At Pick n Pay's two outlets at Greystone Crossing and the Lifestyle Square Centre in Beyers Naudé Avenue there is no doubt as to what the "talk of the town" will be during the World Cup Rugby Tournament in Calais, France for the next few weeks. Customers have without a doubt noted personnel from the two stores hanging out in typical Springbok fashion on Fridays in support of the Springbok's campaign for the duration of the tournament. Pictured above in the unifying green and gold are Mabel Sedumedi, Primrose Moraakgomo, Vivian Ditibane, Koketso Ratema, Boitumelo Maile, Eon Munnik, Johan Harding, Alinah Bosman, Grace Mbu, Lucia Bangalala and Lesego Moncho of Pick n Pay Beyers Naudé.

Alles is nie soos dit lyk nie...

"Hierdie volk eer My met hulle mond, maar hulle hart is ver van my af."

Willem Cronjé is gebore om 'n predikant te word. Sy pa, die formidabele dominee Riaan Cronjé, is die trots van Bijlstad se Moedergemeente. Sy woord is wet. Ook waar dit Willem se toekomskeuse aangaan. Maar elke dag nader aan die einde van sy skoolloopbaan groei die twyfel in die seun. Elke dag groei die beklemming en druk die verwagtinge van sy pa al hoe swaarder op hom.

Hy mis die pa wat hom as klein seuntjie kon aanmoedig, bemoedig en veilig kon laat voel. Nou moet hy en sy ma meeding met die gemeente om sy aandag. En wil hulle dit regtig hê? Want niks is goed genoeg vir ds Riaan nie. Sy gemeente mag dalk dink hy kan op water loop, maar by die huis is hy deesdae koud, afsydig – en geniepsig.

Stil, eenkant Willem se wêreld word op sy kop gedraai die dag toe die vreemde jong vrou oorkant hom in die koffiewinkel kom sit.

Haar oë en lyf belowe dinge waarvan Willem nog net – met 'n skuldige gewete – kon droom.

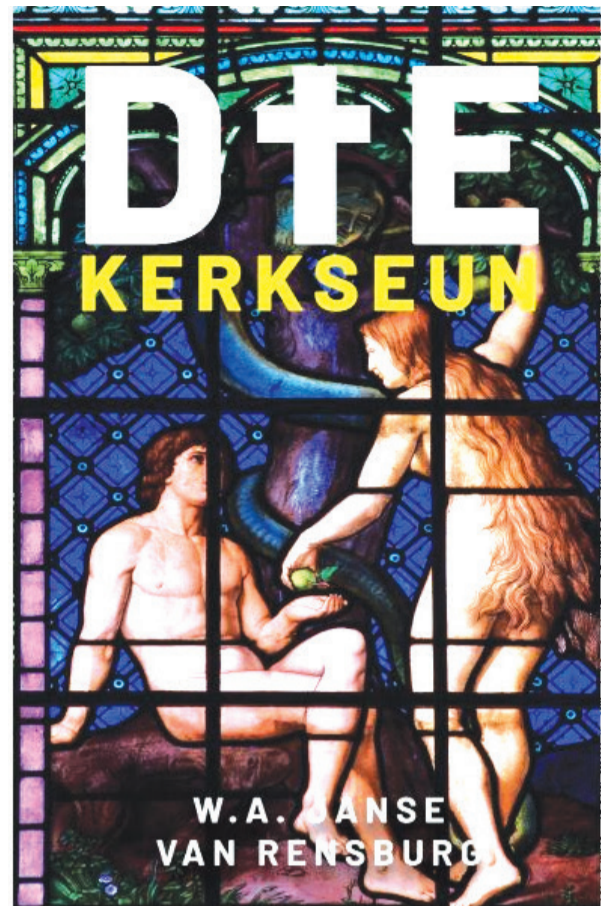

Sy dae wentel daarom om haar weer te sien. En sy is weer daar.

Willem is klei in Dehlia – wat ongetwyfeld sinspeel op die Bybelse Delilah – se hande. Moet hy so verskriklik sleg voel? So asof hy nooit weer sy pa in die oë sal kan kyk nie?

Bak met laventel en suurlemoene

By die Margaret Roberts Kruiesentrum op De Wildt het Sandy Roberts, dogter van wyle Margaret Roberts gesê dat Lavendula intermedia die beste laventel is om te gebruik wanneer jy wil kook of bak. Sy het 'n spesiale laventel- en suurlemoen brood koekie-resep gedeel, wat haar oumagrootjie van Skotland, gereeld gemaak het. Sien gerus hierdie week se uitgawe van Rustenburg Herald met natuurlik ons maandelikse AgriPulse-landboukoerant waarin hierdie resep met ons lesers gedeel word.

September Spring Spay Drive

BONUS - RUSTENBURG - AnimalQi Wellness Centre opened in October 2020 after the purchase of Aran Dierkliniek.

They have two very passionate Veterinarians, Dr Roselle Hartwigsen (BSc, BVSc, MSc, CVA) and Dr Carmen Booyse (BSc (Agric) BSc (Hon) BVSc, CVA, CVTP). AnimalQi is serious about the well-being and welfare of animals in and around Rustenburg. They collaborate with the SPCA to spay and castrate as many pets as possible. They realise however that this is simply not enough. To help their clients give the best preventative care for their animals they have decided to do a spay and castration drive in September. Their aim is to sterilise as many dogs and cats as possible. Owners will only pay welfare rates which can be up to R1000 cheaper per operation depending on the sex and size of the animal. Spaces are limited and they will be working on first come basis. Bookings must be made in person at the AnimalQi reception, 213 Beyers Naude Drive. For more information phone (014) 941 1155 or whatsapp 076 365 5235. For more information about spays and castrations please visit their website: <https://animalqi.co.za/castration-and-spay/>.

Four flee with Spar loot

Warrant of arrest issued against Zambians facing money laundering
charges

BONUS – RUSTENBURG - The Specialised Commercial Crimes Court, sitting in Rustenburg, postponed the case against Evan Mutale (44), a Zambian national and Dineo Precious Powane, to 26 September, for Powane to appear in court following her absence.

Her attorney indicated in court that she sent him a medical certificate dated 30 August, booking her off until 1 September.

Powane is facing charges of money laundering, while Mutale is facing 49 charges of fraud and one of money laundering, after his arrest by the SAPS Provincial Commercial Crime Unit on 12 April 2023.

Read the full article in this week's Rustenburg Herald.

BONUS – RUSTENBURG – Armed robbers got away with an undisclosed amount of cash at a retailer the past weekend.

The four armed men entered Square Spar Friday evening (1 September) just after 18:15.

They held up staff, emptied cash registers and also forced employees to give them entry into the cash office.

They then fled the scene with cash, as well as cigarettes they have stolen.

“Anyone with information, or who might have witnessed the incident, should contact Rustenburg SAPS or detective Sergeant Ben Mogale on 0827728332,” said Rustenburg Police Spokesperson, Sgt Ofentse Mokgadi.

The Female Industrial Revolution: Carving a path for women in the corporate world

BONUS – RUSTENBURG - A monumental shift is taking place as women are breaking through barriers and shattering glass ceilings in a world where their male counterparts have predominantly dominated in the professional sector.

When Fatima Hayat, Human Resources Manager for Glencore's Wonderkop Smelter first joined the mining industry 21 years ago, there were approximately 11 400 women in the sector according to figures provided by the Minerals Council of South Africa. This figure has since grown to 56,691 in 2019, translating into a 12% representation of women in the country's total mining labour force of 454,861 people.

“When I first started my career years ago, the mining industry was dominated by males in leadership, which was challenging as a woman as I would at times be the only female in the boardroom. This would lead to feeling excluded at times, as naturally the topic of conversation would identify more with men; however, I decided to not let that deter me, so I had to make a choice: am I going to fit in and change my colleague's way of thinking? I then instead took on the mindset of having conversations to help transform our workplace and help make our team even better,” said Hayat.

As more women are rapidly climbing the corporate ladder, the HR juggernaut shares her nuts and bolts for aspiring and future female change-makers.

Recognise your own strengths, keep learning, know yourself, self-doubt is a killer of success, reframe rejection, integrity as your highest value.

Invitation to adjourned ordinary council meeting

Sidestep Springtime blues

BONUS – RUSTENBURG – Spring is in the air, yes, but so is the sniffles, sneezing and coughing.

Seasonal allergy sufferers are in for a long ride as temperatures change and pollen season kicks in.

We share five easy practices that you can implement to curb the red eyes, runny nose and itchy throat.

Shower before bed

Pollen and other allergens can get trapped in our hair during the day and make their way into our airways.

Opting for a nighttime shower can save you from essentially spending eight hours with those triggers.

Don't remove your nose hair

While some might think nose hairs as a nuisance, they actually act as a defensive wall to keep allergens out.

Sneezing, while often a symptom, is just another way your body expels allergens.

Purify the air

Investing in a good quality air purifier can help remove pollen and other allergens from inside your home.

You want to aim to get one that removes 99.8% of particles in the air.

Allergy-proof your home

Keep your windows and doors closed during the early morning and evening as pollen counts are typically high during this time.

Opt for dusting surfaces with a damp cloth so particles are absorbed and can be properly disposed of.

Keep mould away

Those living in humid conditions should keep their home mould-free with the help of a dehumidifier.

It can prevent damp and mould from settling.
