Head-on collision claims three lives

BONUS - DERBY – On Thursday afternoon (27 January), three people were killed when a light motor vehicle and a truck collided head-on on the R509 20km outside Derby.

According to ER24 spokesperson, Russel Meiring, paramedics arrived at 15h00 to find the truck and car smashed together, well alight. After the Provincial Fire Services extinguished the blaze, medics found the bodies of a man, woman and young girl inside the car.

Unfortunately, all three patients had already succumbed to their injuries. Nothing could be done for them, and they were declared dead. The driver of the truck, fortunately, escaped injury. Local authorities were on the scene for further investigations.

“Prophet” gets jailtime for rape

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The Bafokeng Regional Court in Tlhabane handed down a 10 year sentence to a 28-year-old rape accused.

Ratanang William Moitshodi sentencing emanates from an incident wherein he raped a then 22-year-old woman in Bethel Section, Lefaragatlhe in Tlhabane in 2019.

On that Saturday (26 January 2019) at about 18:15, the victim was at her sister’s home when Moitshodi arrived there. He allegedly told the victim that he was a traditional healer and can help her not to lose her babe as she was pregnant at the time. Moreover, Moitshodi managed to convince the victim that they should go to his residence so that he can help her.

Upon arrival at Moitshodi’s home, the victim was told to undress and lie down on her back.

He then allegedly spread an ointment on her body and subsequently raped her insinuating that it was a way of inserting the medicine into the victim’s body.

Following the incident, the matter was reported to the police and Moitshodi was traced and arrested a few days later. He was found guilty on a charge of rape and was sentenced to 10 years imprisonment on Thursday, 20 January 2022.

He was also declared unfit to possess a firearm in terms of section 103 of the Firearms Control Act, 2000 (Act No. 60 of 2000).

The Provincial Commissioner of North West, Lieutenant General Sello Kwena lauded the investigating Officer, Detective Sergeant Christopher Maimela of Rustenburg Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences (FCS) unit and all those involved, including the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) for the sterling job.

Selwyn Davids (Photo: Springboks/Facebook)

BONUS - RUSTENBURG -
The Blitzboks won their sixth consecutive World Rugby Sevens Series tournament on Sunday night, beating Australia 33-7 in the Seville final.

It is their fourth straight win of the 2021/22 season.

Additionally, this is also the Blitzboks' 34th successive win which puts them level with New Zealand for the second most wins in a row.

Christie Grobbelaar scored a brace of tries as the Blitzboks beat Australia to win the Cup final.

In a frenetic but nervy start, both sides made unforced errors. However, what counted in the Blitzboks' favour was the fact that their miscues happened deep in Australia's territory.

The physicality of the match immediately took its toll as Justin Geduld stayed down after a big collision. After an extended period of on-field medical treatment, Geduld was carried off the field and replaced by Mfundo Ndhlovu.

With the half-time break approaching and Australia dominating possession, South Africa were on the back foot and conceded a try in the last minute of the half when Ben Dowling split their defence to dot down under the posts.

But there was still time for a restart and the Blitzboks made the most of it as first Selwyn Davids toed the ball ahead before Christie Grobbelaar twice nudged it forward twice and then won the race score a converted try and lock the scores up at 7-7 heading into the break.

There were to be no such struggles for the Blitzboks in the second half as they scored 40 seconds after the restart through Grobbelaar after Ndhlovu snatched possession back at a defensive breakdown.

South Africa suffered a setback when Darren Adonis was yellow-carded for foul play. But Australia messed up the ensuing penalty as the ball was ripped in the tackle and Ryan Oosthuizen pounced to secure possession and barge over from close range for a fortuitous try.

As if seeing the deficit grow to 14 points wasn't bad enough for Australia, they conceded two yellow cards in quick succession.

This allowed the Blitzboks to add two late tries to stretch their lead and wrap up the result.
