Dancing in the city

The 31st Battle of the Giants All Styles dance competition was held at the Sun City Super Bowl recently. Dancers and groups from across South Africa took part. One of the exciting items was this collaboration between Faymous Studios and Shablam Dance Studio. In total, 60 dance schools and over 640 dancers competed in their respective disciplines. The South African Body of Dance, (SABOD) who organised this event, ensured that they had the best panel of Judges and Officials, who are locally and internationally accredited, to judge the various styles of dance over the four days of the competition. Bekendstelling van baanbreker-roman

OP PAD NA GRYSBERG

Stefaans Coetzee, 'n bekende in Afrikaanse skryfkringe, is die 'pa' van Op pad na Grysberg'. Stefaans, skrywer van ondermeer 'Wit Wolf', gaan die bekendstelling bywoon. Christelle van Rooyen- Wessels, ook een van die Grysberg-skrywers gaan ook daar wees.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die roman 'Op pad na Grysberg' verskuif grense en vermag iets wat nog nooit - sover vasgestel kan word - in Afrikaans gebeur het nie.
Die verhaal, met sy post-apokaliptiese-geur, was die breinkind van skrywer en resesent, Stefaans Coetzee. Hy het 22 gewilde Afrikaanse skrywers gekry en hul ooreed om saam aan een storie te skryf.
Elkeen van dié uiteenlopende skrywers bring sy eie dinamieka na die storie, maar op die einde is die verhaal 'n interessante, verweefde geheel.
Op Saterdag (13 Mei) is Bargain Books Platinum Square gasheer vir 'n amptelike bekendstelling van 'Op pad na Grysberg'.
'n Klompie van die skrywers wat betrokke was, gaan die bekendstelling bywoon - kom loer gerus in en gesels saam.

Kom woon die amptelike bekendstelling van 'Op pad na Grysberg' by.

SAPS says goodbye to their ‘Colonel VV’

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Last week the Rustenburg Police bid farewell to Colonel Veerasamy Velayudam Govender.

Col Govender has retired after 41 years of service. The farewell function, with a Bollywood theme, was held on 26 April at a lovely venue on the R24.

Family, friends and colleagues came to honour Col Govender and his valuable and immense contributions to the police, especially in the Bojanala Platinum District Sub 2.

Speaker after speaker touched on the impact he had on them. “Colonel Govender was the kind of leader who did not only gave instruction, he lead by example and chose rather to give advice than just orders,” one of the speakers told the audience. All added that Colonel VV, as he is affectionately known to his colleagues, had service delivery at heart.

The Colonel joined the Police in 1982 at Hillcrest KwaZulu-Natal as a 17-year-old. He served in KZN for 23 years before being promoted to Marikana SAPS in 2006 as a Captain.

He later served as a Major at Tlhabane SAPS, Lieutenant Colonel at Marikana SAPS and subsequently a Colonel and head of Visible Policing at Rustenburg SAPS.

In his last speech as police officer, the Colonel made mention of his life lessons and gave advice to not take life for granted. He encouraged his colleagues to always take chances on new opportunities and to never be afraid of growth. He said growth begins when we leave our comfort zones and start to learn new things and its only then become better versions of ourselves.

Colonel VV, who is a father of three, was accompanied by his lovely wife, Kormilla and their daughter, Megan.

The occasion was graced by the acting Bojanala Platinum District Commissioner, Brigadier Mamotsamai Ntoagae, acting Rustenburg station commander Brigadier Joel Pheto, former Rustenburg station commander Brigadier Gertrude Modise and colleagues.

Colonel VV thanked everyone for being part of his 41 year journey in the Police.

Phone hacked? Tell-tale signs

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - A prominent Android smartphone manufacturer has highlighted five signs that could indicate your smartphone has been infected with malware.

“Android mobile devices are pretty secure, provided you follow common-sense precautions such as using strong passwords for all of your accounts, downloading apps only from Google Play or official phone manufacturer app stores, and not clicking on suspect website links you receive by email or instant messaging,” a spokesperson for the company said.

“Still, it’s possible for you to accidentally download some malware on your device or give your account details to a persuasive scammer. Cybercriminals are clever and persistent, and it’s not always easy to keep up with their latest tricks. And once they’ve breached your phone, they might quietly steal your personal data, hijack your social media accounts, or use your phone to mine cryptocurrencies.”

The company highlighted the following signs that could indicate that your phone has been hacked or that there is malware installed:

- Your battery life is suddenly worse than it used to be. Some malware and fraudulent apps constantly run in the background on your phone, draining its battery.
- Your phone is running hot and uses more data than usual. This may also indicate malware or spy apps running in the background.
- Performance has become degraded. Another sign that there is a malicious app on your phone is that performance has become worse. For example, it takes longer to load websites and apps are freezing, crashing, or running slowly. This is another sign that a malicious app is stealing resources on your device.
- Strange things are happening on your online accounts. If a cybercriminal has access to your info, they might try logging into your apps like social media or online banking. You might be breached if you are getting emails and texts for password resets or notifications that someone is logging in from an unfamiliar location.
- Mystery apps, texts and calls. If you start seeing apps you haven’t downloaded, calls you haven’t made, and texts and emails you didn’t send in your history, that’s a major warning sign.

If you suspect that your device has been compromised, the following steps are suggested:

- Disconnect your phone from the Internet.
Immediately disconnect from the Internet to prevent malware from sending more data from your device or the hacker from controlling your phone.
- Remove any suspicious apps.
Check your phone for any suspicious apps that you may have unknowingly installed. Uninstall them immediately.
- Install a reputable antivirus app.
Use a good antivirus app to scan for any malware or viruses that may be present on your device.
- Change your passwords.
Change the passwords for all your accounts, including your email, social media, and banking accounts, to prevent the hacker from accessing them.
- Perform a factory reset.
If nothing else works, consider factory resetting your phone to remove any malicious software and start fresh.

Objection against incorporation of small municipalities a runaway success

Waldie Volschenk

De Wet Nel, Deputy Leader of the FF Plus in North West and Member of the Provincial Legislator.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - “We are elated, the results speak for themselves and we are confident that rate payers in the affected areas have made it abundantly clear that the proposed amalgamation of several small municipalities in the Bojanala District Municipality to that of the Rustenburg Local Municipality is rejected and unwanted”, says De Wet Nel, Deputy Leader of the FF Plus in the North West Province and Member of the Provincial Legislator on Tuesday this week.

People from the Bojanala have responded in great numbers to The FF Plus’ call to object to the plans of the Speaker of the Rustenburg Municipality, Cllr K Mogomotsi, to centralise and amalgamate said municipalities in the Bojanala District Municipality to indeed, a rather under performing Rustenburg Municipality in the near future

As reported last week, a number of under performing municipalities in the Bojanala, notable Kgetlengrivier (Koster, Swartruggens and Derby), Madibeng (Hartbeespoort, Brits and certain areas of Mooi-nooi) as well as Moses Kotane (Ledig and Sun City) were considered to be incorporated with the Municipal Council of the Rustenburg Municipality following a proposal by the Speaker of the RLM, albeit allegedly without the necessary mandate by the Rustenburg Council to do so. Earlier the FF Plus’ De Wet Nel told Rustenburg Herald that the FF Plus was the only party in the Rustenburg Council (31 March 2023) to object to the proposal when it called for a division of the house in terms of votes on the issue. A request that was eventually denied because the matter wasn’t discussed in Council any further. “We have nonetheless succeeded in garnering surprising support from our affected communities which clearly shows that people in the district wish to rather maintain the “Status Quo”. The FF Plus’ call for people to object to the move managed no less than 4 592 letters of objection from people within the Bojanala. This of course excludes another possibly 1 000 or 2 000 emails sent to the offices of the Municipal Demarcation Board over the weekend after negotiations between the MDB and the North West FF Plus, that physical objections would be allowed until 12:00 on Friday, 28 April and in case of objections per email, until 24:00 on Saturday, 29 April. This was in response to the fact that the last day set aside for physical objections, was Thursday, 27 April, which of course was a public holiday (Freedom Day). It was not much of a surprise that rate payers from the Rustenburg Municipality were not the only ones who were desperately opposed to the amalgamation. Nel told Rustenburg Herald that of the just over 4 500, 1 600 were from residents of Kgetlengrivier, some 700 from Madibeng, 1 400 from the Rustenburg area and just over 700 from Groot Marico, Sannieshof and Delareyville. What we know from this is that the Municipal Demarcation Board has to consider the input from people within the district. After this a number of public meetings will be held whereafter the final outcome of the matter will be announced between November 2023 and January 2024.

Help trace next of kin

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Moses Kotane Hospital requests the community to help trace family, relatives or friends of a male patient currently admitted at the hospital situated in Ledig.

Mohutsiwa Bashupang Isak, is originally from the Lichtenburg area, presumably from a farm known as Rietkuil, and was admitted to the hospital on 12 January 2023.

All efforts to trace family members have been unsuccessful.

According Mr Isak, he previously worked on farms in the Vanderbijlpark area, as well as in the region of Potchefstroom. He does not recall the last time he seen his family members. According to him, he was never married, but he does have children. Mr Isak recalls his siblings as ‘Mokobiwa’ and ‘Magageng’. He does not recall much of the information about his life back in Lichtenburg.

An appeal is therefore made to communities at large to assist the hospital in reuniting Mr Isak with his family members.

Tlhabane murder set for trial

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The case against the men accused of killing Nkululeko Njuza will go to trial next week.

Njuza was attacked on 8 May by two men at the back of a tavern in Tlhabane. He succumbed to his injuries.

Koketso ‘Kok’s’ Mogomotsi and Dacamy Comfort Rakhudu was arrested in connection with Njuza’s death shortly after the incident. The duo have made a number of court appearances and will be back in the dock on 11 May when their trial will presumably start.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - The Mogwase High Court imposed lengthy jail sentences on two Bangladeshi nationals, two South Africans and a Mozambican for robbery and kidnapping a businessman in 2019.

Narul Asfar, a Bangladeshi national was robbed and kidnapped on 9 July 2019 at Tlhatlaganyane village near Sun City.

It is alleged that on that day the suspects were driving a VW Polo with Gauteng registration plates. After Asfar was robbed and kidnapped, the businessman was handed to accomplices traveling in a BMW 5 series.

On the same day the BMW 5 series with the victim inside, was stopped by unsuspecting traffic officers on the R24, Magaliesburg road for contravention of a road traffic act.

While being stopped and about to be offered a fine, the victim managed to free himself and kicked open the vehicle's door and alerted the officers about his situation.

Snyman Mohoje (56, RSA), Hayatunnobi Shaun (35) and Arif Howlader (26) - all Bangladeshi - were arrested and a firearm was found in the vehicle. One suspect managed to elude the arrest and fled on foot.

The suspects have been in custody since their arrest after their numerous bail applications were successfully opposed.

Two suspects -Jewel Rana and Snyman Mahoje - died in 2019 and 2021 due to illness while in custody. The other five were sentenced on 26 April 2023.

The Timbati's Veld Market is the only market aimed exclusively, at local charity - one of the biggest beneficiaries is the Rustenburg branch of the SPCA who is finding it harder every year to make ends meet. Come meet old and new friends, see what the town's people are up to and do your bit in aid of local charity. Remember - there will also be a doggy corner where your pet could enjoy a small bite to eat and a fresh water bowl, so there's no need to leave "Bugsy" at home. Remember that Mother's Day (Sunday, 14 May) is around the corner and Timbati will offer the perfect opportunity to get something really special for all our hard-working mothers.

The Timbati Veld Market will begin at 09:00 and continue until 14:00 when proceedings will come to an end. Come and enjoy Rustenburg's exciting new informal market environment and treat you family to a lovely outing. Remember to bring your wallet, hat, sunscreen and perhaps a camping chair and enjoy the day with Rustenburg's new generation of entrepreneurs!

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Die NG Kerk Swartruggens beplan 'n basaar vir Saterdag 6 Mei. Wat is uniek by dié basaar? Baie rou vleis teen goeie pryse. Dis wors, maalvleis, sosaties, kookvleis, enkele snitte en "steak". En natuurlik biltong en droëwors.

En daar is stalletjies. Die een verkoop plante, 'n ander skoene, nog een kleres, 'n volgende een leerartikels en so meer. Kom maak gerus 'n draai. Loop ook aan by die wit olifanttafel - vir alles en nog wat. Mense wat self iets wil verkoop, moet die kerkkantoor so gou as moontlik kontak by 067 620 4794. om 'n staanplek te bespreek. Geen kosstalletjies nie, want dit is die gemeente se afdeling.

Natuurlik kan almal lekker eet en kuier, veral in die skadu van die kuiertent. Kerrie-en-rys, jaffels en ribburgers, pap-en-kaiings, braaivleis en sosaties, pannekoek en basaarpoeding. 'n Stewige koektafel - met grootkoeke, kleinkoekies, beskuit ensovoorts. Springmielies, draai-aartappels en spookasem.

Daar word behoorlik beplan vir die kinders en jongmense. Springkasteel, waterglybaan en aktiwiteite soos touterk, slingerel-gooi, paintball-skiet, waterballon-gevegte. Skryf 'n span van vier in vir R40. Kontak vir Sandra hieroor by 072 583 4824. Die kinders geniet ook altyd die ritte op die trekkertjie met waentjie.

Die basaar open amptelik om 09:00 en maak teen 14:00 klaar. As jou kontant min raaak, sal hulle kan help met kaartfasiliteite. Die kerk is op die hoek van die N4-deurpad en Bisschoffstraat - die een met die groot wit toring en mooi klipfondasie. Toegang is gratis.

Vir navrae kontak Retha du Plessis by 083 645 5955 of dr Banus Botha by 083 411 6409.

Baie vleis teen goeie pryse.

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - Cllr Shiela Mabale-Huma, the Executive Mayor of Rustenburg expressed her passion for early child development support by advocating for children's participation in athletics.

managing anxiety and depression, and increasing self-esteem and cognitive skills.

The event was held in support of Early Childhood Development Centres (ECDCs).

The Mayor encouraged parents and teachers to allow their children to participate in physical activity as it is important for child development.

Experts say that physical activity allows children to have a better outlook on life by building confidence,

Furthermore, regular physical activity can help children and adolescents improve cardiorespiratory fitness, build strong bones and muscles, control weight, improve coordination, balance, posture and flexibility, and reduce the risk of developing health conditions such as heart disease and cancer, thereby strengthening their immune system.

Battle of the Giants 2023 All Styles Dance Sport Festival

RUSTENBURG HERALD – SUN CITY - This year’s 31st edition of the Battle of the Giants All Styles Dance Sport Festival, held at the world class venue of the Sun City Superbowl, was truly an all-styles dance competition, with dancers competing in Battles, Hip Hop, Modern, Show Dance, Slow Dance, Freestyle, Disco Dance, Disco Freestyle, Popping, Break Dance, Street Dance Show, Tap, Ballet, Lyrical and Jazz.

In total, 60 dance schools and over 640 dancers from all over the country competed in their respective disciplines and the South African Body of Dance, (SABOD) who organises this event, ensured that they have the best panel of Judges and Officials, who are locally and internationally accredited, to judge the various styles of dance, over the 4 days of the competition. This year the distinguished panel included: Debbie Rakusin, Tebogo Kgobokoe, Tina D’Arnell, Linda Dedekind, Hayley Hammond – Lamont, Siphon Didiza, Sandile Zulu, Lee—Shane Booyesen, Chantal Riviere De Klerk, and an international judge joined from Slovenia, Anrika Matko Juvancic. The competition is also very reliant on sponsors, and this year SABOD was supported by Sun City, Sun Vacation Club, Lara Travel, Tomato Watches, Garnier, Fifth Avenue Jewellery, Vogue, Steers, Coke, Powerade and BLOC Footwear. Bev Wood, the President of South African Body of Dance said, “There were some exciting new styles introduced this year, and this provided some exhilarating dancing and a display of versatility and artistic flair. Congratulations to all the athletes and trainers. The Grand Final evening hosted on Saturday night, 22nd April, was truly a spectacular evening with a very powerful opening performance by the dance group “Stimela”, choreographed by Debbie Rakusin in partnership with Eunice Marais, and the dancers were from HPDE, High Performance Dance School.

The rest of the evening showcased the various “BATTLES” between the dancers, and they definitely gave it their all, using all their energy, skills and dance prowess, to battle it out till the end. This year for the first time, “Tap Battles” were introduced, which gave a new modern perspective on a traditional style of dance. The Afro Crews, was also a brand-new section, and the teams really “impressed” the crowds with their ethnic choreographed moves, which really “wowed” the audience. In the Solo Adult Achiever competition, the top solo dancers in the various styles, were all pitched against each-other, having to listen to a brand-new piece of music, and then dance to these different genres of music - once again, having to impress the Judges with their artistic interpretation of the music and expertise.

The overall winners were:
Battle of the Giants Solo Adult Achiever
Winner - Ms. Tsebang Siphambo, Faymous Studio Dance School Won the R15 000 prize from Lara Travel, for an air-ticket to travel overseas to compete, the Tomato Watches Trophy, Garnier products and Sun International stay at The Cascades.

Winner – Mr. Madison Versveld, Red Robynne Studios

Battle of the Giants – Adult Team Achiever

Closing date for cash prize of R1 000 around the corner

RUSTENBURG HERALD - RUSTENBURG - We have recently announced an important change to the rules of the Rustenburg Herald Art competition.

From this year artists are no longer required to attach their entries (art works) onto the blank space regularly printed in Rustenburg Herald and/or Bonus as it is believed to somewhat restrict artists in as far as size is concerned.

At the same time Rustenburg Herald would not necessarily have to sacrifice the, in fact, very much needed space of an empty/blank page to accommodate these entries.

From now on artists are required to attach their works of art to ANY PAGE or use the page as your canvas to paint or sketch on.

Make sure that the date and page number of THIS edition are still visible.

Also see the art works already being displayed at our two participating Pick n Pay stores for an example of what you should do.

To complete your entry, simply complete the entry form at the top of this page, attach it to your artwork and “post” your entry into the entry boxes at both participating Pick n Pay Stores - Pick n Pay Azalea Park, Greystone Crossing or Pick n Pay Lifestyle Square, Beyers Naudé Avenue in Midtown Rustenburg or at reception of Rustenburg Herald’s offices in 13 Coetzer Street, Eastern Industrial Area, Rustenburg. Artists should please note that entries must be new or rather recent work.

Remember - two cash prizes of R1 000 each sponsored by Rustenburg Herald are up for grabs to the two quarterly winners while two extremely valuable Pick n Pay Shopping Vouchers to the value of R10 000 each are waiting for the two overall winners of the Rustenburg Herald Art competition.

These prizes are sponsored courtesy Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé and Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing.

The closing date for the competition is 31 May 2023 - come on - get those entries rolling...

GUARDIANS OF THE GALAXY VOLUME 3

ONCE MORE WITH FEELING.

IN CINEMAS

AT STER-KINEKOR THEATRES FROM 5 MAY

As daar een bestanddeel in Suid-Afrikaners, trouens alle kosmakers, kokers en bakkers regoor die wêreld se "koskaste" is waarvoor ons almal dankbaar moet wees, is dit ondernemingsgees. As dit nie vir ondernemingsgees - eksperimentering - was nie, sou ons almal vandag seker nog presies dieselfde kos en geregte geëet het as wat ons voorvaders en voorgeslagte gereeld op hul tafels gehad het. Met enkele uitsonderings soos braaivleis, potjie en 'n klompie ander immergewilde happies, doen ons dit nie vandag meer só nie. Ondernemingsgees is die bestanddeel wat daartoe bygedra het dat mense nooit moeg raak om met nuwe smake, bestanddele en metodes te eksperimenteer nie – daarom dat dit nodig is om jou resepteboek minstens eenmaal per jaar op datum te bring.

Vandeewee is 'n heerlike "nuweling" in die vorm van 'n maklike tert op ons eie spyskaart. Al gehoor van 'n "PS-tert"? Wel, ons ook nie, maar boeta, as jy jouself nou in 'n stroopsoet smaaksensasie wil verloor, hoef jy nie langer te soek nie. Rejaen Marais, 'n pragtige nooi van Rustenburg wat in 2019 as Mej Rustenburg Herald gekroon is, het hiermee vir ons gewys dat dit nie waar is dat al die soetgoed in die wêreld binnekort gaan opraak nie. En vir die winter se voortdurende holkol op die maag, is die jongste treffer wat teen jou yskasdeur 'n plekkie behoort te kry.

PS-sjokolade-yskastert

Bestanddele:

- 2 pakkies tennisbeskuitjies
- 1 blikkie karamel
- 1 klein houertjie vars room
- 4 x karamel Duo PS-sjokoladestafies (dié met twee stukkies sjokolade in 'n pakkie sodat 'n mens kan deel).

Metode:

Klits vars room tot styf. Voeg blikkie karamel by, meng deeglik saam. Sny of krummel die eerste vier helftes van die PS-sjokolades en voeg by die mengsel. Pak een laag koekies, een laag vulsel.

Is dit nou verleidelik, of hoe? Dié tert het nie 'n gebrek aan soetheid - of sjokolade - nie!.

Hou aan totdat jy al die vulsel gebruik het. Sny nou die ander vier PS-helftes en versier die bokant van jou tert. Plaas in die yskas totdat dit goed gestol is en bedien.

Rejaen Marais se PS-tert vra nie vir veel bestanddele nie, maar elke happie is gevul met heerlike karamel-soetheid wat in jou mond smelt!

Vir mense wat van sjokolade hou, is hierdie ongetwyfeld goeie nuus.

Selfs Rejaen is sommer baie in haar skik met die PS-tert. Daar is mos maar min vroue wat nie 'n voorliefde vir sjokolade het nie – baie manne het ook hierdie swakheid.

Somme maak dalk nie deel van dié proses

Die nuus in Rustenburg draai reeds die afgelope paar weke rondom die kwessie van die moontlike inlywing van klein, onderpresterende munisipaliteite soos Kgetlengrivier, Madibeng en Moses Kotane by die ja, inderdaad onderpresterende Rustenburgse Munisipaliteit en die gevegte en binnegevegte oor die moontlikheid van so ‘n stap. Verder hoor of sien of lees ‘n mens maar min van die hele proses maar veral nie hoekom dit dan nou op hierdie tydstip en datum so op die vooraand van ‘n nasionale verkiesing nodig geword het dat die Rustenburgse Munisipaliteit nou skielik die pad na ‘n “metro” (metropolitaanse munisipaliteit) moet loop nie.

In die “gange van gerugte” egter, hoor ‘n mens dat daar vir Raadslede wat so gelukkig sou wees om in hierdie metro te dien, groot voordeel is van uiteraard ‘n aansienlik verhoogde salarispakket en dat hierdie die rede is hoekom daar relatief min teenstand uit partygelede (behalwe die VF Plus) teen die moontlikheid van so ‘n stap sou kom. ‘n Ander verduideliking is dat so ‘n stap vir die ANC in die RLM groot voordeel inhou deurdat dit die party vir die eerste keer in ‘n taamlike lang tyd in staat sal stel om weer ‘n volstrekte meerderheid in die RLM te geniet en ‘n mens moet vra of daar nog mense is wat teen hierdie tyd nog nie weet nie dat die ANC die belange van die ANC bo dié van Suid-Afrika en Suid-Afrikaners stel. Maar vir mense wat tog logies dink, wil die stap nie regtig mooi sin maak nie. Dink vir ‘n oomblik hieraan:

Daar is vier dorpies almal min of meer 50 km van mekaar. Elkeen van hierdie dorpies sukkel op sy eie manier om finansiële kop bo water te hou, om munisipale dienste te handhaaf, om water, elektrisiteit, vullisverwydering en infrastruktuur (onderhoud) aan die gang te hou, om slaggate en verval in bedwang te hou. Nie een van die vier dorpies kry dit egter deurlopend reg om aan die wenkant van die uitdagings te bly nie en minstens drie van hulle bevind hulle gereeld in die hof waar hulle periodiek die reg verbeur om die leisels te hou en dit vir minstens ‘n paar weke of maande aan die gemeenskap moet oorhandig terwyl hulle hul huis in orde kry. Op sy heel beste is die min “goeie” nuus dat elk van die klein dorpies se leierskap darem “plaaslik” is en as’t ware net voor sy eie agterdeur hoef te vee. Eensklaps egter word die vier klein dorpies skielik een groot dorp, met ‘n gesamentlike leierskap verteenwoordigend van al vier die dorpies. Die probleem nou egter, is dat slegs die mees sentrale of die grootste van die vier klein dorpies nou nog “plaaslik” is, trouens, die bedieningsarea is nou net vier keer so groot (en so ver) soos voorheen. En onthou dan: Die grootste van die vier dorpies wat nou moet “baas” speel, kon voorheen beswaarlik die mas opkom om net voor sy eie agterdeur te vee maar sal nou moet uithaal om te sorg dat al vier die dorpies “beter” bedien word. ‘n Mens hoef egter net na die oorsake en gevolge van verstedeliking oor die afgelope 25 jaar in Suid-Afrika te kyk om te sien waartoe hierdie dorpies inderdaad gedoem is. Dit geld ook die baasspeel-dorpie wat nou meer en groter verantwoordelikhede gaan hê terwyl hy dié verantwoordelikhede te midde van moeiliker omstandighede sal moet handhaaf. Ek sien swarigheid...

Doing the maths probably not part of amalgamation process

For the past few weeks already people have been talking about the possible amalgamation of a number of small under performing municipalities such as Kgetlengrivier, Madibeng and Moses Kotane with that of yes, indeed under performing Rustenburg Local Municipality. One however seldom hears why such a move would be deemed necessary and why it was essential that Rustenburg and those four unfortunate municipalities were earmarked to take to the road towards becoming a “metro” (metropolitan municipality). Rumours have it however, that fortunate Councillors to ultimately serve in the Metro, could bargain on considerably bigger salaries. In addition to this, rumours have it that the amalgamation of the four municipalities would enable the ANC component in the RLM to once again enjoy an outright majority in Council. Apparently it has been quite some time since the Rustenburg ANC in Council were in a position to achieve this. There are probably very few people in the country who don’t know that the ANC regards the ANC as more important than South Africa or South Africans.

Just consider the following: There are four small towns - each of which no less than 50 km from each other. Each of the small towns has been struggling for ages to keep its head above water, to maintain municipal services, to maintain roads and infrastructure, to keep potholes at bay, to fight decline and to keep rolling out services such as water, electricity, refuse removal and sewerage services. None of the four towns however, have been very successful at achieving the goals above with at least three of the small towns constantly engaged in court battles surrounding service delivery issues. These they periodically lose from time to time for weeks or months at a time until they could get their house in order to regain its leadership role. Perhaps the only good news around the small little struggling municipalities is the fact that they were at least “local” and only had to sweep at its own back doors.

All of a sudden however, the four municipalities are amalgamated into one big municipality representing all four small towns. Literally overnight virtually none of the four towns can still be called “local” while the most central and biggest of the four, neither has the money, expertise, experience nor the will to oversee service at all four of the towns. Furthermore, in the past it could hardly manage acceptable service and maintenance levels at its own little back door - let alone all four of them combined. In addition the service area has doubled to four times its former size, while it is also much further, more expensive and much more difficult to logistically take care of its new responsibilities. One simply has to look at the phenomenon of urbanisation in South Africa over the past 25 years to see where it would be going - indeed, dark times ahead...

Is ons dan nie brugbouers nie?

Die redakteur

Die afgelope heerlike langnaweek was rustig, aangenaam en sonder voorval. Maar ai, vir mense wat bo in Cuckoolaan woon, is die steeds onbruikbare stukkie pad direk voor die hoofingang na Rockcliff Estates ‘n nagmerrie. Tot op daardie aaklige dag van 9 Desember 2022 toe ‘n wolkbreuk veroorsaak het dat die Rockcliff Estate-bruggie heeltemal weggespoel het, was ons inkopie-paadjie Waterfall Mall toe sommer ‘n kort en maklike entjie. Vir die afgelope amper vyf maande moet besoekers aan die Waterfall Mall uit ‘n Cuckoolaan-rigting elke keer die beproewende slaggate-oppervlak en padhobbels op die ompad-paadjie Mall toe trotseer en ek sien nou elke keer minder en minder kans vir hierdie ontbering.

Ek vra mooi - asseblief wil die Rustenburg Stadsraad nie maar inspring en die fondse wat hy sekerlik uit die betalings van duisende Rustenburgse belastingbetalers ontvang, aanwend vir die doel waarvoor dit veronderstel is om te dien nie? Hoe lank moet Rustenburgers in die omgewing van die Rockcliff Estates nog met die ongerief van ‘n geslote pad opgeskeep sit? Is drie of vier maande dan nie genoeg om ‘n prioriteitslys saam te stel en te besef dat die Rockcliff-mense duur betaal vir die voorreg om te bly waar hulle bly nie. Hoe lank nog moet ons bereid wees om te wag? Dalk wil Rustenburg se florerende sakesektor hierin hande vat en ‘n projek begin wat as voorbeeld vir ander kan dien. Sjoë - die herstel van Arendweg ook as gevolg van ‘n wolkbreuk, het darem nie heeltemal so lank geduur nie en was ook ‘n reuse projek. Wie weet, dalk moet die mense van MCivils ons ook hiermee kom help. Vyf maande is darem ‘n bietjie erg. Boonop het almal wat in die omgewing van Rockcliff Estates woon, sekerlik lankal besef dat die Rockcliff-bruggie ‘n “ongeluk” was wat gewag het om te gebeur. Wel, dit het nou - kan ons nie inspring en regmaak nie - ‘is ons dan nie bekend as brugbouers nie’ - waar is Rustenburg se slim jong ingenieurs om nou ‘n voorbeeld te noem. Kan dit dan soveel geld kos om so ‘n eenvoudige klein bruggie te herstel om heeltemal van niks af weer te herbou?

Deaths the fault of traffic officers

Dear Editor

I have read numerous letters on this letters page complaining about the lack of traffic officials doing their actual jobs in Rustenburg.

I have also read many a letter about how dangerous the streets of Rustenburg are because many traffic lights are not working.

Well, combine the two, and you have a perfect storm.

This morning on my way to work I noticed how taxis do not even slow down at the out-of-order traffic light on the bridge at the Waterfall Mall. They speed across that crossing without regard for the safety of their passengers or other road users.

At the traffic lights at Selly Park schools, taxis NEVER stop at the red traffic light. They either blatantly ignore the traffic light, or they turn left, and just get into the road via the slipway again.

This morning a man died in town after he was hit by a taxi. His son sustained serious injuries. I read on Facebook the police said the taxi driver claims his brakes failed. Now, that might be the truth, or it might be nonsense - it's not for me to decide.

But what I do know, is that I have seldom seen a taxi driver comply to ANY traffic laws and I will not be surprised if the fatality occurred due to someone not stopping at a traffic light.

And this is the fault of our traffic officials. They are to blame. By not enforcing the laws, they have created this problem. In short, all the people who die due to someone not following the law, should be laid at the feet of traffic officials.

Groot gat hou gevaar in vir motoriste

Die redakteur,

Weet nie wanneer laas het u dalk in Nelson Mandelarylaan gery en by die verkeerslig by die Rustenburgse Munisipale-gebou die afrit (“slipway”) na Beyers Nauderylaan geneem het nie, ja daar waar daar ‘n groot gat in die padoppervlak is. Die gat word van tyd tot tyd herstel en is net so rukkige gelede weer herstel, maar nou is daardie gat groter en dieper as ooit. Daar is iewers ‘n waterlek of iets, want daar lê gewoonlik water op die padoppervlak en ek dink dit is wat die gat daar veroorsaak. Mens gaan nog so ry dan verskyn daar ‘n groot sinkgat, want ek dink die grond onder die pad is al heeltemal weggespoel.

Daar sal iets drasties aan hierdie situasie gedoen moet word, want dit is besig om regtig ‘n gevaarlike situasie te raak. Die afrit is nogal baie besig en daarom sal iemand asseblief baie dringend daarna moet kyk en iets daaraan doen. En sommer dan in dieselfde asem sal ek ook baie graag wil weet wat die situasie met die pad by Rock Cliff is, wanneer gaan daar dalk iets aan hierdie situasie gedoen word. Dit is besig om baie gevaarlik vir die voetgangers te raak, aangesien die pad baie stil is omdat daar nie motors kan ry nie en daar was nou al ‘n geval of twee waar mense, wat op pad is na hulle werke, aangerand en besteel is.
