Suspects arrested after Venter murder

Frans Venter was brutally murdered by four men last week. Two of the four suspects are still on the run. (Photo: Facebook)

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Collaboration between neighbouring farmers, security company officials and the police led to the arrest of two suspects on Wednesday (21 September), for the alleged murder and house robbery reported on a farm in Modderfontein.

Initial information received indicated that Frans Venter (68) was home with two workers, a gardener and domestic worker, when four suspects firstly overpowered the gardener who was working in the garden. He shouted for help, but was tied up with an electrical cable. The domestic worker who reacted upon hearing the gardener screaming, was also overpowered and also tied up. Lastly the suspects proceeded and gained entry into the house and overpowered Venter.

According to Col Adèle Myburgh, North West Police spokesperson, Venter was severely assaulted before the attackers stabbed him to death. Numerous items were robbed by the suspects, who fled the scene on foot. One of the workers managed to escape and ran to a neighbour for help. Neighbouring farmers and the police were immediately alerted. A private person arranged for air support with a chopper and numerous farmers, as well as security personnel joined in a search for the suspects. The first suspect was spotted and arrested by a security company official and handed over to the police. A short while later, police spotted another suspect and arrested him. The suspects were found in possession of cellular phones, a clap pistol with blank rounds, a BB Gun as well as a bag containing items robbed at the farm. Both suspects, who are believed to be in their late 20's, appeared in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Friday (23 September) on charges of murder and house robbery. The two were remanded in custody and the case was postponed to Monday (26 September).

Two more suspects are still at large.

Robber wounded in shootout with cops

(Visual: www.sapsonline.co.za)

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - A suspected robber was shot, while three others were arrested after a shootout with police in the early hours of Friday (23 September).

According to Col Adèle Myburgh, police spotted two suspicious vehicles while on patrol in Boitekong. It was a red flag when the police saw that some of the occupants of the vehicles were wearing balaclavas. When the drivers of the two Toyota Quantum minibuses noticed the police, they tried to flee. The police in pursuit called for backup and, as a result the Phokeng K9 unit, as well as the Lethabong Police joined in the chase. One of the vehicles was eventually intercepted at Mosenthal village and pulled off the road.

The occupants of the vehicle opened fire on the police, who returned fire. Two of the occupants ran into the bushes while the other two were instantly arrested. A thorough search by the police led to the apprehension of two more suspects after being found in the bushes. It was established that one of them sustained injuries during the shoot-out. Police seized the vehicle, explosives and presumably stolen copper cables that were found inside the vehicle.

The suspects, aged between 28 -and 36-years-old were expected to appear before the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court in Tlhabane Monday (26 September) on charges of attempted murder, possession of explosives and possession of suspected stolen copper cables.

The suspect wounded during the incident, was admitted to a local hospital and will appear before court as soon as he is discharged.

Police call for public to assist in locating missing woman

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The police in Mabeskraal request the community's assistance in locating 30-year-old Kgomotso Johanna Maema. According to information received she was last seen by her sister on Monday (5 September). She is short, only 1.3m tall, weighs about 50kg and has a speech impairment (talks very slowly). She has a scar on the back of her head (left side).

Extensive investigations were done and all leads were followed up with no success. It is unknown what she was wearing at the time of her disappearance. She has black, short, curly hair and black eyes.

Anyone with information regarding her whereabouts can contact the Investigating Officer, Constable Ben Letshesa on 076 839 6856 or your local police station. Crime Stop can also be called on 08600 10111. In addition, anonymous tip-offs can also be communicated via the MySAPS App from one's smart phone.

Former traffic official's trial set for judgement in November

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The Bafokeng Magistrates' Court has set judgement day against Levy Ikaneng, a former senior official at the Provincial Department to 19 November.

According to information, Ikaneng is charged with two counts of negligent driving and failure or refusal to give blood/breath samples, both charges being in contravention of the Road Traffic Act. He pleaded not guilty to both charges and the state argued successfully against his application to have the matter struck off the court roll.

He was allegedly arrested on 23 April 2016, after he knocked down a man with a Volvo sedan in Tlhabane. Upon his arrest, he refused to have his blood/breath samples taken as he was suspected to be driving under the influence of alcohol.

The pedestrian who was knocked down by Ikaneng is said to be bedridden and wheelchair confined because of the incident. Read more in this week's edition of the Rustenburg Herald.

Well-known guest lodge catches fire

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Reports have been doing the rounds on social media platforms that part of a well-known lodge along the N4 near the Rustenburg Waterfall Mall caught fire earlier this morning.

According to information received, this incident occurred around 05:00 on Monday (26 September). It was confirmed that there were no serious injuries reported however we are awaiting official communication from the Rustenburg police about which case was registered as well as further information surrounding the incident. Read this week's edition of the Rustenburg Herald for more.

Remember Timbati Veld Market this weekend

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - A community project under the banner of the Timbati Veld Market is making great progress in reaching out and assisting individuals and communities with much needed services and goods.

Funds raised during previous markets have enabled the Timbati Veld Market group to assist the Municipal Old Age Home in Church Street Rustenburg with much needed security lighting, garden benches and outdoor braai facilities. Likewise the Mōrester Children's Home was furnished with a new washing machine where Immanuel is tasked with the responsibility of 72 children's laundry every week. The Veld Market group as also able to assist Hospice Rustenburg with a range of toiletries.

Timbati Veld Market is looking forward to its next market day which will take place on the corner of Nylrivier and Timbati in Cashan 4 on Saturday, 1 October. The Timbati Veld Market initiative is a special fundraising project which seeks to uplift communities and assist those with in deserving causes. The Veld Market is held on the first Saturday of each months and proceeds raised are for the benefit of old age homes, Rustenburg Hospice, children's homes and the Rustenburg SPCA, so please come and support!

An initiative led by Suzi of Karl's as part of the Timbati Veld Market is to manufacture 1000 teddy bears by December to hand out to children in institutions with no loved ones. So far the support has been great and the making of these Teddies takes place at Excalibur on the R24 just outside Rustenburg who have made their premises available. Anyone willing to assist with their time or resources, your input and help will be greatly appreciated. Remember to make a note of the next Veld Market on Saturday, 1 October. For more information do not hesitate to call Eddie on 076 328 3115 or Suzi/Karl on 083 230 1362. Timbati Veld Market appreciates the support it has enjoyed from Rustenburg patrons - please do so again this weekend!

Reserve Bank hikes repo rate

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The South African Reserve Bank's Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) has hiked the repurchase rate (repo rate) by 75 basis points.

The increase means that the repo rate will now be 6.25% per year from 23 September, with prime now at 9.75%.

The MPC made the decision during its meeting on Wednesday. This after the fifth consecutive increment following a two 25 basis points hike in November and in January. The repo rate was hiked by 50 basis points at the May meeting. Addressing media on Thursday, the Reserve Bank Governor Lesetja Kganyago said three members of the MPC preferred the announced increase.

Invitation to Ordinary meeting of Council

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Notice is hereby given to members of the public in terms of Section 29A of the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 117 of 1998 as amended, about an Ordinary Council meeting that is re-scheduled as follows:

Time: 08:00
Date: 28 September 2022
Venue: Rustenburg Civic Centre
Please note that the meeting will be streamed live on Facebook for public viewing.

BLANK SPACE COMPETITION -

New entries awaited

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - After all the excitement of announcing two new winners in our previous editions, we are literally back to the drawing board with new competition entries for the fourth and final quarter of the year being awaited.

The Blank Space Art competition is now only a few months away from the Final judging wherein all monthly/quarterly winners will face their fellow finalists when two overall winners will be announced with each winning a valuable Pick n Pay shopping voucher to the value of R10 000 only days before Christmas 2022.

These prizes are sponsored by Pick n Pay Azalea Park in Greystone Crossing and Pick n Pay Lifestyle Square in Beyers Naudé Drive.

By now just about everybody knows the rules and regulations.

There is no entry fee, you can enter as many artworks as you wish, you could use any medium you like, provided that your entry fit into out standard entry boxes (A4) at both Pick n Pay Stores and reception of Rustenburg Herald in 13 Coetzer Street. Get those entries rolling please!

The pressure will be on at round four and five

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The fourth and fifth rounds of the South African Rally-Raid Championship that takes place on 30 September and 1 October at Nampo Park, will form the penultimate rounds of the 2022 season and with only two rounds remaining, those in the lead will feel the pressure as a mistake could cost them dearly.

The events takes place in the Bothaville area of the Free State, and have two full helpings of points up for grabs, and those teams who can keep it together during the 10 kilometre Pirelli Qualifying Race followed by two loops of 166 kilometres on Friday and another 10 kilometre qualifying race and two loops of 172 kilometres on Saturday, will be smiling all the way to the final events.

The field in the Special Vehicle Category might look somewhat compact, but the battles have been brewing during the season and will continue in the Free State. Former overall and Class A champions, Tim Howes/Gary Campbell (Timdrew Property Development BAT Spec 4) have won the last two events and a hat-trick is on the cards for them, but as the saying goes - they first have to finish to finish first.

Like the leaders, Lood du Preez/Chris Visser Jnr (Farmers Meat Stryker) have also completed and scored at each event so far this season and are within striking range of the leaders who dare not put a wheel wrong. Trace Price Moore/Shawn Braithwaite (BAT Venom) missed the Bronkhorstspuit event, but will be back in action and they are also close enough to make a move on the scoreboard.

All the action will be happening from Nampo Park where the Race Headquarters, the Start/Finish as well as the Designated Service Park (DSP) will be situated. For both rounds four and five, teams will do a short 10km Pirelli Qualifying Race at 07:30. The results will determine the starting positions for the race that starts at 09:30 on both days.

As the event forms part of the Nampo Alfa Expo and spectators are welcome. Public parking and access to the venue will be via the northern entrance and subject to the Expo admission fee which includes access to all exhibits and the DSP area.

The event can also be followed on the RallySafe App, which can be downloaded free from the iStore and Google PlayStore.
