Arend Avenue almost done

G-om leerdertjies is reg vir die winter!

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - 'n Paar warmhartige inwoners van Wigwam Aftree-oord wat weekliks bymekaar kom om koffie te drink en te brei, het dit goed gevind om hul pragtige handewerk, naamlik kombesies, vir kleuters van die G-om projek te skenk.

Debbie van Wigwam sê: "Verlede jaar het iemand ons gevra of ons nie kombesies vir julle groep wil brei om in die winter oor die kindertjies se beentjies te gooi nie. Dit was regtig 'n spanpoging. Oorspronklik wou ons net 10 kombesies maak, later 26 en toe eindig dit by 36. Sommige dames het wol geskenk en gebrei, ander het gebrei of vasgewerk. Alles was met baie liefde gedoen. Ek is nie seker nie, maar ek dink die oudste dame wat deel was van die projek, is 84".

Die G-om span is dankbaar vir elke uitreik. Daar is iets vir elkeen wat betrokke wil raak by G-om om naaste liefde te wy. Kom word asseblief deel van 'n warmhartige omgee-span. Jy sal verbaas wees hoe dit jou lewe verander. # Prepaid consumers - time to “roll over”

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Consumers with prepaid facilities are herewith notified that inspectors/officials of the Rustenburg Municipality need access to your prepaid device for a so-called rolled over procedure in order to function faultlessly from 2024.

Municipal officials will visit various properties and leave a note if the residents are not at home. These visits can be scheduled for between 17:00 and 19:00 if preferred. Prepaid residents are advised to see the advertisement by the Rustenburg Local Municipality elsewhere in this edition. Remember - if your prepaid meter is not rolled over, you will not be able to load electricity as from 24 November 2024, Cllr Tanya Rothman of the DA in Ward 17 said. For more information contact F Mokalake on (014) 590 3432; 590 3434; 590 3428 or 590 3429.

Municipal Director in court over fraud

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A former director of the Moses Kotane Municipality appeared before the Mogwase Magistrate’s court for fraud earlier this week.

This followed her arrest on Monday (27 March).

According to Hawks’ spokesperson, Captain Tlangelani Rikhotso, the suspect was arrested by the Hawks’ Serious Commercial Crime Investigation for fraud. It is alleged that the suspect simultaneously occupied two government posts without her employer’s knowledge.

“It is reported that in March 2022 the former director of Moses Kotane Local Municipality applied for special leave. Her annual leave was supposed to take effect two months later, and she was to return to work towards the end of June. The suspect allegedly subsequently reported sick - thus failing to return to work,” Capt Rikhotso said.

He added that it later came to light that the suspect was also reportedly employed by the another government department during the period that she had reported sick. She allegedly received a salary from the municipality during the said period. Meanwhile the municipality appointed someone to act in that position during her absence.

The result of the director’s alleged illegal actions were that the municipality suffered a loss of more than a million rand.

Week starting with a bang

The week did not start well for the staff and owners of a filling station in town. The filling station in midtown became the latest target of robbers early on Monday morning (27 March). According to Rustenburg Police spokesperson, Sgt Ofentse Mokgadi, the service station on the corner of Thabo Mbeki Drive and Heystek Street were robbed at around 03:00. “An unknown number of armed suspects held the staff at gunpoint. They then went on to bomb the ATM,” Sgt Mokgadi told Rustenburg Herald. The Police are investigating the incident. At this stage, no arrests have been made.

Frans Venter murder: Do you know the truth?

RUSTENBURG HERALD - KROONDAL - “Someone knows. I must find that person. And then I can prove what the motive – the real motive - for my husband’s murder was.”

Doctor Tini de Boer, wife of murdered Frans Venter, is very certain that the incident in which the love of her life was killed, was not a house robbery gone wrong or even a farm attack.

“Everyone who knew Frans, knew that he was not an easy target. He was physically fit and strong, he was well-trained in the use of weapons – for attack as well as for defence. Frans, in short, was not the type of man one would choose to attack to make a quick buck or to get your hands on a few household items or clothing. If you attacked Frans, you were there with a plan.” Tini looks to the framed photo of a smiling, attractive man on the corner of her desk in her consulting rooms in Kroondal.

“This,” she spreads her hands out, “was his dream. He was passionate about making quality healthcare available to people who could not normally afford it.”

Tini then tells about their Non-Governmental Organisation (NGO) and the plans Frans had to open consulting rooms in less privileged areas; each with a qualified doctor and nurses. “He projected that, with the necessary funding in place, 10 of these facilities could be a reality by the end of 2023.” That projection, Tini says, is now a bit behind schedule. She hopes to continue with Frans’ vision.

But before that can happen, she wants to know the truth of his death, as well as the recent attack on her.

“The five men who came for me, was also not random. They had one reason, and that was to scare me, to intimidate me. But I am not afraid. They will not scare me.”

Tini tells how she normally leaves at a certain time every morning, but the day of her attack, she left earlier because she had a meeting elsewhere. “Yet, they were waiting for me. It proves to me that they had planned the attack and that they wanted to ensure they do not miss me by accident.” She recounts how five guns were pointed at her, while one of the men addressed her as ‘Doctor’ and told her they were not going to kill her. “Before the men fled in my vehicle, I told them I wanted to leave South Africa and for that I needed my purse and my passport. They returned these items to me promptly.” But, she confesses, she told her attackers a blatant lie. “I have no plans whatsoever to leave the country, and definitely not the farm. The farm is part of my treasured life with the man who was more than a husband; Frans was part of my core.”

Her husband, Tini tells, was a good person, a kind human being who gave pieces of his heart away as far as he went. “Why it is important to me that the masterminds behind the murder of Frans are brought to book, is because it is not just about me and what I’ve lost. It is about this community. If I give in to fear and intimidation and leave, who will be the next target?” She has no doubt that the actual farm – for reasons she is not yet sure off – is the prime motive for her husband’s killing.

“And those behind this is making a very, very big mistake if they think that, if something should happen to me, the farm will be up for grabs.”

Someone send her a message that came into their possession, which to Doctor Tini is yet another piece of proof that robbery was not behind her husband’s death. “In the message, there is this one sentence, and every time I read it, it sends shivers down my spine. The sentence reads: ‘Potential witnesses are threatened with their lives. Therefore silence reigns.’ Whoever is behind this – and I do have some ideas – is powerful enough to exhort this kind of force.”

A reward of $2000 – about R37 000 – is being offered by an American friend of Frans.

The reward is strictly for information that will lead to the arrest and prosecution of the person, or persons, who orchestrated the murder on Frans. “Yes, of course I want the doers of the deed prosecuted. But that’s not enough – I want to see the mastermind paying for what he has done.” The community is at stake, she reiterates. “If we unite, we can root this evil out. Frans, I’m sure, is not the only casualty of the sinister powers at work here. If we do nothing, then wickedness wins.”

The Broken Chain

We little knew that day.
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly. In death, we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone. For part of us went with you.
The day God called you home. You left us beautiful memories. Your love is still our guide. And though we cannot see you. You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken. And nothing seems the same. But as God calls us one by one.
The chain will link again.

Pat on the back for Police

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A woman's horrible feeling after becoming a victim of crime turned into happiness when she received a call from the police.

The woman's vehicle was broken in to and thieves made off with her belongings. She reported the incident to Tlhabane Police. That same Saturday night (18 March) the police received a tip off of a suspect, armed with a fire arm, who was roaming Lefaragatlhe Village near Tlhabane. On arrival, the police found a Zimbabwean man and demanded to search his room. The police then discovered identity documents, mine access cards and a toy firearm that appears to be real. The suspect was arrested for possession of suspected stolen property. When the police attending to the incident returned to the station and briefed the Station Commander, Colonel David Moagi, something rang a bell. He remembered that a lady earlier opened a case of theft out of motor vehicle. The man just arrested was questioned and police learned that he had an accomplice, also a Zimbabwean national. The arrested suspect took the police to where stolen items were sold by him and his accomplice. There the police found and recovered items reported stolen by the woman, including her laptop. The man who alleged bought the laptop, was also arrested and charged with receiving stolen property. All three suspects appeared before the Bafokeng magistrate court on Wednesday (22 March). "I cannot thank the Tlhabane Police enough for their hard work," the relieved lady said in a letter.

SAPS pray for peaceful Easter

Rustenburg Police members took part in an Easter church service. (Photo: SAPS)

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Various church congregations around the area were invited to share in a special Easter celebration church service.

The South African Police Service spiritual services, in conjunction with the Bojanala Platinum Sub-District 2, led by the acting District Commissioner, Brig Mamotsamai Ntoagae hosted the church service. The Easter service was held on 16 March at Moruleng near Mogwase. Both the SAPS Chaplains and the invited pastors shared the stage in delivering the message with the theme "The seven words of the cross". Brig Mamotsamai Ntoagae praised and thanked the congregations for attending and praying with the Police, especially seeing that the majority of police members will be on duty during the Easter period.

Arend Avenue almost done

Waldie Volschenk

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - It is easy to understand why former contractors have struggled in vain for more than a month to get the better of the Arend Avenue Sewerage disaster MCivils spokesman, Anton Vogt told Cllr Ilse Edwards - DA Councillor for Ward 15 and Rustenburg Herald in a short progress reports on the Arend Avenue Restoration project earlier this week.

“Under normal conditions it actually should have been quite straight forward to do the necessary repair work”, Vogt said. The fact that the pipeline was more than six meters deep and offered extremely limited space to work on electricity, a surrounding wall, a double storey town house complex only a few metres from the pipe line, have severely impacted on the project.

The fact that natural earth and soil that have been moved around repeatedly with increasing volumes of water siphoning through, made the problem all the more complex, Vogt said.

MCivils has nonetheless approached the challenges in a systematical way phase after phase while we have done our very best not to interrupt water or other services to residents in the area. Of course we were well aware of the fact that residents in the area have been inconvenienced for a very long, if not intolerably long time - hence warnings at least one of two days in advance when interruptions were unavoidable. “It think we have been very good at communicating with residents about the progress of the project. Helping residents to understand what the challenges are, always makes it easier to work with them and to have their co-operation”, Vogt said.

This was in stark contrast to the deafening silence Rustenburg Herald has received from the Rustenburg Municipality from day one of the disaster and the restoration project since, despite several inquiries and invitations to respond. In fact, the only single “contribution” or interest from the side of the RLM was when an “employee” or “senior foreman” or the like driving a RLM vehicle stopped at the scene where Rustenburg Herald was taking photographs of the still quite small sewerage dam developing in front of Santa Monica town house complex to reprimand Rustenburg Herald for its audacity to take pictures of the scene “without authorisation”. Almost two months later it was quite clear why the gentleman was not pleased by the RLM performance - no matter from which side one looks at it?

Usually the ruling party is so good at talking?

In conclusion Vogt said MCivils wished to thank Deonak for their willingness to come to our aid on short notice and we thank all resident for their patience over the past few weeks. By Wednesday, Thursday of this week, we would have reached to closing stages of this project with probably only the resealing of the road surface in Arend Avenue to be completed. Keep watching Rustenburg Herald for regular updates on the project.

Arend Avenue shortly after 16:00 on Monday afternoon. The reopening of Arend Avenue to normal traffic was a welcome development.

'n Lewe op straat sit nie
in almal se broek nie

Waldie Volschenk

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - “Nee oom, die winters in Rustenburg is veel beter as die somers. Sjou dit word vreeslik warm en die son brand ‘n mens se klere flenters as ‘n mens so in die son moet staan en hoop op ‘n ietsie om te eet en dalk ‘n geldjie vir iets wat jy nodig het”.

Só sê Mornê Naudé, vir baie motoriste 'n bekende gesig waar hy soggens en smiddae meestal by twee prominente kruisings op die R24 staan met 'n bordjie op sy bors waarmee hy vra vir 'n bietjie ondersteuning terwyl die motors in spitstye die een na die ander by hom verbyflyt.

En gesels 'n mens 'n bietjie met Morné kom jy sommer baie vinnig agter dat die jongman baie welsprekend is, vlug van begrip en dit laat allerlei vrae by 'n mens opkom oor hoekom hý juis hiér sou staan. "Nee oom, ek is nie nog maar altyd 'net 'n boemelaar nie" (is enigiemand ooit?) dit het in 'n stadium goed gegaan met my - ek is in Pretoria gebore en het in die Kaap grootgeword maar ja, die lewe het erg begin verkeerd loop en voor jy jou kan kry is alles buite beheer en spat families uitmekaar. Morné het 'n vrou en 'n kind met wie hy nie gereelde kontak het nie - die familie is nie meer saam nie. Daar is ook 'n broer en 'n suster. 'n Mens wil nie onsensitief wees deur nog vrae te vra nie - uitmekaar gesinne en families is maar altyd 'n hartseerstories.

“Ek is omtrent al 12 jaar in Rustenburg, maar dit is eers sedert die koms van Covid-19 dat my probleme begin vererger het. Ek is maar die laaste drie, vier jaar op straat. Toe Covid op sy hewigste was het ek in ‘n stadium by ‘n boer gewerk waar ek oeswerk gedoen het, maar toe die werk klaar is moes ek maar weer aanbeweeg en ek het teruggekom Rustenburg toe. As ‘n mens se situasie eers so versleg het dat jy op straat is, is dit sleg en baie moeilik om ‘n terugkeer tot die gemeenskap te maak. In die eerste plek het baie ouens in my posisie nie geld vir ‘n behoorlike woonplek, kos en klere nie en omdat jy maar die hele dag in die warm son staan, lyk jy ook nie aldag op jou beste nie. Selfs wanneer jy gelukkig is om ‘n werk los te slaan, is dit nie maklik nie - mense kan nie verstaan dat jy nie noodwendig elke dag skoon gewas en geskeer met skoon en blinkgestrykte klere by die werk aankom nie. So in baie gevalle hou dié gelukkie nie baie lank nie.

Natuurlik eet 'n mens ook nie gesond nie. “Mens stop maklik by jou en gee jou 'n brood. 'n Mens is altyd dankbaar, maar met 'n brood en 'n stukkie vleis kan ek basies niks doen nie”. Morné het las van 'n ernstige maagseer en eintlik is sy behoeftes meer in die vorm van die bekende Lennons-produk, “Turlington” en kondensmelk - 'n uitstekende kombinasie in tuismedikasie vir mense wat met 'n maagseer sukkel. Vir mense wat werklik hoop om iemand soos in my situasie se lewe te verander, moet jy in staat of bereid wees om met werk en 'n blyplek te help. Só kom 'n ou op jou voete en dit gaan sommer na 'n week of twee al baie beter. En ja, altyd klere - 'n mens hou nooit op om klere nodig te hê nie - Morné is klein gebou, 'n medium-hemp en 32-broek sal hom reg sien - dalk is daar 'n paar vergete nommer agt-skoene of sokkies êrens in jou kas?

“Wat sê die ander manne waarvan ‘n mens deesdae al hoe meer in Rustenburg

Morné Naude - 'n bekende gesig op die R24-kruisings wat oor die afgelope maand of wat elke week se Rustenburg Herald verkoop. Morné het tans nuwe hoop nadat hy 'n werk gekry waar hy op 4 April sal kan inval. Rustenburg se mense wens hom voorspoed toe.

goed, selfoon, bietjie geld, kos en klere, gesteel. Dan is dit 'n groot stryd om weer regop en aan die gang te kom. Dit is omdat 'n mens meestal nie 'n permanente, veilige woonplek het nie dat jy maar elke dag jou bondeltjie moet pak en moet saamneem “werk toe” - jy weet nooit waarheen die lewe jou gaan lei nie”.

'n Goeie wending was toe hy 'n maand of wat gelede begin het om Rustenburg Herald-koerante op die straathoek te verkoop. Dit stel hom in staat om minstens een dag van die week op 'n behoorlik geldjie staat te maak. "Die mense van die Herald het my vreeslik baie gehelp - ek is baie dankbaar!" In die laaste week of twee is daar 'n bietjie meerhaal by Morné. Hy het 'n werk gekry maar sal eers 4 April kan begin, so nog net 'n paar dae dat ek hoef te "oorleef" en dan is ek hopelik weer ok - oe oom, ek hoop so om weg te kom van hierdie lewe af. Baie dankie aan al die mense van Rustenburg wat my die afgelope paar jaar al help met 'n geldjie by die verkeerslig, 'n stukkie klere om aan te trek, dalk 'n baadjie in die koue wintersmaande en ja, daar is eintlik niks wat 'n mens nie nodig het nie". Dan vat hy sy bordjie en is terug op sy gereelde plekkie. "Rustenburg Herald, Rustenburg Herald hier te koop - net R5". Goeiemôre mnr/mev - lekker dag vir jou!

Hijacker crashes into wall

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - After a highspeed chase and a collision with a guesthouse wall, the driver of a blue BMW was arrested.

Early on Monday evening (27 March) Police received information regarding a suspicious vehicle being spotted around Seraleng and Zondela. Members of Crime Intelligence and Public order responded.

The police got the blue BMW without registration plates in sight in the vicinity of Meriting and started following the vehicle. The driver of the BMW noticed the Police and tried to shake them off. But in his haste to get away, he lost control over the vehicle and crashed into the wall of a guesthouse at Million Dollar.

The driver got out of the vehicle and attempted to avoid the long arm of the law, but without success.

He was arrested, and when Police checked the vehicle's Vin number, it was discovered that the BMW was stolen during a hijacking in Brits.

As the world commemorated International Women’s Day and Women’s History Month in March, Impala Rustenburg continued in its quest to support women in our mine-communities through partnerships with women-owned businesses like Phenyontle Projects.

Impala partners with Phenyontle Projects

Phenyontle Projects is a 100% black woman-owned business that specialises in Hospital Corporate Clothing. Owner Khumo Lorraine Boikanyo shares her story.

Q What motivated you to start the business?

A It is the passion I have for business. My mother is a trained seamstress and business is in my DNA. Growing up, we used to sell curtains door-to-door. I am driven by the need to inspire others, but most importantly, to add value to our society and to be independent. My 16 years of working experience at Impala Rustenburg, working both underground and on surface, equipped me with the skills and knowledge to confidently enter this market. Our country is truly alive with possibilities that can be grasped by those willing to enhance their skills and those with the willingness to escape their comfort zones.

Q How long have you been in business?

A Phenyontle Projects has been in business since 2018. Since its inception, the company has been providing excellent service to Impala, mainly in mining supply, and we have now been awarded our first official contract with Impala. This is very exciting and motivates us to continue pushing to deliver.

What has been your biggest success to date?

A It would be unfair for me to exclude the day we received our first Request for Quotation (RFQ) from the mine, which happened to be the day my late father passed on. Despite this sad coincidence, this contract from Impala has been the highlight of my entrepreneurial journey. It also came in the same week that Phenyontle Foundation was launched.

Those two projects have become the pride of our company. My wonderful team has been hands-on ever since to ensure that everything runs efficiently and smoothly.

Q What is your vision for the future?

A The future is always unpredictable, given the unstable economy we find ourselves in. However, I envision Phenyontle as one of the most recognised entities in its sector. Also being able to create jobs and upskill people from different spheres of the Bafokeng region and beyond, since we align ourselves with the “more than mining” philosophy. My vision is to be the change that I want to see.

Q What does the contract with Impala mean for your business?

A This contract is a door opener for every dream that other women might have, in terms of job opportunities and social development programmes. I would like to thank Impala for this opportunity; it shows how much they support local businesses with regard to skills development and growth.

For more information on Phenyontle’s services, call 010 443 6086 or email admin@phenyontleprojects.co.za

Small businesses do their bit

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A couple of local SMMEs visited a crèche to lend a hand by doing some necessary painting. They also treated the young learners and staff to a meal.

Dauda Sembatya, Kefilwe Sembatya (principal of the school), Lebang Mogale and Tebogo Maledu during the outreach day held on Tuesday (28 March).

Melkstal oop op Sondag 30 April

Sondae na kerk as pa die koerant toevou, het hy al meer as eenkeer gesug: “Vandag is tog ‘n spesiale dag, ek is lus vir ‘n bietjie stylvolle bederf - kon Melkstal nie maar een keer op ‘n Sondag oop gewees het nie! Wel, wonderlike nuus pa, ma en kroos - op Sondag, 30 April, hoef pa en die res van die gesin nie met die gewone spyskaart tevrede te wees nie! Kyk, ons weet ons mammas kan lekker kook, bak en bederf, maar jong, Die Melkstal bly maar net eenvoudig in ‘n ander klas en mammas wat gereeld die huismense hierheen bring om vir ‘n spesiale geleentheid om die tafels te koer, sal nie eers effens afgehaal voel nie. Kom dus nader ma, dat Die Melkstal vir jou ook op hierdie maandeinde ‘n onvergeetlike dag kan wees - bring die hele gesin en kom vier fees saam met al jou ander familie by Die Melkstal! Doen gerus navraag oor die spesialiteit op die spyskaart vir Sondag, 30 April. Ja mnr, mev, jy hoef nie skaam te wees nie - jy kan maar gerus vir ‘n woefkardoes vra, maar ons weet nie of jy een gaan nodig kry of by hom gaan uitkom nie! (224979)

How fasting during Ramadan can affect your oral health

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - As the month of Ramadan is observed, Muslims around the world fast from sunrise to sunset.

The spiritual benefits of fasting are well documented and emphasised, however fasting does have an impact on your oral health. When you're not eating or drinking, your mouth produces less saliva, which can lead to bad breath and other minor oral health problems which can be managed. Here's expert advice on what you can do to maintain good oral health during a fast.

Saliva is your natural 'mouthwash'. It helps wash food and plaque from the mouth and contains antibacterial agents. Fasting reduces the amount of saliva you produce. As the mouth becomes drier the bacteria that cause bad breath flourish.

Stopping water intake during the day exacerbates the problem as dead cells, plaque and debris is not being rinsed away. Fasting can also cause ketosis, when your body begins to break down fat cells for energy which releases ketones which can also make breath smell. Bad breath is a common concern for many Muslims during the month of Ramadan, but there are simple steps you can take to combat the problem.

Dr Ridhwaan Haffajee, specialist dental consultant for Ivohealth and director of Matrix Dental Specialists, provides expert tips on how to maintain good oral health during Ramadan: Regular oral hygiene and prophylaxis: Visit your oral hygienist regularly (every 6 months) or as advised to reduce and prevent accumulation of calculus and professional management of gingivitis.

Brush your teeth correctly at least twice a day: Gently brush your teeth for at least 2 minutes after suhoor (the pre-dawn meal before fasting begins) and after iftar (the evening meal to break the day's fast) to remove food debris and plaque as well as before bed.

Clean between the teeth before or after you brush:

Teeth brushing alone does not remove all plaque and food particles and those left behind will be a major cause of bad breath. Use floss or interdental brushes to remove plaque and food trapped between your teeth. There are many options available, such as GUM Expanding Floss, or Ortho Floss if you have orthodontic braces. If you don't like flossing, try GUM Soft-Picks, which are tiny, easy-to-use picks with super-soft rubber bristles or an interdental brush, like the reusable GUM Bi-Direction which has a 90-degree bendable head and antibacterial bristles. Clean your tongue: The tongue is one of the most common sources of bad breath. Gently use a tongue scraper, such as GUM's dual action tongue cleaner, which also has a brush, to remove food debris or bacteria on the tongue.

Use alcohol-free mouthwash after you brush: Using an alcohol-free mouthwash is vital as alcohol can dry out the mouth even more. I recommend Dentyl Dual Action because it contains antibacterial CPC and essential oils which hydrate and soothe oral tissue and provide superior plaque-fighting capabilities.

Rinsing with Dentyl has been shown to help remove 25 to 50% more plaque than just brushing, the added fluoride helps prevent tooth decay and fight cavities, and is clinically proven to help freshen breath for up to 12 hours.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Op Vrydag 17 Maart het die Pikkewynespan van die Magalieskruin Voortrekkers 'n spanbyeenkoms gehou.

As deel van hul Presidentsverkenner portefueelwerk moet hul die werking van 'n nooddiens navors. Jack en Marchant van ER24 het hul besoek en vertel van hul dienste en ook hoe lyk hul noodtoerusting en apparaat. Die Pikkewynespan kon ook gaan kyk hoe 'n ambulans van binne lyk. Baie dankie vir ER24 se bestuur om hierdie besoek moontlik te maak. Die Pikkewyne het ook darem 'n tydjie ingeruim vir pret en plesier in die swembad.

Rustenburg Herald Art competition - first of “new standard” entries received

The new “standard” of art works entered in our Rustenburg Herald Art competition. Artists are no longer required to work on the “blank space” previously printed in Rustenburg Herald and Bonus. Corlia Botha is the artist of this entry.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG
- We have recently announced an important change to the rules of the Rustenburg Herald Art competition.
From this year artists are no longer required to attach their entries (art works) onto the blank space regularly printed in Rustenburg Herald and/or Bonus as it is believed to somewhat restrict artists in as far as size is concerned. At the same time Rustenburg Herald would not necessarily have to sacrifice the, in fact, very much needed space of an empty/blank page to accommodate these entries. From now on artists are required to attach their works of art to THIS PAGE or use the page as your canvas to paint or sketch on. Make sure that the date and page number of THIS edition are still visible. To complete your entry, simply complete the entry form at the top of this page, attach it to your artwork and “post” your entry into the entry boxes at both participating Pick n Pay Stores - Pick n Pay Azalea Park, Greystone Crossing or Pick n Pay Lifestyle Square, Beyers Naudé Avenue in Midtown Rustenburg or at reception of Rustenburg Herald's offices in 13 Coetzer Street, Eastern Industrial Area, Rustenburg. Remember - two cash prizes of R1 000 each sponsored by Rustenburg Herald are up for grabs to the two quarterly winners with two extremely valuable Pick n Pay Shopping Vouchers to the value of R10 000 each are waiting for the two overall winners of the Rustenburg Herald Art competition. These prizes are sponsored courtesy Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé and Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing. Come on - get those entries rolling...

‘Pots de crème’ se vertaling uit Frans beteken letterlik ‘potjies room’. Dié naam vertel egter net ‘n halwe waarheid aangesien dit nalaat om aan te dui dat die smaak absoluut hemels is. Die eenvoud van die naam is egter ‘n ware aanduiding van hoe maklik dit is om hierdie romerige verleiding te maak. Jy het net so klein bietjie geduld nodig, want dis ewe maklik om die nagereg te verongeluk met ‘n té warm plaat en ‘n té warm oond – onthou, haastige hond verbrand sy mond!

Sjieff Johann Ludick van Under the Cherry Blossom wys dié week hoe om die allerlieflike ‘Pots de crème’ te berei – so in die kol vir Paastyd wanneer sjokolade mos aan die orde van die dag is.

‘Pots de crème’

Bestanddele:

- Stap 1:
580ml room
250g goeie gehalte donker –of melksjokolade (60-90% sjokolade)
80g suiker
100ml Espresso koffie, aangemaak
2 eetl Frangelico likeur

Metode:

Verhit stadig tot sjokolade gesmelt het terwyl jy deurentyd roer.
Let wel: Die mengsel MAG NIE KOOK NIE.

- Stap 2:
6 groot eiergele

Metode:

Voeg by sjokolademengsel en roer deur. Verhit.

- Stap 3:
Voorverhit oond tot 155°.

Gooi mengsel in ramikens (genoeg vir 6-8 ramikens)
Plaas ramikens in ‘n oondbak wat met kookwater gevul is en bak vir 45 minute.
Laat afkoel en plaas dan in yskas om deeglik koud te word – minstens drie ure.

Jy kan dié nagereg tot twee dae vooruit maak. Bedek net met kleefplastiek en hou verkoel.

Frangelico likeur se komplekse vermenging van haselneut, koffie, sjokolade en gedistilleerde vanilje-ekstrak is die rede hoekom hierdie heerlike goue elikser soveel delikate geur en smaak aan Johann se ‘Pots de Crème’ gee.

Ses eiergele sorg dat jy nie mielieblom hoef te gebruik om dié nagereg gestalte te gee nie.

As jy wil, kan jy die ‘Pots de crème’ met geklopte room of roomys bedien. Maar so op sy eie is hy klaar verruklik.

Al hoe meer “boere” doen sake

En hoe meer reën uitgesak het, hoe meer kopers het Saterdag by die tradisionele boeremark by die voormalige Rustenburg Skougronde opgedaag. Die afgelope naweek het die vyfde Boeremark hier plaasgevind en al hoe meer mense begin by die mark ‘n tuiste sien vir ‘n wye reeks hand- en naaldwerkprodukte, kos, skoonmaakmiddels, groente en vrugte en die lekkerste eetbederfies onder die son. Daar is na dese geen twyfel aan die herlewering van tradisionele markte in die Rustenburg-omgewing nie.

ANC vry na wit minderhede

In politieke geledere en veral natuurlik die ANC is dit sedert die naweek ‘n gegons van ‘n ander wêreld nadat ‘n ANC-dokument aan die lig gekom het waarin dit blyk dat die ANC van voorneme is om met die nasionale verkiesing van 2024 na die wit minderheidstem te vry. Hoewel die dokument vroeër vandeeweek nog as ‘n besprekingsdokument beskryf is, heers daar in ANC groot kommer dat dié party se beeld as nie-rassige party nie deur die samestelling van sy uitvoerende bestuur gereflekteer word nie. Daarbenewens is daar glo ook groot kommer omdat die party besef dat hy op die afdraende-pad is en dat hy waarskynlik ‘n haas uit die hoed sal moet pluk indien hy in die 2024-verkiesing nog naby ‘n 50%-meerderheid wil wees. Sjoe, dis darem maar laat in die nag dat die party nou ewe skielik daaraan begin dink om die hulp van hoofsaaklik wit minderhede maar ook die indiër- en bruin gemeenskap in te roep. Maar veral in eersgenoemde geval. En dit nou na dekades van ondenkbare korrupsie en skandale, die ineenstoring van Eskom en al wat eens betroubare, trotste instansie was, van vrot nasionale, provinsiale en plaaslike bestuur, na jare waarin die party as’t ware uit sy pad gegaan het om vir wit minderhede in Suid-Afrika te wys dat hulle nie vir hom belangrik is nie, trouens, dat hy hom nie eers aan hulle steur nie en dat daar op allerlei maniere teen wit minderhede gediskrimineer word, soos ten opsigte van Swart Ekonomiese Bemagtiging, Regtellende Aksie en deur op plaaslike vlak vir jare al ‘n beleid van selektiewe kredietbeheer toe te pas. Moenie ‘n fout maak nie - daar was baie liberaliste wat in die 1994 vir die ANC gestem het en mense wat veral na die totstandkoming van ons nuwe demokrasie besluit het om enige rasgedrewe ideologie die rug toe te keer. In die vroeë jare van die “Nuwe Suid-Afrika” was daar heelwat wit gesigte in hoë ampte en selfs in die kabinet. Onder Thabo Mbeki se termyn het die prentjie egter dramaties begin verander en dit was nie lank voordat die party oraloer bekend gestaan het as ‘n party uitsluitlik vir sy kaders nie. Waar party-lidmaatskap, lojaliteit, familie- en vriendskapsbande en soortgelyke “kwalifikasies” die Alfa en Omega in die party geword het en waarin werklik kundiges geignoreer is, indien nie verjaag is nie. Vandag wil ons vir die ANC sê - dit sal maar lol - maar kry vir julle! Kamerade - dink vir ‘n oomblik net aan die vaandeldraers van ANC-regering oor die afgelope 28 jaar - Jacob Zuma, Hlaudi Motsoeneng, Ellen Tsabalala, Nomvula Mokonyane, Brian Molefe, Anoj Singh, die Guptas, Tony Yengeni, Shaun Abrahams, Bathapile Dlamini, Ace Magashule, Mosebenzi Zwane, Supra Mahumapelo, Zwele Mkhize, Zandile Gumede, Arthur Frazer, Bheki Cele, Lynn Brown, Gwede Mantashe, Pravin Gordhan - moet ons meer sê - o ja, en Cyril Ramaphosa natuurlik... Goed dan - voorspoed daarmee julle - en o ja, kry vir julle!

ANC aims at white minorities

Among the political fraternity, notably the ANC of course, the proverbial cat is in the pigeon loft after an ANC document has surfaced and from which it is clear that the ruling party is planning to extend a BIG hand to white minorities during the National Elections of 2024. But it is not only white minorities that the ANC wants to draw closer to its side - apparently also Indian and the brown communities. Though the document is still in concept form, the authenticity of it cannot be questioned. According to the document, the ANC has realized that its claimed policy of non-racialism, is not reflected in the composition of its Executive Committee and especially, not in Cabinet. Aparently the thought has dawned upon the party that it is steering towards a down-hill course and that it will one way or another, have to embrace minority parties and communities to not make it to the finishing line in one piece! Wow, one can hardly imagine that things were allowed to go this far for the party to realize that it was on a collision course and heading for disaster. After years of untold corruption and scandals, of the collapse of Eskom, of miserable national, provincial and local government, of the careless looting of fundamentally every government or state-owned institution with deep pockets, of blatant discrimination against white minorities with Black Economic Empowerment, with Affirmative Action and years of selective credit control on local government level. Make no mistake, many liberals have turned towards the ANC just before and after 1994 after the fall of Apartheid and at some stage there were quite a few white faces among the top executive and even in Cabinet. Under the tenure of Thabo Mbeki this was soon to change and it wasn’t long before the ANC was known as a party for cadres where family and friendship ties, membership, standing and loyalty became the most important criteria. What was unthinkable however, was that apartheid would have to make way for not quite, but very much a similar discriminatory system that did not offer fair and equal opportunities to all South Africans. Not to mention untold levels of corruption unfolding at almost each and every level of government but wherein high profile politicians and favourites of the party were the beneficiaries with impunity to match, we have to say. Comrades - think of the ANC champions who have made all of this possible - thanks to the immortal heroes such as Jacob Zuma, Hlaudi Motsoeneng, Ellen Tsabalala, Nomvula Mokonyane, Brian Molefe, Anoj Singh, the Guptas, Tony Yengeni, Shaun Abrahams, Bathapile Dlamini, Ace Magashule, Mosebenzi Zwane, Supra Mahumapelo, Zwele Mkhize, Zandile Gumede, Arthur Frazer, Bheki Cele, Lynn Brown, Gwede Mantashe, Pravin Gordhan and oh yes, Cyril Ramaphosa - the party has now reached the crossroads and want to reclaim white minorities! Well, good luck with this!

Mangat veroorsaak ongerief en gevaar

Die redakteur,

Die mangat in Mayetlaan (net by die ingang van "Die Rots Kerk" - agter Platinum Square) gaan een van hierdie mooi dae 'n groot ongeluk veroorsaak. Dié mangat se deksel pas nie en die sement wat om die gat is staan omtrent 10cm bo die oppervlak van die straat uit, dit het skerp kante en sal maklik 'n motor se band kan sny.

Daarmee saam ry almal om die gat sodat hulle motorbande nie beskadig word nie en beland dan in die aankomende verkeer se baan. Kan die Rustenburgse Munisipaliteit nie maar net gaan kyk en miskien hierdie ongemaklike en gevaarlike gat in die pad herstel en regmaak nie? Besorgde motoris.

Private markets - where business began ages ago

The Editor

I simply write to congratulate and thank the organisers of quite a few excellent private markets in and around Rustenburg for their efforts in putting something together which are famed for drawing communities and people closer together. I am so pleased to see that there is a move in South Africa lately away from the very formal, expensive and hectic business environment towards informal, mostly affordable, friendly and a relaxing private market environment where there is ample time to share a joke, have an interesting discussion, to learn from other people or to be able to assist people with solutions to everyday challenges. Of course I know that the formal business environment has its place and that it is crucial in building the country's economy, but I feel that somewhere deep inside, there's a businessman in each of us. In the times we are living in, life will expect us to develop our business acumen to the fullest of our potential and to make more of life while we work and play. If there's something that could save South Africa, is would be the will to work together, and to develop our business skills no matter wherever we go. Gone are the days of growing up only to go and work for someone else. In the South Africa of the future, we will have to learn to be businessmen and women and to apply our business skills everywhere we go. Informal markets are an important stepping stone - maybe more of us will join in future? For you it's half-price Madam
