

Feel it, Yarona is here!... After many moons of waiting, Rustenburg commuters could very well be close to having a reliable and safe transport system. This after the first bus of the Rustenburg Rapid Transport System arrived in Rustenburg and a short technical demonstration on how the bus system will work in and around the Rustenburg CBD was conducted. The demonstration took place on Monday morning (29 June), and included sanitising of the bus and a bus ride around the Rustenburg CBD. Pictured here is the Executive Mayor of Rustenburg Local Municipality, Cllr Mpho Khunou handing over the key to the bus to Mr Cornelius Mogau (Deputy Chairperson for the Taxi Negotiating Forum). A very important milestone for Rustenburg public transport (Photo: Jabulani Senyatso).

Blank Space up in running in spite of Covid-19

A stunning work of art created by a very talented Rustenburg artist in our Rustenburg Herald Blank Space Art competition. These flowers/candles have been created from wax. The piece is not only extraordinary but truly spectacular. It is obvious that such a beautiful piece must have taken a long time - thank you for your entry Madam!

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Rustenburg Herald's Blank Space Art competition is in its second "season" of the Covid-19 year and in spite of things going somewhat slower than usual, we have received beautiful and interesting entries.

Once again artists are invited to enter the competition. Prize-money of R2 000 (2 x R1 000) is up for grabs and artists must remember to use the blank space in Rustenburg Herald to mount, paint or fix their art entries. Also remember that no photo copies of the blank space entry form will be accepted.

Artists advancing to the final round of the competition towards the end of the year, stand a chance to walk away with prize-money of R20 000 (2 x R10 000) at both Pick n Pay stores at Greystone Crossing or Beyers Naudé at Rustenburg's Lifestyle Square. This prize-money is sponsored by Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing and Beyers Naudé - we thank Pick n Pay Rustenburg for encouraging artists to enter the competition.

A closing date for our new competition will be announced in due course. Keep watching Rustenburg Herald for more information. There is no entry fee and you may enter as many artworks as you wish - good luck with your entries.

Cricket SA rearing to go

BONUS - RUSTENBURG HERALD - Minister of Sport, Arts and Culture Nathi Mthethwa announced on Friday the approval of seven additional sports to resume training and matches during Level 3 of the coronavirus lockdown.

The following professional sports are now allowed to resume training and host matches:

- Cricket SA
- South African Anglers and Casting Confederation
- SA Gymnastics Federation
- Tennis SA
- SA National Climbing Federation
- Canoeing SA
- Swimming SA

"These Sport bodies have submitted their plans, indicating their state of readiness and their commitment to adhere to stringent health protocols that they will implement in accordance with the prescribed regulations and directions," said the government in a statement.

"The sport bodies are urged to take note of and implement the comments from the Health authorities, as applies to each to each of them. We wish to humbly appeal to the rest of the sport sector to exercise patience and tolerance as we continue with the task of processing their plans." Sports bodies had until Friday (26 June) to submit their coronavirus plans.

This is good news for Cricket South Africa, who were forced to postpone the inaugural Solidarity Cup, which was put on hold as the government did not give approval.

The Solidarity Cup was originally expected to take place on Saturday, 27 June at SuperSport Park in Pretoria.

Exercise: The rules have just changed

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - You can now exercise with three more people - but gyms must remain closed. This is according to the latest adjustments to level 3 regulations.

The new regulations include:
Organised groups, as well as informal groups of up to four people may exercise together between 06:00 and 18:00 - provided that you maintain social distancing.
Contact sports will be allowed - but this will be for training only, and subject to new rules from the department of health - which have not yet been published.
Sports fields and swimming pools can be open for training of professional athletes and non-contact sports matches.
However, gyms must remain closed.
