Joe Engelbrecht, Captain of Rustenburg Impala's 1st team with support from scrum half Trevor Visser during one of numerous attacks in Impala's tough battle against Pretoria Rugby Club in Rustenburg on Saturday. Rustenburg Impala performed remarkably well by defeating Pretoria Rugby Club by 34 - 18 despite a relatively young and inexperienced side. Earlier Impala's 2nd team (the Vikings) clinched a narrow victory of 26 - 24 against the 2nd team from Pretoria while Impala's Terriers lost against Pretoria Rugby Club's 3rd team by one point only (15 - 14). With rejuvenated spirits after two excellent victories, Rustenburg Impala is looking forward to 23 July when Rustenburg Impala meets Harlequins also on home turf. (Photo: Waldie Volschenk).

Grant recipients urged to use alternative payment methods

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - With social grants being paid from Monday (4 June), the South African Social Security Agency (SASSA) has reminded social grant recipients to use alternative payment methods to receive their grant. Grants for Older Persons will commence on 4 July, followed by Disability Grants on 5th July and all other grants being paid from 6 July.

“Clients who do not have PIN codes or who have forgotten their PINs, are encouraged to ensure that they reset their PIN codes at their nearest Post Office outlet.

Those who have PIN codes and still remember them need not renew their PIN,” a statement from SASSA said.

This according to the Social Security Agency, will enable clients to utilise all available channels to access their grants and give them the freedom to use SASSA cards at all Points of Sales, such as ATMs and merchant stores (for example Pick n Pay, Shoprite, Boxer or U-Save).

In addition beneficiaries who receive their social grants through the above-mentioned payment infrastructures on the allocated days for the specific grants, or anytime thereafter, and do not have to wait for the cash payment dates.

Furthermore, beneficiaries are advised to be vigilant and cautious when using their PINs at all times, and not to share this with anybody, even close family members.

Home Affairs extends working hours at some of its branches

BONUS - RUSTENBURG – The Minister of Home Affairs Dr Aaron Motsoaledi has approved the extension of the operating period for two hours to 18:00 from Thursday (30 June) to Friday (15 July) at selected Home Affairs offices across the country.

This according to information received, is only for the application and collection of Smart ID Cards and Passports. However it should be noted that these operation hours excludes weekends.

Minister Motsoaledi said that this extension is critical for service delivery and is part of their many strategies to eliminate long queues at their offices while also ensuring that people receive the enabling documents they apply for.

During school holidays, the Department of Home Affairs experiences an increase in demand for its products, especially parents applying for various enabling documents for their children.

In the North West Province the following offices will be part of the extension: Atamelang, Brits, Ganyesa, Itsoeng, Klerksdorp, Lichtenburg, Mankwe, Mmabatho, Potchefstroom, Rustenburg, Vryburg, Wolmaranstad and Zeerust.

Parents are encouraged to use the Branch Appointment Booking System to schedule their visits to Home Affairs at times that are suitable to them. The following link can be used for bookings: <https://services.dha.gov.za/#/authenticate/identity>.

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Thirty-nine mine-community SMMEs are celebrating successfully completing Impala Rustenburg’s Enterprise and Supplier Development (ESD) Programme.

The SMMEs were hosted for an intensive 12-month training programme as part of Impala Rustenburg’s socio-economic development plan, which assists mine-community small, medium, and micro business owners to formalise their businesses.

A total of 400 SMMEs have benefitted from Impala Rustenburg’s ESD initiatives since they were launched in 2021. The initiatives started with a five-day workshop to which qualifying SMMEs were invited. Based on their performance in the workshop, candidates were selected to attend the 12-month training programme to further develop their business skills. Read this week’s edition of the Rustenburg Herald for more information on this.

Murder and assault suspect sentenced

BONUS - RUSTENBURG – The provincial Commissioner of North West, Lieutenant General Sello Kwenja has welcomed the 15-year imprisonment sentence handed down to Mafisa Kgantso (35) by the Rustenburg Magistrates’ Court recently for killing his girlfriend, Setseake Ntswaki Matsobe (30) and assaulting Bochire Ramoadha (35).

According to information received from North West police spokesperson, Col. Adèle Myburgh, the court heard evidence that Kgantso and his girlfriend had an argument in the early hours of Saturday morning (21 September 2019), at a tavern in Boitekong, just outside Rustenburg. The convict, who accused his girlfriend of having an affair, attacked and stabbed her several times. Thereafter, he proceeded to stab Ramoadha. Excellent Investigation work by Sergeant Karabo Monyatsi of the Boitekong Detectives, led to the arrest of Kgantso one day after the incident was reported. He was found guilty of murder and assault with the intent to do grievous bodily harm (GBH) and ultimately sentenced to 15-years imprisonment for murder and 12 months for assault GBH.

The Provincial Commissioner commended the Investigating Officer and prosecution for securing the sentence and reiterated that those who perpetrate Gender Based Violence will be shown no mercy.

Nothing between team-mates leading SA Rally-Raid Championship Production Vehicle category

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - While the year has already reached the halfway mark, the 2022 SA Rally-Raid Championship has only just got momentum with two of the seven rounds ticked off.

Having a look at the early leaders in the extremely competitive Production Vehicle Category as well as those in the hunt behind them and the minimal amount of points separating the teams, it is clear that some exciting racing action can be expected over the next four months.

The recent Toyota Gazoo Racing SA (TGRSA) Desert 1000, the second round of the championship that took place over three days and almost a thousand gruelling kilometres in the Upington area in the Northern Cape, rewarded those who finished with a healthy amount of points. The past two events have however seen success and disappointment for teams with those who have produced constant results, now a bit higher up on the scoresheets.

Changes to the Production Vehicle Category has also seen the introduction of the FIA T1.2 Class for 2x4 normally aspirated petrol engine vehicles at the recent TGRSA 1000 Desert Race and teams in this class did not score points towards the overall standings at the season opener.

Looking at the overall standings, it is Shameer Variawa/Danie Stassen (TGRSADKR Hilux T1+) who have taken the early lead (54 points) although only one point separates them from their team-mates and TGRSA 1000 Desert Race winners, Ginie! de Villiers/Dennis Murphy (53 points). Another TGRSA team, Guy Botterill/Simon Vacy-Lyle, rounds off the overall podium (49 points) with not much separating them from the leaders.

The only little gap in the current standings, is the 18 points between Botterill/Vacy-Lyle and Gareth Woolridge/Boyd Dreyer (NWM Ford Castrol Ranger T1+) in fourth place with a blanket of only 11 points covering the seven teams from fourth to 10th place on the overall standings. One can expect turmoil between these teams while they will all be hunting down the leaders.

Bad luck at the desert race resulted in the defending champions, Henk Lategan/Brett Cummings (TGRSA DKR Hilux T1+) returning from Upington empty handed with only the 30 points from their victory at the season opener putting them in fifth place overall. They have the same amount of points as Eben Basson/Leander Pienaar (#TeamHilux Rally-Raid T1) with both teams only a single point behind Woolridge/Dreyer.

Points in the overall and T1+ class are provisional, pending a protest. The third round of the SA Rally-Raid Championship takes place on 19 and 20 August at Bronkhorstspuit on the outskirts of Gauteng.

Two tough rounds of SA Rally-Raid Championship

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - With two rounds of the SA Rally-Raid Championship now something of the past and five rounds still remaining, those teams who have been finishing and scoring consistently in the Special Vehicle Category, are reaping the rewards with solid positions laying the foundation for the events still to come.

It has, however, not been an easy start to the 2022 season with the recent Toyota Gazoo Racing SA (TGRSA) 1000 Desert Race testing teams and their vehicles to the limit over three days and almost a thousand kilometres in the Upington area in the Northern Cape. A handsome amount of points were up for grabs for teams who completed the distance of the marathon event and new overall leaders emerged after the trying conditions.

After a tight battle in Upington between former champions, Tim Howes/Gary Campbell (Timdrew Properties BAT Spec 4), who rolled their vehicle in the process, but got going again, and Trace Price Moor/Shawn Braithwaite (Tip Top Milk BAT Venom), it was Howes/Campbell who walked away with the overall and Class A laurels to be the new category leaders. Their 68 points are 13 more than runners-up (Price Moor/Braithwaite) and this battle will likely continue during the rest of the season.

Competitors receive a five point bonus for starting a race and these points can make a difference in the class championships. Howes/Campbell (78 points) are leading the Class A championship with 13 points still separating them from Price Moor/Braithwaite (65 points) while Du Preez/Visser Jr (51 points) are on the podium and within striking range of the two leading teams.

The third round of the SA Rally-Raid Championship will take competitors to the Bronkhorstspuit area in Gauteng on 19 and 20 August.
