Rustenburg

25 500

Better late than never, right? After weeks of intermittent cold spells and the typical August winds which blew well into September, Miane Smith, Nola Kruger and Tsholofelo Mathebe of GML Models in Rustenburg couldn't wait to finally celebrate the arrival of spring. That is not to say that we could put away the jerseys and blankets - Rustenburg is renowned for unexpected freezing weather towards the beginning of summer! It won't be long however before soaring temperatures will have Rustenburgers complaining of the heat again. In the meantime chances for an above average rain season are excellent.

Happily Hitched competition: Remember to vote!

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - For the last few months, couples were invited to enter their wedding photos for our Happily Hitched competition. Since last week our readers have the important task of voting for their favourite photos - and choose who will be the winner of R10 000 cash.

Voting started on 9 September and will close on 30 September. The winning photo will be the one who receives a reasonably balanced amount of votes on all three voting platforms – Facebook, website and newspaper ballot.

On Facebook you will find the Happily Hitched voting album on our page. You vote by simply liking your favourite photo. On our website you vote by purchasing a ballot for R5-00, completing it and submitting it there online.

Via newspaper ballot, you simply complete the printed ballot and then hand in your original ballot at our offices at 13 Coetzer Street, Rustenburg.

The winner of the competition will be announced in the Rustenburg Herald on 13 October.

World Rabies Day

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Wednesday 28 September 2022 is #WorldRabiesDay! The theme for this year is “Rabies: One Health, Zero Deaths”, emphasising the need for us all to work together to achieve the #ZeroBy30 goal.

Rabies is deadly, but preventable through the vaccination of dogs (and cats), so let’s play our part to keep our communities safe! Vaccinate your dogs and cats by visiting your local veterinarian or state veterinarian.

Purity Essentials Baby powder recalled

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Tiger Brands has recalled Purity Essentials Baby Powder products as a precautionary measure after trace levels of asbestos were detected in test samples.

The test samples were from a batch of pharmaceutical-grade talc powder used as raw material in the production of finished powder products.

The batch of raw material with the detected trace levels of asbestos does not meet the company’s strict quality and safety standards.

Products forming part of the recall include 100g, 200g and 400g pack sizes of Purity Essential Baby Powder.

In a statement released recently, the company said the recall does not affect Purity Essential Baby Cornstarch Powder or any other Baby Care products under the Purity brand. “We encourage you to return your Purity Essentials Baby Powder products to your nearest supermarket, wholesaler or pharmacy outlet that stocks the product for a cash refund or coupon from 8 September 2022,”said the company. For more information visit www.purity.co.za or contact the consumer careline on 0860 004 755 or email tigeresd@tigerbrands.com.

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - “A collaboration agreement between local Farmers and Rustenburg Local Municipality has resulted in a RLM flagship project being launched and funded by RLM.

This project entails the agricultural sector of the Rustenburg showgrounds being developed into a Farmers Production Support Unit. Amongst others activities being planned include monthly small and large livestock auctions, youth shows, small livestock and large livestock shows, monthly farmers markets where local farmers can sell their produce, various aspects of agricultural training which will include animal care and health, fence erecting, operating tractors and various agricultural implements, compost preparation, aquaculture, beekeeping, earthworm farming, vegetable production and more. It is envisaged to develop this Farmers Production Support Unit into a unit where farmers can be supported and problems resolved. Work has already commenced and the area has been cleaned up and alien species eg Lantana eradicated. Security fencing has been erected and security gates are currently being installed and will be completed shortly. Watch this space and remember to have your diary ready for announcements of dates and relevant information soon.

‘We Care’ Project AGM

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the ‘We Care’ Project will be taking place on 20 September at 11:15 at the NG Church Rustenburg South (228 Church Street). Please attend the meeting and support the Wee Care Project. For more information please contact Marieta Herbst at 063 705 0304.

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - No person from a bank will call you to ask for an OTP number, or a PIN number - not even to stop possible fraud on your account.

On Wednesday (7 September), just before 17:00 a resident of Safari Gardens received a telephone call.

The women on the other side said she was from a well-known bank's Fraud Unit and that they have spotted suspicious activity on her account.

*Lenie Victor was stunned. The "bank employee" told Lenie that the fraudsters were trying to withdraw R8000 from her account and also tried to buy products worth some R2000 from Takealot. "She said that I was going to receive an OTP number and that she needed me to read this back to her in order for her to stop this transaction," Lenie told Rustenburg Herald/Bonus. Lenie, a pensioner complied. The woman then went through a list of transactions to 'confirm' the legitimate activities on the account - accurately listing real transactions Lenie did do.

After the call from the woman, Lenie received a second call - this time from an Afrikaans speaking man who also claimed to be an employee from Lenie's bank. When she questioned him, he said that he will call back later and then immediately ended the call.

And then R2000 went off her account! Minutes later Lenie received a call from her bank's real Fraud Unit. They managed to stop her cards and to put a block on her account to prevent any further transactions.

"Apart from the money I lost, the time and the effort it cost me to sort this out, is even more frustrating," Lenie said.

* The victim wanted to remain anonymous and a pseudonym was used.

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - A man who abducted, raped and assaulted a 13-year-old girl in 2019 was sentenced to life imprisonment by the Mogwase Regional Court last week.

The 42-year-old man was arrested in April 2019 after he gave the victim and two of her friends a lift from a game reserve.

The three children were left stranded after an outing to the game reserve when their taxi did not pitch up to take them home.

When they arrived at their destination, two of the girls got out of the vehicle, but before the 13-year-old could get out, the driver sped off.

Near some bushes, the man stopped, took the girl out of the vehicle and then raped her.

The man then also stabbed her with a broken bottle. The injured child managed to escape and ran to the road to try and get help.

The incident was reported to the police and the subsequent investigation resulted in the arrest of the suspect.

On 31 August he was finally convicted and a life sentence and, as well as an additional three years imprisonment was handed down to him on 8 September.

The investigating officer was Sergeant Tshepang Phutiyaagae from the Rustenburg Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences (FCS) Unit.

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - It is with great excitement that we announce the winners of our Blank Space Art competition for the third quarter of an increasingly busy 2022.

Congratulations to 17-year-old Dylan Herald and a place in the final round of Jeranyama - an artist who is quite well-known in the competition and Mianique Venter from Basfontein, Rustenburg. Both to the value of R10 000 each will be up for these winners walk away with prize-money grabs. of R1 000 in cash sponsored by Rustenburg Well folks - from next week we are back at Square One which means entries are awaited for the fourth term/quarter of this year. By now just about everybody knows the rules and regulations. There is no entry fee, you can enter as many artworks as you wish, you could use any medium you like, provided that your entry fit into out standard entry boxes (A4) at both Pick n Pay Stores and reception of Rustenburg Herald in 13 Coetzer Street. Get those entries rolling please!

Cecile Volschenk - administrator and organiser of our Blank Space Art competition with the 1st winning entry of 17-year-old Dylan Jeranyama, Mollie Moolman - our Chief Judge with an entry that she found quite inspiring and her assistant Gerda Pretorius with the 2nd winning entry of 14-year-old Mianique Venter of Rustenburg. Both these winners have won a cash prize of R1 000 sponsored by Rustenburg Herald and stand a chance of finishing as one of two overall winners who will each win a Pick n Pay Shopping Voucher to the value of R10 000 towards the end of the year. Congratulations to our two winners!

Our second winner of the third quarter's Blank Space Art competition - Dylan Jeranyama congratulated by Junita Reyneke of Rustenburg Herald.
