Walking on Sunshine at Zwartkops Race Track

Saturday, 23 October, saw the penultimate round of Motorsport South Africa's GTC racing at the Zwartkops Racetrack in Pretoria with the top of the log for the SA Championships fiercely debated by amongst others, Michael van Rooyen, the so-called Rustenburg Rocket racing for Toyota Gazoo Racing SA. The second race of the day ended in a huge victory for Van Rooyen after a somewhat disappointing performance in Race 1. Read all about the past weekend's GTC racing at Zwartkops in Rustenburg Herald of this week. Pictured above Dunlop SA's "promo girls" Carman Adamson and Sinead Kotze were among the day's numerous colourful sensations.

National Student Financial Aid Scheme warns against possible scams

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The National Student Financial Aid Scheme (NSFAS) is aware of a fake Circular Notice 22 circulating on social media platforms regarding the NSFAS allowance increase for the 2022 academic year. NSFAS can confirm that the Circular is fake and consists of false information.

Prospective applicants are also advised to be aware of fake websites and social media platforms advising them to apply for funding, share their personal information and/or unlock their NSFAS Wallet accounts. Should students require assistance regarding their NSFAS funding, the NSFAS Contact Centre is fully functional and can be accessible on the details provided below.

"Applications for 2022 academic year funding are not open yet. NSFAS will communicate the opening date soon. Students are encouraged to constantly monitor our social media platforms for updates. Any Circular or information that is released to the public through unofficial communication should be regarded as disinformation. NSFAS Circulars are released following a vigorous process on stakeholder engagement and can only be released through approved channels.

We are disturbed by the increasing disinformation in recent weeks, where false information that is spread deliberately disseminated to deceive. We encourage our students to be vigilant. We identified all the bogus platforms that masquerade as NSFAS, and we have reported them to the relevant authorities for further investigation," Said NSFAS.

Students, prospective applicants and the public are urged to report suspicious messages or calls from fraudsters posing as NSFAS officials or any fraudulent activities to the Vuvuzela Hotline on 0860 247 653.

Digital migration deadline looms

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - As South Africa continues to prepare to migrate to digital broadcasting by 31 March 2022, the South African Post Office has called on qualifying households to apply for their free set-top boxes ahead of the deadline.

According to a statement released, homes that apply before 1 November, will receive a decoder before the analogue television signal is switched off. Those who apply after 1 November 2021 will only receive a decoder later. Qualifying households are urged to visit their local Post Office as soon as possible to apply for a free government-subsidised decoder (set-top box). The set-top box is free.

Qualifying beneficiaries must visit their nearest Post Office branch as soon as possible with the following documentation:

A South African Identity document; proof of address; an affidavit to confirm that the family has a working television set; a bank statement or affidavit to confirm that the family income is R3500 per month or less. If you receive a SASSA grant, you do not need to bring proof of income. Proof that you receive a SASSA grant is enough.

Get some cash for Christmas

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - There are less than 10 weeks left before Christmas 2021.

Because the last 18 months was challenging for most people, budgets are tight.

But it needn't be, and we would like to extend a helping hand.

We are offering you ONE FREE ADVERT PER WEEK in our classified section. Use this to sell your unwanted items, your car, or your skills and services. It's easy - simply visit our website at www.northwestnewspapers.co.za, click on Rustenburg Herald, then on the Classifieds heading. Keep your advert less than 16 words, and you will get it for free.

If the advert is more than 15 words, you pay R1,50 per word - still a great bargain.

Win a two night midweek breakaway with Sun City & Rustenburg Herald

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - South Africa’s favourite holiday resort has turned up the heat and is ready to welcome you – whether you are active and sporty, are an adventurous adrenalin junkie, are hooked on nature or just enjoy relaxing by the pool, Sun City has an ideal experience for you.

Swoop mundane for a fun summer adventure with a stay at the family-friendly, island-style Cabanas overlooking the recreational Waterworld Lake. The Cabanas also boasts an adult pool plus a shallow paddling pool. Most of the rooms have views of the lake or open up onto lush gardens. For an African family adventure, a visit to the neighbouring Pilanesberg National Park is a must. The malaria-free park offers a super seven sighting experience. In addition to the big five of lion, leopard, elephant, rhino and buffalo, you can also keep an eye out for cheetah and wild dogs, all in their natural habitat.

Book an experienced guide to take you on a private or group safari or a quad biking drive through Letsetsing nature reserve to look for giraffe and various buck. To qualify for a wonderful Sun City Midweek Breakaway, write to us and share why you deserve a Summer Holiday and stand a chance to win with Sun City and Rustenburg Herald. Prizes to be won are a two-night midweek stay at Cabanas valued at R3 340 per room per night (R6 680 in total value) for two people. Breakfast included and access to the Valley of Waves. T&Cs: Entries should be accompanied by a full colour head and shoulders photograph (1 to 2 mb) of every participant. Letters should not exceed 100 words! Both your cell number and email address must be included when entering. Send your entries to: waldie@rustenburgherald.co.za Please note - the winning prize is not transferable for cash. Prizes are valid for six months, subject to availability. Please note that peak season includes the festive break in December 2021 and Easter during April 2022 so availability may not be accessible during this time. The next winning couple will be announced in this week’s edition of Rustenburg Herald - do not miss your copy!

Bad driving foils attempted robbery

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - An Cash-in-transit vehicle managed to get away unscathed after the car attempting to force them off the road, crashed into an advertising pole.

According to information received, the cash van was travelling on the R104 from Kroondal direction towards Rustenburg city centre at around 14:00 on Sunday (24 October).

Near the filling station at the four-way crossing with the R24, a BMW tried to force the van from the road, unsuccessfully. While approaching a fast food centre, the BMW once again made an attempt, but the driver lost control of the vehicle and the BMW crashed into a pole.

The driver of the cash-in-transit van drove on to safety. According to bystanders, the driver of the BMW jumped out of the vehicle and ran into the nearby Paul Bodenstein Park. Two motorists who witnessed him leaving the scene of the accident, stopped their vehicles and followed the fleeing man into the park.

Meanwhile, two other vehicles - a Toyota Hilux and another BMW - were apparently waiting a few hundred metres further along the road. When the drivers of these vehicles saw the crash, they turned around and went back.

They then allegedly stopped next to the road at the Bodenstein park and opened fire on the two motorists who were in pursuit of the first BMW.

The two men fell to the ground and took cover while the driver ran back to the waiting vehicles. He then, according to information available, got into one of the vehicles and the sped off.

As far as could be established, nobody was injured during the incident and no arrests have been reported.

Four arrested for killing truck driver

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Four suspects aged between 22 and 40-years-old were arrested in the early hours of Saturday morning (23 October) on charges of murder and armed robbery.

According to Northwest police spokesperson, Lt Col Amanda Funani, the incident occurred in Zone 8, Mogwase. According to Lt Col Funani, information available to the police indicate that the truck driver and his colleague were sitting inside a truck and counting money on Friday (22 October) when approached by four males. One of the men were allegedly armed. The driver, using the truck door, tried to push back one of the men, but the attacker allegedly then fired shots. The 43-year-old truck driver was fatally wounded, while the colleague managed to flee. The suspects fled the scene. Following a collaboration between the police and the public, four suspects were arrested shortly after the incident. Furthermore, the firearm that was used during the commission of the crime was recovered. The suspects were all expected to appear in the Mankwe Magistrates' Court in Mogwase on Monday (24 October).

Police searching for killers after Seraleng shooting

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Police here have launched a manhunt after a 36-year-old man was allegedly gunned down on Friday evening (22 October). According to provincial police spokesperson, Lt Col Amanda Funani, the victim, and a female companion, were travelling in his cousin's Ford Ranger bakkie to visit a friend in Seraleng on the evening of the incident.

It is alleged that upon arrival at the friend's place, the victim decided to use a toilet outside the house. He was on his way back from the toilet when unknown suspects allegedly shot and killed him. Furthermore, people who were inside the house heard the vehicle driving away. They went to investigate a few minutes later and discovered the victim's lifeless body lying on the ground with multiple gunshot wounds. The victim was certified dead at the scene by paramedics while the vehicle was later found abandoned about 1,5 km away from the scene. The motive of the incident is yet to be determined and police are investigating a case of murder, hijacking and robbery with firearm. Anyone with information that may lead to the arrest of the suspects is requested to contact the Investigating Officer, Lieutenant Colonel Lazarus Mokgathe on 060 987 8626 or call South African Police Service (SAPS) Crime Stop number: 08600 10111.

Manhunt for hitman launched in Phokeng

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Police in Phokeng apprehended a 44-year-old woman and are searching for an alleged hitman after a 51-year-old man was brutally killed on Wednesday (20 October) at Luka village, near Phokeng outside Rustenburg.

According to reports, tenants who are staying at the couple's backrooms heard gunshots at about 03:45 on Wednesday morning, 20 October 2021, and went to investigate.

Upon seeing the victim lying in a pool of blood, they called the wife, the police and ambulance. It is alleged that the victim who is the suspect's husband, was on his way to work when he met the fatal incident.

Preliminary investigation revealed that the victim sustained several gunshot wounds on his upper body. He was certified dead at the scene. Subsequent investigation into the matter, led to the arrest after reports surfaced that the couple was heard arguing and police also established that the wife allegedly hired a hitman who allegedly fled the scene after the incident.

The suspect is expected to appear in the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court in Tlhabane on Friday (22 October). Investigation into the matter continues and the motive is still unknown.

The Provincial Commissioner of North West, Lieutenant General Sello Kwenza condemned the incident and congratulated the Phokeng Detectives for swift reaction that resulted in the arrest.

The General also thanked members of the community for working together with the police in making sure that the suspect is brought to book.

Rhino poachers get hefty sentences

BONUS - MOGWASE - The Mogwase Regional Court handed over a hefty jail term to Arlando Mhlana, Adam Hlongwane and Inancio Chauke on charges related to rhino poaching at the Pilansberg Game Reserve in the North West.

According to information received, the trio, who are from Mozambique, were arrested on 2 July 2018 trying to leave the game reserve in a white Ford bakkie loaded with stolen rhino horns valued at R1,5 million. Subsequent to their arrest, they applied for bail and it was denied.

They remained in police custody until the completion of the trial.

Mhlana and his co-accused were charged on three counts of illegally killing three female rhinos, possession of a prohibited firearm, possession of ammunition, possession of six rhino horns, chopping six rhino horns from three rhino carcasses, intentionally and unlawfully conveying six rhino horns, theft of three rhino horns and also charged for entering the heritage site without written permission.

From the ten (10) charges they were facing, the court sentenced them to a cumulative 85 years imprisonment, however it ordered for some sentences to run concurrently. Mhlana and his co-accused will then spend an effective 35 years in prison for the crimes they committed. The court also declared them unfit to possess firearms.

The Ford bakkie and other items that were in their possession are also forfeited to the state. In aggravation of sentence, Advocate Douw Jacobs urged the court to consider the evidence submitted by conservation experts on the extinction of the rhino population and its impact.

He argued that rhino poaching impacts negatively to the tourism industry and the economy of the country as it results in job losses.

First teenager to be vaccinated at JST

With children aged between 12 and 17 years now being given the chance to get the Covid-19 vaccine, 15-year-old Dineo Mardi was the first child in the age group to get vaccinated at Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital. She was supported and accompanied by her father, Stephen Mardi. Teenagers are required to bring either a birth certificate or passport or asylum seeker permit. Government is recommending that children be accompanied by their parents or guardians when getting vaccinated.

Prize-money of R20 000 awaits art winners

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Great news for talented amateur artists in Rustenburg is that our Rustenburg Herald/Bonus Blank Space Art competition is open once again. Entries in virtually any medium you could think of are being awaited at Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing in Azalea Park and Pick n Pay Lifestyle Square in Beyers Naudé Avenue. There is no entry fee and artists are invited to enter as many entries as they wish.

Enter your works of art into the two boxes clearly marked "Rustenburg Herald/Bonus Blank Space Art competition and/or at reception at the offices of Rustenburg Herald in 13 Coetzer Street. The closing date will be announced at a later stage - good luck with your entries.

Be on the look out for this entry box at Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé or Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing for your entries in the Rustenburg Herald/Bonus Blank Space Art competition. Two quarterly cash prizes of R1 000 and (if you're lucky) plus two overall grand prizes of two shopping vouchers to the tune of R10 000 each are up for grabs in December this year. The last competition for this year is open for entries once again.

Two aspiring young artists are just 45 days away from clinching prize-money of R10 000 each in the final round of our Blank Space Art competition - only November's quarterly winners will be announced and thereafter it's time for the Big One!

The latest batch of entries for our Blank Space Art competition wherein overall prize-money (in shopping vouchers) is up for grabs sponsored by Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing and Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé. The final quarterly winners will be announced by mid November with the overall winners being announced just in time for Christmas.

Larries golf doing very well

Congratulations to Ruan Els, Gerhard Botha, Kiefer and Carsten Wenhold of Laerskool Rustenburg who were chosen for the Larries Super 12 golf team. These four boys as well as Fouche van der Merwe and Ryan Pretorius did very well and won the unofficial school league. Pictured here are Ruan Els, Gerhard Botha, Kiefer Wenhold and Carsten Wenhold.

"Yes son, that is how it looks when naked!" A photograph of a racing car almost stripped to the bare essentials during a visit to Motorsport South Africa's "Day at the Races" at the Zwartkops Race track on Saturday - the penultimate round of the Motorsport SA racing calendar. Rustenburg's "Rocket" - Michael van Rooyen was also in action racing for the Toyota Gazoo Racing SA team in his Gazoo Racing Toyota Corolla and has scored another marvelous win in Race 2 on Saturday. See more photographs and stories in this week's edition of Rustenburg Herald which will be available on Wednesday.
