Vullis 'skip' vat vlam reg langs kleuterskool

'n Massiewe rommelhouer, wat reg langs die ingang na 'n kleuterskool in Ludorfstraat 52, Brits aan die brand gesteek is, is deur STATION 21 van HEMS, Maandag, 5 Junie geblus. Dié onooglike 'skip' word ook onwettig deur talle besighede en inwoners in die omgewing gebruik om rommel en vullis te stort en sodoende 'n 'goudmyn' vir rommelversamaelaars te skep. Van 06:00oggens is dit 'n miernes van bedrywigheid en motors hou stil om vullissakke te stort. Die kante van die omheining is onlangs met sinkpligte verhoog, maar rommelstorters -en versamaelaars kry steeds toegang daartoe. Brits Pos versoek al jare dat die onooglike 'skip' met 'n afstootlike reuk en vlieë - en 'n ongeluk is wat wag om te gebeur - na 'n veiliger plek, weg van die geboue af verskuif moet word, maar dit gebeur nie.

Everyone mourns the passing of beloved Lt Col Mohajane

BRITS – MOOINOOI - It is with great sadness that the Provincial Commissioner of North West, Lt Gen Sello Kwena, learnt of the alleged murder of a 55-year-old Lt Col Lekone Morris Mohajane who was the Detective Branch Commander at Mooinooi police station.

He was allegedly shot and killed during a hijacking incident on Sunday, 4 June at his house in Hammanskraal, Gauteng. The Provincial Commissioner visited the Mohajane family on Monday, 5 June 2023, and on behalf of the provincial management, conveyed heartfelt condolences to the family, friends and colleagues of the Colonel, who was a seasoned police officer with 33 years of loyal service. He said that the passing on of the selfless and dedicated Lt Col Mohajane came at the crucial time of intensifying the fight against criminality, in which he played a crucial role.

Lt Gen Kwena condemned the killing of police officers, which he said is tantamount to undermining the authority of the state and taking away one of the much-needed resources from the community, thus affecting service delivery. He indicated that resources have been mobilised to ensure that those who are behind this evil deed, are brought to book to face the full might of the law.

Well done, Elandsrand!

BRITS POS – ELANDSRAND - The community of Elandsrand was called up by DA Cllr Eugene van der Schyff to lend a hand in keeping Elandsrand safe during a planned interruption of electricity supply by Madibeng Local Municipality from midnight, Friday 2 June to Sunday, 4 June at 16:00, in collaboration with Elandsrand Men’s Forum, which played a pivotal role.

Hands were joined and zero crime was reported during the whole period. “I called on YOU, the Community to stand together in order for us to help ourselves,” says Van der Schyff, “and the response was simply overwhelming. YOU proved that we can stand together as one. One for all and all for one.” “Sipho Sithole of the Elandsrand Men’s Forum stepped in and mobilised residents to participate.” “Lessons can be learnt from this initiative, where all got together, especially when differences are put aside - may God continue to guide us.” Concludes Sithole. A big thank you to all the roll players.

Everyone who cared about the safety of residents of Elandsrand joined hands the past weekend and no crime was reported. Well done to everyone that took part in this incredible cooperation operation.

NOTE TO MOTORISTS: Sanral to partially close N1 in Midrand this weekend

BRITS POS – MIDRAND - The N1 highway between the Samrand interchange and the Rooihuiskraal interchange, in Midrand, will experience partial road closures this weekend, June 10 and 11 to allow Eskom to perform essential work necessary to install new overhead transmission power lines and a conductor that supplies electricity to the area, according to the South African National Roads Agency Limited (SANRAL).

The partial road closures will start on Saturday, June 10, from 06:00 to 18:00, and Sunday, June 11, from 06:00 to 12:00. The lanes will be closed in stages of approximately 30minutes, however, complete closure will be required when cables cross the N1. Motorists will be diverted via the R101 and it will be signposted. Both Johannesburg and Tshwane Metropolitan Police Departments will be in attendance to manage traffic and ensure minimal disruptions. The closures may need to be adjusted depending on weather conditions on the day. Sanral warns that these partial closures may introduce disruptions to the normal travel times for

"Sanral apologises for any inconvenience caused during this period and will continue to provide updates to road users as information becomes available. The agency takes seriously its mandate from government to manage and maintain the national road network. In so doing, the safety and wellbeing of road users and the communities in which it operates, are paramount."

Policeman kidnapped and carjacked

BRITS POS – BRITS - As a constable was waiting for his girlfriend to return from work at an intersection in Maboloka on Thursday, 1 June around 19:45 in his Toyota Hilux bakkie, someone knocked on the window, held him at gunpoint and instructed him to unlock the doors of the bakkie.

The victim responded to the command and unlocked the doors. The armed suspect moved in behind the steering wheel and the other two suspects also got into the vehicle.

When the driver drove off, the victim grabbed the steering wheel and turned it in the direction of oncoming traffic and one of the suspects fired a shot between the victim's legs and another shot was discharged to the outside of the bakkie.

At bushes near Klipgat, the victim was body searched and the suspects took his service pistol, live rounds of ammunition, cellphone, cash and bank cards for which they demanded pin numbers.

The victim was tied up with his shoelaces and two suspects kept guard while one drove off in his bakkie. After cellphone communication between the suspects, the victim was released and told to run. At a nearby house, he was assisted to report it to Klipgat SAPS. Cases of carjacking and kidnapping were opened at Lethlabile police station. "The victim's vehicle was found abandoned at Klipgat," says Maria Nkabinde, spokesperson SAPS Brits, "and no arrest has yet been made." Anyone with information about the incident can contact the Investigating Officer Lt Col Jacob Sechele of Rustenburg Vehicle Crimes Investigation unit (VCIU) on 082 665 3015.

Another carjacking on the R566

BRITS POS – DE WILDT - A motorist was driving from Brits to Kgabalaane on the R566 on Tuesday, 30 May around 17:00 when he checked the tyres on his Corsa bakkie and found one with what appeared to be a slow puncture. At the Alfa crossing south of Brits, he was unable to find a business who could assist with repairs.

When he arrived at De Wildt, he pulled off the road to check the tyre again, when all sudden two men approached him, of which one was armed. He was held at gunpoint and instructed to get back behind the steering wheel and to turn back on the road and he then had to turn off at a gravel road and drive to a bushy area where another three males were awaiting their arrival. The victim was beaten up and body searched. They took cash, a laptop, cellphones, a toolbox and his bank card and tied him up. He also had to give his bank pin number to the thugs and they all left in his bakkie. He managed to untie himself and made it to the tar road where police found him. Whilst opening a case docket of carjacking, information was received that the vehicle was found in Pretoria. "At this stage the suspects are still at large," says SAPS spokesperson, Maria Nkabinde. Anyone with information regarding the incident can contact the Investigating Officer Lieutenant Colonel Jacob Sechele of Rustenburg Vehicle Crimes investigation (VCIU)unit on 082 665 3015.

Learner robbed on his way to school

BRITS POS – HARTBEESPOORT - When the mother of a 17-year-old boy returned home from work, she asked her son why he hadn't call her as per their mutual agreement.

He then told his mom that he was waiting for a taxi to go to school around 07:00, on Thursday, 1 June, when a green Fiat stopped and he asked the driver who had been accompanied by three passengers for a lift. When the learner wanted to pay, the passenger next to him held him at gunpoint, took his cellphone and iPhone and the victim was dropped off on the side of the road. The victim wasn't injured and no shot was fired. An armed robbery case was opened at Hartbeespoortdam police station. "The suspects are still at large," says SAPS spokesperson, Maria Nkabinde. Anyone with information about the incident can contact the Investigating Officer, Capt Dlamini of Hartbeespoortdam Detectives on 082 416 2715.

Mob justice and murder for alleged surgery housebreaker

BRITS POS – LETLAHBILE - On Wednesday, 31 May, just before midnight, SAPS Visible Police (VISPOL) based at the Lethlabile police station and tasked with crime prevention duties, received information that a man (28) has been assaulted by community members with sticks and stones, allegedly when breaking into a local doctor's surgery in Lethlabile.

When police arrived at the scene, the suspect was found with multiple injuries and taken to the Lethlabile Clinic, but died as he was receiving medical treatment. A case of murder was opened at the Lethlabile police station. "Suspects are not yet apprehended at this stage," says SAPS spokesperson, Maria Nkabinde. Anyone with information regarding the incident can contact the Investigating Officer Capt Molefe of Lethlabile Detectives on 082 416 0670. Investigation into the matter continues.

Drug manufacturer found with 4000 Ecstasy tablets

BRITS POS - SKIETFONTEIN - With "Operation Shanel" gaining momentum, police in the province arrested 320 suspects throughout the weekend.

The suspects were arrested for crimes ranging from robbery aggravating, murder, rape, attempted murder, illegal possession of firearms and ammunition, possession and dealing in drugs to illegal dealing in liquor.

In one of the operations in Mmakau on Thursday afternoon, 1 June, Riaan Spies (32) was apprehended at Skietfontein smallholding in De Wildt near Brits, for possession and dealing in drugs. The accused was arrested during a multidisciplinary and crime intelligence driven operation after the team executed a search warrant. During the search at the accused's place, the team discovered drug manufacturing equipment as well as chemicals used to manufacture drugs and approximately 4000 ecstasy tablets, computer equipment and a tablet gadget. The accused was remanded in custody upon appearance before the Brits Magistrates' Court on Friday, 2 June 2023. He is expected to reappear before the same court on Friday, 9 June 2023, for formal bail application.

Pick n Pay to pay for 17 000 customers' shopping baskets

BRITS POS - BRITS - Pick n Pay, one of South Africa's leading retailers, has launched an exciting initiative to reward their Smart Shoppers by randomly selecting one winner from every store nationwide every day until June 18 to win their entire shopping for free.

It aims to give away up to R10 million in free groceries over six weeks. The initiative aims to provide some relief to shoppers during a difficult period while also creating moments of true excitement. The initiative launched on May 8, has already surprised over 2 700 winners with a free shop collectively valued at R1,6 million. Two customers walked out with free shopping worth more than R10 000 each, much to their considerable delight.

To qualify to win, customers need to swipe their registered Smart Shopper card and buy any two participating products. The winners will be notified at the till point, and their groceries will be packed into a limited edition golden reusable bag before they walk away with their entire basket or trolley of groceries, free of charge. The Smart Shopper programme is one of the country's biggest loyalty reward programmes, dedicated to giving customers real value. Pick n Pay hopes that the initiative will provide some relief to customers who are currently under huge pressure. Research shows that more shoppers are using loyalty programmes to save money when shopping. But additional benefits, beyond instant savings, are important. BrandMapp's research shows that the top benefit loyalty members enjoy is a cashback reward. According to Andrew Mills, Group Executive: Marketing at Pick n Pay, the retailer remains committed to delivering benefits to its customers for their current and future shopping trips. "In these challenging economic times, customers are looking for more ways to save money, and our Smart Shopper programme offers just that. Customers enjoy immediate savings by swiping their card at the till points and accumulating points that can be used as cash-back on their later shopping trips." Mills notes that more customers are turning to loyalty programmes now to unlock value and savings.

"We have seen a record number of customers redeeming their Smart Shopper points since we launched the programme 12 years ago." In addition to 17 000 customers winning their groceries for free, shoppers can also stand to win R10 000 in Smart Shopper points by posing in-store with any two participating products or their Golden Bag and posting the picture on social media using #PnPGolden-Bag. If you are a Pick n Pay Smart Shopper, this initiative is worth participating in, as it not only provides some relief during a difficult period but also creates exciting moments in-store. - GNR 983 Activity 13: The development of facilities or infrastructure for the off-stream storage of water, including dams and reservoirs, with a combined capacity of 50 000 cubic metres or more, unless such storage falls within the ambit of activity 16 in Listing Notice 2 of 2014.
- GNR 984 Activity 15: The clearance of an area of 20 hectares or more of indigenous vegetation, excluding where such clearance of indigenous vegetation is required for—the undertaking of a linear activity; or (ii) maintenance purposes undertaken in accordance with a maintenance management plan.
- GNR 985 Activity 19: The clearance of an area of 300 square metres or more of indigenous vegetation except where such clearance of indigenous vegetation is required for maintenance purposes undertaken in accordance with a maintenance management plan. h.) iv. Critical biodiversity areas as identified in systematic biodiversity plans adopted by the competent authority.

NEM:WA

- GNR 663 Category A (1): The storage of general waste in lagoons;
- GNR 663 Category A (10): The disposal of general waste to land covering an area of more than 50m² but less than 200m² and with a total capacity not exceeding 25 000 tons;
- GNR 663 Category A (12): The construction of a facility for a waste management activity listed in Category A of this Schedule (not in isolation to associated waste management activity).
- GNR 663 Category B (8): The disposal of general waste to land covering an area in excess of 200m² and with a total capacity exceeding 25 000 tons.
- GNR 663 Category B (10): The construction of a facility for a waste management activity listed in Category B of this Schedule (not in isolation to associated waste management activity).

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

NTC Environmental (Pty) Ltd was appointed as the independent Environmental Assessment Practitioner, on behalf of MLM, to undertake the Section 24G Rectification Application Process and apply for environmental authorisation to North West Department of Economic Development, Environment, Conservation and Tourism. A draft Section 24G Assessment Report will be made available to all Interested and Affected Parties (I&APs) for review and comment on 12th of June 2023, and at the following locations:

- Madibeng Local Municipal Offices;
- Hartebeesfontein Landfill Security Office;
- Online: www.ntcgroup.co.za and/or on request from NTC.

To ensure that you are registered as an I&AP, or if you know of any person or group that should be included in the public consultation process, please submit your name, contact information and interest in the matter to the contact person on or before 07 July 2023.

FLORET BLOMMEKLUB

65ste verjaardag in styl gevier

BRITS POS – BRITS – Floret Blommeklub se 65ste bestaansjaar is op 25 Mei met ‘n stylvolle opedag gevier.

Die lede het geen blom of blaar onaangeraak gelaat nie en het ontwerpe van hoogstaande gehalte uitgestal.

Die saal van die Hervormde Kerk in Van Veldenstraat, waar die geleentheid plaasgevind het, het behoorlik gekreun onder die unieke en kleurvolle uitstallings met die tema “Kleur die Wêreld.” Die ander ontwerpe met die tema “Skulptuur” het vir geen beeldhouwerk in ‘n kunsgallery teruggestaan nie en het besoekers in verwondering gelaat.

Die gebruik van palmskedes het goeie lyne verskaf en saam met gekrulde takke en balle is verskillende vorms en spasies ingesluit.

Die jongste deelnemer tydens die opedag was Michaela Piater, ‘n gr.3-leerling van Laerskool Brits, wat ‘n versameling van goggas van plantmateriaal gemaak het.

Die demonstrateur van die dag, Faan Haasbroek het gewys hoe hy afvalmateriaal effekief kan inspan om ‘n ontwerp te komplimenteer. Lisa Tustin het Faan behendig bygestaan om elke ontwerp te balanseer en af te rond.

Besoekers was dit eens dat benewens die merkwaardige ontwerpe en heerlike verversings, dit die puik gasvryheid van Floret Blommeklub se lede is, wat tot die dag se sukses bygedra het.

Nuwe lede en blommeliefhebbers word hartlik uitgenooi om vir Lynn Moll by 083 707 2503 vir meer inligting oor die klub se volgende byeenkoms te skakel.

Faan Haasbroek, die demonstrateur by Floret Blommeklub se onlangse ope dag, het ou saaglemme in sy blommerangskikkering gebruik om die ontwerp en tema van “Industrial Chic” te komplimenteer.

Susan de Beer en Elaine Smit by ‘n interessante ontwerp met die tema “Skulptuur.”

Michaela Piater, het oulike insekte met allerlei plantmateriaal gemaak en het die prys as wenner in die afdeling gr.3 tot gr.5 gewen. By haar is Ansie Roos.

Fifteen years imprisonment for GBV violence related murder

BRITS POS – MABOLOKA - The Provincial Commissioner of North West, Lt Gen Sello Kwena welcomed the fifteen years direct imprisonment handed down to a 44-year-old murderer, Ishmael Mofolo by the North Gauteng High Court sitting in Pretoria on Thursday, 1 June 2023.

Mofolo was sentenced in connection with the murder of his girlfriend, Florence Bongo (43), at Checkers Section, Maboloka Village near Brits. Evidence was led in court that on Thursday, 04 April 2022, the convict was called by his brother who wanted to find out the reason why he (the convict) and his girlfriend failed to arrive at Letlhabile Mall as agreed.

In his response, he told his brother that he did something terrible and hung up the phone.

The brother together with his sister went to their parental residence where the accused was residing. Upon arrival, they knocked at the door, but there was no response. They then forced the door open and found Bongo's lifeless body inside the house, covered with blood. It was established that Mofolo drank poison in an attempt to commit suicide. The police were called to the crime scene and Mofolo was apprehended and transported to the local hospital where he was placed under police guard. After appearing in court, he was granted bail which was withdrawn after being found guilty.

Lt Gen Kwena applauded the Investigating Officer, Detective Sgt Julius Nkgoeng from Letlhabile Detectives and all other role players including prosecution for their excellent collaboration which he said will send a stern warning that those who perpetrate Gender-Based Violence and Femicide will be dealt with effectively by law.

Fun is the name of the game

Maria Vicente dos Santos, Tamica Visser, Xanthé Nagel and Lerato Molobye are the swimmers of Mountain Cambridge School who represented the North West team at the Inter-Provincial Lifesaving SA Championships in Durban recently.

The much anticipated gr.R an Pre-Primary Family Sports day of Mountain Cambridge School (MCS), took place last Saturday, and it was a huge success. The learners showed off their Learn2Move-skills by taking part in shot put, long jump, sprints and javelin throw events. The younger learners did an obstacle course and a rice run with moms and dads in tow. These gr.R-learners, Carolina Bailey, Rocci Borrageiro, Gerik Theron and River Evans took a break after an exciting race. Memories were made and fun was had by all, because MCS parents and teachers know that Walt Whitman had a point when he said: "Do anything, but let it produce joy."

A promotional image for the radio show "Brits Pos" on Waterberg Stereo. The image features two hosts in a studio setting. On the left, a man wearing headphones and a grey t-shirt with the text "Quisstervink" and "kom, praat jou taal" is speaking into a microphone. On the right, a woman with short grey hair, wearing a striped shirt, holds up a copy of the show's magazine. The magazine cover features a woman in a bikini and the text "Brits Pos" and "They live their...". In the top right corner, the Waterberg Stereo logo is displayed, showing a stylized mountain range and the station's frequencies: 104.9 FM, 91.6 FM, and 90.2 FM, along with the tagline "die stasie wat nog omgee". A red banner across the middle of the image contains the text "Listen Live" next to a red play button icon.

If you can think it, we can print it, on Newsprint

The logo for North West Web Printers. It features a large, bold, black sans-serif font for the word "Printers". Above this, there is a graphic element consisting of four stylized letters: a black "N" and "W" on top, and a pink "P" and a blue "W" below them, all contained within overlapping circles of their respective colors. To the left of the logo, there is a photograph of a printing press showing several cylindrical rollers.
