

New Miss SA crowned

Klerksdorp Midweek, Klerksdorp - An ecstatic Natasha Joubert was crowned Miss South Africa 2023 at the spectacular pageant finale held at the sunbet Arena at Time Square in Pretoria on Sunday night August 14.

Joubert (26) is a bcom Marketing Management graduate and is the owner and fashion designer of Natalia Jefferys, a company she started when she was 19. Runner-up was Johannesburg's Bryoni Govender who was also the Mother-kind fitness award winner.

An emotional and overwhelmed Joubert said she was truly humbled and grateful to win the title and to be the first to wear the glittering new Mowana ("Tree of Life") crown from Nungu Diamonds.

Natasha is no stranger on the Miss SA stage after ending second runner-up in the pageant three years ago. As a child she participated in beauty pageants and is a former Miss Randespark and Miss Sprankel Junior that were organised by Overvaal Stereo's Ignaz Streicher.

She received R1 million in cash in a prize and sponsorship package that includes the use of a serviced apartment at the lavish Brookfield at Royal in Kensington - developed by Tricolt - for the year of her reign. She will also get to drive a Mercedes-Benz GLC as well as go on a trip to Paris sponsored by L'Oreal.

In her acceptance speech Joubert, a firm favourite among the crowd watching the pageant, said: "I am incredibly honoured and humbled to be crowned Miss South Africa 2023. As I step into this new role, I am filled with a sense of responsibility to make a positive difference in the world around me. I believe that success is not just about personal accomplishments, but about the opportunities we have to give back and uplift those around us. I will strive to be a source of inspiration and support for others, just as I have been supported on my journey now and before.

"This moment is the epitome of a full circle moment for me. A dream that started 11 years ago - and which three years ago did come to fruition after proudly representing my country on an international stage at Miss Universe at Miss Universe South Africa - has today become a reality. It took a lot of hard work, grit, self-confidence and support to keep my dream alive and to keep on believing in the beauty of second chances. It is a journey that I will forever be grateful for which moulded and shaped me into the woman I am today.

"I pledge to use this platform to advocate for the causes close to my heart and to be a source of inspiration for others. Entrepreneurship lies at the heart of innovation and economic growth. It is the driving force that propels nations forward, creating jobs, nurturing creativity, and fostering a spirit of resilience. I will also commit to cultivating an environment where entrepreneurial spirits can thrive. It pains me to know that more than half of South Africa's youth lack the financial means to pursue their dreams. I was fortunate to receive a bursary that enabled me to continue my education, and I have been proactive in giving back. Not waiting for a crown on my head, I've been working to make a difference," she revealed.

The winner of the special Crown Chaser of the season award, as voted for by the public, was Lungo Katete.

SHE IS ALWAYS ON THE RUN

BECAUSE SHE OWNS A FITNESS STUDIO

She is a fitness fanatic with a passion for people. Suzanne de Jongh, the owner of Body20 Rockville Square in Klerksdorp, can change your life with the revolutionary EMS fitness training she offers - "Body 20". Working in the banking industry for 30 years as an area manager in North West and Pretoria, Suzanne always believed a healthy body houses a healthy mind. She developed an interest in Body20 a few years ago when spotting the franchise owner, Bertus Albertse on Kwêla, whilst talking about Body20. Very skeptical at first and when transferred to Pretoria, she grabbed the opportunity to go for a demo session at Body20 Brooklyn, Pretoria. She was hooked and immediately signed up for a membership. Only 2 x 20 minute sessions per week yielded unexpected results.

As a member of Body20, she just fell in love with everything the franchise was about, exclusivity, individual attention, the look and feel and especially, the feeling of "family". Body20 was just in a class of its own for Suzanne and something she was not familiar with in the commercialized fitness industry.

After relocating back to Klerksdorp, she just had to introduce the community to the "new revolution in the fitness industry". Body20 Rockville Square officially opened its doors on August 1, 2022 and after one year is almost on full capacity.

Suzanne's strong work ethic and her experience in coaching/training, sales and marketing are at the forefront of her success. Apart from the banking industry, Suzanne has always been involved in the fitness industry, and inspiring and helping people to be the best version of themselves.

She holds a Bachelor's degree in Management & Leadership from the University of the Free State and is also a qualified EMS personal trainer/coach. In her tenure in the banking industry she also wrote and published a Sales Toolkit, and personally trained all Senior & Middle management leadership in South Africa. Suzanne completed numerous studies on nutrition and living a well-balanced lifestyle and can give expert advice from her own experience.

In the time since opening Body20 Rockville Square many people's lives have been changed for the better, and Suzanne and the team hope to change many more lives in the future. She mentions that Body20 offers a specialized service, a service that is member orientated, an all in one fitness and wellness boutique. It is unique and in a class of its own and she urges people, especially the critics, to book a complimentary demo session.

August is Body20's, 10th birthday month and there are memberships up for grabs at 2013 membership rates, so book your demo now. This offer is only available for a limited period, so, to avoid disappointment, send, book my Birthday special Demo to 082 692 6232.

plans to take part in the race in Groot Marico.

Since 2002 the race was organized by the Rustenburg Rotary Club – and they donated all proceeds to charity in the Marico. This year the Rotarians act only in an advisory role, giving the community of Groot Marico the opportunity to go forward with the event – and indeed all is in place for yet another successful and very enjoyable race.

The new distances are 65km, 45km, 25 km and a fun ride of 5 km.

E-bikers will compete in their own category.

Entries can be done on www.entrtytime.com and Santa van Bart will answer enquiries on 083 272 2958.

Food will be in the real Marico style - cooked on open fires with moer coffee – the family will also enjoy the music and stalls.

The Marico Mountain Bike Race prides itself for not only being an excellent challenge, but also for the lasting effect of the spirit and hospitality that the cyclists receive.
