Covid vaccine sites coming to a Dischem near you

RUSTENBURG HERALD - HERALD - Pharmacy chain Dis-Chem has plans to activate Covid-19 vaccine sites in various shopping malls in the country.

This is in addition to its own clinics which will also be used as vaccination centres. All vaccinations will be administered on proof of an electronic voucher from the national department of health and an ID document. "The group has planned for several vaccination centres... situated in shopping malls throughout the country. These sites will be activated dependent on timing of the government's rollout plan, the availability of the vaccines from government and government's demographic needs,"

Dis-Chem said. The retailer plans to offer Covid-19 vaccine shots in every Dis-Chem pharmacy that has a clinic. The company says it has already ensured that it has "as many clinic sisters as needed to get needles into arms", Dis-Chem said in a statement.

The government has a target to vaccinate 40 million people by the end of the year. Overall, it has secured 43 million doses of vaccines from Johnson & Johnson, Pfizer Covax.
