

Mrs Rita van Staden - new Chief Judge of our Rustenburg Herald/ Bonus Blank Space Art competition with one of the latest winners that have impressed her tremendously, clinching a cash prize of R1 000 at the same time. This entry of a beautiful young girl was drawn by 16-year-old Dylan Jeranyama. This piece could be amongst the finalists at the Grand Judging later this year when two overall winners will be selected from all monthly/quarterly winners! Two Grand Prizes valued at R10 000 each are up for grabs at the grand judging in December this year.

Our second winner of R1 000 this week. This was drawn by Dunstan Nel.

Dylan and Dunstan walk off with prize-money of R1 000 each

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - It gives us great pleasure on a cold Monday morning to congratulate two new winners in our Blank Space Art competition which has drawn to a close on Friday last week.

Congratulations to 16-year-old Dylan Jeranyama - a young bloke who at this young age shows unbelievable talent - "Dylan's rendition of a young woman is absolutely stunning!", said our Chief Judge - Mrs Rita van Staden who will be helping us to choose worthy winners during the next few months. For his efforts Dylan won prize-money of R1 000 in cash sponsored by Rustenburg Herald.

Dunstan shows great skill at creating caricatures and is another worthy winner of prize-money of R1 000 sponsored by Rustenburg Herald. Both Dylan and Dunstan's entries will remain in our hat until the overall judging towards the end of this year from which we will select the two overall winners who will be winning a shopping voucher to the tune of R10 000 at either Pick 'n Pay Azaleapark (Greystone Crossing) or Rustenburg Lifestyle Centre in Beyers Naudé Avenue. At her very first opportunity of judging the entries of our Blank Space Art competition, Mrs Rita van Staden was almost shocked by the reality that we have amazing artists who showed untold promise of making a career out of their passion. Good news is that the next (probably the last one of the year) quarterly Blank Space is open once again. Post your entries into the entry boxes at both participating Pick n Pay stores (or reception at our offices in 13, Coetzer Street), marked Rustenburg Herald/Bonus Blank Space Art competition - you may enter as many works of art as you wish and there is no entry fee.

Business robbers apprehended with aid of community

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The involvement of the public in the fight against crime paid off when two suspects aged 21 and 24 were apprehended on Thursday (27 August) by members of the community at Boitekong Extension 1 for the alleged involvement in a business robbery.

According to Col Adèle Myburgh that was after the duo allegedly threatened the owner of a Tuck Shop with a knife and robbed him of cash, a cellular phone and gambling machine. Through assistance of members of the community, the suspects were arrested shortly after the incident and handed over to the police.

They were expected to appear before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Monday (30 August) on a charge of business robbery.

October school holidays and 2021 National Matric Exam

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - October school holidays - According to basic education minister Angie Motshekga the October school holidays will not be scrapped.

Under the current 2021 school calendar, government school students are on holiday from 1 October until 11 October. All schools reopened on 26 July as part of the country's move to an adjusted level 3 lockdown after a month-long level 4 lockdown.

2021 National Matric Exam dates - The national matric final exams are scheduled to last six weeks, starting on 1 November and finishing on 7 December 2021.

It will start later than previous years to ensure that matriculants receive enough time for learning and teaching.

The released matric exam dates exclude the written matric final exams for Life Orientation (LO), and the practical exams for Computer Application Technology (CAT), Information Technology (IT), Performing Arts, and Visual Arts and Design - which will take place earlier.

Are you serving your kids sugar for breakfast?

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Breakfast cereals in South Africa, particularly those targeting children, have for some time made some reasonably bold health claims.

This is despite most containing large amounts of sugar - sometimes in higher quantities than the vitamins and minerals they advertise, Business Insider reports.

Most leading cereal brands for sale in this country continue to advertise the inclusion of vitamins, minerals, iron, multigrain, fibre, or even probiotics. Some leave the interpretation of common phrases like "high in", "source of", and simply "with" up to the consumer. Others, like several Kellogg's cereals, make a direct claim that some of their breakfast cereals may aid with "growth" and "development".

Although most breakfast cereals on supermarket shelves do contain some vitamins, minerals, healthy grains, or fibre, most also have high amounts of sugar.

But according to experts, eating too much sugar can harm health - and cutting back on some sugars could make it easier to concentrate and stay alert. In particular, experts warn against overeating processed and refined sugar - common in items like breakfast cereal.

At least five breakfast cereals directly targeting children with colourful boxes and adults with health claims have more than 30 grams of sugar for every 100 grams of cereal eaten.

The top ten sugar-filled cereal types have more than 25 grams of sugar per 100 grams, which equals more than a quarter of sugar for every serving.

And some brands that tacitly purport to be healthy, or contain labels such as "light", or for toddlers, also have surprisingly high sugar contents.

Of the products checked by Business Insider South Africa, a "light" ProNutro had 25.8 grams of sugar per 100 gram, and a chocolate flavoured version of the same product targeting parents with toddlers had 23.4 grams.

This sugar content per 100 grams in as many as 40 different breakfast cereals is higher than items that may be considered unhealthy or desert foods - like some vanilla ice cream and even a typical Coke can.

Some local iterations of global cereal brands also have higher sugar levels than those available in foreign markets.

For example, local Kellogg's Rice Krispies Vanilla has a sugar content of 21.7 grams per 100 grams.

The original brand in the United Kingdom, stocked on South African shelves after a revolt, has just 7.9 grams. And in the United States, it has 10 grams of sugar per 100 grams.

The same is true for Coco Pops in the United Kingdom - the UK version has nearly half the amount of sugar per 100 grams as the version available in South Africa.

Here's the cereals containing the most sugar in South Africa:

Bokomo Otees Originals Creme Soda
Kellogg's - Strawberry Pops
Kellogg's - Coco Pops
Bokomo - Weet-Bix Bites Chocolate
Bokomo - Weet-Bix Bites Honey
Kellogg's - Coco Pops Fills
Bokomo - Otees Originals Apple
Kellogg's - Froot Loops
Kellogg's - Coco Pops Crunchers

The lesser of the evils are:

Kellogg's - Corn Flakes
Kellogg's - Rice Krispies
Bokomo - Corn Flakes
Bokomo - Weet-Bix
Bokomo - Weet-Bix Protein
Bokomo - Weet-Bix Lite

Operation Basadi nets over 180 suspects

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - As part of Women's Month crime prevention related activities, Operation Basadi conducted in various parts of the province by South African Police Service (SAPS) and various law enforcement agencies yielded significant success on Friday (27 August).

This became evident through apprehension of 189 suspects for various crimes during suspect raiding operations. Out of 189 suspects, 28 were arrested in Dr Kenneth Kaunda District, 46 in Bojanala Platinum District 1 (Brits), 44 in Bojanala Platinum District 2 (Rustenburg), 17 in Ngaka Modiri Molema District and 54 in Dr Ruth Mompoti District. The suspects according to Col Adèle Myburgh, included 37 that were arrested by the Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences (FCS) Units for sexual and Gender Based Violence (GBV) related offences.

In the Dr Kenneth Kaunda District, two roadblocks conducted on Friday, 27

August 2021, resulted in the search of 605 persons and 352 vehicles. In addition, 9 road traffic fines were issued while three suspected undocumented persons were handed over to Immigration Officials for processing.

Moreover, various premises were visited. They included Automated Teller Machines (ATMs), banks, filling stations, post offices, a taxi rank, malls, liquor outlets and second hand goods business premises.

The North West Provincial Commissioner, Lieutenant General Sello Kwenza commended members, particularly women law enforcers, who participated in the operations.

Testimony for Baba Mwambe all thanks to Baba Mwambe traditional healer for a good job that he did for me. My name is Nokukhanya from Eastern Cape in Port Elizabeth, my number is 076 546 8791. I have been meeting with the wrong doctors, they were telling me stories and I was keeping everything as a secret but one day I tried talking with my colleague and tell her about my life and she told me about Baba Mwambe that helped her to get money in her house. It was 3 million and she paid 20% from that money. I then tried calling him and he told me about shortboys to put money in my account, or my house, but I chose shortboys to put money in my account, so I asked him how much must I pay when I want 2 million. He said I will pay after the job is done but I have to send him some little money first to buy food of shortboy's who's going to deposit the money in my account. I did that, he then told me to send my banking details and wait for 1 hour and 30 minutes I will get a message from the bank. I got a message from the bank and I also went to withdraw 20% and went to give him his money in his office. So I thank my friend for introducing me to Baba Mwambe. For more information Call or WhatsApp Baba Mwambe on 076 546 8791 and it is not like he likes to help only about money issues. BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Teboho Noosi (Maseru, Lesotho) secured his hat-trick victory in the Fedhealth Platinum Trail Run Long/±24km race that took place at the ATKV Buffelspoort on Sunday 29 August. Noosi claimed gold in a deserving time of 01 hour 24 minutes 08 seconds, while Charne Bosman (Menlo Park, Pretoria), who made her event debut on the day, claimed gold in the women's race in a time of 01 hour 50 minutes 47 seconds.

Celebrating its 8th anniversary on the day, trail runners could choose between the Long/±24km, the Short/±12km, a Fun Run/±8km and a 2.5km Kids Event.

Renier Grobler (Murrayfield, Pretoria) claimed the top spot on the podium in the Short/±12km race in an impressive time of 59 minutes 37 seconds. Ryan Mathaba came in 2nd, while Tyron Bothma finished 3rd. Leilani Scheffer (Rustenburg) was happy with the challenge of the Short/±12km race. Scheffer claimed the top spot on the podium in the women's race in a time of 01 hour 04 minutes 51 seconds. Rone Reynecke came in 2nd, while Elizabeth Lizzy Dhiwayo finished 3rd.

Itumeleng Khumalo (Marikana, Rustenburg) sprinted to victory in the Fun Run/±8km in a time of 45 minutes 51 seconds.

Tshepo Miya came in 2nd, while Marius van den Berg finished 3rd. Gizela van den Berg (Rustenburg) was the first runner home in the women's race crossing the finish line in 47 minutes 54 seconds.

Jana van den Berg came in 2nd, while Lana Harmse finished 3rd.

Monster cyclists beat freezing cold front

BONUS - BUFFELSPOORT - Cyclists contesting the 2021 Magalies Monster Mountain Bike Race on Saturday did so in almost extreme weather conditions amidst a freezing cold front with temperatures below 0°F and even a light drizzle moments before the start of the race.

The fact that the Magaliesburg Monster was already postponed from earlier this year and a freezing cold spell forecast for the entire weekend proved it inevitable that a considerably smaller crowd were prepared to brace the weather to turn up at the starting line on Saturday morning. Nonetheless, Philip Buys and Sarah Hill went on to conquer the Fedhealth Magalies Monster MTB Classic on their first attempt at the ATKV Buffelspoort on Saturday 28 August 2021. Celebrating its 18th anniversary on the day, mountain bikers could choose between the Marathon/±65km, Half Marathon/±33km, Fun Ride/±16km and a 2.5km Kids Event. Buys (Menlo Park, Pretoria) completed the Marathon/±65km route in a lightning-fast time of 02 hours 49 minutes 02 seconds. "The route was quite rough. I really enjoyed it," says Buys. "I'm used to this type of terrain. It's loose and rocky, very similar to what we have in Pretoria. It was my first Magalies Monster, so I didn't really know what to expect. Sarah Hill (Bryanston, Gauteng) secured gold in the women's race in a deserving time of 03 hours 31 minutes 11 seconds. According to Hill she wanted to see what all the hype was about. "Everyone talks so highly of this race. I was absolutely blown away. I've done Breed's Nek a couple of times, but I did not realise that there was more to it. I really enjoyed finding rhythm on the climbs and the downhill were absolutely phenomenal.

Lenre Coetzee (Klerksdorp) was on fire in the Half Marathon/±33km securing victory in 01 hour 19 minutes 40 seconds. "I think I've done about four Magalies Monsters already," says Coetzee. "Today's route was definitely more technical. The wind was hectic, but at least at the end we conquered the Monster." Ernie Roets came in 2nd, while Bertie Emmett Anderson finished 3rd.

Yvonne Prinsloo (Hartbeespoort) was the strongest contender in the women's race, crossing the finish line in 01 hour 43 minutes 40 seconds. "The race was great," says Prinsloo. "The route was well marked. The up-hills were my favourite part of the route as well as any part where we caught the wind from behind. I've probably completed the Magalies Monster seven or eight times already, but this is my first short one. I'll definitely be back." Sasha-Lee Sauer came in 2nd, while Tshidi Ebudilwe finished 3rd.
