It was a case of “the proof of the pudding lies in the eating” when hospitality students of REC Schools & Academies (Rustenburg Educational College) successfully experimented with its first “International Food Festival” last Monday evening. This endeavour saw dishes from six different countries served to a small selected panel as an appetizer for what is planned to be a series of Food Festivals from early next year. Pictured right the “Italians” were (from left) Thuto Dangala, Lwango Dyantyi, Amantle Segatsho and Letlhogonolo Pome. More photographs of the event in Rustenburg Herald of this week.

Consumers urged to return Knorr Cup-a-Soup Lite Beef and Vegetable

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The Acting National Consumer Commissioner Ms Thezi Mabuza urges consumers in possession of Knorr-Cup-a-Soup Lite Beef and Vegetable to discontinue use of the product and return it to the point of sale for a full refund. Acting Commissioner Mabuza says the supplier of the product informed the Commission of the precautionary recall of Knorr Cup-a-Soup Lite Beef and Vegetable.

"The manufacturer, Unilever South Africa informed the Commission that Knorr Cup-a-Soup Regular-Beef and Vegetable instant soup variant sachets were incorrectly packed into the Knorr Cup-a-Soup Lite Beef and Vegetable instant soup variant cartons. We understand that this means that consumers could unwillingly consume the Knorr Cup-a-Soup Lite Beef and Vegetable variant which unintentionally contains the undeclared wheat and gluten," said Mabuza.

The affected products were manufactured on 23 March 2022 with an expiry date of 22 September 2023. Consumers who are allergic to both wheat and gluten are advised not to consume the recalled product as the allergens could trigger an allergic reaction and provoke symptoms associated with consuming gluten and wheat.

"I want to remind suppliers of goods and services to put safety measures in place to ensure that they distribute goods that meet the requirement of the Consumer Protection Act (CPA). Suppliers need to carry out practices that will ensure consumers that the product is safe to consume and is of acceptable quality. The CPA empowers consumers to choose and examine goods. It is also the consumers' right to receive safe and quality products. The Commission is monitoring this recall based on its Recall Guidelines," she concluded.

Missing person alert in Mmakau

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The police in Mmakau request the community's assistance in locating Alfred Shorty Mogale (86), who is residing at Ramogodi Section in Mmakau.

According to information received from police spokesperson, Maria Nkabinde, Mogale was last seen on Sunday (9 April), when he left home, however, he never returned home. A search was conducted around Makau without any success. At the time of his disappearance, he was wearing a brown shirt, blue jacket and grey pants. He has a bald head. Anyone with information regarding his whereabouts can contact the Investigating Officer, Detective Sergeant Thomas Baloyi, of Mmakau Detectives on the following number: 079 4909 129 or Crime Stop on 08600 10111. Anonymous tip-offs can be communicated via MySAPS App.

Fake dentist therapist arrested

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The Inspectorate Office of the Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA) conducted an inspection in Rustenburg following a tip-off.

The information led them to the practice of Dr Mokotjo. During the inspection, Nkhaketla Mandela, a Lesotho citizen, was found practicing as a locum Dental Therapist whilst not registered with the HPCSA.

Mr Mandela was apparently employed by Dr Mokotjo, a registered Dentist since February 2022. Mandela was arrested and detained at the Rustenburg South African Police Service for being in contravention of sections 17(1), 33.34, and 39 of the Health Professions Act, 56 of 1974.

Dr Mokotjo will be reported to the respective Professional Board for misconduct.

"The HPCSA's mandate is to protect the public and guide the professions through ensuring enforcement and compliance from the practitioners in line with the provisions of the Health Professions Act. The HPCSA cautions practitioners on the dangers of employing locum doctors who are not registered with Council as this poses a risk on the lives of the community," a spokesperson for the council said in a press statement.

HIGHWAY MURDER: Reward for info

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - A reward is being offered for information of the attackers who killed a young dad on the N4 highway just over a week ago.

"R90 000 is offered as a reward for information that will lead to the arrest and successful conviction of the killers of my brother," Marco Kidson told the newspaper on Thursday (12 May).

Juandré (29), his wife Johanette and their one-year-old baby daughter was travelling home from Rustenburg to Brits on Saturday night (7 May).

Near the R512 Randburg off-ramp, around 21:00, their Hyundai Santa Fe hit rocks that were placed across the road and a tyre was punctured. Juandré had no other option than to pull off the road to change the tyre. While he was busy, three men approached him.

"My brother told the men that they can take everything they had with them. He pleaded with them not to hurt them. And then they shot him in the head," Marco said.

The robbers then shot Johanette in the shoulder while she was trying to shield her baby and prevent the men from grabbing the child out of her arms.

If you have useful information regarding the incident, please contact Marco Kidson on 067 736 2609, or the investigating officer, Sgt Sebjane on 072 224 6805.

* The reward offered by the family was initially R50 000, but due to the involvement of the community and their generosity, the reward was increased to R90 000-00.

Cops appear in court for corruption

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The Provincial Police Commissioner, Lieutenant General Sello Kwena cautioned that employees who are involved in criminal activities will not be tolerated within the ranks of the South African Police Service (SAPS).

This after two police officers, Sergeant Ruth Nkotsoe (42) and Constable Mosimanekgosi Leburu (34) appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Wednesday (11 May), for corruption.

According to Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone, North West police spokesperson, the accused were apprehended by the Provincial Anti-Corruption Investigation Unit (ACIU) on Tuesday (10 May), during a controlled undercover operation. Information received suggests that an 18-year-old Lesotho national, was arrested on Tuesday (3 May), in Marikana for contravention of Section 49(1)(a) of the Immigration Act, 2002 (Act No. 13 of 2002).

The police officers then initiated communication and demanded an amount of R500.00 from the suspect's mother for the release of her son. The suspect was taken to court for appearance on Thursday (5 May), however, the case was not placed on the roll and the suspect was released. The two police officers allegedly kept the 18-year-old man's passport and ordered him to pay them R500-00. The matter was reported to the police and that resulted in the arrest of the two police officers on Tuesday (10 May).

The accused were each granted R5000.00 bail and will appear again in court on Tuesday (27 September).

Lieutenant General Sello Kwena commended members of the community for teaming up with the police in ensuring that the accused are exposed and arrested. He restated that no mercy will be shown to employees who act in a manner that is dishonest and tarnishes the image of the Service.

New Blank Space Art competition launched

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - New entries for the competition with prize-money of R1 000 (for two monthly/quarterly winners) and two Pick n Pay shopping vouchers to the value of R10 000 each are currently awaited.

Artists are invited to enter free of charge but please remember - it is important to complete the “entry form” at the bottom of each page where we need the full particulars of every artist. We need the name, age, and cell number of the artist on every entry, otherwise you will be disqualified. Also remember, it is important for Rustenburg Herald/Bonus to be able to reach you (or a designated person on your behalf) during office/school hours otherwise another winner will be chosen. Rustenburg Herald/Bonus invites artists of all ages to enter for this competition - this could be the exposure that you have been waiting for.

You may enter as many entries as you wish. Entries submitted could be in just about every style and format imaginable - you could use any type of paint, pen, pencil, clay, ceramic, wood, glass, paper, metal or whatever you prefer provided that you use the Blank Space entry form in Rustenburg Herald/Bonus. Entries could be “posted” into the Blank Space entry boxes at both Pick n Pay Stores (Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé Lifestyle Square and Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing Azalea Park).

We also have an entry box at reception of Rustenburg Herald’s offices in 13 Coetzer Street, Eastern Industrial area. The closing date of the competition is 25 May - keep watching Rustenburg Herald/Bonus.

No more R350 grant available at the Post Office

BONUS - RUSTENBURG -The South African Post Office (Sapo) will no longer pay beneficiaries of the Social Relief of Distress (SRD) R350 grant at its branches.

In a statement recently, the Post Office said this move will result in shorter queues at its branches.

“The new round of applications for the SRD grant has opened. The application app now includes an option where beneficiaries can receive their grant from any Pick n Pay, Boxer, Shoprite, Checkers or USave merchant,” Sapo said.

The Post Office has encouraged beneficiaries to opt for this option, as branches will no longer pay out SRD grants.

“If you have already reapplied for your SRD grant, you can still select the option to collect your grant from any Pick n Pay, Boxer, Shoprite, Checkers or USave. Log on to <https://srd.sassa.gov.za> and respond to the security SMS you receive on your phone. You can then include merchants in your application and submit the updated application.

“Beneficiaries must have their own cell number to withdraw their grant at supermarkets. If you do not have your own number, it is best to get your own SIM card and use that number to apply for your grant. You can also change your cell number on the above website.”

Beneficiaries will be assisted to reset card pins at the cash pay points and the card can then be used at merchants at ATMs. South African Social Security Agency beneficiaries who receive their old age, disability or child grants can still collect their grants from any Post Office branch.

Budgets are getting fried

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - It may be time to seriously consider buying an air fryer.

A random check of supermarket baskets shows that, on average, a basket is costing R300 to R400 more than a year ago - and the major culprits looks like cooking oil, butter and bacon.

The average consumer is keeping an eye on sunflower oil. Currently the normal price is between R90 and R115 for two litres. And, some shops have started to limit the quantities customers may purchase.

As the war in the Ukraine drags on, as well as yet another massive increase for the cost of fuel, the situation is bound to deteriorate.

Win a fully paid arts scholarship

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Calling all matriculants, young performers and visual artists aged 17–25 years with a university exemption wishing to study towards an arts degree at a tertiary institution in South Africa.

Embark on the Arts & Culture Trust (ACT) Nyoloha Scholarship Programme’s Road to Sun City, which is supported by the Nedbank Arts Affinity, Sun City and Sun International - and you could win the opportunity of a lifetime: a fully paid scholarship to study at one of over 20 arts institutions across South Africa.

The journey started with the open call on the ACT website on 26 April 2022, running for four weeks until 22 May 2022. Full details of the application process, a R100 registration fee, requirements and consent forms are available on the ACT website www.act.org.za/nyoloha and on our Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram pages. Remember, terms and conditions apply.

The next step is auditions (singing, acting, dancing) and interviews with portfolio presentations by visual arts candidates taking place in June 2022 via Zoom on selected dates scheduled by the trust.

Thereafter, all qualifying candidates who are successful in the audition process will continue the journey by participating in mentorship activities every two weeks from 25 June to 10 September 2022. The mentors will engage regularly with mentees and provide support. In the final week of each month the work undertaken by the scholarship hopefuls will be rated as part of the short-listing exercise to determine the 12 qualifying finalists.

The journey then takes a U-turn for students who don’t make the cut. They will continue with the programme, with their performance, commitment and body of work evaluated over the training and mentorship period, and the top three students will be selected to join the 12 finalists at Sun City as ‘wild cards’.

The last stop of the Road to Sun City is finals week, hosted at this internationally acclaimed resort from 3 to 8 October 2022. This week comprises masterclasses facilitated by industry leaders and will be attended by the 12 finalists and the three wild-card students. The event will culminate in a visual arts exhibition and showcase that will take place on 8 October 2022, when the winner of the main prize – a fully paid scholarship to study at an arts institution of their choice in South Africa – will be announced at a spectacular gala showcase event.

“We are delighted to be associated with the ACT Nyoloha Scholarship Programme as our brand has always been aligned to the arts – especially the performing arts,” says Heidi Edson, Head of Socioeconomic Development at Sun International Group. “For the past 40 years, our iconic Sun City resort has proudly launched the career of many local performers, and through the programme we will continue to do so for many more years to come.”

Tobie Badenhorst, Head of Group Sponsorships and Cause Marketing at Nedbank, adds: “The goal of the ACT Nyoloha Scholarship Programme is to graduate global citizens in the arts who not only excel in their artform but also are well prepared for the world of work, including in self-development, people management, entrepreneurship, marketing and communication skills, to ensure they enjoy a successful and sustainable career.”

Travel, meals and accommodation costs will be covered by the trust.

The name of the programme, Nyoloha, is taken from the Sesotho word meaning to rise. The programme is part of the new ACT strategy to educate, uplift and empower those wishing to make a career in the arts and culture sector. It rewards commitment, excellence and growth potential.

Don’t delay – apply today at www.act.org.za/nyoloha. The ACT Nyoloha Scholarship Programme is waiting for your application so you can begin shaping your journey to a brighter future.
