. This will not be forgotten very easily.

Then it must also be said that to retain Nkosazana Dlamini Zuma in Cabinet can be little more than a strategy by President Ramaphosa not to lose too much support from within the ranks of the ANC, though she has made no secret of the fact that she is a staunch supporter of her former husband - Jacob Zuma. Of course, she was challenging Ramaphosa as leader of the ANC and President of the country during more than one previous clash.

Besides retaining Bheki Cele as police Minister, the biggest disappointment without a doubt is that of Gwede Mantashe, whose valuable contributions towards the country and its people in recent years basically account to nil. Remember when just about everyone were up in arms about cadre deployment in government recently?

The popular proverb goes: “blood is thicker than water” - is there anyone in the country who still doesn't know that Mantashe is Ramaphosa's brother-in-law? As for the appointment of a new Minister of Energy at obviously huge extra expense, well, the wisdom of this needs to be proved. Speaking of which, there is another proverb which says “One swallow makes no summer”, right? Makes one think, doesn't it?

Investing in education

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The South African Council for Educators (SACE) is a schedule 3A national public entity and professional self-regulatory body that was established in accordance with the SACE Act, no. 31 of 2000 as amended.

The vision for SACE in its 2020-2025 Strategic Planning period is to inspire a credible teaching profession. Thus, always seizing opportunities to document best practice from educators and stakeholders within the teaching profession to share their insights and challenges.

This Act mandates Council to provide for the professional registration of all educators; promote the continuing professional development of educators; and set, protect, and maintain ethical and professional standards in the teaching profession.

As a statutory professional self-regulatory body, SACE has an enormous role in setting and maintaining professional and ethical standards in the teaching profession, to protect the integrity of the profession and to safeguard public interests. Also, the ethical and professional standards contribute to teacher professionalism and reinforce public confidence and trust in the teaching profession.

In addition, SACE has heightened the process of professionalizing the teaching profession to enhance its standing, status, and internal quality across the teacher education and development continuum.

In addition, as part of ensuring that the education system and teaching profession have capable, quality, fit-for-purpose and reflective professional educators who are also lifelong learners, SACE developed a theory of change that will intensify the development and support of educators' participation in the Continuing Professional Teacher Development (CPTD) system.

This will also play an important part in improving educators' professional competence and contributing to the learning outcomes through the provisioning of SACE-endorsed professional development programmes by employers and providers. Equally, the established SACE virtual library will continue to support the President's reading priority through reading to serve the teaching profession.

Coupled with this, this year will see the public entity working collaboratively with the National Education Collaborative Trust (NECT) in taking the national reading coalition interventions to another level through the teaching profession.
