HOLIDAY SAFETY

Stay safe while out and about

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The sun is shining, the festive season is here and there are plenty of magical memories to be made.

We share a few safety tips in order to keep you and your loved ones safe.

- If you are traveling an unfamiliar route, make sure to plan your route properly ahead of time
- Try to avoid back roads as much as possible
- Always be aware of your surroundings
- Be aware of strangers. Most of us want to be good and kind, but sometimes a vehicle broken down next to the road is a trap
- Never give lifts to strangers
- Keep valuable items concealed
- Keep your car doors locked at all times
- When you go shopping, be aware that malls will be crowded, so plan accordingly
- Do not carry around large sums of money
- Park in well lit areas at night
- Be aware of the emergency numbers just in case

Man strangled by brother

BONUS - RUSTENBURG –A 36-year-old man appeared in the Mogwase Magistrates’ Court early this week in connection with the alleged murder of his 34-year-old brother.

The man was arrested on Saturday evening (3 December) after he allegedly strangled his younger brother at their home in Lerome village, Moruleng near Mogwase.

According to Lieutenant Colonel Amanda Funani, North West Police spokesperson, the suspect and the victim had a quarrel prior to the incident. The police were called to the scene, but the victim was already dead.

“The suspect was immediately arrested and charged with murder. Investigations into the matter continues,” Lieutenant Colonel Funani said.
