Have a hopping good time

The prospect of a short week - and the resulting long weekend - is definitely something to look forward to. This adorable bunny, Caramel, a close relation to the Easter Bunny, quickly dropped in to check on Amé van der Westhuizen (3) to make sure that her order for the best Easter eggs are receiving priority attention and that they will be delivered right on time this coming weekend. If you are travelling this long weekend, please obey all Lockdown regulations, as well as traffic laws to ensure your own, your family and your fellow South Africans safety and well-being. Invitation to the Virtual Special Meeting of Council

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Notice is hereby given to members of the public in terms of Section 19 of the Local Government: Municipal System Act 2000 as amended, about the Virtual Special Meeting of Council that is re-scheduled as follows:

Time: 10:00
Date: 31 March 2021
The following reports will be tabled at the meeting: The Medium Term Revenue and Expenditure Framework (MTREF) Budget 2021/2022 in compliance with Section 16 (1) and (2) of the Municipal Finance Management Act 56 of 2003; and the Draft Integrated Development Plan (IDP) 2021/2022 Review in compliance with Section 30 (c) of the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act 2000 as amended.

Please note that due to Covid-19 lockdown regulations, viewing of the meeting by the public will be facilitated through live streaming on Facebook.

Forget about hot cross buns, fuel is taking all your money

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The massive fuel price increase for April is looming.

It has been predicted that motorists are expected to take yet another hefty knock at the fuel pumps from 7 April. Following significant increase in the prices of petrol, diesel and illuminating paraffin since the beginning of 2021, consumers may have to brace themselves for an increase of up to 90c per litre for petrol and 66c for the equivalent amount of diesel.

WHAT IS THE EXPECTED FUEL PRICE INCREASES FOR APRIL?

Based on inland pricing:

Petrol 95: increase of 90 cents per litre;

Petrol 93: increase of 87 cents per litre;

Diesel 0.05%: increase of 66 cents per litre;

Diesel 0.005%: increase of 65 cents per litre;

Illuminating paraffin: increase of 62 cents per litre.

This is how the expected prices would reflect:

Fuel (Inland) March official April expected

95 Petrol R16.32 R17.48

93 Petrol R16.15 R17.28

0.05% Diesel (wholesale) R14.12 R15.04

0.005% Diesel (wholesale) R14.16 R15.07

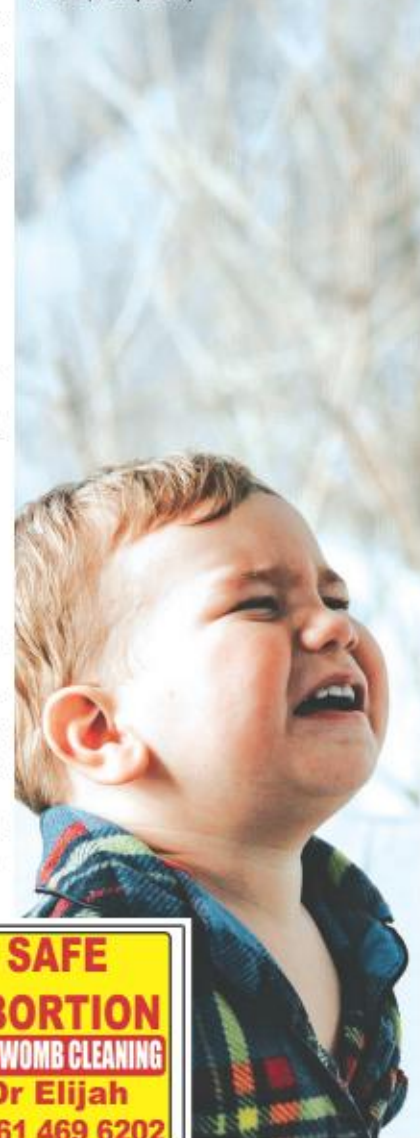

Illuminating Paraffin R8.45 R9.33

FUEL PRICE TAXES

April will also see tax changes around the fuel price come into effect. In National Treasury's 2021 budget, it was announced that motorists will pay an inflation-related increase of 15 cents/litre in the general fuel levy and a higher-than-inflation increase of 11 cents/litre in the Road Accident Fund levy.

This will add a combined 26 cents per litre to fuel prices from April, which would push increases to more than R1.00 per litre for petrol.

The latest price increase for fuel is enough to make one sit right down and cry, cry, cry. (Photo: Marcos Paulo Prado/Unsplash)

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH AFRICA

The UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH AFRICA invites tenders from suitably qualified service providers for the following projects:

The detailed specification documents and all other information are available on the Unisa website at www.unisa.ac.za/tenders. Service Providers must familiarise themselves with the requirements of the project and due dates.

The tender awarded will be conditional and subject to successful negotiations and the signing of a written contract, failing which Unisa reserves the right to withdraw the tender and award the same to the next tenderer without having to repeat the tender process.

Late submitted tenders will not be considered. The decision of the Unisa Management Committee on awarding a tender is final.

Unisa reserves the right to appoint, contract with and monitor the performance of any service provider it deems will offer the best service in line with its requirements, although it may not necessarily be the lowest Tenderer. Unisa also reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to re-advertise, not to retender or not to award the tender.

Head-on collision on the N4 (Photo: supplied).

Head-on collision claims four lives

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Two women and two men were killed on Sunday morning (28 March), in a head-on collision involving two light motor vehicles on the N4 East, outside Rustenburg.

According to information received from Russel Meiring, ER24 spokesperson, paramedics arrived on the scene at 00:05 and found the two cars in the middle of the road. One of the vehicles was found lying on its side. On closer inspection, medics found a man and a woman lying inside each vehicle. Medics assessed the patients and found that all four had already succumbed to their numerous injuries. Nothing could be done, and they were declared dead. Local authorities were on the scene for further investigations.

Over 400 suspects apprehended

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - In ongoing efforts to bring alleged crime perpetrators to justice, detectives in the province arrested 490 suspects since Monday (22 March) to Friday (26 March), for different crimes during provincial suspect raiding operations.

Of the 490 arrests, 299 were for contact crimes such as murder, rape, assaults with intent to do grievous bodily harm, common robbery, sexual assault, assault common and attempted rape. The other suspects were held for various other crimes such as malicious damage to property, contravention of protection order, theft, burglary residential and business and stock theft.

The suspects were arrested at all four districts and they include 59 that were effected by Specialised Units, according to Captain Aafje Botma, provincial police spokesperson.

Meanwhile, most of the suspects have already appeared before courts while others were expected to appear on Monday (29 March).

Thieves target sports people

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The police here has issued a warning to sports people making use of facilities at Olympia Park early in the mornings.

According to Capt Elsabé Augoustides, Rustenburg police spokesperson, a number of incidents have been reported where people practicing or exercising at the stadium were robbed or their vehicles being broken into.

"Do not leave any valuables in your vehicle where criminals can spot it. If you are going to work right after practicing, put your valuables at home in the boot of your car to avoid any criminal observing you," she advises.

VALUATION ROLL: Sands of time slowly running out

Waldie Volschenk

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Time is running out for Rustenburg property owners to lodge objections against the proposed new valuations of their property which has been certified by the Rustenburg Municipality as from 31 January 2021.

Owners of property, whether it be residential, business or agricultural, have been invited to view the proposed new value of their property on the new Valuation Roll which has been available for inspection by the public from 15 February to 30 April 2021.

Property owners should note that the significance of the Valuation Roll is that this information is crucial in the formulation of property owners' assessment rates payable in terms of their monthly municipal accounts at the end of every month.

From what has been gathered from owners in recent months, is that the value of hundreds of properties have been adjusted quite dramatically and that the new roll does in fact not differ much from the one submitted/ tabled exactly 12 months ago, when owners were shocked to note that the value of Rustenburg properties have been adjusted dramatically (some between 100 and 400%!) as opposed to prizes reflected by the local property market over the past six to eight years.

Fortunately at the time however, the municipality decided to approach the former North West MEC for Co-operative Government and Traditional Affairs to extend the validity of the (then) existing roll for a period of 12 months whilst the confused and panic of the 2020 Valuation Roll was being clarified. With regard to the latest version of the Municipal Valuation Roll, it is imperative for the public, especially those who do not agree with the proposed new valuation and who wish to object, that objections must be related to a specific property and not against the new Valuation Roll as such. New information which came to our attention recently, furthermore suggests that property owners do not necessarily need an alternative valuation by a registered and independent evaluator to proceed to lodge an objection.

As a rule of thumb, the market value as reflected by the property market is quite a fair and trustworthy indication of a specific property's value.

Property owners should also be aware that in some instances, the objection process, especially in terms of a property of which the valuation has "risen" dramatically, could incur further costs such as expenses in terms of legal advice.

Copies of the Valuation Roll are available on the website www.rustenburg.gov.za and/or at the following venues:

Municipal libraries situated at Boitekong, Karlien Park, Marikana and Rustenburg;

Municipal Regional Community Centers situated at Boitekong, Lethabong, Monnakato, Marikana, Phatsima, Tlhabane and Ikageng;

Tribal offices at Phokeng. As has been announced by the Rustenburg Municipality, the deadline for objections is 30 April 2021. The implementation of the new Valuation will take effect on 1 July 2021.

Former champions win as tough Mpumalanga 400 took its toll on the special vehicles

HERALD'S

Bonus

Sport News

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The 2019 Special Vehicle Champions, Lance Trethewey and Adriaan Roets, romped to a fine victory in their LT Earthmovers BAT Venom when they won the Mpumalanga 400, the opening round of the South African National Cross Country Series (SACCS) that took place at Dullstroom this weekend. It was a case of the survivors taking it all as a dusty, muddy and slippery route took its toll on the open wheel special vehicles.

A new race structure was also introduced at the Mpumalanga 400 with this event being a Super Event consisting of a short 10km Pirelli Qualifying Race on Friday followed by a 100km Loop on the same day. Teams then had to tackle two more loops on Saturday for a total race distance of almost 400 kilometres. To top that, is the reputation of this event as being challenging and tough with wet conditions not making it any easier for the two-wheel drive vehicles.

Trethewey/Roets were fastest in the Special Vehicle category on Friday and did not relinquish their lead to also clinch Class A in a time of 7:54:50. The former champions were joined on the overall podium by two Class G Side-by-Side (SxS) teams with Dean Bradbury/Timmy Botes (Can-Am Maverick), who also won this class at the 2020 Mpumalanga 400, doing so again to score their first class victory of the season. The brothers, Werner and Leon Mostert (Schalk Burger Motorsport Can-Am Maverick) had to settle for the runner-up position in Class G after finishing Friday as the leading SxS team, but a broken back suspension two kilometres before the finish on Saturday, saw them having them having to settle for second place in the class.

Vehicle reliability will again play an important role in the outcome of the Special Vehicle category and teams will now have two months to prepare for the Sugarbelt 400 that takes place on 21 and 22 May in KwaZulu-Natal.

Bafana fail to qualify for Afcon

Bafana Bafana let down supporters once again by failing to qualify for the AFCON finals (Photo: World Wide Web).

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Bafana Bafana have once again disappointed their fans by failing to qualify for the Africa Cup of Nation (AFCON) when they played against Sudan on Sunday evening (28 March).

All they needed to do was to draw against Sudan in order for them to qualify for the finals - which will be held in Cameroon. Bafana lost 2-0 to Sudan which halted the national team's ambition to perform with the best teams in Africa.
