Coloured, Indian race groups excluded in government’s employment quotas

by John Steenhuisen MP - Leader of the Democratic Alliance

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - “The social perversion created by these targets constitute a clear and urgent threat to the social fabric of South Africa.

The implication is that companies operating in certain parts of the country are banned from employing even a single coloured or Indian person in a particular position. If companies defy these regulations, they will be severely punished by being disqualified from government contracts or doing business with the state”, says John Steenhuisen MP and national DA leader on the ANC-led government’s proposed new race quotas on employment opportunities. This was after government has released highly controversial race criteria with regard to employment directives across the country in the for government and semi government sectors.

“The DA is appalled by the draft Employment Equity Amendment Act (EEA) regulations published for comment over the weekend. The regulations set out racial employment quotas across 18 economic sectors and across all 9 provinces, which will affect every part of the South African economy. The regulations apply to all companies with more than 50 employees. They signal a new low for the ANC government, constituting a naked attempt to expand State control over the economy, deepen social divisions and ban certain communities from employment in particular sectors and parts of the country.”

“The quotas seem especially targeted at the groups defined by the regulations as “coloured males,” “coloured females,” “Indian males” and “Indian females.” People from these communities suffered discrimination under the previous regime, and now they are being re-victimised by a democratic government that has learnt all the wrong lessons from the past. In sectors like agriculture, forestry and fisheries, mining and quarrying, manufacturing, finance, arts, and science, the “targets” set for coloured employees in provinces like Limpopo, Mpumalanga and North West is 0.0%, effectively banning these groups from employment. Even in Gauteng, the country’s economic heartland, employment by people classified by the State as coloured is sometimes limited to below 1%. In the case of employees classified by the State as Indian, the targets are often as low as 0.1% across economic sectors.”

“Consider the absurdity”, Steenhuisen said - “a company with 50 employees that has even a single Indian person on the payroll will be in breach of the 0.1% limit, as 1 out of 50 is equal to 2% of that company’s total employees. Conversely, if that company fires its single Indian employee on the basis of race, it will also be in breach because it will then have 0% Indian employees.

The social perversion created by these targets constitute a clear and urgent threat to the social fabric of South Africa. The implication is that companies operating in certain parts of the country are banned from employing even a single coloured or Indian person in a particular position. If companies defy these regulations, they will be severely punished by being disqualified from government contracts or doing business with the state.”

For the ANC, Limpopo, Mpumalanga, North West and even certain sectors in Gauteng are now “no-go zones” for coloured and Indian South Africans seeking employment. Just as perverse is the implication of these quotas for black employees. In the Northern Cape, for example, employment of “black females” at private firms is limited to below 15.8%. Consequently, a company in Kimberley that happens to employ more skilled black women than the quota allows will also be punished and excluded from government contracts. The DA maintains that the EEA is the most dangerous piece of racial engineering our country has seen since the dawn of democracy. Its effect will be to stunt social mobility and increase division as workers from certain communities are discouraged from moving to “no-go zones” where they are not welcome. Far from promoting equality, the EEA will deepen division and further fragment our country into groups of insiders and outsiders”, Steenhuisen said.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die eerste ding wat Dinsdagoggend waarskynlik in baie mense se gedagtes opgekom het op pad werk toe, was dat dit regtig nie lekker is om in die donker werk toe te gaan nie.

Maar ja, met vreemde weerverskynsels - en patrone weet ‘n mens nie meer aldag hoe jy dit met die weer het nie.

Soos verlede week genoem, kan ons verwag dat ons huidige tweede meeste reën vir in Mei sedert 2010 baie naby aan, of inderdaad vir ‘n nuwe Mei-rekord kan sorg.

Verlede week was ons sommer nog ‘n hele paar mm kort.

Vandeeweek kan ons noem dat ons Mei-reënvalsyfer vir 2023 van 37.6 mm verlede week gegroei het tot 48.4 mm wat tot en met Dinsdagoggend kort na 08:00 gemeet is.

In Mei 2010 is Suid-Afrikaners verras met die hoogste Meimaand-reënvalsyfer sedert 2003, naamlik 107mm.

As ‘n mens na die tradisionele Meimaand-syfers kyk, moet jy eenvoudig aanneem dat die neerslae wat ons vanjaar (verlede jaar ook tot ‘n mate) kry, nie vreeslik algemeen vir die vyfde maand is nie.

Oor die feit dat ons tans reeds die tweede hoogste reënval sedert 2003 gekry het, kan ons net bly wees en wie weet - miskien kan Rustenburg teen die einde van die maand met ‘n splinternuwe rekord vir die afgelope twee dekades spog - ons hou styf duim vas.

Dink net - teen Dinsdagoggend het ons nog net 58.6 mm vir ‘n nuwe aantekening in die Meimaand-rekordboeke gekort.

Rustenburg Herald bedank graag Charlie Graham.

Charlie, van Geelhout Gardens Kwekery hou noukeurig en betroubaar boek van reënvalsyfers, asook statistiek oor weerpatrone. Sy interessante inligting sorg vir meer as 12 jaar al vir lekker leesstof vir ons lesers.

Two weeks ago students from the Rustenburg Campus joined the unrest and on Monday, 08 May 2023, Brits Campus students also declared their support for the protest action by denying their support for the protest action by denying staff and students access to the campus. The main concern raised by students relate to the payment of NSFAS accommodation allowances, according to a media statement issues by Orbit College.

The statement continues with "the 2023 NSFAS guidelines provide a clear breakdown of student allowance allocation for onsite and private student accommodation. NSFAS allocates a maximum of R45 000 per annum for private accommodation, provided that students who qualify to claim the maximum amount, stay at NSFAS accredited private accommodation. Only 30% of the ORBIT College student population is currently accommodated at the onsite student residences at the Mankwe Campus, with the majority of ORBIT College students residing at private accommodation in surrounding areas. Brits and Rustenburg Campuses neither provide onsite student accommodation nor lease student accommodation outside the campus premises. This means that an estimated 70% of ORBIT College students make use of private accommodation, with some staying with relatives or parents while others reside at accommodation in a lessor/lessee relationship.

None of the private accommodation used by ORBIT College students has been accredited by NSFAS yet. As a result, none of the students making use of private accommodation qualified to claim the maximum amount of R 45 000.00. The accommodation allowance received by these students was based on lease agreements which is less than the maximum amount. The difference between the claimed and allocated amount is what essentially triggered the current student unrest at the college. Other related concerns that were raised by students include the late payment of NSFAS allowances, other than accommodation and differences between the money received and claims submitted. Some students are also still awaiting the payment of 2022 claims. Students also raised concerns about College infrastructure across the campuses.

College Management and the Student Representative Council have agreed to approach NSFAS with regards to paying a fix rate allocation for urban and rural campuses respectively, while the NSFAS accreditation of private accommodation is still pending. In this regard a request was forwarded to NSFAS seeking permission for the College SRC to visit their offices in an attempt to address the concerns raised by students. An affirmative response to this request was received from NSFAS. Concerns related to college infrastructure are addressed through the DHET infrastructure grant allocated to the college, the statement concluded.

The past weekend saw more than 12 fairly serious accidents in and around Rustenburg. That excludes 'fender benders' - the extent of these 'minor' accidents can be seen by the dozens of vehicles waiting to be repaired at panel beaters daily. Like reported on many occasions, one of the major contributors to accidents in Rustenburg is the absence of working/visible traffic lights and signs, as well as the absolute disregard for traffic lights and signs still in working order. Rustenburg Herald has requested comment from the Rustenburg Local Municipality on numerous occasions as to why it take so long to replace out of order traffic lights or damaged/stolen traffic signs. Many enquiries have been sent as well as to why municipal traffic officers are not visible and not enforcing traffic laws. In a number of accidents the past two weeks, lives have been lost and commuters have been injured due to traffic accidents. One of the major headaches motorists experience, is the out-of-order traffic light on the bridge near the Waterfall Mall. It's been months since it worked. Accidents here have become a daily occurrence - and yet, no traffic officer has been seen there regulating traffic, or fining motorists not following the law to treat the non-working traffic light as a four way stop. ## Teen sentenced for killing grandpa

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A teenager who killed his grandfather with a hammer in 2022 will spent a decade behind bars.

The incident happened on 2 September last year at Makgophe Village. According to local Police Spokesperson, Sgt Ofentse Mokgadi, the teenager was at his grandfather's house when the grandpa, Abram Malatsi returned from a wedding. The boy demanded money from his grandfather and when the old man refused, the grandson attacked him with a hammer. Not satisfied with the damage done to his grandfather, he also hit the old man's head against the floor. He then took his grandfather's cellphone before leaving the house. Malatsi later succumbed to his head injuries in a local hospital. The teenager was arrested nine days later and his grandpa's cellphone was found in his possession. He confessed to the crime to Capt Mabula of the Mogwase detectives. In April he was found guilty of the crime and was later sentenced to ten years imprisonment.

Life sentence for man who beheaded girlfriend

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Mmabatho High Court, sitting in Mogwase, sentenced a 35-year-old man to life imprisonment for killing his girlfriend.

Serepodi Mathews Tlhabi kidnapped and killed Khumalo Matshidiso (then 23) in August 2019. After the young woman's disappearance, her body was discovered at Mmorogong Village. It was discovered that, after killing her, Tlhabi cut his girlfriend's head off with a knife. He was found guilty and was given a sentence of life imprisonment for murder and seven years for kidnapping.

Six sought after vicious robbery

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Three workers of the Sewage Plant near Boitekong suffered a brutal attack by six men.

The attack occurred just before midnight on Sunday evening (14 May.)

According to local Police Spokesperson, Sgt Ofentse Mokgadi, the six armed robbers presumably gain entry to the premises via a water tunnel.

The robbers surprised the workers and the three tried to hide in a guard room. A shot was fired by one of the robbers into the guard room and one of the workers was hit in the leg.

The attackers then used a hammer to break open the guard room. The three workers attempted to flee, but was cornered and overpowered by the armed men.

The robbers bound the hands of the workers behind their backs with their own shoelaces, viciously beat one of the workers and took their cellphones.

It seems the robbers then only took a piece of copper cable and left once again through the water tunnel.

The workers managed to free themselves and were taken to hospital.

Apart from the worker shot in the leg, another one sustained wounds to his head after he was beaten with a pair of pliers.

Police are investigating cases of business robbery, assault with the intention of doing grievous bodily harm (GBH) and attempted murder.

At the time of going to press the suspects were still at large.

Copper thief sentenced

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A thief who stole copper cable at a mine and shot a security guard five times was sentenced earlier this week.

Mpho Makatise (39) and five other men illegally gained entry to the premises of a mine in May 2021.

The thieves stole copper cable and when they were apprehended by mine security, the thieves opened fire. One security guard was hit at least five times and spent half a year in hospital fighting for his life. After the incident, five of the thieves escaped, but Makatise was arrested and prosecuted. On Monday (15 May 2023) Makatise was sentenced on two charges of attempted murder and one charge of theft. He will spend the next 15 years behind bars. The investigating officer Sergeant Seatile Modisane, as well as the Prosecutor, Zola Mpaipeli are congratulated with their dedication to get Makatise convicted.

NW NGOs at risk of closing doors due to budget fight

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - NGOs in the province, also some in Rustenburg, are at risk of having to close their doors as the MEC for Social Development and the Head of Department of Social Development fight over the departmental budget and performance plans. This is according to the North West Democratic Alliance (DA).

The party's Freddy Sonakile expressed concern for the ongoing tussle between the MEC of Social Development, Boitumelo Moiloa and the Head of Department (HOD), Itumeleng Mafokane. The discord between the two was emphasized when the department had to present its Annual Performance Plan (APP) and 2023 Budget to the Portfolio Committee but failed to do so. "In a very heated meeting, the HOD indicated to the Committee that he will not present an APP that he did not sign nor authorize as he had been stripped of his powers. This left Committee members fuming and the meeting had to be adjourned without the APP being processed. It is not the first time that this department has had to be turned away by the Committee due to its internal waggles. The DA takes this in a very serious light and believes action must be taken against either the MEC or the HOD who has failed in their fiduciary duties," Sonakile said. He added that, while their squabbles continue, the DA has been in contact with a number of Non-Profit Organizations (NPOs) whose survival depends on funding from the department. "Morestêr Children's Home in Rustenburg is on the brink of closing its doors as they are unable to continue taking bank loans to cover the costs of running the centre, due to the department's failure to sign the service level agreement (SLA). This failure has led to the subsidy that they are supposed to get not being paid," he said. According to him, a number of the NPOs in Potchefstroom are also struggling to make ends meet. "The staff at the Abraham Kriel Children's Home continue the operations on reserve funds, as the department has not signed its SLA thus affecting the subsidy they are supposed to get. What the DA finds peculiar about this entire situation, is that the HOD who claims to be stripped of his powers, is alleged to be committing the department financially to various long-term contracts. Just last week it surfaced in the Finance Committee that he had appointed security companies for 18 months to the tune of R130 million despite the Provincial audit warning that it is irregular," said Sonakile. "The DA will write to the Chairperson of the Committee, Gavin Edwards, to act with speed and summon Premier, Bushy Maape, over the recent failure of the department to table their budget and APP and the impact this has on vulnerable communities," he concluded.

Bid vir Mieke

Rustenburg se Mieke van den Berg wat met akute limfoblastiese leukemie gediagnoseer is, is op Dinsdag (16 Mei) in die hospitaal opgeneem en daar is begin met chemo, maar onder omstandighede gaan dit goed met Mieke. Dit was vir Christo en Monique van den Berg (pappa en mamma) so lekker om haar by die huis te hê, waar sy vir 17 dae niks chemo of enige medikasies gebruik het nie. Bid asseblief dat Mieke sterk sal bly vir die dae wat sy nou chemo gaan kry en dat haar bloedtellings elke dag beter en beter sal raak.

Christelle van Rooyen - Wessels

Maandag 8 Mei was 'n baie hartseer dag vir die familie van Willem Jacobus (Piet) Janse van Rensburg toe hy skielik oorlede is in die ouderdom van 62 jaar. Hy gaan baie gemis word deur almal wat hom liefgehad het. Sy roudiens het op 13 Mei plaasgevind. 'n Liefdesdiens gelewer deur Martins Rustenburg (014) 592 0037. (226006)

But I've got news for them - I'm staying put. I'm not giving in and I'm not going anywhere," she declares. In the mean time she still hopes that people will come forward with information regarding Frans' murder. "It's a pity that, at some places around Kroondal the reward posters are constantly removed. But I'll keep on printing them. At some stage, someone will be brave enough to come forward and spill the beans," she concludes.

(SGD) Acting Municipal Manager
Mr R.J Mosiane

In loving memory of Marjorie Letta Tooi, who sadly passed away on 10 May at the age of 44 due to a long-term illness. She will be buried on Saturday 20 May at the VGK Church Karlienpark at 09:00. A memorial service will be held on Wednesday 17 May at 19:30 at the VGK Church Karlienpark. She will be dearly missed by her family and friends. The Rustenburg Crematorium and Leading Light Funerals pray for strength for the family in this difficult time. For any enquiries phone (014) 592 8441/ 073 903 4862.

VLU Volmoedlede geniet werkswinkel

Meimaand is Guillain-Barré bewusmakingsmaand en gesondheid is een van die VLU se temas. Netta Louw het die Volmoeddames en dames by Brits se Dienssentrum toegesprek. Guillain-Barré Sindrome word veroorsaak deur 'n virus wat die 'myelin' lagie om die senuwee vernietig. Dit veroorsaak verlamming en verhoed dat die brein boodskappe na die ledemate kan stuur. Twee uit elke 100 000 mense kry GBS. Genesing is 'n baie lang proses. ### RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Op 5 Mei het Handjie-Bysit afgeskop. Op die dag kon die publiek vroe vroe en meer inligting rakende welsynsorganisasies in die dorp kry.

Hierdie eerste geleentheid het gesorg dat die gemeenskap sien dat elke bydrae kosbaar en waardevol is en uiters nodig om die pilare in die gemeenskap regop te hou. Tydens die geleentheid het hulle ook meer uitgevind wat hierdie en ander organisasies in die gemeenskap benodig.

Hierdie jeug-inisiatief het hulle gewys dat, om 'n dorp sterk te hou, meer vat as wat mens dink. Welsynsorganisasies en dienste in die dorp kan nie hulle werk doen sonder elkeen in Rustenburg se hulp nie.

Met die afskop van die projek het kleuterskole 'n handjie bygesit deur insamelingsbokse kreatief te versier en mooi te maak - hulle het bewys dat selfs klein handjies kan help om gemeenskapsprojekte te laat slaag en welsynsdienste so te ondersteun.

Besighede het gewys dat hulle harte groot is en ook hulle deel doen om Rustenburg nie net met die ekonomie te ondersteun nie, maar ook die swakkeres te help. Hierdie projek het bewys dat elke Rustenburger die dorp se grootste geskenk is. Twee junior provinsiale landsdieners gaan na die Junie-skoolvakansie 'n draai maak by welsynsorganisasies en dienste in Rustenburg. Deur hierdie projek gaan hulle meer navorsing doen oor wat aangaan in Rustenburg en kyk hoe oud en jonk 'n handjie kan bysit om die dorp se pilare te ondersteun. Omdat die kinders is, mag hulle pret h  en hulle gaan wys dat sosiale verantwoordelikheid groot sports kan wees. Hou hulle dop want hulle beplan verrassingspartytjies, tok-tokkie-speel en klomp ander dinge wat almal in Rustenburg saam kan doen.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG
- We have recently announced an important change to the rules of the Rustenburg Herald Art competition. From this year artists are no longer required to attach their entries (art works) onto the blank space regularly printed in Rustenburg Herald and/or Bonus as it is believed to somewhat restrict artists in as far as size is concerned. At the same time Rustenburg Herald would not necessarily have to sacrifice the, in fact, very much needed space of an empty/blank page to accommodate these entries. From now on artists are required to attach their works of art to ANY PAGE or use the page as your canvas to paint or sketch on. Make sure that the date and page number of THIS edition are still visible. Also see the art works already being displayed at our two participating Pick n Pay stores for an example of what you should do.

To complete your entry, simply complete the entry form at the top of this page, attach it to your artwork and "post" your entry into the entry boxes at both participating Pick n Pay Stores - Pick n Pay Azalea Park, Greystone Crossing or Pick n Pay Lifestyle Square, Beyers Naudé Avenue in Midtown Rustenburg or at reception of Rustenburg Herald's offices in 13 Coetzer Street, Eastern Industrial Area, Rustenburg. Artists should please note that entries must be new or rather recent work. Remember - two cash prizes of R1 000 each sponsored by Rustenburg Herald are up for grabs to the two quarterly winners while two extremely valuable Pick n Pay Shopping Vouchers to the value of R10 000 each are waiting for the two overall winners of the Rustenburg Herald Art competition. These prizes are sponsored courtesy Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé and Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing. The closing date for the competition is 31 May 2023 - come on - get those entries rolling...

Michelle Elliades en Tarron Jones van La Fleur Wafels te Boshoffstraat 60A – gaan loer gerus in en ondersteun die twee vriendelike dames.

‘n Suikersoet (of sout) wafel vir jou tafel

Die meeste Suid-Afrikaners – trouens seker die meeste mense wêreldwyd – dink nog steeds aan ‘n wafel as ‘n lekker stroopsoet lekkerny (amper soos ‘n pannekoek) wat ‘n mens met ‘n verskeidenheid van soet-goed geniet. ‘n Mens dink aan roomys en/of room met goue stroop, heuning of allerlei gekeurde strope soos aarbeie, piesang en ander. Vir mense met ietwat minder soettande, is daar opsies soos kaas, maal-vleis, vrugte en selfs “lawwe” goed soos malvalekkers!

La Fleur Wafels – ‘n oulike wegsteekplekkie in Rustenburg, wat die lekkerste wafels in die hele omgewing bedien - het as’t ware weer die wafel “ontdek” en bedien lekker stewige wafels met minder tradisionele vulsels soos aarbeie, piesang of bloubessies en dan ook gekerfde biltong, gerasperde kaas, Fetakaas en ja, selfs olywe soos een van ons voorbeelde hiernaas. In nog ‘n gewilde weergawe gebruik Michelle by-voorbeeld “bacon” en dié is nogal ‘n treffer!

Ons het so kort voor die naweek by Michelle Elliades en Tarron Jones van La Fleur Wafels te Boshoffstraat 60A gaan inloer om te kyk hoe dié twee vir ons twee uitsoekwafels voorberei.

Soet en sout uitsoekwafels

Wafelbestanddele (beslag genoeg vir 5 wafels)

- 1 ½ teelepel bakpoeier
- 1 koppie koekmeel
- Knippie sout
- 3 teelepel suiker
- 1 koppie melk
- 2 eiers

Meng goed tot ‘n gladde “pasta” en bak.

‘n Lekker stewige wafel waarop ‘n mens amper enigiets kan bedien.

Gemengde vrugte – aarbeie en bloubessies.

Vir hierdie weergawe het Michelle die aarbeie eers in ‘n bietjie water met een koppie suiker en ‘n titseltjie sout gekook. Laat dan lekker afkoel en plaas dan in yskas om goed koud te word voordat jy dit saam met bloubessies (ook koud) as ‘n “vulsel” vir jou wafels gebruik. Onthou – die wagwoord hier is lekker romerige roomys van goeie gehalte.

Biltong en kaas

Vir Michelle se tweede weergawe is daar om verstaanbare redes meer belangstelling uit mansgeledere. Gebruik wafels wat pas gebak en nog warm is sodat die kaas maklik smelt. Pak eers

Die biltong- en kaaswafel wanneer dit gereed is.

Genoeg om enige mond te laat water

{StandpuntViewpoint}* Viewpoint

Die Rooies in ons agterplaas?

In vandeeweek se uitgawe van Standpunt is daar twee klippies in die skoen wat pla. Nee, dit is nie voortdurende beurtkrag of die prys van brandstof wat ‘n mens tot mor aanpor nie, maar die Suid-Afrikaanse regering se beheptheid met homself, sy onwilligheid om ingeligte, verantwoordelike besluite te neem en sy oënskylnlike onvermoë om erge omstredenheid te vermy. In ‘n tyd waarin die internasionale gemeenskap saamstaan en Rusland feitlik uit een mond as die aggressor in die oorlog in die Oekraïne veroordeel, is dit onverstaanbaar waarom die regering verkies om met die Russe te heul, Russiese skepe hier toelaat om ongeïdentifiseerde vrag op/af te laai, die hoof van die Suid-Afrikaanse Leër skielik na Moskou te stuur en dan boonop ‘n halfhartige poging aanwend om die wêreld te probeer oortuig dat hy eintlik neutraal staan in ‘n oorlog wat deur minstens 85% van die internasionale gemeenskap veroordeel word. Agteraf doen Suid-Afrika hom egter steeds voor as ‘n neutrale land wat agter die skerms by die VSA gaan bakhand staan het om gunstige handelsooreenkomste net om dit weke later weens sy beleid ten opsigte van die konflik in die Oekraïne in gedrang te bring. Suid-Afrikaners moet teen hierdie tyd al lankal wonder hoekom dit só is dat die ANC-regering skynbaar tot met sy laaste asem sal probeer om homself uit ‘n situasie te probeer lieg en om mense om die bos te probeer lei. Hoeveel keer het die land se mense dit nou nie al gesien nie? Dit lyk of eerlikheid, integriteit en die waarheid nie hoog deur die ANC-regering aangeslaan word nie. ‘n Mens wonder ook of die geheul met die Russe dalk die regering se ego streel want skielik is hy hier in “hogere” geselskap nê? Iets waarop die Russe blykbaar baie gunstig reageer, want die ou klein half betekenislose landjie hier onder in Afrika waarin alles feitlik stukkend of reeds gesteel is, blyk oornag een van sy enigste “vriende” te wees? Dit is jammer dat die ANC nie eers die geskiedenisboek bestudeer het om te sien hoe die Russe oor generasies heen as vertrappers van menseregte, slawedrywers en volksmoordenaars die toon aangegee het nie. Maar veral - hoe die magtige Russiese Ryk uiteindelik tot ‘n val gekom het - hier is gewis ‘n hele paar lesse waarby die SA-regering kan baat. Die tweede klippie hierdie week - André de Ruyter (voorheen) van Eskom. Toe De Ruyter onlangs geleentheid gehad het om na sy drie jaar ampstermyn by Eskom die swartskepe uit te wys wat volgens hom die rowersnes by Eskom oopgekrap het, was hy tjoeptil - tot ergernis van baie mense wat meer van hom verwag het. Nou skielik word De Ruyter se boek gepubliseer waarin hy blykbaar die aap tot ‘n groter mate uit die mou laat. Sjoë, is dit darem nie die toppunt van opportunisme nie? Vrae en antwoorde wat in landsbelang is, word gereserveer ter wille van eie gewin. Hoe het die moraal nie in ons land verander nie?

Ongeduld besig om paaie in oorlogsones te verander

Die redakteur, Ongeduldige bestuurders is besig om ons paaie in ‘n oorlogstone te verander en elke dag kom ek dit net meer agter wanneer ek in die oggende en middae op die pad is. Mens ry net die spoedgrens of stop by ‘n oranje verkeerslig of stopstraat, dan word jy aangeval asof jy iets verkeerd gedoen het, maar eintlik is jy die een wat die regte dinge doen. Ongeduld deur bestuurders is aan die orde van die dag en niemand, maar niemand wil meer net geduldig wag of die spoedgrens ry nie. Mense jaag asof die duiwel op hulle is en as jy stop by stopstraat of verkeerslig, is daar ‘n ongeduldige bestuurder wat jou laat verstaan jy is verkeerd om die pad te kom. Mense het heeltemal verloor hoe om teenoor mekaar met geduld en bedagsaamheid op te tree, dit bestaan eenvoudig net nie meer nie en is nie meer deel van die mensdom se optrede nie. Mens word by die dag banger en banger om op die pad te gaan en werk toe en terug te ry. “Bang” Motoris.

Verbruikersforum baie welkom asb

Die redakteur In verlede week se Herald sien ek toe ‘n artikel oor ‘n saak wat my baie lank reeds na aan die hart lê, naamlik die leemte van ‘n plaaslike forum vir mense wat elke dag of elke week kruideniers en allerlei benodigdhede moet koop. Iets soos ‘n verbruikersforum soos die dame van verlede week (ek neem aan dit was ‘n dame?) geskryf het. Ek dink ‘n Verbruikersforum is ‘n groot voordeel vir salaristrekkers en sommers al die inwoners van ‘n dorp. Ons het voorheen in Bloemfontein gewoon en daar het ons nogal ‘n aktiewe Verbruikersforum gehad. Die Bloemforum het mense nie net van raad en daad bedien wanneer regsaspekte of ernstige kwessies ter sprake gekom het nie, maar ook by elke byeenkoms ‘n “hoekie” gehad waar jy kon gaan inloer om te sien waar hierdie en hierdie waspoeier daardie betrokke week die goedkoopste was, dieselfde met hoender, skaap of beesvleis, ontbyt pap en/of sanitêre produkte en/of skoonmaakmiddels. Daar was ook op gereelde basis kundige sprekers met raad oor hoe om die huis se maandelikse inkoopbegroting op te stel, watter produkte om in watter maande te koop en ja, daar is sommers ‘n klomp voordele vir ‘n huisvrou of ja, selfs ons mans wat dalk alleen woon om by ‘n Verbruikersforum aan te sluit. Ek kan nie genoeg beklemtoon wat dit vir ons huishouding beteken het nie. Ek is nou nie meer so baie jonk nie, maar sal dit baie waardeer as iemand na vore tree, die leiding neem en ‘n forum vir verbruikers hier plaaslik op die been kan bring. Joey van der Linde

Sign language gets official status

Sign language will officially be the 12th official language of the country following the unanimous passing of the amendment bill by the National Assembly during its plenary. The Constitution 18th Amendment Bill will now be sent to the National Council of Provinces (NCOP) for approval. Until now, the constitution provided for 11 official languages:

isiXhosa, isiZulu, isiNdebele, siSwati, Xitsonga, Tshivenda, Setswana, English, Afrikaans, Sesotho and Sepedi. Once President Cyril Ramaphosa signs the amendment bill into law, South African Sign Language (SASL) will be recognised as the 12th. Aimed at promoting equal protection before the law and the rights of people who are deaf and hard of hearing, the bill was introduced and referred to the justice committee in January of this year. In response to the call for public comment, Parliamentary Spokesperson Moloto Mothapo said the committee received 58 written submissions from individuals and organisations, most in support of the bill. “The committee noted the opposing views expressed by a few commentators but submits the recognition of SASL as a 12th official language is an important step towards the realization of the rights of people who are deaf and hard of hearing,” said Mothapo. “The committee acknowledged SASL is not a universal language - different countries have their own sign language and regions have dialects - but submits that, in South Africa, it is in the promotion and development of SASL that the various dialects are also recognised.”

The Russians in our back yard?

In this week’s edition of Viewpoint, two small pebbles in our shoe. No, this time it’s not load shedding or the price of fuel, but wait - it will be soon... This week however, the South African Government’s obsession with itself, its unwillingness to make informed, responsible decisions and its inability to avoid controversy! In a time wherein the international community is united in condemning Russia for its aggression in the Ukraine, it is difficult to understand why the SA Government chooses to collude with Russia, why Russian ships are allowed into our harbours to load/unload in secrecy, to send the head of the SA Army to Moscow and then undertakes a half-hearted attempt towards so-called neutrality in the Russian/Ukrainian war while in secrecy (again?) South Africa is negotiating with the USA in pursuit of more favourable trade agreements, only for this to be jeopardized for the SA government speaking in forked tongues, an expression our fellow Africans would indeed understand very well. One has to ask why the SA government had once again resorted to lies instead of the truth to escape the whims of the international community of which 85% indeed condemns Poetin for his war on the Ukraine. It now seems to have become a trademark of our government and leaders that the ANC government would not shy away from a lie when it suits them. Perhaps it is a matter of the ANC’s ego being polished by its association with a former world country? It’s such a shame however, that the SA government apparently didn’t consult the history books to see for itself how the former Russia/Soviet Union has left a legacy of untold human rights transgressions as well as a genocide on its own people before possible “partners” were chosen. Obviously the Russians have responded favourably to the attention in spite of it coming from a minor, insignificant little country in Africa where more or less everything is already broken or stolen for suddenly, the mighty Russia finds itself with few friends and many foes. Our government will also do well to see how even the mighty Soviet Union eventually got caught in its own atrocities to fail spectacularly. Pebble number 2 this week: André de Ruyter (formerly) of Eskom. When De Ruyter had the opportunity to literally spill the beans on what was going on behind the Eskom collapse and disaster, and who the people behind the saga were - he was all hush-hush. This has angered many people who have expected more of him. Now suddenly, for the sake of profit, he appears to be sharing more of the truth in a book that was published less than a week ago. We don’t wish to criticize De Ruyter too harshly, but isn’t this utter opportunism which would potentially benefit him tremendously? How morals have changed in our beloved country?

Die doel van die dag is om fondse in te samel vir die opgradering van die Tehuis om sodoende 'n meer effektiewe en doelgerigte sorg vir die inwoners te bied. Gholfgeesdriftiges kry die geleentheid om bymekaar te kom en af te slaan tydens die Tehuis se tweede gholfdag. Staan ook 'n kans om groot pryse te wen en daar sal weer soos altyd 'n veiling wees – van geskenkbewyse tot vakansie-wegbreke. Televisie-persoonlikheid, Neels van Jaarsveld is ook hierdie jaar teenwoordig. Vanjaar se gholfdag belooft om selfs groter en beter te wees in vergelyking met verlede jaar se eerste byeenkoms. Besighede kan ook by hierdie geleentheid aansluit deur 'n vierbal-inskrywing of 'n putjie om promosiepryse vir waardetoegevoegde bemarking weg te gee.
