Canned love

The "profit" of the turnout at the annual Love Run and "Omgeefees" under the banner of the "We Care Project" at the Dutch Reformed Church Rustenburg-South on Saturday. Retha Nel, organiser of the Love Run proudly shows the "amount" raised through runners' "entry fees" for the Love Run early on Saturday morning. This bakkie load of non perishable food and much, much more, will go towards the needy and other deserving causes in Rustenburg during the season of goodwill. (See Rustenburg Herald of this week for more photographs of the event).

A lot to offer at 2nd Farmer's Market

The next Rustenburg Farmers Market by the Rustenburg Production Support Unit will take place at the former Rustenburg Show ground on Saturday, 26 November from 09:00. Stalls are available at only R100 and there is no entry fee. Please come and support!

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Saturday, 26 November, will see the second Farmers Market by the Rustenburg Farmers Production Support Unit at the former Rustenburg Show grounds (agricultural portion) which was established in collaboration with the Rustenburg Municipality earlier this year.

Products such as fresh produce, food, baked goods, hand-crafted good, livestock, music, a cash bar and much, much more will be available.

The First Farmers Market held just over a month ago was well supported by the Rustenburg community and the public is invited to come and enjoy what Rustenburg's very own producers have to offer. For those who wish to make a business opportunity of the event, stalls are available at only R100-00 and can be booked on 072 580 1076. For the general public who wish to strike a bargain and pick up something special for the Christmas season, entrance is free or charge. The Market will open at 09:00 - please make a note of the market and support Rustenburg's producers! Keep in touch on Facebook: Farmer Production Support Unit or email: farmers.tracy.ad@gmail.com

Two artists on the eve of "big" Christmas

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Our final Blank Space Art competition is just 45 days away from the final grand judging wherein all monthly/quarterly winners of the past year will face their fellow finalists after which two overall winners will be announced with each winning a valuable Pick n Pay shopping voucher to the value of R10 000.

But this does not mean artists who are planning on entering for the very first time, have a lot of time on their hands - please note - for non-finalists who have not already booked their places in this year final event, the closing date for new entries is this week - Wednesday, 23 November.

The two prizes of a shopping voucher to the value of R10 000 each are sponsored by Pick n Pay Azalea Park in Greystone Crossing and Pick n Pay Lifestyle Square in Beyers Naudé Drive. Rustenburg's well-known artist, Mollie Moolman is the Chief judge of the competition.

For those of you who haven't submitted their entries yet, time is running out so please hurry! There is no entry fee, you can enter as many artworks as you wish, you could use any medium you like, provided that your entry fit into out standard entry boxes (A4) at both Pick n Pay Stores and reception of Rustenburg Herald in 13 Coetzer Street.

Get those entries rolling please!

Kurt-Lee Arendse going over for one of the Springbok nine tries against Italy on Saturday. Arendse, a former Blitzbok, was impressive with ball in hand and deservedly claimed the Man of the Match accolade. The 'Boks crushed Italy's Azzurri 63-21. (Photo: Springboks/Facebook)

'Boks hoping to build on momentum

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - “There are a lot of positives we can take from the Tests against Italy, France and Ireland, but England will pose a completely different challenge and we need to be ready for that.

We really want to build momentum and finish the tour on a positive note, so we will work as hard as we can this week to achieve that.”

This is according to Springbok coach Jacques Nienaber.

Nienaber called up six players to his squad for Saturday's final Castle Lager Outgoing Tour Test against England, as a few players left camp to join up with their French and UK clubs following the match against Italy in Genoa.

South Africa 'A' team captain Thomas du Toit, Ntuthuko Mchunu (both props), Marco van Staden (flanker), Johan Goosen (flyhalf) and Grant Williams (scrumhalf) will all join the Boks, while Vodacom Bulls wing Canan Moodie has recovered from the hamstring injury that ruled him out of the tour and will also join up with the team in London.

Vincent Koch, Trevor Nyakane, Jasper Wiese, Cobus Reinach, Cheslin Kolbe and Andre Esterhuizen returned to their clubs as Saturday's clash against England falls out of the international Test window.

“The players who will join us from the SA 'A' team all put up their hands in the midweek games and we are delighted to have them in the mix this week, while Canan has showed what he can do at Test level, and I am sure he will be delighted to be back in the squad,” said Nienaber.

“Some of the players were with us on tour until after the Ireland Test and it was always the plan to recall them at the conclusion of the SA 'A' matches. As we said from the outset, we wanted as many players as possible to get game time on this tour as we look ahead to the Rugby World Cup next year, and we believe the players and the team will benefit from this in the next few months,” he concluded.
