Babies, boots and all

Heleen Verster of Rustenburg Herald/Bonus has been quite productive in recent months and has knitted several pairs of beautiful baby "booties" for a close friend who will be welcoming a new member to the family soon. Likewise, Rustenburg Herald is thinking of new mothers and growing families this week with a special baby feature and guide to first-time parents in this week's edition of Rustenburg Herald. Rustenburg's business sector and individuals dealing in all types of baby clothing and everyday needs could do very well by advertising your services in our dedicated centerspread this week - call Rustenburg Herald's marketing consultants on 014 592 8329 during office hours to make the necessary arrangements. Remember, space in this special feature is limited.

Dog set alight: R11 000 reward for info

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Police are investigating a case of animal cruelty after the remains of a dog was found in a park in Mooiwool.

The dog was apparently tied with a piece of wire to a merry-go-round before the perpetrators set the animal alight.

According to André Eloff of the Rustenburg SPCA, a kind of fire accelerator was poured on the dog. Evidence was also found that the villains poured a thin strip of the accelerator away from the dog's body in order to set the fire without putting themselves in harm's way.

"This happened in a residential area. Somebody had to see something. We beg them to come forward to see to it that justice can prevail," Eloff said. If you do have information that can lead to tracing the offenders, please call the Rustenburg SPCA on 014 592 3181 or SPCA inspector Gina-Lee on 082 411 5212.

Final opportunity for artists to make it to grand finale

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Artists who are on the look-out for an opportunity to earn "easy" money before the end of this year, have one more opportunity in Rustenburg Herald/Bonus' Blank Space Art competition to make it to the final round and the overall judging at the end of this year.

This year's competition at Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing and Pick n Pay Lifestyle Square in Beyers Naudé Avenue has produced six quarterly winners/finalists at each store. In December this year, all quarterly winners of the two respective stores will compete against the other finalists of each store for two overall grand prizes to the value of R10 000 each.

So if you haven't entered for the Bonus/Rustenburg Herald's Blank Space Art competition yet, you are advised to do your utmost best if you wish to end as this year's final quarterly winner and to advance to the final overall judging in December this year.

Entries could be "posted" in the entry boxes at the two Pick n Pay Stores and at reception of Rustenburg Herald/Bonus in 13 Coetzer Street. Remember, you can use literally any medium, pen or pencil, chalk, charcoal, paint, glass, wood, ceramic or whatever you prefer for your art. The closing date for this final quarterly competition will be announced in due course. Keep watching Rustenburg Herald/Bonus for all the information you might need.

Geelhout Park drug lab busted

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Two men were arrested here late last week after police discovered a drug laboratory at their home.

According to police spokesperson, Brig Sabata Mokgwabone, police received information and followed a silver Volkswagen Polo on the N4. Near Phokeng the vehicle was stopped and searched on Friday (16 October).

Police then accompanied the two men, aged 33 and 34-years-old respectively, to their home in Geelhout Park. During the search conducted in the presence of the pair, items that are apparently used to manufacture drugs were found. These include various 20 litre containers of chemicals, hand gloves and dust masks. A further search resulted in the finding and seizing of a plastic bag containing 3kg of cocaine - with an estimated street value of R1.5 million. Ten cell phones and a substantial amount of cash were also found.

The suspects were expected to appear in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Monday (19 October) for the contravention of Section 3 of the Drugs and Drug Trafficking Act, 1992 (Act No. 140 of 1992). The Directorate for Priority Crime (DPCI) is investigating.

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The DHL Stormers will join their title sponsors in showing their support for Breast Cancer and Testicular Cancer Awareness by wearing a special logo on the sleeve of their match kit during October and November.

The logo is a combination of the traditional pink ribbon used for Breast Cancer Awareness and blue 'Movember' moustache which signifies Testicular Cancer Awareness. Globally, two million cases of breast cancer are diagnosed each year. The impact of diagnosis has an indescribable emotional impact on every patient, but also on friends, family and colleagues.

Both causes have been integrated into the Stormers' match day playing kit for the duration of the season in October and November, displaying a combination of the traditional pink ribbon and blue 'Movember' moustache. Captain Siya Kolisi said that the team is proud to be raising awareness for such worthy causes.
