Arend Avenue soon back to normal

Cllr Ilse Edwards of the DA in Ward 15 (second from left) with MCivils team Anton Vogt (extreme left), Meschack Pico and Henri de Kock during the earlier phases of the Arend Avenue Operation Restore project just over a week ago. Since this photograph was taken, a lot of progress has been made and the project is slowly but surely nearing completion. On opening up the sewerage pipeline and fresh water installations the proverbial can of worms has been exposed and it was clear that the area’s installations haven’t seen proper maintenance in many years. MCivils can report that the project is making excellent progress and that the bulk of the repair work and final testing should be on the cards by the end of this week.

Traffic volumes picking up slowly...

Traffic volumes are picking up once again after Arend Avenue has been declared open for peak hour traffic on Monday morning. This is not to say that the project has been completed as yet, however. Local contractor MCivils told Rustenburg Herald and Bonus that the rehabilitation of the area and of the road surface would have made a lot of progress though.

SAPS pray for peaceful Easter

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - The South African Police Service spiritual services, in conjunction with the Bojanala Platinum Sub-District 2, led by the acting District Commissioner, Brig Mamotsamai Ntoagae held an early Easter celebration church service

The Easter service was held on 16 March at Moruleng near Mogwase. Various church congregations around the area were invited to share in the service with the theme “The seven words of the cross”. Both the SAPS Chaplains and the invited pastors shared the stage in delivering the message. Brig Mamotsamai Ntoagae praised and thanked the congregations for attending and praying with the Police, especially seeing that the majority of police members will be on duty during the Easter period.

Bread, milk, car licence...

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - You can now add your car licence to your shopping list.

A few grocery stores now also offer the opportunity to renew your vehicle licence at their paypoints.

But, according to a recent article on MyBroadband, the cheapest option to renew your licence disk, is by doing it at the Post Office.

MyBroadband took a look at what the cost of disk renewal is via a number of options available to motorists. These include FNB, Spar, Pick n Pay, and PayCity, the Post Office and the National Traffic Information System’s (Natis) online portal.

The SA Post Office charges the same administration fee as Natis - R72. However, it comes out cheaper as its delivery fee is R75. Natis charges R99 for delivery. Post Office customers also have the option to avoid the delivery fee altogether and collect their replacement disc from a branch.

Both services are available to residents of all South African provinces. However, it is important to note that the fees do not include the actual licence disc price, which varies by vehicle model.

First National Bank (FNB), Spar, and some Pick n Pay stores also offer licence disc renewal services.

FNB’s service is only available to motorists in Gauteng or the City of Cape Town, and its administration fee amounts to R199. The price includes delivery.

Spar’s licence disc renewals are the only service listed that doesn’t have an online platform. Instead, customers are required to visit a supported Spar store with their expired disc to submit a renewal. The grocery retailer charges R199 for renewals, and customers must pick up their new disc from the same branch when it is ready. Spar licence disc renewals are available at select stores across all provinces in South Africa.

Pick n Pay offers in-store and online licence disc renewals, with the retailer charging R250 for the renewal and a R79 courier fee. At R329, this makes the service the most expensive in MyBroadband’s comparison. The service is also not available at all stores.

Switch to TymeBank and access an advance of up to R500 on your social grant for what you need most*.

How to switch:

Download your TymeBank proof of account letter or statement in the App or using internet banking and visit your nearest SASSA office to switch today.

*To qualify, social grant recipients must have received their grant with TymeBank on at least one occasion. R500 advance limited to once per month.

Adolescents, Youth Friendly Services Program (AYFS)

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - AYFS: “Boys, be not overcome by sexual desires, girls do not give in, open your books and brighten your future”.

The Adolescents, Youth Friendly Services Program (AYFS) is gradually being introduced at health clinics for the sake of young people and was recently launched at Chaneng Clinic. The Program is designed to assist young people from the ages of 10 - 24 years. Addressing Charora Secondary School Learners who attended the launch, the Bojanala District Programs Manager Mr Botshelo Ngwato urged the learners to overcome sexual desires: “Young people, get on with your studies...do not rush for sex... speed will kill you. Be young people and overcome sexual desires by doing school work and engaging in youth activities. Once pregnant, that boy is going to deny it and go on with his studies, leaving you with all the responsibilities. I hope you heard,” Ngwato said. The AYFS implementor and Professional Nurse sister Kaboentle Mokhuane also encouraged the young people at Chaneng and the nearest areas to be more free and visit the Clinic: “We are here for you. All issues related to your health, educational aspects, counselling and more – please show up so as we assist,” she emphasised.

Young and old hang out at Farmers Market

Everyone knows that Rustenburg’s new Farmers Market at the former Rustenburg Show ground, is an event for young and old but mainly for the young at heart. Pictured above at the market on Saturday were Thatano Ratsoe, Kyla Lucas and Milan Nieuwenhuis. See Rustenburg Herald for more photographs of the weekend’s market.

Rustenburg Herald Art competition - first of “new standard” entries received

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - We have recently announced an important change to the rules of the Rustenburg Herald Art competition. From this year artists are no longer required to attach their entries (art works) onto the blank space regularly printed in Rustenburg Herald and/or Bonus as it is believed to somewhat restrict artists in as far as size is concerned.

At the same time Rustenburg Herald would not necessarily have to sacrifice the, in fact, very much needed space of an empty/blank page to accommodate these entries. From now on artists are required to attach their works of art to THIS PAGE or use the page as your canvas to paint or sketch on. Make sure that the date and page number of THIS edition are still visible. To complete your entry, simply complete the entry form at the top of this page, attach it to your artwork and “post” your entry into the entry boxes at both participating Pick n Pay Stores - Pick n Pay Azalea Park, Greystone Crossing or Pick n Pay Lifestyle Square, Beyers Naudé Avenue in Midtown Rustenburg or at reception of Rustenburg Herald’s offices in 13 Coetzer Street, Eastern Industrial Area, Rustenburg. Remember - two cash prizes of R1 000 each sponsored by Rustenburg Herald are up for grabs to the two quarterly winners with two extremely valuable Pick n Pay Shopping Vouchers to the value of R10 000 each are waiting for the two overall winners of the Rustenburg Herald Art competition. These prizes are sponsored courtesy Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé and Pick n Pay Greystone Crossing. Come on - get those entries rolling...

AND VRYBURG

The general public and all interested parties are hereby invited to comment on the intention of the Minister of the Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development to re-define the areas of jurisdiction of the deeds registries in the North West, Kimberley and Pretoria as detailed below:

In terms of section 1 of the Deeds Registries Act, 1937 (Act No. 47 of 1937), the Minister of Rural Development and Land Reform may, from time to time, subject to the laws governing the public service, by notice in the Gazette —

• Establish or disestablish deeds registries; and

• Establish or disestablish sub-deeds registries within the area of deeds registries; and

• Determine the names and situation of such offices, define the respective areas thereof, or amend any such determination or definition.

The purpose for the above is to ensure improved access to deeds registration services to all citizens of the province. The current service delivery model is of such a nature that clients must travel long distances to Vryburg in order to access deeds registration services. The alignment of the deeds registries in the North West, Kimberley and Pretoria, will ensure that the Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development implements constitutional reforms in the current service delivery landscape.

Invitation to make written submissions / comments:

The public and all interested parties are hereby invited to make written submissions / comments in connection with the following proposals:

• The identification, separation and transfer of records of land parcels falling within the area of jurisdiction of the Northern Cape Province, but dealt with in the Vryburg deeds registry, from the deeds registry in Vryburg to the deeds registry in Kimberley;

• The identification, separation and transfer of records of land parcels falling within the area of jurisdiction of the North West Province, but dealt with in the Pretoria deeds registry, from the Pretoria deeds registry to the correct deeds registry in the North West;

• The amendment of the area of jurisdiction of the Vryburg deeds registry, situated in Vryburg to only deal with transactions relating to land parcels that fall within the area of jurisdiction of the Dr Ruth Segomotsi Mompati district municipality;

• The establishment of the North West deeds registry in Mafikeng to deal with transactions relating to land parcels that fall within the area of jurisdiction of the (Botswana, Maseru, Molema, and Kenneth Kaunda District Municipalities).

Written submissions / comments should be addressed to:

The Chief Registrar of Deeds
Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development
Private Bag 119
Pretoria 0001
E-mail: deeds@dalrd.gov.za or in.Ranwedi.Neluvhoia@dalrd.gov.za

Written submissions / comments should be submitted to the Chief Registrar of Deeds 30 within days of publication of this notice and submissions / comments received after the closing date may be disregarded.

Kimberley Deeds Registry:

Mr Jeffrey du Plooy, Chief Registrar of Deeds
2 De Kock St, Vryburg, 8601. Cellular Number: 083 927 7229, email address: jeffrey.duplooy@dalrd.gov.za

Vryburg Deeds Registry:

Mr Kebonethebe Mofhebe, Assistant Registrar of Deeds
Vryburg, 2 De Kock St, Vryburg, 8601. Cellular Number: 083 927 7229, email address: kebonethebe.mofhebe@dalrd.gov.za

2. Written submissions / comments may be in any South African language.

3. In instances where submissions / comments are received after the closing date, requests for condonation for late submission may be granted, which requests for condonation may be granted on a case-by-case basis, provided that such condonation would not lead to unnecessary delays in the processing of the submissions / comments. Requests for condonation must be submitted in writing no later than five (5) working days after the closing date for submissions / comments.

4. After all submissions received from interested and affected parties have been considered by an Internal Review Committee, the Minister's decision regarding the re-alignment of the North West, Kimberley and Pretoria deeds registries will be published in the same Government Gazette as well print and electronic communication platforms.

5. Interested and affected parties may, after a decision is made by the Minister, institute review proceedings against that decision, as contemplated by section 6(1) of the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act 3 of 2000, within the stipulated time frame.

Rally-Raid teams worked hard at extremely tough and challenging Nkomazi 400

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - Very hot and humid conditions at Malalane combined with a race route described by competitors as extremely tricky, tough and challenging and lots of dust made teams work hard for their first points of the 2023 SA Rally-Raid Championship (SARRC) and after a long, hard day in the seat at the Nkomazi 400, it was Henk Lategan and Brett Cummings (Toyota Gazoo Racing DKR Hilux T1+) who walked away as the overall winners.

The Nkomazi 400, the opening round of the 2023 SARRC that took place this weekend, 24 and 25 March, over two days and a total of just over 400 kilometres, welcomed teams in the Production and Special Vehicle Championships back after a hiatus of six years, and made sure the event will be remembered for a long time.

In the end Lategan/Cummings, on their first Nkomazi 400 experience, posted the fastest time after the 65km Pirelli Qualifying Race on Friday and chose to be the leading vehicle on the road on Saturday. The team did not expect the race to be that tricky, but they did not relinquish their position albeit finding it difficult to open the road.

Lategan/Cummings took overall gold in the Production Vehicle Category as well as in FIA T1+ with a total time of 06:41:59 that gave them a little breather over second placed Gareth Woolridge/Boyd Dreyer (NWM Ford Castrol T1+ Ranger) who made up for lost time during the qualifying race with a trouble-free event. Lance Trethewey/Adriaan Roets (07:13:11) scored their first points in T1+ with the 2x4 King Price Xtreme CR6 with the team finishing sixth overall.

The Nkomazi 400 started the 2023 SARRC off on a very high note and teams who scored their first points as well as those who will be looking for their first finish of the season, can look forward to more racing in the sugarcane fields when they take on the Sugarbelt 400 on 12 and 13 May in the Eston Mid-Illovo areas in KZN.
