The first batch of Covid-19 vaccines arrived in Rustenburg last week Wednesday (17 February) at Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital. These vaccines, prioritised for frontline workers, were welcomed by the Premier of the North West Province, Tebogo Job Mokgoro together with MEC of Health Madoda Sambatha, the CEO of the Hospital Mr Abednigo Mvula and various other stakeholders. The vaccination of frontline workers at the hospital began on Thursday (18 February), with the CEO leading his frontline workers by example and taking the vaccine. Job Shimankana Tabane is currently the only centre in Bojanala District where vaccinations are being administered, with various other sites identified to be used after the process of vaccinating frontline workers are completed.

Dr Mvula is pictured here getting vaccinated by Nthabiseng Mantshiyae, professional nurse and trained vaccinator. Read this week's edition of the Rustenburg Herald for more on this.

Unisa reserves the right to appoint, contract with and monitor the performance of any service provider it deems will offer the best service in line with its requirements, although it may not necessarily be the lowest Tenderer. Unisa also reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to re-advertise, not to retender or not to award the tender.

Late submitted tenders will not be considered.

15% price increase on the horizon for electricity

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The North Gauteng High Court has ordered that an amount of R10 billion be added to Eskom's allowable revenue to be recovered from tariff customers in the 2021/22 financial year.

"This consent order follows Eskom's application in terms of Section 18 (3) of the Superior Court Act, 2013, that Eskom should be permitted to recover R23 billion in the financial year 2021/22 as per the 28 July 2020 Court judgement," the National Energy Regulator of South Africa (NERSA) said on Tuesday (16 February).

The energy regulator has also approved that Eskom's Regulatory Clearing Account (RCA) applications for year 2 (2014/15), year 3 (2015/16) and year 4 (2016/17) of the third Multi-Year Price Determination (MYPD3) period and Eskom's supplementary tariff application for 2018/19 financial year of R4 749 m and R1 288m respectively, be recovered in the 2021/22 financial year.

This will result in an average tariff percentage increase of 15.63 % in the 2021/22 financial year.

Chicken horror!

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The Rustenburg SPCA made an horrific discovery while investigating allegations that inmates at a correctional facility in the province were mutilating/abusing cats.

Gena-Lee Labuschagne and a representative from the SPCA's national office visited the facility and while they were there, Gena-Lee stumbled upon a layer site where chickens are kept to provide the inmates with food. "The stench was horrific. As soon as I entered, I knew there was trouble," Gena-Lee explained. She discovered multiple deceased chickens in different stages of decomposition. The Chicken feces filled some cages entirely. The drainage system was not in working condition, with maggots everywhere. Chickens who escaped their cages were walking in ankle-deep rotting feces and discharge. A warning was issued and further investigations will follow. "We need the community's support to ensure that we can carry on getting justice for these animals," said Gena-Lee.

BONUS - MOGWASE - It has come to the attention of the Moses Kotane Local Municipality, that there is unscrupulous person (s) trying to solicit bribes from service providers claiming to be working for the municipality.

Alleged mob justice incident in Rustenburg North

A man, whose identity is still unknown, was brutally beaten by angry community members after he smashed the windscreens and windows of several vehicles in Rustenburg North at Snell Street on Wednesday afternoon (17 February). The man stood next to the road, and any vehicle passing that caught his eye, he would take rocks and smash the windows - for no apparent reason. The incident took place between 17:00 and 18:00. Police and other law enforcement agencies were informed and their swift response may well be the reason his life was saved. ER24 personnel arrived at the scene to treat the man who was later transported to a nearby hospital for further treatment. He sustained head injuries, a broken leg and a broken arm. Police have not confirmed yet whether or not any person was arrested regarding the assault of the man.

Novak aiming for GOAT

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The world may very well find living proof of the Abominable Snowman, the Lochness Monster and Big Foot before they can find a player that can currently beat Novak Djokovic.

Sunday (21 February), for the ninth time, Djokovic played in the final of the Australian Open. For the ninth time he outlasted the opponent. Sunday it was Russia's Daniil Medvedev - normally no walkover of a player - whom Djokovic dismantled with a seamless victory inside Rod Laver Arena. Djokovic's took down Medvedev 7-5, 6-2 and 6-2 with an almost faultless performance in the 2021 Australian Open men's final. Tennis experts are of opinion that this was peak Djokovic. He didn't win with curlicues and dazzling shotmaking, so much as he humiliated and demoralized the opponent with precision, especially off the return of serve. For Djokovic, this was a statement win in so many ways. For one, it was a staving off of the new guard, a reminder that the Big Three - Nadal, Federer and himself - aren't quite done vacuuming up titles and mopping up the competition. Before the match, Djokovic said of his younger challengers, "We can talk about it all day but with all my respect to the other guys, they still have a lot of work to do. I'm not going to stand here and hand it over to them. I'm going to make them work their ass off for that." He did just that. Either Djokovic, Nadal or Roger Federer have now won 54 of the last 63 Majors. Djokovic will now break Federer's record for the number of weeks at No 1, and has now won the Australian Open more times than Federer has won Wimbledon. His first Major in more than a year, Djokovic now has 18 Majors, only two behind Federer and Nadal. Will this year's French Open determine the top GOAT (Greatest of All Time) of mens tennis?
