A ray of hope for the hopeless

Hopelessness grips far too many people. What is the solution? What will break the shackles and open the way to a better life and hope for the hopeless? The newly established non-profit organisation in Damonsville, HOPE, under the leadership of Christina Matjila, has since its recent launch been a ray of hope for the homeless and underprivileged children in the community. Christina and her team worked tirelessly to get donations to make this winter a little warmer for those in need. "Our aim was to help, but with the overwhelming support from the Brits community, we are currently giving warm clothes and blankets to more than 200 children and homeless people," said Christina. "And with further support we will definitely start a soup kitchen." Business organisations or individuals who wish to support this cause can contact Christina on 071 109 7327. BMW TO INVEST R4.2BN IN SA

Taking the electro mobility era by storm

BRITS POS – ROSSLYN - BMW South Africa is going electric and this means that they will be investing R4.2 billion over five years to prepare its manufacturing plant in Rosslyn, east of Brits for the electro mobility era.

The next generation BMW X3 will be produced at Plant Rosslyn from the second half of 2024 and "will come as a plug-in hybrid" and will be the first BMW electric model produced in South Africa with internal combustion engine derivatives of the vehicle.

This investment will secure the future of BMW Group Plant Rosslyn and the livelihoods of more than 20 000 people directly and indirectly employed at BMW Group SA's facilities and within its supply chain. Commitment BMW will be electrifying their local operations as part of future proofing Plant Rosslyn as the European markets are going electric. Since we believe in that, we have done it. That is what is important," he said.

The Auto sector is frustrated with government over electric vehicle transition policy and three of every four of the vehicles produced in South Africa are exported to Europe with no negative impact on jobs'

Experience at BMW has shown that electro mobility leads to a significant increase in work content based on the battery itself, the battery package and assembly system employed and this compensates for any reduction in employment in other areas. Production of a plug-in hybrid vehicle is the first step in preparing the plant for electro mobility and preparing the employees from a skills perspective for electrification in general.

KGABALATSANE Convenience store at filling station robbed

BRITS POS – KGABALATSANE - A female cashier (33) was inside the store when she heard a loud banging noise at the front door and four baclava wearing males were breaking the door open and entered a convenience store at the BP Garage in Kgabalatsane on Tuesday, 27 June around 01:40.

One of the thugs held her at gunpoint and ordered her to open the door that leads to the cashier box while another suspect raided the shelves of cigarettes and the third suspect emptied the cash register. The victim alleges that she kept quiet until she couldn't hear any footsteps and notified police. The suspects left with an unknown amount of cash and cigarettes. "We can confirm that a case of business robbery was registered at Hebron Police Station," says SAPS Brits spokesperson, Const Ben Moabi, "and the suspects are still at large." Anyone with information about the incident can contact the Investigating Officer, Sgt Jacob Sekati of Hebron Detectives on 082 500 5254.

Carjacking in Mothotlung

BRITS POS – MOTHOTLUNG - A motorist (58) was on his way home to Mothotlung via Brits Road on Monday, 26 June around 18:45 in his white Suzuki Swift, when he stopped to relieve himself when two men approached him and one held him at gunpoint.

He was told to get into his car and the suspect driver headed in the direction of Ga-Rankuwa while the other suspect body-searched the victim, took his cellphone, bank cards and demanded his pin numbers. The victim was dropped off in the area of Winterveld where he searched for help to report it to the police. "A case of carjacking was opened at Mothotlung police station and the suspects are still at large," says SAPS Brits spokesperson, Const Ben Moabi. Anyone with information about the incident can contact the Investigating Officer, Detective Sgt Michael Khoza of Rustenburg Vehicle Crimes Investigation Unit on 082 856 1608.

Another master-planned truckjacking

BRITS POS – BRITS - A male employee (40) at a towing service in Kempton Park was driving a Nissan truck on the Vametco Mine gravel road, to collect a Tractor-Loader-Backhoe (TLB) in Pendoring Street, Brits.

Upon arrival at the Alpha Crossing, just south of Brits, he picked up a man, as arranged, who gave him directions to the premises, but the driver was then told that they had to collect another person, which they did, but within minutes the driver was held at gunpoint and instructed into another direction where the suspects took all his belongings and fled with the truck. Luckily the victim managed to untie himself and went to seek help. A case of truckjacking was opened at Brits police station. "At this stage the suspects are still at large and anyone with information about the incident can contact the Investigating Officer Detective Sergeant Michael Khoza of Rustenburg Vehicle Crimes Investigation Unit on 082 856 1608," requests SAPS Brits spokesperson, Const Ben Moabi.

Khethalo Primary School hit by robbers

BRITS POS – MABOLOKA - On Wednesday, 28 June around 02:00 five unknown suspects, one armed, broke into the premises of Khethalo Primary School, Bataung Section, Maboloka.

The caretaker was asleep inside a room at the premises when he heard his dog barking. He went outside and untied his dog to investigate and then went back to sleep.

The dog barked again and the victim heard a shot being fired. Suddenly the door to his room was kicked down and through a broken window pane, a male held him at gunpoint, but he rushed to the other window where another man was standing, but the victim opened the window and escaped with three shots being fired at him and the victim reached the nearby house of a member of the school's governing body.

They stood in the dark while watching the movement of suspects with a torch light at the school. Then a black car appeared, picked up the suspects and sped off. When they went to the school, they found that the caretaker's phone and torchlight were taken and the suspects also broke into the principal's office.

They summoned SAPS Letlhabile to the school, but couldn't establish what had been taken. They called the school principal who advised that she would be there in the morning. It was then confirmed that the office burglar door, the door and the strong room were damaged, but nothing was taken from the principal's office or strongroom.

A case of business robbery was opened at Letlhabile police station.

"At this stage the suspects are still at large and we request anyone with information about the incident, to contact the Investigating Officer Detective Sgt Lerato Mashigo on 082 416 0670," says SAPS Brits spokesperson, Const Ben Maobi.

Security guards held at gunpoint at Truck Shop

BRITS POS – MOOINOOI - Two security guards were on duty at the Mooinooi Truck Shop in Mooinooi on Wednesday, 28 June and around 02:00, sitting at the TV room, four males suddenly appeared.

One held them at gun point and the victims were body searched and their cellphones were taken. The victims were then led in to the TV room where their hands were tied up behind their backs with shoelaces. The suspects took a 32-inch plasma TV set and left. One of the victims managed to get the assistance of a woman and she untied them. When they went to inspect the premises, they found the padlock of the office door was cut to gain entry. The safe was broken into and the suspects took an unknown amount of cash. No one was injured. "We can confirm that a case of Business Robbery was opened at Mooinooi police station," says Const Ben Moabi, spokesperson for SAPS Brits, "and at this stage the suspects are still at large." Anyone with information about the incident can contact the Investigating Officer Detective Sergeant Lerato Mashigo on 082 4160 670.

Stepfather allegedly murders 9-year-old son

BRITS POS – HARTBEESPOORT

- Hartbeespoortdam police received a complaint from a local doctor in Hartbeespoort of a deceased male at the Medical Centre, Schoemansville on Thursday, 29 June around 13:30.

Upon arrival by the members, they were shown the naked body of a deceased 9-year-old boy with multiple bruises. It is alleged that the doctor told the members that the boy's father (42) brought him there, but that the boy was already deceased.

When the doctor enquired about the father to convey the message, she was told that he had left and was heading towards the Total garage opposite the centre. A police captain who was on leave was contacted by the physician and happened to be in the vicinity of the clinic and found and arrested the father.

Let's be clear about one thing. What we see in that video, represents exactly what the ANC really thinks of the people of South Africa.

We - all the people of South Africa - are the ones down on the ground. And the ANC are the thugs masquerading as a government, stomping on our neck.

From Andries Tatane to Marikana, this is not the first time we have seen murderous abuse of power by the ANC's security forces directed at ordinary citizens.

This is no accident. The ANC spends R1.7 billion of taxpayer money to maintain this VIP unit as their own personal army. As long as the ANC is in power, they will keep stomping on us.

That is why the topic of my address this morning is so important. Because the Moonshot Pact to form a strong, united opposition provides a way for us to break free from the abuse our country suffers at the hands of the ANC.

Like many of you, and indeed like many other opposition leaders, I came to the conclusion that forming a united opposition Pact ahead of the 2024 election offers us the very best chance to unseat the ANC, keep the EFF out of power, and form a stable new government to rescue South Africa.

This Moonshot Pact would bring together different parties – excluding the ANC, EFF and their proxies – to ensure that the opposition focuses our collective energies on defeating the ANC, rather than on attacking each other.

I said at the time that this is the single most important project for any opposition leader who wants to create a better future for our country. And I said that I would keep you updated as the process unfolds.

Today, I can provide encouraging feedback.

Through hours of open, honest and respectful discussion, seven parties have established sufficient common ground to hold a National Convention for the Moonshot Pact.

These parties are the DA, IFP, Freedom Front Plus, ActionSA, United Independent Movement and the Spectrum National Party.

The Convention will take place on 16 and 17 August at the same venue that hosted the CODESA negotiations.

That is why I call upon you to go to check.voteda.org right now to get help registering.

~Speech by DA Federal Leader, John Steenhuisen.

Minister moet instaan vir immigrasiewet-chaos

BRITS POS – BRITS - Die minister vir binnelandse sake, dr. Aaron Motsoaledi moet as politieke hoof van die departement instaan vir die chaos rondom die Immigrasiewet.

Die departement het versuim om te voldoen aan 'n 2017-Grondwethofbevel om wysigings aan die wet aan te bring, wat reeds teen Junie 2019 gedoen moes wees.

Op navraag van hoofregter Raymond Zondo oor die aangeleentheid, het die minister die skuld gepak op die optrede van amptenare.

Volgens Motsoaledi is hy nooit ingelig het dat hy persoonlik aanspreeklik was om seker te maak dat die opdrag uitgevoer word of om toe te sien dat uitstel gevra word om die wysigings aan te bring nie.

Hy voer ook aan dat dieregsadviseurs van die departement 'n duidelike opdrag om hom

Die departement plaas weer die blaam op die 2019-algemene verkiesing, die Covid-19-pandemie in 2020 en die brand in die parlementsgebou as rede waarom nie aan die gestelde tydlyn voldoen is nie.

Dit hou geen water nie. Beide die pandemie en die brandskade aan die parlementsgebou het plaasgevind nadat die Junie 2019-tydlyn reeds verstryk het.

Die hof sal nou moet besluit hoe die regte van aangehoudenes beskerm sal word tot tyd en wyl die departement die immigrasiewetgewing gefinaliseer het.

Artikel 92 van die Suid-Afrikaanse Grondwet bepaal uitdruklik dat ministers verantwoordelik en verantwoordbaar is vir die magte en funksies wat ampshalwe aan hul toegeken is. Kabinetministers is verder verantwoordbaar aan die parlement.

Die VF Plus sal 'n persoonlike kostebevel teen min. Motsoaledi en die direkteurgeneraal van binnelandse sake, Livhuwani Makhode, verwelkom.

Die minister is duidelik nie in staat om die departement te bestuur of verantwoordbaar te hou nie. Die volgehoue agteruitgang van dienslewering in die departement beklemtoon die noodsaak om die ANC-regering in 2024 te vervang met 'n nuwe veelparty-koalisieregering.

Veels geluk

Die bestuur en personeel van Sandstone Sorgsentrum wens vir Winnie Rudolf, 'n inwoner van dié sentrum, hartlik geluk met die herdenking van haar geboortedag op 2 Julie. Winnie het haar 85ste verjaarsdag saam met familie, vriende en haar mede-inwoners geniet.

Hospice - altyd 'n helpende hand

Een persoon is Sondag, 2 Julie ernstig in 'n motorfietsongeluk by die R512 Leloko-afrif op Pampoennek beseer. HEMS se paramedici was op die toneel en het die beseerde persoon gestabiliseer en per nooddhelikopter na 'n hospitaal in Johannesburg afgevoer. Die oorsaak van die ongeluk is onbekend. Geen ander voertuig was betrokke nie.

Groot deurbraak in bemiddeling tussen Solidariteit en SA-regering

BRITS POS – BRITS – Niemand mag as gevolg van rasprogramme van maatskappye op enige wyse afgedank word nie; ras mag nie as enigste maatstaf gebruik word nie; vaardighede moet in ag geneem word; en regstellende aksie moet tydelik wees – dit is van die punte van die uitkoms van 'n nege maande lange bemiddelingsproses tussen Solidariteit en die Suid-Afrikaanse regering onder toesig van die Verenigde Nasies se Internasionale Arbeidsorganisasie (IAO).

Die uitkoms van die proses is in die vorm van 'n ooreenkoms wat tussen Solidariteit en die regering vasgemaak is en wat deur Flip Buys, voorstaander van die Solidariteit Beweging, en minister TW Nxesi, die minister van arbeid en indiensneming, onderteken is.

Die ooreenkoms gaan nou as deel van die 2023-diensbillikheidsregulasies in die Staatskoerant gepubliseer word en die partye het ooreengekom dat dit 'n hofbevel gemaak word. Maatskappye sal dus verplig wees om dit te implementeer. Verdere punte in die ooreenkoms bepaal daar mag geen absolute plafonne vir indiensneming of bevordering vir enige groep wees nie, en die inherente vereistes van 'n pos kan in ag geneem word vir aanstelling en bevordering. Maatskappye kan ook hul ekonomiese posisie, personeelomset en vaardigheidstekorte as verweer aanvoer waarom hulle nie teikens bereik nie. Indien 'n maatskappy 'n redelike verweer aanvoer, sal daardie maatskappy nie boetes opgelê word of staatskontrakte verbeur nie. Die bemiddelingsproses het begin ná 'n klag wat Solidariteit by die IAO teen die regering gelê het oor die rigiede toepassing van regstellende aksie in Suid-Afrika. Solidariteit het aangevoer dat Suid-Afrika konvensie 111 van die IAO oortree wat onder meer bepaal dat regstellende maatreëls buigbaar moet wees.

Die IAO het destyds bevind dat Solidariteit se klag ontvanklik is. Dit beteken die klag voldoen aan al die IAO se tegniese vereistes, dat dit op sig waarde meriete het en dat Solidariteit interne remedies uitgeput het. Die Solidariteit-klag het dus tot 'n verhoorproses oorgegaan en die eerste stap het vrywillige bemiddeling tussen die partye behels.

Die spanning tussen die gemeenskap en die regering het verhoog nadat die regering onlangs rasregulasies gepubliseer het wat verreikende gevolge vir minderhede kon inhoud. In reaksie daarop het 29 organisasies 'n gesamentlike resolusie onderteken wat die druk op die regering verhoog het. Die ooreenkoms wat sedertdien bereik is, is beslis beïnvloed deur die krag van 'n gemeenskap wat saamstaan.

Hierdie ooreenkoms beteken die einde van die gebruik van ras as enigste maatstaf vir indiensneming en bevordering. Dit verwyder ook die swaard van aflegging wat oor die kop van minderhede gehang het, en dit beteken ook dat maatskappye nie meer onder dwang sal wees om aanstellings te moet maak wat nie aan hul spesifieke vaardighedsbehoeftes voldoen nie.

Dit is die ontknop van die IAO-dispuut oor buigsaamheid, maar dit is egter nie die einde van rasprogramme in Suid-Afrika nie. Dit is 'n belangrike deurbraak en 'n groot oorwinning op die strategiese slagveld, maar die oorlog is nog nie verby nie. 'n Stryd wat nog voorlê is om Eskom ter wille van almal in Suid-Afrika vry te kry van swart ekonomiese bemagtigingsreëls wat 'n rookskerm vir plundering geword het.

Brits-Hartbeespoort Hospice het 'n aktiewe ondersteuningsgroep in Damonsville vir pasiënte wat met 'n lewensbedreigende siekte gediagnoseer word. Hospice verleen holistiese palliatiewe sorg wat inligting, onderrig en emosionele ondersteuning rakende die spesifieke diagnose soos kanker, tuberkulose en HIV insluit. Illegal dumping a huge problem

After Brits Pos received numerous complaints from residents in Elandsrand about the illegal dumping and burning of waste in the residential areas, it was reported to Madibeng municipality and the spokesperson, Tumelo Tshabalala, responded: "Illegal dumping in the municipal area is a widespread problem and also occurring in other areas such as Oukasie, Lethabile, Damonsville and Mothotlung," Tshabalala said. "This is despite the fact that Madibeng municipality has fully operational waste transfer stations in many areas within the jurisdiction to help deal with broader waste management services. We wish to appeal to people to make use of such available facilities and refrain from acts of illegal dumping. We (municipality) furthermore, conduct educational and awareness campaigns to address environmental challenges which involve informal waste picking, separation at source and eradication of illegal dumping sites." Blokraai 23-06Answer: # 718*Koel, maar sonnige weer dié week

BRITS POS – BRITS – Die koms van die winter begin altyd met die wintersonstilstand wat reeds einde Junie hier by ons in die suidelike halfronde plaasgevind het.

Voorwaar 'n astronomiese gebeurtenis gedagdig daarvan dat dié verskynsel verband hou met die kantelbeweging van die planete.

Die sonstilstand vind twee keer per jaar plaas: die somersonstilstand en die wintersonstilstand, wat dus die begin van die seisoene aandui, die warmste of die koudste na gelang van die halfronde.

Die woord sonstilstand kom van die Latynse sol Sistere ("steeds die son"), want op daardie dae kom die langste (somer) en kortste (winter) tydsduur van die jaar voor. Om hierdie rede het die verskillende antieke kulture van die mensdom spesiale aandag aan hierdie twee dae gegee en hulle gesien as die grootste punt of volheid van hitte of koue, en hulle dus geassosieer met die son se grootste glans en lewenskrigtheid.

Volgens weerkenners is die gemiddelde maksimum temperatuur die komende week ongeveer 18°C en die kwik kan so laag as 3°C daal.

Die departement van water en sanitasie in Hartbeespoort het op 3 Julie die volgende statistiek van damvlakke deurgegee:

|---------------|--------|----------------|--------|-------------|--------|
| Hartbeespoort | 98,9% | Swartruggens | 101,6% | Pella | 71,6% |
| Bon Accord | 108,1% | Roodekopjes | 103,1% | Mokolo | 100,2% |
| Olifantsnek | 99,8% | Marico-Bosveld | 97,9% | Disaneng | 89,7% |
| Lindleyspoort | 97,9% | Kromellenboog | 97,1% | Setumo | 103,5% |
| Roodeplaat | 100,4% | Molatedi | 63,6% | Lotlamoreng | 100% |
| Klipvoor | 101,5% | Madikwe | 59,8% | | |

Lindleyspoortdam is 'n betonboogtipe dam geleë in die Elandsrivier, naby Swartruggens en is in 1943 gestig en is in 1968 opgeknap. Alhoewel die watervlak van dié dam in die verlede baie laag was, is die dam tans 97,9% vol. (Foto: alchetron.com).
