Rustenburg Herald's Bonus

07 FEBRUARY 2022

Play your cards right this Valentine's Day

The lovely Queen of Hearts gracing our front page in this month of love and romance, is Shyla Naudé - a model from Rustenburg with her heart set on a great future in the spotlight. Shyla was the winner of Teen Miss Ace Models in 2021 as well as Magnificent SA 2020 competition. For this special Queen of Hearts photo shoot by Karen Mc Carthy Photography, Shyla donned a special dress of cards made by no other than her grandfather. With Valentine's Day looming in exactly a week, some may however propose that sometimes, love is a gamble. If you haven't given much thought on how to surprise the love of your life this Valentine's Day, now would be a good time to start.

Rustenburg Local Municipality visited by US Consul General

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The United States Consul General, Mr Vincent Spera, accompanied by his Consul staff, based in Pretoria, recently paid the Rustenburg Local Municipality a courtesy, as part of his four-day tour to the North West province.

The purpose of the visit was to establish working relations between the Rustenburg Local Municipality and the Consulate of the United states of America, with the long term view to exploring future business relations and foreign aid in the fields of education, mining, governance and health, amongst others.

"It is my first visit to the North West province, and decided to start with Rustenburg as it is a very exciting developmental and business prospect, as the biggest exporter of platinum in the sub-Saharan region, if not the rest of the world. It is the fastest growing city in Africa. This, we couldn't ignore, but decided to explore these exciting and promising prospects", remarked Consul General Spera, in his engagement with Executive Mayor.

"We are obviously equally excited about this significant visit by the Consul General of the United states, as this signals good fortune for the Municipality in terms of enhancing service delivery through foreign aid, peer review and exchange programs. This will benefit the Municipality a great deal in that good lessons would have been learnt in the long run, thus capacitating our personnel and institution through exposure. This will translate into improved service delivery, which our communities so much need out there. We will continue to facilitate these bilaterals to fruition, so that they benefit the lot of our people and business alike, in our Municipality ", commented Executive Mayor, Cllr Kgomo tso Shiela Mabale-Huma, in her interaction with the Consul General.

Local cop arrested for corruption

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - A 34-year-old police officer was to appear before the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court in Tlhabane on Monday (7 February) on a charge of corruption.

The suspect was apprehended by the Provincial Anti-Corruption Investigation Unit (ACIU) on 4 February during a controlled operation.

According to reports, a vehicle belonging to a stock theft related case was impounded and booked in as evidence in January 2022. Subsequent to the suspect's court appearance, his case was withdrawn for further investigations. Thus, the suspect was released from detention. He allegedly got a call from the police officer who promised to release his vehicle provided he pays a certain amount. The man consequently reported the matter to the police who commenced with investigations. The man allegedly arranged to meet with the police officer on Friday, 4 February, to hand him the money that he requested to release the vehicle. They ultimately met at the man's house where the police officer was arrested by members of the ACIU after collecting the money which was found in his possession.

The Provincial Commissioner of North West, Lieutenant General Sello Kwenia, applauded the ACIU members for their excellent work in netting the police officer. He said further that corrupt employees have no place to hide in the South African Police Service (SAPS) and that those who are involved in criminal activities, will be brought to book to face the full might of the Law.

Rape accused sentenced

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The South African Police Service Bojanala Sub District Commissioner, Regina Ntoagae and her management team has welcomed the three years sentencing of Itumeleng Alfred Shongwane (20) after he was found guilty of statutory rape.

According to Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson in Rustenburg, it is alleged that early in 2021 Shongwane had an affair with a 13-year-old girl from Lefaragatlhe that he met on social media. He convinced her to spend the night at his parental house with him.

The following day he walked her home and found her parents waiting. The victim then told her parents what transpired overnight and thereafter a case was registered with the police and was investigated by Sergeant Phenyio Monchusi.

On Monday (31 January) Shongwane was sentenced by the Bafokeng Magistrates Court to three years imprisonment which is suspended for a period of five years including a six month house arrest.

Sergeant Phenyio Monchusi of the Rustenburg FCS.

ELECTRICITY VANDALISM Tragedy strikes

BONUS – RUSTENBURG – The incident in which a member of the Rustenburg Municipality's Electrical team was fatally injured is being investigated.

Four workers from RLM sustained very serious injuries in two separate incidents on Friday (4 February); one of the four succumbed to his injuries after being electrocuted.

In the other incident late Friday night, one team member was critically injured, while two others sustained burn wounds to the arms. All three team members were taken to hospital. Two of the injured were transferred to a hospital in Johannesburg.

"The loss of life is tragic and we would like to express our deepest sympathies to the family," Councillor Jean Keyser said in an interview with Rustenburg Herald on Saturday morning.

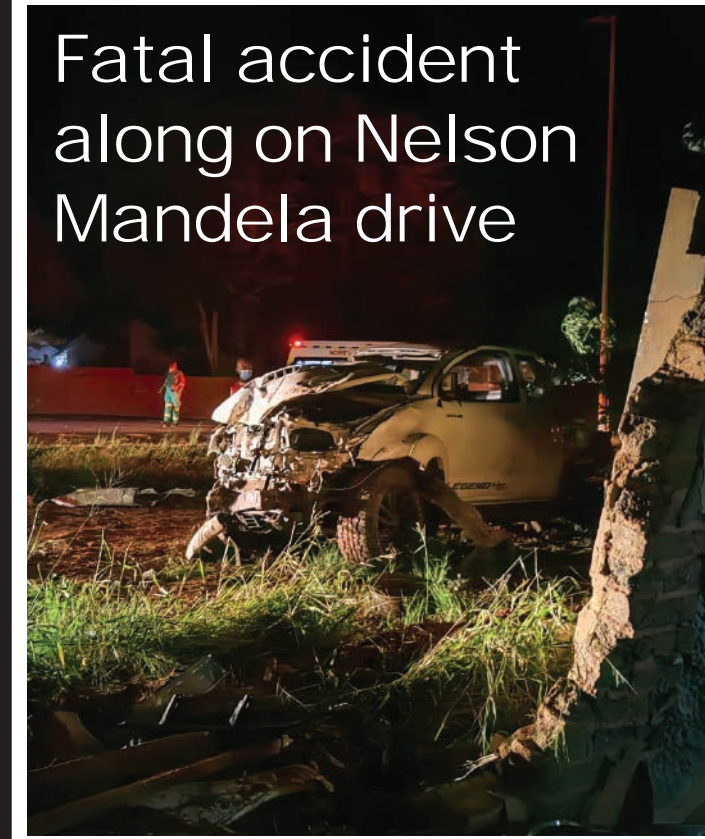

He also expressed his hope that the three other members of the team who were injured in a separate incident will have a speedy recovery. "We understand the deep frustration the community who is left without electricity is feeling.

We are currently looking at options to assist the depleted – and traumatised – team. One of the options is to get the help of a contracted company to help. Please believe that we are doing everything possible to get electricity restored.

We beg of the community to just have a measure of understanding regarding the loss of life and the impact this had on the other members of the team," Keyser said during the interview.

Disrupted power supply were restored to most of the effected areas by Sunday afternoon, although some sections remained without electricity. The Executive Mayor of Rustenburg, Shiela Mabale-Huma has issued a formal statement conveying the municipality's condolences with the families of the member who lost his life, and those of the injured as well. "Investigations are underway to establish the cause of these very unfortunate events," she said.

DA Member of Parliament Cheryl Phillips also commented on the situation. "The current power outage in your area can be placed squarely on the shoulders of the thieves and vandals operating in our towns and as a community, we need to find a way of standing together to put an end to it," Phillips said.

A bakkie, allegedly travelling at high speed hit a tree and drove into the wall at a well-known old age home in Rustenburg along the Nelson Mandela drive. According to eye witnesses, the incident took place on Thursday night (3 February). It is reported two men died as a result of the accident. Emergency officials were at the scene for further investigations.

Big money to be won in Blank Space Art competition

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - After a “short” but exciting 2021 Bonus and Rustenburg Herald once again kick off with our Blank Space Art competition for the new year wherein aspiring artists could win monthly/quarterly prize-money of R1 000 in cash sponsored by Rustenburg Herald.

In addition to this, all monthly/quarterly winners will also have a chance to win big time!

Two Grand Prizes consisting of two shopping vouchers to the value of R10 000 each are also up for grabs courtesy Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing in Azalea Park and Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé at the Lifestyle Square.

The Blank Space Art competition is open to artists of all ages and entries will be judged accordingly. Once again for the first term of the new year, our Chief Judge is well-known artist Mollie Moolman. Great news is that there is no entry fee and that artists really have a free hand at making their art count in the competition. You may enter as many entries as you wish. Entries submitted could be in just about every style and format imaginable - you could use any type of paint, pen, pencil, clay, ceramic, wood, glass, paper, metal or whatever you prefer provided that your entry would fit into our standard entry boxes of roughly A4 size. Though the paint/draw/sketch medium is by far the most popular among artists, our judge will welcome entries in any medium, so there is no need to hold back.

Entries could be “posted” into the Blank Space entry boxes at both Pick n Pay Stores as well as reception at Rustenburg Herald in 13 Coetzer Street in Rustenburg’s Eastern Industrial area. Keep those entries rolling in and we will keep you posted in every week’s edition of Rustenburg Herald/Bonus.

A closing date for the first term’s competition will be announced at a later stage. Good luck with your entries!

Online 'smalls' adverts: It's still FREE

BONUS – RUSTENBURG – Effective advertising can be expensive and complicated. But not if you use Rustenburg Herald's Online options.

If you want your business to succeed, you need to advertise. If you want to sell unwanted items, you need to advertise.

And one of your best tools is Rustenburg Herald's Classified Adverts. You can go the traditional way and come to our offices at 13 Coetzer Street to book your adverts. Or, you can take the online route and log on to our website, book your advert and submit it - all in just a minute or two.

Best of all, you can place one advert per week for absolutely free - provided it's less than 16 words. If it consists of 16 words or more, you'll only pay R1,50 per extra word - still an absolute bargain.

Why wait? Go to our website <https://www.northwestnewspapers.co.za/herald/> and simply choose the 'Classified Advertisement' section to start.

Our advertisements is result driven; you can be too.

New Acting CEO appointed at JST hospital

Following the departure of former Chief Executive, Mr Abednigo Mvula, who was at the helm of Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital for two years, Ms Gloria T. Tlhapi has been appointed as the Acting CEO of the hospital. Her appointment was effective since 1 January 2022.

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The organisers of the iconic Absa Run Your City Series are excited to announce that South Africa's award winning road running series is now a 10km series only and will boast three exhilarating races in three cities in 2022: the Absa Run Your City Cape Town 10K (Sunday 15 May), Absa Run Your City Durban 10K (Sunday 10 July) and Absa Run Your City Joburg 10K (Saturday 24 September).

"We are thrilled to announce that the Absa Run Your City Series has evolved into a 10km series that will be hosted in three cities in 2022," says Michael Meyer, Managing Director of Stillwater Sports and Founder of the Absa Run Your City Series. Together with their support and other key sponsors such as Puma and DHL, to mention just a few, they hosted two fantastic events in Durban and Cape Town amidst very strict Covid-19 regulations. This paved the way for what they have planned in 2022.
