Rustenburg Herald's Bonus

8 MARCH 2021

Enjoy while it lasts

With Rustenburg and in fact, large parts of the South African interior as green and lush as it possibly could be, hikers, cyclists, photographers and outdoor enthusiasts have another month or two to enjoy the great outdoors before the onset of autumn and an expected very cold winter this year. This pristine view of the north eastern slopes of the Magaliesberg affectionately known as "rooikrans" and overlooking Safari Gardens was taken on Saturday morning. The hikers admiring the splendid view are Ryno and Loulené Potgieter while the top (of the range) pedigree French poodle named "Parker" also enjoys the outing. (Photograph: Waldie Volschenk).

Filing season starts for employers

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - SARS is calling on employers to ensure that they are ready to submit their annual reconciliation declarations with the latest and most accurate payroll information about their employees and the tax they have deducted.

At the same time, SARS expects that providers of third party information from institutions who administer medical aid schemes, retirement annuities and others also provide the latest and accurate information to make it easy for taxpayers who are required to file an income tax return.

The data that must be submitted to SARS from employers should cover the Monthly Employer Declarations submitted, payments made and Tax Certificates (IRP5/IT3) (a)s generated, covering the full tax year from 1 March to 28/28 February.

Information submitted by third parties should cover the same tax period.

Based on this payroll information and data from third parties, SARS will be able to issue an income tax return to taxpayers that is pre-populated with the relevant information for the ease and convenience of taxpayers who do not have complex tax affairs.

For these taxpayers, filing a return becomes a simple matter of checking that all the information pre-populated on the return is correct and then submitting the return to SARS.

Employers and third parties have from 1 April to 31 May to submit their data to SARS.

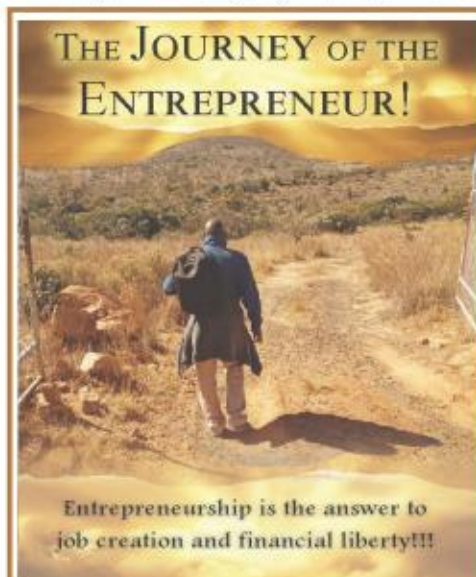

Employers who fail to submit payroll data on time may become liable for late submission penalties of up to 10% of the value of their payroll.

For more details on the submission of payroll data and the online platforms available for submission, employers can visit the PAYE page on the SARS website www.sars.gov.za Lotto money for mansion instead of old age home?

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Did an organisation who received a grant from the National Lottery Commission (NLC) paid R5 million towards a Rustenburg house for a NLC board member?

According to reports in national newspapers last week, it is alleged that millions of rands from a Lottery grant to build an old age home in Mpumalanga were used to pay for an ultra-luxury home on a sprawling estate in Rustenburg.

For more on this developing story, see this week's Rustenburg Herald.

Clarity on R350 grant relief

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The National Student Financial Aid Scheme (NSFAS) has noted a post on Twitter stating that students who receive the R350 SASSA grant relief do not qualify for NSFAS funding.

NSFAS would like to clarify that this is factually incorrect. The NSFAS funding criteria states that applicants from combined household income of more than R350 000 do not qualify for funding.

The COVID-19 grant is not currently part of the eligibility criteria for funding students and therefore the R350 is not taken into account.

NSFAS apologises for the inconvenience caused by the incorrect statement.

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The organizers of the Run Your City Series (RYC Series) are thrilled to launch the RYC Series Running Club on Strava. Runners can connect with like-minded individuals, track all their training runs, view the weekly RYC Series leader board, keep up to date with RYC Series information, access training tips and the discussion forum, and be notified of upcoming events and challenges, while standing a chance to win spectacular prizes.

“The launch of a RYC Series Running Club is long overdue,” says Michael Meyer, Managing Director of Stillwater Sports. “Not only will the club be the perfect platform for runners to challenge themselves while connecting with like-minded individuals, but it will also enable us to share instant event related information and receive direct feedback, queries and/or suggestions from the RYC Series running community. Let’s not forget about the exciting competitions and giveaways that we will be running both as motivation and reward.” Run Your Series: Friday 24 September 2021 - Joburg 10km Cityrun, Sunday 31 October 2021 - Durban 10km Cityrun, Sunday 21 November 2021 - Cape Town 12km Cityrun.

Runners must “join” the RYC Series Running Club via the following link <https://www.strava.com/clubs/rycs> If you have not yet done so, you will need to create a Strava Account before you can join the RYC Series Running Club. Once joined, you can sign up for any event and/or challenge that you wish to participate in.
