Celebrating its 90th anniversary in the same year as the South African Cancer Association (Canssa), a local branch of the Afrikaans cultural organisation - Voortrekkers - supported and canvassed support for Canssa's annual Shavathon initiative in the Waterfall Mall. During the event funds were raised in aid of the fight against the disease. Members of the Magalieskruin Voortrekkerkommando pictured hard at work above are Jo-Anneske Erasmus, Wihann Ferreira, Christa Stewart, Hanré Pretorius, Leandé Pretorius, Nicolene Cloete, Karin Ferreira, Melody le Roux, Tammie Ferreira, Albert Cloete and Manda Nelson. The team was later surprised by a visit by the Elandsprag and Koersvas Commandos from Mooiooi and Brits respectively.

Taxi-clash: Man shot, two arrested

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - A taxi owner was shot when rival taxi associations clashed last week.

Two groups belonging to two different taxi associations operating in the city, but using the same route and platform at the Rustenburg Taxi Rank, allegedly clashed on 23 February in Rustenburg North. The incident occurred at the offices belonging to one of the two associations. During the clash, a 45-year-old taxi owner was shot once in the back. The seriously injured man was transported to a local hospital for treatment. Following the incident, Lawrence Mazibuko (50) and Veronica Nodongwe (58) were arrested at the scene. They were charged with attempted murder and conspiracy to commit an offence respectively. Both the accused were released on a R1000.00 bail each upon appearance before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Thursday (25 February). They are due to appear before the same court on Monday (8 March) again. Investigation into the matter continues.

Level 1 in a nutshell

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - After two months of Alert Level 3, South Africa moved to Level 1 on Sunday evening.

In his address to the nation on Sunday night (28 February), President Cyril Ramaphosa said that the country has now clearly emerged from the second wave, with fewer than 10,000 new infections in the past week, compared to 40,000 in the last week of January and 90,000 in the last week of December.

This has allowed a new easing of regulations, including:

- Later curfew
- Alcohol sales
- Gatherings permitted
- Funerals
- Borders

"Controlled visits" to old age homes, hospitals and other health establishments, correctional centres, remand detention facilities, police holding cells and military detention facilities. For a full report on the latest adjustments, see this week's Rustenburg Herald.
