Volgens Rocky Mostert, eienaar van Secra Sekuriteit is die vragmotor met 'n vruginhoud van bykans R1miljoen, ná die voorval deur die sekureiteitsbeampies begelei en is veilig aan die eienaar terugbesorg. Die gasvroue vir die Kuns en Kultuur Studierigting is: Christelle Buys, Eleonore Rossouw, Angelique Graaff, Mariaan Olivier en Ita Viljoen.

Lede van Brits VLU by die Transvaalse Burgeroorlog Monument, op die plaas van Hennie Briel net buite Brits.

BRITS POS – BRITS – Kuns en Kultuur was die Vroue Landbou-unie van Brits se tema vir die tak se vergadering op 10 Mei en die lede het 'n skatkis van geskiedenis, by die Transvaalse Burgeroorlog Monument, op die plaas van Hennie Briel, net buite Brits ontdek.

Die Federasie van Afrikaanse Kultuurvereniginge (FAK) het erkenning aan die Briel-familie vir hulle dekadelange beskerming en behoud van die Transvaalse Burgeroorlogmonument gegee, nadat die Lenteskool van Brits, op 5 Julie 1961 ampelik die monument op hulle plaas opgerig het. Hennie Briel en sy familie, wat steeds op dié familieplaas woon, sê dit is 'n voorreg en plesier om na die gedenkwaardigheid om te sien nes hulle voorouers gedoen het. Op 15 Januarie 1864 het die Transvaalse Burgeroorlog in die skaduwee van 'n enorme ou kareebboom op dié plaas geëindig. Dié ou boom, waaronder die strydende leiers byna 'n week lank beraadslaag het om vrede te maak, is in 1961 tot 'n historiese gedenkwaardigheid verklaar.

Brits se VLU-lede het ook hulle deel gedoen deur in samewerking met die FAK, 'n tuin om die monument aan te plant.

Die lede het beslis hande gevatt om die ikonies landmerk se historiese waardigheid te herdenk en het bygedra om 'n kultuur erfenis na te laat.

Staande ovasie vir FAK Jeugsimfonie-orkes en Akademia-koor in konsert

In 'n stampvol Heldesaal by die Voortrekkermonument in konsert, met die Akademia-koor agter en die Federasie van Afrikaanse Kultuurvereniginge (FAK) se Jeugsimfonie-orkes voor.

BRITS POS – PRETORIA - Honderde toeskouers is tot 'n staande ovasie geroer met die Federasie van Afrikaanse Kultuurvereniginge (FAK) se Jeugsimfonie-orkes en die Akademia-koor in konsert.

Tydens 'n gesamentlike konsert in die Voortrekkermonument se Heldesaal, Dinsdag, was die skare in verwondering oor 'n pruik uitgevoerde konsert wat net weer eens 'n bewys is van die ontsaglike talent wat ons op eie bodem het.

Akademia, 'n Afrikaanse tersiêre opleidingsinstansie, het tydens hierdie konsert ook eer betoond aan prof. Hans du Plessis en Franco Prinsloo vir die skryf en komponering van dié instansie se pragtige nuwe universiteitslied, wat die koor ook opgevoer het.

Prof. Danie Goosen, akademiese hoof van Akademia het aan Du Plessis en Prinsloo toekennings vir hul bydrae oorhandig en hulle bedank vir die "wonderlike werk" wat hul geskep het. Prof. Goosen het die oorhandiging beskryf as 'n "groot voorreg".

Jaco van Staden, hoof van die FAK se musiekprojekte en dirigent van die Jeugsimfonieorkes het met trots die jeugorkes se prestasie geprys. "Dit is 'n voorreg om ons jeug werklik die vlerke te gee om te floreer op musikal front."

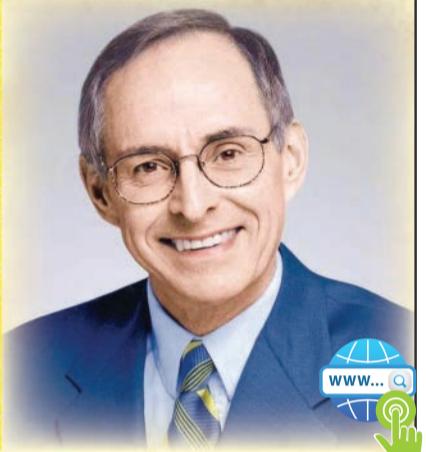

"Hierdie tipe konserte waar twee instansies saamkom en saamwerk, skep hoop vir die toekoms," sluit Van Staden af.

Ons plaaslike Brits-tweeling, Pieter Brown en Emily Jane Mc Alpine, is tans koorlede en eerstejaarstudente aan Akademia. Geluk, julle maak ons trots.

Another truck driver caught in a trap

BRITS POS – CYFERSKUIL – A truckdriver and his crew were on their way from Bela-Bela in Limpopo on Wednesday, 10 May around 11:55 with a truck loaded with sand to be delivered to a client in Masakhane.

They met up with the client who requested that the load be delivered to another premises in Cyferskuil. The driver phoned his manager who gave the necessary permission to proceed as requested when two men were seen on the side of the road and the customer requested the driver to stop. He scolded the men for knocking off work early, when one of the men pulled out a weapon and the customer did the same and the driver and his crew were held at gunpoint and instructed to get out of the truck and the victims were tied up with cable ties. Allegedly the first suspect off loaded the sand and left in the truck. When the remaining two suspects saw a herdsman approaching, they then fled the scene on foot and left the victims behind. The victims' cellphones, bank card and cash were also taken, but they then managed to find assistance in a residential area and opened a truckjacking case at the Cyferskuil police station.

Col Adéle Myburgh, SAPS NW spokesperson confirmed that one suspect, Johannes Mkhondo, aged 60, was arrested and appeared in the Temba Magistrates' Court on Monday, 15 May 2023.

The Investigating Officer is Sgt Khoza of Rustenburg Vehicle Crime Investigation Unit.

Letter of appreciation to Commander and SAPS members Bethanie

Editor

On Sunday, 16 April, around 11:00 I received information about a suspect who stole my motorbike in Ga-Rankuwa and that he was hiding it in Bethanie village.

Around 13:00, I immediately rushed to the local police station in Bethanie and gave the information to them. The Station Commander, Colonel Soyathi James Hlungani was busy with a station visit, but also listened as I was explaining the circumstances to the SAPS member at the charge office.

When the Colonel finished his tasks, he instructed the staff to assist me in tracing the motorbike, and he accompanied us to the given address where the motorbike was allegedly hidden, but the motorbike wasn't at that address.

Around 19:00 I was still at the police station, when the informer came to the station, but still couldn't confirm the house number of where my motorbike could be.

I was still at the police station with the Colonel and around 07:30 the informer arrived and gave all the information needed, but he wasn't sure about the house number. He was sent back and verified the house number and I gave the information to the Colonel who immediately took action and within two hours on Monday morning, I received a call from the Colonel, confirming that the motorbike was found.

I would like to praise the Station Commander, Colonel Soyathi James Hlungani, Constable Thabang Moloi and Student Constable Mmampone Malebye for the excellent work. Viva Bethanie SAPS, we still have good officers in SAPS and may God bless and protect them every day.

*Yours faithfully

Members of public cautioned about outbreak of Mumps disease

BRITS POS – BRITS - The North West Department of Health MEC Madoda Sambatha has cautioned members of the public and communities in the Province about the outbreak of Mumps diseases. With Dr Kenneth Kaunda District having the highest prevalence, the cases have risen to a total of 342 in no time and further spread other districts is already picking up.

Dr Kenneth Kaunda District alone has thus far reported 276 cases out of the 342 which are prevalent at JB Marks, Maquassi Hills and Matlosana. Ngaka Modiri Molema District has 30 cases, Dr Ruth Segomotsi Mompati District has 27 cases while Bojanala has recorded 9 cases.

The outbreak follows confirmation of laboratory results by the National Institute for Communicable Diseases (NICD). The NICD has described Mumps as an acute viral infection caused by the rubulavirus, also known as mumps virus. It is sometimes called ‘infectious parotitis’, as it causes painful swelling of the parotid and or salivary glands. Mumps is generally a mild childhood disease, mostly affecting children between 5-9 years of age. However, younger and older children as well as adults, can become infected with mumps. People who have had mumps are usually protected for life against another mumps infection. However, second occurrences of mumps do rarely occur.

North West Health MEC Madoda Sambatha has called members of the public, parents and care givers to heed the call for immunisation of children against mumps. “Parents and caregivers should bring along the “Road to Health” immunisation cards to the nearby health facility to ensure that their children are immunised against mumps. Our outbreak response teams are also working hard to contain the spread. We will also work with the Education Department to take the campaign to learners through the School Health Programme and parents and caregivers are urged to give consent for immunisation of their children,” said MEC Sambatha.

and then fled the scene. A business robbery case was opened at Hartbeespoortdam police station.

FLORET BLOMMEKLUB

65 jaar jong en prond steeds

BRITS POS – BRITS – Donderdag, 25 Mei word almal in die omgewing uitgenooi om saam met die lede van Floret Blommeklub die klub se 65ste bestaansjaar, tydens 'n interessante opdag, te vier.

Tydens die spesiale geleentheid, wat in die kerksaal van die Hervormde Kerk in Van Veldenstraat (regoor die munisipaliteit) plaasvind, sal daar 'n groot verskeidenheid ontwerpe en demonstrasies in die blommekuns wees.

Daar sal 'n oggendsessie om 11:00 wees en weer 'n sessie in die middag om 14:00 wees. Gedurende die oggendsessie gaan Faan Haasbroek demonstreer hoe hy afvalmateriaal in 'n ontwerp gebruik. Die tema is "Industrial Chic." Die middagsessie se demonstrasie sal verskil van die oggendsessie en beloof om besoekers in albei sessies te interesseer.

Kaartjies kos R80 en is by al die lede beskikbaar asook by die deur. 'n Kaartjie verleen toegang tot albei sessies en sluit ook verversings tussen die twee sessies in.

Lede doen groot moeite om hulle eie ontwerpe met temas "Skulptuur" en "Kleur die wêreld" ten toon te stel.

Kinders word uitgenooi om in te skryf in die afdeling waar goggas van plantmateriaal gemaak en uitgestal sal word. Daar is drie ouderdomsgroepe waarin meegeding kan word: gr.R tot gr.2; gr.3 tot gr.5 en gr.6 en gr.7. Inskrywings beloop R20 en daar is pryse te wen! Goggas kan Woensdag tot 16:00 by die Hervormde Kerk aangelewer word.

The NCS warns consumers against Milo Designs

BRITS POS – BRITS - The NCC (National Consumer Commission) is warning South African consumers to exercise caution when transacting with Milo Designs, the supplier seems to be a scam purporting to be an online store that designs and sells furniture, using different social media platforms.

The Commission received complaints from consumers alleging that they have been scammed by Milo Designs after paying for the goods (furniture) advertised on their Facebook page: Milo Designs and on Instagram @milodesignskzn. Consumers allege that they have paid between R10 000 and R1.2M per transaction. Their Facebook page describes Milo Designs as a supplier that “manufactures unique furniture with world-class standards to satisfy the requirements of the most...” [sic]. The Facebook page was created in 2014 and has about 264 000 followers. Upon investigating their conduct, the Commission’s preliminary assessment indicates that the operators of this scam, LM Kotze and MC Wood, are not cooperating with the Commission. The Acting National Consumer Commissioner, Ms. Thezi Mabuza, says both LM Kotze and MC Wood have no intention of delivering the goods or refunding the consumers. The Commission arranged several times to meet and serve them with an investigation certificate to no avail. In most cases, they cancel meetings at the 11th hour, making it difficult to finalise our investigation. Addresses provided by these persons show dilapidated buildings”. The Commission also discovered that the images of the furniture they claim to manufacture are in fact not from South Africa but obtained from suppliers based in countries such as Columbia and Canada. The Commission has confirmed that these images were stolen from other sites like Pinterest, Instagram, and Facebook. “We call upon South Africans to exercise extreme caution when they transact with Milo Designs as their modus operandi is to advertise the goods and take money from consumers with no intention of delivery”, she concluded. It is the supplier’s responsibility to deliver the goods to the agreed place, on the agreed date, and time. Consumers are urged to exercise caution when transacting online. Anyone who might know the whereabouts of LM Kotze and MC Wood is urged to notify the Commission.

Support our local Hospice

BRITS POS – BRITS – Although small, the Brits/Hartbeespoort Hospice team is dynamic and able to provide a unique and priceless service in the Madibeng area.

The Hospice week is usually celebrated during the 2nd week of May to create awareness about hospice and palliative care.

The theme for this year is:

It is a matter of life and death, because no matter what stage of illness you are in, you will be facing challenges. According to Brits/Hartbeespoort Hospice’s professional nurse, Lynette Janse van Rensburg, most people think Hospice is the terminal and final stage, but says Sr Lynette, “it is the way we do things in how we approach the patient and families and those we provide care for.”

“It is a holistic approach - and if you think of palliative care, it is comfort and supportive care, providing tender loving care in the comfort of their home,” Van Rensburg says. “Our aim is for our patients to be comfortable and to be cared for, to give bereavement counselling, emotional care, spiritual care as well as psychosocial care.”

Hospice’s goal is to assist, to provide information, to educate, to make sure patients understand their illness from diagnosis, care through the illness, the dying phase and to provide kind compassionate care.

“The Hospice week is to remind the community of the work we do. Please support Brits/Hartbeespoort Hospice as we currently have 127 patients on the programme. Areas we currently are seeing patients in are Bokfontein, Damonsville, Brits, Hartbeespoort and Broederstroom,” Van Rensburg says.

A weekly patient support group is held in Damonsville where the Hospice team is assisting almost 30 patients. Brits/Hartbeespoort Hospice would like to provide hampers to the patients and families where needed most.

Donations from the public, like non-perishables for food hampers, blankets and petrol for vehicles to be able to visit the patients, would be highly valued.

For more information and donation, call Lynette Janse Van Rensburg (Hospice Manager and Professional Nurse) on 083 536 6997.
